GEORGIA TECH (11-13, 5-8 ACC) vs. #5/5 LOUISVILLE (21-3, 12-1 ACC)
GAME 25 • February 12, 2020 • 8 p.m. • McCamish Pavilion • Atlanta, Ga.

About Wednesday's Game

Georgia Tech continues Atlantic Coast Conference play Wednesday night, hosting No. 5 Louisville at McCamish Pavilion. Tip time is 8 p.m. for the rematch of the Jan. 22 meeting between the two teams, won 68-64 by the Cardinals at Louisville’s KFC Yum! Center.

Georgia Tech update (11-13, 5-8 ACC) - Tech sits in a three-way tie for 10th place in the ACC standings, a game and a half out of sixth place, with Clemson and Virginia Tech. The Yellow Jackets, which came up short, 73-64, Saturday at Pittsburgh, are 2-2 in their last four conference games, including home victories over the Hokies and NC State. Tech is 6-0 at home this season, 2-4 in ACC games.

Louisville update (21-3, 12-1 ACC) - The first-place Cardinals are undefeated on the road in the ACC this season, and are 6-1 on the road overall, dropping a 78-65 decision to Florida State on Jan. 4. Since then, Louisville has won 10 straight games, including the victory over Georgia Tech on Jan. 22. The Cardinals have beaten Notre Dame, Pitt, Duke, Boston College and NC State on the road during that streak.

The Tipoff

- Not in the Cards - Georgia tech is looking for its first win over Louisville since the Cardinals became a member of the ACC. The nine-game skid includes a 1990 loss at Freedom Hall and a 2005 loss in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.
- An easy one - Georgia Tech's 76-57 win over Virginia Tech Tuesday night featured its largest lead of the season (60 points) and its second-largest margin of victory. Tech's previous five ACC games had been decided by a total of 27 points.
- Efficient - Tech has scored at a rate over 100 points per 100 possessions five times this ACC season. The Terrapins scored 99.1 in the regular season.

Less than a full deck - Georgia Tech has had its full roster available for only 12 games this season, from Tech's Dec. 22 opener in the Diamond Head Classic, when Jose Alvarado returned from a seven-game injury absence, through Jan. 22 at Louisville. Leading scorer Michael Devoe was sidelined for three games with an injured left foot. Jordan Usher did not play in the season's first seven games, sitting out as a transfer.

- Six - The number of different starting lineups Tech has used this season. The most frequent has been Jose Alvarado, Michael Devoe, Jordan Usher, Moses Wright and James Banks III, used 12 times in the last 15 games, interrupted only by Devoe's injury that forced him to miss three games. Moses Wright is the only Jordan Tech to start every game this season.
- Offense for defense - Georgia Tech ranks eighth in the ACC in scoring average in conference games (69.69) and 11th in scoring defense (71.77), a reversal of last year's final rankings (15th scoring offense, 7th scoring defense).
- All-for-ado - Georgia Tech has averaged 69.7 points and shot 46.7 percent of the floor in the 15 games since Jose Alvarado returned to the court. The Yellow Jackets have shot 50 percent or better in six of those games.
- Wright stuff - Moses Wright has scored in double digits in 13 of his last 15 games, averaging 14.0 points and 6.7 rebounds while hitting 52.4 percent of his shots from the floor. The 6-9 junior ranks No. 2 in the ACC in field goal percentage (53.2) and No. 13 in rebound average (7.2).
- Big miss - Jose Alvarado has averaged 14.3 points, 4.3 assists and 2.3 steals in 15 games since his return from an ankle injury which sidelined him for seven games. He's averaged 16.4 points over the last 11 games, scoring 20 or more points five times.
- Guard's game - Georgia Tech has four starters averaging in double figures this season, both in all games and in ACC games only. But starting guards Michael Devoe and Jose Alvarado are Tech's two leading scorers and have accounted for 37.7 percent of Georgia Tech's points in ACC games this season, and 37.2 percent of the scoring since Alvarado returned from his ankle injury.

Ushering in - Jordan Usher made his Tech debut Dec. 18 against Ball State when sitting out the required two semesters after he transferred from Southern California last January. The 6-7 guard forward/forward has averaged 8.3 points and 3.7 rebounds. In Tech's six wins over that stretch, he has averaged 10.1 points (27-48 FGs), 4.8 rebounds, 3.0 assists.
- No ducking - Georgia Tech's schedule is the 15th-stressful in the nation according to KenPom.com and No. 8 according to the NCAA NET rankings. Tech has played eight games against quadrant 1 teams and nine against quadrant 2 teams, five of those against non-conference teams. The Jackets have two remaining games against quadrant 1 teams (Louisville, Syracuse), two against quadrant 2 teams (Clemson, Wake Forest). The Jackets' non-conference schedule rates 46th overall by KenPom, 65th in the NET.

Series vs. Louisville

Of the four most recent newcomers of the expanded ACC, Tech has the longest history with Louisville, meeting 26 times prior to the Cardinals joining the conference.

- Louisville has won all seven games between the two teams as ACC brethren, the first three by a combined eight points. The Cardinals scored double-digit wins in the next three before escaping with a 68-64 win in the teams’ first meeting of the 2019-20 season at the KFC Yum! Center.

