11-24-99 • Sullivan Arena • Anchorage, Alaska

Jason Collier poured in 27 points and grabbed a career-high 14 rebounds to lead Georgia Tech (2-0) to a 100-88 victory over Grambling State in the first round of the Great Alaska Shootout.

Collier connected on eight of nine shots from the field and 11 of 12 from the free throw line. All five Tech starters scored in double figures as Shaun Fein tallied 19 points, Alvin Jones contributed 14, Jason Floyd had 13 and Tony Akins had 10 points and seven assists, while T.J. Vines added nine points off the bench.

Tech scored the game's first 14 points on the way to a 44-30 halftime lead. The Jackets maintained a double digit lead throughout the second half, building an 85-57 lead with 5:34 to play. That sent Tech's starters to the bench, and Grambling suddenly caught fire, aided by a flurry of Tech turnovers, and managed to pull within 89-81 with a minute left. The Jackets sealed the win by hitting nine of 10 free throws in the final 31 seconds.

The Jackets hit 10 three pointers, including four by Fein and three by Jason Floyd, and Tech outrebounded the Tigers, 46-29, but committed 20 turnovers. Chris Thomas led Grambling State with 21 points, while point guard Alfred Parker had 14 points and 12 assists.

KANSAS 84, GEORGIA TECH 70

11-27-99 • Sullivan Arena • Anchorage, Alaska

Freshman Drew Gooden scored 20 points as 10th-ranked Kansas neutralized Georgia Tech's big men in a 84-70 victory in the final of the Great Alaska Shootout. Coming off the bench, Gooden had 20 points and 11 rebounds and was named tournament MVP, while the rest of the Jayhawks' reserves combined for 42 points.

Leading 43-33 at the half, KU coach Roy Williams went to his bench just two minutes later and the lead soon was 23. Midway through the half, Georgia Tech made its only real run, with Tony Akins scoring 10 straight points. With the lead down to 71-59, Kansas' Jeff Boschee hit a three-pointer to stem the Jackets' momentum. Tech then whittled the lead to 12, but again Boschee hit a three-pointer to end the comeback hopes. Tech hit only 23-of-60 (38.3 percent) from the field and 25-of-41 (61 percent) at the foul line. Kansas got 15 points from Kenny Gregory, including 11 in the second half, and Luke Axtell finished with 11. Akins had 13 in the second half to finish with 17 for Georgia Tech. Collier added 13 and Jones 11.

MICHIGAN 80, GEORGIA TECH 77

12-1-99 • ACC-Big Ten Challenge
Philips Arena • Atlanta, Ga.

Freshman Gavin Groninger scored all 18 of his points on three-pointers, including a key basket with 1:20 remaining, and Michigan held off Georgia Tech, 80-77, in the ACC-Big Ten Challenge at Philips Arena, the first college game in Atlanta's new facility.

The Yellow Jackets, who trailed by 16 midway through the second half, had a couple of chances to tie in the final six seconds, but Alvin Jones was called for a foul while trying to set a pick and Tony Akins slipped down while scrambling for a three-pointer at the buzzer.

Michigan, starting three freshmen and a sophomore, took control late in the first half, building a 48-38 lead at the break, and pushed the margin to 70-54 on Chris Young's follow with 10:22 remaining. Tech began pressing, taking advantage of Michigan's inexperience and foul trouble. They finally got within a basket when Jon Babul hit a three-pointer with 1:35 left to cut the deficit to 76-73, but Groninger worked behind a double screen to hit sixth trey of the night, pushing the margin back to 79-73. Michigan missed its last three free throws to give the Jackets a chance at the end, but they failed to get off a shot on their last two possessions.

Freshman LaVell Blanchard had 18 points and 13 rebounds for the Wolverines. Tech, which hit only 23-of-60 (38.3 percent) from the field and 25-of-41 (61 percent) at the foul line, was led by Akins, who had 19 points, and Jones, who added 17 points and 16 rebounds before fouling out.

GEORGIA 70, GEORGIA TECH 68

12-8-99 • Stegeman Coliseum • Athens, Ga.

The officials sided with Georgia this time, counting a basket by Shon Coleman with 1.9 seconds left to give the Bulldogs a thrilling 70-68 victory over Georgia Tech. Eleven days after a controversial call in the Yellow Jackets football victory over Georgia, the men in stripes figured in game between the state rivals.

