"Better Never Rests"

Kirby Smart is in his eighth year directing the Bulldogs who are 92-15 in this span including back-to-back national championships in 2021 and 2022. This offseason, Georgia took a deep dive on the New Zealand All Blacks, the world's most successful rugby team, or quite frankly, any sports team in history.

Most Consecutive Weeks At No. 1

Georgia has established an SEC record for Most Consecutive Weeks at No. 1 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. The Bulldogs are second all-time at 23 weeks, and this is the longest streak in the College Football Playoff era.

Most Wins By Bulldog Senior Class

The Bulldog senior class collected its 48th win on the road with the latest thrashing at No. 18 Tennessee. This group went 22-0 at home.
1. 49-5 (2022)
2. 48-3 (2023)

#1/1/1 GEORGIA (11-0, 8-0 SEC) @ Georgia Tech (6-5, 5-3 ACC)

Nov. 25, 2023, Bobby Dodd Stadium, Atlanta, Ga. (55,000) @ 7:30 p.m. ET (ABC)

WIN: What's Important Now

Top-ranked Georgia takes aim at a perfect regular season Saturday for the third year in a row under Kirby Smart. The other undefeated regular seasons in Georgia history have been in 1896 (4-0); 1946 (11-0); 1980 (11-0) and 1982 (11-0). With a win over Georgia Tech, the Bulldogs would claim the Governor's Cup Trophy for the sixth straight year. Also, the 2023 Bulldog senior class would tie the school mark for career wins with their 49th as the 2022 group went 49-5. The 2023 class is 48-3. Georgia leads the all-time series 70-39-5 and owns a current five-game winning streak in the series dating to 2017. The teams did not play each other during the 2020 campaign when each played a conference-only schedule. The Bulldogs have won 11 straight in Atlanta as the streak began in 2001.

2022 Flashback: Bulldogs Cap Perfect Regular Season

Georgia defeated Tech 37-14 to cap its second straight perfect 12-0 regular season last year in Athens. Tech led 7-0, and the Bulldogs responded with 37 unanswered points before one last score late in the fourth quarter provided the final. At the time, the Bulldog seniors set a record with their 46th win to become the winningest class in program history. Georgia would add three more victories including an SEC crown and second straight CFP title as the Class of 2022 finished 49-5.

About The Yellow Jackets

The Yellow Jackets (6-5, 5-3 ACC), coached by Brent Key, defeated Syracuse 31-22 in its ACC finale Saturday night to become bowl eligible for the first time since 2018. They have won three of their last four games. Up next, it is the top-ranked Bulldogs at Bobby Dodd Stadium at Hyundai Field Saturday at 7:30 p.m. (ABC). The last primetime kickoff for this matchup was 2010 in Athens (42-34 Bulldog win), and this will be the first one in Atlanta since 2009 (30-24 Georgia victory). Tech is averaging 31.9 points per game while allowing 30.5 ppg. They rank third in the ACC in rushing at 196.4 ypg and fourth in total offense at 435.1 ypg with redshirt sophomore QB Haynes King at the controls. King has thrown 26 TD passes and 15 INTs with a 62.3 completion percentage. He has rushed for seven TDs too. Jamal Haynes leads the team in rushing with 850 yards on 141 attempts with seven TDs. Tech has wins over No. 17 North Carolina in Atlanta and No. 17 Miami on the road this year while it fell to No. 17 Ole Miss in Oxford back in September.

Balance Signals Success

The Bulldogs are one of only two teams in the country who are ranked in the top 10 in both Scoring Offense and Scoring Defense. The Bulldogs rank fifth in Scoring Defense at 15.1 ppg and in Scoring Offense at 40.4 ppg. The other two team is Oregon, who ranks ninth in Scoring Defense (16.7) and second in Scoring Offense (46.5).

