GAME INFO

TAR HEELS AND JACKETS

- UNC begins a two-game road swing by traveling to Atlanta to take on Georgia Tech on Oct. 5.

- UNC is 8-19-1 all-time on the road at Georgia Tech. The Tar Heels are 2-9 against the Yellow Jackets going back to 1997 when the Heels picked up a 16-13 victory in what was Mack Brown's final season of his first stint as head coach at UNC.

- Carolina's last win in Atlanta was a 38-31 triumph in 2015. Georgia Tech led 21-0 before UNC began its comeback with two touchdowns in the final 90 seconds of the first half. Wide receiver Quinshad Davis threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to quarterback Marquise Williams to cap the comeback win.

- The Tar Heels ended a streak of eight straight losses at Georgia Tech in 2015.

- Carolina and Georgia Tech have met on the football field every season since 1980.

- The series dates back to 1915 when the Jackets started a streak of four-straight victories with a 23-3 win in Atlanta.

- UNC's first win came on the road in 1929 by a margin of 18-7.

BROWN VS. GEORGIA TECH

- North Carolina head coach Mack Brown posted a 6-3-1 record against Georgia Tech during his first reign with the Tar Heels between 1988-97.

- UNC earned road wins in 1993 and 1997.

- Brown was 5-1 over his final six seasons against the Yellow Jackets from 1992-97.

PEACH STATE PLAYERS

- UNC has 17 players on its roster from the state of Georgia: Allen Cater, Joshua Ezeudu, Tomari Fox, Tomon Fox, Jeremiah Gemmel, Kevin Hester Jr., Tyrone Hopper, Tyler McMichael, Trey Morrison, Ty Murray, Nick Polino, Bryson Richardson, Jeffrey Saturday, Tre Shaw, Jahilil Taylor, Jordan Tucker and Kristian Varner.

NEXT UP

- The Tar Heels have their first of two open dates on Oct. 12. Carolina returns to the road to face Virginia Tech in Blacksburg on Oct. 19.

- Duke comes to Kenan for Homecoming and Monogram Day on Oct. 26.

2019-20 ACC MEDIA PORTAL & ACC DIGITAL LICENSE

ACC MEDIA PORTAL (Highlights & Press Conferences): The ACC and XOS Digital have partnered to provide individual highlight packages from all ACC-controlled regular season football and men's basketball games to approved TV news affiliates for the 2019-20 seasons. Upon the conclusion of each game, highlights will be available for local TV news affiliates to download and use in televised news programming at no cost. Outlets may access the highlights, along with any weekly head coach press conferences, through the ACC Media Portal. This portal replaces the ACC Video Clip Service (AVCS). The use of ACC game highlights provided through the ACC Media Portal remain subject to those restrictions outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to register for the ACC Media Portal and for additional information. Approved affiliates will receive a confirmation email along with credentials to access the ACC Media Portal.

ACC DIGITAL LICENSE: Per the ACC News Access Guidelines, game footage (station shot or broadcast) may not be distributed through digital platforms without a license. The ACC and XOS Digital now offer a turnkey digital highlight license specifically designed for local TV affiliates. This license will cover the use of ACC game footage across official station websites, apps, and social media platforms. Distribution of in-game highlights on any platform during the broadcast window is strictly prohibited, regardless of a digital license. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to receive more information or to purchase a digital license.

ACC DIGITAL CONTENT: Agencies with interest in accessing or licensing ACC digital content beyond what is provided for in the ACC News Access Guidelines and as set forth in the preceding paragraphs should contact Chad Swofford, Senior Director of New Media and Business Development at Raycom Sports, at cswofford@raycomsports.com.

CAROLINA 30TH ON ALL-TIME WINS LIST

• North Carolina has won 693 games in its 132 years of football. The 693 victories are two behind Army on the NCAA's all-time list and sixth in the ACC. The Tar Heels currently sit six victories behind Minnesota for 28th spot.

CAROLINA ALL-AMERICANS

• The Carolina football program has developed 69 student-athletes, who combined to earn 86 All-America honors. Of those 86 honors, 16 were earned under Mack Brown's guidance from 1988-97. Of note, current cornerbacks coach Dre Bly garnered three first-team honors, two of which came with Brown at the helm.

CAROLINA AND THE NFL DRAFT

• The Carolina football program has produced 246 NFL Draft picks. Of those selections, the Tar Heels have produced 24 first-round selections, which are the most of any school in the state of North Carolina, ahead of NC State (17), Duke (6) and Wake Forest (5).

MACK IS BACK

• Head coach Mack Brown returned to the sidelines with the North Carolina football program for the first time in 21 years, nine months and 10 days, or 7,953 days when UNC took on South Carolina on Aug. 31.

• Brown's last game at the helm of the Tar Heel program was a 50-14 victory over Duke on Nov. 22, 1997.

• Brown was 23-3 over his final 26 games in Chapel Hill before moving on to the University of Texas. He spent 16 years with the Longhorns from 1998-2013, and won the 2005 BCS National Championship.

FAMILY AFFAIR

• The UNC football lettermen have taken to calling themselves the Carolina Football Family, and nowhere is that more evident than this year's roster. The 2019 Tar Heels have two sets of brothers and three players who are sons of former Tar Heels, who all played for Mack Brown. The Fox brothers, Tomon and Tomari, are a pair of defensive menaces from Lawrenceville, Ga, while Dyami and Khafre Brown are two dynamic wide receivers from Charlotte.

• As for the second generation Tar Heels, Myles Dorn is the son of Torin Dorn, who played for Coach Brown from 1986-89; Jeffrey Saturday is the son of Jeff Saturday, who played at Carolina from 1994-97; and Will Crowley is the son of Pat Crowley, who spent his time at UNC from 1986-89.

