Boston College Athletics Communications Services

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, media operations for Boston College football games at Alumni Stadium will be altered. Capacity in the Alumni Stadium press box, Conte Forum media suite and sideline will be greatly reduced or eliminated in 2020. These guidelines are prepared in conjunction with the ACC for the safety of all involved and may be adjusted based on the latest protocols.

Credentials

All credential requests must be submitted through BC's online credentialing site with SportsSystems. To apply for credentials, please visit www.sportssystems.com/bostoncollege. Roughly 12 seats will be available for the local media within the press box seating area due to social distancing.

To the extent possible with severe space limitations, priority will be given to media outlets based upon those which have regularly participated in BC news conferences, the reach of the entity and the history of coverage.

Football credentials to cover games will be issued on a single-game basis only. This will allow our office to monitor who comes to each game with our new, limited seating in the press box.

Media must go online to apply for credentials leading up to each game no later than Tuesday of game week. Media will-call will be at the ticket office window at Gate B inside Conte Forum. It will open two hours prior to kickoff.

Credentials may be picked up at media will-call, which is now located at Gate B of Conte Forum at the top of the stairs. We will not mail any credentials in 2020, they must be picked up at Gate B on gamedays. Parking will be on a check-in basis as they enter the Merkert Lot off the Beacon Street entrance.

Acceptance of a credential acknowledges and assumes risks associated with the COVID-19 pandemic and the bearer agrees not to use the credential in the event that he or she is sick or symptomatic.

Health and Safety Protocols

Media attending events at Alumni Stadium must complete a short online health assessment on the day of the game. Temperature checks will be administered on site and individuals must affirm that they do not feel ill or have been in contact with an individual who has the COVID-19 virus, among other items in the short form to be completed online. Individuals with a temperature above 100.4 degrees will not be permitted into the facility. A link will be provided to those who receive credentials.

A multi-layered face covering must be worn at all times in the stadium and press box. Media representatives must bring their own face covering that fully covers their nose and mouth, plus any other personal protective equipment they wish to use. Rest rooms are available on the press box level for regular hand washing on levels five and six. Hand sanitizer dispensers and sanitizing wipes will also be available in the press box and Conte Forum Media Suite.

Seating

Individuals must sit in their assigned seat at the location of their place card or designated booth. Seats will be properly distanced and place cards may not be moved. A flip card will be provided at each seat. Game notes and statistics will be available online; there will be no printed copies provided in the press box. To the greatest extent practicable, everyone must adhere to physical distancing guidelines (at least six feet apart) while moving within the press box and must wear a face covering.

Photographers

ACC operations permit one designated pool photographer with access to shoot the game from the sidelines. The Boston Globe will provide those images for media editorial usage for coverage of the game and will be uploaded to the ACC Media Portal. There will be no sideline access for any additional photographers per ACC protocols during this pandemic period. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to register for the ACC Media Portal and for additional information.

Approved affiliates will receive a confirmation email along with credentials to access the ACC Media Portal. The use of ACC game action provided through the ACC Media Portal remain subject to those restrictions outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines.

A small number of approved photographers and videographers will be permitted to shoot from an assigned location inside Alumni Stadium. The photo areas will be clearly marked on the concourse level in the end zone and at mid-field. Videographers and photographers are not permitted on the sidelines, concourses, suites, seating bowl or other areas of the stadium.

Sideline Access

Aside from the pool photographer, approved university staff and the televising network approved personnel, no other media representatives are permitted on the sideline. This includes all times including pregame, halftime and postgame, as well as during the competition.

Videographers

ACC operations permit one designated videographer with access to shoot the game from the sidelines, which will be provided by Boston College. While all BC games will air live on television, video highlights will be uploaded to the ACC Media Portal within about 90 minutes of the conclusion of the game. Interested affiliates should email licensing@xosdigital.com to register for the ACC Media Portal and for additional information. Approved affiliates will receive a confirmation email along with credentials to access the ACC Media Portal. The use of ACC game highlights provided through the ACC Media Portal remain subject to those restrictions outlined in the ACC News Access Guidelines.

