After earning its first NCAA regional bid since 2011, Georgia Tech placed 17th-ranked Columbia for its opening-round match in the NCAA Oxford Regional and fell to the Lions, 4-1, after winning the doubles point. The Yellow Jackets finished the season with a 14-13 overall record after finishing the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season 4-8 (10th place).

Eubanks in NCAA Singles Championship

Christopher Eubanks, named to the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team this spring, received an at-large bid to the NCAA Singles Championship, the first Georgia Tech freshman to earn a berth since All-American Guillermo Gomez in 2008.

Eubanks, No. 47 in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association rankings, defeated a familiar foe in the opening round, 31st-ranked Nathan Pasha of Georgia, by a 7-5, 6-3 score. He fell by a 6-2, 6-0 score to Southern California's Yannick Hanfmann, a top-16 seed ranked No. 15 in the ITA rankings, in the round of 32.

The former Westlake High School star, who made the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team as a freshman, finished his first season on the Flats with a 25-21 overall singles record, including an 11-9 mark in tournament play. He played at the top of the Yellow Jackets' lineup in dual matches all spring, posting a 14-12 record as the No. 1 or 2 player in the order. He defeated six nationally-ranked players, including five among the nation's top 40 in the ITA rankings.

Among his singles victories were No. 37 Andreas Bjerrhus of Virginia Tech in the ACC Tournament, No. 5 Seb Stiefelmeyer of Louisville, No. 11 Austin Smith, and No. 69 Amerigo Contini of Virginia Tech during the regular season. He twice defeated Georgia's Nathan Pasha, once in January when the UGA senior was ranked 15th in the nation, and the second time in the opening round of the NCAA Championship.

Team Update

Georgia Tech (14-13, 4-8 ACC), No. 44 in the final ITA rankings, finished the regular season in 10th place in the Atlantic Coast Conference after knocking off 8th-ranked Duke in the regular season finale. But the Yellow Jackets advanced to the semifinals of the ACC Championship, defeating No. 35 Notre Dame, 4-0, in the opening round, then upending No. 14 Virginia Tech, 4-3, in the quarterfinals. No. 11 Wake Forest eliminated Tech, 4-0, in the semifinals.

The Yellow Jackets lost a number of close matches in the non-conference schedule, including 4-3 decisions to No. 4 Georgia, No. 38 Auburn and No. 56 Tennessee. Tech won three of its first four Atlantic Coast Conference matches, but then lost seven in a row, including another 4-3 verdict to No. 23 Louisville, before recovering to upset 8th-ranked Duke in the regular season finale.

Tech took that momentum into the ACC Championship, where the Jackets defeated No. 35 Notre Dame and No. 14 Virginia Tech in succession before bowing out against No. 11 Wake Forest.

Tech's NCAA History

In Georgia Tech's last NCAA Tournament appearance in 2011, the Yellow Jackets hosted a regional advanced to the round of 16 by defeating Middle Tennessee State and Mississippi State. Tech then lost to No. 2 seed Southern California in Stanford, Calif. ... That is the only time Tech has made it out of a regional in the current format of the championship ... Tech has made the NCAA Championship field for the 11th time under head coach Kenny Thorne and the 15th time in program history ... The Jackets' deepest run in the NAAs came in 1994, when Tech won three matches before being eliminated ... Tech is 9-15 all-time in NCAA Championship competition.

Singles Update

Freshman Christopher Eubanks (Atlanta, Ga.), who played at the top of Tech's lineup in its last 18 matches, was ranked 47th in the final ITA singles rankings and received a bid to the NCAA Singles Championship. The All-ACC freshman had three wins over opponents ranked in the top 20 and was 7-11 at the top spot, 14-12 in dual matches overall.

Sophomore Carlos Benito (Madrid, Spain), who was 18-8 this spring, played every spot in the lineup except No. 1, and had a 5-6 mark at the No. 2 position, where he played the last 10 matches. His victory over 59th-ranked Raphael Hemmeler was the deciding point in Tech's victory 4-3 victory over Duke in the Jackets' regular-season finale, and he also earned the fourth point of a 4-3 win against No. 14 Virginia Tech with his win over 64th-ranked Amerigo Contini in the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament.

Junior Nathan Rakitt (Marietta, Ga.), freshman Michael Kay (Alpharetta, Ga.), sophomore Cole Fiegel (Alachua, Fla.) and senior Eduardo Segura (Madrid, Spain) played 3-through-6 in the lineup in Tech's last five matches. Fiegel had a strong spring with a 17-9 dual match record, while Segura was 14-9 in dual matches and a team-best 29-14 in singles for the year. In victories over Duke, Notre Dame and Virginia Tech, Segura was the first to finish and earn a point for Tech in singles.