CLOSE CALLS

• All five games this season have been decided by six points or less (4, 3, 6, 3 and 1). This is the second time in program history and first since 1978 that the first five games have been decided by six points or less. In that season, the first five games were decided by 4, 1, 4, 4 and 5 points.

NEARLY KNOCKING OFF NO. 1

• UNC's 21-20 loss to Clemson was the first one-point loss by an unranked team against the No. 1 team in the nation since 1997.

• The margin matched the closest loss in UNC history against the No. 1 team in the AP poll. In 1982, Dan Marino led No. 1 Pitt to a 7-6 win over the No. 5 ranked Tar Heels.

• The one-point margin is the closest Clemson has come to losing a game since losing to Alabama, 24-6, in the 2017 national championship game.

• This is the third time in 11 games against No. 1 that the Tar Heels lost by single digits. In addition to the Pitt game in 1982, UNC lost to Clemson by eight points (45-37) in the 2015 ACC Championship Game in Charlotte.

• Carolina led for 22:54 in the first half. Clemson entered the game trailing for only 3:26 all season, all of which came against Texas A&M.

WINNING THE 4Q

• Carolina ranks seventh in the FBS (1st ACC) with a +35 (51-16) point differential in the fourth quarter. UNC ranked ninth worst in FBS in 2017-18 at -72.

• QB Sam Howell is 31 of 44 for 444 yards and five TDs (0 INTs) in the final quarter.

AND FOURTH DOWN

• The Tar Heels were 2 for 3 on fourth down attempts against Clemson and are 9 for 11 this season on fourth down.

COMEBACK KIDS

• Carolina trailed in the fourth quarter in each of its first four games, winning the first two games. South Carolina led UNC, 20-9, entering the final quarter before the Tar Heels rallied for a 24-20 win. Miami took a 25-20 lead with 4:38 to play before UNC scored the go-ahead touchdown with 1:01 remaining in the game.

MACK FACTS

ACTIVE CAREER WINS LEADER

With 246 career victories, Mack Brown has produced the most wins of any active coach in the nation. He is trailed by Nick Saban at Alabama (236), Brian Kelly at Notre Dame (232), Willie Fritz at Tulane (172), and Gary Patterson at TCU (169). Brown's 246 wins rank 10th on the NCAA all-time list for coaches with at least 10 years at an FBS institution. He won 158 games at Texas, 71 at UNC, 11 at Tulane and six at Appalachian State.

ONE OF FIVE WITH A TITLE

Mack Brown is one of only five active head coaches who has won a National Championship. Brown, who won the title with Texas following the 2005 season, is accompanied by Jimbo Fisher (Texas A&M), Les Miles (Kansas), Nick Saban (Alabama) and Dabo Swinney (Clemson).

BROWN CLOSING IN ON CRUM

Mack Brown is just one win behind Dick Crum on the Tar Heels' all-time wins list. Brown has won 71 games over his 11-year tenure, while Crum posted 72 victories from 1978-87.

10-WIN SEASONS

Mack Brown has led his teams to 12 seasons of 10 or more victories during his career. He led UNC to three 10-win campaigns in his first stint with the program before guiding Texas to nine consecutive seasons of 10 wins or more. Brown posted his first 10-win season in 1993 and the Tar Heels went on to post 10 wins in 1996 and '97.

BROWN IN THE POLLS

Mack Brown-led teams have finished ranked in the final Top 25 polls 16 times during his coaching career. He led Texas to 12 Top-25 finishes and UNC to four. Of the 16 occasions, Brown's teams have finished in the Top 10 nine times, including six Top-5 finishes.

BROWN AND THE NFL DRAFT

Mack Brown has produced 108 NFL Draft picks, including 22 first-round selections and 15 second-round picks. During his first stint at UNC, Brown guided 47 players who would go on to be drafted, including six first rounders and seven second rounders. Of note, Brown's 1996 Carolina roster saw 22 players go on to have their names called at the NFL Draft.

• The Tar Heels trailed by 11 points (20-9) heading into the fourth quarter against South Carolina, but outscored the Gamecocks 15-0 in the final period. That was the first time UNC won when trailing after three quarters since a Sept. 24, 2016 home win over Pittsburgh. The Panthers led 33-23, but UNC rallied for a 37-36 win.

• Carolina trailed by double digits twice, 13-3 in the second quarter and 20-9 heading into the fourth. UNC took its first lead of the season at 24-20 with 8:26 to play in the fourth quarter.

• UNC trailed 21-3 heading to the fourth quarter at Wake Forest, and closed the gap to 21-18, before falling 24-18 to the Deacs.

• The deficit was 34-24 against App State going to the fourth quarter. Carolina closed within 34-31 with a TD at the 3:01 mark and a last-second FG from 56 yards was blocked to secure the Mountaineers win.

DISCIPLINE

• Carolina was flagged for only one penalty for five yards against Miami, its fewest in a game since the Virginia game in 2008.

• It was a stark turnaround from the season opener against South Carolina when the Tar Heels were guilty of 10 penalties for 90 yards.

• UNC was whistled for seven penalties for 43 yards at Wake Forest, five for 40 yards against App State and only three for 20 yards against Clemson.

RED ZONE DEFENSE

• North Carolina's defense ranks fourth best in the ACC in opponents red zone touchdown percentage (55.6%).

VERTICAL OFFENSE

- Carolina has shown the ability to stretch the field vertically on offense by ranking second in the ACC behind only Wake Forest with 29 plays of 20 or more yards. That figure is tied for 19th nationally.
- 18 plays have come through the air with 11 on the ground.

