MEDIA SERVICES

The 2017 Georgia Tech Baseball Information Guide is published primarily as a source of information for members of the media. Requests for additional information, interviews and photographs should be directed to the Georgia Tech Communications & Public Relations staff.

Baseball notes and statistics are updated regularly throughout the season. Access to this information can be achieved by accessing the official Georgia Tech Athletics website, www. RamblinWreck.com. The Communications & Public Relations staff will email weekly releases to members of the media.

RUSS CHANDLER STADIUM

Georgia Tech's home field is located on the corner of Fowler Street and Ferst Drive, with the entrances to the stadium along Ferst Drive.

From the North (I-75): Follow I-75 South to Northside Drive/Howell Mill Road Exit. Follow exit to Northside Drive and turn right. Proceed to 10th Street (sixth light) and turn left. Follow 10th Street to Fowler Street (fifth light) and turn right. Stadium will be on the right.

From the North (I-85): Follow I-85 South to North Avenue exit and turn right. Proceed to Techwood Drive (first light) and turn right. Follow Techwood Drive to Fifth Street (second light) and turn left. Stadium will be on the right.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be issued only to working members of the media. Children and other non-workers are not allowed. Members of the media may claim credentials in the GT Ticket Office until four hours prior to each game (excluding weekends) before they are moved to media will-call at Russ Chandler Stadium.

Requests: Contact the Georgia Tech Communications & Public Relations staff at least one day prior to home game or series.

Media Will Call: Third base ticket booth, corner of Cherry Street and Ferst Drive.

Media Parking: A limited number of media parking spaces at various locations around Russ Chandler Stadium are available. Please include parking requests along with credential requests.

Press Box: The Russ Chandler Stadium Press Box is located atop the grandstand behind home plate. It includes space for working members of the press, official and visiting scorers, the public address announcer and the scoreboard operator. Also located on the press level are two radio booths, a television booth, and eight luxury suites (two indoor, six outdoor). The Press Box is on the same level as the third base entry gate.

MEDIA INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for head coach Danny Hall or any Georgia Tech baseball player should be directed to the Georgia Tech Communications & Public Relations staff.

Players and coaches are available to the media before and after practice by appointment. Interviews with coaches or players while the team is on the road can be arranged through the Georgia Tech Communications & Public Relations staff.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Head coach Danny Hall is available to meet any working members of the press immediately following the game on the field at Russ Chandler Stadium. Due to space limitations in the locker room, all player interviews are also conducted on the field; media members are not permitted in the clubhouse area. The Georgia Tech Communications & Public Relations staff will coordinate all postgame interview requests for the Yellow Jackets.

Interviews with visiting team members can be done on the field, subject to the policy of the visiting team's sports information representative.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Media credentials are required for all photographers and television media. All credentials can be claimed at Will Call, located at the third base entrance of the stadium.

Photo wells are located at the far end of both dugouts, with space for both still and video cameras. Photographers are also permitted to shoot from the press level, but may not shoot from ground level between the two dugouts. Photographers are not permitted on the field at any time. Photographers may move from one photo well to the other by exiting the dugouts and walking along the concourse behind home plate.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Updated cumulative statistics, game notes, scorecards and team rosters are available in the Press Box prior to each home game.

An official scorer is assigned to all home games, and the Georgia Tech Communications & Public Relations staff will keep the media informed of all scoring decisions, noteworthy facts and records.

THE WEB AND SOCIAL MEDIA

The official website of Georgia Tech athletics is updated daily with the latest on Yellow Jacket athletics. It provides the most up to date schedules, rosters, statistics and biographies on every student-athlete and coach. In addition, fans are encouraged to follow the team on Twitter (@GTBaseball) and Facebook. Georgia Tech will tweet live in-game updates during every game.

GEORGIA TECH ON THE AIR

Television: A number of home games will be aired on television this season as part of the ACC television package on ESPNU, ESPN3 and the ACC Digital Network.

Georgia Tech's 2017 television schedule can be found at RamblinWreck.com.

Radio: All of Tech's baseball games will be aired on the radio in 2017. WREK Radio (91.1 FM in Atlanta/www.wrek.org), the nation's first 100,000-watt college station, will serve as the flagship home for Georgia Tech baseball with Wiley Ballard calling the action live.

RUSS CHANDLER STADIUM

Scenically nestled in downtown Atlanta, Russ Chandler Stadium provides a brilliant backdrop for college baseball and offers one of the best atmospheres for the game in the country.

The home of Georgia Tech baseball for more than 70 years, Russ Chandler Stadium has a long and storied history, from its original construction in 1930 with funds from Tech's 1929 appearance in the Rose Bowl game to its use as a training facility for the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games.

With incredible views of the Atlanta skyline, the facility underwent a $4.5 million renovation and expansion underneath the stadium. The Yellow Jackets' locker, training and weight rooms were transformed to make Russ Chandler into a state-of-the-art, all-around facility. Tech's locker room doubled to 2,000-square feet and was renamed the Mark Teixeira Locker Room.

An anonymous $2.5 million challenge grant was the lead for Phase 1 of the Russ Chandler Stadium renovations. Phase II of the renovations, which includes further expansion of the team's clubhouse facilities down the left-field line, is currently in the planning stage.

The latest renovation in 2014-15 was the first for Russ Chandler Stadium since its complete reconstruction for the 2002 season. The reconstruction took less than eight months at a cost of $9.7 million, making Russ Chandler Stadium one of the top collegiate ballparks in America.

Russ Chandler Stadium has twice been named "Field of the Year" by the Sports Turf Managers Association. Russ Chandler won the honor in 2008 and 2014.

At a current capacity of 4,157, Georgia Tech's baseball facility more than doubled in size when the renovations were complete in 2002. Russ Chandler Stadium features approximately 1,100 chair back seats behind the home plate area in addition to nearly 3,000 bleacher seats.

The facility features locker rooms for both Georgia Tech and the visiting team, as well as one for the umpires. Tech's clubhouse, which is located on the third base side of the stadium, includes a player's lounge, a video room where players and coaches can break down game film, and a separate locker area for the coaching staff. A state-of-the-art athletic training room is adjacent to the Tech locker room in addition to a sizeable weight room and workout facility.

The stadium features three covered batting cages and pitching mounds. One is located underneath the grandstand, while an enclosed area above the left field grandstand houses two additional cages and mounds.

A wide concourse and plaza area is located at the main entrance to the stadium behind third base. Ticket booths, concession stands and restrooms are located on both the first base and third base sides of the stadium.

Above the grandstand is the press level, which includes ample space for the writers and broadcasters who cover Tech's nationally-ranked program. The main press box has seating for more than 30, while three auxiliary booths can accommodate television and radio crews.

Two enclosed luxury suites are located to one side of the press box, while six open-air, covered suites are on the other side of the press area.

2015 (Freshman)

Started 53 of Tech's 55 games with 52 starts coming at second base ... Combined with shortstop Connor Justus to make one of the ACC's top double-play tandems ... The Jackets were second in the league in double plays and among the top-25 double-play teams nationally with 56 ... Hit .255 for the season with the team's second-most doubles (13), third-most runs (32), third-most hits (51) and fourth-most RBIs (27) ... Was among the toughest players nationally to strike out with just one strikeout in every 12.5 at-bats, which was third in the ACC and 58th nationally ... Had a career-best 11-game hitting streak from late March to early April ... Debuted as Tech's starting second baseman in all three games of the Atlanta Challenge on Opening Weekend ... Recorded his first career hit, an infield single, in his first plate appearance and finished 2-for-6 with two runs scored and an RBI in the Opening Day win over St. John's ... Was 3-for-3 with three RBIs in the win at Georgia Southern on Feb. 17, including recording his first career extra-base hit -- two-run double ... Went a then career-best 4-for-5 with an RBI double and three runs in a 15-2 win over Indiana State on Feb. 28 ... Laid down a 12th-inning sacrifice bunt that induced the game-ending error to give Georgia Tech a walk-off 7-6 victory over Ohio on March 3 ... Matched his career-high three RBIs in a 2-for-5 effort with two doubles and a walk against Georgia Southern on March 10 ... Drove in the go-ahead run with a fielder's choice in the sixth inning and added an RBI double in the eighth as Tech beat Auburn 4-1 on March 24 -- first career game-winning RBI ... Missed only two games on the season at Louisville (ankle) ... Returned to lineup midweek at No. 21 Georgia and had two hits and a then career-best three runs in a 13-6 win ... Went 5-for-11 with two RBIs and two runs scored and launched his first career home run in a series win at Virginia Tech ... Doubled twice, scored and drove in a run in Tech's dramatic 9-7 comeback win at Mercer on May 6 ... Knocked in five runs in Tech's series win over Pittsburgh, which included a career-high-tying three RBIs in the series opener.