One of the keys to Georgia's success is its third down defense. The Bulldogs are ranked fourth nationally with opponents converting just 27 percent of the time. In SEC action, Georgia opponents are a combined 28-for-95 on third downs (29 percent). The Bulldogs lead the country in converting third downs (57 percent). Georgia has converted 56 of 99 third downs (57 percent) against league opponents.

Bulldogs Again Among The Leaders In Scoring Defense

Since the arrival of Kirby Smart in 2016, the Bulldogs have featured talented defenses and twice led the nation in Scoring Defense. This season, Georgia is ranked fifth nationally allowing 15.1 points/game.

Polling Place

At 11-0, the Bulldogs are in the No. 1 spot in the Associated Press Top 25. In fact, the Bulldogs have the longest active run of top-10 rankings now with 46.

* Georgia was the No. 1 ranked team in the 2023 AP preseason Top 25. The Bulldogs became the first team besides Alabama or Clemson to be preseason ranked No. 1 since Ohio State in 2015. The only other time the Bulldogs have been preseason ranked No. 1 in the AP poll came in 2008.

* The Bulldogs' 23-week streak of No. 1 ranked appearances is second best all-time in NCAA history.

* Georgia started the 2021 season ranked No. 5 and went on to win its first national title since 1980. The Bulldogs followed up with a perfect season in 2022 after starting in the No. 3 spot in the preseason poll.

* Since the AP preseason poll started in 1950, there have been 11 teams that started No. 1 that also finished No. 1. However, only two of those have occurred since 2000: Southern California (2004) and Alabama (2017). And in case you haven't heard, no team has won three straight national titles during the AP poll era (dating to 1936). Minnesota's 1934 and 1935 squads went 8-0 and were named the best team in the nation by eight different organizations. Then, the 1936 club went 7-1 and was crowned the first official AP champion plus seven other organizations declared them national champions too.

* Overall, Georgia has been ranked in the AP top 25 for 111 consecutive weeks and that ranks third among active streaks.

* UGA remains No. 1 in the US LBM Coaches Poll and also the FWAA Super 16 Poll where it began 2023.

Academic & Community Service Highlights In The Smart Era

* The University of Georgia checked in at No. 16 in U.S. News & World Report's 2023 ranking of the best public universities in the nation, marking the seventh consecutive year that UGA has placed in the top 20. Georgia is one of only two SEC institutions to rank among the top 20.

* In 2022, two-time All-America tight end Brock Bowers was named an Academic All-American.

* Overall, Georgia has had 199 players make the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the Kirby Smart era including a high of 35 on the 2021 national championship team.

* Under Smart, 13 Bulldogs have been named National Football Foundation (NFF) Hampshire Society Members. The society is comprised of football players from all divisions who maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.2 or better throughout their career, were starters or significant contributors and have completed their final year of playing eligibility. The most recent members are Ladd McConkey, Jack Podlesny and Payne Walker in 2023.

* McConkey became the 15th Bulldog since 1966 to be named a Campbell Trophy finalist and NFF National Scholar-Athlete Award winner. He will receive an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship and will be honored at a banquet in Las Vegas on Dec. 5. Georgia leads the SEC and is tied for sixth nationally with its 15 honorees.

* In the area community service, McConkey recently became the 23rd Bulldog since 1992 to earn a spot on the AFCA Good Works Team, which honors 22 men annually. Since 2016, the Bulldogs have had seven, including Kearis Jackson in 2022, and Georgia's 23 recipients leads the nation.

* A large number of the 2023 squad participated in the Chick-fil-A Dawg Bowl in October, which was a fundraiser led by former Bulldog head coach Mark Richt to raise money and awareness for Parkinson's and Crohn's diseases. The event raised more than $750,000.

* Former Bulldog defensive lineman Travon Walker, who was the No. 1 overall draft pick in 2022 (Jacksonville) recently donated $44,000 to the UGA Athletic Association with the money earmarked for athletic training. It was a part of a series of donations made by his foundation.

