Game Notes

Georgia Tech vs. Wake Forest

About Wednesday's Game

Georgia Tech continues Atlantic Coast Conference play with a pair of road games this week, first with a visit to Wake Forest for a 7 p.m. tip Wednesday night at the Lawrence Joel Veterans Memorial Coliseum.

Georgia Tech update (12-13, 6-8 ACC) - Tech sits in a three-way tie for ninth place in the ACC standings with Notre Dame and Virginia Tech, one game out of fifth place. The Yellow Jackets, who have a bye last weekend following their 64-58 home win over No. 5 Louisville Wednesday, have won three of their last five ACC games, including home wins over NC State and Virginia Tech. Tech is 3-4 on the road in ACC games this season, 4-6 overall.

Wake Forest update (11-14, 4-11 ACC) - The Demon Deacons have lost three of their last four games, including a 74-51 defeat at Miami on Saturday. The lone win in that stretch came over North Carolina on Feb. 11 at home, where Wake has won three of their last four. The Deacons, who have a bye following Wednesday night's game, are in 14th place in the ACC, a half-game ahead of North Carolina.

The Tipoff
- Back-to-back - A win at Wake Forest would give Georgia Tech back-to-back wins for just the third time this season. It would also give the Yellow Jackets their first consecutive ACC wins since the end of the 2018-19 regular season (Boston College/NC State).
- More snacks - Tech is 3-4 on the road this season in the ACC, having defeated NC State, North Carolina and Boston College. A win Wednesday would give the Jackets their four ACC road wins for the first time since the 2007-08 season, when they finished 4-4.
- Winning in Winston - Tech has lost its last three games to Wake Forest at the Joel Coliseum by an average of 12 points. Tech's last win in Winston-Salem was Feb. 1, 2014.
- Never easy - Georgia Tech's six ACC losses in January and February have come by an average of 6.5 points. If its five wins have come by an average of 12.6 points.
- Efficient - Tech has scored at a rate over 100 points per 100 possessions five times in ACC play since the start of January (North Carolina, Boston College, Notre Dame twice, Virginia Tech). The Jackets were close to the mark (98.1) at the beginning of January (North Carolina, Boston College, Notre Dame twice, Virginia Tech). The Jackets were close to the mark (98.1) at the beginning of January (North Carolina, Boston College, Notre Dame twice, Virginia Tech). The Jackets were close to the mark (98.1) at the beginning of January (North Carolina, Boston College, Notre Dame twice, Virginia Tech).

Last Meeting vs. Wake Forest

Georgia Tech 92, Wake Forest 79
Jan. 5, 2019 • McCamish Pavilion

James Banks torched Wake Forest for 20 points to lead Georgia Tech to a 92-79 win over the Demon Deacons in the ACC opener for both teams.

Georgia Tech’s 92 points were the most that it had scored in a non-overtime ACC game since it beat Virginia, 94-76, in the opening round of the 2008 ACC Tournament. The Yellow Jackets’ most in a non-overtime ACC regular-season game since it topped UVA, 92-69, in 2005.

For the third straight game, Georgia Tech shot better than 55 percent from the field, while limiting Wake Forest to 39.7-percent shooting (27-of-68), the third-straight game that Georgia Tech’s opponent has made less than 42 percent of its field-goal attempts.

Freshman Michael Devoe, senior Brandon Altson and sophomore Jose Alvarado rounded out the four Yellow Jackets in double-figures with his 20 points. The junior’s 20-point output was just two shy of his career high of 22, set last month against Gardner-Webb.

Michael Devoe made a steal with seven seconds left and knocked down the two clinching free throws to seal a 92-79 win over Wake Forest.

The Yellow Jackets never trailed during the game as junior Jose Alvarado led with 18 points on 5-of-11 shooting, while senior Chaundee Brown had 10 on 4-of-13 and knocked down the two clinching free throws to seal a 92-79 win over Wake Forest.

Series vs. Wake Forest

• Georgia Tech has a 43-40 lead in the all-time series with Wake Forest and a 42-38 lead in games played since it became a member of the ACC.
• Tech has won eight of the last 11 meetings between the two teams, winning the teams’ only regular-season game in 2018-19 by a 92-79 score at McCamish Pavilion.
• Tech has won its last 13 games against Wake Forest at home, dating back to an 80-76 Demon Deacon win on Feb. 22, 2004 when both teams were ranked in the top 20. The Jackets won the last seven meetings in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, a 69-62 decision at Philips Arena during the 2011-12 season, and all five meetings so far at McCamish Pavilion.
• Tech was 24-9 against Wake Forest in games played at Alexander Memorial Coliseum, and is 30-9 against the Demon Deacons in Atlanta.
• Tech made a sweep of the season series in 2010-11, setting school records in each game for margin of victory in an ACC game (74-39 at home on Jan. 19) and for margin of victory in an ACC road game (80-54 on Mar. 3). The Jackets also swept the Demon Deacons in 2012-13.
• The home team has won 38 of the last 49 regular-season games in the series, with Wake Forest winning four times in Atlanta during that span, and Tech winning seven times in Winston-Salem.
• Tech has lost 14 of the last 19 meetings at the Joel Coliseum, but has one of its better records in an opponent’s building at 8-20. Tech is 12-27 against Wake Forest on the road, including a 2-3 mark in regular-season games played in Greensboro and a 2-4 mark in games played in Winston-Salem prior to the opening of Joel Coliseum.
• Tech is 40-29 against Wake Forest since 1985, including 12 straight victories from 1985-91.
• Wake Forest has won all four of its meetings with Georgia Tech in the ACC Tournament, including a 75-74 triumph in the 1996 championship game in Greensboro. Wake Forest took the 2007 first round meeting, winning 114-112 in double-overtime, the highest-scoring game in ACC Tournament history and the highest-scoring game for Tech involving an ACC opponent in its history.

