Head Coach Tonya Johnson

Fourth Season LSU, 1993

After three campaigns at Georgia Tech, Johnson has amassed an overall record of 54-40 (.574). In 2011, she aided Monique Mead to her third consecutive All-American Honorable Mention accolade, as well as COBRA Magazine

All-National honors.

In addition, Johnson was named a co-head coach of the 2012 U.S. Volleyball National A2 team. The squad competed in the A2 Championships and earned the silver medal.

In 2010, Tech finished 18-14 and 11-9 in the ACC. Four more players earned all-conference honors, while senior Mary Ashley Tippins and Mead earned honorable mention All-American accolades. In addition, Mead was named to the U.S. Volleyball Women's National A2 Program roster for the second straight season.

Johnson immediately won over Georgia Tech fans as the Jackets topped rival Georgia in a five-set thriller in her first career match as a head coach in 2009. Later in the season, the Yellow Jackets handed ACC champion and NCAA national seed Florida State its only conference loss of the season. The win was Tech's first on the road against a ranked team since 2003. The Yellow Jackets finished in the top of the ACC in nearly every statistical category including second in assists, third in kills and fourth in hitting percentage. Defensively, Tech allowed the second-fewest kills, assists and digs in the league.

Furthermore in her inaugural campaign, Johnson led the Yellow Jackets to a 21-10 record and their first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2004. Under Johnson, the Jackets finished third in the ACC after being picked eighth in the preseason poll with a 15-5 conference record. Johnson coached two AVCA honorable mention All-Americans, the ACC Freshman of the Year and three All-ACC picks.

The Zachary, La. native was named the seventh head volleyball coach in Georgia Tech history on January 9, 2009. She was an assistant coach under Jerritt Elliott at Texas for five years before being promoted to associate head coach in 2008. She helped guide the Longhorns to the 2008 NCAA Final Four following back-to-back Regional Final appearances in 2006 and 2007.

An excellent recruiter on the national level, Johnson helped Elliott land the nation's second-ranked recruiting classes in three consecutive seasons (2006-08). Texas' 2009 recruiting class was also expected to be among the country's best, with the signing of the nation's top- and fifth-ranked prep players. A Longhorn has earned the Big 12's Conference Freshman of the Year honor each of Johnson's last three seasons there, one of whom was also named the National Freshman of the Year.

In addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator, Johnson worked with the Longhorns' outside hitters, three of whom received All-America accolades over her three seasons at Texas. Juliann Faucette, the National Freshman of the Year in 2007, was tabbed a first-team AVCA All-American in 2007 after receiving first team Big 12 honors as a freshman. Ashley Engle, a right-side hitter that earned Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors in 2006, was named a first-team AVCA All-American in 2008 after being tabbed to the AVCA All-America second team in 2006, and Olympian Destinee Hooker received first-team AVCA All-America honors in 2008 after earning second-team accolades in 2007 and honorable mention recognition in 2006.

Prior to her arrival at Texas in 2003, Johnson served as the top volleyball assistant at LSU from 1998-2003 under Fran Flory, where she was responsible for the majority of the Tigers' recruiting efforts. Johnson began her collegiate coaching career as an assistant under Flory at Kentucky in 1995.

Johnson was a four-year letterwinner at LSU from 1987-90, helping the Tigers to Southeastern Conference titles in 1989 and 1990. She led her Tiger team to the NCAA Final Four her senior year after LSU advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1989. Prior to joining the collegiate coaching ranks, Johnson taught at Wellington Landings Middle School in Boca Raton, Fla., while serving as an assistant coach at Olympic Heights High School and coaching the Florida Gold Coast club team.

Assistant Coach Craig Bere

Fourth Season Morehead State, 1995

Craig Bere is now in his fourth season as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech.

The 2011 Tech team finished 15-16 and 8-7 in ACC play. Bere helped Monique Mead to her third consecutive All-American Honorable Mention accolade, as well as COBRA Magazine All-National honors.

Tech finished the 2010 season 18-14 and 11-9 in the ACC. Four more players earned all-conference honors, while senior Mary Ashley Tippins and Mead earned honorable mention All-American accolades. In addition, Mead was named to the U.S. Volleyball Women's National A2 Program roster for the second straight season.

In his first season in Atlanta, the Yellow Jackets compiled a 21-10 record and earned their first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2004. The Jackets finished third in the ACC after being picked eighth in the preseason poll with a 15-5 conference record. Bere coached two AVCA honorable mention All-Americans, the ACC Freshman of the Year and three All-ACC picks.

Prior to arriving at Georgia Tech, Bere spent two seasons on the Louisville staff following a successful stint as an assistant at LSU from 2004-2006. He was a part of an NCAA Tournament team in both seasons at Louisville and his first season at Georgia Tech. In his final season at Louisville, the Cardinals received an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament by capturing the 2008 BIG EAST title, one year after finishing as the runner-up in the 2007 BIG EAST Tournament.

Prior to his appointment at Louisville, Bere was responsible for game strategy, recruiting and practice planning for three years under LSU head coach Fran Flory. He helped guide the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 following a 13-year hiatus, while LSU captured a share of its first Southeastern Conference Western Division title in school history the same season. The following year, LSU repeated as SEC Western Division champions and made a return trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Under his tutelage, setters Daniela Romero and Heather Fierce both ranked in the top 10 in the league in assists per game, while LSU posted the fourth-best hitting percentage in the SEC in 2005.