- Tech went 3-6 against the Cardinals with Whack Hyder as its head coach, all of those games between 1958 and 1965.

- After a 12-year hiatus, Tech was 2-2 vs. Louisville when both teams were members of the Metro Conference in the late 1970s. Dwaine Morrison was the Yellow Jackets’ head coach for all those games, and Denny Crum was on the Cards’ bench.

- After another long break, the teams met 13 times between 1988 and 1999, with Bobby Cummens and Crum on the opposing benches in all those games. The Yellow Jackets won 8-5 against the Cardinals during this time. Three of the meetings took place at Alexander Memorial Coliseum, and six at Freedom Hall.

- The other four were played at the Georgia Dome. Tech won three of those, including the first-ever college basketball game played in the facility, and before the largest crowd ever to witness a college game in the state of Georgia at the time (28,889). That game will be forever remembered in Tech lore after James Forrest launched a half-court heave on an inbounds play that dropped through the net at the buzzer for an 87-85 Yellow Jacket victory.

- The teams have met seven times when both were ranked among the nation’s top 25 teams, and Tech has won four of those meetings.

- Tech coach Josh Pastner went 2-2 against Louisville during his seven-year stint as the head coach at Memphis and is now 0-2 against the Cardinals. The Jackets have lost both meetings against Chris Mack-coached Cardinal teams.

Last Time Out: Jackets Fall at Pitt

Michael Devoe paced Georgia Tech with 22 points and had seven assists, but Georgia Tech was undone by 22 turnovers and fell, 72-64, to Pittsburgh Saturday afternoon at the Petersen Events Center.

The Yellow Jackets (11-13, 5-8 ACC) hung tough against the Panthers (15-9, 6-7 ACC), rallying from a nine-point deficit early in the second half to tie the game, but Pitt answered with an 8-2 run behind key baskets from Trey McGowens and Xavier Johnson to pull away. Tech could get no closer than three points after that.

Devoe keyed the Tech rally, scoring eight of Tech’s points in an 11-2 run that tied the game at 52-52 with 7:12 left. The 6-5 sophomore hit 7-of-10 shots from the floor, 3-of-5 from three-point range and 5-of-5 from the foul line, but was responsible for eight of the Jackets’ turnovers.

Tech shot 48 percent for the game, getting 18 assists on 24 made field goals, and held Pitt to 42.1 percent, but the Panthers scored 20 points off the Jackets’ turnovers and had 14 points from offensive rebounds.

Pitt freshman Justin Champagnie scored a game-high 30 points, hitting 12-of-17 shots from the floor, including a trio of threes, with nine rebounds. Johnson scored 11 with seven assists, and McGowens added 14 with nine assists, and the duo turned the ball over just twice between them. The Panthers had 16 assists on 24 made field goals and turned the ball over just eight times total.

Moses Wright reached double figures for Tech with seven rebounds, and Jose Alvarado finished with nine points and four assists, but played the final 12:13 with four fouls.

Last Meeting vs. Louisville

GEORGIA TECH vs. LOUISVILLE

Michael Devoe scored a game-high 21 points, but his potential go-ahead three in the game’s final seconds came up short after Georgia Tech battled back from a late double-digit deficit and fell to No. 6 Louisville, 68-64 at the KFC Yum! Center.

Trailing by 11 with just under five minutes the play, Georgia Tech (8-11, 3-6 ACC) went on a 10-0 run and cut the deficit to just one on a drive and dish from Devoe to James Banks III with 1:12 left. After forcing a turnover on the other end, Jose Alvarado and Moses Wright each missed shot attempts before fouling Malik Williams, who converted one of two free throws to put Louisville up by two. But Devoe’s open three-point attempt from straight away bounced off the front of the rim as Louisville (16-3, 7-1 ACC) escaped to win its fifth straight game.

Devoe led four Jackets in double figures, scoring a game-high 21 points while hitting 7-of-14 shots from the floor. Alvarado scored 13 and added a career-high 10 rebounds, Banks added 12 points and seven boards and Wright chipped in 11.
What's Trending

