TOP STORYLINES

- Georgia Tech baseball concludes its four-game road swing on the road against No. 14 Boston College on March 31-April 2.
- Georgia Southern is one of Tech's most common opponents, having played 137 times since 1947. Tech owns a 105-32 advantage over the Eagles.
- Tech has won 13 of the last 14 matchups dating back to 2014.
- Down two of its weekend starters, Tech's pitched staff performed admirably well stretched thin against then-No. 13 Boston College.
- Both Luke Schmolke and Jackson Finley turned in quality starts of 5.0 innings and less than three runs.
- In both Game 1 and 2, the bullpens held strong to keep Tech leading (Game 1) or within two runs (Game 2), but Tech split the opening two games to set up a deciding third game.
- A small, but nevertheless important step toward a completely healthy pitching staff comes in the return on Logan McGuire on Tuesday, a weekend starter who last pitched on Feb. 25.
- His continued work back from injury is buoyed by the hopeful return of Friday-night starter Dawson Brown against North Carolina.
- Georgia Tech was held to an uncharacteristic average of six runs per game this weekend (averaged 9.0).
- Despite that, Tech has been red-hot at the plate, ranking No. 2 in the ACC in average (.314) with seven .300 hitters in the lineup: Kristian Campbell (.455), Jake DeLeo (.407), Angelo Dispigna (.345), Stephen Reid (.333), Jackson Finley (.330), Jack Rubenstein (.314) and Jadyn Jackson (.311).
- Campbell was blistering hot against Boston College, going 8-for-10 with two doubles and four runs. He drew four walks for an on-base percentage of .867.

2022 YEAR IN REVIEW

Overall Record 36-24
ACC Record 15-15
ACC Finish Fourth - Coastal
ACC Tournament 1-1
Final Ranking No. 29 (CB)

• Georgia Tech has made three-straight NCAA Regionals -- first time since 2012-14 (a part of a streak of seven-straight).

• Tech has finished .500 or better in the ACC three-straight seasons -- first time since 2009-11.

• Georgia Tech is looking to take full advantage of a string of some of the top recruiting classes in Tech history.

• With three straight top-10 classes and the first coming of junior eligibility this season, the mix of youth and experience will make for an anticipated season.

• Georgia Tech has already had to tap into its young group of studs due to injury. Brant Baughcum, Nico Senese and Demitri Diamant have all gotten starts on the left side of the infield.

• Catcher Tyler Minnick continues to platoon the catcher position with veteran returner Jack Rubenstein.

• Tech is also 45-23 (.662) in games decided by two runs or less since 2019.

IT STARTS AT HOME...

• "It Starts at Home" has been the offseason motto for Georgia Tech, putting an emphasis on getting victories at Mac Nease Baseball Park at Russ Chandler Stadium after going 26-11 in 2019.

• Since 1985, Tech has won a whopping .755 percent of its games at home (990-321-1).

• Tech was excellent at home in 2022, recording a 22-9 record at Mac Nease Baseball Park at Russ Chandler Stadium.

• Since 2002, Tech has only hit below .300 at home in two full seasons – 2017 and 2021.

• In 2022, Tech hit a gaudy .349 at home.

OFFENSE

- Georgia Tech baseball will look to revamp its offense after losing its top five hitters to the MLB Draft last season.
- Tech's offense last year was one for the ages as it topped the charts in multiple categories.

GEORGIA TECH — 2022 FINAL NAT'L/ACC RANKS

Category	No.	D1 Rank	ACC Rank
Runs per game	9.4	3rd	1st
Average	.327	1st	1st
On-base percentage	.419	6th	2nd
Slugging percentage	.551	5th	2nd
Home runs	115	10th	3rd

- Tech's runs per game were its most since 2001 and its batting average was its highest since 2005.
- Tech's slugging and home run totals were both the third bests in program history.
- Despite losing a bunch of its top hitters, the Jackets will still return power and experience at the plate.
- Through 28 games, Tech's offense hasn't exactly been lacking.

