THE LEADOFF

- North Carolina is riding a four-game winning streak after sweeping No. 8 Louisville this past weekend and beating UNCW 14-9 on Tuesday night.
- Over the last dozen games, Mac Horvath is slashing .295/.354/.636 with his first seven extra-base hits (three doubles and four homers). He's turned it around from the .042/.148/.042 line he put up in his first 24 career at-bats.
- North Carolina checks in at No. 47 in nonconference RPI and No. 11 in nonconference strength of schedule, which is first among Power 5 teams, according to WarrenNolan.com.
- Austin Love's performance against Louisville Friday night was the first complete game by a Tar Heel since Rodney Hutchison threw one against North Carolina A&T on March 13, 2018. Additionally, it was the first against an ACC opponent since Zac Gallen blanked Virginia Tech on April 8, 2016.
- Friday's shutout against UL marked the Tar Heels' first since an 8-0 win against North Carolina A&T on Feb. 25, 2020. It was also the first time Louisville had been shut out since Georgia Tech blanked the Cardinals on March 23, 2019.
- Roberts hit two home runs in game three versus Pitt. It marked the third time this season that Roberts homered twice in the same game. He became the first Tar Heels to homer multiple times in three different games since Dustin Ackley did it five times in 2009.

• UNC junior Joey Lancellotti will miss the rest of the 2021 baseball season after undergoing Tommy John surgery last week. Lancellotti made four appearances for the Tar Heels this season with an ERA of 2.45.

• The Tar Heels check in tied for fifth in the ACC and rank 34th in the country in home runs with 53.

• Scott Forbes is the only first-year head coach among Power 5 conference programs in 2021.

SCOTT FORBES

THE BIO

Scott Forbes was named UNC's 25th head baseball coach on August 7, 2020.

Forbes enters his 24th season as a college coach and 20th on the Tar Heel coaching staff in 2021. He has previously served as Carolina's associate head coach, batting coach, pitching coach and recruiting coordinator.

The Sanford, N.C., native began his coaching career with former Head Coach Mike Fox in 1998 at N.C. Wesleyan. That followed a playing career at Middle Georgia College and Wesleyan. He was an assistant coach at UNC from 1999-2002 and at Winthrop from 2002-05. He returned to Chapel Hill in 2006 as pitching coach, a position he held through 2016. The 2021 season will be his 16th consecutive year on the Tar Heel staff.

Forbes has helped lead the Tar Heels to seven appearances in the College World Series, seven ACC division titles and three ACC Tournament titles.

Forbes has a record of 980-404 in 23 seasons in the dugout. Collegiate Baseball named him the National Pitching Coach of the Year in 2008, and Baseball America named him one of the country's top assistant coaches in 2018. Under his direction, Carolina's pitching staffs routinely finished in the top 50 in the country in ERA and UNC's recruiting classes have consistently been among the nation's best.

Forbes has been instrumental in developing all aspects of the program in his tenure. As pitching coach from 2006-16, he worked with pitchers who were selected 33 times in the Major League Baseball Draft, and earned eight All-America and 21 All-ACC honors, including nine first-team All-ACC honors.

Miller (2006), Alex White (2008) and Kent Emanuel (2013) won ACC Pitcher of the Year honors during his time as pitching coach and J.B. Bukauskas won the award in 2017.

Miller was named Baseball America's National Player of the Year in 2006 and won the Roger Clemens Award as the top collegiate pitcher. Miller was the American League Championship Series MVP in 2016 and is a two-time MLB All-Star. Matt Harvey started the 2013 MLB All-Star Game for the New York Mets.

Forbes coached seven of the 10 winningest pitchers in UNC history and the top five in career strikeouts. Carolina's All-America pitchers under Forbes include Miller (2006), Andrew Carignan (2007), White (2008), Brian Moran (2009), Patrick Johnson (2011), Emanuel (2012 and 2013) and Michael Morin (2012). Bukauskas also earned All-America honors in 2017.

Since being named the hitting instructor in 2017, Forbes worked with several Tar Heels who earned All-America honors, including Brian Miller and Logan Warmoth in 2017, Kyle Datres in 2018 and Aaron Sabato in 2019. Michael Busch was the ACC Tournament MVP and a first-round draft pick in 2019, Warmoth was a first-round pick in 2017 and Sabato was selected in the first round of the 2020 MLB Draft by the Minnesota Twins.

As a collegiate player, Forbes hit .321 at Wesleyan from 1995-97 and led the team to a pair of Dixie Conference titles and a fifth-place finish at the 1997 Division III CWS. As a senior, he hit .387 with 61 RBI and 27 doubles, which set the NCAA Division III single-season record. He earned second-team all-region honors and was team MVP and MVP of the Dixie Conference Tournament.

Forbes earned a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from Wesleyan in 1998. He is married to the former Mandy Passwaters, and the couple has two daughters, Hannah and Ally.