2015 (Redshirt Sophomore)

Held down the Yellow Jackets' Friday starter spot all season long and finished the year with 15 starts, going 4-5 overall with a 3.82 ERA ... Was outstanding over the final month, allowing just four earned runs over a five-start stretch between April 17 (at Boston College) and May 14 (at No. 8 Miami), but had just two wins to show for his effort ... Went five innings in his first start since March 2014 and surrendered three runs (two earned), while notching an Opening Day victory over St. John's on Feb. 13 ... Went five innings vs. No. 23 FIU in Myrtle Beach on Feb. 21, but did not factor in the decision as the Jackets won 16-9 thanks to an eight-run rally in the ninth ... Pitched a gem versus Indiana State on Feb. 27 for his 10th career win, throwing six shutout innings and allowing just one hit and one walk with four strikeouts as Tech won 1-0 ... Went seven strong innings versus No. 23 Notre Dame on March 6, allowing just four hits and two runs with five strikeouts, but did not factor in Tech's 3-2 loss in 10 innings ... Battled through 5.2 innings at Duke on March 13, allowing nine hits, but walking none and fanning a career-high six batters ... Pitched six strong innings at Boston College on April 17 and scattered five singles, but absorbed a tough 1-0 loss ... Gave the Jackets 6.2 strong innings versus Clemson's ace Matthew Crownover and allowed four hits and two runs (one earned) ... Pitched a career-long 8.0 innings against Presbyterian on May 2 and improved to 3-3 on the year ... Struck out five against no walks and allowed just one unearned tally in the second vs. PC ... Retired 12 of final 14 batters he faced against PC ... Set a career-high with seven strikeouts against no walks, while holding Pitt to just three hits and one unearned run in the win on May 8 ... Gave the Jackets a gutsy effort in the series-opener at No. 8 Miami on May 14, limiting the hard-hitting Hurricanes to just two runs on three hits over seven innings ... Named to the All-ACC Academic Team.

2014 (Sophomore)

Missed the final three months of the season after enduring a shoulder injury and earned a medical hardship waiver ... Pitched two scoreless innings vs. Wake Forest in Tech's ACC opener on March 7, but did not appear again ... Finished the year with a 2-0 record and a 1.96 ERA ... Fanned 12 and allowed 13 hits in abbreviated 18.1 innings of work for the year ... Earned the opening-day start for the Yellow Jackets and fanned four over four innings, but did not factor in the decision during Tech's 6-5 victory over Old Dominion ... Picked up his first win of the season by throwing 5.0 shutout, one-hit innings versus UNC Greensboro on Feb. 21 with one walk and two strikeouts ... Went 7.1 innings versus Bowling Green on Feb. 28 and yielded two runs on seven hits with four strikeouts for his second victory of the year.

Went 3-1 in ACC play ... Came out of the bullpen over the first half of the season ... Was a spot-starter over the middle month of the season ... His final five appearances were weekend starts, including two in the postseason ... Worked a 1-2-3 ninth inning with two strikeouts in his collegiate debut to nail down a save on Opening Day in the 3-0 win over Akron ... Allowed St. John's to tie the game with two runs in the eighth inning on Feb. 23, but came back to pitch a scoreless ninth and was credited with the win as Dylan Dore hit a walk-off RBI single in the ninth ... Struck out five over two innings of dominant relief work to close out Tech's 11-4 win at Georgia Southern on Feb. 26 ... Fired two perfect innings with a strikeout to close out an 11-1 win at Virginia Tech on March 9 ... Tossed two efficient innings in the seventh and eighth, allowing just one hit and no runs to preserve Tech's lead en route to a 12-5 win over Boston College on March 15 ... Earned his first career start on March 26 versus The Citadel and logged a then career-best 5.0 innings, but did not factor in the decision ... Fired 2.2 innings of hitless, scoreless relief and earned the victory at Duke on April 6 as the Yellow Jackets evened the series with 2-1 win -- it was his first ACC decision ... Recorded his second career save by retiring the final two batters of the sixth inning versus No. 5 Virginia in a series-clinching win that was shortened by rain with Tech leading 3-2 in the bottom of the sixth ... Worked the first two innings on a predetermined staff day versus Savannah State on April 16 and earned the win ... Pitched 2.2 innings of relief at Clemson on April 27 and earned a victory in the Jackets' 14-9 comeback win ... Gave Tech his best career start to date, working a career-best six shutout innings and matching a career-high of five strikeouts, no walks and four hits as the Jackets beat Ohio State, 9-2, on May 7 ... Made his first career ACC start on May 12 versus No. 2 North Carolina, going 3.1 innings with three hits and three runs, but did not factor in the decision in Tech's 9-8 walk-off win in the 11th inning ... Matched a career-long of six innings and won for the third time in ACC play (first as starter) at Miami on May 18, pitching six shutout innings and allowing just three hits (all singles), with one walk and three strikeouts as the Jackets beat the Canes 10-1 on the final day of the regular season to avoid a sweep ... Pitched a career-long 6.1 innings in first career postseason start versus Virginia Tech on May 24 in the ACC Tournament ... Allowed just three runs and absorbed a tough-luck loss in the Jackets' 3-2 setback ... Pitched six solid innings in the NCAA Nashville Regional elimination game versus Illinois, allowing seven hits and two runs with four strikeouts and one walk in a no-decision -- Tech scored four times in the ninth to rally for 6-3 victory ... An Academic All-ACC selection.

HEAD COACH DANNY HALL

DANNY HALL

Head Coach
24th season at Tech

17

Danny Hall is a winner.

As he enters his 40th season as a college baseball coach, Hall owns the remarkable distinction of having every single team finish .500 or better each year. Hall's tenure at Georgia Tech has been his most successful, as he is the all-time winningest baseball coach in program history with 961 victories on The Flats.

Hall has led Tech to the NCAA Tournament on 20 occasions and guided the Yellow Jackets to the NCAA College World Series in 1994, 2002 and 2006 -- the program's only three berths.

Hall became Georgia Tech's winningest coach in 2005 with his 505th win (surpassing Jim Morris), and his Tech teams have posted an overall record of 961-477-1 in his 23 years at the helm of the Yellow Jackets' program. His 29-year head coaching record, which includes six seasons at Kent State, stands at 1,169-594-1.

Over his 23 years in the dugout at Tech, Hall's Yellow Jackets have won close to 60 percent of their Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season games.

The 2017 season represents his 24th on The Flats and his 30th overall as a collegiate head coach. He ranks 28th all-time among all NCAA Division I baseball coaches with 1,169 career wins as a head coach. He also stands ninth among active coaches in number of victories (1,169) and 10th in career winning percentage (.663).

During a collegiate coaching career that spans 39 years (as a graduate assistant, an assistant and a head coach), Hall has been part of 1,606 victories and seven trips to the College World Series.

Each of Hall's Tech teams has been powered by a potent offense, leading or finishing second in the ACC in batting or run production in 13 of his 23 years as the Yellow Jackets' head coach, including as recent as finishing second in the ACC in 2016 with a team batting average of .307 on the season.

Hall's players have earned 111 All-ACC honors in his 23 years, while 35 different players have garnered a total of 92 All-America honors. He has coached two National Players of the Year, two National Freshmen of the Year, one ACC Player of the Year, one ACC Pitcher of the Year and three ACC Rookies of the Year.

In addition to the three College World Series appearances and 20 NCAA berths under Hall, the Yellow Jackets have claimed five ACC tournament titles (2000, 2003, 2005, 2012, 2014) and won the ACC regular season five times (1997, 2000, 2004, 2005, 2011).

Since Hall's arrival in 1994, a staggering 114 Yellow Jackets have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft a total of 131 times -- that includes a school-record 10 draft picks in 2004, 2007 and 2010, and a record five top-10 round picks in 2013. Thirteen of his student-athletes have been selected in either the first or supplemental round, while he has coached 59 players that have been taken in the first 10 rounds of the MLB draft. Out of high school, 58 have been drafted but chose instead to play for Hall.

Hall's no-nonsense, professional approach has given his players the fundamentals they need to be successful after leaving Georgia Tech. That is indicated in the number of his former players that have excelled on the Major League level, headlined by Matt Wieters of the Baltimore Orioles, Charlie Blackmon of the Colorado Rockies, Derek Dietrich of the Florida Marlins, Buck Farmer of the Detroit Tigers, Blake Wood of the Cincinnati Reds and former MLB stars Mark Teixeira, Nomar Garciaparra, Jason Varitek and Jay Payton.

The success of Hall's players in professional baseball is molded by their accomplishments at Tech, as his Yellow Jacket teams have advanced to 20 NCAA Regionals in 23 seasons. Georgia Tech has posted 52 NCAA tournament victories since his arrival, winning six Regional titles and Super Regional crowns in both 2002 and 2006.

Just as Hall stresses the importance of on-field performance, his student-athletes have been equally successful in the classroom. Nearly 200 of his student-athletes have been named to the ACC Honor Roll (with a 3.0 or higher grade point average) and nine have earned Academic All-America honors on 13 occasions.

Hall has worked tirelessly to keep his former Yellow Jackets connected to the program. Through annual events like a golf outing or during off-season training, Tech baseball alums can always be seen on The Flats.

Hall and Teixeira helped spearhead a major renovation to Russ Chandler Stadium in 2014-15, with Phase II of that project to follow in the near future.

The Mark Teixeira Locker Room was part of a multi-million overhaul to the Yellow Jackets' team facility, which also included a state-of-the-art weight room, academic center and new athletic training facilities.

In his first year at Georgia Tech, Hall guided an extremely talented and veteran unit with four All-Americans and three first-round draft choices to the brink of a national championship, Georgia Tech's first-ever appearance in the College World Series, and a 50-17 record. Hall was recognized by his American Baseball Coaches Association peers as Coach of the Year in the Atlantic Region, and may have won the national honor if not for the unranked-to-national title season put together by Oklahoma's Larry Cochell. Three Yellow Jackets earned consensus first-team All-America recognition and those three players finished in the top three in the conference batting stats, a first in ACC history.

Hall guided Tech back to the NCAA Regionals in 1995 and 1996 with teams dominated by freshmen and sophomores. His 1997 squad captured its first ACC regular season title in just his fourth year on The Flats and played in the NCAA Mideast Regional. In addition to earning his first ACC Coach of the Year accolade in 1997, the Yellow Jackets' skipper was named the National Coach of the Year by Sporting News, the first such honor for any Tech baseball coach.