LONG DRIVES

- Carolina used drives of 98 and 95 yards late in the game against South Carolina to overcome an 11-point deficit. It marked the first time since Nov. 15, 2012 against Virginia that a UNC team posted two TD drives of at least 90 yards.
- Based on available box scores, the two drives of at least 95 yards in a single game are a first since at least 2002.
- The Tar Heels followed up with two TD drives of 75 yards against Miami. Both were nine-play drives.
- Carolina converted consecutive 80-yard TD drives in the fourth quarter at Wake Forest.
- UNC registered a second 98-yard drive of the season against App State and also had 80 and 72-yard drives against the Mountaineers.
- Carolina converted a pair of 75-yard TD drives against No. 1 Clemson, including a 16-play drive late in the fourth quarter.

DEFENSE STANDS UP

- Carolina's defense played a huge role in the Tar Heels 24-20 victory over South Carolina, holding the Gamecocks to just 270 total yards. The 270 yards are the fewest yards allowed by a UNC defense since Oct. 22, 2016 versus Virginia (253 yards).
- The unit also grabbed two late interceptions to close the game, while adding three sacks, seven TFL and four pressures.
- The Tar Heel defense stopped the Gamecocks on 9 of 12 third-down chances.
- While Miami reached the red zone six times, the Carolina defense only allowed TDs on three of the possessions and four total scores. On the other two possessions, the D forced a missed field goal and got a fourth-down stop.
- The Carolina D held Miami to just 3 of 12 on third and fourth-down conversions.
- Against Wake Forest, the defense kept UNC in the game by allowing only three points and 132 total yards to the Demon Deacons in the second half.
- After giving up 27 first-half points against App St., which was aided by 14 points off turnovers, the Tar Heel defense allowed just seven in the second half.
- Carolina held No. 1 Clemson to a season-low 331 yards of total offense and 14 first downs. It was the Tigers fewest points scored (21) since the 2017 CFP championship game loss to Alabama (6).

FACILITY FACE LIFT

- With the new era of Carolina football underway, the program has seen a number of renovations and upgrades since Mack Brown took the helm in November 2018. The new football practice complex was completed providing the team with three fields, two AstroTurf RootZone 3D3 synthetic grass fields and one natural grass field.
- One of the synthetic grass fields is housed in the Indoor Practice Facility with the other two practice fields being outdoors. Inside Kenan Stadium, the same synthetic grass surface was installed following Carolina's spring game. Inside the Kenan Football Center, upgrades were made to the player's lounge, locker room and weight room, which were accompanied by a number of wall graphics and photos throughout the building.

DORN'S PERSONAL PHILOSOPHY

- Senior safety Myles Dorn is more than just a tremendous athlete and NFL prospect. He's a deep thinker, who constantly asks the question, "Why?" As a result, he's developed a personal philosophy he lives by: Live, Love, Inspire.
- Dorn says to live life to the fullest and get the most out of every day. Then, he says to do things out of love. Put your entire self into what you're doing and do them for the right reasons. Finally, inspire through your actions.
- As someone who takes inspiration from a number of different people, Dorn strives to inspire others in how he conducts himself.
- Interesting stuff from a guy who has played in 38 career games, starting 25, and tallied 195 tackles, five INTs and 14 PBU during his career.

FOX LISTED ON HENDRICKS AWARD WATCH LIST

- Tomon Fox is listed on the preseason watch list for the 2019 Ted Hendricks Award, given to the top defensive end in college football.
- Fox leads Carolina with 3.5 sacks. He set a single-game career high with 3.0 sacks against Miami, the most by a UNC player since Kareem Martin had 3.5 sacks against Pitt on Nov. 16, 2013.
- Fox started all eight games he appeared in during 2018 and had 27 tackles, 2.5 sacks, 8.5 TFL, seven pressures, two fumble recoveries and a blocked field goal. Fox had a career-high four sacks in 2017.

STROWBRIDGE THE QB HUNTER

- Senior defensive lineman Jason Strowbridge hunts quarterbacks, but has also developed an interest in other predators. The Deerfield, Fla. native has taken a liking to the animal kingdom, which is evident in his selection of pets. Strowbridge currently has two slithery companions, Wenji, a ball python, and C.C., an albino boa constrictor.
- While Strowbridge's focus is on QBs and RBs, producing 8.5 career sacks and 17.5 TFL, he may be the next Discovery Channel star. The 6-5, 285 pound, mild-mannered anchor of Carolina's defense is likely to be an NFL stalwart in the coming years. But, if he has his way, he will transition from quarterback hunter to exotic animal expert.
- He blocked an extra point against Miami, the third time in his career he had blocked a kick. It was the first time a Tar Heel blocked an extra point since Strowbridge blocked one at Miami in 2018.

SURRATT SHINES

- Junior Chazz Surratt made the decision at the end of last season that his best opportunity to keep playing football after college was to switch from quarterback to linebacker.
- An interesting choice from a player who once held the state of North Carolina's record for total offense. In his first game after the switch, Surratt, a Denver, N.C. product, was called upon to start against South Carolina at LB, a position he hadn't played at all since his freshman year of high school and hadn't played a full game at since middle school. You wouldn't know it looking at the box score.
- Surratt played 61 snaps and tallied 12 tackles, a sack, a PBU and a pressure in helping the defense hold South Carolina to 270 total yards in the season opener.
- In only his 5th career game at linebacker, Surratt was spectacular against No. 1 Clemson coming up with a team leading seven tackles, three QBH, two PBU, two TFL and one sack.
- He is third on the team with 34 tackles, leads the team with five TFL and is second with three sacks.