* Former All-American and NFL linebacker Jarvis Jones, who currently serves as UGA football's Player Connection Coordinator, is one of three former Bulldog greats selected to the 2023 Athletic Association's Circle of Honor Class. It is the highest honor a Bulldog can receive.

* NFL veteran offensive lineman Fernando Velasco (UGA 2003-07), who served as an Assistant Director of Player Development for UGA from 2017-19, was named to UGA's 40 Under 40 Class of 2023. Currently, he is Director of Player Development for the Atlanta Falcons.

* In September of 2020, it was announced that Kirby and Mary Beth Smart contributed $1 million to UGA to go towards the Athletic Association's new social justice program, scholarships for senior athletes whose seasons were affected by the pandemic and the expansion of the football program.

We're No. 1 When We're Not 2 Or 3

Georgia began the 2023 campaign where it ended the past two seasons -- ranked No. 1. The Bulldogs have been ranked No. 1 by the Associated Press and USA Today Coaches Poll since Oct. 9, 2022.

However in the first CFP rankings last year (Nov. 1), Georgia came in at No. 3 when it played host to CFP No. 1 Tennessee. The Bulldogs beat the Vols 27-13 and moved to the top spot in the CFP rankings the rest of the season. In the first two CFP rankings of 2023, Georgia was No. 2 but has since returned to No. 1.

During the 2021 campaign, the Bulldogs were No. 1 in the first five CFP rankings before finishing at No. 3 in the final following the SEC Championship Game. The Bulldogs would go on to beat No. 2 Michigan and No. 1 Alabama for its first CFP title.

The only other time Georgia began a season ranked No. 1 was in 2008. The Bulldogs finished 10-3 that year and ranked No. 13 in the AP and No. 10 by the coaches.

Mascot: Uga XI, a.k.a "Boom"

Following the retirement of Uga X, 10-month-old puppy "Boom" assumed the vaunted role of Georgia's on-field mascot during the annual "G Day" spring game last April. During a pre-game ceremony, UGA president Jere W. Morehead joined J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks and his son, Davis, in the collaring of Boom. Then, Boom made a successful debut in the 2023 opener. Boom is 11-0 after the Bulldogs ripped through No. 18 Tennessee 38-10 on the road last Saturday.

Boom is the 11th solid white English Bulldog to serve as Georgia's mascot since the line began in 1956 courtesy of the Seiler family of Savannah, Ga. Uga X, a.k.a. "Que" served from 2015-22 and posted a record of 91-18, retiring as the winningest mascot in program history.

The patriarch of the Seiler family, Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler, passed away at his home in Savannah at the age of 90 on Aug. 28. The Bulldogs honored Seiler with a moment of silence and a tribute video before the season opener against UT Martin.

No. 1 GEORGIA 48, UT MARTIN 7

ATHENS, Ga. – Two-time defending national champion Georgia opened its 2023 season by rolling past UT Martin, 48-7, in front of a sold-out crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an SEC+ television audience.

Georgia finished with 559 yards of offense while the defense repeatedly stuffed UT Martin, holding it to 260 total yards. Making his first start, quarterback Carson Beck completed 21 of 31 passes for 294 yards and threw a 54-yard touchdown. He also ran for a four-yard TD late in the second quarter. Beck's top target was tight end Brock Bowers, who finished with five catches for 77 yards and scored on a three-yard run.

The Bulldogs' first points came on Bowers' run, a jet sweep to the right side. Kicker Peyton Woodring made his Bulldog debut on the point-after attempt, putting Georgia up 7-0 with 3:40 remaining in the first quarter.

Georgia's next points didn't come until the 4:29 mark of the second quarter when Beck ran the ball in from the 4. Later in the quarter, Woodring connected on a 23-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead at the half.

Midway through the third quarter, Beck threw a short pass to redshirt sophomore receiver Mekhi Mews who turned it into a 54-yard touchdown and a 24-0 lead with 8:29 left in the quarter.