After the Yellow Jackets failed to earn an NCAA Regional bid in 1999 for the first time since his arrival at Tech, Hall guided the Jackets to one of their most successful seasons in 2000 - capturing both the ACC regular season and tournament championships in addition to the NCAA Atlanta Regional title. The team concluded the year with a 50-16 record, and Hall was tabbed the ACC's Coach of the Year for the second time.

Following another 40-win season in 2001, the sixth since Hall took over the reins in 1994, the Jackets' skipper guided Tech to just its second College World Series appearance in 2002 by turning in one of the best coaching jobs of his career, leading a Tech team that included 17 freshmen and only three seniors back to Omaha. The Yellow Jackets swept through the NCAA Atlanta Regional and the NCAA Atlanta Super Regional with a perfect 5-0 record before finishing fifth at the College World Series. They concluded the 2002 campaign with 52 victories, establishing a school record for wins in a season.

Hall led Georgia Tech to its sixth ACC championship, and second in four years under his direction, with an improbable run to the title in 2003. An early-round loss, combined with weather issues, forced Tech to play a triple-header on the final day of competition, with Hall guiding the Yellow Jackets to a 10-6 win over North Carolina, a 10-7 win over Florida State and a 6-5, 10-inning victory over NC State to claim the title in the first triple-header sweep in league history.

HEAD COACH DANNY HALL

In 2004, the Yellow Jackets captured their third ACC regular season title under Hall while the team made its fifth-straight NCAA appearance and 10th since Hall's arrival on The Flats. Tech hosted a Regional for the fourth time in five years and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional for the third time since 2000. From 2004-05, Hall directed Tech to an ACC-record 25-straight conference wins, and the Yellow Jacket skipper was awarded with his third ACC Coach of the Year award honors after guiding Tech to both the 2005 ACC regular season and tournament titles.

Georgia Tech, which earned a top-eight national seed in the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-consecutive year, made its third-straight NCAA Super Regional appearance the following season in 2006 and advanced to its third College World Series since Hall's arrival. Hosting an NCAA Regional for the fifth-straight year, Tech swept through the Regional and Super Regional with a perfect 5-0 record before ending the 2006 season in Omaha with a 50-10 overall record.

With a squad that was among the youngest in the nation in 2011, Tech tied a school record with 22 ACC wins and claimed the ACC regular season title. The following year, 2012, may go down as one of Hall's best coaching jobs. A team that was battered with injuries, especially in the bullpen, snuck into the ACC Tournament on the final day of the regular season and got hot at just the right time. Tech rolled through Greensboro an undefeated 4-0, becoming the first No. 8 seed in conference history to win the title and the first to defeat a No. 1 seed (Florida State) in tournament play. The Jackets hit. .329 overall as a team and outscored the opposition 35-15.

Tech's 8-5 win over Miami in the 2012 ACC title game was Hall's fourth win in five ACC championship game appearances.

The Jackets bashed their way out of the gate in 2013, opening the season 14-2 with staggering offensive numbers. Tech set a school record by scoring double-digit runs in nine straight games and 14 of the first 21. Paced with home run power from eventual All-Americans Daniel Palka and Zane Evans, Tech finished the season leading the ACC with 58 home runs and was second in both batting average (.304) and slugging percentage.

The Jackets won series over No. 2 North Carolina and No. 5 Virginia during the regular season, beat No. 7 Florida State in the ACC Tournament and knocked off No. 2 Vanderbilt, 5-0, during the NCAA Nashville Regional - the 18th NCAA trip in Hall's 20 seasons at Tech.

Tech was one of the nation's youngest teams again in 2014, starting as many as six true freshmen position players. Yet Hall was able to mold the group into champions as the Yellow Jackets, the ACC's ninth seed, made a remarkable run through Greensboro and captured the program's ninth title.

The team did its damage with pitching and defense, shaving nearly a full run off its ERA from 2013 and setting the school record for fielding percentage (.974) while leading the nation in double plays (77).

Tech reached the NCAA Regional for the 19th time under Hall in 2014, following a regular season that included series wins over then No. 1 Florida State, No. 22 Miami, No. 13 North Carolina, Georgia, Duke and Virginia Tech.

In 2015, freshman Kel Johnson became the 20th player under Coach Hall to earn Freshman All-America honors as the Yellow Jackets finished the season at 32-23 overall, including a stellar record of 21-8 at home on the year. Four Jackets in Matt Gonzalez, A.J. Murray, Brandon Gold and Johnson all earned All-ACC honors, as Tech saw its season cut short in the ACC Championship Tournament for the first time since 2007, ending a streak of seven straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

Last season in 2016, the Yellow Jackets got back on track in a huge way, as Coach Hall's squad swarmed out of the gates with 12 straight wins to start the season off at 12-0. Despite hitting a rough patch midseason, which was caused by a slew of injuries to the pitching rotation, the Yellow Jackets made their 31st overall NCAA Regional appearance and 20th under Coach Hall and finished the injury plagued season at 38-25 overall.

The only school from the state of Georgia to advance to the NCAA postseason in 2016, Tech went 2-2 in the regional to finish as the runner-up.

With their NCAA Gainesville Regional appearance, the Jackets have made 28 NCAA Regional Appearances in the last 31 years, the third-most by any school during that same span (Florida State – 31, Miami – 31, LSU – 28).

Coach Hall's squad registered a non-conference midseason sweep of the eventual 2016 NCAA National Champions in Coastal Carolina from April 29 thru May 1, taking three straight from the Chanticleers by scores of 9-1, 9-8 and 4-2 in a shortened-contest. On top of the sweep over the eventual national champions, the Jackets also took two-of-three games on the road at both No. 3 North Carolina and No. 23 Clemson in ACC play and used a three-run 10th inning to upend Georgia 6-3 in the Yellow Jackets' final game at Turner Field.

Freshmen Joey Bart and Tristin English were both named to the 2016 Louisville Slugger Freshman All-American Team and the ACC All-Freshman Team, while English was also named to the D1Baseball Freshman All-American Second-Team. Pitcher Matthew Gorst earned a spot on the NCBWA All-American Second-Team, while a number of Yellow Jackets earned All-ACC honors in English (first-team), Kel Johnson (first-team), Matt Gonzalez (first-team), Brandon Gold (second-team), Gorst (second-team), and Connor Justus (third-team). Gorst, Gonzalez and Gold were all also named to the 2016 ABCA/Rawlings Atlantic All-Region Team, the first Jackets to receive all-region honors since 2013. A total of five Yellow Jackets – Justus, Gonzalez, Gold, Gorst and Arden Pabst where selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft in June, the most picks by the Yellow Jackets in a single season since seven were chosen in 2013. One of only 32 NCAA Division I baseball programs to earn a 2015-16 American Baseball Coaches Association Team Academic Excellence Award, Tech had four players in Ben Parr, Johnson, Trevor Craport and Brandt Stallings named to the 2016 All-ACC Academic Team.

From a pair of conference titles and NCAA Regional appearances as a player, through six Big Ten championships and four College World Series teams as an assistant coach, to two conference titles and a pair of NCAA Regionals as a head coach at Kent State, Hall was well-prepared for the task that faced him when he took over the reins at Georgia Tech in December 1993.

In his six years as the head coach at Kent State (1988-93), he guided the Golden Flashes to Mid-American Conference championships and bids to the NCAA Regionals in each of his last two seasons, compiling an 86-28 record during that time.

He forged a 208-117 (.640) record in his six years at Kent State, twice winning Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year honors. He also won more games than any other MAC school from 1989-93. He had 18 Kent State players drafted by major league organizations.

Before his first head-coaching position, Hall served as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan, where the Wolverines won the Big Ten six times, participated in seven NCAA Regionals and four College World Series. During his tenure, Hall coached future major leaguers Jim Abbott, Scott Kamieniecki, Barry Larkin, Hal Morris, Chris Sabo and Gary Wayne.

Larkin was inducted into the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame in 2012, becoming the first of what could be many of Danny Hall's former players to be enshrined.

A former president of the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA), Hall now sits on its Board of Directors and is directly responsible for future elected officers within the ABCA as a member of its Nominations Committee. Hall was also a contributing writer on baserunning techniques in Baseball Strategies, a book produced by the ABCA in 2002.

Hall was selected to the Miami (Ohio) Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998 and the Kent State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005. He was also inducted into the Miami Cradle of Coaches in 2007.

He is married to the former Kara Zufall and has three sons, Danny III, Carter and Colin.

ASSISTANT COACHES

BRYAN PRINCE

Assistant Coach (Hitting)
10th season at Tech

18

Bryan Prince is in his 10th year on The Flats as an assistant baseball coach having returned to Tech as a full-time assistant coach in the summer of 2007. Prince is no stranger to Tech having played for head coach Danny Hall from 1998-2001 and then beginning his coaching career as Tech's volunteer assistant in 2006.

A two-time semifinalist for the prestigious Johnny Bench Award, two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference catcher at Georgia Tech from 1998-2001 and a Georgia Tech Hall of Fame inductee in 2014, Prince works with the Yellow Jackets' hitters and catchers.

Prince also serves as the recruiting coordinator for the Jackets, having locked up seven classes that ranked among the top 40 in the nation, including a 2011 class that ranked as high as sixth and Tech's 2014 freshman class that checked in No. 9. Several standouts have been drafted out of high school but chose to enroll at Tech.