Last Time Out: Jackets Topple the ‘Ville

Tech ranks No. 4 in effective field goal percentage (51.0) against the leagues, the Yellow Jackets’ highest ranking in that category since they were No. 2 in 2010 (49.0). They also are No. 7 in offensive efficiency (89.9). The Jackets rank No. 1 in percentage of points scored on two-point field goals (50.4), and have been the No. 1 team in the ACC in that category all four years under Josh Pastner. Tech ranks No. 3 nationally in all games (60.1 pct.).

- Tech has exceeded 100 points per 100 possessions nine times, six of those games coming since Jan. 4 at North Carolina, which was the Jackets’ highest offensive efficiency rating of the season (132.2). Most recently, Tech exceeded 100 against Notre Dame and Virginia Tech.

- Georgia Tech ranks No. 28 in defensive efficiency according to KenPom.com (92.2 points per 100 possessions), No. 26 nationally in effective field goal percentage (45.0) and 19th in three-point field goal defense (29.3). Tech has held 12 opponents this season under 40 percent from the floor (five ACC opponents, Louisville hit 33.9 percent), and nine under 30 percent from three-point range (four ACC opponents, Louisville hit 12.5 percent).

- Tech has held five opponents to their lowest offensive efficiency of the season, including two of its foes in Hawai’i – Elyon, Arkansas, Boise State and Hawai’i. Four other teams, including Boston College, NC State, Virginia Tech and Louisville, posted one of their lowest offensive efficiency ratings against the Yellow Jackets.

- Tech’s adjusted tempo is 69.7 possessions per game according to KenPom.com (No. 117 in the nation), its best rate and ranking in Josh Pastner’s four years at Tech. Tech has played in the mid-60s in six of its last seven ACC games, but the Yellow Jackets’ tempo in league play (69.1) is the sixth-highest.

- Tech has played in the mid-60s in six of its last seven ACC games, but the Yellow Jackets’ tempo in league play (69.1) is the sixth-highest.

- Tech has reached 70 possessions per game over the course of a full season only four times since 1997, the first year KenPom kept track - 1997-98 (72.3), 2000-01 (71.2), 2001-02 (70.5) and 2008-09 (70.5).

- Two fouls in the first half? No problem. Georgia Tech ranks No. 1 in the nation, according to KenPom.com, in 2-foul participation, a measure of percentage of available minutes played by players with two fouls (88.3 percent for Tech). The Jackets led the nation in this category in 2018-19, was fourth in 2017-18 and 35th in 2016-17.

- Tech has averaged 70.5 points per game away from home this season (72.5 in its six ACC road games), and averaged 66.0 at McCamish Pavilion.

- With its win over Louisville, Tech snapped a 17-game losing streak against teams ranked in the top 25 in either the AP or coaches’ poll, dating back to the Jackets’ Jan. 10, 2018 win over Notre Dame (No. 25 coaches). Tech’s last win over a top-10 team came Jan. 25, 2017 against No. 6/8 Florida State (78-56) at McCamish Pavilion. Last win over a top-5 team came Jan. 9, 2016 vs. No. 4/4 Virginia (68-64) at McCamish Pavilion.

- The Jackets are 7-1 this season when leading at halftime. They are 1-7 in games against each other this season.

- In their two games against Louisville, Tech held the lead for 64:59 of the 80 minutes. The Jackets never trailed in the game last Wednesday.

- All five Tech starters reached double figures in points against Louisville, the first time this season that has happened.

- Tech has held its last 23 ACC opponents at home under 40 percent from the floor (NC State 38.2, Virginia Tech 38.2, Louisville 39.9). Collectively, those teams shot 36.3 percent in ACC games.

- The Jackets’ last three home ACC foes (NC State, Virginia Tech, Louisville) have hit just 16.9 percent (11-of-65) from three-point range, and Tech won all three of those games. Tech’s last nine ACC opponents (home and away) have combined to hit just 25.4 percent from distance (47-of-185).

- Tech’s 28 free throw attempts against Louisville was a season high (27 vs. Elon previous high, 24 at North Carolina previous high for an ACC game). Tech’s 20 free throws made also was a season high (previous high was 18 vs. Hawai’i and North Carolina, both road games; previous high in a home game was 14 vs. NC State).

- Tech’s 26 points in the paint against Louisville was its fewest since Dec. 31 at Florida State (24). Tech had averaged 39 points in the paint over the previous 11 games, compared to 27 for its opponents. Only Duke (38-36) and Louisville (32-30 in game 1, 37-30 in game 2) had outscored Tech in that stretch.

- Tech has hit 18-of-48 (37.5 percent) of its three-point attempts in its last three games.

- Eighteen Tech players have fouled out this season, the most for the Jackets since the 2003-04 season (20). In ACC play, 11 Jackets have fouled out, most since 2005-06 (12).

- Tech has won the rebounding battle six times and held even twice in 11 games since the beginning of January. The Jackets are plus-15 on the boards in ACC games for the season, averaging around one per game more than their opponents.

Personnel Trends
- Jose Alvarado (game-high 18 points, 5-11 FG, 3-6 3pt, 5-6 FT vs. Louisville) has made a three-point basket in 12 straight games. That is the longest streak since Michael Devoe connected in 13 consecutive games during last season.
- Alvarado had a 10-game streak his freshman year.
- Alvarado has hit 26-of-65 (40.5 percent) from three-point range in his last 12 games (3-of-6 vs. Louisville) and is 62-of-127 overall (48.8 percent) during that stretch. He has hit 36.5 percent from distance in ACC games.
- Last four games for Michael Devoe – 16.4 points per game, 4.8 assists per game, 21-of-42 from the floor, 8-for-20 from three-point range, 16-of-18 from the free throw line. He has hit 41.5 percent of his threes in ACC games.
- Jordan Usher reached double figures in points (11 vs. Louisville, 5-10 FG) for the first time since scoring 13 at Boston College on Jan. 11. The 6-7 junior has averaged 10.3 points in the eight games Tech has won since he became eligible.
- Moses Wright hit double figures for the sixth time in eight games (12 points, 4-7 FG, 4-4 FT) after a streak of eight straight with 10 or more. The 6-9 junior has failed to reach double figures just five times this season, never back-to-back.
- Wright has connected on 65.5 percent of his free throws (38-of-58) over Tech’s last 15 games after going just 4-of-14 in the first nine games of the season.
- Alvarado and Devoe have combined to sink 38.6 percent of their three-point attempts in ACC games, 46.1 percent overall from the floor.