Doubles Update

Tech won the doubles point in 15 of 27 matches last spring, and did so in each of its victories over Duke, Notre Dame and Virginia Tech. Benito and Segura, No. 59 in the ITA doubles rankings, moved back into the top spot against Duke and won their matches in each of those contests. They were 12-5 at that position this spring. Eubanks and Kay played No. 1 the previous two weekends for the Jackets, but moved back the No. 2 spot for the last five matches, where they are 8-5. Rakitt and Fiegel were 7-3 at No. 3.

Eubanks Makes BB&amp;T Atlanta Open

Georgia Tech's Christopher Eubanks and Atlanta's Donald Young made quite an impression on tennis fans with their run to the BB&T Atlanta Open semifinals in doubles in August, and it took the world's No. 1-ranked team to end it in the semifinals.

The American duo and brother combination of Bob and Mike Bryan defeated Eubanks and Young, 6-2, 6-4, in the opening match of Saturday's session and advanced to the Sunday afternoon finals. The Bryans won 87 percent of their service points and never faced a break point in the match.

"They make you hit a lot of tough shots. That's why they are No. 1 in the world," said Eubanks, who won all three of his service games in the second set.

"It was great. It's great to have four Americans on the court with these two young guys and a couple of veterans like us," said Mike Bryan.

The 19-year-old Eubanks had the experience of a lifetime this week, having received a wild card berth into both the singles and doubles draws of his first ATP World Tour event. He lost his opening singles match in straight sets, but teamed with the 26-year-old Young to defeat Mate Pavic and Michael Venus in the opening round of doubles, and Austin Krajicek and Nicholas Monroe in the quarterfinals.

The rising sophomore now looks ahead to his second year with the Yellow Jackets, who begin their fall season in mid-September at the Southern Intercollegiate Championships in Athens, Ga.

Kay in U.S. Open National Playoffs

After getting through the first week of fall semester classes with his Georgia Tech men's tennis teammates, sophomore Michael Kay will fly to New England this weekend to take a shot at playing in the U.S. Open.

Kay finished as the runner-up in his U.S. Open sectional qualifying tournament back in June, but got a bid to participate in the U.S. Open National Playoffs in New Haven, Conn., as an alternate.

Kay enjoyed a strong summer of tennis which included reaching the finals of the U.S. Open National Playoffs Southern Qualifying tournament and the Atlanta City Open. He made the doubles finals of the ITA National Collegiate Summer Championships with Trey Yates of Dunwoody, Ga. (freshman at Kentucky), and also won two matches and reached the fourth round of the singles draw.

He also went 23-21 in singles for Georgia Tech last year as a freshman.

Fiegel Wins ITA Summer Event

Cole Fiegel captured the singles title at the ITA Summer Circuit event in Tallahassee, Fla., in early July.

The sophomore from Alachua, Fla., won the championship after defeating Florida State's Grayson Goldin, the tournament's No. 2 seed, 6-4, 3-6, 1-0 (10-6) in the finals.

Fiegel, who was seeded sixth, never lost a set until the finals. After an opening-round bye, Fiegel downed FSU's Dylan McCormick, 6-1, 6-0 in the round of 32. He then got by Brett Landau of UNC Asheville, 7-5, 6-4, before dispatching top-seeded Terrance Whitehurst of Florida State, 7-5, 7-6 in the quarterfinals. He reached the finals after defeating Florida's Josh Wardell, whom Fiegel beat, 6-1, in the opening set before Wardell retired.

Fiegel was Tech's top winner in singles last year, posting a 20-14 overall singles record and a 12-6 mark in dual matches. He was 6-5 in Atlantic Coast Conference matches.

KEN BYERS TENNIS COMPLEX

A lot of history was made in the Bill Moore Tennis Center. Some of the greatest players in Georgia Tech history took to those courts and improved their games to the point they could reach the pro tour.

Current Georgia Tech men's tennis head coach Kenny Thorne is one of those. He played AND coached there in his four decorated years on the Flats (1985-89).

In January of 2013, Thorne witnessed the opening of the Ken Byers Tennis Complex, as the women's tennis team opened the facility with a match against Syracuse and men's team opened a day later against Old Dominion. In a way, it was deja vu for Thorne, who was a freshman the year the Moore Center opened.

"It's just a very unique thing. It's an honor to be coaching here at this time, and it's an honor for all of our student-athletes to have opened a new facility," said the 1989 graduate and 1995 Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame inductee. "That doesn't happen too often in any sport. It's very exciting."

Women's head coach Rodney Harmon, whose team played the first matches on the brand new six-court facility, who was beginning his first season on the Flats, has been around the sport long enough to know something special when he sees it. He's seen it with the Byers Complex.

Ground was broken for the facility on June 15, 2012 and was made possible by a generous gift from alumnus Ken Byers (class of '66) and his wife, Trish.

