GEORGIA TECH (4-2, 1-0 ACC) vs. SYRACUSE (4-4, 0-1 ACC)

GAME 7 • December 7, 2019 • 12 p.m. • McCamish Pavilion • Atlanta, Ga.

About Saturday's Game

Georgia Tech finishes a stretch of three games in seven days Saturday afternoon when Syracuse comes to Atlanta for a noon contest at McCamish Pavilion that is part of a big early-season weekend of Atlantic Coast Conference basketball games. It is the first of two meetings for the Yellow Jackets and Orange this season, with the return engagement coming Feb. 22 at the Carrier Dome.

Tech (4-2, 1-0 ACC), in its fourth season under head coach Josh Pastner, has won its last two games, defeating Nebraska, 73-56, Wednesday night in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge after slipping past Bethune-Cookman, 68-65, last Sunday. Four of Tech's games this season have been decided by four points or less. Two of those were one-point overtime games, including an 82-81 Tech win over NC State in the season opener on Nov. 5.

Syracuse (4-4, 0-1 ACC), in its 44th season under head coach Jim Boeheim, is playing its first true road game of the season. The Orange have lost three straight games, including a 68-54 defeat at home to Iowa Tuesday night in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge, and losses to Oklahoma state and Penn State in the NIT Season Tipoff. Syracuse reeled off four straight wins after opening the season with a 48-34 loss at home to Virginia.

Saturday's game will be televised live on the ACC Network. Live streaming is available through the ESPN app. Radio coverage is provided through Learfield IMG College, airing

The Tipoff

• The right foot - A win over Syracuse would give Georgia Tech its first 2-0 start in the Atlantic Coast Conference since the 2005-06 season. The Yellow Jackets opened that season with victories against Virginia and Boston College, both at home.

• The big test - Georgia Tech is in the midst of its fall semester final exams, which began Thursday and conclude next Wednesday. Tech does not play again until next Saturday with a visit to Rupp Arena to play No. 9 Kentucky.

• Busy week - After playing its first four games over a 20-day period, Georgia Tech is finishing off three games in seven days this week, all at home, before taking time off for the rest of finals week.

• No ducking - Georgia Tech's schedule includes six power conference teams in its first eight games, including road games at NC State and Georgia and home games against Arkansas among the first four. This week, Tech hosted Nebraska Wednesday night and Syracuse Saturday ahead of a road trip to Kentucky (Dec. 14).

• Beefing up - With a more veteran team in 2019-20, Georgia Tech made an effort to strengthen its non-conference schedule, beginning a two-game series with Kentucky and finishing another two-game set with Arkansas, while accepting an invitation to play in the Diamond Head Classic, in which the Jackets could wind up playing a pair of 2019 NCAA Tournament teams in Houston and Washington. Tech has also played its annual meeting against Georgia and the Big Ten/ACC matchup against Nebraska.

• Tech has the ACC's leading scorer (23.8 ppg) and the nation's top three-point shooter (.586) in sophomore guard Michael Devoe. Devoe's scoring average also ranks No. 6 nationally, and he stands No. 4 in the ACC in field goal percentage (.548) and No. 1 in minutes played (37.33).

• Tech also has the nation's leading shot-blocker in senior center James Banks III (4.7 per game). Banks III also ranks No. 4 in the ACC in rebound average (9.3 per game).

• Tech has played four of its last five games, and most of the fifth, without junior point guard Jose Alvarado, who has a right ankle injury. Alvarado led Tech in scoring, assists and steals last season.

Series vs. Syracuse

• Tech has won three of seven meetings between the two teams since Syracuse joined the ACC and five of 11 meetings in the history of the series, which dates back to the 1986 NCAA Tournament.

• Tech and Syracuse have played home-and-away only once since the Orange joined the ACC, with each team winning at home during the 2016-17 season. Tech won the teams' only regular-season meeting in 2018-19 by a score of 73-59 at the Carrier Dome.

• Five of the seven meetings as ACC brethren have been decided by six points or fewer.

• Tech has won one of the three meetings between the two teams at McCamish Pavilion, including a 55-51 decision in the 2017-18 season (the 2017 victory was vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions).

• Tech has won twice in four visits to the Carrier Dome, including a 67-62 decision on March 4, 2014, with the Orange ranked No. 7 in the nation, the first meeting between the teams after Syracuse joined the ACC.

• Three of the first four games in the series were played on neutral courts, the first of which had the highest stakes, a second-round NCAA Tournament game at the Omni in Atlanta in 1985.

• The last meeting between the two teams before

! Georgia Tech had 22 wins and one loss during the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons vacated by the NCAA's Committee on Infractions.

Syracuse joined the ACC occurred in the championship game of the Legends Classic in Atlantic City in 2010, and ninth-ranked Syracuse survived a 32-point effort by Brian Oliver (who later transferred to Seton Hall) to win, 80-76.

- Tech's first trip to the Carrier Dome came in December of 2003, when the Orange, led by freshmen Carmelo Anthony and Gerry McNamara, routed the Jackets with its freshman duo of Chris Bosh and Jarrett Jack, 92-65, and eventually won the national championship.

- Syracuse had never played on Tech's campus until the 2014-15 season, but the Yellow Jackets did host the 13th-ranked Orange in a Delta Air Lines Classic for Kids game at Philips Arena in 2001. Jim Boenheim missed the game due to prostate surgery and the Yellow Jackets won by 16.

Tech Handles Nebraska

Georgia Tech men's basketball used suffocating lockdown defense and 26 points the Michael Devoe to defeat Nebraska, 73-56, and take this year's Big Ten/ACC Challenge contest on Wednesday night at McCamish Pavilion.

The Yellow Jackets (4-2) held the Cornhuskers (4-4) to just 32.3-percent shooting overall, including just two points over the final four minutes of the first half, and 25.0-percent shooting in the second half. Meanwhile, Tech shot a consistent 43.8 for the game, including 48.6 in the second half.

The Atlantic Coast Conference's leading scorer, Devoe recorded his fifth 20-point game of the season and hit four three-point field goals to go along with his eight rebounds and seven assists. Junior forward Moses Wright nearly had his second-straight double-double, finishing with 18 points to go along with his nine boards on the night. They went 18-for-30 from the floor combined.

Nebraska was led by four double-digit scorers, highlighted by a double-double by Haanif Cheatham, who finished with 14 points and 11 rebounds. Cam Mack (11), Jervay Green (11) and Thorir Thorbjarnarson (11) also finished in double figures.

Following the Trends

- Through six games, Georgia Tech ranks No. 25 in defensive efficiency according to KenPom.com (89.7 points per 100 possessions). No. 3 nationally in effective defensive field goal percentage (38.7) and fourth in two-point field goal defense (37.9).