- Against ACC teams (according to KenPom.com), Tech ranks No. 4 in effective field goal percentage (51.2) against the league, the Yellow Jackets’ highest ranking in that category since they were No. 2 in 2010 (51.0). They also are eighth in offensive efficiency (90.9).
- The Jackets rank No. 1 in percentage of points scored on two-point field goals (60.0), and have been the No. 1 team in the ACC in that category all four years under Josh Pastner. Tech ranks fourth nationally in all games.
- Tech has exceeded 100 points per 100 possessions nine times, six of those coming games since Jan. 4 at North Carolina, which was the Jackets’ highest efficiency rating of the season (132.2). Most recently, Tech exceeded 100 against Notre Dame and Virginia Tech.
- Georgia Tech ranks No. 32 in defensive efficiency according to KenPom.com (33.2 points per 100 possessions), No. 31 nationally in effective defensive field goal percentage (45.3) and 39th in three-point field goal defense (30.2).
- Tech has held opponents to this season under 69 percent from the floor (four ACC opponents, Virginia Tech hit 38.2 percent), and eight under 30 percent from three-point range (three ACC opponents).
- Tech has held five opponents to their lowest offensive efficiency of the season, including two of its foes in Hawaii’s Elson, Arkansas, Nebraska, Boise State and Hawaii. Seven other teams, including NC State (both meetings), Kentucky, Duke and Boston College, posted one of their eight lowest offensive efficiency ratings against the Yellow Jackets.
- GTech’s adjusted tempo is 69.3 possessions per game according to KenPom.com (No. 126 in the nation), its best rate and ranking in Josh Pastner’s four years at Tech. Tech has played in the mid-60s in each of its last six ACC games, but the Yellow Jackets’ tempo in league play (69.1) is the fifth-highest.
- Tech has connected on 65.5 percent of its free throws this season (34-of-54) over Tech’s last 15 games after going just 4-of-14 in the first nine games of the season.
- Though Tech committed 22 turnovers against Pittsburgh, its fifth double-digit scoring game in the last seven after a streak of eight straight with 10 or more. The 6-9 junior has failed to reach double figures just five times this season, never in back-to-back games.
- Wright has connected on 63 percent of his free throws (34-of-54) over Tech’s last 15 games after going just 4-of-14 in the first nine games of the season.

Jose Effect

- Michael Devoe scored 22 points at Pittsburgh, his first game over 20 points since Jan. 22 at Louisville (21 points), and his eighth this season. Three of those have come in ACC games (22 vs. Notre Dame on Jan. 15, 21 at Louisville, 22 at Pittsburgh). The sophomores guard hit 7-of-10 shots from the floor, 3-of-5 from three-point range and 5-of-6 from the foul line.
- Devoe’s seven assists matched a season high set against Nebraska on Dec. 4.
- Moses Wright scored 13 points (5-12 FG) with seven rebounds against Pittsburgh, his fifth double-digit scoring game in the last seven after a streak of eight straight with 10 or more. The 6-9 junior has failed to reach double figures just five times this season, never in back-to-back games.
- Wright has connected on 63 percent of his free throws (34-of-54) over Tech’s last 15 games after going just 4-of-14 in the first nine games of the season.
- Though Tech committed 22 turnovers against Pitt, only two of those came from Jose Alvarado and Bubba Parham (each one), who combined for seven assists.
- Jose Alvarado has hit 23-of-59 shots (39 pct.) from three-point range in his last 11 games (1-4 at Pitt and is 59-of-121 overall (48.6 pct.) during that stretch.
- Alvarado and Devoe have combined to sink 38.5 percent of their three-point attempts in ACC games, 46.9 percent overall from the floor.
- Junior forward Evan Cole missed his second straight game with an injured right ankle, sustained in the team’s shootaround the day of the Virginia Tech game on Feb. 4.

Personnel Trends

- To assist in making field goals: Tech has assisted on 53.2 percent of its field goal attempts this season. The Jackets had 18 assists on 24 made field goals against Pittsburgh, meeting their nightly goal of 80 percent for the 13th time this season. Tech has assisted on 57.6 percent of its field goals vs. ACC teams this season, fifth-best rate in the conference.
- Free throws made to opponents’ attempts: Tech went 10-0-15 from the free throw line against Pittsburgh, while the Panthers were 20-27, missing the team goal of making more free throws than the opponent attempts. Tech has connected on 65.5 percent of its free throws this season and has averaged just 11.7 points per game from the charity stripe. Against ACC foes, the Jackets have hit 65.5 percent and scored 11.6 points per game from the line, and rank sixth in the conference in ratio of free throw attempts to field goal attempts (29 percent).
- Turnovers: Tech committed 22 to Pitt’s eight. The Jackets have turned the ball over more than their opponent in 16 of 24 games this season. The Jackets have averaged 15.9 on the season, forcing 13.7. Target each night is to commit 11 or fewer, which Tech has met three times this season. More telling for Tech under Josh Pastner is that when

That the Yellow Jackets' highest ranking in that category ranks No. 4 in effective field goal percentage (51.2) against the league, the Yellow Jackets' highest ranking in that category

Balancing Act

Though the Jackets rely heavily on their starting guards Jose Alvarado and Michael Devoe for scoring, they do the majority of it inside the three-point line along with post players James Banks III and Moses Wright. Tech ranks No. 1 in conference games in percentage of points scored on two-point field goals (60.0), and have been the No. 1 team in the ACC in that category all four years under Josh Pastner. Tech ranks fourth nationally in all games (60.5 percent).

Tech currently ranks No. 179 nationally in assists to made field goals (51.7 ppt). In ACC games, Tech has assisted on 57.7 percent, the fourth-best figure in the conference. Pastner’s nightly goal is 60 percent. The national average is 51.6 percent.

Tech finished last season No. 49 in 2018-19 at 57.6 percent (56.4 in ACC games), well above the national average (52.1 ppt) in that category. Pastner’s first season, the Yellow Jackets ranked 13th nationally at 62.6 percent, the team’s highest rate since the 2000-01 season. Tech’s number was 63.2 percent in ACC games.

Jace Can You See

Point guard Jose Alvarado, recruited to Georgia Tech primarily for his winning attitude and determination, was given the green light by head coach Josh Pastner to handle the position as a freshman, sink or swim.

