TECH ON TV

Six of Georgia Tech's home games will be televised on ACC Network. The Yellow Jackets will host four of the televised games, welcoming Auburn (March 8 at 2 p.m.), Clemson (March 25 at 6 p.m.), Boston College (April 9 at noon) and North Carolina (April 29 at noon) to The Flats. Tech will also face Virginia (March 12 at 4 p.m.) and Florida State (April 2 at 2 p.m.) on ACC Network. The remaining home and conference games will all appear on ACC Network Extra. Coverage for nonconference road games will be determined by the host.

CREDENTIALS

Credential requests should be made to T.J. Stricklin via phone (404.894.5445) or email (tstricklin@athletics.gatech.edu) at least 24 hours in advance.

INTERVIEWS

All interview requests for head coach Aileen Morales or any Georgia Tech softball player should be directed to T.J. Stricklin in the communications and public relations office. Players and coaches are not available on gameday until after the conclusion of the game.

POST-GAME PROCEDURE

No formal press conference is held following a Georgia Tech softball game. Coaches and players may be made available upon request following a brief team meeting at the conclusion of the game. No interviews will be allowed between games of a doubleheader, but will be conducted after the second game. All interview requests should be directed to T.J. Stricklin.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Media wishing to attend a practice should contact T.J. Stricklin at least one day in advance. All interviews will take place after practice at Mewborn Field.

MEWBORN FIELD

Shirley Clements Mewborn Field is one of the premier softball facilities in the nation. The $4.9 million on-campus home of the Yellow Jackets was officially dedicated on March 10, 2009. It is named after Shirley Clements Mewborn, one of the first two women to receive a degree from Georgia Tech.

In its first two years at Mewborn Field, Georgia Tech hosted an NCAA Regional and was featured on ESPN. In 2009, Mewborn Field and the Jackets played host to the Atlanta Super Regional against eventual national champion Washington, which was televised on ESPN and in 2010 the entire Atlanta Regional was broadcast in HD on ESPN and ESPN2.

Mewborn Field is a state-of-the-art facility nestled at the corner of Fowler and Eighth Streets on the Georgia Tech Campus. Some of the features include:

- Backstop netting that was extended in 2017 above the dugouts to increase fan safety.
- A capacity of 1,500, including nearly 600 chair backs. Whether it's in the main grandstand or in a standing room area, each spot at Mewborn Field gives you a feeling like you are on top of the action, as well as a spectacular view of the Atlanta skyline, especially at night.
- New backstop and outfield padding that was installed for the 2016 season.
- Press box with separate TV and radio broadcast booths.
- Raised grassy hills on each baseline giving fans a unique perspective.
- Bullpen for each team with ample space for two pitchers to warm-up.
- Indoor facility down the left field line with three batting cages. Retractable batting cage nets were added for the 2017 season. The surface is the same as the infield, allowing pitchers and infielders to work out during inclement weather.
- Completed in time for the 2011 season is the team building. Located just behind the indoor facility, this building features a locker room, coaches' locker room and offices, umpire room, meeting rooms, video room and a training room.
- For the 2018 season the Yellow Jackets played under a videoboard for the first time. The Daktronics display measures 22-by-16.5 feet.

HEAD COACH AILEEN MORALES

HEAD COACH

GEORGIA TECH, 2009
SIXTH SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH
@COACH_A_MO

Aileen Morales, one of the most decorated student-athletes in Georgia Tech softball history and a former highly successful assistant coach at her alma mater, returned to The Flats as the program's sixth head coach on June 7, 2017.

In her fifth season on The Flats, Morales brought the Yellow Jackets back to national prominence by reaching their first NCAA Regional since 2012 and 12th in program history, earning a win in the first round. To get there, she led the White and Gold to a 38-18 overall record for the most wins and nonconference wins (27) since 2011. Tech's 84.4 nonconference win percentage and 24 home wins were also program bests. Morales' Jackets achieved a final RPI of No. 23, the highest since 2011 after tallying the eighth most wins and the 10th best win percentage all-time. Tech picked up a pair of ranked victories, including a thriller over Notre Dame and a mercy-rule triumph over Georgia marking the Jackets' largest margin of victory over the Bulldogs, their first win in the series since 2012 and the first on the road since 2007. Statistically, Morales guided Tech to rank fifth in the nation and second in the conference in walks as well as third in program history with a .395 on-base percentage. Georgia Tech also stood firm defensively to place second in the ACC and in single-season program history with a .975 fielding percentage. The Yellow Jackets went 6-0 against in-state opponents, compiling nine mercy rule wins and eight shutouts on the year. Morales also guided individual standouts to three all-ACC honors and two all-region selections on the way to one of the top turnarounds as a team in the country. On Feb. 22, Morales also earned her 100th win as head coach of the Yellow Jackets.