Georgia's next touchdown was set up by a 47-yard completion to redshirt freshman wideout C.J. Smith up the left side and a 25-yarder to Mews. Freshman running back Roderick Robinson finished the drive with a two-yard touchdown for a 31-0 lead with 5:35 left in the third.

Backup quarterback Brock Vandagriff provided some fourth-quarter fireworks when he connected with junior wideout Rara Thomas for a 56-yard gain. On the next play, Vandagriff found tight end Oscar Delp for a 21-yard touchdown that made it 38-0 with 11:36 remaining.

After Woodring made it 41-7 Bulldogs with a 33-yard field goal with 2:09 to play, Georgia's final points came from the defense when freshman STAR Byron Jones intercepted a pass and returned it 26 yards for a touchdown with 1:59 remaining.

The win was the Bulldogs' 18th in a row overall, 19th in a row on Dooley Field, and Georgia tied the school record for regular-season wins in a row with its 28th, matching the great run of the 1981-83 teams.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"You talk about decision-making, (quarterback Carson Beck) did exactly what he did all camp. He didn't put us in bad situations, he made good decisions, he didn't throw it to the other team, he didn't fumble it. He did some really good things. We have to execute better around him and we have to have some guys make some plays and make some guys miss. That's what we missed early, but when we got on rhythm and starting doing our offense, we did some pretty good things."

Mekhi Mews had a game-high 125 all-purpose yards against UT Martin, including 54 on a TD reception in the third quarter.

No. 1 GEORGIA 45, BALL STATE 3

Sept. 9, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Six different players scored touchdowns, the defense intercepted three passes and Mekhi Mews returned a punt 69 yards for a score in top-ranked Georgia's 45-3 win over Ball State, in front of a Sanford Stadium sell-out crowd of 92,746 and a SEC Network television audience.

After a scoreless opening quarter, the Bulldogs put 31 on the scoreboard in the second to blow open the game. On the third play of the second period, Mews caught a low, line-drive punt, scooted to his right and went untouched on a 69-yard return for a touchdown.

Georgia's defense made the next big play in the game when safety Malaki Starks intercepted a deep ball up the left side. The Bulldog offense took full advantage of the turnover, scoring on a 7-yard pass from Beck to Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint on third-and-goal.

Less than a minute later, linebacker Chaz Chambliss snagged a deflected pass and pulled in his first career interception. Two plays later, wideout Dillon Bell, lined up in the backfield, took a handoff, cut to the outside and sprinted into the end zone for a 21-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead.

After the defense got another quick stop, the offense worked its way down the field before eventually settling for a 35-yard Peyton Woodring field goal, making it 24-0 with 1:49 on the clock.

Just eight seconds later, STAR Tykee Smith intercepted a pass broken up by Daylen Everette. The Bulldogs turned the takeaway into another touchdown when running back Kendall Milton went over the top from the 1, pushing Georgia ahead 31-0 with 37 seconds left until halftime.

The Bulldogs' fifth touchdown of the day was a 27-yard strike into the back right corner of the end zone from Beck to running back Cash Jones.

Georgia's defense got a stop on fourth-and-1 inside UGA territory late in the third quarter. On the first play of the ensuing drive, running back Roderick Robinson went right for 14 yards. That was followed by a 41-yard completion from Beck to tight end Oscar Delp. On first down on the 12, Robinson scooted in for an easy score with 46 seconds left in the third.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"You're always looking for something, Defense turns to offense. It's like basketball, when you play good defense, you get transition offense. When you play good defense and special teams, you can transition that to offense. We started getting momentum there as the defense got stops and then eventually we got them into a long-yardage situation and we were able to return the punt (for a touchdown). That gave the crowd some juice and our players some juice."

Tykee Smith collected Georgia's third interception late in the first half, leading to the Bulldogs' fourth TD of the second quarter.

I told them at halftime, 'Look guys, it's going to happen very simply: one moment at a time.' And they believed it. They kept saying 'one moment, one moment, one moment.' We gained so much momentum in the second half thanks to our fans and thanks to our players making some plays."