While posting record-breaking offensive numbers under Prince's guidance, five Yellow Jackets have earned All-America honors (Luke Murton – 2009, Tony Plagman – 2010, Derek Dietrich – 2010, Daniel Palka – 2013, Zane Evans – 2013), eight have been named Freshman All-Americans (Dietrich – 2008, Matt Skole – 2009, Kyle Wren – 2011, Evans – 2011, Matt Gonzalez – 2013, Kel Johnson – 2015, Joey Bart – 2016, Tristan English – 2016) and 26 players have been drafted.

In 2009 and 2010 -- his second and third seasons as hitting coach -- the Yellow Jackets bashed 233 home runs, a school-record 122 in 2010 (second-most nationally) and 111 in 2009 (third-most nationally).

Although offensive numbers dipped nationwide in 2011 with the adjustment to the new bats, Georgia Tech remained near the top of the ACC in offense and had three players finish in the ACC's top 10 in hitting -- Matt Skole (.348), Jake Davies (.347) and Kyle Wren (.340), while Jacob Esch was second in the league in doubles (23) and Daniel Palka belted the ACC's fourth-most home runs (12).

Tech's offense was again humming in 2012 as the Jackets led the ACC in home runs (53), finished third in hitting (.294), third in doubles (127) and fourth in RBIs (379). It was a late-season offensive surge that propelled Tech to the ACC title, behind ACC Tournament MVP Jake Davies. The Jackets hit .329 as a team during the four-game sweep in Greensboro, collected 46 hits, outscored the opposition 35-15 and belted seven home runs. Davies' 73 RBIs for the season led the ACC and were fourth nationally, while Palka launched 12 homers for the second-straight year.

Tech's 2013 team bashed its way to a 14-2 mark over the first 16 games, setting a school record by scoring double-digit runs in nine consecutive games. The Jackets finished the season leading the ACC in home runs (58) and were second in batting average (.304) and slugging percentage (.455). All-ACC selections Evans (.361), Wren (.360) and Palka (.342) were each ranked in the top 13 in hitting, while Palka's 17 homers led the league, Evans' 14 homers were second and Wren's 98 hits were second.

In 2014, en route to another ACC title, Daniel Spingola led the league in both hits (82) and triples (8) and the Yellow Jackets' .276 average was third-best in the league. The team led the conference in triples (21) and was second in doubles (110). Spingola (.319) and Matt Gonzalez (.314) each finished among the ACC's top 20 in hitting.

In his eighth year back on the coaching staff in 2015, the Yellow Jackets hit .270 overall as a team, which ranked sixth in the ACC. Catcher A.J. Murray led Tech and was tied for second in the league with 15 home runs on the year, and also ranked sixth with a .579 slugging percentage. Again the Jackets posted a winning record, tallying 32 wins overall before falling in the ACC Tournament by the eventual 2015 NCAA College Baseball National Champions in the Virginia Cavaliers.

Last season, the Jackets swarmed out of the gates to start the season with 12 straight wins, in which Tech outscored their opponents 90-29 and averaged 7.5 runs per contest. On their way to a 38-25 overall record and their 31st overall NCAA Regional appearance in 2016, Tech once again finished among the league leaders in a number of offensive categories in the ACC. The Jackets finished the season second overall with a team batting average of .307, second in slugging percentage at .462, second in hits with 694 and fifth in runs scored with 429. The Yellow Jackets also ranked second in the ACC in home runs (65) and third in doubles (139) on the season. Matt Gonzalez (.378) and Trevor Craport (.352) both ranked in the top 15 in the ACC in hitting on the season, while Gonzalez also ranked second in the league overall with 93 hits on the year. Tristin English was tied for third in the ACC in doubles with 21 in his first year on The Flats and Connor Justice was tied for third as well among the league leaders in runs scored with 62.

A catcher in college, Prince also aided in the development of All-American catcher Zane Evans, who during his Freshman All-American season in 2011, became the first freshman catcher at Tech to serve as the everyday starter since Jason Varitek in 1991. As a junior, Evans hit a team-best .361, tied for the team lead with 66 RBIs and with 14 home runs, he finished three homers shy of winning the team's Triple Crown. Evans was selected as one of three national finalists for the Johnny Bench Award.

In 2014, Tech catchers led the ACC in caught-stealing percentage (40.3) and freshman Arden Pabst finished second in the ACC in caught stealings (16) and percentage (41.0), while in 2015 Pabst threw out a total of 25 would be base stealers to lead the league.

In 2016, both Pabst and freshman Joey Bart threw out over 54 percent of would be base stealers on the season from behind the plate, picking off 24-of-44 would be stealers.

He was also responsible for the development of catcher Jason Haniger, who spent his first two years playing behind All-American Matt Wieters before having two outstanding seasons as a starter where he hit .318 with 45 extra-base hits.

Prince returned to Georgia Tech in 2008 after spending one year as the assistant coach at Indiana. Under his tutelage, sophomore center fielder Andrew Means earned All-Big Ten honors while finishing third in the league in stolen bases (27-of-30) and sixth with a .369 batting average. Means led the Hoosiers in average, steals, slugging percentage (.467) and on base percentage (.397) and finished second on the team in both runs (32) and RBIs (30).

Prior to his appointment at Indiana, Prince spent one season as the Yellow Jackets' volunteer assistant coach, where he worked with Tech's hitters and catchers and helped guide the team to the third College World Series appearance in program history in 2006. The Yellow Jackets closed out the season ranked in the top 10 in the nation with a 50-18 overall record while leading the ACC in runs scored, runs per game, doubles, home runs, RBIs, slugging percentage and walks.

While at Tech, Prince worked with Wieters, who finished his sophomore season in 2006 hitting .355 with team highs in home runs (15), RBIs (71), hits (92), doubles (20) and on base percentage (.480).

Prince originally joined the Georgia Tech coaching staff as a volunteer assistant in 2006 after a four-year career in professional baseball, playing in the Cincinnati Reds organization.

One of the most popular players in Yellow Jacket baseball history, Prince was a four-year letterwinner for head coach Danny Hall from 1998-2001. The Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., native helped Georgia Tech win the 2000 ACC regular season and tournament championships, as well as the NCAA Atlanta Regional Title.

A four-year starter behind the plate, Prince's name can be found throughout the Yellow Jackets' record book. He finished his career in 2001 ranked seventh in school history in hits (278), fifth in RBIs (216), eighth in at bats (788), ninth in doubles (53) and 16th in total bases (403). He also ranked 17th in ACC history in career RBIs after his time at Tech.

Prince was a first-team All-ACC selection in 2000 and 2001, joining Jason Varitek as the only catchers in Georgia Tech history to earn first-team All-ACC honors in consecutive seasons. He was named MVP of the 2000 NCAA Atlanta Regional and elected as Tech's team MVP following that season. He was a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award as the nation's top catcher in both 2000 and 2001.

Prince posted a career batting average of .353, and still ranks among Tech's all-time top 20 in batting. He hit .387 with 77 RBIs as a junior in 2000 and batted .349 with 63 RBIs as a senior in 2001, helping the Yellow Jackets establish the two best team batting averages in school history (.347 in 2001; .342 in 2000).

A 10th-round selection of the Cincinnati Reds in the 2001 Major League Baseball (MLB) Draft, Prince played with Class A Billings of the Pioneer League in the summer of 2001, where he was voted to the league's All-Star Game. He played with Class A Dayton in 2002 and was elected to the Midwest League All-Star Game. Prince played with Class A Potomac of the Carolina League in 2003 and 2004 before retiring from professional baseball.

Prince earned his degree in management from Georgia Tech in 2005. He is married to the former Tracy Carter, also a Georgia Tech graduate, and the couple resides in Atlanta.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JASON HOWELL

Assistant Coach (Pitching)
Fifth season at Tech

34

Jason Howell is in his fifth season on The Flats having been introduced on the Georgia Tech staff in July, 2012. He joined the Yellow Jackets as the pitching coach following a successful five-year run in a similar position at UNC Wilmington.

The highly-regarded Howell, who played and coached at the University of North Carolina and was a four-year pitcher in the pros, developed one of the Colonial Athletic Association's leading staffs at UNCW. The Seahawks reached the NCAA Regionals in 2012 for the first time since 2008.

In his four seasons as Tech's pitching coach, seven Yellow Jacket arms have been drafted, including Buck Farmer (2013), Matthew Grimes (2013 and 2014), Sam Clay (2014), Josh Heddinger (2014), Dusty Isaacs (2014), Matthew Gorst (2016) and Brandon Gold (2016).

Farmer was a National Pitcher of the Year semifinalist and earned All-ACC honors in 2013 under Howell's tutelage, while Gold (2015 and 2016) and Gorst (2016) each earned All-ACC honors as well. Gorst also earned NCBWA All-American second-team honors in 2016.

In his first season on The Flats in 2013, he guided senior Buck Farmer to first-team All-ACC honors as the senior righty went 9-5 with a 2.78 ERA. Farmer, who was second in the ACC with 122 strikeouts, was drafted in the fifth round by the Detroit Tigers. Howell also oversaw the development of freshman lefty Jonathan King, who worked his way from a reliever, to a midweek starter and then to a weekend starter over the course of the season. King finished with a 4.04 ERA and a 6-5 record. Sophomore Josh Heddinger also made great strides under Howell's leadership and would record one of the greatest postseason pitching performances in Tech history with his complete game, two-hit shutout of No. 2 Vanderbilt in the NCAA Nashville Regional.