Georgia Tech trailed throughout the game until Jason Collier finished a barrage of three-pointers, hitting from outside the arc with 37.7 seconds remaining to even the score at 68. Georgia set up for a final shot, working the ball inside to Anthony Evans, whose first attempt was blocked by Jon Babul. Evans got his own rebound and put up another shot that missed. Coleman quickly grabbed the loose ball and flipped it through the hoop.

But the officials waived off the basket, apparently thinking the 35-second shot clock had run out before the shot left Coleman's hands. Since the controversy involved a timing play, the officials were at a look at a replay of the sequence. For more than six minutes, the officials asked the television crew to rewind the play over and over. Finally, when convinced that 2.9 seconds were left when the Coleman got the ball away, the officials ruled that Coleman got the shot away 0.2 seconds before the shot clock ran out.

Tech had one last chance, throwing a length-of-the-court pass to Shaun Fein, whose desperation three-pointer failed to hit iron.

Collier scored 26 points for the Yellow Jackets, who shot only 38 percent (27-of-71) and trailed by as many as 13 points in the second half. Tech got back in the game by hitting four straight three-pointers but still trailed 66-58 when D.A. Layne hit a couple of free throws for the Bulldogs. But T.J. Vines hit a trey with 1:21 left and Collier's final three evened the score for the first time since it was 0-0. Overall, Tech hit 10-of-34 outside the arc.

Layne scored 19 points to lead Georgia. Evans added 16, while Coleman and Adrian Jones had 13 apiece.

Tech, which has not won in Athens since 1976, failed to duplicate its stirring comeback a year earlier, when the Jackets rallied from 15 points down in the final 10 minutes to beat Georgia 84-79 in overtime.

STANFORD 64, GEORGIA TECH 61 (OT)

Mike McDonald hit a pair of free throws with 32 seconds left to break a tie and give unbeaten No. 3 Stanford a 64-61 overtime victory over Georgia Tech in the Delta Air Lines Classic at Philips Arena. Tech's Tony Akins, who hit a three-point basket with one second remaining in regulation to force the overtime, had a chance to tie the game with six seconds left in OT, but his driving layup rimmed out.

Stanford's David Moseley had given the Yellow Jackets a life in regulation, making only 1-of-2 free throws for a 57-54 lead with seven seconds left before Akins canned his three-pointer to tie it. Moseley, who had 13 points, made up for that miss in overtime, hitting a basket and two free throws with 1:29 left to give Stanford a 61-59 lead before Tech tied it on a free throw by Alvin Jones with 1:20 left and another by Jon Babul with 35.8 seconds left.

Casey Jacobsen came off the bench to lead Stanford with 15 points. Jarron Collins added 11, 10 in the second half, and twin brother Jason Collins had 10. Akins added 16 points for Tech, Jason Floyd had 11 and Alvin Jones 10.

Tech, which fell behind 10-2 in the opening minutes, led 24-23 at halftime on a jumper by Akins 11 seconds before intermission. Collier, held scoreless for nearly 15 minutes, scored seven straight to give the Yellow Jackets the lead at 18-16 with 4:54 left before halftime.

Stanford played without senior forward Mark Madsen, who averaged 13 points and 9 rebounds last year, but injured his hamstring in Stanford's opening game victory against Duke.

GEORGIA TECH 81, MOREHEAD STATE 75

12-18-99 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Jason Floyd, Jason Collier and Tony Akins each hit a pair of free throws in the final 43.9 seconds as Georgia Tech avoided Morehead State's upset bid with an 81-75 win.

After Shaun Fein hit a 15-foot baseline jumper for a 73-58 lead with 5:17 remaining, Tech failed to score another field goal. Morehead State closed within two points twice inside the final minute, but following Greg Hendricks layup with 31.6 seconds to play, the Eagles missed their last two shots. The Jackets allowed Morehead State to score 13 unanswered points after the Eagles' Jeremy Webb's inside jump shot with 4:10 to play.

Collier led Tech with 18 points, and Fein finished with 17 by going 5-for-7 on three-point attempts.

Tech, which outrebounded Morehead State 37-21, took its first 20-point lead at the 5:25 mark of the first half on T.J. Vines' fastbreak layup. In the second half, the Jackets took three leads of 22 points—the final coming at 63-41 on a roll-in basket by freshman Clarence Moore.

Morehead was led by Brad Cleaver, who had 26 points. Brett Bohanon scored 14 points off the bench.