- Since the beginning of last season, Tech has held 23 opponents, including nine ACC opponents, under 40 percent from the floor. Five of six Tech opponents this season have shot under 40 percent, and the Jackets are No. 5 among NCAA teams, and No. 2 in the ACC, in field goal percentage defense (.346).

- The Jackets have limited 18 opponents, nine in the ACC, to 30 percent or less from three-point range in the same time frame. Tech ranks No. 25 in NCAA rankings at 27.8 percent allowed this season.

- Tech ranks No. 1 nationally in blocked shots with 48 in six games (8.0 per game). James Banks III is No. 1 in the nation individually with 28 in six games (4.7 per game).

- Tech ranks third in the nation in defensive rebounding with 33.2 per game.

- Georgia Tech's adjusted tempo is 71.6 possessions per game according to KenPom (89th in the nation), well ahead of the 66.1 possessions per game last season and 66.8 in 2016-17. Game-by-game, Tech has 73, 77, 78, 68, 65 and 80 possessions and has exceeded 100 points/100 possessions three times in five games.

- Tech's 71.0 points per game this season is more than any Yellow Jacket team has been able to sustain over a full season since 2015-16 (73.2). That is the only time the Jackets have finished a season at 70 points or more per game in the last nine seasons.

- Tech has reached 70 possessions per game over the course of a full season only four times since 1997, the first year

Last Time vs. Syracuse

Georgia Tech 73, Syracuse 59

Jan. 12, 2019 • Syracuse, N.Y.

Jose Alvarado and Curtis Haywood combined for six three-point field goals and 34 points, while Georgia Tech shot 68.2 percent from the floor in the second half and pulled away for a 73-59 victory over Syracuse at the Carrier Dome.

The Yellow Jackets (10-6, 2-1 ACC) bounced back from a heart-breaking loss and a defensive struggle Wednesday night with Virginia Tech, outscoring the Orange (11-5, 2-1) 47-33 after intermission. Alvarado and Haywood supplied 28 of those points to stave off two Syracuse rallies and cancel out 22 Tech turnovers.

Alvarado hit 5-of-6 shots from the floor and all three of his three-point attempts, plus a 6-of-7 clip from the free throw line, while Haywood went 6-of-10 from the floor, 3-of-6 from three-point range, and had seven assists.

Tech put itself in position to win with a solid defensive first half, taking a 27-26 lead into the locker room by repeatedly going inside to post players James Banks III and Abdoulaye Gueye, who scored 20 of the Jackets' points. Banks finished with 16 points (6-of-10 FG) and seven rebounds, while Gueye scored 10 in his first start since Nov. 28.

Gueye missed much of the second half with severe cramps, but sophomore Evan Cole mitigated the loss with eight points and eight rebounds.

The Yellow Jackets defended well once again, with Syracuse converting 31.6 percent from the floor and 7-of-33 from three-point range.

KenPom kept 1997-98 (72.3), 2000-01 (72.1), 2001-02 (70.5) and 2008-09 (70.5).

- Two fouls in the first half? No problem. Georgia Tech ranks No. 1 in the nation, according to KenPom.com, in 2-foul participation, a measure of percentage of available minutes played by players with two fouls (70.7 pct. for Tech). The Jackets led the nation in this category in 2018-19 and was fourth in 2017-18.

- Evan Cole started in place of James Banks III for the second straight game. The lineup of Devoe, Parham, Moore, Cole and Wright also started the Bethune-Cookman game and is now 2-0.

- Tech led at halftime for only the second time in six games this season. The Jackets are 39-12 under Josh Pastner when leading at the half.

- Tech has won two of its games by 23 (Elon) and 17 (Nebraska) points. Tech's other four games other this season have been decided by a total of nine points.

- Tech, the nation's leader in blocked shots coming into the game, hit its average with eight against Nebraska and now has 48 in six games this season. Against the Cornhuskers, five different Tech players blocked a shot, led by Moses Wright with three.

- Tech's 32 field goals against Nebraska were its most in a game since hitting 32 in the 2018-19 season opener against Lamar, and its 73 field goal attempts were its most in a game since taking 73 shots against Boston College in the ACC Tournament on March 6, 2018.

- Tech opponents have taken 50 more shots from the floor than have the Yellow Jackets this season, an average of nearly 10 attempts per game. But Tech has made 20 more (45.2 percent to 34.6 percent).

- Tech has connected on just 9-of-44 three-point field goals in its last three games (2-for-11 vs. Arkansas, 2-for-10 vs. Bethune-Cookman, 5-for-23 vs. Nebraska) after hitting 21-of-63 (33.3 percent) in the first three games of the season.

- Tech had more assists than turnovers against Nebraska, the first time since the season opener at NC State (20 over 18) that has happened.

- The 18 Husker turnovers were the most Tech has forced this season.

- Tech scored a season high 48 points in the paint against Nebraska and is averaging 35.3 points per game there over six games. The Jackets have outscored all six opponents in the paint.

Personnel Highlights

- Michael Devoe, the ACC's leading scorer, scored 26 points against Nebraska, notching his fifth 20-point game this season and sixth of his career. He reached double digits for the 21st time in his career and for the sixth time in six games this season.

- Devoe is also the ACC's leading three-point shooter by percentage, hitting 17-of-29 this season (58.6 percent), including 4-of-8 against Nebraska. He went 10-of-17 overall, improving his season rate to 54.8 percent, which ranks in the ACC's top five.

- Devoe matched his career high with seven assists against Nebraska and came up one shy of his career high in rebounds with eight. He also had a team-high three steals.

- Moses Wright came up one rebound shy of his second straight double-double, matching his season high with 18 points and grabbing nine rebounds. Wright is averaging 11.3 points and 8.2 rebounds this season, both career highs, and has hit 58.2 percent of his shots from the floor (8-of-14 against Nebraska).

- James Banks III blocked just two shots against Nebraska, playing a season-low 24:24. He has 28 in six games this season for an average of 4.3, still No. 1 in the ACC and 1.8 per game more than last season.

- Bubba Parham has not turned the ball over in Tech's last two games, covering 68 minutes. The junior from Snellville, Ga., had a season-high four assists against Nebraska and had six points, four rebounds and two steals in 32:27.

- Freshman Asanti Price scored a season-high six points with four rebounds and two steals.

- Evan Cole continued to play solid basketball with eight points and six rebounds against Nebraska. In Tech's last three games, he has 20 points (10-for-19 from the floor) and 18 rebounds.

Pastner's Key Metrics

- Assists to made field goals: Tech has assisted on 84 of 159 field goals (52.8 percent) this season. The Jackets had 19 on 32 made field goals against Nebraska, just missing their nightly goal of 60 percent, which Tech has made three times this season.