GEORGIA TECH — 2023 NAT'L/ACC RANKS

Category	No.	D1 Rank	ACC Rank
Doubles	74	4th	2nd
Hits	323	5th	2nd
Batting average	.314	21st	2nd

Slugging percentage	.522	30th	6th
Home runs	42	37th	7th

- Through just 28 games and six series, Tech has hit .314 with 123 extra-base hits as multiple players stepped up for the offense.
- Tech also set the program record for most triples in a single game on Feb. 17 vs. Miami (Ohio) with four.
- Tech then tied the program record for most doubles in a single game on March 14 vs. No. 18 Auburn with eight -- hitting six in the third inning alone.

INFELDERS

- Georgia Tech started the year thinking some of their veterans would hold down the fort, but early season injuries have thrust freshman into starting positions.
- Up the middle was supposed to be Jadyn Jackson and Kristian Campbell.
- Recruited as a top-10 shortstop out of the state of Georgia, Jackson was a constant in the Tech dugout before getting his chance to start against Virginia last season.
- He started the final 28 games of the season and made his name on terrific plays at the shortstop position.
- Jackson's defensive prowess last year has earned him a spot in the starting lineup at shortstop, making a circus SportsCenter top-10 play at UVA to save the game.
- Jackson suffered a pregame injury on Feb. 25 and was out until March 11 when he returned in a blowout win, going 2-for-2 against Notre Dame.
- Jackson was inserted into the starting lineup against Louisville (March 17-19) and he hit .364 against the No. 2 Cardinals, getting four hits and four RBI for Tech.

- So far in 17 games played and 16 starts, Jackson has hit .311 with 19 hits, two doubles and eight RBI.
- In back-to-back ACC series (against then-No. 2 Louisville and Clemson), Jackson went a combined 8-for-23 (.347).
- Rated as the No. 5 shortstop and No. 10 player overall in the state of Georgia out of high school, Campbell redshirted last season and will vie for a starting job in the middle infield.
- Having a terrific fall, Campbell was listed as the breakout player to watch by D1Baseball.
- Unfortunately, Campbell went 1-for-1 in his first collegiate game on Feb. 17 but suffered an injury and is working his way back.
- Campbell returned against Notre Dame (March 10-11), playing left field and the designated hitter spot. On the weekend, he went 1-for-8 as he starts to find his footing again.
- Campbell then returned to his Opening Day position of second base against Wofford (March 21).
- Against Georgia State, Campbell hit an RBI single that turned into a three-run inside-the-park home run in the top of the ninth with two outs to give Tech a one-run lead.
- He continued his lights-out week with an 8-for-10 showing against Boston College (March 31-April 2). He was retired just twice all weekend - once on a groundout, once on a strikeout - drawing four walks and getting plunked once as well.
- His average is now up to a gaudy .455 on the season, leading the team, as he has 25 hits, seven doubles and 11 RBI.
- With both starting middle infielders out due to injury, Nicholas Romano has been an important piece to step up, hitting .247 through 28 games.
- Romano was once again deadly at the plate on Feb. 21 at Georgia Southern, hitting the go-ahead three-run home run in the fifth.
- Romano has been generally terrific in his play at second base, making more than his fair share of highlight plays at the position defensively.
- Romano, however, committed two uncharacteristic consequential errors against No. 2 Louisville on Friday night -- one that would've started a double play in the seventh inning and one that would've been the first out in the eighth.
- Both errors led to two unearned runs in what would become a walkoff win for the Cardinals.
- Georgia Tech's middle infield has already proved to be stronger defensively than a year ago, already recording one double shy of last year's entire total, turning 27 through 28 games to rank 10th in the country and tops in the ACC.
- Last season, Tech turned just 28 double plays in 60 games.
- Filling in at shortstop has been Demetri Diamant, a highly rated prospect in his first season on The Flats.

OFFENSE

- He was flawless in his first start on Feb. 25, put committed two errors on Feb. 26 as he gets his feet under him -- his only two of the season so far.

- As for the corners, Georgia Tech was going to look to steady veterans in Drew Compton at third and John Giesler at first.

- Rated as the No. 16 third baseman in the country by D1Baseball, Compton will look to bounce back from a "down" year.

- Compton hit .231 opening weekend with a double and two triples on Friday (tying his triple total from all of last year).

- Unfortunately, Compton suffered a hamstring injury on the double on Feb. 19 and was out a considerable amount of time.

- He pinch hit for the first action of the season since the injury on Sunday against UGA, going 0-for-2 but drawing a bases-loaded walk for an RBI.