The Brooklyn native, the first Tech player from the New York area in nearly 20 years, has made a huge difference for the Yellow Jackets since his return to the court in Hawaii, playing an average of 33.7 minutes per game and 14.3 points.

He is Tech’s leading scorer in ACC games at 15.5 points per game (12th in the ACC) while converting on 46.9 percent of his shots from the floor (7th ACC) and 35.3 percent from three-point range. The 6-foot junior has exceeded 20 points five times over his last 11 games, including 26 in a win over NC State and 25 each against North Carolina and Notre Dame (Feb. 1). He leads the ACC in steals (2.25) and ranks fifth in assists (4/92) in conference games.

Since returning from Hawaii, the Jackets have exceeded 100 points per 100 possessions six times in 12 games.

The 6-foot junior had missed seven full games and most of an eighth before that trip with a right ankle sprain suffered before the Jackets’ second game of the season against Elon. Since his return, Tech has averaged 69.7 points per game and shot 46.3 percent from the floor.

In Tech’s last 11 games, he has averaged 16.5 points, connecting on 23-of-60 shots (38.3 pct.) from three-point range and 66-of-138 overall (47.8 pct.) during that stretch. In his last three games, he is 21-of-41 from the floor, 7-of-17 from three-point range.

He developed into the Yellow Jackets’ engine on the floor as a sophomore, leading the Jackets in scoring (12.5), assists (3.6), steals (1.8) and free throw percentage (76.9 pct.) in ACC games.

Alvarado has posted 45 double-figure scoring games in his career, 16 times scoring 20 or more. And the playmaker has averaged more than 34 minutes per game, with 14 complete 40-minute games.

■ Said Pittsburgh coach Jeff Capel last season: “[Jose] Alvarado is a big-time competitor. We told our guys coming into this game, I know that kid and I know his spirit. With his team struggling, I know that he would try to take it upon himself to be aggressive and have a great game. He was sensational.”

Banking Hours

The most significant development in the direction of last year’s Georgia Tech team may have occurred Nov. 13, when the NCAA granted James Banks III immediate eligibility after his transfer from Texas.

Tech received that news while conducting its shootaround for its second game of the season, at Tennessee. Arrangements were made to get Banks to Knoxville (transfers do not travel with the team), where he contributed five points and seven rebounds in a 66-53 loss.

The personable 6-9 post player progressed rapidly after that modest start. He logged seven double-doubles, finished the season as Tech’s No. 2 scorer and top rebounder, and finished 11th in the nation in blocked shots anchoring Tech’s defense.

This season, he has added five more double-doubles, ranks No. 17 in the nation in blocked shots and No. 2 in the...
ACC at a rate of 2.67 per game), and ranks eighth in the ACC in rebound average (7.79). In ACC games, he has averaged 10.7 points, 8.2 rebounds while hitting 57 percent of his shots from the floor.

Banks on 3x3U Watch List
James Banks II is one of 10 ACC seniors under consideration to represent the conference in the 2020 Dos Equis 3X3 National Championship which will take place at Atlantic Station during the NCAA Final Four weekend.

The event will feature 128 graduating Division I college basketball seniors competing for $150,000. The 3x3 event will take place April 3-5 at Atlantic Station in Midtown Atlanta, close to the Tech campus, and will feature musical acts, food trucks, interactive experiences and more for fans in attendance.

The event is free and open to the public, giving fans the chance to see some of the best college basketball players in the nation during the sport's ultimate weekend in Atlanta.

Banks was one of 320 seniors across all 32 Division I conferences named to a mid-season watch list that was revealed Feb. 4.

Pre-Season Storylines
• Rise above - The Yellow Jackets finished last season 10th in the ACC after being projected to finish no higher than 13th in the preseason. It was Tech's highest finish since tying for ninth in 2013. Tech also outperformed projections in 2016-17, finishing 11th after being picked to finish 14th in Josh Pastner's first season. The Jackets were projected to finish 12th this season in the official preseason poll of ACC media.
• Core group returns - Georgia Tech returned all five players who started its final two games of the season, and eight players who started a total of 123 games.
• Firepower returning - Tech returned its top three scorers from the 2018-19 season - Jose Alvarado, James Banks II and Michael Devoe - who accounted for 48.9 percent of its points, 41.6 percent of its rebounds and 47.2 percent of its minutes. Altogether, Tech returned eight of its top 11 players, who combined for 73.2 percent of its points, 66.4 percent of its points and 72.7 percent of its minutes. Those eight players combined to start 123 games.
• Get old and stay old - Tech's core eight returning players include two seniors, three juniors and three sophomores.
• Reinforcements - Tech added two high-level transfers in 6-7 forward Jordan Usher from Southern California and 5-11 guard Bubba Parham from VMI, both of whom hail from the Atlanta area and were successful with their former schools. Usher, a former 4-star high school prospect, averaged more than eight points a game last year at USC, while Parham, an All-Southern Conference selection, led the SoCon in scoring at 21.4 points per game. Parham was granted immediate eligibility by the NCAA. Usher, who enrolled at Tech last January, becomes eligible for the Jackets’ Dec. 18 game against Ball State. The Jackets also signed an all-state high school guard from South Carolina in 6-6 Asanti Price.
• Beefing up - With a more veteran team in 2019-20, Tech made an effort to strengthen its non-conference schedule, beginning a two-game series with Kentucky and finishing another two-game set with Arkansas, while accepting an invitation to play in the Diamond Head Classic, in which the Jackets faced a 2019 NCAA Tournament team in Houston. Tech also played its annual meeting against Georgia and the Big Ten/VACC matchup against Nebraska.
• First time - Georgia Tech's roster is composed entirely of student-athletes recruited by head coach Josh Pastner and his staff for the first time in Pastner’s tenure.
• Peachy - All four of the transfers on Georgia Tech’s roster are from the Atlanta metropolitan area and went to high school here - James Banks III (Decatur/Mount Vernon Presbyteral School), Bubba Parham (Snelville/Brookwood HS), Shembari Phillips (Atlanta/Wheelers HS) and Jordan Usher (Canton/Wheeler HS).
• 105th season - Georgia Tech is playing its 105th season of basketball in 2019-20 and has an all-time record of 1,387-1,258 (222 wins and one loss were vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions).
• 55 - Total years of full-time experience on Division I staffs for Tech's coaching staff.