- Free throws made to opponents' attempts: Tech went 4-of-8 from the free throw line against Nebraska, while the Cornhuskers were 8-of-18, falling short of accomplishing its nightly mission of making more free throws than the opponent attempts. The Jackets are 41-17 under Josh Pastner when attempting more free throws than the opponent.

- Turnovers: Tech committed 16 in the game to Nebraska's 18, the first time this season the Yellow Jackets have turned the ball over fewer times than its opponent. The Jackets have averaged 17.2 turnovers in six games, forcing 14.0. Target each night is to commit 11 or fewer, which Tech met only three times last season (all in the last four games) and none this season. More telling for Tech under Josh Pastner is that when Tech has committed fewer turnovers than its opponent, it is 23-15. When it has committed more, it is 26-31.

- Guard rebounding: Tech's players outside of Banks, Cole and Wright collected 16 of the Jackets' 35 defensive rebounds. For the season, they have 85 of the Jackets' 199 defensive rebounds.

Pre-Season Storylines

- Rise above - The Yellow Jackets finished last season 10th in the ACC after being projected to finish no higher than 13th in the preseason. It was Tech's highest finish since tying for ninth in 2013. Tech also outperformed projections in 2016-17, finishing 11th after being picked to finish 14th in Josh Pastner's first season. The Jackets have been projected to finish 12th this season in the official preseason poll of ACC media.

- Core group returns - Georgia Tech returns all five players who started its final two games of the season, and eight players who started a total of 123 games.

- Firepower returning - Tech returns its top three scorers from the 2018-19 season - Jose Alvarado, James Banks III and Michael Devoe - who accounted for 48.4 percent of its points, 41.6 percent of its rebounds and 47.2 percent of its minutes. Altogether, Tech returns eight of its top 11 players, who combined for 73.2 percent of its points, 66.4 percent of its points and 73.7 percent of its minutes. Those eight players combined to start 123 games.

- Get old and stay old - Tech's core eight returning players include two seniors, three juniors and three sophomores.

- Reinforcements - Tech has added two high-level transfers in 6-7 forward Jordan Usher from Southern California and 5-11 guard Bubba Parham from VMI, both of whom hail from the Atlanta area and were successful with their former schools. Usher, a former 4-star high school prospect, averaged more than eight points a game last year at USC, while Parham, an All-Southern Conference selection, led the SoCon in scoring at 21.4 points per game. Parham was granted immediate eligibility by the NCAA. Usher, who enrolled at Tech last January, becomes eligible for the Jackets' Dec. 18 game against Ball State. The Jackets also signed an all-state high school guard from South Carolina in 6-5 Asanti Price.

- First time - Georgia Tech's roster is composed entirely of student-athletes recruited by head coach Josh Pastner and his staff for the first time in Pastner's tenure.

- Peachy - All four of the transfers on Georgia Tech's roster are from the Atlanta metropolitan area and went to high school here - James Banks III (Decatur/Mount Vernon Presbyterian School), Bubba Parham (Snellville/Brookwood HS), Shembari Phillips (Atlanta/Wheeler HS) and Jordan Usher (Canton/Wheeler HS).

- 105th season - Georgia Tech is playing its 105th season of basketball in 2019-20 and has an all-time record of 1,356-1,243.

- 55 - Total years of full-time experience on Division I staffs for Tech's coaching staff.

Tech 4-0 in Summer Tour of Spain

Georgia Tech went 4-0 in its seven-day August tour of Spain, winning two games each in Barcelona and Madrid against a collection of players from Spanish professional leagues.

The tour took place from August 8-16, coinciding with the break between summer and fall academic terms. The Yellow Jackets spent the first three days (Aug. 9-11) in Barcelona, took a high-speed train to Madrid, where they stayed from Aug. 12-16.

The Yellow Jackets won their four games by an average of 19.8 points, the closest game being an 87-83 win in the final contest, and averaged 93 points per game while working to play an up-tempo style.

Tech shot 55.8 percent from the floor overall, 34.5 percent from three-point range while hitting an average of 10.5 three-pointers per game.

The Jackets' top three-point shooters in the tour were Jose Alvarado (8-of-16), Shembari Phillips (6-of-12) and Michael Devoe (8-of-19).

Tech assisted on 84 of 138 field goals - 60.8 percent, 21 assists per game.

Along with the basketball competition, the Yellow Jackets visited the professional soccer facilities of FC Barcelona and Real Madrid, and the La Sagrada Familia basilica in Barcelona among other activities.

Tech has made summer international tours twice previously, most recently to The Bahamas in 2015. The Jackets traveled to France in August of 1991.

Jackets Sign Three in Early Period

Georgia Tech filled all three of its available scholarships during the early signing period, signing four-star 7-1 center Saba Gigiberia, three-star 6-2 guard Tristan Maxwell and four-star 6-9 forward Jordan Meka.

Gigiberia, originally from Tbilisi in the Republic of Georgia, attended Prolific Preparatory School in Napa, Calif., after a year at Findlay Prep in Las Vegas, Nev. He has represented Georgia in the FIBA U16 and U18 European Championships.

Meka, originally from Yaounde, Cameroon, has attended Mt. Bethel Christian Academy in Marietta, Ga., since ninth grade, and has made all-state teams the last three years and is the school's all-time leading scorer, rebounder and shot-blocker.

Maxwell, the son of 13-year NBA veteran Vernon Maxwell, led class 4A in three-point shooting last season at North Mecklenburg High School in Huntersville, N.C. He is the school's all-time leading three-point shooter and is nearing the school's all-time scoring record.

Build the Wall

Due to its ability to play both zone and man-to-man and keep opponents off-balance, Georgia Tech has been able to rely on its mixture of defenses to win games over Josh Pastner's first three seasons at Georgia Tech.

Tech currently ranks No. 5 in the nation (NCAA rankings) in field goal percentage defense and No. 24 in three-point percentage defense. The Jackets also rank No. 1 in blocked shots and No. 3 in defensive rebounds per game.

Through six games, according to KenPom.com, Georgia Tech ranks No. 4 nationally in effective defensive field goal percentage (39.4), No. 4 in two-point field goal defense (37.9) and No. 23 in three-point defense (27.0).

Overall, Tech ranks No. 25 in defensive efficiency (90.9 pts/100 possessions), ahead of last season's finish of No. 43

(96.6). Tech ranked as high as 11th during the season before adjusting its lineup in an effort to boost its offensive output. and was No. 5 in the ACC and No. 53 in the NCAA in scoring defense at 66.6 points per game.

