QUICK HITTERS

- The Jackets most recently landed in 21st in the latest AVCA Top 25 poll. Georgia Tech has been listed in 25 straight top 25 polls to date.
- Going beyond 2019's NVC title, Tech has won 36 of its last 43 matches.
- In the past two seasons, Georgia Tech is 23-2 at home in O'Keefe Gymnasium. The Jackets have won 17 of their last 18 home matches and went 6-1 on The Flats in 2020-21.
- Georgia Tech currently sits at 4-1 after splitting last weekend with Long Beach State (W, 3-1) and No. 16 UCLA (L, 3-1). Senior right-side hitter Mariana Brambilla and junior outside hitter Julia Bergmann were selected to the Long Beach State Tournament all-tournament team for their performances.
- Amongst the conference, Georgia Tech is currently top five in five different categories – second in assists per set (13), third in digs per set (15.95), fourth in team attacks per set (35.05), fifth in blocks per set (2.47) and fifth in kills per set (13.89). The Jackets are also 20th in the nation in assists per set and 30th in the country in kills per set.
- Freshman outside hitter Bianca Bertolino has staked her claim as the top freshman in the conference this season as she's won ACC Player of the Week in both of the first two weeks of her collegiate career. The Argentinian also was selected to the UCF Challenge all-tournament team after week one.

BERGMANN BOMBS

Junior outside hitter Julia Bergmann has racked up awards on a national scale being named AVCA Player of the Week, ACC Player of the Week and UCF Challenge MVP. Her AVCA honor as the best player in the nation for the week marked the first time a Yellow Jacket has received the award since Kele Eveland on Sep. 15, 2003.

Bergmann's numbers back up her accolades as she's among the nation's best in multiple categories. To date, the veteran has led the Jacket attack with 83 kills (4.37 per set), 56 digs, eight service aces and 11 total blocks (seven solo, four assisted).

In the ACC, Bergmann currently leads the league in attacks per set (10.74) and is second in the conference in four different categories – kills per set (4.37), points (100), points per set (5.26) and total kills (83).

On a national scale, Bergmann is currently 16th in the NCAA in points per set and 28th in the country kills per set.

MOVIN' ON UP

McKissock, the program's first ACC Setter of the Year in 2019, continues her climb in the Tech recordbooks as she's currently eighth in program history in career assists with 2,991. The established setter moved into eighth in Yellow Jacket history against Penn State.

This season, McKissock is currently second in the ACC and 14th in the nation in assists per set (11.06) along with fifth in the ACC in total assists (199).

FRESH START

Freshman outside hitter Bianca Bertolino has staked her claim as the top freshman in the conference this season as she's won ACC Player of the Week in both of the first two weeks of her collegiate career. The Argentinian also was selected to the UCF Challenge all-tournament team after week one.

At the conference level, Bertolino currently ranks 10th in the league in both kills (64) and points (73.5). In individual matches, her 21 kills against Long Beach State are tied for the third most in a single match amongst the league this season. In that same match, her .541 attack percentage is the sixth highest mark in the ACC with more kills than any other listing in the top 10.

TIP TOP SHAPE

Senior libero Maddie Tippett recently eclipsed 1,000 career digs, tallying 1,009 to date.

FLYING HIGH

The Jackets most recently landed in 21st in the latest AVCA Top 25 poll. The slot comes a week after jumping eight spots to No. 16 from their preseason ranking of No. 24, the highest jump within a week in program history. Since appearing in the Top 25 at No. 12 on Sept. 30, 2020, Georgia Tech has been listed in 25 straight top 25 polls to date.

Going beyond 2019's NIVC title, Tech has won 36 of its last 43 matches.

In the past two seasons, Georgia Tech is 23-2 at home in O'Keefe Gymnasium. The Jackets have won 17 of their last 18 home matches and went 6-1 on The Flats in 2020-21.

Georgia Tech currently sits at 4-1 after splitting last weekend with Long Beach State (W, 3-1) and No. 16 UCLA (L, 3-1). Senior right-side hitter Mariana Brambilla and junior outside hitter Julia Bergmann were selected to the Long Beach State Tournament all-tournament team for their performances.

The Jackets opened the season with a 3-0 start that resulted in a UCF Challenge crown, including a season-opening win over No. 18 Penn State (previously No. 12). The win marked the highest ranked victory for Tech since the 2003 NCAA tournament, the first ranked triumph for the program since 2017 and the first win over the Nittany Lions in Georgia Tech history. For Penn State, the defeat marked its first nonconference loss outside top 10 since 2016.