- He then got his first start back at third on Tuesday against Lipscomb.

- He was back to full form against Notre Dame (March 10-11), amassing four hits, three RBI and two doubles in the series.

- He also made a highlight worthy diving snag on Friday night against Notre Dame with bases loaded and two outs to keep the game close.

- He followed that up with a three-hit performance in the 12-inning battle with No. 18 Auburn on Tuesday, driving in a game-high four runs.

- Compton continues to work back, finally hitting his first home run of the season Saturday, March 25 against Clemson (his birthday). He went 2-for-4 with five RBI, also mashing a triple against the Tigers.

- He continued to help his average in the 14-inning game against Georgia State on Tuesday, finishing 4-for-6 with a double and a walk.

- Compton was hugely important to Tech's Friday night win over then-No. 13 Boston College, driving in four runs on two hits in the 5-4 win.

- He then walloped what would've been a double before he suffered another hamstring injury on Saturday, April 1's game at BC. He is once again day-to-day.

- Missing Feb. 21's game against Georgia Southern, Compton had his team-long streak of 71-consecutive games started end.

- Compton started all 60 games at third base last year and hit .275 for 14 home runs and 58 RBI -- a down year for him.

- Compton is a career .286 hitter with 31 home runs and 125 RBI.

- Compton's ability at the plate was evident from the very get-go when he became just the third Yellow Jacket since 2015 to homer in his very first collegiate plate appearance.

- Teammate Nicholas Romano joined the list in 2022, when he pinch hit and launched a homer himself.

PLAYERS TO HOME RUN IN FIRST COLLEGE PLATE APPEARANCE -- GT HISTORY, SINCE 2010

Pos.	Player	Opponent - Year
1. OF	Nicholas Romano	Wright State - 2022
2. 1B	Drew Compton	St. Peter's - 2020
3. OF	Michael Guldberg	Dartmouth - 2018
4. 3B	Blake Jackson	St. John's - 2015
5. 3B	Elliott Barzilli	Old Dominion - 2014

- Compton really showed his potential in the 2021 NCAA Tournament, mashing four home runs in the Nashville Regional.

- Compton was the first Yellow Jacket to have four or more home runs in a NCAA Tournament since Matt Wieters had five in 2006 (three in Regionals, one in Super, one in the College World Series).

PLAYERS WITH 4 OR MORE HOME RUNS IN A SINGLE NCAA TOURNAMENT -- GT HISTORY

HRs	Player	Year (Games)
1. 5	Matt Wieters	2006 (7)
2. 4	Drew Compton	2021 (4)
3. 4	Nomar Garciaparra	1994 (9)

- In Compton's stead has been true freshman Nico Senese, who went 2-for-3 on Feb. 26 vs. Tennessee Tech in his first start and helped convert a double play as well.
- In 10 starts, Senese is now hitting just under that at .289 with two doubles and two RBI, including a clutch insurance run against Notre Dame on Friday night.

- Brant Baughcum has also logged two starts at third.

- Giesler has been a mainstay leader in the dugout for Tech and will look to get his first consistent action in the starting lineup this season at first.

- Giesler led Tech's offense Opening Weekend, hitting 556 (5-for-9) with two doubles, a triple and five RBI to slug 1.000 and reach base at a .714 clip with only one strikeout.

- In 19 games played total, he's cooled off some hitting .283 with 15 hits.

- Giesler has also started three games at third with the injury to Compton.

- After being the odd man out with the return of Compton and full-time addition of Jackson Finley at first, Giesler had been limited to sporadic appearances.

- He got his first start since March 5 on April 2 at then-No. 13 Boston College, going 3-for-4 with two home runs and a walk.

- In 22 games last season, Giesler took advantage, hitting .323 for 10 hits, one double and a home run for eight RBI. He reached base at a .450 clip.

- First base is a loaded position for Georgia Tech, also featuring Jackson Finley, Angelo Dispigna and Carsten Sabathia on the depth chart.

- Known as #CatcherU, Georgia Tech once again has two dependable catchers behind the dish for the 2023 campaign.

- Veteran backstop Jack Rubenstein enters his sixth year of college baseball after four years at Emory and in his second year at Georgia Tech in graduate school.

- Rubenstein was named to the Buster Posey National Catcher of the Year watch list on April 3.

