THE FIRST PITCH

» The top-ranked team University of Louisville baseball team opens up conference play this weekend with a three game series at Georgia Tech in Atlanta. The games Friday and Saturday can be seen on ACC Network Extra, while Sunday's game will be on the ACC Network. Radio coverage will be on 1450 WXVM Friday and 93.9 The Ville for the final two games.

» Louisville stumbled in its final tuneup before conference play on Tuesday, losing 5-2 against Morehead State. The Cardinals led 2-0 after seven innings, but gave up five in the eighth and were unable to rally. Louisville had no trouble getting baserunners, but left 19 on in the loss.

» The Cardinals have been running wild on the basepaths, swiping 26 bags through the first eight games. Louisville leads the country in that category, five more than any other team nationally and 10 more than the next-closest ACC team. UofL stole 12 bases in the three-game series against Western Illinois.

» Louisville and Georgia Tech have 12 previous meetings, with the Cardinals leading the series 9-3. The two teams have met every other season since Louisville joined the ACC in 2015. The Cardinals swept the Yellow Jackets in their only trip to Atlanta back in 2017. Georgia Tech took two of three from UofL in Louisville in 2019, but Trey Leonard's two-run single gave the Cardinals a 5-4 walk-off victory in the series finale.

LOUISVILLE HEAD COACH: DAN McDONNELL

On June 27, 2006, Dan McDonnell, one of the top young minds in college baseball, was named the 18th head coach of the University of Louisville baseball team. And on June 15, 2007, McDonnell and the Cardinals took the field at hallowed Rosenblatt Stadium in Omaha for game one of the 2007 College World Series.

Not bad for 353 days on the job.

As the first rookie head coach to lead his team to Omaha in 27 years, McDonnell was named National Coach of the Year by Rivals.com after guiding the Cardinals to a then-school record 47 wins during that 2007 season. He followed that impressive debut season by leading Louisville to 11 more NCAA appearances during the next 12 years, including four more College World Series berths in 2013, 2014, 2017 and 2019, as well as nine conference regular season titles and two conference tournament championships. Louisville has hosted 14 different rounds of NCAA postseason baseball in the last 13 full years with NCAA Super Regionals in 2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2019 as well as eight NCAA Regionals in 2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2019. McDonnell added his second career National Coach of the Year honor following the 2017 season receiving the award from Baseball America.

In McDonnell's first 14 seasons as head coach, Louisville ranked No. 1 nationally in wins with 618, including a school-record 53 wins during the record-setting 2017 season. During the 14-year span, the Cardinals have produced a consensus National Player of the Year (Brendan McKay, 2017), 39 All-Americans, 98 all-conference selections, seven conference Pitcher of the Year winners, four conference Player of the Year winners and one conference Freshman of the Year. Additionally, the UofL baseball program has generated 87 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft selections in the last 14 years.

The 2020 campaign was limited to just 17 games before the COVID-19 pandemic shut down the season, but McDonnell and the Cardinals put together a 13-4 mark. The Cardinals opened the season with the program's first-ever preseason No. 1 ranking and were ranked as high as second when the season stopped. Despite the short season, the Cardinals were once again prominently featured during the 2020 MLB Draft with Reid Detmers going 10th overall to the Los Angeles Angels and Bobby Miller following to the Los Angeles Dodgers at No. 29. Zach Britton was later selected in the fifth round by the Toronto Blue Jays, while Justin Lavey (Seattle Mariners) and Danny Oriente (Arizona Diamondbacks) each signed free agent contracts.

The Louisville program reached new heights in 2019, posting a 51-18 overall record and recording the deepest postseason run in program history. The Cardinals captured the ACC Atlantic Division crown for the fourth time in five seasons and earned a national seed for the fifth time in program history. After rallying out of the loser's bracket to capture the Louisville regional, the Cardinals swept East Carolina in the super regional round to punch their fifth ticket to the College World Series. In Omaha, Louisville lost its opening contest before defeating Auburn and Mississippi State to reach the bracket final for the first time. The Cardinals notched their highest final ranking in program history, sitting third in five of the six national polls.

Winning is nothing new to McDonnell. In McDonnell's 31 full seasons in NCAA baseball as a player and coach, teams he has been a part of have averaged 41 wins per season and have advanced to an NCAA Regional in 22 of those seasons, including 17 of the last 18.

As the top assistant and recruiting coordinator for Mike Bianco at the University of Mississippi for six seasons prior to taking over as head coach at Louisville, McDonnell and the Rebels had four top-20 recruiting classes and three groups that ranked in the top 10 nationally. The first full recruiting class for the Rebels under McDonnell's direction was ranked No. 6 in the nation by Collegiate Baseball. In each of his last two seasons with the Rebels, Ole Miss was one win away from advancing to Omaha.