Tech returned to action in full capacity following the abbreviated 2020 year for Morales' fourth season on The Flats as the White and Gold finished 20-26 in the quarterfinal round of the ACC tournament. Morales achieved her 200th career win as a head coach during the season, also being selected into the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame as a member of the 2021 class for her playing career.

Year three for Morales was cut short due to Covid-19 as the Jackets remained above .500 at 12-11.

Morales followed her first season with more success in her second, coaching the team to its first ACC tournament win since 2012 with a decisive 8-0, five-inning run-rule win over Virginia in the opening round. She brought Tech over the 30 win mark for the first time since 2012, finishing with a 31-27 record, including the program's 1,000th win.

In her first year at the helm of the Georgia Tech softball program, Morales led the Jackets to their first postseason appearance since 2014. Tech recorded five ACC series wins for the first time since 2011, finishing sixth in the ACC. With 28 wins on the season, Tech surpassed with 25-win mark for the first time since 2013 and finished above .500 for the first time since 2012.

In her nine seasons as a student-athlete (2005-08) and assistant coach (2009-13) at Georgia Tech, she helped lead the Yellow Jackets to four Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season championships (2005, 2009-11), four ACC Tournament titles (2005, 2009-10, 2012), eight NCAA regionals (2005-12) and an NCAA Super Regional (2009). The Jackets averaged 43 wins per season during her nine years with the program.

Since leaving her alma mater following the 2013 campaign, she has added four seasons as a successful head coach to her resume, first at Young Harris College in Young Harris, Ga. (2014-15) and most recently at Radford University in Radford, Va. (2016-17).

After inheriting a program that won just 12 games in 2015, Morales engineered the biggest turnaround in NCAA Division I softball when she led Radford to a 35-26 record in her first season at the helm in '16. The Highlanders also climbed 96 spots in the Ratings Percentage Index (RPI) in her first season at the school, advanced to the Big South Tournament semifinals with their first postseason wins in four years and boasted two all-conference honorees.

Prior to her two-year stint at Radford, Morales compiled 51 wins in two seasons at the helm at Young Harris.

Morales began her full-time coaching career as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech from 2010-13. During that four-year stint, she helped lead the Yellow Jackets to two ACC regular-season championships, two ACC Tournament titles and three NCAA regional appearances while coaching 19 all-conference selections, four ACC Players of the Year and three all-Americans.

She got her start in coaching as a student assistant coach for Tech in 2009, helping the Yellow Jackets to the most successful overall season in school history, a 46-15 campaign that included ACC regular-season and tournament championships and the program's lone NCAA Super Regional appearance.

Morales arrived at Georgia Tech in January 2005 after graduating a semester early from Hardaway H.S. in Columbus, Ga. Despite beginning her collegiate career during what was scheduled to be her final high-school season, she hit .296 with five doubles, a triple, two home runs, 32 RBI and an ACC-best 44 stolen bases in 49 attempts as a freshman, en route to being named ACC co-Freshman of the Year and earning second-team all-conference recognition.

She went on to be a three-time all-ACC honoree as a middle infielder, earning first-team accolades as a junior and senior in 2007 and '08, and was also a three-time all-region selection. She earned third-team all-America honors.

She remains Georgia Tech's all-time leader in games played (265), starts (265), at-bats (850) and stolen bases (154) and ranks among the program's top 10 in runs (second – 216), hits (third – 261), doubles (t-fifth – 43) and triples (t-fifth – 10). She also holds three of the top five single-season stolen base totals in school history, including a school-record 46 as a senior in 2008.

Over the course of Morales' four-year playing career, Georgia Tech won 185 games, claimed the 2005 ACC regular-season and tournament championships and advanced to the NCAA postseason four times. She was inducted into the Georgia Tech Athletics Hall of Fame in 2020.