Pastner’s Key Metrics
- Assists to made field goals: Tech has assisted on 53.5 percent of its field goals this season. The Jackets had 12 assists on 20 made field goals against Louisville, meeting their nightly goal of 60 percent for the 14th time this season. Tech has assisted on 57.8 percent of its field goals vs. ACC teams.

season, fifth-best rate in the conference.

Free throws made to opponents’ attempts: Tech went 20-24 from the free throw line against Louisville, while the Cardinals were 17-24, missing the team goal of making more free throws than the opponent attempts. Tech has connected on 65.9 percent of its free throws this season and has averaged just 12.0 points per game from the charity stripe. Against ACC foes, the Jackets have hit 66.3 percent and scored 11.6 points per game from the line, and rank sixth in the conference in ratio of free throw attempts to field goal attempts (29 percent).

Turnovers: Tech committed 18 to Louisville’s 16. The Yellow Jackets have turned the ball over more than their opponent in 17 of 25 games this season. The Jackets have averaged 16.0 on the season, forcing 13.8. Target each night is to commit 11 or fewer, which Tech has met three times this season. More telling for Tech under Josh Pastner is that when Tech has committed fewer turnovers than its opponent, it is 27-16. When it has committed more, it is 29-40.

Guard rebounding: Tech's players outside of Banks, Cole and Wright collected 12 of the Jackets’ 23 defensive rebounds against Pittsburgh, 106-190 (55.7 pct.) in Tech’s last five games. For the season, they have 350 of the Jackets’ 658 defensive rebounds (53.2 percent).

Build the Wall

Due to its ability to play both zone and man-to-man defense, opponents have a difficult time figuring out how to attack Tech. Georgia Tech has been able to rely on its mixture of defenses to win games over Josh Pastner’s first three seasons at Georgia Tech.

According to KenPom.com, Georgia Tech ranks No. 28 nationally in defensive efficiency (92.2 points per 100 possessions), ahead of last season, when the Jackets ranked No. 43. Due to its ability to play both zone and man-to-man defense, the Jackets have demonstrated efficient and sometimes powerful offense as well.

Build the Wall

According to KenPom.com, Tech ranks No. 28 in effective defensive field goal percentage (45.0), No. 51 in two-point field goal defense (45.0) and No. 19 in three-point defense (28.9). Tech has held five opponents to their lowest offensive efficiency of the season, including two of its foes in Hawaii–Elon, Arkansas, Boise State and Hawai’i. Seven other foes, including NC State (both meetings), Kentucky, Duke and Boston College, has posted one of its six lowest ratings against the Jackets.

Said Nebraska coach Fred Hoiberg: “They do a good job with it. That is a zone you don’t see very often. It’s a lot like we were in the Big 12, like Baylor and their zone with their wings outside it starts in a 1-3-1 and kind of morphic inside into a 2-3. Then when you do get it inside you have to shoot it over the big fella, which is tough to do. I thought the movement for the most part in the second half was really good, especially seeing the zone for the first time. You try to simulate in practice, but it’s impossible to do.”

Balancing Act

Georgia Tech has lived and succeeded by playing excellent defense during its four years under Josh Pastner, but since the Yellow Jackets have had their roster available this season, they have demonstrated efficient and sometimes powerful offense as well.

Without relying much on three-point shooting, Tech has increased its tempo this season to a four-year high under Pastner. 69.7 possessions per game according to KenPom.com (No. 117 in the nation). Tech has played in the mid-60s in six of its last seven ACC games, but the Yellow Jackets’ tempo in league play (69.1) is the sixth-highest.

Against ACC teams (according to KenPom.com), Tech ranks No. 4 in effective field goal percentage (51.0), the Yellow Jackets’ highest ranking in that category since they were No. 2 in 2010 (50.9). They also are seventh in offensive efficiency (99.3) against the conference.

Though the Jackets rely heavily on their starting guards Jose Alvarado and Michael DeVoe for scoring, they do the majority of it inside the three-point line along with post players James Banks III and Moses Wright. Tech ranks No. 2 in conference games in percentage of points scored on two-point

Getting it Wright

The best player development story in Georgia Tech's program is that of sophomore forward Moses Wright, who played only one year of high school basketball and was not rated at all coming out of high school.

The 6-9 Raleigh, N.C., native has continued where he left off at the end of the 2018-19 season, starting every game this season and setting No. 3 on Tech's scoring (12.9 ppg) and rebounding (7.2 rpg) charts, while connecting on 53.3 percent of his shots from the floor. He ranks No. 2 in the ACC in field goal percentage, and No. 13 in rebound average.

In ACC games, he is Tech's No. 3 scorer at 13.4 points per game with 7.2 rebounds per game and a 49.7-percent shooting rate from the floor.

Wright has shot doubles this season, three of them in Tech's last five ACC games against Florida State, Duke and Boston College. He also posted double-doubles against Houston and Kentucky. Remarkably consistent, he has failed to reach double-figure scoring on only five times, and never in back-to-back games.

He made the all-tournament team at the Diamond Head Classic, averaging 17.7 points and 7.3 rebounds while connecting on 63.6 percent of his field goal tries, earning him ACC Player of the Week honors.

Wright started the Yellow Jackets' last seven games of the season, averaging 15.6 points and 6.2 rebounds while connecting on 36-58 field goals. He finished off the season with a career-high 25 points (12-18 FG) in the ACC Tournament against Notre Dame.