In the 2014 campaign, the Yellow Jackets shaved one run off the team ERA from the previous season, finishing with a 3.35 ERA -- Tech's lowest since 2011 and the second-lowest since 1993. Howell was forced to shuffle the rotation after early, season-ending injuries to weekend starters King and Cole Pitts. Yet redshirt junior lefty Devin Stanton flourished on the weekend (5-3, 2.24 ERA) and rookie Ben Parr emerged as a dominant midweek starter (5-4, 2.62).

Tech's strength was its bullpen in 2014 as sophomore Sam Clay (4-1, 1.26 ERA, 8 saves) and Dusty Isaacs (8-5, 1.92, 7) combined for 15 of Tech's school-record tying 18 saves and Clay tied a school record for fewest runs allowed in a season (eight). Isaacs was the MVP of the ACC Tournament.

In 2015, sophomore Zac Ryan posted a stellar 9-1 record overall with seven saves in 28 appearances out of the bullpen for Coach Howell's staff, while Gold, an All-ACC selection, led the Tech starters with a 7-3 record in a 3.26 ERA on the season. King led the Jackets and ranked 10th in the ACC in innings pitched at 92.0, as he made a team-high 15 starts on the mound.

The 2016 season was an injury plagued season for Howell and the Tech pitching staff, as King, Jonathan Hughes, Ben Schniederjans and Tristan English all saw their time limited on the mound due to injuries. With a number of starters and pitchers transitioning into new roles on the year, the Jackets turned in a team ERA of 4.73 on the season. However, there were a number of bright spots on the season, as Gorst was recognized as an All-ACC and a second-team All-American performer as he went 2-1 with 12 saves and an ERA of 0.55. Gold posted a 9-3 record overall with a 2.48 ERA, while out of the pen Parr went 7-1 in 25 appearances. Walk-on Bailey Combs had a strong season on the mound, as he made 11 appearances and posted an ERA under 1.00 at 0.64 for the year.

Before accepting the Georgia Tech position, Howell's UNC Wilmington pitching staff ranked 67th nationally (second in the CAA) in 2012, boasting a team ERA of 3.61 and shaving nearly two runs per game off its ERA from the previous season. Senior right-handed starter Tyler McSwain (3.18 ERA) and junior left-handed starter Mat Batts (3.04) keyed the staff's rise in 2012, and each were All-CAA performers. McSwain, a first-team pick, broke the CAA's all-time record for wins in conference play with 17. Four key relievers posted ERAs of less than 3.00.

In 2010, under the direction of Howell, UNCW returned to the top of the CAA, leading the 11-team circuit in ERA (4.58), strikeouts (479) and opponent's batting average (.265). The Seahawks ranked 42nd nationally in ERA and were ninth in hits allowed per game, allowing nine per nine innings.

Cameron Roth, who would be drafted by the Baltimore Orioles, finished fifth in the conference with a 2.98 ERA while McSwain was ninth with a 4.02 mark. Joining Roth as draft selections were Stephen Harrold (12th round, San Francisco) and Seth Frankoff (27th round, Oakland).

In his first season at UNCW, Howell made an immediate impact on the staff. Brad Holt and Jeff Hatcher earned first team All-CAA honors while Harrold and Roth were named All-Americans in addition to their CAA All-Freshman honors. UNCW topped the CAA in earned run average. In conference play, Seahawk pitchers compiled a league-leading 3.84 ERA and held opponents to a league-best .255 batting average. Holt, who also earned three All-America honors, was the 33rd pick overall in the Major League Baseball draft after leading the conference with 11 wins and ranking second with a 3.18 ERA.

Prior to working at UNCW, Howell played and coached at North Carolina, and also played professionally for four years.

A native of Millers Creek, N.C., Howell went to UNCW following two seasons as an assistant coach at North Carolina, his alma mater. He coached first base while working with the pitching staff under the direction of assistant coach Scott Forbes.

The Tar Heels reached the championship series of the NCAA College World Series in 2006 and 2007 - both of Howell's years in Chapel Hill. The 2007 staff fashioned a 3.52 earned run average, ranking 12th nationally, and featured draft picks Luke Putkonen (3rd round, Detroit), Andrew Carignan (5th round, Oakland) and Robert Woodard (20th round, San Diego). In 2006, major league draft selections, Andrew Miller (1st round, Detroit), Daniel Bard (1st round, Boston) and national ERA leader Jonathan Hovis (FA, New York Yankees) led the Tar Heels into the finals.

Howell began his coaching career as a pitching coach for the Southern Ohio Copperheads of the Great Lakes League, a summer collegiate league, in 2005.

He played three seasons at Appalachian State before concluding his collegiate career at UNC, where he earned a bachelor's degree in 2002. He also graduated from UNC in 2008 with a master's degree.

In 2001, he earned second team All-ACC honors after both pitching and playing in the field for the Tar Heels. On the mound, Howell went 6-2 with four saves and was also second on the team with a .350 batting average with 13 doubles and 29 runs batted in. For his efforts, Howell earned the S.H. Basnight Award as the Tar Heels' Most Valuable Pitcher.

Prior to joining the UNC coaching staff, Howell was a member of the Boston Red Sox farm system for four seasons before retiring from professional baseball in 2005. He compiled a 28-14 mark, collected 23 saves and recorded a 3.86 ERA with the Red Sox. In 2002, he paced Boston's minor league circuit with 17 saves for Augusta and later topped the organization in 2003 when he made 48 appearances for Sarasota of the Florida State League.

Howell married the former Meredith White on Nov. 14, 2009. The couple has two young daughters, Lena and Lillian.

MIKE NICKEAS

Volunteer Assistant Coach
Third season at Tech

12

Mike Nickeas is in his third year back with the Georgia Tech baseball program after playing three years under Danny Hall in the early 2000's. He played 11 years of professional baseball, including four years in Major League Baseball (MLB).

He was promoted to volunteer assistant coach prior to the start of the 2016 season, after spending the 2015 year as a manager while he completed his bachelor's degree in business administration.

In his first year as a volunteer assistant coach in 2016, the Yellow Jackets finished the injury plagued season at 38-25 overall and made their 31st overall NCAA Regional appearance. The only school from the state of Georgia to advance to the NCAA postseason, Tech went 2-2 in the regional to finish as the runner-up. Tech registered a non-conference midseason sweep of the eventual 2016 NCAA National Champions in Coastal Carolina from April 29 thru May 1, taking three straight from the Chanticleers by scores of 9-1, 9-8 and 4-2 in a shortened-contest. On top of the sweep over the eventual national champions, Tech also took two-of-three games on the road at both North Carolina and Clemson in ACC play and used a three-run 10th inning to upend Georgia 6-3 in the Yellow Jackets' final game at Turner Field.

In the fall of 2016, Nickeas served as a bench coach for the Great Britain National Team that competed in the qualifying round of the 2017 World Baseball Classic held at MCU Park in Brooklyn, N.Y. from Sept. 22-25. Great Britain went 2-2 overall with wins over Pakistan and Brazil before falling to Israel 9-1 in the championship game.

A standout catcher for the Yellow Jackets from 2002-04, Nickeas played in 151 games in his collegiate career and hit .291 with 17 home runs and 95 RBIs. He was a freshman on the Jackets' 2002 College World Series squad and helped Tech to an ACC Championship in 2003. He also led the team in hitting his sophomore season.

Nickeas was drafted in the fifth round by the Texas Rangers in 2004, then traded to the New York Mets in 2006 for Victor Diaz. He made his Major League debut on September 2, 2010 for the Mets. Nickeas recorded his first Major League hit off of Yovani Gallardo, his first homer off of J.A. Happ and hit a grand slam off of Dale Thayer of the Padres during his MLB career.

Nickeas played three seasons with the Mets and in 2012 was one of two catchers to handle R.A. Dickey in his breakout Cy Young winning season. In 2013 Nickeas was traded to the Toronto Blue Jays with fellow catcher Josh Thole and pitcher R.A. Dickey in exchange for John Buck, Travis d'Arnaud, Wuilmer Becerra and Noah Syndergaard. Nickeas retired from professional baseball following the 2014 season.

Nickeas was born in Vancouver, B.C. to Mark and Sherrie. Mark was a professional soccer player for the Vancouver Whitecaps of the NASL. Nickeas grew up in Westlake Village, Calif. and signed with the Yellow Jackets after a prep career at Westlake High School.

Nickeas played for the USA Youth Team, Junior National Team and the USA National Team, becoming only the second player in USA Baseball history to play on three teams. The 2003 USA National Team included a total of four Yellow Jackets in Nickeas, Eric Patterson, Tyler Greene and Micah Owings.

In 2007 he was granted dual citizenship (Great Britain) and played for the Great Britain National Team in the 2007 European Baseball Championship, helping the British to a silver medal.

TYLER GIBSON

Undergraduate Assistant Coach
Second season at Tech

19

A son of a baseball coach, his father Craig Gibson is the head baseball coach at Mercer University, baseball is in his blood as he played four years of minor league baseball before coming to Georgia Tech to pursue his bachelor's degree.