Amongst the conference, Georgia Tech is currently top five in five different categories – second in assists per set (13), third in digs per set (15.95), fourth in team attacks per set (35.05), fifth in blocks per set (2.47) and fifth in kills per set (13.89). The Jackets are also 20th in the nation in assists per set and 30th in the country in kills per set.

GOLD JACKETS

Three Jackets garnered national recognition for their performances throughout the 2020-21 season.

Senior outside hitter Mariana Brambilla was named an AVCA Division I Third Team All-American along with being unanimously selected as All-ACC First Team and to the All-AVCA East Coast All-Region team.

Junior outside hitter Julia Bergmann earned recognition as an AVCA Division I Honorable Mention All-America selection as well as also being unanimously selected to the All-ACC First Team and All-AVCA East Coast All-Region team.

Senior setter Matti McKissock joined Brambilla and Bergmann in earning All-ACC and AVCA awards as she was named All-ACC Second Team and AVCA East Coast All-Region Honorable Mention despite missing time and playing through injury.

OUTSIDE OPINIONS

Tech was slated to finish third in the ACC preseason coaches poll as outside hitters Brambilla and Bergmann were named preseason all-ACC.

BRAMBILLA BULLETS

Senior right-side hitter Mariana Brambilla has been named to the UCF Challenge Long Beach State Tournament all-tournament teams this season. The Brazilian fueled the Tech attack with a team-leading 21 kills (.347 hitting percentage), nine digs and a pair of blocks against Penn State.

Brambilla led the team with 270 kills in 2020-21 on the way to surpassing 1,000 career kills as she has now tallied 1,169 career kills.

SCOUTING MISSISSIPPI STATE

The Bulldogs have gotten off to a 5-1 start this season after sweeping Gonzaga twice as well as McNeese State and Louisiana Monroe. Their lone loss came to Houston on the road, 3-2.

Mississippi State is currently top three in the SEC in seven different categories – assists per set (13.19), digs per set (14.9), kills per set (14.86), attacks per set (35.43), digs (313), kills (312) and attacks (744).

The Bulldogs are among the nation's best in kills per set, currently placing fifth in the NCAA and leading the SEC, along with assists per set ranking 16th in the country and second in their conference.

On an individual level, freshman middle blocker Sania Petties holds the strongest stat as she's currently fourth in the SEC and 25th in the NCAA with a 0.449 hitting percentage.

SCOUTING INDIANA

The Hoosiers head to The Flats with a 5-1 record to date after sweeping UIC, Butler and Purdue Fort Wayne while picking up five-set wins over Bowling Green and Southeast Missouri State. Their sole loss came in five sets at the hands of Western Michigan.

Indiana leads a traditional powerhouse conference in the Big Ten in five separate categories – assists (272), digs (335), kills (286), attacks (783) and blocks (71).

The Hoosiers enter the tournament boasting the third-most blocks in the country to date, as well as ranking 13th in the country in blocks per set (2.96).

Individually, the Hoosiers hold three top-five marks in the Big Ten. Freshman outside hitter Mady Saris currently leads the league in attacks (225) and is fifth in the conference in points (84.5) while junior defensive specialist Paula Cerame ranks third in the Big Ten in digs (99).

SCOUTING OKLAHOMA

The Sooners come into the tournament sitting at 3-3 this season. After a rocky 0-3 start with losses to Oregon State (3-2), Lipscomb (3-1) and Houston (3-2) at home in the Oklahoma Invitational, Boomer Sooner rallied back the following weekend to get back to .500 with a 3-1 win over Air Force and sweeps of Seattle and Gonzaga.

Oklahoma has been among the Big 12's best on paper, leading the conference in three different categories – assists (276), kills (301) and blocks (68). The Sooners are top three in five more categories – blocks per set (2.83), opponent hitting percentage (.161), digs (308), aces (25) and attacks (783).

The Sooners are one of the top teams in the nation when it comes to blocks, currently ranking fifth in the country in total blocks and 22nd in the NCAA in blocks per set.

Oklahoma also holds the Big 12 lead in six different individual categories.

Freshman middle blocker/outside hitter Megan Wilson owns three of those marks, leading the conference in points (115), attacks (251) and kills (103). Wilson is also second in kills per set (4.29) and points per set (4.79) in the Big 12. Those marks stack up well across the country as she ranks 15th in points, 35th in attacks, 11th in kills, 33rd in kills per set and 35th in points per set.