Before his arrival in Oxford, Miss., McDonnell was an assistant and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, The Citadel, for eight seasons. The Bulldogs advanced to four NCAA Regionals and won five Southern Conference titles during that span. He was the top assistant from 1995-2000.

During his playing days for the Bulldogs, McDonnell earned four letters, helping The Citadel to the 1990 College World Series, marking the first time a military school has made the trip to Omaha. He was a member of the All-Atlantic Regional team in Miami that same season.

McDonnell graduated from The Citadel in 1992 and later completed his master's degree in business administration in 1995. He is married to the former Julie Anne Underwood of Charlotte, N.C. The couple has two sons, Jake and Justin.

TEAM NOTES

- » Louisville owns 111 conference wins since joining the ACC in 2015, the most conference wins during that time of any Power Five school.
- » UofL has won 39 of its 51 ACC series since joining the league and is 42-8 in its series finales during that span, including a 14-5 record in rubber games.
- » Louisville is 6-0 all-time in ACC openers, including a 4-1 victory over Wake Forest last season, and has won the opening conference series in each of its six seasons in the ACC. This is the second straight season the Cardinals have opened up ACC play away from home.
- » Louisville's offense was one of the best in Division I during the shortened 2020 season, ranking top-10 nationally in doubles (1st), batting average (3rd), hits (5th), slugging percentage (9th) and stolen bases (10th).
- » The Cardinals pounded out six home runs during the opening series, the most home runs they've hit in a series since also hitting six in three games at Clemson from May 12-14, 2017. The six home runs were the most for the Cardinals in a single series at Jim Patterson Stadium since April 30-May 1, 2010 when they launched nine against Rutgers (three by Phil Wunderlich and Andrew Clark, two by Stewart Ijames and one from Ryan Wright).
- » The Louisville pitching staff holds a team ERA of just 2.38 through seven games. The Cardinals have four pitchers who have made multiple appearances that have yet to yield an earned run this season.
- » The Cardinals have been among the best in the country in strikeouts per nine innings, ranking sixth in 2019 and seventh in 2020. UofL pitchers have struck out 95 batters through eight games and have at least eight strikeouts in each game.
- » UofL is 64-1 when leading after eight innings over the past three seasons. Since the start of 2012, the Cardinals are 369-8 when taking a lead into the ninth inning.
- » Louisville has stolen at least 100 bases in six of the past seven full seasons and was on pace for 119 during the 2020 regular season. The one year it didn't reach 100 since 2013, UofL finished with 98 in 2017.
- » The Cardinals have been the best in the country on the basepaths this season with 26 stolen bases, five more than any other team and 10 more than anyone in the ACC. Levi Usher is tied for the national lead with seven, while Henry Davis ranks in the top 10 with five. Usher, Davis and Luke Brown are the top three in the ACC.
- » Since joining the ACC prior to the 2015 season, Louisville leads all ACC teams in wins, batting average, runs, hits, doubles, extra-base hits, RBIs, total bases, stolen bases, ERA, shutouts, saves, strikeouts and opponents' batting average.
- » UofL has stolen 614 bases since joining the ACC in 2015, more than any other conference team has attempted.
- » Twelve different players have made their Louisville debuts in 2021, including eight who played in their first collegiate game.

PLAYER NOTES

- » Cameron Masterman had his second straight strong weekend to open the 2021 season, reaching base nine times in three games against Western Illinois. The junior currently ranks near the top of the ACC in home runs (2nd), on-base percentage (2nd), walks (4th), slugging (4th), batting average (4th) and total bases (7th).
- » Henry Davis has been the most consistent hitter for the Cardinals through eight games, picking up at least one hit in every game so far. Davis is currently hitting .407 and ranks third in the ACC with 10 RBIs. The catcher also ranks second in the conference with five stolen bases after having just one through his first two seasons at Louisville.
- » Michael Kirian took the ball as a starter against Western Illinois for the first time since the 2018 season. The southpaw tossed four scoreless innings, extending his scoreless streak to 12 innings. Kirian's last run allowed was a solo homer in the ninth inning against Auburn in the College World Series on June 18, 2019. Since the start of the 2019 season, Kirian has a 1.25 ERA in 43.1 innings with 57 strikeouts and just 12 walks.
- » Adam Elliott made 67 relief appearances across his first four seasons at Louisville before taking the ball to start the second game of the series against Bellarmine. Elliott has yet to allow an earned run in eight innings this season. He now sits atop Louisville's career ERA leaderboard (minimum of 50 innings since records are available in 2000) at 1.72 over his 94 career innings.
- » Luke Smith has won each of his first two starts this season, allowing just one run in each of those starts. Smith is now 11-1 for his Louisville career, including a 5-0 mark and 3.03 ERA in his six starts over the last two seasons.
- » Kaleb Corbett has made a massive impact in his first season with the Cardinals. The right-hander has made three relief appearances, tossing 6.1 scoreless innings with just two hits allowed and 11 strikeouts. Corbett earned the win against Eastern Kentucky and then went the final 3.1 innings in the finale versus Western Illinois for his first career save.