FULL-HOUSE BACK FIELD

- Carolina boasts one of the top running back rooms in the ACC. The Tar Heels feature a talented trio that includes senior Antonio Williams, junior Michael Carter and sophomore Javonte Williams.
- UNC rushed for 238 yards against South Carolina with Javonte Williams going for a career-high 102 yards (5.7 per rush) on 18 carries. Carter added 77 yards and Antonio Williams provided 53 yards on four attempts.
- Carter has compiled 1,475 yards, averaging 6.0 yards per carry. He has scored 14 TDs (10 rush, 4 receiving) in 25 career games.
- Antonio Williams has rushed for 886 yards in his collegiate career (568 at UNC, 318 at Ohio State). As a junior at Carolina, he scored five TDs and rushed for 504 yards with a 5.5 yards per carry average on 91 attempts.
- Javonte Williams scored five rushing TDs on only 43 carries in his 2018 true freshman campaign. In 2019, he leads UNC with 299 rushing yards (74.8 ypg). He had 102 yards against South Carolina in the 2019 opener, 76 yards versus Miami and 94 against App State.

CARTER A CANDIDATE FOR DOAK WALKER AWARD

- Junior Michael Carter is a preseason candidate for the Doak Walker Award, the annual award presented to the nation's top college running back.
- Carter ranks 10th in the ACC with 63.8 yards per game.
- Carter, a native of Navarre, Fla., posted 597 yards and two TDs on 84 carries in nine games as a sophomore. He caught 25 passes for 135 yards and a TD.
- He earned ACC Running Back of the Week honors by exploding for 165 yards on 18 carries against Virginia Tech. Later in the year, he tallied 148 yards and a TD on 18 rushes at Duke.
- Carter was also listed on the Doak Walker Award preseason list in 2018 after scoring a team-leading eight rushing TDs and rushing for 559 yards as a freshman.

JAVONTE RUNNING HARD

- Sophomore RB Javonte Williams was a lightly-recruited back out of Wallace, N.C. despite rushing for over 2,000 yards and 27 TDs, while leading Wallace-Rose Hill to its fourth-straight state championship.
- In fact, his only scholarship offer was from East Carolina before UNC's staff jumped in. Not only was Williams an excellent athlete, but he was Valedictorian of his high school class. Williams showed flashes as a true freshman last season, producing two solid games to finish the season. He tallied 93 yards and three TDs against Western Carolina and 83 yards and a TD versus NC State.
- He opened 2019 with the first 100-yard game of his career, using his physical style to rush for 102 yards on 18 carries (5.7 ypc) against South Carolina.
- Williams led Carolina in rushing for the second game in a row against Miami with 76 yards on just 10 carries, an average of 7.6 yards per carry. He scored on a 2-yard run in the first quarter that gave UNC a 17-3 lead. He gained 22 yards, UNC's longest rushing play of the game, on the first play of UNC's game-winning touchdown drive in the fourth quarter.
- He ranks 7th in the ACC with 69.6 yards rushing per game.

ANTONIO ADDS A SPARK

- Senior RB Antonio Williams was chomping at the bit for his opportunity against South Carolina and when Carolina needed him most, he delivered. With the Tar Heels backed up at their own two-yard line, UNC gave the ball to Williams on three of the first four plays of the drive and he got them out of a hole. First, it was a 20-yard dash to provide some breathing room. Then, after a 10-yard completion, Williams rumbled for nine and darted for 22 to get Carolina all the way to the South Carolina 37.
- The Heels scored on the drive with Williams producing 51 of the 98 yards, and the momentum was pointed in UNC's favor the remainder of the game.

DYAMI FOR SIX

- Sophomore WR Dyami Brown made one of the most spectacular catches you'll see to help spark Carolina's comeback against South Carolina. From the 22, QB Sam Howell lofted a pass to Brown in the left corner of the end zone that appeared to be just out of reach, but Brown stretched his left hand out, was able to tip the ball back to himself and reel it in for the TD. The miraculous catch finished off a 98-yard drive that would propel UNC to victory and ended up as the No. 1 play on SportsCenter's Top Plays countdown. Brown finished the game with four receptions for 69 yards and that TD.
- He added a 62-yard TD from Sam Howell in the first quarter against Miami, the longest passing TD by a Tar Heel since a 72 yarder from Mitch Trubisky to Ryan Switzer vs. The Citadel on Nov. 19, 2016.
- He scored for a third-straight game on a 17-yard strike from Howell in the fourth quarter at Wake Forest.
- Brown registered his fourth TD reception of the season early on in the game against No. 1 Clemson. He ranks second on the team with 18 catches.

CORALLES NAMED ON CAMPBELL TYLER ROSE LIST

- Wide receiver Beau Corrales is on the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award Watch List. The award recognizes the top offensive player in Division I football that was born in Texas and/or graduated from a Texas High School and/or played at a Texas-based junior college or four-year college.
- He hauled in the game-winning touchdown, a 17-yard reception from Sam Howell, in the 24-20 comeback victory over South Carolina.
- He added a 11-yard TD against No. 1 Clemson.
- Corrales, from Georgetown, Texas, is coming off a sophomore season where he hauled in 18 receptions for 220 yards and two TDs.