Building Depth
The upward progress of Georgia Tech's program is evident in the development of its last two classes, each of whom has played significant minutes and made significant contributions on the ACC level. Though not highly-rated in terms of rankings, the players have a wide range of skills and are developing into consistent conference-level performers for the next couple of years.

• a. The 2017-18 class of Jose Alvarado, Evan Cole and Moses Wright combined to start 54 games last season, contributing 20.7 points, 8.7 rebounds and 57.5 minutes per game.
• b. The 2018-19 class of Michael Devoe, Khalid Moore and Kristian Sjolund combined to start 37 games last season, contributing 15.7 points, 5.4 rebounds and 44.4 minutes.
• c. James Banks III, who transferred from Texas, took just 23 games to eclipse his two-year totals at Texas, averaging 10.5 points and 7.7 rebounds and leading the ACC in blocked shots (2.52 per game).

Five-Star Player Development
Notable player development successes over the past three seasons include: Josh Okogie, Ben Lammers, Tadic Jackson, Abdoulaye Gueye, James Banks III and Moses Wright, who maximized their skill sets and production under the current coaching staff.

Okogie went from being ranked 111th in the state as a HS senior to a first-round NBA draft pick. In the last two seasons, Gueye, a 6-9 forward, developed from a project player into an ACC-level contributor. Banks, a 6-9 center, exceeded his two-year totals at Texas in just 23 games and led the ACC in blocked shots. Graduate transfer Brandon Altom had similar statistical numbers at the ACC level as he compiled in two seasons at Lehigh. Wright blossomed at the end of the 2018-19 season and averaged more than 15 points and six rebounds, tripling his season scoring average and doubling his rebound norm.

Jacquets' Newcomer Class
• David Didenko, a 6-9, 232-pound forward originally from Yakutsk, Russia, attended Boca Raton Community High School before enrolling at Palm Beach State, a junior college in Boca Raton, for the 2018-19 academic year. A full academic qualifier in high school, Didenko enrolled at Tech in the summer and has three years of eligibility with the Yellow Jackets. Didenko moved to the United States in 2010, at the age of 11. Prior to his enrollment at Boca Raton, Didenko attended Northeast High School as a junior, and Montverde Academy for his ninth- and 10th-grade years.
• Bubba Parham, a 5-10 transfer from VMI, received NCAA approval waiving his required year of residency on Sept. 11 and has two seasons of eligibility at Georgia Tech. A native of Snellville, Ga., Parham attended Brookwood High School and averaged 10.5 points and six rebounds, tripling his season scoring average and doubling his rebound norm.

Josh Pastner Radio Show
Head coach Josh Pastner's weekly radio show airs each Monday from 7-8 p.m. on "680 the Fan" and 93.7 FM, beginning in December.

ACC Coaches Weekly Teleconference
The 15 ACC head basketball coaches will be featured on nine Monday teleconferences during the 2019-20 season, beginning on January 6, and continuing through March 2. Each coach will have 10 minutes to make an opening statement and answer questions. There will be an instant replay of each teleconference on the Conference's internet site TheACC.com each Monday afternoon.

Coach Josh Pastner's regular time will be 10:50 a.m. Coaches whose teams play on Monday in January and February are not required to participate in that day's call. Coaches who do not have a Monday game - Georgia Tech is one - will be on every Monday at the same time. The teleconference schedule for each Monday will differ for the other head coaches, depending on what teams play that Monday night.

Contact Andy Fledderjohann at the ACC media relations office (afledderjohann@acc.org) for the call-in number and for questions on the schedule.

Winning Starts at Home

Georgia Tech and head coach Josh Pastner have made a priority of making McCamish Pavilion a real homecourt advantage for the program, and the Yellow Jackets made a good start on that by setting a program record for wins at home (17) in 2017-18, which included a 7-2 ACC record and two NIT victories.

Tech is 16-14 against ACC teams at home under Pastner, and that includes a 5-6 mark against ranked opponents.

Tech is 46-20 at McCamish Pavilion under Pastner, 89-50 since the building opened for the 2012-13 season.

