O'Keefe Gymnasium, home of the Yellow Jacket volleyball team since 1995, is one of the premier volleyball facilities in the Southeast. The site of 18 Georgia Tech matches in 2019, O'Keefe Gym is known for its rowdy atmosphere, excellent sight lines and loud acoustics.

Over the years, O'Keefe Gym has served multiple purposes. Originally utilized as the gymnasium for O'Keefe High School in the 1950's, the gym was given to Georgia Tech in the 1960's and served as the location for many club sports for the Institute.

Since 1995, the gym has undergone various renovation projects, including the addition of a new floor, which was installed following the 2003 season, and a new locker room, which was added prior to the 2006 season.

O'Keefe Gymnasium underwent a nearly $1 million dollar renovation in 2006, which included adding new home and visitors locker rooms, a coaches' lounge, training room, players' lounge and student-athlete study area to the facility. The Yellow Jackets' new lounge and locker room area is complete with leather couches, big-screen televisions, work stations, a pool table and serves as a location for team meetings before and after matches and practices.

Prior to the 2017 season, the court at O'Keefe was replaced with a brand new Taraflex floor. The new court is the same kind of court that has been used in 11 consecutive Olympic Games. It is valued for its shock absorption and injury prevention.

For the 2018 season, Tech played under a videoboard in O'Keefe Gymnasium for the first time.

O'KEEFE GYM

POINT TECH!

It symbolizes the unmatched atmosphere and unparalleled excitement that engulfs O'Keefe Gymnasium during Georgia Tech volleyball matches.

The rowdy crowds, which have consistently ranked in the top 50 nationally, follow each volley intently, rise to their feet and yell "POINT TECH" each time the Yellow Jackets score.

From the introductions to the pep band to post-match autographs, Georgia Tech is known for having the most loyal volleyball fans throughout the South.

MICHELLE COLLIER

HEAD COACH

USF, 2002

SEVENTH SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH

@COLLMICH

Michelle Collier is in her seventh year as head coach of the Georgia Tech volleyball team. She was named the eighth head volleyball coach at Georgia Tech in March 2014.

In 2019, Collier was named ACC Coach of the Year and AVCA Region Coach of the Year in 2019 for leading the Jackets to its first NIVC Championship and second-place finish in the ACC after a 11th-place projected finish in preseason. It marked the Jackets' highest finish in conference play since 2004 when they went undefeated to claim the regular season title. The Yellow Jackets finished the regular season with a 21-8 record, its first 20-win season since 2016. Collier is only the third Georgia Tech head coach to earn the honor.

She brought the Jackets back to the postseason for the first time since 2009 with an NIVC berth in the 2018 season. She also led Tech to its first postseason victory since 2004 with its win over USF in the opening round of the 2018 NIVC. In 2017, she recorded her first win over a top-25 opponents with a 3-1 win over Michigan State. She recorded her 100th career win on Sept. 8, 2017 with a 3-2 win over Kansas State in O'Keefe Gymnasium.

In her second season at the helm of the Yellow Jacket program, Collier coached the Jackets to their best record since 2012 (18-14 overall, and 9-11 in ACC play). The program eclipsed 700 wins overall and had 641 at the Division I level at the end of the season with key road victories at Virginia Tech and Clemson, and a sweep of Duke at home. Her third season, 2016 was the most successful since 2004. The Jackets posted a 24-8 record overall with a 15-5 mark in ACC play. The Jackets boasted an impressive 11-2 record at home and notched key road wins over Duke and NC State.

The Jackets finished 2015 with 1,637 kills, which are the most since 2010. Tech started the season 9-2 for its best start since 2012, and went on an eight-match winning streak for the longest winning streak since 2006. Collier coached Teegan Van Gunst to AVCA honorable mention all-America honors, AVCA all-region honors and an All-ACC First Team selection.