- Rubenstein is one of Tech's top hitters, hitting a blistering .314 for 32 hits, seven doubles, two triples and four home runs for 20 RBI.

- Rubenstein ignited Tech in the back-and-forth Friday night affair against Notre Dame, launching a solo home run in the seventh inning to start a four-run inning for the Jackets.

- Rubenstein will often get spelled by true freshman Tyler Minnick, a mid-year enrollee from Mount Paran Christian in Marietta.

- A blue-chip recruit, Minnick was rated as a top-35 catcher nationally and the No. 2 catcher in the state of Georgia for the 2023 class before reclassifying.

- Minnick has hit .242 in just 11 games, including a clutch three-run homer at Georgia Southern on Feb. 21 to bring Tech within one run.

OUTFIELDERS

- Georgia Tech will debut a new-look outfield when compared to last year's opening day lineup.

- The lone returner will be veteran Jake DeLeo, who shifts over and will play centerfield.

- DeLeo blasted into 2023 by earning National Player of the Week honors after just the first weekend of play.

- DeLeo hit .417 with five hits, a double and a team-best three home runs (two on Sunday) against Miami (Ohio).

- He accounted for 12 of Tech's 36 runs as he drove in six and crossed the plate six times himself.

- DeLeo was again lauded by the conference when he earned ACC Player of the Week for his performance against Clemson.

- DeLeo hit .500 for the weekend against the Tigers with six hits, three doubles and two home runs for three RBI. He slugged 1.250 with a .600 on-base percentage, striking out just once compared to three walks.

- Adding in Wofford (March 21) that week, DeLeo hit .444 with three home runs and seven total extra-base hits.

- Overall through 28 games, he's been one of the best hitters in the nation, hitting .407 with a whopping 50 hits -- 12 doubles and 10 home runs -- for 30 RBI. He's slugging .764 with a red-hot .476 on-base percentage.

- DeLeo is atop the ACC charts in plenty of categories and is second nationally in hits:

OFFENSE

- He's only failed to register a hit in three games this season - Game 2 of the Saturday doubleheader against Notre Dame on March 11, the series finale against Clemson (March 26) and Game 1 against then-No. 13 Boston College (March 31).
- He had five hits in the 12-inning battle with No. 18 Auburn (March 14), including two doubles.
- DeLeo suffered an oblique injury last year and was limited to just 30 games.
- Despite limitation, DeLeo still hit .386 for 22 hits, two home runs and 19 RBI, scoring 19 times as well.
- In 2021, DeLeo became the first Yellow Jacket since Wade Bailey in 2017 to record five hits when he went a perfect 5-for-5 in the rubber match at then-No. 12 Virginia Tech.
- Starting the final 51 games of the season in right field was slugger Stephen Reid.
- Through 28 games, Reid has continued his power hitting, currently at .333 with 37 hits, six doubles, a triple and six home runs.
- After a icy 1-for-20 stretch from March 3-10, Reid finally started to get the bat rolling on March 11 in the doubleheader against Notre Dame, going 5-for-8 with a double, homer and four RBI to close the series.
- He followed that up with four hits and two doubles in the 12-inning battle against No. 18 Auburn and a combined 4-for-10 against No. 2 Louisville with a home run.
- Reid continues to raise his batting average after a 3-for-5 outing against Wofford (March 21).
- Reid was responsible for the game-tying run in the Friday night comeback over Clemson, driving a two-out single to the outfield before Parker Brosius pinch ran. Angelo Dispigna then hit a double on the next at-bat to tie the game.
- Reid was red-hot last year, hitting .333 for 72 hits, eight doubles and 16 home runs for 63 RBI.
- Reid's power at the plate was on full display against Kennesaw State last season, hitting two home runs, one a grand slam, for six RBI.
- Reid also smashed two homers out against Mercer last year, including the go-ahead two-run bomb in the fourth.
- Entering the outfield rotation will be Mercer transfer Angelo Dispigna.
- In his first weekend of action for Georgia Tech, Dispigna hit .333 with three hits and two doubles.
- Dispigna had his second-straight multi-hit game at Georgia Southern on Feb. 21, going 2-for-5.
- He earned National Player of the Week honors (Feb. 27) for his performance against Tennessee Tech, hitting one home run a game, including a mammoth grand slam on Friday to push the lead from three to seven.