Following the end of her collegiate playing career, she was selected by the Chicago Bandits in the second round of the 2008 National Pro Fastpitch Draft. She played two seasons with the Bandits and helped lead the squad to the NPF championship as a rookie in 2008.

She also boasts international experience as a player and coach with the Puerto Rican national team. She competed internationally for Puerto Rico from 2007-10 and served as an assistant coach for the 2012 squad that finished eighth at the International Softball Federation World Championship, PR's best finish in more than a decade.

A three-time second-team academic all-district selection as a student-athlete at Georgia Tech, Morales graduated with a bachelor's degree in business management in 2009. The Columbus, Ga. native earned a master's in sport management from Georgia Southern in 2013.

ASSISTANT COACHES

REESE MARICONDA

ASSISTANT COACH

VIRGINIA TECH, 2009
SIXTH SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH
@REESE_M3

Reese Mariconda joined the Georgia Tech softball staff as an assistant coach on June 22, 2017. Mariconda works primarily with the outfielders and serves as Tech's hitting coach.

Mariconda guided the offense for Tech's most successful squad in a decade in 2022. Reaching an NCAA Regional for the first time since 2012 and earning the most wins since 2011 for the highest final RPI (No. 23) in the same span, the bats took a surgical approach. The Jackets finished top five in the NCAA and second in the ACC in walks (236) for the fourth best mark in single season program history while placing fifth all-time in doubles through a season, third in program history in on-base percentage and third amongst the ACC along with top 20 in the NCAA in on-base percentage as well. Mariconda groomed Tricia Awald and Emma Kauf in particular, who were recognized as the No. 79 and No. 104 players in the country in 2022 as well as First Team All-ACC and NFCA Southeast All-Region, respectively. Awald finished her decorated career with 12 program records, most notably as the all-time leader in career doubles (57) and walks (169), thanks in large part to Mariconda. Kauf, meanwhile, finished second in program history and in the country with 25 doubles while leading the ACC with 71 hits under Mariconda's tutelage.

Following a shortened 2020 campaign due to Covid-19, Mariconda brought the bats back in 2021 with yet another strong season. Ranking top five in the ACC in batting average (.276), home runs per game (1.22), scoring (5.09), walks (176), slugging (.463) and on-base percentage (.381), Tech received five All-ACC honors thanks in large part to production at the plate. Those honors marked the most for Tech since 2011. Tech's plate presence, a combination of patience and power, was on display as the Jackets led the ACC in on-base percentage and ranked second in the conference in walks while also finishing third in home runs per game.

In her first season with Tech, she helped three Jackets to slug .500 and above. As a team, the Jackets drew 30 more walks than the previous season. Tech ranked third in the conference in RBI during the 2018 season and second in home runs. In 2019, her offense set the single season program record for doubles with 104. The Jackets saw improvement in every offensive category with five Jackets slugging above .500 and two above .600.

Mariconda served as the assistant coach at Fordham from 2012-17, compiling a 195-101 record over five seasons. In her duration on the Fordham staff, Mariconda helped lead the team to five consecutive Atlantic 10 Tournament Championships. She was a member of the coaching staff that was named the 2017 NFCA Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year.

At Fordham, Mariconda worked with the hitters, leading to an increase in the team batting average by 50 points, ranking No. 24 in the nation in batting average and No. 10 in the nation in scoring. During her time with Fordham, the Rams led the Atlantic 10 in almost every offensive category.

Prior to her stint at Fordham, Mariconda served as the volunteer assistant at Radford University from 2010-12. At Radford, she helped bring the Highlanders two regular season Big South Conference Championships in back-to-back seasons.

She received her undergraduate degree from Virginia Tech where she played third base and shortstop for the Hokies from 2005-09, competing against Morales.

As a player, Mariconda was a two-time ACC Tournament Champion and three-time all-ACC selection. She was the only player in Virginia Tech history to start every game of her career. In 2008 she competed in the Women's College World Series and was a member of the team that upset the USA women's Olympic softball team, snapping its 187-game win streak.

She also competed alongside Morales as a member of the Puerto Rican National Team, participating in the 2007 Pan American Games in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil and Canada Cup in British Columbia, Canada.

