JUST SAY "GEORGIA TECH"

Just five institutions that play NCAA Division I-A football do not use the word "University" in their official titles. They are: Air Force, Army, Navy, Boston College and Georgia Tech.

The Georgia Institute of Technology is the official title, but Georgia Tech will work fine, or just Tech.

O'Keefe Gymnasium

O'Keefe Gymnasium, home of the Yellow Jacket volleyball team since 1995, is one of the premier volleyball facilities in the Southeast. The site of 16 Georgia Tech matches including four TV matches in 2013, O'Keefe Gym is known for its rowdy atmosphere, excellent sight lines and loud acoustics.

Over the years, O'Keefe Gym has served multiple purposes. Originially utilized as the gymnasium for O'Keefe High School in the 1950's, the gym was given to Georgia Tech in the 1960's and served as the location for many club sports for the Institute.

Since 1995, the gym has undergone various renovation projects, including the addition of a new floor, which was installed following the 2003 season, and a new locker room, which was added prior to the 2006 season.

O'Keefe Gymnasium underwent a nearly $1 million dollar renovation in 2006, which included adding new home and visitors locker rooms, a coaches' lounge, training room, players' lounge and student-athlete study area to the facility. The Yellow Jackets' new lounge and locker room area is complete with leather couches, big-screen televisions, work stations, a pool table and serves as a location for team meetings before and after matches and practices.

O'Keefe Gymnasium

POINT TECH!

It symbolizes the unmatched atmosphere and unparalleled excitement that engulfs O'Keefe Gymnasium during Georgia Tech volleyball matches.

The rowdy crowds, which have consistently ranked in the top 50 nationally, follow each volley intently, rise to their feet and yell "POINT TECH" each time the Yellow Jackets score.

Head Coach Tonya Johnson

Fifth Season LSU, 1993

After four campaigns at Georgia Tech, Johnson has amassed an overall record of 73-52 (.584). She guided a veteran 2012 squad with five seniors to an 11-2 record through the first 13 matches for the best start in her tenure, including winning the first five matches for the first time in her four years at Tech.

Johnson coached senior Monique Mead to her first AVCA third team All-American honor. Under Johnson's wing, Mead and fellow senior Bailey Hunter signed contracts to play professional volleyball following their time at Tech. Mead signed with Las Gigantes in Puerto Rico and Hunter signed to play with Doprastav Bratislava in Bratislava, Slovakia.

In 2011, she aided Monique Mead to her third consecutive All-American Honorable Mention accolade, as well as COBRA Magazine All-National honors.

In addition, Johnson was named the co-head coachof the 2012 U.S. Volleyball National A2 team. The squad competed in the A2 Championships and earned the silver medal.

In 2010, Tech finished 18-14 and 11-9 in the ACC. Four more players earned all-conference honors, while senior Mary Ashley Tippins and Mead earned honorable mention All-American accolades. In addition, Mead was named to the U.S. Volleyball Women's National A2 Program roster for the second straight season.

Johnson immediately won over Georgia Tech fans as the Jackets topped rival Georgia in a five-set thriller in her first career match as a head coach in 2009. Later in the season, the Yellow Jackets handed ACC champion and NCAA national seed Florida State its only conference loss of the season. The win was Tech's first on the road against a ranked team since 2003. The Yellow Jackets finished in the top of the ACC in nearly every statistical category including second in assists, third in kills and fourth in hitting percentage. Defensively, Tech allowed the second-fewest kills, assists and digs in the league.

Furthermore in her inaugural campaign, Johnson led the Yellow Jackets to a 21-10 record and their first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2004. Under Johnson, the Jackets finished third in the ACC after being picked eighth in the preseason poll with a 15-5 conference record. Johnson coached two AVCA honorable mention All-Americans, the ACC Freshman of the Year and three All-ACC picks.

The Zachary, La. native was named the seventh head volleyball coach in Georgia Tech history on January 9, 2009. She was an assistant coach under Jerritt Elliott at Texas for five years before being promoted to associate head coach in 2008. She helped guide the Longhorns to the 2008 NCAA Final Four following backto-back Regional Final appearances in 2006 and 2007.

An excellent recruiter on the national level, Johnson helped Elliott land the nation's second-ranked recruiting classes in three consecutive seasons (2006-08). Texas' 2009 recruiting class was also expected to be among the country's best, with the signing of the nation's top- and fifth-ranked prep players. A Longhorn has earned the Big 12's Conference Freshman of the Year honor each of Johnson's last three seasons there, one of whom was also named the National Freshman of the Year.

In addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator, Johnson worked with the Longhorns' outside hitters, three of whom received All-America accolades over her last three seasons at Texas. Juliann Faucette, the National Freshman of the Year in 2007, was tabbed a first-team AVCA All-American in 2007 after receiving first team Big 12 honors as a freshman. Ashley Engle, a right-side hitter that earned Big 12 Freshman of the Year honors in 2006, was named a first-team AVCA All-American in 2008 after being tabbed to the AVCA All-America second team in 2006, and Olympian Destinee Hooker received first-team AVCA All-America honors in 2008 after earning second-team accolades in 2007 and honorable mention recognition in 2006.

Prior to her arrival at Texas in 2003, Johnson served as the top volleyball assistant at LSU from 1998-2003 under Fran Flory, where she was responsible for the majority of the Tigers' recruiting efforts. Johnson began her collegiate coaching career as an assistant under Flory at Kentucky in 1995.

Johnson was a four-year letterwinner at LSU from 1987-90, helping the Tigers to Southeastern Conference titles in 1989 and 1990. She led her Tiger team to the NCAA Final Four her senior year after LSU advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 in 1989. Prior to joining the collegiate coaching ranks, Johnson taught at Wellington Landings Middle School in Boca Raton, Fla., while serving as an assistant coach at Olympic Heights High School and coaching the Florida Gold Coast club team.

Assistant Coach Craig Bere

Fifth Season Morehead State, 1995

Craig Bere is now in his fifth season as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech. He helped guide a 2012 squad to a 19-12 overall record and a 10-10 markin conference action. Bere assistedsenior Monique Mead to her first AVCA third team All-American honor. Mead and teammate Bailey Hunter signed professional contracts after their senior campaigns. Mead signed with Las Gigantes in Puerto Rico and Hunter signed to play with Doprastav Bratislava in Bratislava, Slovakia.

The 2011 Tech team finished 15-16 and 8-7 in ACC play. Bere helped Monique Mead to her third consecutive All-American Honorable Mention accolade, as well as COBRA Magazine All-National honors.

Tech finished the 2010 season 18-14 and 11-9 in the ACC. Four more players earned all-conference honors, while senior Mary Ashley Tippins and Mead earned honorable mention All-American accolades. In addition, Mead was named to the U.S. Volleyball Women's National A2 Program roster for the second straight season.

In his first season in Atlanta, the Yellow Jackets compiled a 21-10 record and earned their first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 2004. The Jackets finished third in the ACC after being picked eighth in the preseason poll with a 15-5 conference record. Bere coached two AVCA honorable mention All-Americans, the ACC Freshman of the Year and three All-ACC picks.

In 2010, Tech finished 18-14 and 11-9 in the ACC. Four more players earned all-conference honors, while senior Mary Ashley Tippins and sophomore Monique Mead earned honorable mention All-American accolades. In addition, Mead was named to the U.S. Volleyball Women's National A2 Program roster for the second straight season.

Prior to arriving at Georgia Tech, Bere spent two seasons on the Louisville staff following a successful stint as an assistant at LSU from 2004-2006. He has been a part of an NCAA Tournament team each of the last five years, including both seasons at Louisville and his first season at Georgia Tech. In his final season at Louisville, the Cardinals received an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament by capturing the 2008 BIG EAST title, one year after finishing as the runner-up in the 2007 BIG EAST Tournament.

Prior to his appointment at Louisville, Bere was responsible for game strategy, recruiting and practice planning for three years under LSU head coach Fran Flory. He helped guide the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 following a 13-year hiatus, while LSU captured a share of its first Southeastern Conference Western Division title in school history the same season. The following year, LSU repeated as SEC Western Division champions and made a return trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Under his tutelage, setters Daniela Romero and Heather Fierce both ranked in the top 10 in the league in assists per game, while LSU posted the fourth-best hitting percentage in the SEC in 2005.

Bere returned to Division I volleyball at LSU following a successful stint as the head coach at Southern Indiana, where he posted a 47-17 record in two seasons. He guided the Screaming Eagles to their first bid in the NCAA Division II Tournament after capturing the Great Lakes Valley Conference tournament crown in 2002, and came within three points of a repeat GLVC title and tournament berth the following season. His .734 winning percentage at Southern Indiana still ranks as the third-best winning percentage in the school's history.

Southern Indiana setter Kim Boehmer became the first Screaming Eagle to receive All-America honors when she was named to the honorable mention squad in Bere's first season at USI. She also received first-team All-GLVC honors in 2002 and 2003, while Kristi Kavanaugh earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America honors under Bere.

Bere began his coaching career at Morehead State, where he served as a student assistant in 1993 before being promoted to full-time assistant coach for the 1994 season. While on staff with the Eagles, Morehead State captured the 1993 Ohio Valley Conference Tournament title and finished as the runner-up in the regular season OVC race in 1994. The Eagles also returned to the title match of the 1995 OVC Tournament, taking runner-up honors.