CARDINALS SIT ATOP PERFECT GAME POLL

Following a 6-1 start to the season, the Cardinals are the top-ranked team in the country according to Perfect Game. Louisville opened the season at No. 2 in Perfect Game's rankings before moving up this week.

This marks the third time Louisville has been the No. 1 team in a poll, holding the top spot for two weeks during March of 2017 and then opening the 2020 season atop the polls.

MASTERMAN NAMED ACC CO-PLAYER OF THE WEEK

It was a weekend to remember for junior Cameron Masterman in the opening series against Bellarmine. The outfielder went 6-for-11 (.545) with three home runs and six RBIs and was named the ACC co-Player of the Week.

Masterman entered the 2021 season with two home runs and eight RBIs in his Louisville career before homering in each game of the series. He was the first Louisville player to homer in three consecutive games since Alex Binelas in May of 2019, and the first Cardinal to do so in the first three games of the season since Tom LaFramboise in 1964.

EXPERIENCED POSITION PLAYERS LEAD CARDINALS INTO 2021

In 2020, it was a heralded starting rotation and pitching staff that headlined the Louisville roster. The script flips for the 2021 season, as the Cardinals boast what some college baseball media have referred to as "the best position player group in the country".

Louisville returns starters at six positions from last year, led by outfielder Levi Usher and catcher Henry Davis. Usher hit .411 last year leading the team in hits and tying for the team lead with 11 stolen bases. Davis hit .372 with a team-best 1.179 OPS. Luke Brown started all but one game in centerfield in 2020, hitting .328 with 11 stolen bases in the leadoff spot. Tim Borden II and Jared Poland return after combining to hit .356 with 16 RBIs splitting time at second. The first base combo of Ben Bianco and Dalton Rushing are back as well after posting eight doubles, four homers and 20 RBIs together in 2020.

The Cardinals also get back the services of Alex Binelas and Lucas Dunn, who both missed the majority of 2020 due to injury. Binelas was a freshman All-American in 2019 after hitting .291 with 14 home runs and 59 RBIs, while Dunn hit .309, scored 48 runs and stole 15 bases.

LOUISVILLE TRIO EARNS GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD PICKS

The Golden Spikes Award is handed out annually to the top player in college baseball. Three different Cardinals earned preseason selections to win the award in 2021.

Sophomore third baseman Alex Binelas was the preseason pick of Teddy Cahill of Baseball America and Perfect Game's Brian Sakowski. Fellow sophomores Henry Davis and Levi Usher also drew a preseason selection, Davis from Colton Olinger of Perfect Game and Usher from Blake Dowson of Perfect Game.

Brendan McKay captured the Golden Spikes Award at Louisville in 2017.

CARDINALS RANKED UP TO NO. 2 IN PRESEASON RANKINGS

Louisville opens the 2021 season ranked as high as No. 2 in the six major preseason rankings. The Cardinals are second in the Perfect Game rankings, while ranging from No. 5 to No. 11 in the other five polls.

D1Baseball has the Cardinals at five, while the USA Today Coaches Poll and NCBWA rankings put UofL at six. Baseball America ranked Louisville seventh and Collegiate Baseball has the Cardinals at No. 11.

UofL closed out the 2020 season at No. 2 in the polls after opening up the season as the top-ranked team in the country.

BINELAS, DAVIS NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD WATCH LIST

Sophomores Alex Binelas and Henry Davis were each named to the USA Baseball Golden Spikes Award Preseason Watch List.

Louisville is one of 11 schools to have multiple players on the 55-man list for the award, given out annually to the top amateur baseball player in the country.

Louisville has now had 15 student-athletes on the preseason watch list, with Brendan McKay taking home the Golden Spikes Award in 2017.

SIX CARDINALS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS

Alex Binelas, Henry Davis, Michael Kirian, Jack Perkins, Jared Poland and Levi Usher all garnered preseason All-America recognition.

