OPENING TIP

WEDNESDAY'S CONTEST

Florida will play Georgia Tech for their first meeting since 1986. The Gators will be traveling to Atlanta to play in the 2023 ACC/SEC Challenge. The contest is set for 5 p.m. at McCamish Pavillion and can be watched on ACC Network.

THE SERIES

Florida and Georgia Tech have only met once before in their recorded history. The meeting was on Dec. 5 in 1986 and Georgia Tech took the win on neutral grounds. Tech defeated Florida by 10 points in 1986 and set the all-time record at 1-0.

HISTORY

Florida will meet Georgia Tech for the first time in 27 years and aims to tie the series at 1-1.

LAST TIME OUT

Florida's most recent contests were in the Bahamas where the Gators defeated both the Purdue Boiler-makers (52-49), and the Columbia Lions (83-81). In both games, Florida was led in scoring by Aliyah Matharu with 41 points total and led in rebounds by RaShaya Kyle with a combined 16. The Gators had challenging matchups overseas but they came home with an additional two wins to their non-conference record. The highlight of the tournament was a buzzer-beater from Matharu with one second left in the Columbia game to put Florida ahead by two.

FLORIDA STORY LINES

BACK FROM THE BAHAMAS

The Florida women's basketball team is coming back from a successful trip to the Bahamas after securing two wins in the Baha Mar Pink Flamingo Championship. Florida managed to pull out two nail-biters after being down in both contests with one minute or less left on the clock. Florida defeated Purdue from the BIG 10 and Columbia from the Ivy League to come home 2-0 in the tournament and 5-1 in the non-conference.

FLORIDA SEEKS TO TIE THE SERIES

The Florida Gators have only seen Georgia Tech once in their recorded history, making the ACC/SEC Challenge only the second meeting between the two schools. Georgia Tech holds the one win over Florida with a 1-0 series, making the Gators that much hungrier to get the win and tie it up at 1-1.

ALIYAH ON THE ROAD TO 1,000 (977)

Aliyah Matharu has been on an offensive run for the Gators in the first six games of the 2023-24 season. Matharu came to Florida before the start of the 2022-23 Season and had to sit out for a year due to transfer rules. Since getting back on the court to compete, Matharu has been averaging 19.7 points a game, with back to back 20+ scoring games to start the season (11/9, 11/13). Her career high was set at Texas with 27 points during her sophomore year, but she has already come close to surpassing it with a 25 point performance against Bethune-Cookman, and a 26 point game against Columbia. In her six games as a Gator she has grabbed a total of 118 points, when adding those to her total of 859 from years prior, Matharu stands at 977, making her 23 points away from her collegiate milestone of 1,000.

DECEMBER ON THE ROAD

The Gators non-conference schedule is extremely challenging for several reasons, but the end of November and December is a major reason for the difficulty level. Florida women's basketball will be on the road for over a month with their last home game being on Nov. 17 against Florida State and their next matchup in the O'Dome not being until Dec. 30th. This will be 42 days without a home contest, making it one of the longest road stretches the program has seen in years.

BIG SHAY

Ra Shaya "Big Shay" Kyle has proven her dominance under the rim in the 2023-24 season, hitting double figures in scoring in five of the Gators six contests. Big Shay has accumulated 88 points for the Gators, averaging 14.7 a game, and has a season high of 18 points in a single game (vs. Columbia 11/22). Kyle currently holds a 57.1--percent from the field going 36-of-63. On the boards, Big Shay has a total of 53 rebounds--22 offensive, and 31 defensive, averaging 8.8 a game. Kyle is 6th overall in the SEC for rebounding and 15th in scoring.

RHYNE HOWARD RETURNS TO ATL

Rhyn Howard will travel to Atlanta in hopes of grabbing a win on the basketball court, but this time as a coach not a player. Howard plays for the city of Atlanta as a crucial member of the Atlanta Dream WNBA roster and is usually playing at Gateway Center Arena @ College Park. This trip, Howard can be found at McCamish Pavilion where she will be drawing up the plays rather than making them.

REYNOLDS IS PUTTING THE "FRESH" IN FRESHMAN

Laila Reynolds has made five consecutive starts for the Gators, securing 49 points, including a 20-point game against Florida A&M on 11/13. Reynolds currently holds an impressive field goal percentage of 54, going 20-of-37. Defensively, Reynolds has snagged seven steals and 12 defensive rebounds. Overall Reynolds is averaging 8.2 points and four rebounds a game.

SIGNED, SEALED, DELIVERED

Three players have signed their letters of intent to join Florida women's basketball in the fall of 2024. The three signees are: Liv McGill, Me'Arah O'Neal, and Kylee Kitts. McGill was the first to sign with the Gators on Nov. 8, and is coming to Gainesville as the seventh-ranked prospect in the nation. McGill makes program history as the highest ranked recruit and hails from Hopkins High School in Minnesota. Me'Arah O'Neal has also signed with the Gators as the 33rd-ranked recruit in the country and third-best prospect out of Texas. Lastly, guard/forward Kylee Kitts has joined the 2024 signing class and is averaging 13 points, nine rebounds, and two blocks a game. With the addition of these players, Florida's 2024 signing class was ranked 10th in the nation by ESPN.

RHYNE HOWARD x LEI REY

The WNBA and SEC Champion Rhyn Howard, has become a large mentor for the Gators sole freshman and McDonald's All-American, Laila Reynolds. The two have developed a strong mentor-mentee relationship and have connected on their talent, demeanor, and ability to finesse on the court. Howard and Reynolds are often seen playing one-on-one after practice, shooting before games, and sitting together on the Gators bench. Howard has stated, "Laila Reynolds reminds me of myself when I was a freshman. I see a lot of similarities between us and it's cool being able to watch it all from her eyes."