MARTY MCDANIEL

ASSISTANT COACH

CARSON NEWMAN COLLEGE, 1989
THIRD SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH
@MARTY_MAC17

Marty McDaniel joined the Georgia Tech softball staff as an assistant coach on August 7, 2020. McDaniel serves as Tech's pitching coach.

In year two, McDaniel's impact became starkly evident as the staff as a whole improved by nearly two runs down to a 2.92 ERA. McDaniel turned Tech's presence in the circle into a strength, led by the two-headed monster of Neleman and Michigan transfer Chandler Dennis. Neleman continued to blossom in her first uninterrupted season of college ball as she dealt 220 strikeouts this season, good for second in the ACC and fifth in program history. She tossed a career-high 13 strikeouts twice on season, moving up to 421 career strikeouts, good for sixth in program history. Her 43 appearances tied for fourth all time, and her four saves were also good for fourth in the ACC and top 20 in the nation while her hits allowed per seven innings (5.20) were top five in the league. Dennis, meanwhile, led the team with 16 wins with 107 strikeouts and a 2.93 ERA in her own right. The staff finished the year with 370 strikeouts with 12 shutouts and an opponent batting average of .218.

In McDaniel's first season on The Flats, he most notably began to groom Blake Neleman as she picked up 12 wins on the season, including 10 complete games and three shutouts, while dealing 111 strikeouts. Neleman was also lights out at the end of the season, tossing a no-hitter against Syracuse in the ACC tournament and another gem against Clemson in the season finale.

A veteran collegiate pitching coach with a long history of success, McDaniel played a pivotal role in making Tennessee a top-tier team in the SEC over the last 16 seasons, earning NFCA Southeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year honors three times. During his tenure, McDaniel also helped lead the program to seven Women's College World Series appearances and two SEC tournament titles.

McDaniel coached 34 NFCA All-Americans, 60 NFCA all-Region selections and 70 all-SEC or all-freshman selections at Tennessee. Among his 10 all-SEC pitchers are Olympic silver medalist, four-time first team all-American and eight-time pro all-star Monica Abbott, and two-time all-American and three-time all-SEC selection Ellen Renfro.

In his first season at Tennessee in 2005, McDaniel's pitching staff set a national record with 51 shutouts, while also setting program records in ERA (0.79) and wins (67). He went on to lead the Lady Vols to an NCAA-best 0.88 ERA to go along with 63 wins, 41 shutouts and a national single-season record strikeout-per-seven-inning ratio of 13.55 in 2007, on their way to becoming the first SEC team to reach the Women's College World Series championship series.

Prior to his time at Tennessee, McDaniel was the head coach at Division II Armstrong Atlantic State from 1996-2004. He earned Atlantic Region Coach of the Year honors in 2000 after leading the team to the conference championship. In 2017, he was inducted into the Armstrong Atlantic Athletics Hall of Fame.

He also spent two years (1996-97) on Ralph Weekly's coaching staff at Chattanooga, winning two Southern Conference Championships.

A native of Chattanooga, Tenn., McDaniel received his Bachelor of Science degree from Carson-Newman College in 1989 and also assisted with the baseball team as a coach for two seasons. As a top-rated pitcher, McDaniel has made numerous all-region men's fastpitch softball teams.

SUPPORT STAFF

ALYSEN FEBREY

VOLUNTEER COACH

FIRST SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH

Febrey comes to The Flats on the heels of a decorated playing career as she laced up for her final collegiate season at Oklahoma State in 2021. The first-time coach will make her way to The Flats following her competition in the Athletes Unlimited Pro Summer League, running through August.

A native of Peachtree City, Ga., Febrey returns home to join the Yellow Jackets following back-to-back all-American campaigns for the Cowgirls. In 2021, the first baseman was named a first-team all-American by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association after leading Oklahoma State's bats. Other accolades Febrey garnered for her efforts in her final season included first team all-region by the NFCA, second team all-Big 12 and all-academic Big 12. The year prior, Febrey was named a first team all-American by Softball America (2020) despite the abbreviated season due to Covid-19.