Tech was most effective at shutting down the three last season, ranking 13th nationally, and rim protection with center James Banks III leading the ACC and ranking No. 11 nationally in blocked shots.

Tech's 2016-17 team ranked No. 6 in adjusted offensive efficiency (91.0) according to KenPom.com. That group ranked fourth in the ACC in scoring defense (66.8 ppg) and No. 1 in FG percentage defense (39.8 pct.).

• Said Nebraska coach Fred Hoiberg: "They do a good job with that. It is a zone you don't see very often. It's a lot like when I was in the Big 12... like Baylor and their zone with their wings outside. It starts in a 1-3-1 and kind of morphs back into a 2-3. Then when you do get it inside you have to shoot it over the big fella, which is tough to do. I thought the movement for the most part in the second half was really good, especially seeing the zone for the first time. You try to simulate in practice, but it's impossible to do. If you keep the ball moving and create good looks... hopefully we'll make them the next time we get that opportunity."

Assisted Living

Georgia Tech coach Josh Pastner preached and prodded his Yellow Jackets on ball and player movement and hard cutting from the first time he got his team on the practice court. His primary measuring stick on how well the Jackets perform offensively is their ratio of assists to made field goals, and the Jackets' struggle to score last season was not for lack of ball movement.

Tech currently ranks 154th nationally in assists to made field goals (52.2 pct.) after assisting on only 30 of 77 field goals in its last three games. Pastner's nightly goal is 60 percent.

Tech finished last season No. 49 in 2018-19 at 57.6 percent (56.4 pct. in ACC games), well above the national average (52.1 pct.) in that category. In Pastner's first season, the Yellow Jackets ranked 13th nationally at 62.6 percent, the team's highest rate since the 2000-01 season. Tech's number was 63.2 percent in ACC games.

Tech's top assists-to-made field goals ratios: 1987-88 – 68.3; 1988-89 – 65.9; 1986-87 – 65.8; 1992-93 – 65.0; 1985-86 – 64.8; 2000-01 – 62.9; 1999-00 – 62.9; 2016-17 – 62.6

Jose Can You See

Point guard Jose Alvarado, recruited to Georgia Tech primarily for his winning attitude and determination, was given the green light by head coach Josh Pastner to handle the position as a freshman, sink or swim.

The Brooklyn native, the first Tech player from the New York area in nearly 20 years, developed into the Yellow Jackets' engine on the floor in his sophomore season, leading the Jackets in scoring (12.5 ppg), assists (3.6 apg), steals (1.8 pg) and free throw percentage (76.9 pct.) in ACC games. He also took 3.9 rebounds on average in ACC games, tied for second most on the squad.

Alvarado's freshman season was full of promise until it came to an abrupt halt on Feb. 11, when he dislocated his left elbow on a hard fall to the floor trying to contest a breakaway shot from Duke's Javin Delaurier. Until then, he had averaged 12.6 points per game to rank second on the team, 3.9 rebounds and 3.3 assists. He also shot the ball well, making 45 percent of his shots from the floor, 37.4 percent from three-point distance, and 80.2 percent from the foul line on 80 attempts.

Alvarado has posted 37 double-figure scoring games in his career, 10 times scoring 20 or more. And the 6-foot playmaker has averaged more than 34 minutes per game, with

• Said Pittsburgh coach Jeff Capel: "[Jose] Alvarado is a big-time competitor. We told our guys coming into this game, I know that kid and I know his spirit. With his team struggling, I knew that he would try to take it upon himself to be aggressive and have a great game. He was sensational."

Devoe Breaking Out

Freshman guard Michael Devoe, the highest-rated high school prospect Georgia Tech has recruited under Josh Pastner, steadily improved over the course of his freshman season and has made a quantum leap for the Yellow Jackets early this season.

The Orlando, Fla., sophomore leads the ACC in scoring in the early going at 23.8 points per game, and tops the NCAA rankings in three-point shooting (17-for-29, .586). Devoe has scored 20 or more points in five games this season, including a career-best 34 in a loss to Georgia that earned him ACC Player of the Week honors.

As a freshman, the Orlando, Fla., native began the season slowly after missing significant practice time with a toe injury, but steadily played more minutes and improved his production.

He entered the Tech starting lineup at Arkansas on Dec. 19, a game Tech won, 69-65, and scored 11 points. He connected on 43.8 percent of his three-point tries in ACC games (would have ranked No. 3 in the ACC with enough 3PM) and averaged 35.4 minutes (10th-most). He hit 32-of-68 (47.1 pct.) three-point tries in his last 15 games.

Banking Hours

The most significant development in the direction of last year's Georgia Tech team may have occurred Nov. 13, when the NCAA granted James Banks III immediate eligibility after his transfer from Texas.

Tech received that news while conducting its shootaround for its second game of the season, at Tennessee. Arrangements were made to get Banks to Knoxville (transfers do not travel with the team), where he contributed five points and seven rebounds in a 66-53 loss.

The personable 6-9 post player progressed rapidly after that modest start. He went on to log seven double-doubles, finish the season as Tech's No. 2 scorer and top rebounder, and finish 11th in the nation in blocked shots anchoring Tech's defense.

This season, he has added three-more double-doubles, leads the nation in blocked shots at a rate (4.7 per game) almost twice his 2018-19 average, and ranks No. 4 in the ACC in rebound average (9.3).

Getting it Wright

Part of Georgia Tech's improvement at the end of last season can be attributed to the development of sophomore forward Moses Wright, who played only one year of high school basketball and was not rated at all coming out of high school.

The 6-9 Raleigh, N.C., native has continued where he left off, starting all five games this season and sitting No. 3 on Tech's scoring chart (11.3 ppg) and No. 2 in rebounding (8.2 rpg) after scoring 30 points and grabbing 12 rebounds in Tech's two games this week. He has connected on 58.2 percent of his

Media Guidelines

Georgia Tech's practices are closed to the public and the media, but coaches and student-athletes are made available prior to each game before one of the team's practices. Notices will be distributed weekly to confirm the schedule.

TV stations will be allowed to shoot B-roll of practice on occasion.

Media are asked to notify Mike Stamus the day before of their need to attend and to make specific student-athlete requests.

Interview requests with student-athletes that need to be conducted at other times must be arranged through the Georgia Tech communications office at least 24 hours in advance. These interviews will be conducted at a time and place convenient to the student-athletes' availability and class schedule.

Media are asked not to contact student-athletes directly either by phone, e-mail, text or social media. They are instructed not to respond. Every effort will be made to make them available.

Interviewing Coach Pastner

Media wishing to speak with Coach Pastner at times other than scheduled media availabilities must notify Mike Stamus in the communications office in advance to make or confirm arrangements. He also is available each Monday on the ACC Teleconference (10:50 a.m.) beginning January 6.

