ON THE BRINK

Already the second winningest coach in program history, Coach Michelle Collier owns 183 wins on The Flats, including 99 in ACC play. She also surpassed 200 career victories during the 2022 season, now moving up to 223 overall.

Approaching the century mark, Collier's next conference win will mark No. 100 in ACC play to tie the program record. Collier is only two league wins away from becoming the program's all-time leader in conference wins.

RANKED RUMBLES

Georgia Tech owns five top-10 regular season victories, including the triumphs over No. 2 Pitt in 2021, No. 5 Nebraska in 2003, No. 8 Notre Dame in 1995, No. 8 Penn State this season and No. 10 BYU last season.

This year's 3-1 win over Penn State tied the third highest ranked victory in program history and marked the first ranked triumph of the season for the White and Gold. With back-to-back victories over previous No. 12 Ohio State to follow, Georgia Tech earned three consecutive top-15 wins for the first time in program history.

A season ago, Georgia Tech picked up two ranked triumphs (sweeps of No. 17 Illinois and No. 10 BYU).

Tech's next ranked win would be the 32nd ranked triumph in program history, including 28 regular season ranked triumphs and four current postseason victories over ranked/nationally seeded teams entering the tournament.

Two seasons ago, Tech earned its highest ranked victory in program history over No. 2 Pitt on the road.

GOLD JACKETS

Freshman right side hitter Larissa Mendes earned her second consecutive ACC Co-Freshman of the Week after powering Tech to three sweeps in the Florida A&M Invitational. The Jackets now own three ACC weekly awards this season.

Following week two, the White and Gold earned a pair of all-conference selections for the first time in their careers as a result of back-to-back wins over the Buckeyes as senior libero Paola Pimentel was named ACC Defensive Player of the Week while Mendes was tabbed ACC Co-Freshman of the Week.

Two Yellow Jackets were named preseason all-ACC in setter Bella D'Amico and outside hitter Bianca Bertolino.

The two team captains also landed all-ACC second team honors in 2022, while Bertolino received an AVCA east coast all-region nod as well.

FLYING HIGH

The White and Gold recently picked up their fifth and sixth sweeps of the season over the likes of Howard and San Diego while hosting the Georgia Tech Classic. The Jackets opened conference with a 3-1 victory over Clemson.

The Yellow Jackets enter conference play amongst the top three in the ACC and top 20 in the NCAA in four major categories – leading the league and third in the nation in opponent hitting percentage (0.123), also fronting the conference and 17th in the country in digs per set (16.87), second in the ACC and seventh in the NCAA in kills per set (14.29) and third in the league and 19th the nation in assists per set (13.89).

Going beyond 2019's NIVC title, Tech has won 89 of its last 110 matches.

The Yellow Jackets have also claimed 48 of their last 55 matches in O'Keefe Gymnasium, now owing over 300 wins inside the raucous arena.

MENDES MOMENTS

Mendes turned heads in her first collegiate action, landing on the Road 2 Tampa Bay Invitational all-tournament team after Tech topped South Florida and then No. 8 Penn State. The Brazilian not only tied for the team lead in kills with 25 (3.57 k/s) on the weekend, but also pitched in on the defensive end with 12 digs and six blocks (two solo, four assisted), the second most on the squad.

Mendes turned heads once again in her second week of collegiate action on the way to ACC Co-Freshman of the Week honors, fronting the Jacket attack with 30 kills (3.75 k/s) on the weekend while pitching in on the defensive end with 19 digs and three blocks. As the Jackets picked up a pair of 3-1 wins over the former No. 12 Buckeyes, Mendes led the unit in match two with a career-high 16 kills and racked up a personal-best 14 digs to propel the White and Gold to the historic start.

Mendes turned in yet another strong set of outings in her third week of collegiate action on the way to her second straight ACC Co-Freshman of the Week nod. The Brazilian finished second on the squad with 36 kills (4.00 k/s) at a solid .423 clip on the weekend while pitching in on the defensive end with 12 digs and four blocks (one solo, three assisted).