GROVES GIVEN MUSCLE MILK MALE ATHLETE OF THE YEAR AWARD

- Wide receiver Rontavius 'Toe' Groves was awarded the Muscle Milk Male Athlete of the Year award in May 2019, presented by the Collegiate and Professional Sports Dietitians Association (CPSDA). The award recognizes one male and one female collegiate, Olympic, professional or tactical (military, police or fire) athlete whose athletic accomplishments reflect dedication to sports nutrition. Groves was nominated by Director of Sports Nutrition Kelsee Gomes.
- Through a diligent regimen of high-protein, high-carbohydrate diet supplemented with high-calorie shakes, Groves has transformed his body from a 160-pound incoming freshman to a 187-pound junior. He took advantage of UNC's nutrition program after suffering patellar tendon injuries in the spring of his redshirt freshman season (2016) and during the 2017 campaign.

HECK FAMILY TIES

- It may be hard to believe, but senior offensive tackle Charlie Heck, he of the 6-8, 315-pound frame, is the first-born child of triplets.
- Next to come in the trio was sister Molly and then Evelyn. Molly stands 6'0" and Evelyn measures in at 5'9". They both graduated from Notre Dame, where Charlie's father, Andy Heck, played and would go on to be a first-round NFL Draft pick in 1989 by the Seahawks. Andy is now the offensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs.
- Then, there is Charlie's older brother Jon, who was a four-year starter at tackle for Carolina. He now serves on the strength and conditioning staff for the football program, and also competes in strongman competitions.

HECK SELECTED ON OUTLAND TROPHY WATCH LIST

- Offensive lineman Charlie Heck was recognized on the 2019 Outland Trophy Watch List.
- A native of Kansas City, Mo., Heck was named the Week One ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week with six knockdowns, allowed zero sacks and had zero missed assignments in the 24-20 victory over South Carolina at left tackle.
- Has started 25 career games, including all 11 games at right tackle in 2018. He led an offensive line that allowed just 0.91 sacks per game in 2018, seventh best in the nation and second in the ACC.
- Heck was the team's Lineman of the Week twice last year and graded out at 82 or higher in seven of the nine graded games.

HOWELL MAKING HIS MARK

- Early enrollee Sam Howell is no stranger to leading a program. A four-year starter at Monroe, N.C.'s Sun Valley High School and one of the nation's most sought-after prospects, Howell set the North Carolina state record with 17,036 total yards during his career. The 2018 North Carolina Gatorade Player of the Year tallied 13,415 passing yards and 145 TDs, while rushing for 3,621 yards and 60 scores. His 13,415 passing yards rank second in state history.

FRESHMEN QB'S AT NORTH CAROLINA

- Based on available records, true freshman Sam Howell was the first true freshman to start a season opener at Carolina in the program's history.
- Deems May was a redshirt freshman and appeared in 11 games in 1988. He converted to tight end and played seven seasons in the NFL.
- Jason Stanicek started the eighth game of his true freshman season in 1991 at home against Maryland.
- Ronald Curry played in his first game as a true freshman in 1998 against Miami (Ohio). Oscar Davenport started the game but suffered a knee injury on the fourth play of the game. Curry started four games that season.
- Cam Sexton started the second game of his true freshman season in 2006 at home against Virginia Tech.
- Cade Fortin started two games in 2018 as a true freshman against Virginia Tech and NC State.

HOWELL MAKES HISTORY VS. SOUTH CAROLINA

- Sam Howell became the first true freshman in UNC history to start at quarterback in a season opener. He led the Tar Heels on a 70-yard scoring drive that resulted in a field goal on his first collegiate series. He finished 15 of 24 with 245 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions.
- Howell threw his first career touchdown pass on a 22-yard strike to sophomore Dyami Brown 33 seconds into the fourth quarter.
- Howell scored on a 2-point conversion in the fourth quarter. It was his first career 2-point attempt and collegiate points.
- Howell is the first Tar Heel to throw two touchdowns in a season opener since Marquise Williams threw for a pair against Liberty in 2014.

HOWELL DELIVERS AGAINST MIAMI

- Sam Howell led his second-consecutive fourth-quarter comeback against Miami after going 16 of 24 for 274 yards and two TDs and no turnovers.
- Howell and the offense took the field with 4:38 left after Miami claimed their first lead of the game at 25-20. Howell proceeded to go 4 of 5 for 46 yards, throwing the game-winning score to Dazz Newsome with 1:01 remaining.

NEWSOME TABBED FOR HORNING AWARD LIST

- Junior wide receiver and returner Dazz Newsome has been named to the 2019 Watch List for the Paul Hornung Award, given annually to the most versatile player in major college football.
- He was one of only seven players nationally in 2018 to score TDs by rush, reception and punt return.
- Newsome, from Hampton, Va., displayed his versatility as a sophomore in 2018 by hauling in 44 receptions for 506 yards and two TDs as a receiver. He added 96 yards rushing and a TD on seven carries.
- Newsome also returned six kickoffs for 125 yards (20.8 ypr) and 19 punts for 286 yards (15.1 ypr) and a TD. All together he tallied 1,103 all-purpose yards on the season, an average of 92.1 yards per game.
- His 10-yard game-winning TD reception against Miami was the No. 3 play on SportsCenter's Top Plays countdown the next morning.

RUDER COMES EAST

- Redshirt freshman Jace Ruder grew up in a town of 2,900 people in Norton, Kan., which is just one hour from the middle of the United States. But, he felt the family vibe at UNC and decided that was the place for him. A four-star prospect who was ranked the No. 12 dual-threat QB in the country, Ruder threw and rushed for over 1,000 yards in his senior season, while producing 28 TDs.
- As a true freshman at UNC, Ruder competed for time and got his opportunity against Georgia Tech. He started hot, completing 4-of-5 passes for 80 yards, while producing another 21 yards on three carries. But, on one of his carries, Ruder took on a Yellow Jacket's defender, as he would have back on the fields in Kansas, and not only injured the tackler, but injured himself. He continued on to hit a 44-yard pass and then threw the first TD pass of his career before exiting with a broken collar bone.