Post-Game Protocol

Each head coach will hold a post-game press conference in the designated interview room (Shah Media Room at McCamish Pavilion).

Student-athletes requested by the media will be brought to the interview room following the coaches press conferences, when the team is at home, outside the team's locker room when the team is on the road.

Josh Pastner Radio Show

Head coach Josh Pastner's weekly radio show airs each Monday from 7-8 p.m. on "680 the Fan" and 93.7 FM, beginning in December.

ACC Coaches Weekly Teleconference

The 15 ACC head basketball coaches will be featured on nine Monday teleconferences during the 2019-20 season, beginning on January 6, and continuing through March 2. Each coach will have 10 minutes to make an opening statement and answer questions. There will be an instant replay of each teleconference on the Conference's internet site TheACC.com each Monday afternoon.

Coach Josh Pastner's regular time will be 10:50 a.m. Coaches whose teams play on Monday in January and February are not required to participate in that day's call. Coaches who do not have a Monday game - Georgia Tech is one - will be on every Monday at the same time. The teleconference schedule for each Monday will differ for the other head coaches, depending on what teams play that Monday night.

Contact Andy Fledderjohann at the ACC media relations office (afledder@theacc.org) for the call-in number and for questions on the schedule.

shots from the floor, No. 2 in the ACC.

Wright started the Yellow Jackets' last seven games of 2018-19 and blossomed in the last four, averaging 15.6 points and 6.2 rebounds while connecting on 36-of-58 field goals. He finished off the season with a career-high 25 points (12-of-18 FG) in the ACC Tournament against Notre Dame.

Banks Named to ACC All-Defensive Team

Georgia Tech's James Banks III was named to the ACC's All-Defensive team, the Yellow Jackets' fifth All-Defensive team honoree in the last seven years, joining centers Daniel Miller (2013, 2014) and Ben Lammers (2017, 2018), and the fourth different Tech center to make the team since its establishment in 2000.

The 6-9 junior from Decatur, Ga., led the ACC in blocked shots last season (2.52 in ACC games, 2.52 in all games) and anchored a Tech defense that has ranked as high as 11th nationally in defensive efficiency according to KenPom.com. The pivotman also ranked in the ACC's top 10 in rebound average (7.7) and has scored 10.5 points per game.

Building Depth

The upward progress of Georgia Tech's program is evident in the development of its last two classes, each of whom has played significant minutes and made significant contributions on the ACC level. Though not highly-rated in terms of rankings, the players have a wide range of skills and are developing into consistent conference-level performers for the next couple of years.

a. The 2017-18 class of Jose Alvarado, Evan Cole and Moses Wright combined to start 54 games last season, contributing 20.7 points, 8.7 rebounds and 57.5 minutes per game.

b. The 2018-19 class of Michael Devoe, Khalid Moore and Kristian Sjolund combined to start 37 games last season, contributing 15.7 points, 5.4 rebounds and 54.4 minutes.

c. James Banks III, who transferred from Texas, took just 23 games to eclipse his two-year totals at Texas, averaging 10.5 points and 7.7 rebounds and leading the ACC in blocked shots (2.52 per game).

More Player Development Success

Notable player development successes over the past three seasons include Josh Okogie, Ben Lammers, Tadic Jackson, Abdoulaye Gueye, James Banks III and Moses Wright, who maximized their skill sets and their production under the current coaching staff.

Okogie went from being ranked 11th in the state as a HS senior to a first-round NBA draft pick. In the last two seasons, Gueye, a 6-9 forward, developed from a project player into an ACC-level contributor. Banks, a 6-9 center, exceeded his two-year totals at Texas in just 23 games and led the ACC in blocked shots. Graduate transfer Brandon Alston had similar statistical numbers at the ACC level as he compiled in two seasons at Lehigh. Wright blossomed at the end of the 2018-19 season and averaged more than 15 points and six rebounds, tripling his season scoring average and doubling his rebound norm.

Jackets' Newcomer Class

• David Didenko, a 6-9, 232-pound forward originally from Yakutsk, Russia, signed with Georgia Tech during the early signing period last November. Didenko attended Boca Raton Community High School before enrolling at Palm Beach State, a junior college in Boca Raton, for the 2018-19 academic year. A full academic qualifier in high school, Didenko enrolled at Tech in the summer and has three years of eligibility with the Yellow Jackets. Didenko moved to New York in August, 2010, at the age of 11. Prior to his enrollment at Boca Raton, Didenko attended Northeast High School as a junior, and Montverde Academy for his ninth- and 10th-grade years.

• Bubba Parham, a 5-10 transfer from VMI, received NCAA approval waiving his required year of residency and is eligible immediately to compete for the Yellow Jackets. Parham has two seasons of eligibility remaining. Parham, who is from Snellville, Ga., and attended Brookwood High School, transferred to Tech in June after two standout seasons at VMI in Lexington, Va., where he earned second-team All-South Conference honors in 2018-19 and was named the conference's Freshman of the Year in 2017-18. He started all 62 games for the Keydets over two seasons, scoring 1,125 points and averaging 18.1 points per game. In two seasons, he connected on 37.2 percent of his three-point field goal tries, making 2.8 per game, and 79.5 percent of his free throw attempts. Last season, Parham led the Southern Conference with 21.4 points per game, scoring 30 points or more nine times.

• Asanti Price, a 6-5, 177-pound guard from Columbia, S.C., and W.J. Keenan High School, signed a national letter-of-intent during the spring signing period. Rated a three-star prospect and ranked No. 74 among shooting guards nationally in the 247Sports composite rankings, Price led W.J. Keenan High school with 17.9 points per game and was considered one of the top shooters in the area during the 2018-19 season. Price had more than 20 points in the Raiders' final two playoff games including 22 in the state championship game victory over Ridgeland-Hardeeville, a game in which he went 8-of-12 in the second half. He was a Class 3A all-state selection and also selected to play in the Carolinas Classic.

• Jordan Usher, a 6-7, 225-pound forward, transferred from Southern California and enrolled at Tech last January. Usher arrived at Tech after playing a season and a half for the Trojans. He must complete a year of residency at Georgia Tech and will become eligible to play for the Yellow Jackets following the conclusion of the fall 2019 term. He will be eligible for the remainder of the 2019-20 season and all of the 2020-21 season. A former 4-star prospect from Canton, Ga., Usher played in all 36 games with two starts for the Trojans as a freshman in 2017-18, averaging 4.8 points and 2.0 rebounds per game while connecting on 40.9 percent of his three-point field goal attempts. In 2018-19, Usher played in 12 games and made two starts, averaging 8.6 points and 3.7 rebounds.