Sophomore Surge

Sophomore guard Michael Devoe, the highest-rated high school prospect Georgia Tech has recruited under Josh Pastner, steadily improved over the course of his freshman season and has made a quantum leap for the Yellow Jackets this season.

The Orlando, Fla., sophomore led the ACC in scoring throughout the month of November, and is currently No. 6 at 16.0 points per game and No. 6 in field goal percentage (46.4).

Devoe has scored 20 or more points in eight games this season, including a career-best 34 in a loss to Georgia that earned him ACC Player of the Week honors, and has reached double figures in all but five games.

He topped the NCAA rankings in three-point shooting earlier in the season (currently at 41 percent), and has hit 41.5 percent in ACC games. He came out of a shooting slump in Hawaii, and has hit 20-of-48 shots from three-point range in his last 11 games after going 2-for-19 in the four games prior.

As a freshman, the Orlando, Fla., native began the season slowly after missing significant practice time with a toe injury, but steadily played more minutes and improved his production. He connected on 43.8 percent of his three-point attempts in ACC games and averaged 35.4 minutes (10th-most). He hit 32-of-68 (47.1 percent) three-point shots in his last 15 games.

Jose Can You See

Point guard Jose Alvarado, recruited to Georgia Tech primarily for his winning attitude and determination, was given the green light by head coach Josh Pastner to handle the position as a freshman, sink or swim.

The Brooklyn native, the first Tech player from the New York area in nearly 20 years, has made a huge difference for the Yellow Jackets since he returned to the court in Hawaii, playing an average of 33.7 minutes per game and 14.5 points.

He is Tech's leading scorer in ACC games at 15.7 points per game (9th in the ACC) while converting on 46.8 percent of his shots from the floor (6th ACC) and 36.5 percent from three-point range. He ranks No. 4 in the ACC in steals (2.1) and ranks eighth in assists (4.9) in conference games.

The 6-foot junior has exceeded 20 points five times over his last 11 games, including 26 in a win over NC State and 25 each against North Carolina and Notre Dame (Feb. 1). Since returning from Hawaii, the Jackets have exceeded 100 points per 100 possessions six times in 13 games.

The 6-foot junior had missed seven full games and most of an eighth before that trip with a right ankle sprain suffered before the Jackets' played their second game of the season against Elon. Since his return, Tech has averaged 89.3 points per game and shot 46.1 percent from the floor.

In his last four games, he has shot 50 percent (26-of-52) from the floor, 43.4 percent (10-of-23) from three-point range. He developed into the Yellow Jackets' engine on the floor as a sophomore, leading the Jackets in scoring (12.5 ppg), assists (3.6 apg), steals (1.8 pg) and free throw percentage (76.9 pct.) in ACC games.

Alvarado has posted 46 double-figure scoring games in his career, 16 times scoring 20 or more. And the playmaker has averaged more than 34 minutes per game, with 14 complete 40-minute games.

- Said Pittsburgh coach Jeff Capel last season:
  - “[Jose] Alvarado is a day-time competitor. We told our guys coming into this game, I know that kid and I know his spirit. With his team struggling, I knew that he would try to take it upon himself to be aggressive and have a great game. He was sensational.”

Banking Hours

The most significant development in the direction of last year's Georgia Tech team may have occurred Nov. 13, when the NCAA granted James Banks III immediate eligibility after his transfer from Texas.
COACHES GAME NOTES

Georgia Tech is playing its 105th game of the season and for questions on the schedule for the other head coaches, depending on what teams Tech is one will be on every Monday at the same time. The ACC's internet site TheACC.com each Monday afternoon.

Weekly Teleconference

The 15 ACC head basketball coaches will be featured on nine Monday teleconferences during the 2019-20 season, beginning on January 6, and continuing through March 2. Each coach will have 10 minutes to make an opening statement and answer questions. There will be an instant replay of each teleconference on the Conference's interactive experiences and more for fans in attendance. The event is free and open to the public, giving fans the chance to see some of the best college basketball players in the nation during the sport's ultimate weekend in Atlanta.

Banks was one of 320 seniors across all 32 Division I conferences named to a mid-season watch list that was revealed in the ACC's media guide.

Pre-Season Storylines

• Rise above - The Yellow Jackets finished last season 10th in the ACC after being projected to finish no higher than 13th in the preseason. It was Tech's highest finish since tying for ninth in 2013. Tech also outperformed projections in 2016-17, finishing 11th after being picked to finish 14th in Josh Pastner's first season. The Jackets were projected to finish 12th this season in the official preseason poll of ACC media.

• Core group returns - Georgia Tech returned all five players who started its final two games of the season, and eight players who started a total of 123 games.

• Firepower returning - Tech returned its top three scorers from the 2018-19 season - Jose Alvarado, James Banks III and Michael Devoe - who accounted for 48.4 percent of its points, 41.6 percent of its rebounds and 47.2 percent of its minutes. Altogether, Tech returned eight of its top 11 players, who combined for 73.2 percent of its points, 66.4 percent of its points and 73.7 percent of its minutes. Those eight players combined to start 123 games.

• Get old and stay old - Tech's core eight returning players include two seniors, three juniors and three sophomores.

• Reinforcements - Tech added two high-level transfers in 6-7 forward Jordan Usher from Southern California and 5-11 guard Bubba Parham from VMI, both of whom hail from the Atlanta area and were successful with their former schools. Usher, a former 4-star high school prospect, averaged more than eight points a game last year at USC, while Parham, an All-Southern Conference selection, led the SoCon in scoring at 21.4 points per game. Parham was granted immediate eligibility by the NCAA. Usher, who enrolled at Tech last January, becomes eligible for the Jackets' Dec. 18 game against Ball State. The Jackets also signed an all-state high school guard from South Carolina in 6-5 Asanti Price.