No. 1 GEORGIA 27, AUBURN 20

Sept. 30, 2023 • Jordan-Hare Stadium • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN, Ala. – In its first road contest of the season, the top-ranked Georgia football team came from behind to defeat Auburn, 27-20, Saturday afternoon before 88,043 spectators at Jordan-Hare Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Quarterback Carson Beck finished 23-for-33 for 313 yards and one touchdown. Tight end Brock Bowers led all receivers with eight catches for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for the game-winning score, while running back Daijun Edwards rushed 19 times for a team-high 76 yards and two touchdowns. Linebacker Smael Mondon, Jr. tied his career high with 11 tackles, including seven solo stops and two tackles for loss.

The Tigers struck first with a 27-yard field goal that was set up by quarterback Payton Thorne's 61-yard run to the Georgia 30. Auburn then converted a Beck interception into points, taking a 10-0 lead on Jarquez Hunter's 5-yard touchdown run.

Georgia answered back on the ensuing drive, capping an 11-play drive with a 2-yard Edwards run for a touchdown. On their next drive, the Bulldogs drove into red zone before kicker Peyton Woodring connected from 37 yards out to tie the game at 10 with 5:57 to go before halftime.

Auburn produced its second turnover of the game seconds into the third quarter, forcing a by tight end Oscar Delp. The Tigers started at the UGA 32-yard line and scored soon after on a 9-yard run by backup QB Robby Ashford, putting Auburn up 17-10.

Later in the third, after a 71-yard Auburn punt was downed at the 2, the Bulldogs marched 98 yards for a touchdown. Edwards ran for 16 yards to give Georgia some breathing room, and then scored on a 13-yard run to make it 17-17 with 1:03 left in the quarter.

After completions of 37 and 28 yards to Bowers moved the ball into Auburn territory, Woodring gave Georgia its first lead, 20-17, on a 38-yard field goal with 10:57 left in the game. Auburn later drew even on a 42-yard kick by Alex McPherson with 6:21 remaining.

Georgia took the lead for good, 27-20, when Beck hit Bowers for a 40-yard touchdown pass with 2:52 left in the game.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"They are resilient as hell and competed. The leadership of this team has shown twice. You don't know how many times you are going to be able to do that when you turn the ball over and give people extra possessions. You just can't do that. Good football teams don't do that, and good football teams don't let people run the ball on them for 200 yards. That is one of the things we knew they would do well. I thought they really ran the ball well, and they used the quarterback and rushed the ball on us. We can't do that. We have to run the ball better, too. But, proud of the way the guys fought."

Tight end Brock Bowers caught eight passes for a career-high 157 yards, including a 40-yarder for a touchdown in the fourth quarter.

No. 1 GEORGIA 51, No. 20 KENTUCKY 13

Oct. 7, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Carson Beck threw for a career-high 389 yards and four touchdowns, the Georgia defense shut down what had been a prolific rushing attack, and the top-ranked Bulldogs won a battle of unbeaten, 51-13, against No. 20 Kentucky on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and a national television audience on ESPN.

With the victory, Georgia (6-0, 3-0 SEC) extended its overall winning streak to 23 games. In addition, it was the Bulldogs' 33rd straight regular-season win, its 22nd straight SEC regular-season win, and it was the team's 23rd win in a row on Dooley Field.

Kentucky (5-1, 2-1) came in fresh off a 33-14 rout of Florida last week in which the Wildcats ran for 329 yards. But the Bulldogs held the Wildcats to 55 yards on the ground and 183 yards of total offense.

Georgia's offense, meanwhile, scored on every possession in the first half, including three straight touchdowns to start the game. The Bulldogs finished with 608 yards for the game, with Beck completing 28 of 35 passes.

Tight end Brock Bowers had seven receptions for 132 yards — his third straight 100-yard game — and a touchdown. Running back Daijun Edwards was productive as a runner and receiver, combining for 105 yards.