Bere returned to Division I volleyball at LSU following a successful stint as the head coach at Southern Indiana, where he posted a 47-17 record in two seasons. He guided the Screaming Eagles to their first bid in the NCAA Division II Tournament after capturing the Great Lakes Valley Conference tournament crown in 2002, and came within three points of a repeat GLVC title and tournament berth the following season. His .734 winning percentage at Southern Indiana still ranks as the third-best winning percentage in the school's history.

Southern Indiana setter Kim Boehmer became the first Screaming Eagle to receive All-America honors when she was named to the honorable mention squad in Bere's first season at USI. She also received first-team All-GLVC honors in 2002 and 2003, while Kristi Kavanaugh earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors under Bere.

Bere began his coaching career at Morehead State, where he served as a student assistant in 1993 before being promoted to full-time assistant coach for the 1994 season. While on staff with the Eagles, Morehead State captured the 1993 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament title and finished as the runner-up in the regular season OVC race in 1994. The Eagles also returned to the title match of the 1995 OVC Tournament, taking runner-up honors.

Following his tenure at Morehead State, Bere joined the Mississippi State staff, where he served as an assistant coach from 1997-2001. There he was responsible for coordinating the Bulldog defense while working closely with Mississippi State's outside hitters. Bere also headed up the team's recruiting efforts while performing additional administrative duties off the court.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Bere attended Morehead State, where he was a three-year letterwinner on the Eagle football team and a six-year member of the men's volleyball club team. Bere earned his degree in Health from Morehead State in 1995 and went on to receive his Masters in Health, Physical Education and Recreation in 1997.

A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Bere has served as a camp instructor in summer volleyball camps in Alabama, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana and Michigan. He is married to the former Shannon Krebs, and the couple has one son, Blake.

Assistant Coach Ed Tolentino

Fourth Season Detroit Mercy, 1997

Ed Tolentino is now in his fourth season as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech. The 2011 Tech team finished 15-16 and 8-7 in ACC play. Bere helped Monique Mead to her third consecutive All-American Honorable Mention accolade, as well as COBRA Magazine All-National honors.

In 2010, Tech finished 18-14 and 11-9 in the ACC. Four more players earned all-conference honors, while senior Mary Ashley Tippins and sophomore Monique Mead earned honorable mention All-American accolades. In addition, Mead was named to the U.S. Volleyball Women's National A2 Program roster for the second straight season.

In his first season in Atlanta, the Yellow Jackets compiled a 21-10 record and earned their first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2004. The Jackets finished third in the ACC after being picked eighth in the preseason poll with a 15-5 conference record. Tolentino coached two AVCA honorable mention All-Americans, the ACC Freshman of the Year and three All-ACC picks.

Prior to arriving at Georgia Tech, Tolentino spent three seasons as an assistant volleyball coach at Madonna University in Livonia, Mich., where he helped guide the Crusaders to three Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference tournament and regular season titles, as well as a trio of NAIA National Championship appearances. Under his tutelage, three Crusaders earned WHAC Player of the Year honors, one was named the WHAC Libero of the Year and another received WHAC Freshman of the Year accolades. He also coached the runner-up for the 2007 NAIA National Libero of the Year award in addition to six All-America and 14 All-WHAC honorees. Madonna University posted a 108-27 overall record and went 37-3 in conference matches during his three-year stint, while finishing all three seasons ranked among the top-25 in the nation, including a final ranking of No. 10 in 2008.

Before working at Madonna, Tolentino served as an interim assistant volleyball coach at the University of Michigan in 2005, where he assisted in player development and recruiting while coordinating scouting reports.

Tolentino joined the staff of Premier Volleyball and M-Junior Volleyball in January, 2005, serving as head tier trainer for Premier for four years and director of M-Juniors for the last three.

Before joining the staff at Premier Volleyball, Tolentino was an assistant coach at Michigan State University, where he assisted with all aspects of the program, including coordinating travel and scouting reports while assisting in development and recruiting.

His stint in East Lansing came after spending two seasons as an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan, where he helped guide the Eagles to a pair of MAC Tournament appearances and a 27-7 record in 2002.

After spending two years (1997-98) as an assistant coach at Oakland University, Tolentino was promoted to head coach - a position he held for three seasons before joining the Eastern Michigan volleyball staff.

Tolentino began his coaching career at Bishop Foley High School in Madison Heights, Mich., where he served as the head varsity volleyball coach from 1994-96. He was a brief member of the Cranbrook Kingswood volleyball staff in early 1997 before earning his first collegiate coaching role at Oakland later the same year.

Between his assistant and head coaching positions at Oakland, Tolentino spent 10 months as a certified athletic trainer with the Detroit Tigers' Gulf Coast League team. He is currently a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) and National Athletic Trainers Association (NATA).

Tolentino began his college career as a setter and defensive specialist at Macomb College before transferring to the University of Detroit Mercy, where he earned his degree in sports medicine in 1997.