• Beefing up - With a more veteran team in 2019-20, Tech made an effort to strengthen its non-conference schedule, beginning six-game series with Kentucky and finishing another two-game set with Arkansas, while accepting an invitation to play in the Diamond Head Classic, in which the Jackets faced a 2019 NCAA Tournament team in Houston. Tech also played its annual meeting against Georgia and the Big Ten/ACC matchup against Nebraska.

• First time - Georgia Tech's roster is composed entirely of student-athletes recruited by head coach Josh Pastner and his staff for the first time in Pastner's tenure.

• Peachy - All four of the transfers on Georgia Tech's roster are from the Atlanta metropolitan area and went to high school here - James Banks III (Decatur/Mount Vernon Preparatory School), Bubba Parham (Snellville/Brookwood HS), Shembari Phillips (Atlanta/Wheeler HS) and Jordan Usher (Canton/Wheeler HS).

• 105th season - Georgia Tech is playing its 105th season of basketball in 2019-20 and has an all-time record of 1,388-1,258 (22 wins and one loss were vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions).

• 55 - Total years of full-time experience on Division I staffs for Tech's coaching staff.

Building Depth

The upward progress of Georgia Tech's program is evident in the development of its last two classes, each of whom has played significant minutes and made significant contributions on the ACC level. Though not highly-rated in terms of rankings, the players have a wide range of skills and are developing into consistent conference-level performers for the next couple of years.

- The 2017-18 class of Jose Alvarado, Evan Cole and Moses Wright combined to start 54 games last season, contributing 20.7 points, 8.7 rebounds and 57.5 minutes per game.
- The 2018-19 class of Michael Devoe, Khalid Moore and Kristian Sjolund combined to start 37 games last season, contributing 15.7 points, 5.4 rebounds and 54.4 minutes.
- James Banks III, who transferred from Texas, took just 23 games to eclipse 1,000 two-year totals at Texas, averaging 10.5 points and 7.7 rebounds and leading the ACC in blocked shots (2.92 per game).

Five-Star Player Development

Notable player development successes over the past three seasons include Josh Okogie, Ben Lammers, Tadric Jackson, Abdoulaye Guye, James Banks III and Moses Wright, who maximized their skill sets and their production under the current coaching staff.

Okogie went from being ranked 11th in the state as a HS senior to a first-round NBA draft pick. In the last two seasons, Guye, a 6-9 forward, developed from a project player into an ACC-level contributor. Banks, a 6-9 center, exceeded his two-year totals at Texas in just 23 games and led the ACC in blocked shots. Graduate transfer Brandon AEston had similar statistical numbers at the ACC level as he compiled in two seasons at Lehigh. Wright blossomed at the end of the 2018-19 season and averaged more than 15 points and six rebounds, tripling his season scoring average and doubling his rebound norm.

Jackets' Newcomer Class

- David Didenko, a 6-9, 232-pound forward originally from Yakutsk, Russia, attended Boca Raton Community High School before enrolling at Palm Beach State, a junior college in Boca Raton, for the 2018-19 academic year. A full academic qualifier in high school, Didonko enrolled at Tech in the summer and has three years of eligibility with the Yellow Jackets. Didonko moved to the United States in 2010, at the age of 11. Prior to his enrollment at Boca Raton, Didonko attended Northeast High School as a junior, and Montverde Academy for his ninth- and 10th-grade years.

- Bubba Parham, a 5-10 transfer from VCU, received NCAA approval waiving his required year of residency on Sept. 11 and has two seasons of eligibility at Georgia Tech. A native of Sneekville, Ga., Parham attended Brookwood High School, transferred to Tech in June after two standout seasons at VCU in Lexington, Va., where he earned second-team All-South Conference honors in 2018-19 and was named the conference’s Freshman of the Year in 2017-18. Last season, Parham led the Southern Conference with 21.4 points per game, scoring 30 points or more nine times.

- Asani Price, a 6-5, 177-pound guard from Columbia, S.C., and W.J. Keenan High School, signed with Tech in the spring. Rated a three-star prospect and ranked No. 74 among shooting guards nationally in the 247Sports composite rankings, Price led W.J. Keenan High school with 17.9 points per game and was considered one of the top shooters in the area during the 2018-19 season.

- Jordan Usher, a 6-7, 225-pound forward, transferred from Southern California and enrolled at Tech last January after playing a season and a half for the Trojans. A former 4-star prospect from Canton, Ga., Usher played in all 36 games with two starts for the Trojans as a freshman in 2017-18, averaging 4.6 points and 2.0 rebounds per game while connecting on 40.9 percent of his three-point field goal attempts. In 2018-19, Usher played in 12 games and made two starts, averaging 8.6 points and 3.7 rebounds.

Wire-to-Wire

Though he has expanded his bench to reflect the growing level of talent within the program, head coach Josh Pastner remains committed to a tight playing rotation, reminiscent of the way Bobby Cremins coached the Yellow Jackets over his 19 seasons.

This season, Tech’s reserves have played 27.3 percent of the minutes (260 in the nation), up from the 23.6 percent they played during ACC games last season.

Michael Devoe and Jose Alvarado rank No. 9 and 14, respectively, in the ACC in minutes per conference game. Last season, Alvarado and Devoe both ranked among the ACC’s top 10 and combined for eight 40-minute games. Alvarado has posted 14 40-minute games in his career.

Tech 4-0 in Summer Tour of Spain

Georgia Tech went 4-0 in its seven-day August tour of Spain, winning two games each in Barcelona and Madrid against a collection of players from Spanish professional leagues. The tour took place from August 8-16, coinciding with the break between summer and fall academic terms. The Yellow Jackets spent the first three days in Barcelona, took a high-speed train to Madrid, where they stayed three more days.

The Yellow Jackets won their four games by an average of 19.8 points, the closest game being an 87-83 win in the final contest, and averaged 93 points per game while working to play an up-tempo style.

Tech shot 55.8 percent from the floor overall, 34.5 percent from three-point range while hitting an average of 10.5 three-pointers per game. The Jackets’ top three-point shooters in the tour were Jose Alvarado (8-of-16), Shembari Phillips (6-of-12) and Michael Devoe (8-of-19).