- Through 28 games, he's hit .345 for 38 hits, six doubles and six home runs for 24 RBI.
- He hit the go-ahead two-RBI single against Georgia on March 5 to give Tech an important 4-1 win.
- Dispigna continued to be clutch on Friday night against Clemson when he both drove in the tying run with two outs in the ninth and walked off the Tigers with an RBI double in the 11th.
- At Mercer, Dispigna hit .252 with 14 doubles and 10 home runs last season.
- In his fifth year of college baseball, Dispigna is among the active leaders in the nation in nine statistics.

- Georgia Tech's designated hitter spot in the lineup may be one of the hottest competitions on the team and in the ACC.

• Nicholas Romano, as well as two-way athletes Jackson Finley and freshman Riley Stanford are all capable of tremendous power.

- Also a possible option is freshman Carsten Sabathia.

• A first-baseman by trade, Sabathia stands as an intimidating presence in the box at 6-4, 240 pounds with a lot of power in his young bat.

• Sabathia recorded his first collegiate hit and home run on Saturday against Georgia, driving in three runs.

- He is the son of MLB great C.C. Sabathia.

• Finley has played the designated hitter and first baseman role to work his way into the order and has been sensational.

• In 25 games and 24 starts, Finley has been a machine at the plate.

• He's currently fifth on the team at .330 with 30 hits, 10 doubles and team nine home runs for 29 RBI. He's slugging a .736 with a .415 on-base percentage, also drawing 11 walks.

- He ranks top-15 in the ACC in six categories.

PITCHING

- Georgia Tech has stockpiled depth in its pitching staff thanks to two-straight classes flush with power arms.
- Despite being younger, Tech returns Josiah Siegel, Dalton Smith, Cody Carwile, Camron Hill, Logan McGuire, Aeden Finateri, Joseph Mannelly, and Dawson Brown.
- It also regains the full services of Ben King and Jackson Finley.
- Early on, Georgia Tech has shown flashes of improvement on the mound.
- Despite some inflated ERA's due to blowout wins and stretching arms out, Tech currently sports a 6.78 ERA as a staff.
- Starters thus far have been a little bit up and down and have an 8.16 ERA.
- Where the Jackets have been dominant is in their bullpen, which holds a 5.92 ERA.
- And if you take out the three highest ERA's are due largely to blowout games, the ERA falls to 4.30 ERA for the remaining nine arms.

STARTERS

- Georgia Tech's starting lineup for the first two weeks has been Dawson Brown on Friday, Logan McGuire on Saturday and Jackson Finley on Sunday.
- In a blustering night of 40 degree temps and 20 mph winds, Brown struggled in his first start, going just 2.2 innings and allowing five runs, walking an uncharacteristic five batters while striking out six.
- McGuire responded and was outstanding, going 5.0 innings on Saturday and punching out six and walking none, while allowing just two runs on four hits (both solo homers).
- McGuire is poised to make his first start since Feb. 25 on Tuesday against Georgia Southern.
- And while it isn't expected to be a long start by design, potentially only one inning of work, it is exciting progress for the stud arm that has been sorely missed at times from the rotation.
- Finley continued the dominance on Sunday and went another 5.0 innings, allowing just one run on just two hits, walking none and striking out three.
- Brown was one of Tech's main closer last season, finishing with a team-high five saves, despite a 8.77 ERA.
- Brown turned in his best performance as a Yellow Jacket on Feb. 24 against Tennessee Tech, striking out 12 in 6.0 innings of work. His three runs allowed came on home runs.
- Brown now sports a 12.27 strikeouts per nine innings, which ranks 53rd nationally and eighth in the ACC.
- In 2021, Brown featured a 2-0 record and 4.40 ERA, but has yet to be a full-time starter for the Jackets.
- Dawson is son of Georgia Tech Hall of Famer and six-time all-star and two-time ERA title winner Kevin Brown. Kevin helped the Marlins to the 1995 World Series before signing the first $100 million contact with the LA Dodgers in 1998.