Parking

Media parking is located in the Merkert parking lot, adjacent to the Beacon Street garage. Use the Beacon Street entrance near the Beacon Street garage to access the Merkert lot. You should request your parking at the same time you request your game credential.

Game Notes/Statistics

Game notes and statistics will be available online at www.BCEagles.com in the 2020 Football Media Center. All notes, quotes, statistics will be distributed to the media digitally. Only a printed flip card will be available on gameday.

Live statistics will be available during the event online at www.bc.statbroadcast.com. A PDF of the final statistics will be posted postgame via BC's Football Media Center on BCEagles.com.

Postgame

All postgame interviews will be conducted online via Zoom. Jeff Hafley and select BC student-athletes will be available as soon as possible following games for both home and away events. Links for the video conference, or phone numbers to dial into the conference, will be provided to approved media who request access from Jason Baum prior to kickoff.

Coverage Without a Credential

While an individual may not receive a credential to physically be in attendance to cover a game during this pandemic period, there are still elements available to develop coverage:

1. All postgame interviews will be done online via Zoom with the opportunity to ask questions. Video files will be available upon request and some transcripts will be available at BCEagles.com.
2. Live statistics will be available during the event on bc.statbroadcast.com. A PDF of the final game book will be distributed via e-mail and posted on BCEagles.com post-game.
3. All games will be televised live as well as broadcast via radio.
4. Game notes and statistics will be available online via BC's media center by clicking here.
5. A group of still photographs will be provided electronically to approved media through the ACC Media Portal, as there is no field access beyond the assigned pool photographers.
6. Video highlights will be provided electronically through the ACC Media Portal and must be used in compliance with the ACC Highlight Policy.

Jeff Hafley was introduced as The Gregory P. Barber '69 and Family Head Coach of the Boston College football program on Dec. 14, 2019. Hafley, the co-defensive coordinator for Ohio State in 2019, was introduced on Dec. 16 inside the Yawkey Athletics Center.

Hafley is the 36th head coach in Boston College history.

Hafley led a dramatic turnaround in leading the defense for Ohio State as the Buckeyes won the 2019 Big Ten championship and qualified for the College Football Play-off.

A finalist for the Frank Broyles Award and the 247Sports Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Hafley was one of the architects of a Buckeye defense that ranks first nationally in yards per play (3.9), second nationally in total defense (247.6 yards per game), third nationally in scoring defense (12.5 points per game), third nationally in sacks (3.92 per game), seventh nationally in rushing defense (99.5 yards per game), second nationally in passing yards allowed (148.1 yards per game) and first nationally in red zone defense (64.2%).

Hafley's first season in Columbus saw Ohio State jump from 72nd nationally in 2018 to first nationally in 2019 in yards per play.

A standout defensive backs coach throughout his career in the NFL and collegiate ranks, Hafley's work as the defensive backs coach at Ohio State has led to impressive results. The Buckeyes totaled 15 interceptions in 2019, tied for ninth nationally, while allowing just 25 pass plays of 20+ yards.

Before arriving at Ohio State, Hafley spent the previous seven seasons in the NFL and most recently three seasons with the San Francisco 49ers as defensive backs coach.

Prior to his time with San Francisco, Hafley was the secondary coach for two seasons in Cleveland, the secondary/safeties coach with Tampa Bay in 2013 and a defensive backs assistant with the Buccaneers in 2012.

Hafley, who will coach his 20th season in 2020, has extensive ties as an elite recruiter during his coaching stops at Pittsburgh and Rutgers. A native of Montvale, N.J., Hafley played four seasons as a wide receiver at Siena College from 1997-2000, graduating cum laude in 2001 with a degree in history.

He earned his master's degree from Albany in 2003.

His coaching career includes 11 seasons in collegiate football before a move to the NFL in 2012, and then seven subsequent seasons there. After starting his career working as running backs coach for one season (2001) at Worcester (Mass.) Polytechnic University, Hafley moved on to the University of Albany for four seasons as defensive assistant and defensive backs coach (2002-05).