TUCKER NAMED TO MACKEY AWARD WATCH LIST

- Senior tight end Carl Tucker has been named to the John Mackey Award Preseason Watch List for the second consecutive season.
- From Concord, N.C., Tucker posted 16 receptions for 265 yards and two TDs as a junior in 2018. Starting six and appearing in 10 games, Tucker registered a career long 80-yard reception as part of a two-catch, 123-yard performance versus Virginia Tech. He added 48 yards and a TD on three catches at Virginia.

KIERNAN'S DUBLIN BEGINNINGS

- Freshman punter Ben Kiernan played his high school football at Raleigh's Wakefield High School, but he didn't arrive in the U.S. until he was 15. Kiernan spent the first decade and a half of his life in Dublin, Ireland, where he played rugby and soccer. Seeking more opportunities and better colleges, Kiernan's parents decided to move to the Raleigh area. After moving just two weeks prior to the start of the 8th grade, Kiernan's father Mike had a chance encounter with the football coach at Food Lion and he told him to have Ben try out for football, where he would punt a football for the first time.
- Kiernan's twin older brothers, Tom and Jack, played rugby at NC State.
- Kiernan's 12-year-old sister Freya is in a lifetime battle with cerebral palsy. The Kiernan's adopted Freya, who was born in China, when she was nine months old.

UNC SCHEDULE AMONG NATION'S MOST DIFFICULT

- North Carolina's 11 FBS opponents combined for a 92-54 (.630) record in 2018.
- All 11 opponents competed in a bowl game during the 2018 campaign. Appalachian State (New Orleans), Clemson (CFP National Champion), Duke (Independence), Georgia Tech (Quick Lane), Miami (Pinstripe), NC State (Gator), Pitt (Sun), South Carolina (Belk), Virginia (Belk), Virginia Tech (Military) and Wake Forest (Birmingham).
- 10 of the 11 opponents finished with a .500 or better record, and two (Appalachian State, Clemson) had a double-digit win total.
- Five of the 11 opponents won at least eight games last season: Clemson (15-0), Appalachian State (11-2), NC State (9-4), Duke (8-5) and UVA (8-5).
- Carolina's crossover opponents in the ACC Atlantic Division are defending national-champion Clemson and local rival NC State.

SPECIAL HOME GAME DESIGNATIONS

- Below is a list of UNC's special events and dates for the 2019 football season.
- Sept. 21 vs. Appalachian State: Family Weekend
- Sept. 28 vs. Clemson: Rams Club Day
- Oct. 26 vs. Duke: Homecoming; Monogram Day
- Nov. 2 vs. Virginia: Military Appreciation Day
- Nov. 23 vs. Mercer: Senior Day

SCHEDULE NOTES

- The month of October features a trio of ACC Coastal opponents as well as the first of two open dates. Carolina travels to Atlanta to take on Georgia Tech on Oct. 5, before an open date on Oct. 12. The Tar Heels will then return to the road to face Virginia Tech in Blacksburg on Oct. 19.
- Duke comes to Kenan for Homecoming and Monogram Day on Oct. 26, the first of back-to-back rivalry games in Chapel Hill.
- UNC and Virginia will face off in the 124th edition of the South's Oldest Rivalry on Nov. 2 before the Tar Heels' second open date. The UVA game will also serve as Military Appreciation Day at Kenan Stadium.
- The final stretch begins with a Thursday night visit to Pittsburgh on Nov. 14. Carolina, which has won six in a row over the Panthers, visits Heinz Field for a Thursday night game for the third time in as many games in the Steel City. UNC is 9-9 all-time on Thursday nights, and will play a Thursday night game for the ninth consecutive season.
- UNC closes out its non-conference schedule on Nov. 23 with a Senior Day contest against Mercer, the first meeting between the two programs since 1925.
- For the fifth consecutive season, Carolina will wrap up the regular season against NC State, with the Tar Heels visiting Raleigh on Nov. 30.

HEAD COACH MACK BROWN

HEAD COACH
11TH YEAR AT UNC
(1988-97, 2019-)

Mack Brown, whose charismatic style and disciplined approach propelled the University of North Carolina to the Top Five and the University of Texas to the 2005 BCS National Championship, began his second stint as head coach in Chapel Hill on Nov. 27, 2018 with the goal of leading another Carolina resurgence.

A 41-year veteran of collegiate coaching, Brown has served as a head coach for 30 seasons with stops at Texas (1998-2013), North Carolina (1988-97), Tulane (1985-87), and Appalachian State (1983). Over his 30 seasons, Brown has posted a record of 244-122-1 (.667). Those 244 career victories rank 10th on the FBS all-time list and are the most among active coaches. The 2005 Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year and the 2008 Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year, Brown is one of a handful of coaches in college football history to lead two separate programs to Top-Five national finishes.

At the completion of his Texas tenure in 2013, Brown was one of just four active coaches to reach the 200-victory plateau. He was also one of only two coaches nationally to lead his teams to 21 bowls in 22 seasons, and the only one to have 23 winning seasons in the previous 24 years. His 225 wins from 1990 to 2013, which combined the last eight years of his first stint at UNC and his entire Texas tenure, were the most of any coach in the country.

As a result, Brown was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in December of 2018. He is the sixth Tar Heel to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and the second coach, joining innovator Carl Grey Snively, who was inducted in 1965. In addition to the College Football Hall of Fame, Brown is also a member of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Longhorn Hall of Honor, the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame and the Holiday Bowl Hall of Fame.