- Another strong freshman for Tech last year was McGuire, who snagged a 4-2 record despite a 7.02 ERA.
- McGuire is known for his pounding the zone, finishing with a 36:4 strikeout-to-walk ratio last season.
- McGuire made four starts last season, highest of any returning arms.
- McGuire exited Saturday's game against Tennessee Tech (Feb. 25) after just 1.1 innings due to injury. He remains week to week.
- Finley returns to the mound after fully recovering from Tommy John Surgery two seasons ago.
- He wound up pitching four innings late but has not seen consistent action since his freshman season.
- Finley's start on Sunday against Miami (Ohio) was the second of his career at Georgia Tech.
- Finley had five unearned runs cross against him thanks to three infield errors in the first four frames against Tennessee Tech.
- Finley turned in a terrific and much-needed performance on Sunday against Georgia, going 4.0 innings and holding UGA to just two hits and one run, while striking out four.
- That allowed Tech to work to its strongest bullpen arms in Ben King and Terry Busse to get the win.
- Finley's brother, Leighton, is now a freshman right-handed pitcher at Georgia.
- Finley was once again tremendous in the series-clinching game against Notre Dame (March 11 - Game 1). He pitched 4.2 innings with just one run on three hits and two strikeouts.
- Finley had his first bad outing against No. 2 Louisville on March 19, allowing five runs on eight hits in 4.0 innings.
- Until Louisville, Finley hadn't allowed more than one earned run and more than six hits.
- Finley looked back to form for one of his best starts in ACC play when he went 5.0 innings against then-No. 13 Boston College, holding the Eagles to three runs on five hits in 5.0 innings in the eventual 3-1 pitching duel loss.
- Georgia Tech's other spot starters have been Luke Schmolke, Josiah Siegel and Dalton Smith.
- True freshman righty Schmolke turned in by far the best performance of his young career against No. 2 Louisville on Saturday, March 18 to propel Tech to a win.
- Schmolke went 4.2 innings and allowed just one earned run on eight hits, punching out five as well.
- Schmolke continued to be the hot arm when he went a career-long 5.0 innings in his second-straight ACC start on Saturday against Clemson. He worked around six hits and three runs to punch out five and get his third win of the season.
- Schmolke continues to be one of the top freshman arms, going 5.0 innings against then-No. 13 Boston College on Friday night (March 31), and allowing just one run on two hits.

- In his three starts in the ACC, Schmolke has worked to an exceptional 3.07 ERA.
- Schmolke was the No. 6-ranked right-hander out of North Carolina and a top-60 arm nationally, throwing mid-90s with a complete arsenal.

RELIEVERS

- Where the Jackets have been dominant is in their bullpen, which holds a 5.92 ERA.
- And if you take out the three highest ERA's are due largely to blowout games, the ERA falls to 4.30 ERA for the remaining nine arms.
- Strong out of the bullpen early has been senior LHP Joseph Mannelly, RHP Jackson Vaughan, LHP Cody Carwile, RHP Ben King, LHP Dalton Smith and RHP Terry Busse.
- Mannelly currently has a 4.50 ERA, a 1-0 record and one save in 10.0 innings of work, having allowed just 13 hits and five run with 12 strikeouts.
- Mannelly has gotten tagged with one bad outing so far with two runs surrendered in 0.1 innings against No. 18 Auburn on March 14.
- Mannelly appeared twice over the weekend against No. 2 Louisville. In just 1.1 innings on Friday, March 17, he turned in 1.1 innings of no-hit work with just one unearned run against him.
- On Sunday against the Cards, he worked just 0.1 innings, with two hits and two runs against him -- both runs scored after he was relieved by freshman Logan Bogue in his first career outing.
- Mannelly has been a leader of the pitching staff for years, but has dealt with nagging injuries that have kept him from contributing fully.
- Vaughan transfers in after two years at the University of Pacific.
- Through 13 appearances, he's worked to a 1-0 record and 4.43 ERA in 22.1 innings of work.
- He had his strongest outing in the White and Gold on Friday at Georgia when he went 3.2 innings of one-hit ball, striking out three to give Tech chances at the plate.
- He was once again strong at settling the waters in the extra-inning loss to No. 18 Auburn, pitching 1.1 innings of two-hit scoreless work to get Tech to its closer.
- He then kept the game close on Sunday vs. No. 2 Louisville, allowing just a solo home run in 2.0 innings with two strikeouts.
- Vaughan was once again dominant when he turned in 2.1 no-hit innings against Clemson (March 24).
- Prior to Tech, Vaughan sported a team-leading 3.27 ERA in 2022, striking out 32 in 33 innings.