Amongst the conference this season, Mendes now sits fifth in kills per set (3.61) and third in points per set (4.14). Early in her career, she similarly ranks second in the league in career kills per set and fourth in career points per set with the same tallies.

PROPS TO PAOLA
Senior libero Paola Pimentel anchored Georgia Tech's defense in week one with 32 digs and seven assists over the course of both matches, most notably cleaning up 21 digs and three assists against then No. 8 Penn State.

Pimentel led the White and Gold's defense in its second weekend of action, compiling 45 digs over the course of both matches on the way to ACC Defensive Player of the Week honors.

The seasoned libero came just one dig shy of her career high with 22 in game one before tying her career high of 23 in game two against the highly-touted Buckeyes.

Leading the squad in digs, Pimentel is now second in the ACC in digs per set (4.74) with five matches of 20 or more digs. The floor cleaner owns the third-highest tally for digs in a single match in the conference (23) and is tied for the top two marks in the league in digs through a four-set match (23, 22). Over her career, Pimentel is also 10th in the league in digs per set (3.47).

IT'S A SETUP
D'Amico has primarily run Tech's formidable attack since the beginning of last season, finishing 2022 as one of the best setters in the league by ranking fifth in the conference in assists per set (10.12) while breaking 1,000 assists for the first time with 1,042 on the season.

Orchestrating Georgia Tech's offense to previously tie the fourth hottest start to the season in program history (7-0), D'Amico has racked up 360 assists and five double doubles, most recently tallying 39 assists and 10 digs against Clemson.

The Westerville, Ohio, native racked up 76 assists (7.60 per set) in the Georgia Tech Classic on the way to sweeps of Howard and San Diego as she ranks eighth in the league in assists per set (9.47).

Amongst the ACC, D'Amico now owns the second most assists in a three-set match this year with 40 against Florida A&M and fifth most in a four-set match with 46 against then No. 8 Penn State. Overall, D'Amico sits in ninth amongst the conference in active career leaders in assists per set at 7.48.

LIV'IN UP TO THE HYPE
Transferring into the program this season as an ACC all-freshman team honoree a season ago at North Carolina, sophomore middle blocker Liv Mogridge didn't disappoint in week one after landing on the Road 2 Tampa Bay Invitational all-tournament team.

Mogridge plugged the middle through the first weekend, racking up 13 blocks (five solo, eight assisted) to lead the squad along with 16 kills at a .361 clip and five digs.

In the Georgia Tech Classic, the defensive anchor led Tech to a pair of sweeps with 13 blocks (two solo, 11 assisted) while coming up big all around with 18 kills at a .455 clip, six digs and an assist. She notably turned in a team-best of five block assists, nine kills on 12 attacks for a furious .667 rate and three digs against Howard.

The all-tournament selection is currently seventh in the ACC and 25th in the NCAA with a.427 hitting percentage. The middle presence is also tied for the second most aces in a single match amongst the conference with five.

BERTOLINO BULLETS
Junior outside hitter Bianca Bertolino was a spark on both ends for Tech in week one with 25 kills (3.57 k/s), 17 digs and three blocks.

Bertolino opened the year with a team-leading 15 kills at nearly a .500 clip along with three digs and a pair of blocks against the South Florida. She followed in Tech's historic victory over the former No. 8 Penn State with her first double double of the year behind 10 kills, 14 digs, an ace and a block.

In week two facing previous No. 12 Ohio State, Bertolino posted all-around totals of 14 kills and 10 digs for her second double double in match one, then added 13 kills and nine digs in match two.

Bertolino has been a weapon from the service line this season with 26 aces to top the ACC and land 15th in the NCAA. The Argentinian also leads the league and places seventh in the nation in aces per set (0.68).

TORCHIN' TAMARA
Senior outside hitter Tamara Otene stepped up in Tech's biggest match this season, exploding for 17 kills and 15 digs for her first double double of the year in the win over previous No. 8 Penn State.