GEORGIA TECH 80, WOFFORD 70

12-22-99 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Jason Collier scored 22 points and four other Georgia Tech starters scored in double figures as the Yellow Jackets struggled to hold off Wofford 80-70.

The Yellow Jackets never led by more than five points in the second half until T.J. Vines' layup put them up 70-63 with 2:54 remaining. Collier set up the basket by blocking Ian Chadwick's inside shot, and Tony Akins picked up the loose ball and threw it ahead to Vines, who was alone on Tech's end.

Chadwick led Wofford with 26 points, but the Atlanta native scored only one field goal in the second half, a fadeaway three-pointer with 1:35 to play that cut Tech's lead to 72-68.

Losing their third game in five days, the Terriers finished 11-for-19 from the free throw line. The Jackets, who were 25-for-34, hit their last 10, all coming with under 3:29 to play.

Akins, who finished with 11 points, was 9-for-10 from the foul line, including six straight in the final 50 seconds. Jason Floyd scored 13 for Tech. Shaun Fein and Alvin Jones added 11 points each.

Wofford went up 53-50 on Starzee Walker's three-pointer with 11:46 remaining, but the Terriers never led again. After a three-point play by Walker at the 7:43 mark, the Terriers scored only one field goal until Walker scored again with 2:09 to play to trim the Jackets' advantage 70-65.

Chadwick scored 18 points in the first half, hitting his fourth three-pointer from the top of the key to cut Tech's lead to 32-30 with two minutes remaining.

RGIA TECH 97, UNC GREENSBORO 73

12-28-99 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Jason Collier scored a season-high 29 points and Alvin Jones added 19 to lead Georgia Tech to a 97-73 win over North Carolina-Greensboro Tuesday night.

The Yellow Jackets never allowed Greensboro to trim their lead under 11 points following Jason Floyd's three-pointer at the 4:44 mark of the first half. The Jackets, whose margin of victory was their largest of the season, then went on an 11-0 run that ended with Collier making a pair of free throws for a 51-29 lead with 1:20 left before intermission.

Tech built a 51-34 halftime lead by hitting 10 of 16 attempts from beyond the three-point arc, with Floyd going 5-for-5.

Collier was 8-for-10 from the field in the second half, and during a 3:23 stretch, he scored 10 of Tech's 12 points as the Jackets increased their lead to 83-59. The 7-foot senior finished with a team-high nine rebounds. Jones' 19 points were a season-high for the 6-foot-11 center.

Tech made all nine of its free throw attempts, while Greensboro did not take a foul shot in the first 20 minutes.

GEORGIA TECH 75, LAFAYETTE 64

1-2-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Georgia Tech's Shaun Fein finished with 24 points, going 6-for-9 from the three-point range, in a 75-64 victory over Lafayette.

Ahead by 23 points at intermission, the Jackets missed their first six shots of the second half and were shooting 18 percent when coach Bobby Cremins called a timeout with 8:33 left and Tech ahead 55-43.

Lafayette closed the gap to 62-56 on a putback basket by Stefan Ciosici with 2:59 remaining, but the Leopards never drew any closer after Fein, a transfer from Stonehill (Mass.) College, hit a three-pointer at the 1:46 mark.

Tech shot just 24 percent in the final half but hit 14 of 16 free throws. Lafayette was led by junior Tyson Whitfield's 21 points and 17 by Ciosici, but leading scorer Brian Ehlers was held to nine points.

KENTUCKY 80, GEORGIA TECH 71

1-5-00 • Freedom Hall • Louisville, Ky.

Tayshaun Prince had 21 points and 10 rebounds to lead No. 25 Kentucky to an 80-71 victory over Georgia Tech.

The Wildcats led most of the way in a home-away-from-home game at Louisville's Freedom Hall, but never quite shook Georgia Tech. The Yellow Jackets rallied from nine points down in the first half to take a 40-36 lead early in the second half. Tech lost that lead, but refused to let Kentucky string together a game-ending run until the final seconds.

With Kentucky leading 74-68, Tech point guard Tony Akins hit his fourth three-pointer of the game with 1:24 left to cut the lead to three, but that was the closest the Jackets would get. At the other end, Tech center Alvin Jones fouled out defending a dunk attempt by Prince, who made one of two free throws for a 75-71 lead.

On Tech's next possession, Akins missed a drive in the lane and Keith Bogans got the rebound to Prince, who again made one of two free throws. Desmond Allison added two more free throws and Prince had a final dunk on an alley-oop from Bogans with four seconds left.