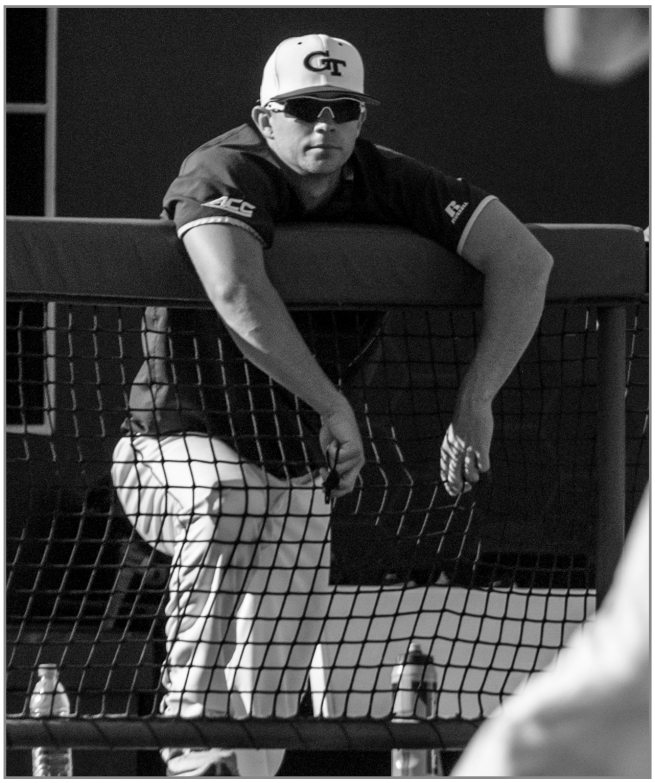

Born in West Palm Beach, Fla., Gibson grew up in Macon, Ga. where in high school he was a two-time Georgia All-State player at Stratford Academy.

Tabbed the 2011 Georgia High School Baseball Player of the Year his senior season, Gibson was drafted in the 15th round of the 2011 MLB Draft by the Detroit Tigers.

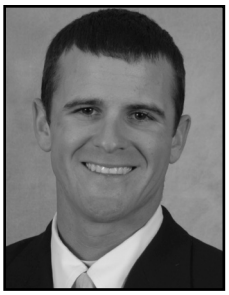

Gibson was ranked as high as the No. 20 prospect overall and was rated the best athlete in the Detroit Tigers system after the 2011 season.

He went on to play professionally in the Detroit Tigers system from 2011-15 seeing time with the GCL Tigers, Connecticut Tigers, Lakeland Flying Tigers and West Michigan Whitecaps.

A Georgia Tech commit out of high school before signing with the Detroit Tigers, Gibson is currently working towards his bachelor's in administration at Georgia Tech.

BASEBALL STAFF

NICK SCHERER

Director of Baseball Operations
10th season at Tech

Nick Scherer is in his 10th year as the director of baseball operations for the Georgia Tech program after playing four years for the Yellow Jackets and head coach Danny Hall from 2004-07.

In his current role, Scherer is responsible for coordinating the Yellow Jackets' travel plans, equipment management and clubhouse operations in addition to assisting in alumni relations and marketing for the Georgia Tech baseball team. Scherer also serves as the director for the Danny Hall Baseball Camps.

A catcher that provided depth behind the plate during his tenure, Scherer was a leader in the locker room and served as the primary catcher for Tech starter Eddie Burns in 2007. Scherer played in 47 games from 2005-07 after receiving a redshirt in 2004. He was a product of the highly-touted East Cobb Baseball program and a member of the East Cobb Yankees summer team that captured the Connie Mack World Series titles in 2001 and 2003.

Scherer has served as an assistant coach for the East Cobb Yankees since 2007. In his first two years with the Yankees, the team picked up a runner-up finish in 2007 and a championship in the 2008 Connie Mack World Series. He has also been the assistant coach on staff for the Yankees teams that have won the 2012 Perfect Game World Wood Bat National Championship, the 2013 CABA Championship, and the 2013 Connie Mack World Series Championship.

More recently, his East Cobb Yankees squads have also won the 2015 Perfect Game World Wood Bat National Championship and were crowned both the 2015 and 2016 Connie Mack World Series Champions.

Scherer is a native of Roswell, Ga. and graduated from Georgia Tech with a degree in management in December 2007.

He is married to the former Lauren Neylan. The two reside in Marietta, Ga.

STEVE TAMBORRA

Assistant Player Development Coach
18th season at Tech

In his 18th year as an assistant player development coach at Georgia Tech, Steve Tamborra oversees the highly-touted strength and conditioning program for the Georgia Tech baseball team.

Since his arrival more than a decade ago, Tamborra has been responsible for the development and implementation of strength training regimes of many student-athletes that have gone on to play professional baseball, with several of those athletes returning to Georgia Tech during their offseason to continue training with him.

In 2013, Tamborra was named a Master Strength and Conditioning Coach (MSCC) by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa). This honor is the highest given in the strength and conditioning profession.

Tamborra joined the Tech staff in November 1999, after five years in a similar capacity at Florida State where he worked with the baseball, softball and football teams from 1995-99.

He earned a Bachelor of Science in Nutrition and Fitness from Florida State in 1994 and a Master of Science in Athletic Administration from Florida State in 1996.

Tamborra is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association, TPI Certified Fitness Professional Level 2 by Titleist Performance Institute, a CrossFit Level 1 Trainer Certificate, a certified Health/Fitness Instructor by the American College of Sports Medicine and a Certified Club Coach by USA Weightlifting.

He has written one book, Complete Conditioning for Baseball, which was published in late 2007.

Tamborra is married to the former Stacy Venable, a pitcher for the Florida State softball team from 1997-99. They have a seven-year old daughter, Malayna, and four-year old twins, Austin and Payton.

PAUL WOLKOFF

Athletic Trainer
Ninth season at Tech

Paul Wolkoff joined the Georgia Tech Athletic Association in the sports medicine department in 2008 and is responsible for the care of baseball team. Prior to the 2014-15 season, he worked with the men's and women's cross country and track & field teams.

Wolkoff came to Georgia Tech from Progressive Health Aviation Services where he worked for one year.

He was the head athletic trainer at LaGrange College for 10 years where he oversaw all aspects of medical care and coverage for a 16-sport athletics program. Prior to LaGrange College, he served as assistant director and senior athletic trainer at UAB Sports Medicine.

Wolkoff graduated from Georgia Tech in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in management. He later earned his master's in physical education from East Tennessee State in 1995. While working as a graduate assistant at ETSU, he mainly worked with the staff physical therapist. He also earned a certificate in Health Sciences while at Tech.

He is a NATABOC Certified Athletic Trainer and a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainer's Association, Southeast Athletic Trainers' Association, and the Georgia Athletic Trainers' Association, and he is licensed by the state of Georgia as an athletic trainer.

DAVID MCDANIEL

Athletic Equipment Manager
Second season at Tech

David McDaniel joined the Georgia Tech Athletic Association as assistant equipment manager in September 2015. He is responsible for the purchasing, inventory, issuing and maintenance of all athletic apparel and equipment for Tech's baseball, softball, and track programs.

Prior to joining the Tech staff, McDaniel spent two-plus years as the head football equipment manager and video coordinator at Mercer in Macon, Ga. He handled the apparel and equipment needs for the football and lacrosse teams, while also coordinating all video services for Mercer's football and lacrosse teams.

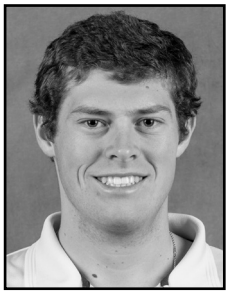

This is his second stint in Atlanta as he was a graduate assistant equipment manager at Georgia State from 2009-12. While at GSU, he assisted with the complete start of the Panthers' new football program. While at Georgia State, he also was a member of the video staff of the Arena Football League's Georgia Force and was an assistant soccer coach at North Cobb Christian School in Acworth, Ga.

He graduated from Liberty University with a bachelor's degree in sport management in 2009 and he later earned his master's degree in sport administration from Georgia State in 2012.

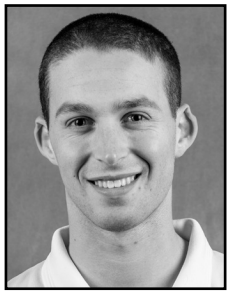

He and his wife Katie live in Atlanta.

ADMINISTRATION

G.P. 'BUD' PETERSON

Institute President

G.P. "Bud" Peterson was appointed as the 11th president of Georgia Tech on April 1, 2009. Prior to his appointment, he served as chancellor at the University of Colorado at Boulder (2006-2009), provost at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, New York (2000-2006), and program director at the National Science Foundation for the Thermal Transport and Thermal Processing Program (1993-1994). He has held various positions at Texas A&M University, beginning in 1981 as an assistant professor of engineering technology and Halliburton Professor of Mechanical Engineering (1990), the College of Engineering's Tenneco Professor, head of the Department of Mechanical Engineering (1993-1996), executive associate dean of engineering (1996-2000), and associate vice chancellor for engineering for the Texas A&M University System (1996-2000). Prior to his service at Texas A&M, he was a visiting research scientist at NASA-Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas (1981-1982), associate professor and head of the General Engineering Technology Department at Kansas Technical Institute in Salina, Kan. (1979-1981), and taught mathematics, physics and chemistry at Shawnee Mission South High School in Overland Park, Kan. (1978-1979), and Wabaunsee County High School in Alma, Kan. (1977-1978).

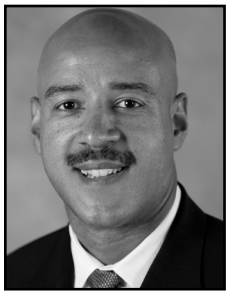

Throughout his career, Peterson has played an active role in helping to establish the national education and research agendas, serving on numerous industry, government, and academic task forces and committees. He has served as a member of a number of congressional task forces, research councils, and advisory boards, including the Office of Naval Research (ONR), the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA), the Department of Energy (DOE), the National Research Council (NRC), and the National Academy of Engineering (NAE). In addition, he has served as a member of the Board of Directors and vice president for education for the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics (AIAA) and is currently serving as a member of the National Science Board (NSB), co-chair of the Government Relations Committee of the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities (APLU), as a member of the U.S. Council on Competitiveness, and was recently appointed by Secretary Gary Locke as a member of the National Advisory Council on Innovation and Entrepreneurship (NACIE).