Jackets Sign Three in Early Period

Georgia Tech filled all three of its available scholarships during the early signing period, signing four-star 7-1 center Saba Gagibiera, three-star 6-2 guard Tristan Maxwell and four-star 6-9 forward Jordan Meka.

Gagibiera, originally from Tbilisi in the Republic of Georgia, attended Prolific Preparatory School in Napa, Calif., after a year at Findlay Prep in Las Vegas, Nev. He has represented Georgia in the FIBA U16 and U18 European Championships.

Meka, originally from Yaounde, Cameroon, has attended Mt. Bethel Christian Academy in Marietta, Ga., since ninth grade, and has made all-state teams the last three years and is the school's all-time leading scorer, rebounder and shot-blocker.

Maxwell, the son of 13-year NBA veteran Vernon Maxwell, led class 4A in three-point shooting last season at North Mecklenburg High School in Huntersville, N.C. He is the school's all-time leading three-point shooter and is nearing the school's all-time scoring record.

20-Game ACC Schedule Rotation

Beginning this season, the Atlantic Coast Conference has implemented a 20-game schedule for all its teams and announced a rotation that will carry the league through the next three seasons (through the 2021-22 season).

Each team plays its two primary rivals every season both home and away (four games - Clemson and Notre Dame remain Georgia Tech's primary home-and-away opponents) and four rotating opponents both home and away (eight games). The remaining eight opponents will be single games, four at home and four on the road. The full cycle of repeat opponents will be complete following the third year.

Under the former 18-game schedule, each team played four opponents both home and away each season, four at home and four away.

In 2019-20, Georgia Tech is playing Louisville, NC State, Pittsburgh and Syracuse both home and away in addition to Clemson and Notre Dame, with Duke, Miami, Virginia and Virginia Tech visiting McCamish Pavilion.

In 2020-21, Tech's home-and-away opponents will be Clemson, Notre Dame, Duke, Florida State, Virginia and Wake Forest, with home games against Boston, North Carolina, Pittsburgh and Syracuse.

In 2021-22, the Yellow Jackets play Clemson, Notre Dame, Boston College, Miami, North Carolina and Virginia Tech both home and on the road, and will host Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest.

Three Tech Alumni on NBA Rosters

Since 1982, Georgia Tech has produced 19 first-round NBA draft picks and 46 draft picks overall. A total of 38 Georgia Tech alumni have played in the NBA.

Four former Georgia Tech basketball stars are currently on NBA rosters, including guard Josh Okogie, who was drafted 20th overall by the Minnesota Timberwolves in 2018 and is in his second season with the team.

Thaddeous Young, a 12-year NBA veteran, finished three full seasons with the Indiana Pacers in 2019 after playing seven seasons in Philadelphia, one in Minnesota and two in Brooklyn. He signed with the Chicago Bulls during the off-season.
Derrick Favors emerged as a key figure in his nine seasons with the Utah Jazz, but became a free agent after the 2018-19 season and signed with the New Orleans Pelicans.

Iman Shumpert, an eight-year NBA veteran who went in the first round of the NBA draft to New York in 2011, signed with his fifth team, the Brooklyn Nets, last month, but was released on Dec. 11.

Arts and Letters

Beginning with Mo Miller and Lance Storrs in the summer of 2011, four every-year seniors in the Georgia Tech program has graduated, with the exception of the Yellow Jackets’ 2018 two seniors, who are both expected to return and complete their degrees this summer after a year of pro ball.

Graduate student Brandon Aiken (economics), fifth-year senior Abdoulaye Guéye (business administration) and fourth-year junior Sylvester Ogbonwa (business administration) all will complete their course work this semester and receive their degrees in May.

Georges-Hunt and Jackson made the Academic All-ACC team twice, and the Yellow Jackets have had at least one player named to that team since it was instituted for the 2010-11 season.

Tech’s men’s basketball team has recorded the highest Academic Progress Score in the last five years since the NCAA began tracking academic performance in 2004-05. The Jackets scored a perfect team single season APR score of 1000 three straight years from 2011-13.

Welcome to The Hank

Georgie Tech is playing its seventh season in McCamish Pavilion, which was essentially brand new when it opened for the 2012-13 season. The only physical elements of McCamish Pavilion that remain from the venerable Alexander Memorial Coliseum are the roof and the 32 steel ribs that support it.

The capacity of McCamish Pavilion is 8,600, including 1,665 seats in the new balcony level and 6,935 seats in the lower seating bowl. There are no suites, but there is a club area that seats 500. Head Coach Josh Pastner • 4th season

After guiding Memphis to five post-season berths in seven seasons as the Tigers’ head coach, Josh Pastner became Georgia Tech’s 14th head basketball coach on April 8, 2016.

Implementing a high-energy style of play and creative offensive and defensive schemes, and building the Jackets’ talent base for the future, Pastner tirelessly promoted the program on campus and throughout the city of Atlanta in an effort to re-create the major homecourt atmosphere that surrounded the Yellow Jackets throughout the 1980s, 1990s and into the middle of the 2000s. The result has been numerous wins, high excitement and 12 sellouts in three seasons at McCamish Pavilion.