Following his tenure at Morehead State, Bere joined the Mississippi State staff, where he served as an assistant coach from 1997-2001. There he was responsible for coordinating the Bulldog defense while working closely with Mississippi State's outside hitters. Bere also headed up the team's recruiting efforts while performing additional administrative duties off the court.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, Bere attended Morehead State, where he was a three-year letterwinner on the Eagle football team and a six-year member of the men's volleyball club team, which led him to a career in college coaching. Bere earned his degree in Health from Morehead State in 1995 and went on to receive his Masters in Health, Physical Education and Recreation in 1997.

A member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Bere has served as a camp instructor in summer volleyball camps in Alabama, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana and Michigan. He is married to the former Shannon Krebs, and the couple has one son, Blake.

Assistant Coach Chuck Crawford

First Season Miami (Ohio), 2001

Chuck Crawford, who spent the last two seasons at Miami (Ohio), has been named assistant volleyball coach announced by head coach Tonya Johnson Monday. He will serve as the recruiting coordinator, director of camps and assist with training and player development.

"Chuck will be a great addition to our staff," Johnson said."His familiarity with our program, having served as our volunteer in 2009 and the ACC, will prove invaluable. We're excited to have him and I know that he will be a great asset to our program."

This will mark Crawford's second stint with the Yellow Jackets as he served as a volunteer assistant coach on Johnson's first staff at Tech in 2009, helping the team to the NCAA Tournament after a five-year absence. He will replace former assistant coach Ed Tolentino.

In between his stretches with Georgia Tech, Crawford served most recently as assistant volleyball coach for two seasons at his alma mater Miami (Ohio), where he primarily worked with the hitters and oversaw all recruiting aspects.

In his two seasons with the 'Hawks, Crawford trained three first-team All-MAC selections, one CoSIDA Academic All-American and one CoSIDA All-Region member.

Before joining the RedHawks, Crawford spent a year and a half as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Jacksonville University. At JU, Crawford coordinated all recruiting along with team training, scouting, fundraising and practice planning. He helped middle blocker Alyssa Robertson earn Atlantic Sun All-Freshman team honors, outside hitter Aidan Yager earn a spot on the All-Atlantic Sun first team and recruited the 2012 Atlantic Sun freshman player of the year in Sammie Strausbaugh.

He is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, having served on their national Assistant Coaches Committee, as well as United States Volleyball and the Southern Region Volleyball Association.

The Middletown, Ohio native taught health, physical education and special education for nearly 10 years for Fulton and Forsyth Counties (2001-09) and coached the Centennial High School team (2001-04) and the North Forsyth High School team (2006-09) during that time.

Crawford is a Miami (Ohio) graduate, earning his Bachelor of Science degree in health and physical education in 2001. He was a four-year member of the RedHawks' club volleyball team (1998-2001).

Crawford and his wife Lori reside in Roswell, Ga., and have three children: Carson, Drew and Ty. An avid rock and mountain climber, Crawford was featured in the Weather Channel TV series Epic Conditions climbing the nose of El Cap (3,300 feet) in Yosemite. He has also summited 14,400-foot Mount Rainer in Washington State and spent three years riding bulls in the Professional Rodeo Cowboy Association (PRCA).

Volunteer Asst. Coach Brian Kues

Third Season Ohio State, 2010

Brian Kues, a four-year letterwinner as a libero/serving specialist at The Ohio State University enters his third season as a volunteer assistant coach at Georgia Tech.

Kues helped lead the Buckeyes to three NCAA men's volleyball Final Four's, four MIVA regular season championships and three MIVA tournament titles. He graduated from OSU in June, 2010 Summa cum Laude with a bachelor's degree in Industrial and Systems Engineering. Kues is currently pursuing a PhD in Industrial Engineering at Georgia Tech with a specialization in Economic Decision Analysis.

Kues was a four-time MIVA and Big-Ten All-Academic recipient as well as a two-time Big Ten Distinguished Scholar. He was on the Engineering Dean's List 12 different quarters and was a Ralph G. and Doris A. Woodley Scholar twice.

The 2009 Yellow Jackets huddle up during the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Baylor.

Lynnette Moster, Jayme Gergen and Lindsey Laband helped the Yellow Jackets punch their ticket to the 2004 NCAA Tournament with a 16-0 regular season record in the ACC.

Jayme Gergen (right) celebrates the Yellow Jackets' 3-0 win over Florida A&M in the 2003 NCAA Tournament, which sent Tech to the NCAA Sweet 16 - and Hawai'i - for the first time in history.

Lynnette Moster holds the top mark in kills at Tech.

Kerry Annel posted 560 total blocks from 1992-95, a mark that still stands atop the Tech career list today.

Kele Eveland holds the record for career assists at Georgia Tech. She was also the second All-American in school history and the only Tech player to be named to the AVCA All-America first team.

Maja Pachale owns the career record for kills per game.