Named the eighth head volleyball coach at Georgia Tech in March 2014, Collier led the Yellow Jackets to improvements of more than 100 kills than the 2013 team and with a better hitting percentage (.216 to .182). In addition, the team finished better in almost every statistical category from a year ago.

Collier was named the 2013 Atlantic Sun Conference Coach of the Year after leading Jacksonville to an NCAA Tournament appearance.

In just two years at Jacksonville, Collier helped develop the Dolphins into the A-Sun's dominant program. In 2013, Jacksonville posted a 30-4 overall record and earned the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2004.

Collier coached both the sand volleyball and indoor volleyball programs at Jacksonville in 2012 and 2013. During her two years with the Dolphins, they improved their RPI by more than 50 combined points and enjoyed their highest ranking in nearly a decade. Her 2013 team swept the Atlantic Sun Conference regular season and tournament championships and her players dominated the league's individual postseason awards.

Prior to her tenure at Jacksonville, Collier served two seasons (July, 2010-February, 2012) as an assistant coach at South Carolina, including a three-month stint as the Gamecocks' temporary head coach. In 2011, Collier helped the Gamecocks to a seven-win improvement which ranked as second-best jump in school history. The Gamecocks improved in nearly every category, including posting a hitting percentage 45 points better than in 2010.

Before working at South Carolina, Collier spent two seasons as an assistant at South Florida, where she was responsible for the outside hitters and headed up international recruiting. She helped the Bulls to finishes in the top half of Big East Conference each year, while raising their RPI by 100 points.

As a student-athlete at USF, Collier ranks among the greatest collegiate volleyball players of all-time. She ranks fifth in NCAA Division I history with 2,729 career kills and ranks in the Bulls' top-10 in numerous career and single-season categories. She holds the top spot in USF history in two career categories (kills and digs, 1,747) and set three single-season marks during the 2000 season. After coming back from an injury that sidelined her in 1999, Collier compiled 760 kills, 1,873 attacks and 6.28 kills per set.

A two-time Conference USA Player of the Year and a 2002 All-American, she claimed the league's Player of the Decade in 2004. She also earned the C-USA Freshman of the Year award in 1998 and led USF to three of the program's seven NCAA Tournament appearances. USF went 120-48 during her three years, claiming two C-USA titles and one C-USA tournament crown during her four-year career. Collier is the only volleyball player in USF history to have her jersey retired. She joined the USF Hall of Fame in 2011, the first Bulls volleyball player to earn that honor.

Before coaching, Collier played professional volleyball for four years in a global tour that took her to Cyprus, Indonesia, Puerto Rico, Spain and The Netherlands. Among the many accolades that she accumulated include the Indonesian League MVP and Cyprus' Best Foreign Player.

Fluent in English, Spanish and Portuguese, Collier graduated from USF in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in web design and international relations.

Collier is married to Rafael Silva, who played volleyball for nine years in the top divisions of both Brazil and Spain. The couple has one daughter, Tais, and one son, Rafael.

FOURTH SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH

Claudio Pinheiro joined the Georgia Tech volleyball coaching staff as an assistant coach in August 2017.

Pinheiro, a native of Rio de Janeiro, coached with the Brazil Women's National Team since 2005 and served as the head coach for the U23 Brazil Women's National Team from 2011-14. In addition to coaching at the top level in Brazil, he has also coached at the professional level in Turkey, Puerto Rico, and Spain.

With the Brazilian National Team, he claimed gold medals at the 2012 London and 2008 Beijing Olympic Games.

Pinheiro aided the Georgia Tech volleyball staff during the 2016 season as a consultant. The Jackets saw their best season since 2004, recording the best overall (.750) and ACC (.750) winning percentages in 12 years.

Pinheiro's impressive career spans decades and several countries with countless accolades. Those most notable include:

- Fifth place finish at the 2016 Women's Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro
- Champion of the 2012 Women's Olympic Games in London
- Champion of the 2008 Women's Olympic Games in Beijing

ARIELLE WILSON

ASSISTANT COACH

PENN STATE, 2011
SECOND SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH
@MISSRELT

Wilson is entering her second season as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech. She was named as an assistant coach in 2019.