He then coached at the University of Pittsburgh for five seasons (2006-10) where he worked under the direction of Dave Wannstedt and helped mentor Darrelle Revis into a Jim Thorpe Award finalist in 2006.

Hafley was a defensive assistant/cornerbacks coach in 2006-07 and was secondary coach from 2008-10.

One season as the defensive backs coach at Rutgers, working under Greg Schiano, followed his positions at Pittsburgh. The Scarlet Knights ranked ninth nationally in passing defense in his one season there, 2011. Hafley helped develop future NFL standout defensive backs Duron Harmon and Logan Ryan during his time in Piscataway.

Hafley moved on to the NFL following his year at Rutgers and coached two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, serving as an assistant defensive backs coach in 2012 and secondary/safeties coach in 2013.

Two seasons with the Cleveland Browns, under coach Mike Pettine, followed. In 2014, his second season with the Browns, the team led the NFL in opponent passer rating (74.1), opponent completion percentage (57.1) and in passes defended with 99, plus ranked second in the league with 21 interceptions.

Three seasons as defensive backs coach with the San Francisco 49ers - 2016, 2017 and 2018 - preceded Hafley's position with the Buckeyes. He worked under Chip Kelly in 2016 and under Kyle Shanahan the past two seasons. In 2018, the 49ers ranked 11th in the league in passing defense. They were 14th in 2016 after ranking 27th in 2015, the year before Hafley arrived.

Hafley and his wife, Gina, have two daughters, Hope and Leah.

Thrill Jurkovec

• Phil Jurkovec has burst onto the scene as the starting quarterback for the Eagles. Jurkovec's 1,526 yards over his first five games are the most by any BC quarterback in school history.

• Jurkovec also holds the record for the most completions (127) and passing touchdowns (10) over the first five games of any player in BC history.

• Jurkovec is the first player in BC history to total four, 300-yard passing games in his first five career starts at quarterback and the first BC quarterback with four or more 300-yard games in a season since Matt Ryan (2007).

• In the 31-30 overtime win against Pitt, he finished with 19-for-35 for 358 yards with three passing touchdowns plus one rushing score.

• Against No. 11 North Carolina on Oct. 3, Jurkovec was 37-for-56 for 313 yards and two touchdowns. The 37 completions were tied for second in BC single-game history with Frank Harris (37 versus Army in 1968). Matt Ryan's 40 completions are the most in BC history against Wake Forest on Nov. 4, 2006.

• Jurkovec's 37 completions were an Alumni Stadium record. The previous best belonged to Matt Ryan with 37 completions versus Army on Sept. 22, 2007.

• His 56 pass attempts were also the most by a BC quarterback at Alumni Stadium since at least 1996 and was the highest overall total number of attempts since Ryan passed 56 times on Nov. 10, 2007 at Maryland. Jurkovec is tied for fourth in BC single-game history with the 56 attempts. Matt Ryan, Shawn Halloran and Frank Harris own the school record with 57 attempts.

• Jurkovec opened the season becoming just the third BC quarterback since 2010 to throw for 300 yards in a game - and he did it in his first career game at BC against Duke.

• The Manning Award, sponsored by the Allstate Sugar Bowl, has named eight quarterbacks as its "Stars of the Week." Jurkovec was one of the eight quarterbacks to be honored after his breakout performance at Duke and in the win against Pitt.

• The Davey O'Brien Foundation announced its Great 8 list of the top quarterback performances of the 2020 college football season and Jurkovec was honored for his efforts at Duke and against Pitt.

• The transfer from Notre Dame finished 17-of-23 passing for 300 yards with two touchdowns and an interception in the Duke victory. He joined 10 other former BC signal callers to throw for 300 yards in a game since 1996 (Chase Rettig, Anthony Brown, Matt Ryan, Chris Crane, Matt Hasselbeck, Paul Peterson, Scott Mutryn, Tim Hasselbeck, Brian St. Pierre and Quinton Porter).