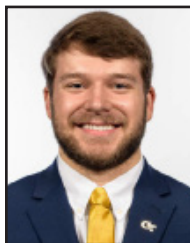

Febrey rewrote the Cowgirl record books during her two seasons in Stillwater, Okla., landing in Oklahoma State's top 10 in 15 different all-time categories between single-season and career records. Most notably, the former all-American owns the highest career slugging percentage (.826) in Cowgirl history and is Oklahoma State's all-time leader in total bases in a single season (145). Her plethora of career records include ranking fourth in batting average (.395), sixth in on-base percentage (.454), fifth in home runs (29) and eighth in double plays (29). In a single season alone, Febrey has placed herself third in home runs (18), second in slugging percentage (.784), third in RBI (60), fourth in doubles (17), first in total bases (145), sixth in hits (74), 10th in batting average (.400), fourth in double plays turned (18), second in sacrifice flies (five) and holds the ninth longest hitting streak in consecutive at bats (12). Febrey's power was a regular threat as she belted a grand slam and had multiple home runs in four separate games. The all-American had a propensity for getting hot as she reached base for 16 games straight while racking up 26 multi-hit games and 16 multi-RBI games, on top of tallying six RBI in a single game, tying for sixth in program history.

Over the course of her career, the former Cowgirl batted .354 in 245 starts with 255 hits, 61 doubles, three triples and 50 home runs for 198 RBI and 135 runs scored. The gaudy totals resulted in a .656 slugging percentage and a .420 on-base percentage as she also stole 16 bases.

Febrey batted an even .400 in her final season, starting in all 60 games as she led the Cowgirls to the 2021 Women's College World Series and an opening 3-2 win over Georgia. Tech's new staffer filled up the stat sheet in her collegiate swan song, totaling 74 hits, 17 doubles and 18 home runs for 60 RBI and 34 runs scored. Febrey also averaged a .784 slugging percentage and a .445 on-base percentage while swiping three bags. On top of leading her team in hits, doubles, RBI and total bases, her marks in home runs, slugging percentage and on-base percentage ranked second on her squad. Amongst the national ranks, Febrey landed in the top 20 in hits, doubles, home runs, RBI and total bases, notably finishing sixth in the country and fourth in the Big 12 in RBI while placing ninth in the land and fifth in the Big 12 in total bases.

In a shortened season due to Covid-19, Febrey started all 24 games at first base in her first season at Oklahoma State. The incoming Yellow Jacket went on to record a team-leading .382 batting average, 11 home runs and 32 RBI on the year. On a national scale, her home-run mark ranked fourth in the NCAA and led the Big 12. The former Cowgirl also led the Big 12 in RBI and total bases, placing 10th in the country and second in the Big 12 in slugging percentage.

Febrey began her career at Georgia, where she put together a successful career as a two-time all-region player and three-year starter beginning with her freshman season. A three-time honor roll member of the SEC, Febrey earned her bachelor's degree in consumer economics from Georgia in 2019. She went on to achieve her master's degree in retail merchandising leadership from Oklahoma State in 2021.

T.J. STRICKLIN

COMMUNICATIONS AND PR

THIRD SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH

T.J. Stricklin was promoted to assistant director of communications on Jan. 15, 2022, serving as the primary contact for softball and volleyball, after being hired as sports information assistant on Feb. 2, 2021.

Prior to arriving on The Flats, Stricklin served as an athletic communications associate with UAB from March of 2019 through May of 2020. With the Blazers, Stricklin served as primary contact for baseball, volleyball, cross country and track and field as well as secondary football contact. Stricklin also handled primary softball contact responsibilities during the 2019 season before switching to baseball prior to the 2020 season.

Succeeding graduation, Stricklin served as communications intern with Fresno State Athletics from August of 2018 through February of 2019. For the 'Dogs, Stricklin served as primary contact for men's golf, women's tennis and lacrosse as well as secondary women's basketball contact.

Stricklin received his bachelor's degree in public relations from Auburn University, where he interned in the athletic communications department with Auburn Athletics from August of 2015 to June of 2018. Stricklin also interned with the Columbus Cottonmouths, a former member of the Southern Professional Hockey League now known as the Birmingham Bulls, throughout the 2014-15 season.

NICOLE EARLEY

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS

SECOND SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH

Nicole Earley joined the Georgia Tech softball staff in October 2021 as the director of operations.