Jason Collier led Georgia Tech with 21 points and added eight rebounds. Jones had nine rebounds.

The Wildcats made 30 of a season-high 73 shots (41.1 percent) and finished with a 49-34 rebounding edge, including a 20-9 advantage on the offensive boards. Tech shot 28-of-66 from the field (42.4 percent), including 12-of-34 from three-point range.

Donald Hand scored 15 of his 27 points in the second half, including nine during a 21-2 run in the first 6:09, as Virginia defeated Georgia Tech, 83-65.

The Cavaliers trailed 37-36 at the break before scoring the first eight points of the second half. After Tony Akins' 13-foot running jumper drew the Yellow Jackets to within 44-39, Chris Williams' three-pointer started another 13-0 spurt that ended with 13:46 to play. Virginia never led by less than 16 points the rest of the way.

Williams and Roger Mason added 14 points each for Virginia, with Williams getting 10 in the second half.

Virginia got scoring from 10 players in the opening half, but still trailed at the break as Floyd scored 14 points and Collier 11. The Jackets also outscored Virginia 6-4 off turnovers in the first half, but the Cavaliers began cashing in after the break, scoring 26 of their 47 second-half points off miscues.

DUKE 82, GEORGIA TECH 57

1-12-00 • Cameron Indoor Stadium • Durham, N.C.

Shane Battier shook off a poor shooting first half to score 19 points as No. 6 Duke used a late run for an 82-57 win over Georgia Tech, which lost for the seventh straight time to Duke and for the 23rd time in its last 27 games in Cameron Indoor Stadium. Battier was 1-for-7 from the field in the opening half, but scored 10 points during a 16-4 Duke run that turned an eight-point lead into a 70-50 score with 4:38 left.

The 6-foot-8 junior closed the run with a pair of three-pointers as Duke outscored Georgia Tech 26-11 over the final 9:17.

Alvin Jones led the Yellow Jackets with 19 points and 13 rebounds. Jason Collier, second in the ACC in points and rebounds, added 13 points and 13 rebounds.

Duke pushed a four-point lead early in the second half to 11 as Tech managed just two baskets in a seven-minute span. But the Blue Devils struggled to put the Yellow Jackets away until Battier caught fire late. Duke had scored 100 or more points in four of its last six games, but the Yellow Jackets held the score down this time with solid interior defense from the 7-foot Collier and 6-11 Jones.

Tech also benefited from Duke's cold outside shooting early. The Blue Devils were only 4-for-12 from beyond the arc in the opening 20 minutes before heating up in the second half. Neither team led by more than four points in a close first half before Jason Williams hit a three-pointer and a 12-footer, and Battier sank a long-range shot for a 36-29 lead before the Jackets closed to 38-33 at intermission.

GEORGIA TECH 69, MARYLAND 68

1-15-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Shaun Fein scored 17 points for Georgia Tech, including four three-pointers and two critical free throws with 53 seconds remaining, and No. 18 Maryland couldn't get off a shot at the end, falling to the Yellow Jackets, 69-68. Juan Dixon scored a career-high 31 points and blocked a shot by Fein with about 15 seconds left. Maryland got the ball back to Dixon, who drove in the lane but had the ball knocked away as the clock ran out. The Yellow Jackets snapped a seven-game losing streak in the series and three-game skid this season. For Tech, it also was the first victory of the year over a ranked opponent after losing its first four tries.

Tech fell behind by as many as 11 points in the first half, trailing 35-24 with five minutes to play, but Fein hit two three-pointers and scored nine points on an 11-4 run that cut Maryland's lead to 39-35 at the break. The Jackets then started the second half with a 12-2 spurt, going ahead for good when Jason Collier tipped in a missed shot with 17:18 remaining.

The Terps closed to 67-65 when Terence Morris was fouled on a three-point attempt and hit all three shots from the line with 1:01 left. Fein was fouled in the backcourt trying to bring the ball up and made both free throws to give Tech a little breathing room, but Danny Miller answered with a trey with 44 seconds left. The Jackets, after making only 5-of-12 free throws in the first half, made 11-of-12 in the second.

GEORGIA TECH 65, FLORIDA STATE 62

1-19-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Shaun Fein led a three-point barrage, scoring all 18 of his points from behind the arc as Georgia Tech led virtually the entire game for a 65-62 victory over Florida State. Fein was 6-of-10 from behind the arc and the Yellow Jackets hit 12-of-27 from long range.