• Jurkovec became the first BC quarterback since Matt Ryan in 2007 to throw for 300 yards, multiple touchdowns and complete 70% of his throws in a game in leading BC to a 26-6 victory at Duke.

• Jurkovec made his first start at quarterback since Dec. 9, 2017 at HersheyPark Stadium in the Pennsylvania Class 6A state title game. Jurkovec led Pine-Richland to a 41-21 victory over St. Joseph's Prep.

Remember This?

• Below is a comparison of the first career starts from Phil Jurkovec, Doug Flutie, Glenn Foley, Matt Ryan and Chase Rettig under center at BC. Of the five quarterbacks, Jurkovec became the first of the group to win his first start at BC. The list includes the four top quarterbacks in school history in passing yards (Flutie, 10,579); (Foley, 10,039); (Ryan, 9,313); (Rettig, 8,263).

Doug Flutie (10/17/81 vs. Navy)

Haf Time

- Jeff Hafley was named the 36th head coach in Boston College history last December.
- In just his first game as head coach, BC forced five turnovers and held Duke to just six points in the season-opening victory.
- Hafley led a dramatic turnaround in leading the defense for Ohio State in 2019 as the Buckeyes won the Big Ten championship and played in the College Football Playoff.
- A finalist for the Frank Broyles Award and the 247Sports Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Hafley was the architect of a Buckeye defense that ranked first nationally in yards per play (3.9), second nationally in total defense (247.6 yards per game), third nationally in scoring defense (12.5 points per game), third nationally in sacks (3.92 per game), seventh nationally in rushing defense (99.5 yards per game), second nationally in passing yards allowed (148.1 yards per game) and first nationally in red zone defense (64.2%).
- Hafley's first season in Columbus saw Ohio State jump from 72nd nationally in 2018 to first nationally in 2019 in yards per play.
- Hafley, who is coaching his 20th season in 2020, has extensive ties as an elite recruiter during his coaching stops at Pittsburgh and Rutgers. A native of Montvale, N.J., Hafley played four seasons as a wide receiver at Siena College from 1997-2000, graduating cum laude in 2001 with a degree in history. He earned his master's degree from Albany in 2003.

Haf Effect

- Jeff Hafley made an immediate impact on Ohio State's defense in 2019 and he is doing the same thing at Boston College in 2020.
- The year prior to Hafley's arrival at Ohio State, the Buckeyes ranked 71st nationally in total defense and 50th in scoring defense. In 2019, Hafley guided the nation's best defense allowing just 259.7 yards per game, an improvement of 143.7 yards per game from 2018. Ohio State yielded just 13.7 points per game in 2019, fourth-best in the nation.
- Hafley and the BC defensive coaching staff have turned things in the right direction on the Eagles' defense in 2020. BC is allowing 108 yards less per game than 2019, going from 125th nationally to 29th.

Defensive Improvement with Hafley

- Flowers' 77-yard score was the first of 70 or more by an Eagle since Hunter Long's 72-yard score at Louisville (10/5/19).
- Flowers is tied for 11th in BC single-season history with two 100-yard receiving games this season. He is the first Eagle with multiple 100-yard receiving games in the same season since Kobay White in 2018.
- Flowers totaled five receptions for a career-high 162 yards and a touchdown in BC's 26-6 win at Duke. It was the first 100-yard receiving game for an Eagle since Kobay White's 121 yards at Florida State in 2018.
- Flowers was named the ACC Wide Receiver of the Week for the first time in his career following the Duke game. He became the only BC wide receiver to ever be named the ACC's WR of the Week for the second time in a season after his performance in the Pitt win.
- The 162 yards receiving by Flowers were the seventh-most by a BC player since 1996.
- Flowers averaged 32.4 yards per reception. No receiver in BC history had more receiving yards on fewer receptions than Flowers in a single game.
- Flowers was the first BC receiver since 2012 (Alex Amidon) to have over 150 yards receiving in a game.