Redshirt senior outside hitter Savannah Davison also leads the league in attacks per set (10.94).

Freshman setter Peyton Dunn has led the Big 12 in assists with 233 to date, which places her 22nd in the NCAA as well.

Redshirt senior middle blocker Paige Anderson anchors Oklahoma defensively as she tops the conference and places 25th in the nation in blocks with 30.

Also assisting defensively has been freshman libero Callie Kemohah, who's second in the Big 12 in digs with 90 to date.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

Bergmann led the Jackets with a historic performance in the First Round of the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship. In her first career match in the Big Dance, she piled up 31 kills against Lipscomb for the most ever by a Yellow Jacket in an NCAA Tournament match and the most by a Georgia Tech player in any outing in almost 16 years (Talisa Kellogg – 35 vs. Virginia, Oct. 22, 2005).

Bergmann became only the sixth player in Tech history to ever record as many as 31 kills in a single match.

The Munich, Germany native finished second on the team with 269 kills as well as 186 digs and led the team with 30 aces on the year.

Amongst the conference, the outside hitter finished second in aces per set (0.47) and points per set (4.97) as well as third in kills per set (4.20). Bergmann was named ACC Co-Player of the Week (10/13) for her contributions in back-to-back sweeps of Florida State.

VAI BRAZIL!

Georgia Tech has six representatives from the South American country. Senior Mariana Brambilla and junior Julia Bergmann competed together for Club Abel (Brusque) in Brazil. Transfers Nicole Drownick and Paola Pimentel each have experience at the international level for Brazil. Head coach Michelle Collier hails from Recife and assistant coach Claudio Pinheiro is from Sao Paulo. Pinheiro coached the Brazil women's team to Olympic gold medals in the 2008 and 2012 Olympics.

YOU GOT MOSS'ED

Junior middle Blocker Erin Moss was one of the most efficient attackers in Georgia Tech history from the middle in 2020-21, posting a .411 attacking percentage to rank third all-time on The Flats.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED

The Jackets will battle stiff competition on the road to a potential second straight appearance in the Big Dance as six 2021 opponents competed in the reduced field of 48 teams in the 2020 NCAA Division I Volleyball Championship, and five of those six finished ranked in the final 2020 American Volleyball Coaches Association Top 25. The Jackets concluded the 2020 season ranked in the final AVCA poll, coming in at No. 22.

Six team's on Tech's schedule are currently ranked in No. 4 Pitt, No. 10 Louisville, No. 16 UCLA, No. 18 Penn State and No. 24 South Carolina (exhibition).

DANCE WITH WHO BROUGHT YOU

Georgia Tech returned 10 players from 2020-21's NCAA tournament team, including all regular starters and 99 percent of 2020-21's production across the board.

NEW KIDS ON THE FLATS

Eight new Jackets further bolster the 2021 squad as transfers Nicole Drewnick (setter - Nebraska) and Paola Pimentel (libero/defensive specialist - Miami Dade) join freshmen Ashlyn Goolsby (setter), Lauren Sanden (libero/defensive specialist), Kali Engeman (middle blocker), Bianca Bertolino (outside hitter), Leia Harper (outside hitter) and Laura Fischer (right side/middle blocker) to complete this year's team.

LAST SEASON'S GREETINGS

Georgia Tech finished its historic 2020-21 season advancing to the second round of the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2004.

The Yellow Jackets took down Lipscomb in the first round for their first NCAA Tournament win in nearly 17 years.

The berth in the Big Dance alone marked the 10th time in program history, the first for the Yellow Jackets since 2009 and the first appearance under coach Michelle Collier.

The Jackets were nationally ranked throughout 2020-21, reaching as high as No. 8 and coming in at No. 22 at the end of the regular season after spending multiple weeks atop the ACC.

The Yellow Jackets went on a stretch of winning eight straight matches in 2021, including five straight sweeps. Tech swept 10 opponents out of its 14 wins on the season. Georgia Tech's 10 ACC sweeps were the most conference sweeps in the league on the year.

On a national scale, the Yellow Jackets finished 10th in the country and led the ACC in hitting percentage in 2020-21 (0.285).

Other finishes among the best in the ACC include Tech's ranking of second in the league in assists per set (12.81) and kills per set (13.78).