Wire-to-Wire

Though he has expanded his playing rotation to reflect the growing level of talent within the program, head coach Josh Pastner remains committed to a tight playing rotation, reminiscent of the way Bobby Cremins coached the Yellow Jackets over his 19 seasons.

This season, with four power conference teams already played, Tech's reserves have played 20.9 percent of the minutes, down from the 23.6 percent they played during ACC games last season.

Michael Devoe (37.3) and Khalid Moore (34.48) rank No. 1 and 3 in the ACC in most average minutes played this season. James Banks III is 15th (32.43).

Jose Alvarado, who had played 96.7 percent of possible ACC minutes prior to his Feb. 11 injury as a freshman, averaged 36.2 minutes in ACC games last season and played 35 or more minutes 18 times. This season, he has missed four full games and the majority of a fifth with an ankle injury.

Last season, Alvarado and Devoe both ranked among the ACC's top 10 and combined for eight 40-minute games. Alvarado has posted 13 complete, 40-minute games in his career.

Tech players had 20 complete games combined in 2017-18, and had at least one player play the full 40 in 12 of 19 ACC games (regular season plus tournament).

NOTE: Between the Cremins era and the arrival of Pastner, only one Georgia Tech player played every minute of a game, regulation or overtime, and that was Marcus Georges-Hunt on Feb. 20, 2016, in a win over Notre Dame at home. In the final 15 seasons of Cremins' tenure (1985-86 through 1999-2000), a total of 196 players logged a 40-minute game.

Tech played 55 seasons in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, compiling a record of 556-194 (.741). Miami was the last team to play Tech there, a game Tech won, and was the first ACC team to play in McCamish Pavilion, which Miami won. For the 2011-12 season, Tech played its home games at Philips Arena and the Arena at Gwinnett.

Winning Starts at Home

Georgia Tech and head coach Josh Pastner have made a priority of making McCamish Pavilion a real homecourt advantage for the program, and the Yellow Jackets made a good start on that by setting a program record for wins at home (17) in 2017-18, which included a 7-2 ACC record and two NIT victories.

Tech is 16-11 against ACC teams at home under Pastner, and that includes a 5-5 mark against ranked opponents.

Tech is 43-18 at McCamish Pavilion under Pastner.

20-Game ACC Schedule Rotation

Beginning this season, the Atlantic Coast Conference has implemented a 20-game schedule for all its teams and announced a rotation that will carry the league through the next three seasons (through the 2021-22 season).

Each team plays its two primary rivals every season both home and away (four games, Clemson and Notre Dame remain Georgia Tech's primary home-and-away opponents) and four repeat opponents both home and away (eight games). The remaining eight opponents will be single games, four at home and four on the road. The full cycle of repeat opponents will be complete following the third year.

Under the former 18-game schedule, each team played four opponents both home and away each season, four at home and four away.

In 2019-20, Georgia Tech is playing Louisville, NC State, Pittsburgh and Syracuse both home and away in addition to Clemson and Notre Dame, with Duke, Miami, Virginia and Virginia Tech visiting McCamish Pavilion.

In 2020-21, Tech's home-and-away opponents will be Clemson, Notre Dame, Duke, Florida State, Virginia and Wake Forest, with home games against Boston, North Carolina, Pittsburgh and Syracuse.

In 2021-22, the Yellow Jackets play Clemson, Notre Dame, Boston College, Miami, North Carolina and Virginia Tech both home and on the road, and will host Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest.

Tech to Play in 2019 Diamond Head Classic

Georgia Tech will make its fifth trip to the state of Hawai'i in program history in December when it will compete in the 2019 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic in Honolulu, Hawai'i.

The field for the 2019 Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic features Ball State (Mid-American), Boise State (Mountain West), Georgia Tech (ACC), tournament host school Hawai'i (Big West), Houston (AAC), Portland (WCC), UTEP (Conference USA), and Washington (Pac-12). The 11th annual event will be played at the Stan Sheriff Center on the campus of the University of Hawai'i.

The Jackets will open against Boise State, and will face Houston or Portland in the second round.

Three teams in the 2019 field were a part of the postseason last season — Boise State (NIT), Houston (NCAA) and Washington (NIT). Meanwhile, five teams will make their first-ever appearance in the Hawaiian Airlines Diamond Head Classic.

Tech has a 10-5 record all time in four previous tournament events in Hawai'i, including a 6-3 mark in three appearances in the Rainbow Classic — 1984 champions, 1988, 1994 — which also were held at the University of Hawai'i. The Yellow Jackets also played in the 1998 Big Island Classic in Hilo, and the 2006 Maui Invitational.

Tech and Kentucky to Play 2-Game Series

Georgia Tech and Kentucky will begin a two-game series this season, beginning with the Yellow Jackets traveling to Lexington this December, and the Wildcats playing in Atlanta during the 2020-21 season.

Kentucky, which has won the NCAA Championship eight times, most recently in 2012, will host the Yellow Jackets Dec.

14 at Rupp Arena this season, and Tech will host the Wildcats in a "Holiday Hoopsgiving" event Nov. 27, 2020, at State Farm Arena in downtown Atlanta. Kentucky becomes the third Southeastern Conference opponent on the Yellow Jackets' pre-conference schedule this season, joining Georgia (Nov. 20 in Athens) and Arkansas (Nov. 25 at McCamish Pavilion).

The former Southeastern Conference rivals have met 71 times previously, the fifth-most meetings for the Yellow Jackets against any non-ACC opponent. The Wildcats have a 56-15 advantage since the teams first met in 1924, but the Jackets won the most recent contest, 86-84 on Dec. 9, 2000 at Philips Arena in Atlanta.

Nine of Tech's 15 wins over Kentucky came between 1955 and 1964 under legendary coach John "Whack" Hyder, three of those against Wildcat teams ranked No. 1 in the nation. The teams have met 34 times in Lexington, including three games at Rupp Arena, and 29 times in Atlanta.

Tech-UGA Game Moves to November Next Two Seasons

The Georgia Tech and Georgia basketball teams have signed an agreement to play the next two games of the series the week before Thanksgiving, giving both teams an opportunity to play the game at home in front of their student bodies before the fall semester ends.

The teams faced off this season on Nov. 20, at Stegeman Coliseum in Athens, and will meet next season on Thursday, Nov. 19, at McCamish Pavilion in Atlanta.

In the 194-game history of the series, Tech and Georgia have played their game before Thanksgiving only twice, on Nov. 15, 2013 in Athens and Nov. 14, 2014 in Atlanta. The Yellow Jackets won both games and lead the all-time series, 105-89.