On Georgia's first drive, Beck completed all four of his passes, starting with a 7-yard screen to Edwards on first down and ending with a 40-yard completion to wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint to make it 7-0 with 11:26 to play in the quarter.

After the defense forced the first of eight Kentucky punts, Beck kept hitting his receivers, including a 25-yarder to Bowers. Later, Beck hit Rara Thomas in the front left corner of the end zone for a 15-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead with 4:25 remaining in the first.

After another Georgia stop, the Bulldogs got the ball at their 5. A 12-play, 95-yard drive followed, ending with a short touchdown pass to tight end Oscar Delp to make it 21-0. Kentucky scored on its next drive, but Georgia didn't let the Wildcats make it a game. A 36-yard Peyton Woodring field goal made it 24-7 Bulldogs, and soon after, Kendall Milton's 5-yard touchdown run made it 31-7 with 61 seconds left in the half.

Kentucky tried to get aggressive in the final minute, but it backfired. Georgia's defense forced a quick punt and Woodring drilled a 42-yard field goal as the half expired, sending UGA to the locker room up 34-7.

In the second half, Georgia got a 32-yard field goal from Woodring, a 21-yard touchdown catch from Bowers and a 7-yard touchdown catch from Andrew Paul.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was an electric crowd and it energized our players. Our players started fast, finally, and that was great to get a start-fast game. We challenged them all week to have a connected physicality. We really wanted to be connected because we felt like we could be more physical if we were together. We talked all week about mass and acceleration equal force. We wanted to have a lot of mass and a lot of acceleration."

Wide receiver Rara Thomas had five catches for 63 yards, including this 15-yarder for a touchdown.

No. 1 GEORGIA 37, VANDERBILT 20

Oct. 14, 2023 • FirstBank Stadium • Nashville, Tenn.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The top-ranked Georgia football team got three field goals from kicker Peyton Woodring and ran for 281 yards in the Bulldogs' 37-20 win over Vanderbilt on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 28,500 at FirstBank Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

Carson Beck completed 29 of 39 passes for 261 yards and a touchdown, while Daijun Edwards ran for a career-high 146 yards and helped seal the win with a 1-yard score with 3:13 left in the game.

Vanderbilt struck first, scoring on a 49-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Ken Seals to wideout London Humphreys with 12:07 left in the first.

Georgia escaped trouble on its next drive when center Sedrick Van Pran picked up a botched handoff on third-and-1 and ran for 6 yards and a first down. Beck later scored on a 1-yard plunge to make it 7-7.

Georgia's defense forced a Vandy punt on the ensuing drive, and the Bulldog offense went 77 yards for a touchdown and the lead. Beck connected with wideout Ladd McConkey on completions of 31 and 13 yards to move the ball into Vandy territory, and Milton later finished off the drive with a 3-yard run to make it 14-7.

The Bulldogs added to their lead late in the second quarter with Woodring's 31-yard field, making it 17-7 with 3:49 left in the half. Woodring later added a career-long 44-yarder and a 30-yarder.

In the final minute of the first half, after a Tykee Smith interception, Georgia went after more points. Two long completions moved the ball to the 5 with 19 seconds left. Two plays later, Beck and Dominic Lovett connected on a 4-yard touchdown, pushing the Bulldog lead to 24-7.

Vandy cut the Bulldog lead to 27-14 on the first play of the fourth quarter, scoring on a 3-yard pass from Seals to receiver Richie Hoskins. Woodring's 30-yarder made it 30-14 with 9:05 left in the game.

The Commodores' CJ Taylor intercepted Beck with 6:17 to go in the game and returned the ball to the Bulldog 1. On the next play, Sedrick Alexander scored to cut Georgia's lead to 30-20.