Tech led 60-53 but managed only five points in the final five minutes, including two free throws by Jason Collier with 16.1 seconds remaining for a three-point lead. Delvon Arrington missed a final shot for the Seminoles, but even if he had made it, the officials ruled the attempt was inside the arc. Collier finished with 14 points and 12 rebounds, his third straight double-double.

Florida State hit the first basket of the game but never led again as Tech built a 24-12 first-half lead, although Seminoles hung around behind a career-high 24 points from Damous Anderson, on 9-of-12 shooting, including four three-pointers.

NC STATE 66, GEORGIA TECH 58

1-22-00 • Entertainment & Sports Arena • Raleigh, N.C.

Anthony Grundy had 13 points, seven rebounds and three steals as NC State remained unbeaten at home with a 66-58 victory over cold-shooting Georgia Tech. Jason Collier led the Yellow Jackets with 21 points, but Tech shot just 34.5 percent from the field, including just 4-for-19 from three-point range.

NC State led by as many as 13 points midway through the second half before missing six straight shots and turning it over twice as the Jackets closed to 61-56 on a Shaun Fein three-pointer with 2:08 left. Fein's three-point attempt that would have trimmed the Wolfpack lead to two rimmed out less than a minute later, and NC State was 5-for-6 from the foul line over the final 1:02 to seal the win.

The Wolfpack used a 21-5 run to erase an early-six point deficit, grabbing a 25-15 lead 8:14 before the half as Georgia Tech turned the ball over on four straight possessions. However, the Jackets countered with a 17-5 run and entered the intermission down 36-32. Grundy, who had 12 first-half points, helped NC State secure the four-point halftime lead with two free throws and a nice driving shot in the lane.

NORTH CAROLINA 70, GEORGIA TECH 53

1-29-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Brendan Haywood, who played only six minutes in the first because of foul trouble, dominated at the start of the second to lead North Carolina to a 70-53 victory over Georgia Tech. The game tied 28-28 at halftime, but Tech made only 9-of-41 shots (22 percent) in the second half to suffer its second straight loss at home.

Jason Capel led the Tar Heels with 20 points and Joseph Forte added 15, but it was Haywood who turned the tide. The 7-foot center picked up his third foul less than eight minutes into the game and spent the rest of the first half on the bench, but he scored six points and blocked three shots in the first four minutes of the second half.

The Jackets pulled down 25 offensive rebounds and took more shots than UNC but managed to make only 20-of-73 (27 percent) from the field. Jason Collier had 14 points and 13 rebounds.

The game was a sellout, but thousands of fans didn't show because an ice storm struck Atlanta. Tech officials opened the doors an hour before the game and let everyone in, whether they had a ticket or not.

CLEMSON 70, GEORGIA TECH 58

2-2-00 • Littlejohn Coliseum • Clemson, S.C.

Clemson's Andrius Jurkunas scored a career high 21 points and Dustin Braddick had a career-best 14 in the Tigers' 70-58 win over Georgia Tech, which lost at Littlejohn Coliseum for the 13th time in 14 years. The Tigers used their league-leading defense to negate Tech's height, holding the Yellow Jackets to 35 percent from the field.

Clemson's leading scorer, Will Solomon, finished with 17 points, but most came in the second half with the Tigers comfortably ahead. He was held without a three-pointer for the first time in 25 games.

The Tigers led by as many as 20 in the second half when Solomon hit a free throw with just over eight minutes to play, and the Jackets never got closer than 13 the rest of the way. Tech's Jason Collier, the leading scorer in the ACC, missed his first five shots and finished with 10 points. Tony Akins led the Jackets with 18.

Braddick had six points in Clemson's 13-4 first-half run that gave the Tigers a 23-18 halftime lead. Clemson shot only 38 percent in the half, but limited the Jackets to 30 percent. Tech managed just two field goals in the last 12 minutes of the first half.

GEORGIA TECH 89, FLORIDA A&M 57

2-5-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Freshman Clarence Moore had a season-high 17 points and nine rebounds in his first start, and Shaun Fein scored 11 of his 15 points in Georgia Tech's run to open the second half as the Yellow Jackets went on to an easy 89-57 victory over Florida A&M. Tech led only 29-26 at the end of a lackluster first half but opened the second half with a 23-3 run to end a four-game losing streak.