Brown has also succeeded in preparing his student-athletes for the next level. In the 30 NFL Drafts during Brown's time as a head coach, the NFL has picked 108 of his student-athletes, and at least one was selected in 28 straight drafts. He had 20 players selected in the first round of the draft from 1998 to 2013, and three members of his 1997 Carolina squad were picked in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft, which tied for the most of any collegiate program.

MACK BROWN AND THE NFL DRAFT

- Dating back to 1986 when he was the head coach at Tulane, Mack Brown had a player selected in 28 straight NFL Drafts prior to 2014. In fact, Brown has had a player selected in the NFL Draft in 28 of his 30 drafts as a head coach.
- Mack Brown has coached 20 players (16 Texas/four UNC) who have been drafted in the first round in his past 17 NFL Drafts.
- Mack Brown has coached a first-round selection in 12 of his last 19 NFL Drafts.
- Mack Brown has coached 71 NFL Draft picks over his last 17 years.
- Of those 71 NFL Draft picks, 55 picks were chosen in the first four rounds.
- In 30 drafts as a head coach at Texas (1998-2013), North Carolina (1988-97), Tulane (1985-87) and Appalachian State (1983), Mack Brown has seen 108 of his former players selected in the NFL Draft.

With all of the success on the field, the primary emphasis has remained the same with Brown's squads -- maintaining a high level of achievement in the classroom and in the community. Eighty percent of his players at North Carolina received their degrees and he increased the pace at Texas, while more than a third of his players at UT regularly earned 3.0 grade point averages and achieved spots on the Big 12 Commissioner's and Athletics Director's Honor Rolls.

Prior to returning to Carolina, Brown served as both a college football studio analyst and color analyst for ESPN.

Brown's first stint as head coach of the Tar Heels came from 1988-97. He led Carolina to a record of 69-46-1 (.599), which included three 10-win seasons, six consecutive bowl games, a Top-Five finish, a Top-10 finish and two Top-20 finishes.

At UNC, Brown recruited and coached several of the finest players in school history. From his 1997 squad alone, DE Greg Ellis (No. 8, Dallas Cowboys), LB Brian Simmons (No. 17, Cincinnati Bengals) and DT Vonnie Holliday (No. 19, Green Bay Packers) were selected among the first 19 picks in the 1998 NFL Draft.

Along with that trio of first-rounders, Brown also helped develop several other Tar Heel standouts. CB Dré Bly, who is currently Carolina's DBs coach, was a three-time All-American who recorded an ACC-record 20 interceptions during his career and played 11 seasons in the NFL. Corey Holliday, who currently serves as UNC's Associate A.D. for Football Administration, finished his career as the leading receiver in Carolina history, was a CFA/Hitachi Scholar-Athlete, and is a former member of the Pittsburgh Steelers. Dwight Hollier, who currently serves as UNC's Senior Associate A.D. for Student-Athlete Health, Well-Being & Program Outreach, made more than 500 tackles during his Carolina career and also played in the NFL. RB Natrone Means, who rushed for more than 1,000 yards in his final two seasons at UNC, went on to lead the San Diego Chargers to Super Bowl XXIX and the Jacksonville Jaguars to the 1996 AFC title game.

QBs Jason Stanicek and Mike Thomas combined to rewrite Carolina's passing and total offense records. DT Marcus Jones, a consensus first-team All-American, earned ACC Defensive Player of the Year honors in 1995. CB Thomas Smith came to UNC in 1989 as a walk-on from a small high school in North Carolina and departed as a first-round pick of the AFC Champion Buffalo Bills. RB Leon Johnson, one of the premier all-purpose offensive threats in ACC history, played eight seasons in the NFL. TE Freddie Jones, a second-round draft choice of the San Diego Chargers in 1997, was one of the NFL's top pass-catching tight ends and played eight seasons in the NFL.

During his 10 seasons at Carolina, the Tar Heels featured a Lombardi Award finalist, a two-time Thorpe Award finalist, a Butkus Award finalist and semifinalist, 16 All-Americans, 34 first-team All-ACC selections, an ACC Defensive Player of the Year and an ACC Rookie of the Year. Brown also helped his players with professional aspirations as 38 of his Tar Heels heard their names called in the NFL Draft, including 16 in the first three rounds. In addition to the three first-rounders in 1998, Marcus Jones (Tampa Bay Buccaneers '96) and Thomas Smith (Buffalo Bills '93) were first-round selections; Freddie Jones (San Diego Chargers '97), Rick Terry (New York Jets '97), Bucky Brooks (Buffalo Bills '94) and Natrone Means (San Diego Chargers '93) were second-round picks; and James Hamilton (Jacksonville Jaguars '97), William Henderson (Green Bay Packers '95), Jimmy Hitchcock (New England Patriots '95), Rondell Jones (Denver Broncos '93), Brian Bollinger (San Francisco 49ers '92), Kevin Donnalley (Houston Texans '91) and Darrell Hamilton (Denver Broncos '89) were chosen in the third round.

2019 GAME RECAPS

Carolina 24, South Carolina 20
Aug. 31 • Bank of America Stadium
Charlotte, N.C.

CHARLOTTE (AP) — True freshman quarterback Sam Howell threw for 245 yards and two touchdowns, Myles Wolfolk had two late fourth quarter interceptions and North Carolina battled back to beat South Carolina 24-20 on Saturday in Mack Brown's return to the sideline following a five-year hiatus.

Howell capped second half drives of 98 and 95 yards with a 22-yard TD strike to Dyami Brown and a 17-yard scoring toss to Beau Corrales to give Brown his first win since 2013, when he coached at Texas.

Brown was holding back tears as he was interviewed leaving the field.