Davis was a unanimous preseason All-America selection from the five major services. Binelas and Usher were each named to the preseason All-America teams by Baseball America, Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, D1Baseball and Perfect Game. Kirian was selected by Collegiate Baseball, NCBWA and Perfect Game, while Perkins earned a Baseball America selection and Poland one from Perfect Game.

The six players on preseason All-America teams were the most of any program in the country.

LOUISVILLE VOTED AS ACC PRESEASON FAVORITE

For the third consecutive season, the Cardinals begin the 2021 season as the preseason favorite in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Louisville received 11 of a possible 13 first-place votes to win the Atlantic Division and were chosen as the overall champion as well. NC State and Florida State were voted second and third in the division, respectively. Clemson, Wake Forest, Boston College and Notre Dame rounded out the Atlantic Division poll. Miami was selected as a narrow favorite ahead of Virginia in the Coastal.

Louisville has won the Atlantic Division in four of the five seasons since joining the league, including in 2019 when the Cardinals were also picked as the favorite.

EXPANDED ACC SCHEDULE FOR 2021 SEASON

For the 2021 season, the Atlantic Coast Conference has expanded its conference schedule to include 36 league games instead of the previous number of 30.

With the higher number of games, Louisville added a road trip to North Carolina and a home weekend against Miami. The Cardinals will play 12 of the 13 other ACC programs this season, missing only Virginia Tech on the schedule.

The ACC has nine teams ranked in the top 25 in at least one of the major preseason polls.

FEELING AT HOME INSIDE JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since opening the gates at Jim Patterson Stadium in 2005, the Cardinals have won 78 percent of their games in the ballpark posting a 420-118 record (.781 winning percentage), including an impressive 33-4 mark during the 2017 season at the corner of Third and Central. The Cardinals are 48-11 on their home field over the last three seasons, winning the 2019 NCAA Regional and Super Regional rounds at home to secure their fifth NCAA College World Series berth. Louisville set a school record for home wins with 36 in 2016 and the Cardinals have registered 30 or more wins at home in five of the last seven full seasons.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM OPERATING AT LIMITED CAPACITY

Louisville Athletics worked collaboratively with the Governor's office and other health officials to craft a safe experience for home games at Jim Patterson Stadium. To begin the season, Jim Patterson Stadium will operate with a reduced capacity of 20 percent, allowing seating to be socially distanced.

Additional changes to the stadium experience have been made in an effort to create the safest environment possible. These changes include mask requirements, temperature checks, cashless concessions, and more.

FORTY-WIN SEASONS JUST THE NORM IN THE VILLE

When Dan McDonnell arrived in Louisville for the 2007 season, the program record for victories stood at 39 from the 2002 campaign.

McDonnell and the Cardinals won 47 games in his first year, making the program's first trip to the College World Series. The program wins record has been set three more times since, settling at 53 in 2017.

Louisville has won at least 40 regular season games in seven consecutive years and 12 of 13 seasons with Dan McDonnell at the helm. Stanford is the only program currently with three straight years of 40-plus regular season wins, while NC State is the only other program with two straight years.

LOUISVILLE LEADS COUNTRY IN WINS SINCE 2007

Dan McDonnell took the reins of the Louisville baseball program in 2007. Louisville has the most wins of any Division I program since McDonnell was hired with 624.

Most Wins Since 2007
1. Louisville	624	6. Virginia	587
2. Vanderbilt	615	7. Florida	582
3. North Carolina	613	8. TCU	580
4. LSU	609	9. Coastal Carolina	573
5. Florida State	608	Texas A&M	573

CARDS IN NATIONAL POLLS EVERY WEEK SINCE START OF 2012

Louisville, which opened the 2021 season as the No. 2 ranked team in the country, has enjoyed a historic run by remaining ranked in at least one major national poll every week since the release of the 2012 preseason rankings – the longest such span in school history.

Ranked in the top 25 in all six major preseason polls for 2021, the Cardinals have earned a preseason national ranking in 14 straight seasons (2008-2021) overall. Louisville entered the 2021 season ranked as high as second with five of the six polls having the Cardinals seventh or higher.

FOUR CARDINALS NAMED CAPTAINS FOR 2020 SEASON

Sophomore catcher Henry Davis, junior infielder/outfielder Lucas Dunn, senior left-handed pitcher Adam Elliott and senior right-handed pitcher Luke Smith were selected by UofL players and coaches as the captains for the upcoming year. Elliott and Smith will serve as captains for the second straight season.