SARAH MILLER

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT COACH

INSTITUTE PRESIDENT AND FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE

DR. ANGEL CABRERA

INSTITUTE PRESIDENT

B.S./M.S., UNIVERSIDAD
POLITÉCNICA DE MADRID
M.S./PH.D., GEORGIA TECH

After serving for almost seven years as president of George Mason University (GMU) in Fairfax, Virginia, Dr. Ángel Cabrera was named June 13, 2019, by the University System of Georgia Board of Regents as Georgia Tech's 12th president. He succeeds Dr. G.P. "Bud" Peterson, who has served since April 1, 2009. Peterson will continue in his role as Georgia Tech's president until Cabrera arrives in September. When Peterson announced his pending retirement in January 2019, he shared his plans to continue his research and return to teaching at Georgia Tech.

Under President Peterson's leadership, Georgia Tech exceeded the $1.5 billion goal for Campaign Georgia Tech by 20%, grew innovative collaborations and strategic partnerships, expanded the campus infrastructure, and elevated its national and global visibility. In the past decade, total research expenditures and other sponsored activities increased by 78% to $908 million. Enrollment increased by 69%. The number of women in the first-year class increased from 32 to 40%. Georgia Tech's first-to-second-year retention is 97%, a historic high.

Cabrera is a Georgia Tech alumnus, the second in the Institute's 134-year history to serve as president. Peterson's predecessor, Dr. G. Wayne Clough (1994 – 2008), earned bachelor's and master's degrees in civil engineering from Georgia Tech.

Cabrera holds an M.S. and Ph.D. in cognitive psychology from Georgia Tech, which he attended as a Fulbright Scholar. He also holds a telecommunications engineering degree from Universidad Politécnica de Madrid (B.S. and M.S. in computer and electrical engineering). For the past decade, he has served as a member of the Georgia Tech Advisory Board, including a stint as its chair. Cabrera met his wife, Beth, while both were graduate students at Georgia Tech. Dr. Beth Fraser Cabrera was a management professor at Carlos III University in Madrid and Arizona State University, and currently delivers leadership development programs for business executives. Their son Alex, who recently received his undergraduate degree from the Institute, is continuing his studies this fall at Carnegie Mellon University. Daughter Emilia is a rising junior at Harvard University.

George Mason is the largest, fastest growing, and most diverse public university in Virginia. Listed among the top 300 research universities in the world by the Academic Ranking of World Universities, GMU reached the top tier among research universities in the Carnegie Classification and accounted for more than half of all public university enrollment growth in Virginia under Cabrera's leadership. In 2018, it was named by Forbes as one of America's best midsize employers.

Before becoming GMU's president, Cabrera served as dean of IE Business School in Madrid and president of Thunderbird School of Global Management (now part of Arizona State University). As a business educator, Cabrera played a key role in advancing professional ethics, internationalization, and corporate social responsibility. As a senior advisor to the United Nations Global Compact, in 2007 he was the lead author of the "Principles for Responsible Management Education," now adopted by more than 700 schools around the world.

Cabrera's research has been published in leading academic journals. He has been quoted by leading global media, including The Economist, BBC, CNN, CNBC, El País, Forbes, the International Herald Tribune, and The New York Times. His op-eds have been published by The Washington Post and the international press, and he has appeared on NPR programs and PBS NewsHour. He's been named a "Young Global Leader" by the World Economic Forum, a "Star of Europe" by Businessweek, "Henry Crown Fellow" by the Aspen Institute, and "Great Immigrant" by the Carnegie Corporation of New York. He has received honorary degrees from Miami Dade College and Universidad Politécnica de Madrid. He is the first native of Spain to serve as president of an American university.

DR. JENNA JORDAN

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

B.A., MILLS COLLEGE
M.A., STANFORD
PH.D., CHICAGO

President Ángel Cabrera named Jenna Jordan, associate professor and associate chair in the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs, as faculty athletics representative (FAR) to the Georgia Tech Athletic Association (GTAA) in May 2022.

The FAR serves as the liaison between the Institute and the Athletic Association on issues regarding rules compliance activities, new developments at the NCAA, and activities related to Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) membership. This is a part-time administrative position appointed for a term of three years. Jordan will replace Mechanical Engineering Professor Baratunde Cola, who is taking a leave of absence from faculty and university responsibilities to lead Carbice, the Georgia Tech spin-off company he founded, through its next phase of growth.

"Professor Jordan is not just an accomplished scholar but an exemplary educator who cares deeply about the growth and well-being of our students," said Cabrera. "She has made a difference these past years as a faculty guide with the Stamps President's Scholars, and I have no doubt she will have a similar impact in supporting the academic experience of our student-athletes and serving as an effective liaison between our faculty and our athletic program."

