Sports Agent Responsibility and Trust Act (SPARTA)

The Georgia Tech Athletic Association and the NCAA supports the Sports Agent Responsibility and Trust Act (SPARTA) as an additional tool to combat the improper and illegal conduct of player-agents. A violation of this act is deemed an unfair or deceptive practice prescribed under section 18(a)(1)(B) of the Federal Trade Commission Act. Under SPARTA, a state Attorney General or a college and university can bring a civil cause of action to recover any damages caused by a prohibited activity.

Within 72 hours after entering into this contract or before the next athletic event in which you are eligible to participate, whichever occurs first, both you and the agent by whom you are agreeing to be represented must notify the athletic director of the educational institution at which you are enrolled, or other individual responsible for athletic programs at such educational institution, that you have entered into an agency contract."