CONFERENCE NOTES

Weekly Honors

• Co-Players of the Week: Madison Scott posted back-to-back double-doubles at the Battle4Atlanta to move to 24 in her career, now sitting ninth overall in Ole Miss history. Against Howard, Scott's 21 points against the Bison tied a career best and her 14 rebounds marked a season-high. Her 21 points and 14 rebounds are the most in a single-game by any Rebel this season. Shooting 9-of-10 against the Bison, Scott's field goal percentage of 90% was the highest by a Rebel in any game with five or more attempts since Scott went a perfect 8-of-8 in December of 2021 at Cincinnati. Recording a double-double the following day against Arizona, Scott earned consecutive double-doubles for the first time since December of 2022. Her efforts on the defensive end allowed Ole Miss to hold Arizona and Michigan under 50 points, the seventh and eighth Power Five opponent the Rebels have held under Scott in during her time in Oxford. She was named MVP of the Battle4Atlanta tournament.

South Carolina's Raven Johnson stuffed the box score last week with near record-setting and career best performances in both games. The redshirt sophomore guard opened the week with a near historic game against in-state archrival Clemson, handing out 17 assists – the most by an SEC player since 2005 and the second-most ever by a Gamecock. She added a career-best eight rebounds to come just shy of a double-double. Twelve of her assists came in the first half – six in each quarter – as the Gamecocks overwhelmed the Tigers with 62 first-half points. On Monday night with the offense struggling, Johnson took over with stifling defense that matched her career high of five steals for the second time in as many games. She scored a career-high 18 points on 69.2 percent shooting while handing out six assists – her fourth straight game of five or more assists.

• Freshman of the Week: Taliah Scott has led the Hogs in scoring in all five games thus far, doing so while averaging nearly a 50 percent field goal percentage with 89 total attempts (43-for-89). Against Little Rock, Scott tallied 18 points in just 29 minutes played. In a hostile environment in Jonesboro vs. Arkansas State, she shined with a career-high 34 points off 12-of-21 shooting and a perfect 9-of-9 from the free throw line. Against the Red Wolves, Scott played in all 40 minutes and finished just shy of the freshman scoring record with her first career 30-piece (record is 37). Scott had 11 of her 34 points in the third quarter at Arkansas State to help the Hogs pull away. Scott finished the week with 17 points, four boards and three assists along with a team-high 35 minutes vs. Central Arkansas. Through five games, the freshman leads the SEC in scoring (24.6), field goal makes (43), field goal attempts (89), free throw makes (33) and free throw attempts (38). Her scoring average is fifth in the NCAA, while she is second in free throw makes and attempts in the country. Scott's 123 points through five games is the fastest a freshman has gotten to 100 points in their collegiate debut season at Arkansas.

HEAD COACH KELLY RAE FINLEY

KELLY RAE FINLEY

Colorado State University, '08 | Edina, Minnesota

After guiding Florida women's basketball to their most successful season since 2016, Kelly Rae Finley was announced as the 11th head coach in school history on Monday, Feb. 28 2023 by Athletic Director Scott Stricklin.

Finley spent the 2021-22 season acting as the interim head coach for the Gators, leading UF to a 20-win season for the first time since the 2015-16 campaign and the 16th time in the history of the program, as well as the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since the same year. Under her command, the Orange & Blue also won 10 Southeastern Conference games for just the fourth time in program history. She was named a Semifinalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year award, in addition to being named the Spalding Maggie Dixon Rookie Coach of the Year by the WBCA.

Securing the fifth-seed in the SEC Tournament, the Gators defeated five ranked opponents for the first time since the 2005-06 season, including five nationally ranked opponent in the SEC for the first time since 2004. A victory of note, Florida earned their largest margin of victory over a top-10 team when they defeated No. 7 Tennessee, 84-59, handing the Lady Vols their worst loss against an unranked squad since the AP Poll debuted in 1976.

Under her continued tutelage, graduate Kiara Smith continued to improve, leading the team this season with 14.9 points, 5.5 rebounds, 4.6 assists and 2.4 steals per game. In SEC play, the District Heights, Md., native averaged 17.4 points, 6.1 rebounds, 5.1 assists and 2.3 steals per game, helping her to two SEC Player of the Week honors during the year. She became the first Florida women's basketball athlete to be drafted into the WNBA since 2017, going to the Connecticut Sun in the third round.

Prior to her time as the interim head coach, Finley held roles as both the associate head coach and assistant coach for the Gators, playing an important role in the development of athletes such as Kiara Smith and Jordyn Merritt. Acting as the main recruiter, Finley played an integral part of rebuilding the roster upon arrival in Gainesville, helping to sign the No. 26 overall recruiting class in the nation in 2019, according to ProspectsNation.

Prior to her time in Florida, Finley recorded stints at Arizona (2016-17), Colorado (2012-16) and Harvard (2009-12). At Arizona, Finley helped to bring in the No. 34 recruiting class in the nation, which included three state players of the year, while also helping Colorado achieve a similar feat with a top-25 nationally-ranked class in 2015.

During her time at Harvard, Finley assisted in the signing of Temitop Fagbenle, the Ivy League's first ever McDonald's All-American and second Olympian.

A Minnesota native, Finley graduated from Colorado State in 2008 where she earned Mountain West Conference Scholar-Athlete honors as a member of the women's basketball team.