Florida A&M led 17-13 in the opening half before Tech rallied with Alvin Jones scoring nine points in a 16-9 run over the last 7:05 for the three-point halftime lead. Tech built its margin to 34 points at 72-38 in the second half on a layup with 8:08 left on a layup by T.J. Vines.

Jason Collier (10 points, 11 rebounds) and Alvin Jones (11-10) each had double-doubles for Tech. Moore and Vines, who finished with nine points and four assists, made their debut in the starting five, replacing Tony Akins, who scored 11 points off the bench, and Jason Floyd.

Tech, which had been plagued by poor shooting in its previous three games, shot only 29 percent (12-for-41) from the field in the opening half and hit on only 2-of-19 from outside the three-point line, but in the second half, Tech made 51 percent (18-35) from the field.

GEORGIA TECH 68, VIRGINIA 47

2-9-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Freshman Clarence Moore had 15 points and 10 rebounds and Alvin Jones blocked seven shots as Georgia Tech snapped a four-game losing streak in the Atlantic Coast Conference, routing Virginia, 68-47, at Alexander Memorial Coliseum. Tech took control with an 18-0 run in the first half, limiting Virginia to its lowest output of the season.

Moore, making his second start since coach Bobby Cremins changed the lineup, also had five steals. The 6-foot-11 Jones took advantage of a Virginia team with no starter taller than 6-7, scoring 14 points. Jones' seven blocks were a career high for a conference game, though it was four short of his overall best. The Yellow Jackers won despite a subpar game by Jason Collier, who got into foul trouble and managed just seven points.

Virginia made only 27.6 percent from the field (16-of-58), finishing 15 points below its previous low-scoring game of the season. The Cavs, the ACC's third-best shooting team (47 percent), made just 2-of-19 outside the three-point arc. Donald Hand, Virginia's leading scorer at 16 points per game, fouled out with 3:52 remaining and just two points on the scoresheet, his worst performance of the season.

In holding Virginia to 47 points, Tech allowed its fewest points in an ACC game since a 48-43 win over Maryland on Feb. 19, 1985, while the 21-point win was Tech's largest margin of victory against a conference team since defeating Florida State by 21 on Jan. 27, 1996. Virginia's 27.6 percent shooting from the field was the Jackets' best defensive performance against an ACC team since limited Virginia to 24.7 percent in a 68-56 victory in the 1982 ACC Tournament.

Virginia led 15-11 after Roger Mason's short jumper with 10:31 remaining in the first half. The Cavaliers didn't score again for more than seven minutes as Tech reeled off 18 consecutive points. During that span, Virginia missed 13 shots from the field and all four of their free-throw attempts. After making six of their first 10 shots, the Cavs went 2-for-20 the rest of the half.

The Jackets took control without Collier, their leading scorer and rebounder who picked up his third foul with 12:38 remaining in the half and sat out the rest of the period. He finally scored his first basket on a three-pointer with 9:26 remaining. He added another trey with 5:24 to go, helping Tech pull away after Virginia cut the lead to 51-42.

DUKE 84, GEORGIA TECH 65

2-12-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Third-ranked Duke started a new streak in the Atlantic Coast Conference as the Blue Devils recovered from a home loss to Maryland—ending its 31-game ACC winning streak—with an 84-65 victory over Georgia Tech.

Six Blue Devils scored in double figures, including Chris Carrawell and Nate James with 15 points apiece, to lead Duke, which committed only seven turnovers. By comparison, the Yellow Jackets gave the ball away 21 times, leading to 38 points for the Blue Devils.

Duke took control right away, racing to a 25-10 lead just over eight minutes into the game and maintaining a double-digit margin the rest of the way. The Blue Devils pushed the margin to as many 19 points before settling for a 45-31 margin at halftime on Mike Dunleavy Jr.'s spinning, twisting shot in the lane just before the buzzer. Tech got no closer than 48-35 and trailed by as many as 27 points.

Georgia Tech was coming off its largest ACC victory in more than four years, a 68-47 rout of Virginia. The Jackets used a zone defense to limit the Cavaliers to 27.6 percent shooting, but Duke shot nearly 50 percent (29-of-60), busting the zone with eight three-pointers.

Shaun Fein led Tech with 15 points and Jason Collier added 14.

MARYLAND 92, GEORGIA TECH 70

-16-00 • Cole Field House • College Park, Md.

Juan Dixon scored 18 of his career-high 33 points in the opening 12 minutes as No. 22 Maryland took control early against Georgia Tech, winning 92-70. Dixon went 12-for-17 from the field, including 4-for-5 beyond the arc, and was 5-for-5 at the free throw line.