"It's going to be beautiful and it's going to help both our men's and women's programs stay a factor with the other schools, in our very, very tough conference," said Harmon, who has been in tennis player development for more than 25 years and, as a pro, reached the quarterfinals at the 1982 U.S. Open. "It has a great feeling, which I think will help us set up a home-court advantage because a lot of our fans tend to be very vocal and really support our team."

As advantageous to the team is the amount of space. Off the court, Byers has bigger locker rooms, a lounge, a training facility and more office space for the coaching staffs. The number of available courts for play inside doubled from three to six.

"I think it's going to be big for us," Harmon said. "It allows us to compete year-round, and when the weather gets inclement, both teams have a place to play. We've always had to play outside, and it can get pretty cold sometimes. Now we're going to be able to play indoors and really get prepared for the indoor season, which starts in February."

The doubling of the court space was a key factor in building the new complex.

"You need space and you need quality space and if that means new or renovations then so be it," said former associate athletic director Paul Griffin. "Now, we have an efficient way of running our indoor matches, and because of the weather you wind up playing almost half of your matches indoors be it for wet or for cold."

Thorne and Harmon agree that the opening of the Byers Complex signals the start of big things ahead. Thorne compares the anticipation of the facility's opening to the buzz surrounding the opening of McCamish Pavilion and expects Tech tennis fans to be as energized as basketball fans.

"It's such a big change and ours is a total change," said Thorne. "It's a whole brand-new complex. There are some really exciting things happening. So hopefully it's going to draw a lot more people out. They come see the facility as well as some great tennis."

Harmon expects the facility to also draw some big-name recruits.

"It's going to give us an opportunity to recruit top-level athletes because now a lot of the top schools have new facilities around the country, whether it's Alabama or Florida State or South Carolina, Texas is getting a new facility built," he said. "So now we have a new facility. It's something that to our recruits that makes us a lot stronger."

The Byers Complex, built on the same footprint where the Moore Center stood, is light years ahead of its predecessor and was overdue as far as keeping Tech's programs current. The ingenuity in building a facility that could fit so much more into the same space as its predecessor made this project design uniquely Tech.

The former three-court indoor tennis facility was replaced with a state-of-the-art six-court indoor facility. The new steel indoor facility is located next to Tenth Street, just behind the magnolias. It features an entrance lobby, men's and women's coaches offices, men's and women's locker rooms and a team lounge. The indoor facility retains the Bill Moore name and provides seating a little more than 200 spectators.

The outdoor part of the complex consists of six competition courts on the south end of the site and four practice courts located between the indoor facility and the competition courts. A landscaped courtyard area was added between the practice courts and Fowler Street. Outdoor seating, situated between the Griffin Track and the competition courts, provides a view of both competition on the track and action on the tennis courts and includes plenty of space for wheelchair seating. Additionally, an East-West Connector provides a lighted walkway for pedestrians along the track-side of the site to facilitate movement between the North Campus Parking Deck and the McCamish Pavilion.

"Thirty years is a long time," said Griffin. "It's not a matter of different inclusions. It's a matter of improved space. It's a tight footprint. The real estate didn't change, so we had to make some compromises on that and one of the other things was to relocate the indoor facility to the 10th street side of the real estate because it will serve as a buffer from the noise and street from 10th street for the outdoor courts that wasn't there before. So there are a lot of those kinds of features that are now a benefit for the program."

"It has a bunch of other features that are assets to the Institute and to athletics in other ways than just tennis," he added. "There's a seating area for track, a pathway from the parking lot to McCamish Pavilion (Tech's basketball arena across Fowler Street), a parking lot on Atlantic to McCamish, improved sidewalks and streetscapes. So it's a very comprehensive project."

For the school, it's the latest improvement to the campus' Fowler Street entrance, which also includes Mewborn Softball Field and the Brock Indoor Football Facility.

That exciting plan will continue to evolve in years to come. The tennis teams are thrilled to be part of it and are eager to do their part to stir up excitement around campus as they begin spring play.

"It is a tremendous commitment," said Harmon. "That whole side of campus, with the new basketball arena, with the tennis facility, with the track and the indoor football complex and baseball and softball, it's now a great corner of campus."

HEAD COACH KENNY THORNE

KENNY THORNE

GEORGIA TECH, 1988
18TH YEAR AT TECH
11 NCAA TOURNAMENTS
210-187 RECORD

Kenny Thorne recorded one of the most successful tennis careers by a player from the state of Georgia, winning seven pro titles and defeating four of the world's top-10 players in the 1990's. Some of Thorne's notable victories include wins over Richard Krajicek, Wayne Ferreira, Mark Philippoussis and Todd Martin. As a pro, he achieved his highest singles ranking of No. 121 and a doubles ranking of No. 67. Thorne brings his love of tennis and impressive professional playing experience to his alma mater, Georgia Tech.