As chancellor of the University of Colorado, Peterson led the development of a new university wide strategic plan, Flagship 2030, which defined a vision for the university for the next 20 years. In his nearly three years as chancellor, freshman applications increased by 35 percent, the number of under-represented minorities in the freshmen class increased by 38 percent, sponsored research increased by more than 18 percent, and private philanthropy for the university increased by nearly 80 percent.

As provost at Rensselaer, he played a key role in the institutional transformation and the dramatic improvement in the quality, size, and diversity of the faculty – overseeing the hiring of nearly 40 percent of the faculty, increasing the total number of tenured and tenure-track faculty by 20 percent, and improving the diversity of the tenured/tenure-track faculty by more than doubling the number of under-represented minorities and increasing the number of women by 40 percent. In addition, during his tenure as provost, the quality, size, and diversity of the student body increased, with the number of full-time PhD students increasing by 25%.

Peterson's research interests have focused on the fundamental aspects of phase change heat transfer, including the heat transfer in reduced gravity environments, boiling from enhanced surfaces, and some of the earliest work in the area of flow and phase change heat transfer in microchannels. Early investigations focused on applications involving the thermal control of manned and unmanned spacecraft and progressed through applications of phase change heat transfer to the thermal control of electronic components and devices. More recently, investigations have included fundamental applications of phase change heat transfer to the field of biotechnology, including the insitu treatment of cancerous tissue using hypo and hyperthermia to arrest epileptic seizures through the rapid cooling of localized brain tissue, which required highly efficient heat dissipation devices capable of dissipating thermal energy to surrounding tissue.

A Fellow of both the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, Peterson is the author or co-author of 14 books or book chapters, 180 refereed journal articles, more than 150 conference publications, and holds eight patents with two others pending. He is a member of several professional organizations and the recipient of numerous national and international honors and awards for both teaching and research.

REGINALD DESROCHES

Faculty Athletics Representative

Reginald DesRoches is the Karen and John Huff School Chair and Professor of Civil and Environmental Engineering at the Georgia Institute of Technology. DesRoches took over as FAR on July 1, 2014, after Professor Sue Ann Bidstrip stepped down following a five-year stint as FAR.

As Chair of the School of Civil & Environmental Engineering, he provides leadership to a top-ranked program with 100 faculty and staff and 1,100 students. His primary research interests are in design of resilient infrastructure systems under extreme loads. He has published more than 300 articles in the general area of resilience and seismic risk assessment, and he has given more than 100 presentations in over 35 different countries.

A fellow of the American Society of Civil Engineers and the society's Structural Engineering Institute, Dr. DesRoches has served as the key technical leader in the United States' response to the Haiti earthquake and led a team of 28 engineers, architects, city planners, and social scientists to study the impact of the earthquake. He has also participated in numerous congressional briefings to underscore the critical role that university research must play in addressing the country's infrastructure crisis and resilience to natural hazards. Dr. DesRoches has served as thesis advisor to 29 Doctoral and 17 Master's thesis students.

Dr. DesRoches serves on the National Academy of Sciences Resilience Roundtable and the Academy's Board on Army Science and Technology as well as on the National Science Foundation's Advisory Committee for Engineering, the Global Earthquake Modeling Scientific Board, and the advisory board for the Natural Disasters, Coastal Infrastructure and Emergency Management Research Center. He has chaired the American Society of Civil Engineers' Seismic Effects Committee as well as the executive committee of the Technical Council on Lifeline Earthquake Engineering.

In recent years, Dr. DesRoches has testified before U.S. House and Senate subcommittees on earthquake resilience and science and participated in Washington, D.C., roundtables on topics ranging from disaster preparedness to challenges for African-American men in STEM fields. National media outlets frequently contact him for expert analysis following earthquake events, including CNN, CNN International, LiveScience, National Geographic, and Asia Times online. He also is frequently called on as a champion of the critical role that university research must play in addressing the country's infrastructure crisis and resilience to natural hazards.

Dr. DesRoches has received the Presidential Early Career Award for Scientists and Engineers (PECASE) in 2002 — the highest honor bestowed upon scientists and engineers in the early stages of their careers. Most recently, he was a recipient of the 2007 ASCE Walter L. Huber Civil Engineering Research Prize, the 2015 ASCE Charles Martin Duke Lifeline Earthquake Engineering Award, the Georgia Tech Outstanding Doctoral Thesis Advisor Award (2010), and the Georgia Tech ANAK Award (2008). The ANAK award is the highest honor the undergraduate student body can bestow on a Georgia Tech faculty member.

DesRoches was born in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, and grew up in Queens, New York. He earned his Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering, Master of Science in Civil Engineering, and Ph.D. in Structural Engineering at the University of California, Berkeley, where he was recently elected to the civil engineering department's Academy of Distinguished Alumni.

ADMINISTRATION

TODD STANSBURY

Director of Athletics

Georgia Institute of Technology introduced former Tech football player Todd Stansbury as the Institute's ninth director of athletics on Sept. 22, 2016.

Stansbury has served as Oregon State's athletic director since June 2015 following a nine-year stint as the university's executive associate athletic director from 2003-2012. During his time at Oregon State, Stansbury was part of a senior management team that raised $150 million for a football stadium expansion, in addition to fundraising for the construction of a sports performing center. He also was part of a team that established several career development initiatives for student-athletes.

"Todd Stansbury is committed to athletes' success both on and off the field," Peterson said. "His global perspective and leadership experience in athletics and development, combined with a lifelong passion for Georgia Tech, make him the ideal candidate. I believe this is one of those rare golden moments in life where opportunity meets ambition. We welcome him home."

Stansbury's resume also includes roles as athletic director at the University of Central Florida (2012-2015) and East Tennessee State University (2000-2003). He was Georgia Tech's assistant athletic director for academics from 1988-1995 under Homer Rice. Now he returns to campus to guide a department that features 15 teams in 17 NCAA Division I varsity sports.

"I am honored and humbled to have the opportunity to return to Georgia Tech, a place that has played such a large role in my life and the place responsible for opening up a world to me that I didn't even know existed," Stansbury said. "I am thankful to President Peterson and the selection committee for providing me this opportunity."

Stansbury grew up in Canada. When he was 10 years old and on vacation with his family in Florida, he befriended several Georgia Tech football players staying at the same hotel. During the drive back home to Ontario, his family stopped on campus to see a practice. That's when Stansbury knew he wanted to play football on The Flats. He earned varsity letters while at Georgia Tech from 1980-1984 as a middle linebacker and on special teams for head coach Bill Curry. He was a third-round draft pick of the Canadian Football League's Saskatchewan Roughriders in 1984.

As the ninth director of athletics in Georgia Tech history, he follows in the footsteps of storied names such as Rice, John Heisman and Bobby Dodd. He was hired following a national search that began in August 2016 when Mike Bobinski accepted the athletics director position at Purdue University. A nine-member search committee led by Georgia Tech Foundation President Al Trujillo identified candidates. The search process was assisted by Turnkey Search.

"I want to thank Al and the search committee for their outstanding guidance in evaluating candidates," Peterson said. "I'm also personally grateful for the leadership and (interim A.D.) Paul (Griffin), who interrupted his retirement to return to campus to lead our Athletics Association. He will continue to be a great asset during the transition period for the remainder of 2016."

Georgia Tech has achieved a school-record Graduation Success Rate (84 percent according to the most recent NCAA figures from November 2015) in each of the past three years. The Institute also recorded outstanding scores in the Academic Progress Rate (APR), which provides a real-time NCAA metric to measure the success of institutions in moving student-athletes toward graduation. The latest APR statistics, released in April, reported that 13 of Georgia Tech's 15 teams scored 980 or better out of a possible 1,000 points.

MARK ROUNTREE

Deputy A.D.
(Baseball Administrator)

Mark Rountree, a former football student-athlete at Louisiana Tech and experienced athletics administrator who most recently served as the director of athletics at Portland State University, joined the Georgia Tech athletics staff as a deputy athletics director on Nov. 30, 2016.

Rountree, 47, served as Portland State's director of athletics since Jan. 2, 2015. In less than two years as A.D., he instituted fundraising and oversaw groundbreaking for the Viking Pavilion Project, a $50 million renovation of PSU's main athletics facility, which will include a 3,000-seat arena and 15,000 square feet dedicated to student-athletes' academic pursuits when construction is completed in 2018. Also under Rountree's direction, Portland State set fundraising records during its annual Wine and Roses events in both 2015 and 2016.

He hired new women's basketball, softball and track and field head coaches at Portland State and signed football head coach Bruce Barnum to a five-year contract. Barnum went on to lead PSU to a 9-3 record and NCAA Division I FCS playoff appearance in his first full season at the helm in 2015. In addition to posting its best record as a Division I program, Portland State football also recorded its highest home attendance in seven seasons in `15.

Prior to his arrival at Portland State, Rountree served as deputy athletics director at Miami (Ohio) from 2013-14. At Miami, he oversaw the daily operation of the athletics department, served as sport administrator for football and men's basketball and supervised academics, business operations, compliance, equipment and strength and conditioning. He was also the department's chief financial officer and was responsible for strategic planning.