Maryland built a 20-point lead in the first half and never let the margin shrink below double figures.

Tony Akins scored 17 points and Clarence Moore had a career-high 15 rebounds for the Yellow Jackets, who fell to 0-6 on the road and winless at Maryland since 1994.

After Dixon scored 10 of the Terrapins' first 12 points, Morris capped an 11-3 run with a three-pointer for a 15-8 lead. Minutes later, Dixon twice scored from beyond the arc and beat the shot clock with a short hook during a 10-0 run that made it 29-15 with 8:01 left in the first half. Akins stopped the surge with a three-pointer, but Baxter followed with three straight baskets to put Maryland up by 17 points. It was 40-20 before the Yellow Jackets ended the half with a 10-2 run to close to 42-30.

Tech managed to cut it to 49-39 early in the second half before a 10-0 run put Maryland up by 20 with 13 minutes left.

FLORIDA STATE 64, GEORGIA TECH 54

2-21-00 • Tallahassee-Leon Co. C.C. • Tallahassee, Fla.

Damous Anderson scored 26 points off the bench to spur Florida State to a 64-54 come-from-behind win over Georgia Tech. Florida had to overcome a barrage of nine three-pointers by Tech's Tony Akins, the most this season in an ACC game. Akins finished with a career-high 33 points to lead all scorers but could not keep Tech from dropping its third straight game.

Akins was 5-for-5 from three-point range in the first half and was outscoring the entire Florida State team until just over a minute remained in the half. That staked the Jackets to a 34-26 lead at the half, but FSU came alive in the second half and nearly shut out Tech over the last four minutes of the game.

Anderson ended the first half with a resounding dunk and started the second half with another dunk on a fast break that got the Seminoles' crowd into the game. He then hit a three-pointer with just over 10 minutes left to pull the Seminoles to within one at 47-46 and shift the momentum for good.

The lead changed hands several times, but Anderson blocked an Akins shot from behind and hit a lay-up at the other end to give Florida State a 54-53 lead with 4:46 to play. The Jackets only managed one more point the rest of the way, and failed to score a field goal in the last 6:56 of the game.

GEORGIA TECH 66, NC STATE 63

2-24-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Jason Collier scored 22 points, 11 during an early second-half comeback from a 13-point deficit, and Shaun Fein hit three of four free throws in the final 12 seconds as Georgia Tech defeated NC State, 66-63. The Yellow Jackets snapped a three-game losing streak and handed the Wolfpack their sixth loss in a row.

Anthony Grundy led the Wolfpack with 29 points, but failed to get the handle on a three-point attempt in the final seconds, and then State's Ron Kelley missed a three-pointer at the buzzer.

NC State led 40-27 early in the second half when Tech put together a 23-4 run that produced a 50-44 lead with 9:02 remaining. The Jackets stretched their lead to 54-46 on two free throws by Alvin Jones with 8:15 to play before Grundy scored 10 straight points, including a pair of three-pointers for a 56-54 lead with 6:05 to play.

A Jones dunk and a Kelley basket left State ahead 58-56 before Tech's Tony Akins tied it on two free throws with 3:47 remaining.

Jones then tied it on two free throws at the 1:43 mark, followed by Grundy's three-pointer with 1:19 left.

Collier hit a jump hook at the one-minute mark and then made one free throw with 38 seconds left for a 63-61 Tech lead, but after he missed the second free throw, Grundy broke loose for a driving layup to the tie game with 32 seconds left. He had a free throw for the lead but missed, leaving the rest of the scoring to Fein from the free throw line. After he made only one of two with 12 seconds left, Jones came up with the loose ball rebound and fed it to Fein, who made two more free throws to seal the win.

WAKE FOREST 76, GEORGIA TECH 64

2-27-00 • Joel Coliseum • Winston Salem, N.C.

Darius Songaila scored a career-high 26 points to lead Wake Forest to a 76-64 victory over Georgia Tech at Joel Coliseum. Jason Collier led Georgia Tech with 19 points. Shaun Fein had all 13 of his points in the second half for the Yellow Jackets.

Wake Forest got 11 points, 10 rebounds and seven assists from freshman Josh Howard. Robert O'Kelley and Craig Dawson added 11 points apiece for the Demon Deacons, who hit five of 11 three-point tries in the second half and finished with a 43-36 edge on the boards, including 19 offensive rebounds that they converted into 15 points.