In week two, Otene came away with 16 kills and 14 digs in the first victory over the Buckeyes before totaling a career-high 17 digs in the second triumph.

Otene added another pair of double doubles in week three, charting 15 kills, 14 digs and three aces against South Alabama and 11 kills and 11 digs against Stetson for her fourth double double this season.

Otene's week four was highlighted by her 13 kills and 15 digs against Georgia for her fifth double double of the year.

She opened conference play against Clemson with her highest production since arriving on The Flats, compiling 22 kills, 15 digs, an ace and a block for her sixth double double this season.

MONEY MANYANG
Graduate middle blocker Afedo Manyang couldn't miss in the Georgia Tech Classic, leading the Yellow Jackets to sweeps of Howard and San Diego with exceptional efficiency. The sneaky attacker swung at a scorching .708 clip over the weekend, tallying 18 kills along with an ace and a pair of block assists.

Manyang opened the weekend with six kills on seven attacks for a career-high .857 hitting percentage plus a block assist against Georgia. The TCU transfer followed with four kills at a .571 rate to go with an ace and another block assist against the Bison. Manyang concluded the weekend with a season-high eight kills on 10 attacks for a .700 hitting mark against the Toreros.

STACKING UP
Georgia Tech leads NC State 48-20 in all-time matches.

The White and Gold have claimed the last six contests, three of which were sweeps.

Tech took the last matchup on the road, 3-1.

The Yellow Jackets own the longest win streak of the series after earning 21 straight victories from 2000-10.

Tech leads the series 25-8 at home, 19-11 on the road and 4-1 in neutral matches.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED
Georgia Tech has battled stiff competition on the road to a potential fourth straight appearance in the Big Dance as six of its 2023 home opponents competed in the 64-team field of the 2022 NCAA Division I Volleyball Championship, excluding exhibition opponent Auburn who also advanced to the postseason. The White and Gold will still face national title contenders Louisville and as well as Final Four foes Pitt after defeating San Diego. Previously topped Ohio State (Elite Eight) and Penn State (Sweet 16) also made deep runs in the 2022 postseason.

Three of the aforementioned six teams finished ranked in the top five of the final 2022 American Volleyball Coaches Association Top 25. The Jackets concluded the 2022 season in the second round of the NCAA tournament, ranked No. 16 in the final AVCA poll.

In the current AVCA rankings, Tech is slated to face two more foes in the top 15 in No. 5 Louisville and No. 8 Pitt after defeating then No. 12 Ohio State and former No. 8 Penn State.

SPREADING THEIR WINGS
Following in Julia Bergmann's footsteps, Bertolino has gained experience at the international level with Argentina over the last two summers. Senior libero Paola Pimentel has also competed internationally on the beach side, while a pair of incoming freshman also bring international experience at the youth level as Larissa Mendes competed for Brazil's U21 squad while Heloise Soares competed on the beach side for Brazil at the youth level.

SPICING IT UP
Georgia Tech brings a heavy dose of international flavor as nine Yellow Jackets, including six student-athletes and all three coaches, are originally from different countries.

Coaches Michelle Collier, Claudio Pinheiro and Vini Baigan along with Pimentel, Mendes and Soares all hail from Brazil. Notably, Pinheiro coached the Brazil women's team to Olympic gold medals in the 2008 and 2012 Olympics.

Bertolino also represents Argentina, while Jackets from across the pond include senior outside hitter Tamara Otene from New Zealand and freshman setter Deren Cukur from Turkey.

R-E-S-P-E-C-T
The Jackets were ranked No. 13 in the week three AVCA Division I Coaches Top 25 Women's Poll.

The White and Gold's previous 10-spot tied the seventh highest ranking in program history, joining the squads from 2003, 2021 and 2022 as the only teams to enter the top 10.

Georgia Tech made the highest leap of teams in the preseason poll to week one as they rose nine spots from their previous rank of No. 20 to then No. 11.

The White and Gold have been listed in 59 straight top 25 polls dating back to 2020, reaching as high as No. 5 during that time, the highest for the program since 2003 and second-best mark all time.