Charged with building the Georgia Tech tennis program back to the level it was when he was a player, Thorne was named to the newly-created position of Director of Tennis on June 30, 1998, becoming the ninth head coach in Tech men's tennis history.

Thorne took over the reins of the Tech program after spending one season as the team's assistant coach and wasted little time in taking steps toward his ultimate goal of turning the Yellow Jackets into a contender.

The Yellow Jackets have reached the NCAA Championship 10 times in his 16 years at the helm. After a two-year absence, the 2010 and 2011 teams reached the second and third rounds of the tournament, respectively, finished fourth in the Atlantic Coast Conference (15-7 record), and posted a combined 39-14 dual match record.

Over the last three years, Thorne has developed the best doubles player in Tech history, Juan Spir, who advanced to the NCAA Doubles Championship semifinals in 2012 and quarterfinals in 2013 with different partners. Spir and Kevin King, Spir's doubles partner for 75 of his Tech-record 103 victories, have played in the NCAA Singles Championship as well, and are now up-and-coming players in the professional ranks.

Under Thorne's guidance, Tech had at least one ITA All-American every year from 2009-13, and has had at least one All-Atlantic Coast Conference honoree each year since 2008.

Tech's 2011 team finished the year ranked 13th in the nation and reached the round of 16 at the NCAA Championship, both high-water marks for Tech tennis under Thorne. Tech's 21 wins in 2011 were the most for the Jackets under Thorne and the second most in the history of the program.

As a result, the Tech alum was named the ITA National Coach of the Year, becoming only the fourth Georgia Tech head coach ever to receive such an honor.

Thorne built those Tech squads around four-time All-ACC honoree Guillermo Gomez, who was named the ACC Player of the Year in 2011 and earned ITA All-American honors three times, and broke Thorne's record for career singles victories. He also recruited another pair of ITA All-Americans in Kevin King and Juan Spir, who formed one of the top 10 doubles teams nationally and developed into top-of-the-lineup players in singles, both earning NCAA bids in 2012.

The 2007 squad overcame some major adversity to earn its eighth NCAA Tournament bid in nine seasons. Thorne's team finished the season with 4-7 conference record including upsetting then No. 10 Florida State and No. 20 Clemson in back-to-back matches during the season. He also guided David North to his first NCAA Singles Championships, becoming the 44th individual in school history to play in the tournament.

In 2006, the Georgia Tech men's tennis team once again earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament under Thorne and reached the second round for third time. The team finished over .500 for the sixth consecutive season with a 12-10 record. In 2005, Tech had a doubles team compete in the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1994 and also had an individual compete in the NCAA Singles Championship. Tech would also receive an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament, where it fell to Vanderbilt in the first round by a score of 4-3. Jose Muguruza advanced to the Round of 32 while the doubles team of North and Rajevac, who earned an at-large bid into the tournament, advanced to the quarterfinals and earned All-American honors. North and Rajevac become the fourth players that Thorne has coached to earn All-American accolades.

During the 2004 season, Tech reached the NCAA Tournament and had an individual compete in the NCAA Singles Championship. After opening the dual-match season with a 5-0 record, the Yellow Jackets fell to three ranked opponents, but then regrouped to win five consecutive matches, including wins against Minnesota and Oregon and conference foes Wake Forest and Clemson. After dropping tough matches to Virginia and Georgia, Tech finished out the regular season winning five of six matches, including a 5-2 win over Florida State and a 4-3 come from behind match at South Carolina.

During the 2003 campaign, Georgia Tech earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament and climbed into the 14th spot in the national rankings midway through the year. The Jackets also boasted their first All-America honorees since 1988, as the doubles team of Roger Anderson and Scott Schnugg earned the honor after finishing the year as the country's 10th-ranked tandem. The duo also earned All-ACC honors after winning the league's Flight One Doubles title. Tech finished with a 12-10 record and notched seven wins over ranked opponents, including a 4-2 victory over ninth-ranked Texas on February 16.

In 2002, Tech defeated eight ranked teams and reached the finals of the ACC Championship, en route to a 15-11 dual-match record, while also reaching the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years under Thorne. In the ACC Tournament, the Jackets upset top-seeded and 14th-ranked Duke in the semifinals by a 4-0 score and ended the Blue Devils four-year reign as ACC Champions. On an individual level, Roger Anderson earned All-ACC honors for the second time and earned his first berth in the NCAA Individual Championship, becoming the first Tech player to do so since 1999.

During the 2000-01 season, Thorne made great strides toward achieving his goal. When the Yellow Jackets climbed to No. 20 in the national rankings on April 11, they claimed their highest ranking since 1988, when Thorne was an All-American and team captain.

