What has been your favorite thing about being at Georgia Tech?

"The fun environment that makes me feel glad to be here every day."

What made you first fall in love with playing volleyball?

"During my parents' volleyball tournament, when I was around 9 or 10, I tried to play volleyball with my brother and the ball went straight into a snack table with coffee and some cookies, everything went down to the floor. I felt so bad and wanted to be able to play better."

What are your hobbies off the court?

"I love to draw and just be creative. I also love to travel and use my free time to explore new places."

Who is your favorite athlete outside of volleyball?

"Definitely Michael Phelps."

If you weren't playing volleyball, what sport would you be playing?

"I was a swimmer until I was 15, so probably a swimmer."

What is something people might not know about you?

"I can speak three languages fluently and I am learning Spanish and French."

What is your nickname?

"Juju"

AROUND THE NET WITH ERIN MOSS

What has been your favorite thing about being at Georgia Tech?

"First, I love Atlanta! But I really love Tech because the challenging environment forces you to grow in ways that you thought you never could."

What made you first fall in love with playing volleyball?

"I fell in love with volleyball because after every big kill, serve, or block, I could turn around and there were five other people celebrating with me, and each and every person was pivotal in making that moment happen."

What are your hobbies off the court?

"I love to cook and exploring new recipes on YouTube. I also love reading the Architectural Digest and finding little design inspirations."

Who is your favorite athlete outside of volleyball?

"My favorite athlete is Serena Williams. She is so dominant in her sport, but she also makes her family and her personal well-being a priority, and I think that is so rare amongst female athletes especially."

What is something people might not know about you?
Or a hidden talent?

"Kind of strange but I can stand on my toes."

If you could meet any one person, living or dead, who would it be?

"Give me one day with Beyonce, Please."