Along with the basketball competition, the Yellow Jackets visited the professional soccer facilities of FC Barcelona and Real Madrid, and the La Sagrada Familia basilica in Barcelona among other activities.

Tech has made summer international tours twice previously, most recently to The Bahamas in 2015. The Jackets traveled to France in August of 1991.

Winning Starts at Home

Georgia Tech and head coach Josh Pastner have made a priority of making McCamish Pavilion a real homecourt advantage for the program, and the Yellow Jackets made a good start on that by setting a program record for wins at home (17) in 2017-18, which included a 7-2 ACC record and two NIT victories.

Tech is 16-14 against ACC teams at home under Pastner, and that includes a 5-6 mark against ranked opponents.

Tech is 47-20 at McCamish Pavilion under Pastner, 90-50 since the building opened for the 2012-13 season.

Jackets Sign Three in Early Period

Georgia Tech filled all of its available scholarships during the early signing period, signing four-star 7-1 center Saba Gligorica, three-star 6-2 guard Tristan Maxwell and four-star 6-9 forward Jordan Meka.

Gligorica, originally from Tbilisi in the Republic of Georgia, attended Prep Preparatory School in Napa, Calif., after a year at Findlay Prep in Las Vegas, Nev. He has represented Georgia in the FIBA U16 and U18 European Championships.

Meka, originally from Yaounde, Cameroon, has attended Mt. Bethel Christian Academy in Marietta, Ga., since ninth grade, and has made all-state teams the last three years and is the school’s all-time leading scorer, rebounder and shot-blocker.

Maxwell, the son of 13-year NBA veteran Vernon Maxwell, led class 4A in three-point shooting last season at North Mecklenburg High School in Huntersville, N.C. He is the school’s all-time leading three-point shooter and is nearing the school’s all-time scoring record.

20-Game ACC Schedule Rotation

Beginning this season, the Atlantic Coast Conference has implemented a 20-game schedule for all its teams and announced a rotation that will carry the league through the next three seasons (through the 2021-22 season).

Each team plays its two primary rivals every season both home and away (four games), Clemson and Notre Dame remain Georgia Tech’s primary home-and-away opponents) and four rotating opponents both home and away (eight games). The remaining eight opponents will be single games, four at home and four on the road. The full cycle of repeat opponents will be complete following the third year.

Under the former 18-game schedule, each team played four opponents both home and away each season, four at home and four away.

In 2019-20, Georgia Tech is playing Louisville, NC State, Pittsburgh and Syracuse both home and away in addition to Clemson and Notre Dame, with Duke, Miami, Virginia and Virginia Tech visiting McCamish Pavilion.

In 2020-21, Tech’s home-and-away opponents will be Clemson, Notre Dame, Duke, Florida State, Virginia and Wake Forest, with home games against Boston, North Carolina, Pittsburgh and Syracuse.

In 2021-22, the Yellow Jackets play Clemson, Notre Dame, Boston College, Miami, North Carolina and Virginia Tech both home and on the road, and will host Florida State, Louisville, NC State and Wake Forest.

Three Tech Alumni on NBA Rosters

Since 1982, Georgia Tech has produced 19 first-round NBA draft picks and 46 draft picks overall. A total of 38 Georgia Tech alumni have played in the NBA.

Four former Georgia Tech basketball stars are currently on NBA rosters, including guard Josh Okogie, who was drafted 20th overall by the Minnesota Timberwolves in 2018 and is in his second season with the team.

Thaddeus Young, a 12-year NBA veteran, finished three full seasons with the Indiana Pacers in 2019 after playing seven seasons in Philadelphia, one in Minnesota and two in Brooklyn. He signed with the Chicago Bulls during the off-season.

Derrick Favors emerged as a key figure in his ninth season with the Utah Jazz, but became a free agent after the 2018-19 season and signed with the New Orleans Pelicans.

Iman Shumpert, an eight-year NBA veteran who went in the first round of the NBA draft to New York in 2011, signed with his fifth team, the Brooklyn Nets, last month, but was released on Dec. 11.

Arts and Letters

Beginning with Moe Miller and Lance Storm in the summer of 2011, every four-year senior in the Georgia Tech program has graduated, with the exception of the Yellow Jackets’ 2018 two seniors, who were both expected to return and complete their degrees this summer after a year of pro ball overseas.

Graduate student Brandon Alston (economics), fifth-year senior Abdoulaye Gueye (business administration) and fourth-year junior Sylvester Ogbonda (business administration) all will complete their course work this semester and receive their degrees in May.

Georges-Hunt and Jackson made the Academic All-ACC team twice, and the Yellow Jackets have had at least one player named to that team since it was instituted for the 2010-11 season.

Tech’s men’s basketball team has recorded the highest Academic Progress Report scores in the last five years since the NCAA began tracking academic performance in 2004-05. The Jackets scored a perfect team single year APR score of 1000 three straight years from 2011-13.

Basketball graduates

2012 - Derek Craig, Nick Foreman
2013 - Milton Ukoufa, Pierre Jordan (Master’s), Brandon Reed

Head Coach Josh Pastner • 4th season

After guiding Memphis to five post-season berths in seven seasons as the Tigers’ head coach, Josh Pastner became Georgia Tech’s 14th head basketball coach on April 8, 2016.

Implementing a high-energy style of play and creative offensive and defensive schemes, and building the Jackets’ talent base for the future, Pastner has tirelessly promoted the program on campus and throughout the city of Atlanta in an effort to re-create the major homecourt atmosphere that surrounded the Yellow Jackets throughout the 1980s, 1990s and into the middle of the 2000s. The result has been numerous wins, high excitement and 12 sellouts in three seasons at McCamish Pavilion.

Two of his players - guard Josh Okogie and Ben Lammers - have earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors before moving on to the professional ranks. Okogie, in particular, developed from an under-the-radar high school prospect into a highly-regarded NBA rookie, having been selected 20th in the 2018 NBA Draft.