Thorne led the 2001 Yellow Jackets to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Roger Anderson earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors and three Tech players earned ACC Flight championships in singles or doubles.

Under Thorne's guidance in 2000, Anderson became the first Tech player to earn ACC Rookie of the Year honors after leading the Yellow Jackets with a 24-8 singles record, including a 15-5 mark in dual matches.

In his first year as head coach in 1999, Thorne earned ACC Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Yellow Jackets to a second-place tie in the regular-season conference standings, a runner-up finish at the ACC Tournament, an NCAA Regional berth and a final national ranking of 32 by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA).

Senior Benjamin Cassaigne was named the ACC Player of the Year, earned all-conference honors and captured the ACC Flight Championship at No. 1 singles under Thorne's guidance. Fellow senior Matt Cozad was also named all-ACC and won the ACC Flight Championship at No. 2 singles. Cozad and sophomore Sergio Aguirre also won the ACC Flight title at No. 3 doubles.

With Tech's 1999 NCAA Regional berth, Thorne became the first person in ACC history and just the second nationally, joining LSU's Jeff Brown, to lead the same school to post-season competition as a player, assistant coach and head coach since the current NCAA team dual-match format was instituted in 1977. (Prior to 1977, team finishes were determined by an accumulation of points based on individual play.) Thorne helped Tech to NCAA play as a senior in 1988, as an assistant coach in 1998 and as head coach in 1999.

Thorne earned an Industrial Engineering degree from Tech in 1989 and during his four seasons as a player from 1985-88, the Jackets posted a 70-38 dual-match record and a 20-7 ACC mark, including wins over nationally-ranked foes such as Georgia and Clemson in 1988, his final season. Tech climbed as high as 10th in the ITA national rankings during Thorne's senior season before the Jackets ended the year ranked 12th nationally.

He qualified for the NCAA singles tournament in 1986 and 1988 and advanced to the second round on both occasions. Thorne also competed in the 1988 NCAA doubles tourney with partner Bryan Shelton. After turning professional in 1989, Thorne spent eight years on the tour, achieving his highest singles ranking of 121 and doubles ranking of 67 in the world. He was also a six-time participant at Wimbledon, the U.S. Open, French Open and Australian Open.

Thorne's best career wins were over 1996 Wimbledon champion Richard Krajicek, ATP No. 11 Wayne Ferreira, Australia's Mark Philippoussis and Todd Martin of the United States. He posted two career ATP doubles titles, one career Challenger singles title and four career Challenger doubles titles.

An All-American in 1988, Thorne finished his Georgia Tech playing career as a four-time All-ACC honoree and the career leader in singles victories with 112. He was also a two-time captain and an Academic All-ACC honoree. Thorne was inducted into the Georgia Tech Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995.

Thorne married former Yellow Jacket cross country standout and Tech Hall of Fame inductee, Bridget Koster, in 1990. The couple has two daughters, Rachel and Kenedy, and two sons, Zachary and Daniel. Rachel is a distance runner on the Tech track team.

COACHING STAFF

DEREK SCHWANDT

ASSISTANT COACH
RICHMOND, 2005
4TH YEAR AT TECH

An assistant coach for the men's tennis program at Fresno State three years, Derek Schwandt joined the Georgia Tech men's tennis program in July of 2012.

In his first two years at Tech, he has helped the Yellow Jackets secure recruiting classes ranked among the top 15 in the nation according to the Tennis Recruiting Network. Tech's 2013 class was ranked 11th, and the 2014 incoming class was ranked 14th.

In addition, Schwandt has been recognized for his efforts at Tech by being named to the coaching staff for the USTA Collegiate National Team for the summer of 2014. In his two years at Fresno State, Schwandt helped the Bulldogs win two straight Western Athletic Conference regular season and tournament championships and rise to No. 14 in the Intercollegiate Tennis Association rankings last year.

In his first year at Tech, he has helped the Yellow Jackets secure the nation's 11th-ranked recruiting class, according to the Tennis Recruiting Network.

"It's an honor to have the opportunity to work with Kenny Thorne at one of the best universities and athletic programs in the country," said Schwandt. "This is something that I've been working towards, and a lot of people have helped me get to this point in my coaching career. I'm very excited about our team's potential at Georgia Tech, and I'm looking forward to training hard and competing in the ACC and NCAA."

Tech's new assistant coach was heavily involved in all aspects of the Fresno State program, from coaching to recruiting, travel, budgeting, conditioning and directing ITA events. The Bulldogs' team grade-point average exceeded 3.3 during each of his two years, and five members of the team made the All-WAC Academic team.