As Southeastern Conference foes from 1932-64, the games were played in January, February and March. After Tech left the SEC, most of the games remained in January and February until the rivalry became a late December fixture at the Omni arena in downtown Atlanta from 1981-94. The series has been played on the two campuses every year since then, mostly in December.

Four Tech Alumni on NBA Rosters

Since 1982, Georgia Tech has produced 19 first-round NBA draft picks and 46 draft picks overall. A total of 38 Georgia Tech alumni have played in the NBA.

Four former Georgia Tech basketball stars are currently on NBA rosters, including guard Josh Okogie, who was drafted 20th overall by the Minnesota Timberwolves in 2018 and is in his second season with the team.

Thaddeus Young, a 12-year NBA veteran, finished three full seasons with the Indiana Pacers in 2019 after playing seven seasons in Philadelphia, one in Minnesota and two in Brooklyn. He signed with the Chicago Bulls during the off-season.

Derrick Favors emerged as a key figure in his nine seasons with the Utah Jazz, but became a free agent after the 2018-19 season and signed with the New Orleans Pelicans.

Iman Shumpert, an eight-year NBA veteran who went in the first round of the NBA draft to New York in 2011, signed with his fifth team, the Brooklyn Nets, last month.

Arts and Letters

Beginning with Moe Miller and Lance Storrs in the summer of 2011, every four-year senior in the Georgia Tech program has graduated, with the exception of the Yellow Jackets' 2018 two seniors, who are both expected to return and complete their degrees this summer after a year of pro ball overseas.

Graduate student Brandon Alston (economics), fifth-year senior Abdoulaye Gueye (business administration) and fourth-year junior Sylvester Ogbonda (business administration) all will complete their course work this semester and receive their degrees in May.

Welcome to The Hank

Georgia Tech is playing its seventh season in McCamish Pavilion, which was essentially brand new when it opened for the 2012-13 season. The only physical elements of McCamish Pavilion that remain from the venerable Alexander Memorial Coliseum are the roof and the 32 steel ribs that support it.

The capacity of McCamish Pavilion is 8,600, including 1,665 seats in the new balcony level and 6,935 seats in the lower seating bowl. There are no suites, but there is a club area that seats 500. Alexander Memorial Coliseum seated 9,191 spectators in its final configuration.

The most impressive features of McCamish Pavilion are its grand entrance, which fronts 10th and Fowler Streets, the ability for patrons to view the court from the main concourse all the way around, and the theatrical lighting system, which concentrates light on the court while leaving the seating areas dark, modeled after the Staples Center in Los Angeles and Madison Square Garden in New York.

Tech played 55 seasons in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, compiling a record of 556-194 (.741). Miami was the last team to play Tech in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, a game Tech won, and was the first ACC team to play in McCamish Pavilion on Jan. 5, which Miami won. For the 2011-12 season, Tech played its home games at Philips Arena and the Arena at Gwinnett.

Tech's NCAA Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in the NCAA Tournament 16 times in its history. Fifteen of those appearances have occurred from 1985 to the present, 10 under head coach Bobby Cremins and five under Paul Hewitt.

Tech has a record of 23-16 in NCAA Tournament play, highlighted by its 2004 trip to the NCAA title game as well as a Final Four berth in 1990. The Yellow Jackets have reached the NCAA Sweet 16 seven times (1960, 1985, 1986, 1990, 1992, 1996, 2004).

The 2004 and 2005 appearances were Tech's' first back-to-back appearances since Bobby Cremins led the Institute to the Big Dance nine straight years from 1985-93.

Georgia Tech has won at least one game in 11 of its 16 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Tech's ACC Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in 40 ACC Tournaments, and has a 26-37 all-time record in the event. The Yellow Jackets have won three championships, in 1985 (Atlanta), 1990 (Charlotte) and 1993 (Charlotte).

Tech has been a runner-up four times (1986, 1996,

BIO UPDATES

Head Coach Josh Pastner • 4th season

After guiding Memphis to five post-season berths in seven seasons as the Tigers' head coach, Josh Pastner became Georgia Tech's 14th head basketball coach on April 8, 2016.

Implementing a high-energy style of play and creative offensive and defensive schemes, and building the Jackets' talent base for the future, Pastner has tirelessly promoted the program on campus and throughout the city of Atlanta in an effort to re-create the major homecourt atmosphere that surrounded the Yellow Jackets throughout the 1980s, 1990s and into the middle of the 2000s. The result has been numerous wins, high excitement and 12 sellouts in three seasons at McCamish Pavilion.

Two of his players - guard Josh Okogie and Ben Lammers - have earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors before moving on to the professional ranks. Okogie, in particular, developed from an under-the-radar high school prospect into a highly-regarded NBA rookie, having been selected 20th in the 2018 NBA Draft.

In his first season at the helm, his Yellow Jacket team defied all pre-season expectations by reaching the post-season and advancing to the finals of the National Invitation Tournament. Tech earned victories over No. 9 North Carolina, No. 6 Florida State and No. 14 Notre Dame (later vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions), who all finished among the top four in the ACC regular season. He was named Coach of the Year in the ACC and in NABC District 2.

Two of his players earned all-Atlantic Coast Conference honors; junior center Ben Lammers was named second-team All-ACC and ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while freshman guard Josh Okogie was named to the ACC All-Freshman team.

Though hampered by several significant injuries and other issues in 2017-18, Tech still was able to knock off a pair of top-25 teams while Lammers and Okogie again earned conference honors, and Okogie developed into an NBA first-round draft choice. In 2018-19, the Yellow jackets picked up three significant road wins - at Arkansas, Syracuse and NC State, each of whom made post-season play - and center James Banks III was named to the ACC's All-Defensive team.

Pastner, 43, compiled a 167-73 record over seven seasons as the head coach at Memphis, where the Tigers earned bids to the NCAA Tournament four times. He tied for the 10th most wins for a head coach in his first seven seasons in Division I basketball history, and was the second winningest active coach under the age of 40 in NCAA Division I at the time.

Despite his young age, Pastner has been involved in basketball at the Division I level for 21 years, as a player and an assistant coach at Arizona, and as an assistant coach and the head coach at Memphis. He has been a part of teams that have won 524 games, played in 17 NCAA Tournaments and 19 total post-season events. Teams he has been involved with have won 12 conference tournament or regular-season championships, advanced to seven Sweet Sixteens, five Elite Eights, two Final Fours and two NCAA championship games.

As an NCAA head or assistant coach and an AAU head coach, he has coached nearly 25 NBA draft selections.

Pastner's Memphis teams averaged 23.9 wins per season and compiled a conference regular-season record of 82-36, including a conference winning streak of 28 games. The Tigers went 11-4 in Conference USA and American Athletic Conference tournaments, including three championships.