The Tar Heels' defense was strong in the second half, and Wolfolk sealed the win by intercepting Jake Bentley twice on South Carolina's final three possessions helping North Carolina register its first win over a power-conference opponent in a season opener since topping Indiana in 1997, Brown's final season in his first stint at the school.

The Tar Heels were remarkably conservative on offense in crucial situations in the first half, not wanting to put Howell in difficult situations. North Carolina ran 12 plays inside the South Carolina 25-yard line in the first half and 11 were runs. The only pass attempt resulted in a sack.

But as the game progressed, the Tar Heels began to take the handcuffs off Howell and he responded with two big TD passes and no major mistakes.

North Carolina did most of its damage on the ground though, rushing for 238 yards on 52 carries. Javonte Williams led the way with 102 yards on 18 carries.

Clemson graduate transfer Tavien Feaster, who won two national championship rings with the Tigers and ran for 1,109 yards and 13 touchdowns over the past two seasons, ran for 72 yards and a touchdown for the Gamecocks.

Bentley was limited to 142 yards passing.

Carolina 28, Miami 25
Sept. 7 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -- Sam Howell found Dazz Newsome just inside the end zone for the go-ahead touchdown with 1:01 left to help North Carolina rally past Miami 28-25 on Saturday night.

Howell's perfect throw found Newsome dragging his toes inches from the sideline to cap a stunning clutch drive led by the true freshman. Howell also completed a 20-yard pass to Rontavius Groves on fourth-and-17 to extend the drive, which came after the Tar Heels had surrendered the lead on a Miami touchdown with 4:38 left.

Michael Carter's diving-for-the-pylon 2-point conversion pushed the lead to 28-25, only to see Miami (0-2, 0-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) drive past midfield to set up a tying field-goal attempt. But Bubba Baxa's 49-yard kick went wide left, sending several Tar Heels players sprinting toward the student section to celebrate even though there were still 5 seconds left.

Howell threw for 274 yards and two touchdowns for the Tar Heels (2-0, 1-0).

Wake Forest 24, Carolina 18
Sept. 13 • BB&T Stadium
Winston-Salem, N.C.

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) -- Jamie Newman came up with a pair of big plays on a clock-draining fourth-quarter drive, helping Wake Forest hold off North Carolina's comeback bid for a 24-18 win Friday night.

Newman hit Scotty Washington for a 27-yard gain, then had a 4-yard scramble on third down to keep possession to help the Demon Deacons (3-0) take 5 minutes off the clock and add a field goal to a dwindling lead.

UNC (2-1) had a final drive with no timeouts with a chance for a third straight fourth-quarter comeback, but the game ended when Michael Carter didn't get out of bounds in time on a run to set up a final desperation heave from just across midfield.

Wake Forest dominated the first half to lead 21-0, only to see freshman quarterback Sam Howell lead the Tar Heels on two fourth-quarter TD drives to get back in it.

The win came in an unusual setting: a game between instate Atlantic Coast Conference teams that was designated as a nonconference matchup that didn't count in the league standings.

The teams had agreed in 2015 to play this year and in 2021 instead of waiting until 2022 for their next ACC matchup amid the 14-team league's scheduling rotation for teams in opposite divisions.

2019 GAME RECAPS

Appalachian State 34, Carolina 31 Sept. 21 • Kenan Stadium Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -- Darrynton Evans rushed for three touchdowns, and Nick Hampton blocked a 56-yard field goal attempt on the final play of Appalachian State's 34-31 victory over North Carolina on Saturday in the in-state programs' first meeting in nearly 80 years.

Demetrius Taylor returned a fumble 20 yards for a key score, and Zac Thomas added 224 yards passing and another 57 on the ground to help the Mountaineers (3-0) beat a power-conference opponent for the first time since that unforgettable upset of Michigan 12 years ago.

That one ended on a blocked field goal -- and so did this one, with Appalachian State swatting away Noah Ruggles' kick at that would have forced overtime.

Evans scored on runs of 5, 2 and 3 yards while Chandler Staton kicked early field goals of 31 and 43 yards for Appalachian State, off to its best start since the 2010 team won its first eight games.

Sam Howell threw three touchdown passes for the Tar Heels (2-2) -- who trailed entering the fourth quarter for the fourth straight game. His 2-yard touchdown run with 3:01 left pulled them within three points.

North Carolina then took over at its 20 with 30 seconds left after forcing a punt, and Howell hit Dazz Newsome twice to set up Ruggles' long field goal.

Howell finished 27 of 41 for 323 yards with touchdowns of 21 yards to Newsome on the first play from scrimmage, 11 yards to Michael Carter and 12 yards to Carl Tucker. The freshman also had three turnovers -- his first two interceptions and a fumble -- that led to 14 points for App State.

Clemson 21, Carolina 20 Sept. 28 • Kenan Stadium Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -- Trevor Lawrence connected with Tee Higgins on a 38-yard touchdown pass with 9:54 left and top-ranked Clemson stopped a late 2-point conversion to hold off North Carolina 21-20 on Saturday.

The Tigers (5-0, 3-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) had trouble all day in trying to extend their school-record winning streak to 20 games. They didn't go ahead for good until Lawrence's scoring strike in the fourth, then came up with the clinching stop after the Tar Heels pulled within a point with 1:17 left on Javonte Williams' short run.

The Tar Heels (2-3, 1-1) went for 2 and the lead, but the Tigers strung out Sam Howell's option run to the right and dragged him down short of the end zone to effectively clinch the win -- though it was far tougher than expected as a 27-point road favorite.

The Tar Heels gave themselves a shot late, but fell to 0-11 against No. 1-ranked teams in The Associated Press college football poll.