Two of his players - guard Josh Okogie and Ben Lammers - have earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors before moving on to the professional ranks. Okogie, in particular, developed from an under-the-radar high school prospect into a highly-regarded NBA rookie, having been selected 20th in the 2018 NBA Draft.

In his first season at the helm, he Yellow Jacket team defied all pre-season expectations by reaching the post-season and advancing to the finals of the National Invitation Tournament. Tech erased victories over No. 9 North Carolina, No. 6 Florida State and No. 14 Notre Dame (later vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions), who all finished among the top four in the ACC regular season. He was named Coach of the Year in the ACC and in NABC District 2.

Two of his players earned all-Atlantic Coast Conference honors; junior center Ben Lammers was named second-team All-ACC and ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while freshman guard Josh Okogie was named to the ACC All-Freshman team.

Though hampered by several significant injuries and other issues in 2017-18, Tech still was able to knock off a pair of top-25 teams while Lammers and Okogie again earned conference honors, and Okogie developed into an NBA first-round draft choice. In 2018-19, the Yellowjackets picked up three significant road wins - at Arkansas, Syracuse and NC State, each of whom made post-season play - and center James Banks II was named to the ACC’s All-Defensive Team.

Pastner, 43, compiled a 167-73 record over seven seasons as the head coach at Memphis, where the Tigers earned bids to the NCAA Tournament four times. He tied for the 10th most wins for a head coach in his first seven seasons in Division I basketball history, and was the second winningest active coach under the age of 40 in NCAA Division I at the time.

Despite his young age, Pastner has been involved in basketball at the Division I level for 21 years, as a player and an assistant coach at Arizona, and as an assistant coach and the head coach at Memphis. He has been a part of teams that have won 524 games, played in 17 NCAA Tournaments and 19 total post-season events. Teams he has been involved with have won 12 conference tournament or regular-season championships, advanced to seven Sweet Sixteens, five Elite Eights, two Final Fours and two NCAA championship games.

As an NCAA head or assistant coach and an AAU head coach, he has coached nearly 25 NBA draft selections.

Pastner’s Memphis teams averaged 23.9 wins per season and compiled a conference regular-season record of 82-36, including a conference winning streak of 28 games. The Tigers went 11-4 in Conference USA and American Athletic Conference tournaments, including three championships.

Pastner was born in Glen Dale, W.Va., and grew up in Kingwood, Texas. He earned his bachelor’s degree in family studies in December of 1998, in just two and a half years, from Arizona and his master’s degree in teaching in August of 2000.

Pastner came to Memphis in July of 2009, where he served as an assistant coach for four seasons and later became Georgia Tech’s 14th head basketball coach on April 8, 2016.

ERIC REVENO
Associate Head Coach • 4th year at Tech

Eric Reveno, who served 10 years as the head coach at the University of Portland, joined Josh Pastner’s men’s basketball staff in May, 2016. He was promoted to associate head coach on Nov. 1, 2019.

The former post player oversaw one of the Yellow Jackets’ great successes in 2016-17 in the development of 6-10 center Ben Lammers, who became a second-team All-ACC performer and the conference’s Defensive Player of the Year. He also helped develop another former reserve forward, Abdoulaje Guave, into a significant contributor for the Yellow Jackets in his final two seasons, and helped transfer James Banks III develop into one of the ACC’s top defensive players in 2018-19, making the ACC’s All-Defensive team.

Reveno’s penchant for analytics has led to partnering the Jackets with advance technology systems to help the team’s performance, such as the Noah shot-tracking system which was installed in both the Zelnak Practice Facility and the main floor at McCamish Pavilion. In addition to recruiting and on-court coaching, Reveno also handles budget management and game scheduling for the program.

Reveno and his wife, Amanda, have two children: Kate (16) and Andrew (13).

JULIAN SWARTZ
Assistant Coach • 4th year at Tech

A 16-year coaching veteran, including 10 years on the NCAA Division I level, Julian Swartz was named an assistant coach on Josh Pastner’s staff in August of 2018.

Swartz, 39, is responsible for on-court development of Tech players and focuses his efforts on the Yellow Jackets’ defensive schemes as well as handle recruiting responsibilities. He helped guide Tech’s defense to a national ranking of No. 27 in efficiency in 2018-19, according to KenPom.com, and the Yellow Jackets also ranked among the top 15 in effective field goal percentage and three-point defense.

One of two members of head coach Pastner’s staff at Memphis to follow him to Georgia Tech, Swartz came to The Flats in May, 2016, after four years with Pastner at Memphis, where he served stints as assistant director of operations, director of player development and interim assistant coach. He served his first two years at Tech as director of recruiting and compliance, which included serving as the staff liaison with compliance, coordinating on-campus recruiting operations and summer camps.

ANTHONY WILKINS
Assistant Coach • 2nd year at Tech

Anthony Wilkins, an Atlanta native who spent the past five seasons on the coaching staff at Tulane University, joined Georgia Tech’s basketball staff in June of 2018.

Wilkins, 39, served as an assistant coach for four seasons at Tulane under two head coaches -- Ed Conroy and Mike Dunleavy, after serving as director of basketball operations during his first year with the Green Wave.