He guided Memphis to five post-season berths, the NIT in 2010 and the NCAA Tournament in 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014. Pastner twice won Conference USA Coach of the Year honors (2010, 2013) by various organizations and news media.

Pastner was born in Glen Dale, W.Va., and grew up in Kingwood, Texas. He earned his bachelor's degree in family studies in December of 1998, in just two and a half years, from Arizona and his master's degree in teaching and teacher education from Arizona in December of 1999, all while lettering four years in basketball under head coach Lute Olson.

He married the former Kerri Lamas of Sierra Vista, Ariz., in 2009. He has a stepson (Ethan) and three daughters, Payten, Kamryn and Harper.

Also on the Bench

ERIC REVENO

Associate Head Coach • 4th year at Tech

Eric Reveno, who served 10 years as the head coach at the University of Portland, joined Josh Pastner's men's basketball staff in May, 2016. He was promoted to associate head coach on Nov. 1, 2019.

The former post player oversaw one of the Yellow Jackets' great successes in 2016-17 in the development of 6-10 center Ben Lammers, who became a second-team All-ACC performer and the conference's Defensive Player of the Year. He also helped develop another former reserve forward, Abdoulaye Gueye, into a significant contributor for the Yellow Jackets in his final two seasons, and helped transfer James Banks III develop into one of the ACC's top defensive players in 2018-19, making the ACC's All-Defensive team.

Reveno's penchant for analytics has led to partnering the Jackets with advance technology systems to help the team's performance, such as the Noah shot-tracking system which was installed in both the Zelnak Practice Facility and the main floor at McCamish Pavilion. In addition to recruiting and on-court coaching, Reveno also handles budget management and game scheduling for the program.

Reveno and his wife, Amanda, have two children: Katie (16) and Andrew (13).

JULIAN SWARTZ

Assistant Coach • 4th year at Tech

A 16-year coaching veteran, including 10 years on the NCAA Division I level, Julian Swartz was named an assistant coach on Josh Pastner's staff in August of 2018.

Swartz, 39, is responsible for on-court development of Tech players and focuses his efforts on the Yellow Jackets' defensive schemes as well as handle recruiting responsibilities. He helped guide Tech's defense to a national ranking of No. 37 in efficiency in 2018-19, according to KenPom.com, and the Yellow Jackets also ranked among the top 15 in effective field goal percentage and three-point defense.

One of two members of head coach Pastner's staff at Memphis to follow him to Georgia Tech, Swartz came to The Flats in May, 2016, after four years with Pastner at Memphis, where he served stints as assistant director of operations, director of player development and interim assistant coach. He served his first two years at Tech as director of recruiting and compliance, which included serving as the staff liaison with compliance, coordinating on-campus recruiting operations and summer camps.

ANTHONY WILKINS

Assistant Coach • 2nd year at Tech

Anthony Wilkins, an Atlanta native who spent the past five seasons on the coaching staff at Tulane University, joined Georgia Tech's basketball staff in June of 2018.

Wilkins, 39, served as an assistant coach for four seasons at Tulane under two head coaches -- Ed Conroy and Mike Dunleavy - after serving as director of basketball operations during his first year with the Green Wave. At Tulane, Wilkins handled game strategy and scout prep responsibilities along with player development and recruiting duties. He also had six years of professional playing experience prior to entering the coaching world.

Focusing his on-court efforts with Tech's offense, the Yellow Jackets made significant strides toward the end of his first season on The Flats, and he is credited with the development of sophomore forward Moses Wright, who averaged more than 15 points and shot 62 percent from the floor over his last five games.

Born in Atlanta, Wilkins lived in the city for much of his childhood and attended Therrell High School for two years before finishing his high school studies at Glenville High School in Cleveland, Ohio.

- Athletic and long (7-foot, 0.5-inch wingspan) forward with good scoring ability and basketball IQ
- Leads Tech in steals (1.83 spg, No. 5 ACC) and is No. 2 in assists
- Does a lot of things that don't show up in the box score, good passer, moves well without the ball, keeps Tech offense moving, and his length and activity is an asset on defense
- Excellent sophomore debut with 11 points, four rebounds, three assists and six steals in Tech's victory at NC State ... Collected a critical offensive rebound and dish to James Banks for field goal attempt on which he was fouled for the winning points
- Had eight points, nine boards, five assists and three steals vs. Elon
- Played in all but one game as a freshman (DNP-CD vs. Prairie View A&M), starting 10 times, including the regular-season finale at NC State and the ACC Tournament game vs. Notre Dame
- Finished the season with eight points at NC State and 11 against Notre Dame, hitting 7-of-14 shots from the floor with three assists and no turnovers in 68 minutes
- Career-high 14 points (6-6 FG, 2-2 on 3s) vs. Florida A&M, 10 at Arkansas
- Top ACC regular-season games were eight points vs. North Carolina (2-2 FG, 4-4 FT) and at NC State (3-5 FG, 2-6 FT)
- Gives Tech two New York natives on the roster ... Came from the same high school (Archbishop Molloy) as Yellow Jackets' legendary point guard Kenny Anderson, and played on the same AAU team as teammate Jose Alvarado

11 • Bubba Parham • G • 5-10 • 160 • Jr.

- Last name pronounced "PAR-um"
- Atlanta-area product who transferred to Georgia Tech following two standout seasons at VMI, where he made the All-Southern Conference team as a sophomore and was named SoCon Freshman of the Year
- Prolific three-point shooter who can score in a variety of ways despite his small stature
- Was granted immediate eligibility by the NCAA on Sept. 11, and has two seasons of eligibility remaining
- Has averaged 8.0 points in Tech's last four games (10 each vs. Georgia, Arkansas), hitting 11-of-32 shots from the floor, 4-of-15 from three-point range and 6-of-6 from the free throw line
- Hit his first three as a Jacket and scored five points with six boards against Elon
- Ranked No. 18 among 2019-20 transfer class by Stadium's Jeff Goodman, who quoted a scout as saying, "He's a badass. Cat-quick combo guard who can score 40. Elite in ball screens, deep range and can really pass."
- Topped the SoCon in scoring with 21.4 points per game, and became the 41st player in VMI history to reach the 1,000-point mark with a career-high 38 points Feb. 23 at Western Carolina
- Ranked third in the SoCon with 3.63 three-point field goals per game, hitting 39.7 percent of his attempts, and had 10 games with five or more three-pointers made during the season
- Led the team in assists with 105 (3.5 per game), which ranked sixth in the SoCon
- Became the first VMI freshman to earn conference Freshman of the Year honors since 2010-11 (Big South Conference) and the first VMI SoCon FOTY since 2001-02 ... Topped the team in scoring with a 14.6 points per game average, sixth in the SoCon