Jordan has been a Georgia Tech faculty member since 2012. Her research focuses on terrorism and political violence, international security, cybersecurity, wargaming, organizational theory, and statecraft. Her work has been published by Stanford University Press and in International Security, Security Studies, Conflict Management and Peace Science, the Journal of Cybersecurity, and International Trends as well as The New York Times, The Atlantic, the Chicago Tribune, Foreign Policy, and The Washington Quarterly. She holds a Ph.D. in political science from the University of Chicago, an M.A. in political science from Stanford University, and a B.A. in international relations from Mills College.

"Serving as faculty athletics representative is a unique opportunity to address the challenges facing student-athletes, and I am excited to be able to help guide their experience at Georgia Tech," she said. "I recognize the importance of building bridges across the Institute, and I hope to create new opportunities to facilitate meaningful student-athlete interaction, continuing the efforts of my FAR predecessors who fiercely advocated for and mentored our student-athletes. And I will continue to foster a culture of mentorship and support among the faculty and our student-athletes."

Jordan's three-year term as FAR began July 1, 2022.

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS AND SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

J BATT
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
NORTH CAROLINA, 2003

Georgia Tech named J Batt director of athletics on Oct. 14, 2022. Batt comes to The Flats after departing the role of executive deputy director of athletics, chief operating officer, and chief revenue officer at the University of Alabama. He officially joined Georgia Tech on Oct. 24, 2022.

"We're excited to welcome J to Georgia Tech. His leadership experience at one of the most competitive programs in the nation and his extraordinary track record in fundraising and revenue generation will bring great value to Georgia Tech," said Georgia Tech President Ángel Cabrera. "As a former ACC student-athlete, J has a keen appreciation for what it takes for students to compete at the highest level while pursuing a degree at a top academic institution. He values and shares our culture of excellence and integrity and our commitment to student well-being and success. I look forward to working with him to secure and invest the resources necessary for a successful athletics program."

As athletic director at Georgia Tech, Batt will report directly to Cabrera and serve as a member of his cabinet. He will be responsible for planning, developing, administering, and advancing Georgia Tech's intercollegiate athletic programs, with a focus on building an environment that inspires and empowers student-athletes to be champions in academics, competition, and life.

"My family and I truly appreciate President Cabrera and his team for this opportunity, and we are incredibly excited to join the Georgia Tech family," said Batt. "I look forward to working with our student-athletes, coaches, staff, supporters, and fans to reach new heights, on and off the field, and to build on the rich tradition and history of this storied athletics department. We can't wait to become a part of the Atlanta community. Go Jackets!"

Batt was named the top candidate by Cabrera following a national search led by Parker Executive Search. The selection process included interviews with a committee comprised of a coach, senior athletics administrator, student-athlete, student-athlete alum, and faculty member who recommended a set of finalists for consideration by the president. The board of trustees of the Georgia Tech Athletic Association voted unanimously to approve Cabrera's proposal to appoint Batt.

According to Nick Saban, University of Alabama's head football coach, "Since arriving at Alabama, J has positively affected our program through the success of the Crimson Standard Initiative while being a trusted advisor to our athletic director, Greg Byrne, and an essential part of our administrative team. We set a vision for the future of Alabama Athletics and Alabama football through the Crimson Standard and J as well as his team delivered with impressive results."

University of Alabama President Stuart R. Bell added, "Georgia Tech has made an outstanding hire in J Batt. He is a rising leader within intercollegiate athletics and has made a great impact during his time at the University of Alabama. He is a proven administrator and fundraiser and will be a great ambassador for the Institute and the community."

Batt joined the University of Alabama Athletics team as senior associate athletic director in 2017. He was responsible for guiding revenue generating, including charitable giving, ticketing, TidePride, and other revenue sources. He was promoted to COO and senior deputy athletic director in 2021 and to executive deputy director, COO, and chief revenue officer in 2022. Batt oversaw the successful development, implementation, and launch of the Crimson Standard, Alabama Athletics' 10-year, $600 million capital initiative. He also provided day-to-day leadership of the department as a member of the Athletics executive team and served as the sport administrator for men's basketball.