PITCHING

- Vaughan's story is a miracle, overcoming Stage 4 liver cancer as a child and surviving two liver transplants.
- He is the only NCAA student-athlete to ever play after having a liver transplant.
- Carwile returns after sporting a 7.36 ERA last season in his frosh campaign, holding opponents to a .286 average.
- Carwile was terrific in his first action on Feb. 21 at Georgia Southern, picking up his first win of the season.
- In 2.0 innings, he allowed no hits and struck out four as part of a nine-inning bullpen effort that allowed no earned runs and struck out 13.
- He then turned in another hitless inning against Tennessee Tech.
- He then got roughed up some in back-to-back bad outings against Long Island (2.0 IP, 3 ER) and Georgia (2.1 IP, 3 ER).
- Carwile rebounded however and dropped his 2023 ERA after pitching 2.2 huge innings to finish the 12-inning battle against No. 18 Auburn (March 14) where he allowed just three hits, one run and struck out five.
- Despite the winning run scoring against him, Carwile was the last line of defense for Tech and held up in the extra-inning affair.
- Carwile parlayed that outing into another good one against No. 2 Louisville on Saturday, getting the win after 3.0 innings of two-hit scoreless work to drop his ERA on the season to 4.86.
- King returns from Tommy John Surgery and has been sensational in relief, currently sporting a terrific 3.09 ERA with a 2-0 record in 23.1 innings of work and 14 appearances.
- He's currently holding hitters to a .221 batting average with a blistering 27:4 strikeout-to-walk ratio.
- All his runs allowed came in his start against No. 18 Auburn on March 14 -- He pitched two innings scoreless before the third got away from him.
- King got the win against Georgia on Sunday, March 5, throwing 3.0 innings of two-hit, no-walk baseball with three strikeouts.
- King appeared in all three games last weekend against No. 2 Louisville, pitching two outs on Friday night, one out Saturday and one out Sunday without a run across.
- King is a decorated student-athlete who also serves as President of the Student-Athlete Advisory Board and has been the ACC's representative at NCAA meetings two-straight years.
- Busse has been sensational transferring in from John A. Logan Junior College, where he made 22 appearances out of the bullpen to help them win a regional.
- Busse has emerged as one of the toughest closers in the nation through eight appearances, already ranking second in the nation and co-leading the ACC with seven saves thus far.
- He's currently tied with Oklahoma State All-American closer Nolan McLean.
- He currently sports a 0.93 ERA with a more than a 3:1 strikeout-to-walk ratio.
- His first appearance as a Yellow Jacket came to close out the ninth on Opening Day against Miami (Ohio) where he allowed just one hit and punched out three for the save.
- He made his second appearance of the year on Feb. 21 at Georgia Southern when he pitched two innings to close, allowing two hits and no runs with two strikeouts for the save.
- He earned his third save in as many appearances with a strong six-out save on Saturday against Tennessee Tech, not allowing a single hit and striking out three in 22 pitches.
- He turned in two key innings to get to Busse on Feb. 21 at Georgia Southern, allowing two hits with three K's.
- He was as dominant as ever on March 1 against Kennesaw State, coming in to close a one-run game in the ninth. He needed just 14 pitches to strikeout all three batters he faced to secure Tech's victory.
- He got his fifth save of the season on Sunday against Georgia at Coolray Field when he pitched six outs, five of which were strikeouts, to hold the 4-1 win for Tech.
- Busse then turned in his fourth six-out save for his sixth of the season against Notre Dame on Friday night (March 10), fanning four.
- He allowed his first hit on March 14 at No. 18 Auburn since Feb. 21 at Georgia Southern.
- Against Auburn, Busse pitched two innings scoreless with three strikeouts in a tie game, but Tech was unable to put up a run to give him the win.
- His first runs crossed against him on March 17 against No. 2 Louisville, pitching 1.2 innings of two-hit, two unearned runs (one earned), with three strikeouts.
- He also walked an uncharacteristic four batters in temperatures south of 40 degrees that night.
- He then looked back to form when he pitched 2.0 no-hit innings in extras on Friday night against Clemson, striking out four and earning his first win of the season.