There were three ties in the second half before Dawson hit a three-pointer from the right corner to put Wake Forest up 43-40. That basket started a 15-8 surge, capped by Ervin Murray's 22-footer as the shot clock expired to make it 55-48 with 8:31 remaining.

Tech cut it to 63-60 on a three-pointer by T.J. Vines with 2:36 left, but Songaila answered with a jumper in the lane, then stripped the ball from Collier on the other end. The play set up a fast-break layup by Howard that made it 67-60 at the 1:55 mark. Wake Forest sealed it by making nine of 10 free throws in the last 1:43.

NORTH CAROLINA 74, GEORGIA TECH 72 (OT)

Joseph Forte scored 19 points, including go-ahead basket with 51 seconds left in overtime, to give North Carolina a 74-72 victory over Georgia Tech. A three-point attempt by Tech's Shaun Fein rimmed out with four seconds left, and T.J. Vines came up with the rebound for the Jackets, but his pass sailed out of bounds with 0.4 seconds left.

Tech's Jason Collier led all scorers with 25 points, including a short jumper in the lane with 31 seconds left in regulation that sent the game into overtime tied at 64-64. The seven-footer also blocked a shot by Ed Cota prior to his game-tying bucket and altered Cota's attempt at a game-winner with three seconds left.

Neither team led by more than three points in the overtime. A three-pointer by Tony Akins with 1:11 left in overtime put the Jackets up 72-71, but Forte answered with his driving layup. Cota then hit one of two free throws before Fein's final shot.

Tech trailed 57-47 with eight minutes to play before Collier fueled a comeback with a pair of free throws and consecutive three-pointers. The Jackets led 32-30 at the half, but UNC began the second half with a 13-2 run.

GEORGIA TECH 85, CLEMSON 69

3-4-00 • Alexander Memorial Coliseum

Georgia Tech seniors Jason Collier and Jason Floyd combined for 27 points in their final home game as the Yellow Jackets gave outgoing head coach Bobby Cremins an 85-69 victory over Clemson in his final appearance at Alexander Memorial Coliseum.

Tech hit a season-high 14 three-pointers, including four by Floyd and three by Collier, to overcome 30 points by the Tigers' Will Solomon. Collier finished with 24 points, seven rebounds and four assists, while Floyd had a season-high 23 points—including the 1,000th point of his career—and tied his career-best with nine rebounds.

Vines added 11 points off the bench for Tech, which played the last 15 minutes without center Alvin Jones, who had seven rebounds and four blocked shots but was ejected after receiving his second technical foul.

Tech fell behind 13-5 early in the game but used a 20-0 run to take control with a 31-16 lead. The Tigers clawed back to 38-27 at the half, but Tech extended its advantage to as many as 20 points in the second half. Solomon scored 21 points after the intermission and pulled the Tigers within eight points at 66-58 with seven minutes left, but the Jackets quickly regained control on a jumper by Vines and a three-point play by Collier.

FLORIDA STATE 63, GEORGIA TECH 62

3-9-00 • Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament

Charlotte Coliseum • Charlotte, N.C.

Ron Hale scored 21 points, including a pair of free throws with 7.1 seconds left that proved to be the game winners as seventh-seeded Florida State defeated eighth-seeded Georgia Tech, 63-62, in the first round of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament. The game was the final contest for Tech head coach Bobby Cremins after compiling a 354-237 record in 19 seasons.

Tech had a chance to tie the game with 17 seconds left, but Collier's baseline hook shot bounced off the rim. Antwaun Dixon and Hale each made two free throws as Tech lost its fifth straight ACC tourney game. Collier led the Jackets, who shot missed 12 of 18 free throws, with 19 points.

The Jackets trailed by two at the half, but fell behind by as many as nine midway through the second period before going on a 7-0 run to close to 53-52 with 3:26 left on a slam dunk by Alvin Jones. But Hale sank a 3-pointer 23 seconds later, and after a hook shot by Collier, Delvon Arrington made a pair of free throws to push the Florida State lead to four.

Neither team led by more than seven points in a lackluster first half. Tech started 2-for-15 from the field, including a stretch of nine straight misses from three-point range. Meanwhile, the Seminoles began 5-for-20 and went almost nine minutes during one portion of the half with just one field goal. Tech missed 11 of 16 free throws in the opening 20 minutes to trail 25-23 at the half.