"Derek is one of the hardest workers I have been around, which fits in well with our expectations for staff and team," said Thorne. "He brings a great deal of knowledge and experience from his two years coaching at UVA and two years at Fresno State. He has also worked at the Philadelphia USTA regional training center with some great coaches. He did a great job recruiting at Fresno State, so he will be instrumental in bringing in the best student-athletes that are champions on and off the court. Most importantly, Derek is a person with great integrity. Our program stands for and demands integrity on and off court. Derek represents Georgia Tech well in all areas."

Last season, the Bulldogs defeated No. 9 Stanford for the first time in program history, catapulting the team to No. 14 in the country. After winning a second consecutive WAC Tournament title, the Bulldogs went to their second straight NCAA Tournament and fell to No. 27 San Diego in the first round.

Under Schwandt's leadership, Remi Boutillier and Francis Alcantara received bids to play in the NCAA Singles and Doubles Championships in 2012. There, No. 27 Boutillier advanced to the second round while No. 43 Alcantara fell in the first round. As a doubles team, they fell to Georgia Tech's Kevin King and Juan Spir in the first round.

In 2011, he helped lead the Bulldogs to their first WAC Tournament title since 1999 and a No. 37 national team ranking. In the 2011 NCAA Tournament, Fresno State defeated No. 19 Minnesota in the first round before falling 4-3 to No. 14 Cal.

From 2008-2010, Schwandt was the volunteer assistant coach for top ranked Virginia. There, he received full-time experience in running practice sessions, coaching in dual-matches, recruiting,

BRAD HORTON

VOLUNTEER COACH
BAYLOR, 1996
4TH YEAR AT TECH

Brad Horton is in his fourth year as the volunteer assistant Coach at Georgia Tech. He has played a key role in character development and teaching leadership skills to the team. In addition to on-court coaching, he meets with players individually and organizes team building exercises.

A native of Raleigh, N.C., Horton brings a strong work ethic and tireless positive energy to the team.

"In order for our program to develop excellence and integrity on and off the court, we need to have that atmosphere around the program and especially in our coaching staff," says Kenny Thorne. "Brad's life and passions reflect everything we stand for in our tennis program at Georgia Tech. We are excited to have him working with our student athletes on and off the court."

Horton grew up playing junior tennis in North Carolina and trained for six years under former N.C. State head coach J. W. Isenhour. He helped lead Broughton High School to 2 NCHSAA 4A State Championships in 1990 and 1992.

"I appreciate Kenny for giving me the opportunity to be a part of the program," says Horton. "It's a privilege to work with the players and to learn from one of the most experienced coaches in college tennis. The new Ken Byers Tennis Complex has created one of the greatest environments for a college dual match, and enjoy working with Kenny and Derek to develop Georgia Tech tennis into one of the nation's top programs."

He was a member of the Baylor University football team as a placekicker and graduated in 1996 with a Bachelor of Science in Education in Health and Human Performance.

Horton earned a Master of Divinity in Pastoral Leadership at Columbia International University in Columbia, S.C. in 2001. Since 2003, Brad has served as North Point Ministries' Director of College Ministry and leads The Living Room out of Buckhead Church- a weekly gathering of Atlanta-area university students for community, worship, and practical teaching.

Brad and his wife, Jade, live in West Midtown.

administration and directing ITA fall tournaments.

During Schwandt's time at UVA, the Cavaliers won the 2009 and 2010 ITA national team indoor championship, the 2009 and 2010 ACC championship and the 2009 and 2010 NCAA doubles title. They also reached the quarterfinals of the NCAA Championship in 2009, and the semi-finals in 2010. He coached under Brian Boland, the 2008 ITA National Coach of the Year, and Tony Bresky, the 2005 ITA National Assistant Coach of the Year.

From 2005 to 2008, Schwandt played ITF futures and ATP challengers all over the world, including tournaments in South America, Mexico, Canada, Central America and India. He earned an ATP world ranking in singles and doubles. His best win was over Marcus Fugate (500 ATP) 6-7, 7-6, 7-6 in the 2008 Binghamton challenger.

Schwandt completed his master's degree in sport psychology, with a 4.0 grade-point average, at Fresno State in May of 2012. His book review on John Wooden was published in the June 2012 issue of The Sport Psychologist, and he also submitted a manuscript entitled "Teaching Mental Toughness" that is currently under review by the Journal of Coaching Education.

Schwandt graduated from the University of Richmond in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in business administration, concentrating in economics. At Richmond, he was part of three Atlantic 10 conference championships (2002, 2004, 2005) and three NCAA team tournament appearances. He was named to the All-Atlantic 10 team in 2004 and 2005.