- He earned his seventh save with 1.0 innings of one-hit work against then-No. 13 Boston College on Friday, March 31.
- In 2022 with John A. Logan, Busse earned two saves in 27.1 innings, striking out 44 batters to the tune of an ERA of 3.29.
- Also proving himself as the Jackets' top fireman, Aeden Finateri has appeared nine times and worked to 27.0 innings in relief while sporting a 4.433 ERA.
- He's allowed 33 hits, 13 earned runs and struck out 23 hitters compared to just six walks.
- Needing to come in the first inning of Feb. 21's game at Georgia Southern, Finateri worked 3.0 innings to settle the game, allowing just one unearned run.
- He was once again needed after McGuire's injury, going a season-long 4.2 innings, allowing just three hits, one run and no walks while striking out four.
- His last appearance came on March 1 where he pitched the fourth inning of a one-run game against Kennesaw State.
- He allowed two hits, but none scored, as he struck out two before forcing a groundout.
- His two bad appearances came against Georgia on Saturday (March 4) when he entered in the third, allowing four runs on five hits in 1.2 innings, and in the second of the doubleheader against Notre Dame (March 11) when he gave up two on three hits in 1.1.
- He rebounded greatly on April 1 against then-No. 13 Boston College when he pitched 3.0 innings of three-hit, scoreless baseball to close the Saturday 3-1 loss, keeping the game in reach for the Jackets.
- Tech's top returning ERA leader is Siegel, who finished with a 3.97 ERA, 2-0 record and .266 opponents batting average.
- Siegel turned in a Herculean effort in last year's Knoxville Regional, pitching career long 6.1 innings and 98 pitches in relief and allowing just three hits and one run against Campbell, saving the bullpen for the showdown against No. 1 Tennessee.
- Siegel has struggled thus far in 2023, through 10.0 innings and six appearances, currently at a 18.00 ERA.
- Smith finished last season with a 2-0 record and 4.35 ERA despite just eight appearances due to injury and will look to be a bigger presence in the bullpen in 2023.
- Hill finished last season with a 6.57 ERA in 18 appearances and one start last season, earning one save in his freshman campaign.
- Was named a New England League All-Star after being the Martha's Vineyard Sharks' closer, sporting a 0.52 ERA with a 16.41 strikeouts per 9 inning.
- Hill pitched the eighth against Miami (Ohio) on Feb. 18 and suffered an oblique injury that caused him to miss significant time.
- Hill made his triumphant return to the mound on Saturday, March 18 against No. 2 Louisville, slamming the door shut with a no-hit ninth.
- He then made his second career start on Tuesday against Wofford, getting roughed up a bit for four runs in 2.0 innings on six hits.
- In another start on Tuesday at Georgia State, Hill once again struggled, giving up two runs in 1.1 innings before being relieved.
- Schmolke was the No. 6-ranked right-hander out of North Carolina and a top-60 arm nationally, throwing mid-90s with a complete arsenal.
- Schmolke had by far his most impressive performance on Saturday in Game 1 of the doubleheader against Notre Dame (March 11).

PITCHING

- He worked to his second victory, going a career-long 4.1 innings and allowed just one run on three hits, fanning five and walking just two.
- Samol joins Tech as the top-ranked lefty from the state of Ohio and a top-35 arm nationally, standing a whopping 6-7 on the mound.
- Samol has looked increasingly better in his last two appearances: Clemson (March 2) and Georgia State (March 28).
- He worked a clean two innings against the Tigers before working a two-hit 1.2 innings in extra-innings against the Panthers.

HALL OF FAME COACH

- Danny Hall is in his 30th season at Georgia Tech and his 34th overall as a head coach in 2022. He is the winningest baseball coach in Tech history with 1,157 wins.
- Hall, who won his 1,300th career game on April 25, 2021 and his 1,000th win at Georgia Tech on March 20, 2018, stands second among active Division I coaches in career victories entering the 2022 season.
- In 2019, Hall earned his fourth ACC Coach of the Year honor.
- In his career – both as an assistant and head coach – Hall has been part of over 1,600 victories and seven trips to the College World Series.
- Hall has led Tech to the NCAA Tournament on 22 occasions and guided the Jackets to the NCAA College World Series in 1994, 2002 and 2006 -- the program's only three berths.
