LEADING OFF

• The Owls are coming off another series win, their second of the 2019 season against UT Martin. Kennesaw State won its first two games of the series but dropped the finale.

• Brooks Buckler has gotten off to impressive starts in 2019. Although he does not have a decision, he leads the team in innings pitched (19.0) and is third on the team in punchouts (15). He is also the least run supported pitcher on the staff, as he has just had just 3.3 runs per game of support, almost two runs below staff average.

• Not only has Buckler been effective at striking batters out, he has unbeatable command, walking just two batters. He paces the ASUN and checks in at 68th in the nation in strikeout-to-walk ratio (7.5 strikeouts per walk).

• Jared Rine has been effective coming out of the bullpen for the Owls. As just a freshman, he as 11.0 innings pitched and has not given up a run. He has 16 punchouts on the year, and has allowed just two singles.

• Jared Staples and Jake McLinskey each have earned a win this season out of the bullpen. They are first and second in appearances, respectively, and neither have given up a run.

• Against their most recent Power 5 foe, Georgia, the Owls lost 11-1. The Owls committed five errors and were 0-for-7 with runners in scoring position.

• The Owls' second weekend featured KSU winning two games. The Owls played a double-header on Saturday, losing the first game 5-2, but came back and won the second contest 5-2. Kennesaw State won the series with a convincing 11-5 win over Towson on Sunday.

• Garrett Hodges turned in a career-best day at the plate on Sunday against Towson. He went 3-for-3 for a pair of home runs and a double. The five RBIs were a career high along with it being his first multi-home run game. Over the weekend, he hit .455 with a slugging percentage of 1.091.

• Third baseman David Chabut produced at the plate this weekend after batting at a .667 clip with six hits, including a double and an RBI. He recorded a weekend on-base percentage of .727.

• The Owls rank 54th in the country in stolen bases per game through 2019, swiping 1.70 bases per game. Against Towson, KSU stolen 11 bases and was caught just once.

• The starting pitching was exceptional for the Owls over the first weekend. Buckler pitched well against West Virginia, completing 5.0 innings with six strikeouts and allowing just one run. On Saturday, Kennedy pitched 5.0 innings with six strikeouts and allowed just two hits. In his KSU debut, Coburn struck out seven Spiders in just 3.1 innings of work.

• The pitching staff only allowed just two extra base hits in the first three games. After a triple from West Virginia, Richmond doubled for the only other two-plus bagger of the weekend.

• The Owls bats were hot during opening weekend. The offense yielded 10 extra base hits, including a pair of home runs from Alex Carballo and Terence Norman. Kennesaw State finished the weekend with a team slash of .308/.442/.405.

• After returning from an injury suffered last season, Jaylen Smith led the Owls at the plate this past weekend. The senior batted .462 with six hits, a pair of RBIs and two doubles. He also stole two bases.

• Newcomer Alex Carballo had a dazzling debut for the Owls during opening weekend. He batted .417 with a home run, two RBIs and logged a team-high .667 slugging percentage.

• The Owls are coming off a 25-30 2018 campaign in which Kennesaw State finished third in the ASUN conference.

2019 Roster Breakdown

Kennesaw State baseball features 35 student-athletes, including 18 pitchers and 17 position players. The pitching staff is the most familiar group, with 15 players returning from last season, with two freshman and one transfer joining the staff.

Out of the 10 infielders on the roster, the Owls return six and welcome four new faces. David Chabut is the most experienced on the dirt, having already made 140 starts in an Owls uniform over the last three seasons. Simon is also featured in the infield, who was named a Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American.

The outfield has more new faces than returning ones, with four first-timers and three players that have donned the Black and Gold before. Just Terence Norman, Jake Franklin and Garrett Hodges are familiar with the grass at Stillwell Stadium.

Diaper Dandy

Tyler Simon was phenomenal in 2018 and became a staple in the Owl's infield after making 40 starts in the Black and Gold. For his efforts, he was named as a Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-American. The freshman third baseman was second on the team batting .311. He scored 36 runs and had a slash of .311/.435/.371.

Senior SZN

Jaylen Smith returns to a starting role in 2019 after playing 31 games, with 30 being starts. He was limited last season and missed a large part of the season with an injury. During his time on the field, he batted .271 with a slugging percentage of .424 and an on-base percentage of .320. Despite missing over 20 contests, he finished fifth on the team with 22 RBIs.

#ProOwls

Currently, Kennesaw State baseball has 10 players in Major League systems. The newest additions are Grant Williams (10th Round, Boston Red Sox) and A.J. Moore (10th Round, Cincinnati Reds).

Notes

- Tyler Simon and Terence Norman were selections for the 2019 ASUN Preseason All-Conference team. Last season, Norman was tabbed a First Team All-Conference player while Simon was named to the Second Team.

- KSU started the 2018 strong, and found itself sitting at 24-18 on April 27. Vying for another conference championship, the Owls dropped their final 12 out of 13 games, with the sole win coming against NJIT (7-2).

- The pitching staff for the Owls is the most experienced group for the 2019 Kennesaw State squad. 15 out of the 19 pitchers off the 2019 roster were on the team last season. Three freshman arms are featured on this year's staff and one transfer junior, Josh Coburn.

Series History

- These will be the 27th and 28th meeting between the two programs, with Georgia Tech holding a 20-6 lead. Last season, the Yellow Jackets took the only meeting 17-7.

Biography

Since being hired in the fall of 1991 on the campus of Kennesaw State University, Mike Sansing has been nothing short of remarkable. The winningest head coach in the school's rich baseball history.

Sansing has led the Owls to seven national tournaments, including a pair of national titles, winning the NAIA title in 1994 and earning the 1996 NCAA Division II crown.

The program's longest tenured head coach, Sansing has guided the Owls move in the NCAA from Division II to Division I and has successfully moved Kennesaw State into a full-fledged DI member with relative ease. During the mandatory four-year reclassification period, Sansing's squads have produced 116 wins, two second-place conference finishes and has had eight players selected in the Major League Baseball Draft, while coaching 24 A-Sun All-Conference selections.

Before stepping into the coaching realm, Sansing had a stellar career as a player for both Gordon Junior College and West Georgia. He garnered all-conference honors in each of his four seasons as well as being named a three-time team Most Valuable Player. In his senior season at West Georgia, Sansing had a career year while being the Braves' Triple Crown leader. Sansing finished his final year with a .406 batting average, eight home runs and 34 runs batted in.

A native of Atlanta, Ga., Sansing and his wife Barbara make their home in Woodstock.