In his first season at the helm, he Yellow Jacket team defied all pre-season expectations by reaching the post-season and advancing to the finals of the National Invitation Tournament. Tech reclaimed victories over No. 9 North Carolina, No. 6 Florida State and No. 14 Notre Dame (later vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions), who all finished among the top four in the ACC regular season. He was named Coach of the Year in the ACC and in NABC District 2.

Two of his players earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors; junior center Ben Lammers was named second-team All-ACC and ACC Defensive Player of the Year, while freshman guard Josh Okogie was named to the ACC All-Freshman team.

Though hampered by several significant injuries and other issues in 2017-18, Tech still was able to knock off a pair of top-25 teams while Lammers and Okogie again earned conference honors, and Okogie developed into an NBA first-round draft choice. In 2018-19, the Yellow jackets picked up three significant road wins - at Arkansas, Syracuse and NC State, each of whom made post-season play - and center James Banks III was named to the ACC’s All-Defensive team.

Pastner, 43, compiled a 167-73 record over seven seasons as the head coach at Memphis, where the Tigers earned bids to the NCAA Tournament four times. He tied for the 10th most wins for a head coach in his first seven seasons in Division I basketball history, and was the second winningest active coach under the age of 40 in NCAA Division I at the time.

Despite his young age, Pastner has been involved in basketball at the Division I level for 21 years, as a player and an assistant coach at Arizona, and as an assistant coach and the head coach at Memphis. He has been a part of teams that have won 524 games, played in 17 NCAA Tournaments and 19 total post-season events. Teams he has been involved with have won 12 conference tournament or regular-season championships, advanced to seven Sweet Sixteens, five Elite Eights, two Final Fours and two NCAA championship games.

As an NCAA head or assistant coach and an AAU head coach, he has coached nearly 25 NBA draft selections.

Pastner’s Memphis teams averaged 23.9 wins per season and compiled a conference regular-season record of 82-36, including a conference winning streak of 28 games. The Tigers went 11-4 in Conference USA and American Athletic Conference tournaments, including three championships.

Pastner was born in Glen Dale, W.Va., and grew up in Kingwood, Texas. He earned his bachelor’s degree in organizations and news media.

He married the former Kerri Lamas of Sierra Vista, Ariz., in 2009. He has a stepson (Ethan) and three daughters, Payten, Kamryn and Harper.

Also on the Bench

ERIC REVENO
Associate Head Coach • 4th year at Tech

Eric Reveno, who served 10 years as the head coach at the University of Portland, joined Josh Pastner’s men’s basketball staff in May, 2016. He was promoted to associate head coach on Nov. 1, 2019.

The former post player oversaw one of the Yellow Jackets’ great successes in 2016-17 in the development of 6-10 center Ben Lammers, who became a second-team All-ACC performer and the conference’s Defensive Player of the Year. He also helped develop another former reserve forward, Abdoulaye Gueye, into a significant contributor for the Yellow Jackets in his final two seasons, and helped transfer James Banks III develop into one of the ACC’s top defensive players in 2018-19, making the ACC’s All-Defensive team.

Reveno’s penchant for analytics has led to partnering the Jackets with advance technology systems to help the team’s performance, such as the Noah shot-tracking system which was installed in both the Zelnak Practice Facility and the main floor at McCamish Pavilion. In addition to recruiting and on-court coaching, Reveno also handles budget management and game scheduling for the program.

Reveno and his wife, Amanda, have two children: Katie (16) and Andrew (13).

JULIAN SWARTZ
Assistant Coach • 4th year at Tech

A 16-year coaching veteran, including 10 years on the NCAA Division I level, Julian Swartz was named an assistant coach on Josh Pastner’s staff in August of 2018.

Swartz, 39, is responsible for on-court development of Tech players and focuses his efforts on the Yellow Jackets’ defensive schemes as well as handle recruiting responsibilities. He helped guide Tech’s defense to a national ranking of No. 37 in efficiency in 2018-19, according to KenPom.com, and the Yellow Jackets also ranked among the top 15 in effective field goal percentage and three-point defense.

One of two members of head coach Pastner’s staff at Memphis to follow him to Georgia Tech, Swartz came to The Flats in May, 2016, after four years with Pastner at Memphis, where he served stints as assistant director of operations, director of player development and interim assistant coach. He served his first two years at Tech as director of recruiting and compliance, which included serving as the staff liaison with compliance, coordinating on-campus recruiting operations and summer camps.

ANTHONY WILKINS
Assistant Coach • 2nd year at Tech

Anthony Wilkins, an Atlanta native who spent the past five seasons on the coaching staff at Tulane University, joined Georgia Tech’s basketball staff in June of 2018.

Wilkins, 39, served as an assistant coach for four seasons at Tulane under two head coaches -- Ed Conroy and Mike Dunleavy - after serving as director of basketball operations during his first year with the Green Wave. At Tulane, Wilkins handled game strategy and scout prep responsibilities along with player development and recruiting duties. He also had six years of professional playing experience prior to entering the coaching world.

At Tulane, Wilkins handled strategy and scout prep responsibilities for two NCAA Division I teams, including Tulane’s NCAA Tournament appearance in 2012, and was part of the coaching staff that guided Tulane’s conference championship in 2011.

One of two members of head coach Pastner’s staff at Memphis to follow him to Georgia Tech, Wilkins’ experience at Tulane included coordination of Atlanta in an effort to re-create the major homecourt atmosphere that surrounded the Yellow Jackets throughout the 1980s, 1990s and into the middle of the 2000s. Wilkins lived in the city for much of his childhood and attended Tonnell High School for two years before finishing his high school studies at Glenville High School in Cleveland, Ohio.