Tech remains one of three ACC teams inside the top 15 alongside No. 5 Louisville and No. 8 Pitt.

Tech was picked to finish tied for fourth in the ACC by the league's coaches for the third consecutive year.

STILL DANCIN'
Georgia Tech returned 13 players from 2022's NCAA tournament squad, including three regular starters plus the libero, highlighted by D'Amico and Bertolino.

NEW KIDS ON THE FLATS
The incumbents were joined by seven highly touted new Yellow Jackets, including three transfers and four freshmen, three of which are international. Sophomore middle blocker Liv Mogridge (North Carolina), junior middle blocker DeAndra Pierce (Texas) and graduate middle blocker Afedo Manyang (TCU) make up the transfers while setter Heloise Soares (Brazil), outside hitter Larissa Mendes (Brazil), setter Deren Cukur (Turkey) and stateside libero Zoe Winford make up the freshman class.

SWARMING THE NEST
With all 11 matches in O'Keefe Gymnasium for the 2023 season already sold out, the Yellow Jackets have sold out O'Keefe in back-to-back seasons after a program record of 13 sellouts a season ago.

Having built a tradition of playing in front of sold-out crowds with 11 sellouts in 2021, Georgia Tech will have sold out 35 of the last 40 matches on The Flats by the regular season's end.

On top of the sellout crowds, in the White and Gold's first match in McCamish Pavilion in program history in 2022, the Yellow Jackets drew a former record crowd of 3,418. That total already nearly tripled O'Keefe Gymnasium's capacity.

Tech drew a record 5,303 fans for this season's edition of Clean, Old-Fashioned Hate in McCamish Pavilion, more than quadruple O'Keefe's capacity.

TECH IN THE TOURNAMENT
Georgia Tech's selection to the 2022 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship marked the 12th appearance in program history.

The White and Gold made a third straight tournament appearance for the first time since advancing to the Big Dance five consecutive years from 2000-04. The selection also marks the third berth in the Big Dance for the Yellow Jackets under head coach Michelle Collier.

Over the last three seasons the Yellow Jackets have advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament twice (2020, 2022) and to the Elite Eight (2021) to tie the 2003 squad for the best finish in program history.

The Yellow Jackets are now 14-12 all time in the Big Dance.

UP WITH THE WHITE AND GOLD

Coach Michelle Collier is into her 10th season leading the Jackets as the second winningest coach in program history, including 183 victories and 99 in conference play.

She earned her 200th career win in Tech's defeat of Wake Forest last season. For her career as a head coach, Collier owns 223 wins after accumulating 40 wins over her first two seasons as a head coach at Jacksonville.

Collier has racked up her own coaching accolades over the years, earning ACC Coach of the Year in 2019 and AVCA East Coast Region Coach of the Year in 2019 and in 2021.

Collier owns seven winning seasons at Tech coming into 2023, maintaining above a .700 winning percentage in five of those.

Collier also boasts five winning seasons in ACC play excluding 2023, holding a .750 or higher winning percentage in each.

She's owned above a .700 win percentage overall and in ACC play through each of the last four seasons – 2019: 26-8, 14-4 ACC I 2020: 14-5, 13-4 ACC I 2021: 26-6, 14-4 ACC I 2022: 21-8, 13-5 ACC.

Now second in program history in ACC wins (99), Collier is two league wins away from becoming the program's all-time leader in conference wins.

Collier has groomed the Jackets for eight AVCA all-American honors, 17 All-ACC honors and 16 all-region honors. She's also helped eight Jackets land 16 career marks in the top 10 in program history.

As a student-athlete at USF, Collier ranks among the greatest collegiate volleyball players of all-time. She ranks fifth in NCAA Division I history with 2,729 career kills and ranks in the Bulls' top-10 in numerous career and single-season categories. She holds the top spot in USF history in two career categories (kills and digs) and set three single-season marks during the 2000 season. After coming back from an injury that sidelined her in 1999, Collier compiled 760 kills and 6.28 kills per set.