In 2019, Wilson helped lead the Jackets to its first NIVC Championship and second-place finish in the ACC after a 11th-place projected finish in preseason. It marked the Jackets' highest finish in conference play since 2004 when they went undefeated to claim the regular season title. The Yellow Jackets finished the regular season with a 21-8 record, its first 20-win season since 2016 when the Jackets went 24-8.

Wilson, a native of Broadview, Ill., comes to The Flats from Michigan State, where she served as the volunteer assistant for the Spartans during the 2018 season. Wilson specialized in middle blocker training and team blocking.

Prior to coaching at Michigan State University, Wilson was an assistant coach at DePaul University and part-time coach for the outdoor beach volleyball program with 1st Alliance Volleyball Club, located near Chicago. While at DePaul, she worked extensively with the team's middle blockers. During the 2016 season, DePaul had its first All-BIG EAST first team member (Brittany Maxwell) and the Blue Demons won a program-best seven BIG EAST contests. Middle blocker Jasmine King was a Second Team All-BIG EAST selection under the guidance of Wilson. Her duties also included spearheading the team's community outreach activities. At 1st Alliance, she was able to train and develop middle blockers that currently represent some of the very best volleyball conferences in the country.

Wilson, having been raised in a hot bed for volleyball, has strong recruiting ties to several clubs in Chicago and its surrounding areas as well as around the country. These ties and her relationship skills aided her successful recruiting at DePaul. Since Wilson has been at Georgia Tech as a recruiting coordinator her connections to the southeast have increased and she has even built more west coast and east coast ties/relationships.

Prior to Wilson's time at Georgia Tech, she was able to play professionally overseas for five years. As a professional athlete she was able to play, interact, and adapt to many different coaches and players, helping my ability to network at the international level. The opportunity to work with people from different walks of life has opened her eyes to various styles of coaching.

As a collegiate athlete, she was extremely fortunate to train in a national championship culture and to play amongst the world's best athletes at Penn State University. During her four-year tenure, she had the pleasure of being part of one of the best and most successful volleyball teams in the history of NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball, winning four consecutive National Championships.

Wilson has great perspective and success at coaching middle blockers and team defense. She has also had experience with coaching blocking technique and block scheming as it pertains to team defense. Wilson is also able to help assist our team in knowing/scouting what offense Tech's opponents were running and where Tech should focus when it came to defense.

SUPPORT STAFF

JILL JAMESON

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

NORTHERN IOWA, 1993
FOURTH SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH

Jill Jameson joined the Georgia Tech volleyball staff in June 2017 as the director of operations.

Jameson arrived on The Flats in November 2016 as the administrative coordinator for women's basketball before transitioning into her role with the volleyball team.

Jameson brought over two decades of experience in collegiate coaching and operations to The Flats. She came to Tech after spending five years as Director of Basketball Operations at Wisconsin where she oversaw all administrative aspects of the women's basketball program including the budget, game scheduling and daily logistics of the program.

Prior to Wisconsin, Jameson spent seven years at Virginia Tech in the same role. While with the Hokies, Jameson provided support in the overall day-to-day operations of women's basketball. Jameson spent nearly 10 years as an assistant women's basketball coach before turning to the operations side. She began her coaching career at Virginia Tech while also holding stints at Francis Marion, University of Tennessee Chattanooga and Marquette where she helped lead programs to conference championships and NCAA tournaments.

Kerry Annel posted 560 total blocks from 1992-95, a mark that still stands atop the Tech career list today.

Kele Eveland holds the record for career assists at Georgia Tech. She was also the second All-American in school history and the only Tech player to be named to the AVCA All-America first team.

Maja Pachale owns the career record for kills per game.

Jennifer Beemsterboer notched a school record 1,594 digs from 1987-90 and her career mark of 3.33 digs per game stands second in the Tech annals.