ADMINISTRATION

DR. G.P. "BUD" PETERSON

PRESIDENT

G.P. "Bud" Peterson was appointed as the 11th president of Georgia Tech on April 1, 2009. Prior to his appointment, he served as chancellor at the University of Colorado at Boulder (2006-2009), provost at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, New York (2000-2006), and program director at the National Science Foundation for the Thermal Transport and Thermal Processing Program (1993-1994). He has held various positions at Texas A&M University, beginning in 1981 as an assistant professor of engineering technology and Halliburton Professor of Mechanical Engineering (1990), the College of Engineering's Tenneco Professor, head of the Department of Mechanical Engineering (1993-1996), executive associate dean of engineering (1996-2000), and associate vice chancellor for engineering for the Texas A&M University System (1996-2000). Prior to his service at Texas A&M, he was a visiting research scientist at NASA-Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas (1981-1982), associate professor and head of the General Engineering Technology Department at Kansas Technical Institute in Salina, Kan. (1979-1981), and taught mathematics, physics and chemistry at Shawnee Mission South High School in Overland Park, Kan. (1978-1979), and Wabaunsee County High School in Alma, Kan. (1977-1978).

Throughout his career, Peterson has played an active role in helping to establish the national education and research agendas, serving on numerous industry, government, and academic task forces and committees. He has served as a member of a number of congressional task forces, research councils, and advisory boards, including the Office of Naval Research (ONR), the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), the Department of Energy (DOE), the National Research Council (NRC), and the National Academy of Engineering (NAE). In addition, he has served as a member of the Board of Directors and vice president for education for the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA) and is currently serving as a member of the National Science Board (NSB), co-chair of the Government Relations Committee of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU), as a member of the U.S. Council on Competitiveness, and was recently appointed by Secretary Gary Locke as a member of the National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship (NACIE).

As chancellor of the University of Colorado, Peterson led the development of a new university wide strategic plan, Flagship 2030, which defined a vision for the university for the next 20 years. In his nearly three years as chancellor, freshman applications increased by 35 percent, the number of under-represented minorities in the freshmen class increased by 38 percent, sponsored research increased by more than 18 percent, and private philanthropy for the university increased by nearly 80 percent.

As provost at Rensselaer, he played a key role in the institutional transformation and the dramatic improvement in the quality, size, and diversity of the faculty – overseeing the hiring of nearly 40 percent of the faculty, increasing the total number of tenured and tenure-track faculty by 20 percent, and improving the diversity of the tenured/tenure-track faculty by more than doubling the number of under-represented minorities and increasing the number of women by 40 percent. In addition, during his tenure as provost, the quality, size, and diversity of the student body increased, with the number of full-time PhD students increasing by 25%.

Peterson's research interests have focused on the fundamental aspects of phase change heat transfer, including the heat transfer in reduced gravity environments, boiling from enhanced surfaces, and some of the earliest work in the area of flow and phase change heat transfer in microchannels. Early investigations focused on applications involving the thermal control of manned and unmanned spacecraft and progressed through applications of phase change heat transfer to the thermal control of electronic components and devices. More recently, investigations have included fundamental applications of phase change heat transfer to the field of biotechnology, including the insitu treatment of cancerous tissue using hypo and hyperthermia to arrest epileptic seizures through the rapid cooling of localized brain tissue, which required highly efficient heat dissipation devices capable of dissipating thermal energy to surrounding tissue.

A Fellow of both the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, Peterson is the author or co-author of 14 books or book chapters, 180 refereed journal articles, more than 150 conference publications, and holds eight patents with two others pending. He is a member of several professional organizations and the recipient of numerous national and international honors and awards for both teaching and research.

MIKE BOBINSKI

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Mike Bobinski, who has successfully directed athletic departments at Akron and Xavier for a combined 20 years and has worked as a collegiate athletics administrator for more than 30 years, was named Director of Athletics at the Georgia Institute of Technology on Jan. 16, 2013.

Bobinski oversees an athletic department that includes 17 NCAA Division I varsity sports and is rich with athletic tradition and success.

Just the eighth Georgia Tech director of athletics over the past 110 years, Bobinski joins the likes of John Heisman, William Alexander, Bobby Dodd and Homer Rice who have served in the role previously.

Bobinski, whose tenure officially began April 1, 2013, served as chair of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee for the 2012-13 season. That successful role concluded with the 2013 Final Four, which coincidentally was held in Atlanta.

Bobinski came to Georgia Tech after serving 12 years as director of athletics at Cincinnati's Xavier University, where he also served as associate vice president. He was hired as the Musketeers' director of athletics in 1998 and remained in the role until 2004, when he was named associate vice president for development and oversaw all of the university's fundraising efforts, including major gifts, grant services and annual and planned giving. He returned as athletic director in 2006.

At Xavier, Bobinski headed an athletic program that strived to excel in the classroom as well as on the playing fields and courts. In 2012, Xavier ranked 11th nationally in Division I Graduation Success Rates at 97 percent. In June of 2012, the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics named Bobinski the Under Armour Division I Northeast Athletic Director of the Year.