4 • Jordan Usher • G/F • 6-7 • 220 • Jr.
• Atlanta-area product who transferred to Georgia Tech from the University of Southern California prior to the start of spring semester 2019
• Became eligible Dec. 18 vs. Ball State and has started every game since
• Has five double-digit games, including a high of 18 against Boise State and 13 at Boston College ...
• Averaging 8.4 points and 3.7 rebounds per game
• Became more comfortable out in Hawai‘i, averaging 12.0 points and 4.7 rebounds in three games with a season high of 18 points and seven rebounds in the Jackets’ win over Boise State and 10 against Houston
• Averaged 10.3 ppg (32-58 FG), 4.5 rpg, 2.8 apg in the eight games Tech has won since he became eligible
• Has hit 77.8 percent (28-36) from the free throw line
• Strong wing with size, a high motor and the ability to get to the rim and create scoring opportunities ...
• His athleticism and strength make him a force both offensively and defensively
• Prior to leaving the USC team, started twice and saw action in 12 games overall last season ...
• Averaged a career-high 24.5 minutes per game, with 8.6 points per game and 3.7 rebounds per game ...
• Hit 45.2 percent of his shots from the floor, and was 8-of-28 from three-point range
• As a freshman, averaged 4.8 points and 2.0 rebounds and played in all 36 games for the Trojans ...
• Made his only two starts of the season in the NIT, scoring 13 points each vs. UNC Asheville and Western Kentucky
• Was the only Trojan to shoot over 40 percent from the field and three-point range and 75 percent or more from the free throw line … His 40.9 percent shooting from three-point range tied for third all-time among USC freshmen

5 • Moses Wright • F • 6-9 • 230 • Jr.
• Fast developing, athletic frontline player who had played one year of varsity basketball in high school before signing with Tech in spring of 2017 … Extremely good athlete who can attack the glass to score and rebound, runs the floor well and is disruptive on defense
• Has added about 25 pounds since last year
• Consistent performer all season long, only two games in single-digit points, never two games in a row
• Currently Tech’s No. 3 scorer (12.9 ppg) and No. 2 rebounder (7.2 rpg, 7th in ACC) who has connected on 53.3 percent of his shots from the floor (No. 2 in the ACC)
• Averaging 13.4 points in ACC games while grabbing 7.1 rebounds per game (13th ACC) and hitting 49.7 percent from the floor (4th ACC)
• Has six double-doubles this season, including three in Tech’s last six games (13/10 at Florida State, 12/10 vs. Duke, 18/10 at Boston College) … Previously: 12/12 vs. Bethune-Cookman, 13/10 at Kentucky, 19/10 vs. Houston, 13/10 at Florida State
• Made the all-tournament team at the Diamond Head Classic, averaging a team-high 17.7 points and 7.3 rebounds while hitting 63.6 percent of his shots from the floor … Scored 18 with nine rebounds vs. Boise State, 19 and 10 vs. Houston and 16 with nine boards vs. Hawai‘i … Earned ACC Player of the Week honors
• Has hit 36-of-55 free throws (65.5 pct.) in his last 15 games after connecting on just 4-of-14 in the first nine games of the season
• Scored 18 points at Georgia (16 in second half), hitting 8-of-15 FG, with nine rebounds and two blocks
• Averaged 15.6 points and 6.2 rebounds in the last five games of 2018-19, while hitting 36-of-58 shots from the floor (62 pct.) … Included a career-best 25 points (12-of-18 FG) with seven rebounds, three assists and two blocks vs. Notre Dame in ACC Tournament
• Grew four inches and added 40 pounds after his sophomore year in high school … Has a 6-foot, 11.25-inch wingspan
• First North Carolina native to sign with Tech since Anthony Morrow (Charlotte), who played at Tech from 2004-08 and was an eight-year NBA veteran

13 • Coleman Boyd • G • 6-1 • 173 • Fr.
• Non-scholarship guard who enrolled at Tech for the fall term
• Hit a three-pointer against Morehouse for his first collegiate points
• All-state point guard from Georgia private school powerhouse Mt. Bethel Christian Academy
• Four-year letterwinner and captain at Mt. Bethel, which won state Georgia Independent Christian Athletic Association (GICAA) championships in 2017 and 2019, and reached the final four in 2016 and 2019 … Team went 97-26 in his four years
• Earned all-region and honorable mention all-state honors in 2019 by the Georgia High School Association
• Played at Mt. Bethel for his father, Cal, a longtime successful high school coach in the Atlanta area and a standout basketball player at Wake Forest following a legendary high school career at Campbell High School in Smyrna

34 • Niko Broadway • G • 6-3 • 195 • Fr.
• Non-scholarship guard who enrolled at Tech for the fall term
• Scored his first collegiate points on a reverse layup against Morehouse
• Comes from a Tech family … Both parents went to Tech, and his brother, Olin, is on the football team
• Two-year starter for coach Aaron Parr who helped St. Pius X win 102 games while he was on the varsity team … Second-team all-state and first team
• All-region as a senior, when he averaged 10.6 points, 5.4 rebounds and 2.1 assists per game, all second-best on the team
• Led St. Pius X to back-to-back runner-up finishes in the state championship in 2017 and 2018 (both at McCormick Pavilion), and three consecutive region titles in 2017, 2018 and 2019

45 • Shaheed Medlock • G • 6-5 • 196 • Sr.
• Non-(athletic)-scholarship player who enrolled at Tech and joined the basketball program in the summer of 2016 … Was not on the team in 2017-18, but returned for the 2018-19 season
• Played in seven games for the Yellow Jackets over the past three years
• Enrolled at Tech on a Bill Gates Millennium Scholarship
• Earned a reputation as an outstanding defensive player in high school

55 • Malachi Rice • G • 6-0 • 186 • Jr.
• Left-handed point guard who played four years, lettering in three, on the varsity team at Brebeuf Jesuit Preparatory School … Led Brebeuf to Circle City Conference championships twice
• Played in six games for the Yellow Jackets over the past two years … Played in just one game this season, missing opportunities due to an injured ankle