"J has been such a strong leader as part of our executive team at Alabama. He has incredible vision and has done an outstanding job overseeing many areas of the department, beginning with development when he arrived in 2017," said Byrne. "He has done a masterful job with the operations of the department. J has been involved in all of our major decisions and has provided constructive insight and feedback to make us better. His experience working directly with our student-athletes, our coaches and Athletics staff, university leadership, and fan base has prepared him well for this moment. We are thrilled for J, his wife, Leah, and boys, Fitz and Graham. Georgia Tech made a home-run hire with J."

Nate Oats, Alabama's head basketball coach, said, "I am extremely happy for J, Leah, and their boys for this opportunity. His work ethic, character, wisdom, and vision for the University of Alabama have been great assets to our men's basketball program, and we are thankful for everything he has done to help our team and staff. I think he is a perfect fit at Georgia Tech, and I'm excited to see what the future holds under his leadership."

Previously, Batt was senior associate athletic director at East Carolina University and executive director of the Pirate Club, a position he held from 2013 to 2017. As a member of the ECU athletics executive leadership team, Batt oversaw a development operation that increased total fundraising in 2016 by more than 60% over ECU's previous best year. He also served as an associate AD and executive director of the Terrapin Club for the University of Maryland from 2011 to 2013. He joined the Terrapin Club staff in 2009 and served as executive director beginning in September 2011. Before his tenure at Maryland, Batt worked in athletics fundraising at James Madison University, the College of William & Mary, and his alma mater, the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

A member of the Tar Heels' 2001 NCAA champion men's soccer team, Batt graduated from UNC with a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications and a master's degree in sports administration.

JOEELEN AKIN
SPORT ADMINISTRATOR
KANSAS STATE, 1991

Joeleen Akin, a former Georgia Tech athletics staff member with more than 20 years of experience in college athletics, returned to Georgia Tech as associate athletics director for student-athlete development and senior woman administrator in July 2016.

Akin rejoins the Georgia Tech athletics administration after 13 years at nearby Agnes Scott College. She served as Agnes Scott's athletics director and physical education chair for 12 years (2003-15) before being promoted to associate dean for athletics and student activities in February 2015.

Prior to her 13-year tenure at Agnes Scott, she spent seven years at Georgia Tech as director of women's basketball operations (1996-98), marketing/operations manager (1998-99) and director of marketing (1999-2003).

During her 12 years as athletics director at Agnes Scott, an NCAA Division III institution in Decatur, Ga., Akin oversaw a program that produced eight NCAA Tournament teams and a coaching staff that earned 12 different coach-of-the-year recognitions. Under her direction, Agnes Scott student-athletes maintained a 3.0 cumulative grade point average and participated extensively in on- and off-campus service projects.

Akin's tenure at Agnes Scott was marked by innovation and vision. She created and implemented numerous student-athlete development and engagement initiatives at ASC, including a new student-athlete orientation program, Safe Zone training for student-athletes, coaches and staff and coordination of campus-wide academic resources for student-athletes.

Administratively, she developed a unique revenue-generation model that resulted in a 200-percent increase in the school's athletics budget and partnered with a national franchise Snap Fitness to bring a state-of-the-art fitness facility to campus at no cost to the college. She also coordinated with the school's communications department to create the now-trademarked tagline "Smart Women Sweat" to promote the Scotties' athletics programs.

In addition to her duties as athletics director and physical education chair, Akin was Agnes Scott's women's basketball coach from 2003-07 and was named the Great South Athletic Conference Coach of the Year in 2006. She also served as commissioner of the Great South Athletic Conference from 2011-16 and was a member of the NCAA Division III women's basketball committee and NCAA volleyball regional advisory committee from 2014-16.

"I am thrilled to return to Georgia Tech," Akin said. "I want to thank Mike Bobinski and the coaches and staff members that were part of the search process. I am excited about working closely with the student-athletes and coaches. While opportunities and life changes took me elsewhere 13 years ago, my passion for Georgia Tech never wavered. It feels good to be home."

Prior to her arrival at Georgia Tech in 1996, Akin also served as a sports marketing assistant at Auburn and NC State and as a member of the women's basketball staffs at UNC Wilmington and Kansas State.

A Kansas native, Akin earned bachelor's (1991) and master's (1993) degrees from Kansas State.

She and her husband, Charles, have two children: Bobbie and Ryan.