The Nation's Leader

- Junior tight end Hunter Long has been BC's top receiving target in 2020 and he leads the nation in receptions for a tight end with 35. He is ninth among all players nationally in receptions in 2020 as well.
- Long has started the year with 35 receptions for 416 yards and three touchdowns. Prior to this season, Long had just 32 receptions total over his first two years on the field at Boston College.
- He was named to the John Mackey Award watch list after earning All-ACC third-team honors last season. The John Mackey Award is given to the collegiate tight end who best exemplifies the play, sportsmanship, academics, and community values of NFL Hall of Fame tight end John Mackey.
- Long led Boston College with 509 receiving yards and 18.2 yards per reception in 2019. He finished the season with 28 receptions and two receiving touchdowns. His 72-yard touchdown reception at Louisville was the longest reception of his career a year ago.

Oh Captain My Captains

- Boston College head football coach Jeff Hafley announced the results of a team vote to select captains for the 2020 season. The players' vote concluded with senior running back Travis Levy, senior offensive linemen Zion Johnson and Ben Petrula, senior linebacker Max Richardson and junior defensive end Marcus Valdez selected as team captains.
- All five players were named team captains for the first time in their career.
- Levy enters his fourth year at Boston College and has been a mainstay over his career on special teams along with seeing time at running back and wide receiver. He has played in 38 career games and was second on the team in 2019 with 1,059 all-purpose yards.
- Johnson, who was named a preseason All-American by Phil Steele, is coming off a dominant season in 2019 for the Eagles. The 2020 All-ACC preseason selection quickly blossomed into one of the ACC's best offensive linemen in 2019 after transferring from Davidson.
- Another 2020 All-ACC preseason pick, Petrula captured All-ACC second-team honors at offensive tackle in 2019 after collecting All-ACC honorable mention accolades a season ago. He started all 13 games at right tackle and allowed just one sack the entire season.
- Richardson is on several national award watch lists entering his final year at BC. He was eighth nationally with 72 solo tackles in 2019 en route to being named to the All-ACC second-team. He led the ACC in solo tackles and ranked among the conference leaders in total tackles (108).
- Valdez has played in 25 career games entering his junior season for the Eagles. A starter at defensive end, the New Jersey native finished 2019 with 26 tackles, 7.5 tackles behind the line of scrimmage, 2.5 sacks and two fumble recoveries.

Welcome to the Heights

- BC welcomed six transfers to the team this off-season. In addition to Phil Jurkovec, the Eagles landed wide receiver Jaelen Gill from Ohio State, defensive lineman Luc Bequette from Cal, defensive lineman Chibueze Onwuka from Buffalo, defensive back Deon Jones from Maryland and Maine defensive end Maximillian Roberts.
- Gill was ruled immediately eligible as a transfer from Ohio State University in June. He has three seasons of eligibility with the Eagles.
- Last season with the Buckeyes, the Westerville, Ohio native played in six games as a redshirt freshman. Gill scored his first collegiate touchdown on a 32-yard reception at Rutgers. He finished the season with six receptions for 51 yards and was named an OSU Scholar-Athlete and Academic All-BIG Ten selection.
- Bequette joined the BC program in September after transferring from Cal. The Arkansas native was granted a sixth-year of eligibility for the 2020 campaign following the 2019 season, getting a year of eligibility back for a 2016 redshirt freshman season in which he played in only four games before being injured.
- Bequette played in 42 games over the last four campaigns after redshirting as a true freshman in 2015 and started all 38 contests over the past three seasons. His Cal totals included 130 tackles, 12.5 tackles for loss (-57 yards), 10.0 sacks (-53 yards), three pass breakups, three passes defended, four forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, four quarterback hurries and one blocked kick.
- He had career highs of 52 tackles, two pass breakups and two passes defended as a junior in 2019. Bequette recorded career highs of 6.5 tackles for loss (-31 yards), a team-high-tying 5.0 sacks (-29 yards), two quarterback hurries and one blocked kick as a sophomore in 2018.
- Jones appeared in the first 10 games of the season with six starts at safety in 2019 at Maryland. He tallied 34 tackles (22 solo), one forced fumble and a pass breakup. He played in 21 career games with the Terps.
- Onwuka transferred to BC over the summer after a standout career at Buffalo. He totaled 36 games played with 19 starts for the Bulls. In 2019, he started 13 games at defensive tackle and was named All-MAC Third Team.
- Roberts joined the team in September and made an immediate impact in his first game against Texas State. The Ohio native finished with five tackles, 2.0 TFLs and 1.5 sacks in his BC debut against the Bobcats.