At Tulane, Wilkins handled game strategy and scout prep responsibilities along with player development and recruiting duties. He also had six years of professional playing experience prior to entering the coaching world.

At Tulane, Wilkins handled game strategy and scout prep responsibilities along with player development and recruiting duties. He also had six years of professional playing experience prior to entering the coaching world.

Focusing his on-court efforts with Tech’s offense, the Yellow Jackets made significant strides toward the end of his first season on The Flats, and he is credited with the development of sophomores forward Moses Wright, who averaged more than 15 points and shot 62 percent from the floor over his last five games.

Born in Atlanta, Wilkins lived in the city for much of his childhood and attended Therrell High School for two years before finishing his high school studies at Glenville High School in Cleveland, Ohio.

- Has 45 career double-figure scoring games (16 as a freshman, 20 as a sophomore)... Has topped 20 points 16 times
- Has started all but one game he has been available to play in his career... Returned from a season-ending injury as a freshman to lead the team in scoring, assists and steals as a sophomore (missed last eight games as a freshman due to broken elbow)
- As a sophomore, led Tech in scoring (12.5 ppg), assists (3.4 pg) and steals (1.8 pg)... Averaged team-high 12.5 ppg, 3.9 rpg, 3.6 apg, 1.8 steals in ACC games
- Has 14 complete games (40 minutes) in his career

3 • Evan Cole • F • 6-10 • 226 • Jr.
- Versatile frontcourt player who made the starting lineup to begin last season, but injuries and illness relegated him to a reserve role... Worked all summer and preseason to be the Jackets’ No. 2 post player behind James Banks
- Averaged 12.9 minutes this season (12.0 in ACC games), averaged 4.7 points and 3.5 rebounds per game while hitting 47 percent of his shots from the floor
- Started two games against Bethune-Cookman and Nebraska (8 pts, 6 reb)
- Missed Virginia Tech and Pitt games with a sprained right ankle
- Came off the bench to score 11 points in Tech’s Jan. 25 win over NC State, his first double-digit game since Jan. 2, 2019 and first in an ACC game since his freshman year... Followed with a 10-rebound game against Morehouse, his first double-digit rebound game since his freshman year
- Big part of Tech’s Jan. 4 win at North Carolina, scoring nine points on 4-of-7 shooting with two assists and no turnovers in 16:17... Six points, four rebounds vs. Virginia
- Also had nine points and nine boards vs. Elon, eight points and nine boards vs. Arkansas
- Averaging 4.6 points and hit 46.3 percent of his field goal vs. ACC opponents
- Successes come from hard cutting offensively and crashing the glass at both ends of the floor
- Solid play off the bench after return from ankle injury last season - personal bests of 11 points against Kansas State, then 16 against USC Upstate, nine points against Wake Forest, eight at Syracuse, seven at Duke and FSU
- Played well last season when not injured (missed five games with an ankle injury, three more with the flu)... Played in 18 games (3 starts) and averaged 41.1 points and 2.4 rebounds
- Played in 24 games as a freshman, averaging 13.8 minutes in them... Started the last seven games... First and only career double-double (10/10) vs. Wake Forest in final regular-season game
- Originally signed a letter-of-intent to attend UNC-Wilmington, but released a letter of transfer when the Seahawks’ coach, Kevin Keatts, left to become the head coach at NC State

0 • Michael Devoe • G • 6-5 • 193 • So.
- Left-handed combo guard with a high IQ who got off to a fast start scoring and shooting the ball in Tech’s first six games, leading the ACC and sitting among the nation’s top five in scoring
- Missed three games (NC State, Monmouth, Notre Dame) with a bruised left foot, but returned to score 12 points (2-of-5 3pt) with four assists against Virginia Tech... Followed that with 22 points (7-10 FG, 3-5 3pt, 5-FT) with seven assists at Pitt
- Currently No. 7 in the ACC in scoring (16.24) and No. 6 in field goal percentage (47.3).... Has hit 41.7 percent of his three-point tries, 42.9 percent in ACC games, does not have enough makes to qualify for conference rankings
- Went through a scoring and shooting slump prior to the Diamond Head Classic, but has averaged 13.9 points in his 11 games since then, hitting 47.4 percent from the floor, 36.7 percent from three and 78.1 percent from the free throw line
- Hit 21-of-48 from three-point range in his last 11 games, including 6-of-8 at Florida State, since missing all six attempts against Boise State
- No. 4 in the ACC in minutes played (35.39 mpg)
- Scored 20 or more points five times in Tech’s first six games this season, eight times altogether... Scored career-best 34 at Georgia with career-high nine rebounds
- Added 27 against Bethune-Cookman, including the game-winning points on a layup and free throw with seven seconds left, and followed that with 26 vs. Nebraska
- Over the next four games (Syracuse, Ball State, Kentucky, Boise State), he hit just 2-of-19 from three-point range and averaged 9.0 points
- Was Tech’s third-leading scorer overall (9.7) and in ACC games (10.4 ppg) as a freshman... Hit 43.8 percent of his three-point tries on conference play, best on the team and better than all but two of the qualifying ACC players in conference rankings (2.0 made per game minimum)
- Scored in double digits 16 times in his career, including 15 as a freshman, and has five 20+ games