Davis is beginning his third season behind the plate for the Cardinals. After splitting time as a freshman, Davis was off to an outstanding start in 2020. In 14 games, the Bedford, N.Y., native was hitting .372 with five doubles, three home runs and 13 RBIs. Davis has received preseason All-America recognition from all four major services released to this point heading into 2021.

Dunn returns to the mix in 2021 after missing the majority of the shortened 2020 season. A hand injury kept Dunn on the shelf to start 2020 and his first start of the season didn't come until March 11 against Chicago State, the final game of the season for the Cardinals. Dunn was a key piece of Louisville's run to the College World Series in 2019, hitting .309 with 10 doubles, 48 runs scored and 15 stolen bases.

Elliott will be suiting up for a fifth season with the Cardinals in 2021. The veteran southpaw has piled up 67 appearances out of the bullpen during his career, holding a 1.88 career ERA in 86 innings. The Louisville native allowed just one earned run in 10.1 innings last season and is currently third on UofL's career ERA leaderboard.

Smith is set to start his third season at Louisville after transferring in from Parkland College for the 2019 season. The right-hander holds a 9-1 career record at Louisville, including a perfect 3-0 start to the 2020 season before it came to a halt. Smith turned in a pair of his best performances as a Cardinal in the 2019 postseason, working the two longest outings in Louisville postseason history with 8.1 innings against Illinois State in the NCAA Regional and again against Vanderbilt in the College World Series.

CARDINALS TO PLAY 11 NATIONALLY TELEVISED GAMES

The University of Louisville baseball program will be featured on national television throughout the 2021 season. The Cardinals have 10 games scheduled for national television, headlined by games against Wake Forest, Florida State, Kentucky, Clemson and Vanderbilt scheduled to air on either ESPN2 or ESPNU. UofL will also play six games on the ACC Network.

The ACC Network will also televise the semifinals of the ACC Baseball Championship on May 29, with ESPN2 carrying the championship game the following day.

All of Louisville's regular season contests are scheduled to be televised, with all of its non-nationally televised home games set for air on ACC Network Extra.

LISTEN TO THE CARDS ALL SPRING LONG

For the sixth consecutive season, all regular season contests along with all postseason games will be broadcast on local radio. 93.9 The Ville will serve as the flagship station for the seventh consecutive season with selected games during the regular season to be broadcast on 1450 WXVW.

ESPN Louisville, the group behind local stations ESPN 680 and 105.7 FM, launched 93.9 The Ville, powered by ESPN, on Jan. 29, 2015. The station provides coverage of the Cardinals through an official partnership with Louisville Sports Properties, which represents UofL athletics.

Sean Moth will serve as the Voice of Louisville Baseball for his 20th season and will be on the call for the majority of Louisville baseball games this spring.

LOUISVILLE TURNS IN RECORD FALL IN CLASSROOM

Continuing to pair on-field success with academic achievement, the University of Louisville baseball program has yet another successful run in the classroom during the fall semester.

The Louisville baseball team wrapped up the fall semester with a 3.41 cumulative team grade point average, the highest fall semester GPA in program history. The Cardinals have now finished with a 3.0 or higher in 19 consecutive semesters. Twenty student-athletes turned in a 3.5 GPA or better during the fall with Lucas Dunn, Tate Kuehner and Cameron Masterman recording 4.0 semesters.

The span of 19 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better coincides with unparalleled success on the field for Louisville, which has four College World Series appearances, six NCAA Super Regional berths, eight NCAA Regional bids and seven conference championships during that time.

TWO MORE CARDINALS MAKE MAJOR LEAGUE DEBUT

The 2020 Major League Baseball season saw two more former Cardinals take the diamond for their first MLB game.

Zack Burdi (Chicago White Sox) and Kyle Funkhouser (Detroit Tigers) both made their debut in 2020, making it 17 Cardinals that have reached the show since 2014. Louisville leads all college programs with the most former players reaching the majors during that time.

The list of Cardinals to debut since the start of the 2014 season features Chris Dominguez, Adam Duvall, Justin Marks, Tony Zych, Cody Ege, Chad Green, Dean Kiekhefer, Matt Koch, Adam Engel, Kyle McGrath, Josh Rogers, Nick Burdi, Brendan McKay, Will Smith, Nick Solak, Burdi and Funkhouser.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted eight NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019) and six NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices, while the basement of the building features three pitching/batting cages, full club house facilities with a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, weight room, equipment room, computer lab, training room and laundry facilities.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

The Cardinals have won more than 78 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the 14 NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through 11 of those, including sweeping the 2019 NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's fifth College World Series appearance. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 33-9 record overall.