- His father was an All-American offensive lineman at BC and later played in the NFL. Steve was a captain on the 1986 BC squad.
- One of the most famous photos in BC history was taken by the Miami Herald in 1984 as Doug Flutie was carried off the field by Steve after his famous Hail Mary to defeat the Hurricanes 47-45 in the Orange Bowl.

O-Line U

- Known for having a rich history of offensive linemen, the 2020 Boston College Eagles will again be led by a strong unit up front. Rated by some analysts as having one of the top offensive line units in the country, BC returns four starters from a group last season that ranked eighth nationally in rushing offense (253.2 yards per game) and allowed the fourth fewest sacks per game in college football (1.00 per game).
- Preseason All-ACC selections Zion Johnson and Ben Petrula spearhead the talented group. Junior center Alec Lindstrom and redshirt sophomore Tyler Vrabel also return as starters. All four players earned All-ACC honors in 2019. In addition, Vrabel was named a Freshman All-American as one of the top freshmen in the country at his position.

No Fly Zone

- Junior cornerback Brandon Sebastian is tied for the nation's lead with eight passes defended in 2020. Sophomore cornerback Josh DeBerry is tied for 45th in the country with four passes defended as well.

Don't Call it a Comeback

- In the first home game of the Jeff Hefley era at Boston College, the Eagles came from behind to erase a 14-point deficit to defeat Texas State, 24-21.
- The Eagles trailed 21-7 with 6:49 to play in the third. The 14-point comeback tied for the third largest deficit overcome in a win in BC history and the first time BC came back from 14 points or more since erasing a 17-point deficit against Wake Forest (10/15/05).
- The double-digit comeback was the first for BC since BC erased a 10-0 deficit at No. 11 Virginia Tech on Oct. 25, 2007. Matt Ryan rallied the Eagles in the 2007 win at Virginia Tech as BC came away with a 14-10 victory.
- BC trailed after the third quarter and won for the first time since a 17-14 win (trailed 14-10) at Wake Forest (11/26/16).
- BC got the game-tying score with 1:11 left in the fourth on a Phil Jurkovec pass to Hunter Long of five yards. On the next possession, BC went ahead on an Aaron Boumerhi 36-yard field goal with 0:03 to play. It was Boumerhi's first game winning field goal since 2017 when he was at Temple versus Villanova.

Scouting Georgia Tech

- Georgia Tech is 2-3 overall and 2-2 in the ACC following last week's 73-7 loss at home to No. 1 Clemson. The Yellow Jackets own wins this season at Florida State (16-13) and against Louisville (46-27) while losing to the Tigers, No. 14 UCF (49-21) and at Syracuse (37-20).
- Head coach Geoff Collins is in his second season at Georgia Tech. A metro-Atlanta native, Collins was named the 20th head coach in Georgia Tech football history on Dec. 7, 2018, after recording 15 wins in two seasons as head coach at Temple. He returned to The Flats after having previously served as a graduate assistant, tight ends coach and director of player personnel at Tech.
- Collins was named head coach at Temple by AD Pat Kraft, who is now the William V. Campbell Director of Athletics at Boston College.
- Prior to becoming head coach at Temple, Collins was one of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators, serving in the role at Florida, Mississippi State, FIU and his alma mater, Western Carolina. He is the only coach to ever be nominated for the Broyles Award, given to college football's top assistant coach, at three different schools.
- Georgia Tech is 40th nationally in total offense (403.2 yards per game), 62nd in scoring offense (22.0 points per game), 22nd in rushing offense (195.6 yards per game) and 55th in passing offense (207.6 yards per game).