During his tenure, nine Xavier teams earned 40 team or individual spots in NCAA championship competition. That includes men's basketball, which reached at least the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in four of the last six years. In the same time span, 25 Xavier teams captured Atlantic 10 Conference championships.

In men's basketball, Xavier averaged 25 wins over Bobinski's 12 years. The Musketeers advanced to the Elite Eight in 2004 and 2008. In addition, men's basketball extended its streak to 88 straight seniors that graduated. Women's basketball made runs to the NCAA Elite Eight in 2001 and in 2010 and in 2011 achieved its highest national ranking in program history at No. 4.

In 2009, Bobinski hired Chris Mack as men's basketball head coach. He also hired Thad Matta as head men's basketball coach in 2001 and Sean Miller as Xavier's first associate head coach. Matta is now head coach at Ohio State and Miller has since taken over as head coach at Arizona. Bobinski also hired former women's basketball coach Kevin McGuff, who spent nine years at Xavier. He also oversaw the opening of The Cintas Center.

Prior to joining Xavier, Bobinski served as the University of Akron's athletic director from 1994 to 1998. From 1989 to 1994, he was the associate director of athletics at the U.S. Naval Academy. Prior to that, Bobinski served as the associate and assistant business manager at the University of Notre Dame from 1984 to 1989.

As a licensed certified public accountant, he first went into accounting with Deloitte, Haskins and Sell and Arthur Young & Company from 1979-82. He also worked for the Walt Disney Company in Orlando from 1982-84 before moving into college athletics at UND in 1984.

Bobinski was hired at Georgia Tech following a three-month, nationwide search. A seven-member committee led by Stephen P. Zelnak Jr. advised Peterson and identified candidates. Bobinski took over for Dan Radakovich, who resigned in November 2012.

A native of Yaphank on Long Island, N.Y., Bobinski received his bachelor of business administration from Notre Dame in 1979, graduating magna cum laude, while playing four years for the Fighting Irish baseball team.

Bobinski has two children, Melissa, a 2009 Xavier graduate, and Brian, a 2012 Ohio State graduate.

REGINALD DESROCHES

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Reginald DesRoches, the Karen and John Huff School Chair, and Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering at the Georgia Institute of Technology, is in his first year as the Faculty Athletics Representative for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association. DesRoches took over as FAR on July 1, 2014, after Professor Sue Ann Bidstrup stepped down following a five-year stint as FAR.

His primary research interests are design of buildings and critical infrastructure under earthquake loads, and seismic risk assessment. He has a particular interest in mitigating the impacts of earthquakes in the Caribbean and Western Africa. He has published over 250 articles in the general area of earthquake engineering and seismic risk assessment and has given over 100 presentations in 30 different countries.

Dr. DesRoches has served as a key technical leader in the US response to the Haiti earthquake, and has traveled to Haiti numerous times since the earthquake. He was a member of an early response team which traveled to Haiti immediately following the earthquake to conduct critical building safety assessments for the United Nations. He later led a team of 28 engineers, architects, city planners, and social scientists to study the impact of the earthquake. This visit resulted in a series of recommendations on the recovery and rebuilding of Haiti, and was the foundation for the Earthquake Spectra special issue on the Haiti earthquake, which consisted of a compilation of research papers on the lessons learned from the Haiti earthquake.

Dr. DesRoches has been called on for expert testimony following recent earthquake events by CNN, CNN International, LiveScience, National Geographic, Asia Times online and other news media. He has participated in numerous congressional briefings in the United States to underscore the critical role that University research must play in addressing the country's infrastructure crisis and resilience to natural hazards.

Dr. DesRoches has served as Chair of the ASCE Seismic Effects Committee (2006-2010), Chair of the executive committee of the Technical Council on Lifeline Earthquake Engineering (2010), and Board of the Earthquake Engineering Research Institute (EERI). He is currently a member of the executive committee of the National Academy of Sciences Roundtable on Risk, Resilience, and Extreme Events, and is on the advisory board for the Natural Disasters, Coastal Infrastructure and Emergency Management Research Center (DIEM). Dr. DesRoches has received numerous awards, including the Presidential Early Career Award for Scientists and Engineers (PECASE) in 2002. The PECASE award is the highest honor bestowed upon scientists and engineers in the early stages of their careers. Most recently, he was a recipient of the 2007 ASCE Walter L. Huber Civil Engineering Research Prize, the Georgia Tech Outstanding Doctoral Thesis Advisor Award (2010), and the Georgia Tech ANAK Award (2008). The ANAK award is considered the highest honor the undergraduate student body can bestow on a Georgia Tech faculty.

Dr. DesRoches earned his bachelor's of science in mechanical engineering, master's of science in civil engineering, and PhD in structural engineering — all at the University of California, Berkeley. He was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, and grew up in Queens, N.Y.