Rountree's administrative experience also includes stints at Georgetown (senior associate A.D./internal operations -- 2008-13), Oregon State (associate A.D./compliance -- 2004-08), Towson (assistant A.D./compliance -- 2000-04), Maryland (compliance coordinator -- 1997-2000), Texas Pan-American (assistant A.D./1994-97) and Louisiana Tech (director of academic support -- 1991-94). It was during his five years at Oregon State that he worked with Stansbury, who was OSU's executive associate A.D. at the time.

A native of West Monroe, La., Rountree was a four-year letterwinner as a running back/wide receiver at Louisiana Tech from 1987-1990. He graduated from Louisiana Tech with a bachelor's degree in history in 1991.

Omaha, at last. Georgia Tech's baseball squad finally reached college baseball's promised land in the summer of 1994 under first-year head coach Danny Hall. Over the previous decade, Georgia Tech had produced one of America's most consistent baseball programs, averaging 45 wins per season while earning 10-straight NCAA Tournament invitations. Included in that span were numerous national and No. 1-rankings, and yet no College World Series appearances. But all of that changed in 1994 when the Yellow Jackets outlasted a talented Washington club, 18-7, in the final game of the Midwest II Regional in Wichita, Kansas.

With four of the premier talents in all of college baseball, including consensus first-team All-Americas Jason Varitek, Nomar Garciaparra and Jay Payton, and second-team All-American Brad Rigby - all four of whom were taken among the first 36 players in the June, 1994, draft - Tech headed to Omaha, where they came within one win of the school's first NCAA title.

The Yellow Jackets faced a talented Cal State Fullerton team in the opening game of the 1994 College World Series, with both teams throwing their aces. The Jackets drew first blood in the bottom of the fifth inning when Garciaparra earned a bases-loaded walk. Rigby then took over, striking out the side in the sixth while adding whiffs in the seventh and eighth as well as two more in the ninth to finish with a three-hitter and 10 strikeouts.

A familiar foe was on deck, with Georgia Tech squaring off against Mike Martin's Florida State team in Yellow Jackets' second game of the College World Series. With the score knotted at 4-4 in the top of the ninth inning, Varitek singles home Garciaparra with the first run of an eight-run explosion that set a CWS record for scoring in an extra frame. Matt Saier, the No. 9 hitter in the Tech order, capped the outburst with a grand slam to help the Jackets move on to game three.

Faced with a rematch against Cal State Fullerton, Tech stood one win away for playing for the championship. Payton snapped a 1-for-8 CWS slump with a two-run homer in the top of the first inning, but the Titans tied the game with runs in the first and fourth innings against Rigby. Both teams relied on pitching and defense over the next seven innings before Garciaparra ended the scoring drought with a solo home run in the top of the 12th inning. Fullerton quickly responded by putting runners on the corners with no outs, but Chris Myers struck out DH Sal Mancuso, popped up first baseman D.C. Olsen and retired left fielder Brian King on a liner to Payton to give the Yellow Jackets a berth in the NCAA championship game.

The Yellow Jackets' enjoyment in the title match up is short-lived, as Oklahoma scored a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning before home runs in the second and third innings by Varitek and Garciaparra tie the game at 2-2. Disaster struck for Georgia Tech over the next three innings though, as the Yellow Jackets yielded nine runs - five in the fourth and four more in the sixth - to the Sooners, who went on to capture the national title with a 13-5 win.

Georgia Tech ended the 1994 season with its highest final ranking ever. Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and USA Today all ranked the Yellow Jackets No. 2 in the year-end polls, a mark that has been unmatched since Tech's magical 1994 run.

With Georgia Tech's emphatic 11-5 victory over Florida Atlantic to win the NCAA Atlanta Super Regional, Kyle Bakker was looking forward to the homecoming he'd always dreamed of. A native of Omaha, Bakker returned to his hometown as part of just the second Georgia Tech team to ever advance to the College World Series. The big man didn't disappoint in his one and only hometown appearance either - shutting out South Carolina through eight innings while recording nine strikeouts to lead Georgia Tech to an 11-0 win in the Yellow Jackets' opening game of the 2002 College World Series. Victor Menocal and Matt Murton recorded four hits apiece to pace Tech's offense, and Brian Burks shut the door on the Gamecocks by recording three outs on just six pitches to end the game.

The Yellow Jackets didn't fare as well two days later, as Clemson jumped on Georgia Tech early with an eight-run explosion in the second inning. Tech would get as close as two runs in the sixth inning, but Matt Henrie held the Yellow Jackets to just one hit over the final 2.1 innings to preserve the Tigers' 9-7 win. Menocal and Jason Perry collected three hits apiece and Murton and Eric Patterson each added two hits in the game as Georgia Tech out-hit the Tigers, 14-9, and played flawless defense, but struggled to drive in runs, leaving a staggering 13 men on base.

Playing out of the loser's bracket two days later, Georgia Tech again faced the Gamecocks but couldn't produce the same results. Timely hitting by the Gamecocks, combined with costly errors by the Yellow Jackets, helped South Carolina stake a 9-2 lead through 7.5 innings. Tech answered with a pair of runs in the bottom of the seventh on a two-run home run by Jeremy Slayden, and the Jackets tacked on another run in the bottom of the eighth inning, but the comeback fell short as South Carolina moved on with a 9-5 win.

The 2002 season was one of the finest in school history, as the Yellow Jackets set a new school record with 52 wins while eclipsing the 50-win mark for the fourth time in the program's history. Six Yellow Jackets were selected in the 2002 MLB Draft, including Victor Menocal, who was named to the All-College World Series team after batting a blistering .563 with six runs scored in Omaha.

The Yellow Jackets also finished as a consensus top-10 team for just the third time under head coach Danny Hall, including a No. 5 final ranking by Collegiate Baseball and USA Today while Baseball America ranked Georgia Tech at No. 8.

The 2006 season marked Georgia Tech's third trip to Omaha under head coach Danny Hall, and the Yellow Jackets drew an opening-round match up against a familiar foe, Atlantic Coast Conference champion Clemson. The Yellow Jackets and Tigers were just two of a league-record four ACC teams taking part in the 2006 College World Series, joining Miami and North Carolina in Omaha.

The Yellow Jackets jumped on the Tigers early, scoring three runs in the top of the first inning. Wally Crancer doubled to reach base with one out and scored on a run-scoring single from Matt Wieters. A two-run home run by pitcher-turned-outfielder Jeff Kindel quickly made the score 3-0 in Tech's favor. Meanwhile, junior left-hander Lee Hyde kept Clemson's batters off balance all afternoon, holding the Tigers scoreless through seven innings, but the league champions mounted a comeback in the eighth inning. Clemson scored eight runs in the frame and held on to take the 8-4 win in the opener.

Dropped into the CWS loser's bracket, the Yellow Jackets found themselves matched up against Cal State Fullerton in the tournament's first elimination game on Sunday, June 18. Tech again scored three runs in the first inning, with RBI singles from Kindel and Wes Hodges and a sacrifice fly from Whit Robbins. Blake Wood cruised through the first three innings before yielding runs in both the fourth and fifth. The Titans would take the lead with back-to-back run-scoring hits in the fifth inning to chase Wood, but the Jackets answered with a solo home run from Wieters in the sixth inning to tie the game. The score remained tied until the top of the ninth, when Cal State Fullerton scored two runs on an infield single.

Despite the 0-2 record in Omaha in 2006, the season was special for several reasons. The Yellow Jackets eclipsed the 50-win mark for just the fifth time in history, and fourth under Hall. Tech led the league in runs (8.7 pg), doubles, home runs, RBI, slugging percentage and walks, while seven Yellow Jackets were selected in 2006 MLB Draft, led by second round selection Wes Hodges.

Tech turned in a consensus top-10 season, according to the final national college baseball rankings. Baseball America and USA Today listed the Yellow Jackets' at No. 7, while Collegiate Baseball had Georgia Tech ranked No. 8.

GEORGIA TECH'S MAJOR LEAGUERS

Listed here are 65 major league baseball players whose enrollment at Georgia Tech is documented by records in the Tech alumni and registrar's offices. Not all of them actually played baseball at Tech, and a few were enrolled for no more than one quarter or one semester. This list was originally compiled with the help of Tech alumnus Richard Musterer and the Society for American Baseball Research.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS

GTE, CoSIDA, ESPN The Magazine, Capital One

The College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) annually select the ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America Teams. To be nominated, a student-athlete must be a starter or important reserve with at least a 3.20 cumulative GPA for his career. Athletes are not eligible until they have reached sophomore athletic and academic standing at his current Institution.

The years prior to 1900 are incomplete, but the scores listed for those years have been documented.

Georgia Tech began playing its home games at Rose Bowl Field in 1930, and Russ Chandler Stadium opened on that same site in 1985.

Before that, the Yellow Jackets played their home games at Tech Park, Brisbine Park, Piedmont Park and Grant Field.

ALL-TIME NO. 1 RANKINGS

Georgia Tech has been ranked as the top team in the country 11 times in its history for a total of 30 weeks. In 1993, the Jackets were ranked No. 1 by Baseball America for four straight weeks and returned to the top spot in all three polls on May 17, Tech's first unanimous choice ever. The Jackets opened the 1994 season ranked No. 1 and proceeded to advance to the College World Series where they finished as the national runner-up. Tech returned to the top spot after winning the 2000 ACC Tournament. The Yellow Jackets opened the 2001 season as the nation's preseason No. 1 team and spent six weeks at the top of the poll, their longest stay ever. Georgia Tech opened the 2003 season as the nation's No. 1 team according to Baseball America, and returned to the top spot on Mar. 28, 2005, after opening the season 21-5 and 11-1 in the ACC.