Edwards ran the ball all five plays, including a 62-yarder down to the 6-yard line, on Georgia's final scoring drive.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Once again, we come to Nashville and it feels like a home game. We had a lot of UGA red in the stands. When we came out for warmups, it was not as crowded, and then when we came out for the main part of the game, there was a sea of red there as we came across the field — and a lot of red on their side — so I was really appreciative of our fans making it like a home game. And I'm really proud of our players being really resilient and fighting through some turnovers, some adversity, some sloppy play, some injuries. But at the end of the day, they responded and they got up to play on the road in the SEC, so I'm proud of them for that."

Linebacker Smael Mondon brings down Vandy quarterback Ken Seals during the Bulldogs' 37-20 win. Mondon led UGA with 6 stops.

Cochair Kirby Smart said...

"I think this team's improving and getting better. We're still not where we need to be. I was certainly proud of the competitors that went out and fought today for our university, and continue to do that. I was proud of our fans; they supported us even though we didn't start the way we wanted to. But we responded and played well. We were able to control the line of scrimmage, which ultimately is the difference in this conference. If you can win the line of scrimmage, you've got a chance."

Ladd McConkey led Georgia's receivers with six receptions for 135 yards, including a 41-yard touchdown.

No. 2 GEORGIA 30, No. 12 MISSOURI 21

Nov. 4, 2023 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. — Georgia got a fourth-quarter interception from a 320-pound senior defensive lineman and a career-long 48-yard field goal by a freshman to help the Bulldogs pull out 30-21 win in front of 92,746 spectators at Sanford Stadium and a CBS national television audience.

The Bulldogs, ranked No. 1 in the polls all season but No. 2 in the first College Football Playoff rankings, had to battle against the Tigers, ranked No. 12, to stay undefeated. It was a 27-21 game when Nazir Stackhouse got the pivotal interception with 7:46 left. A few minutes later, Peyton Woodring made it 30-21 with the 48-yarder with 3:57 remaining.

The Bulldogs got the ball first and took a 3-0 lead on Woodring's 33-yard field goal. Missouri drove for a touchdown on its first drive, taking a 7-3 lead with 5:45 left in the quarter on Brady Cook's 39-yard TD pass to Luther Burden.

After a very quick opening quarter, Georgia started the second with a first down at the Mizzou 8-yard line after a 12-yard run by Daijun Edwards and a 13-yarder by Kendall Milton. On third-and-goal from the 6, Carson Beck fired a quick screen left to Dominic Lovett who scampered into the end zone for a 10-7 UGA lead.

Missouri tied the game with 4:14 remaining in the half on Harrison Mevis' 38-yard field goal, and it was 10-10 at the half. Mizzou got the ball to start the third and drove down to the Bulldog 15. Georgia was able to get a couple of stops — including a third-down sack by Tykee Smith — and hold the Tigers to a 42-yard field goal, putting Missouri ahead 13-10.

Georgia responded on its next drive, regaining the lead, 17-13, when Milton ran around the right side for a 15-yard touchdown. After a defensive stop, Georgia drove for a touchdown to push its lead to 24-13 with 38 seconds left in the third. Beck found Oscar Delp in the middle of the end zone for a 5-yard touchdown and an 11-point lead.

Missouri scored a touchdown on a 12-yard Cody Schrader run to the left side, and then converted a 2-point attempt to make it 24-21 with 12:50 remaining in the game. Georgia went up 27-21 with a Woodring 30-yard field goal with 8:59 to go.

Missouri was moving the ball on its next drive when Stackhouse stepped in front of a Cook pass for an interception. It was the first turnover of the game, and it came at a pivotal moment, with 7:46 remaining. It was also the first interception of Stackhouse's entire football career.

Georgia pushed its lead to 30-21 on Woodring's 48-yard field goal, making it a two-score game with 3:57 left on the clock. Bullard's interception ended Missouri's final drive.

Cochair Kirby Smart said...

"(The Tigers) have a really good defense. They have big defensive guys up front. They played really hard and physical. They do a great job with their defensive packages. I thought they controlled our run game more than anybody has in the last couple of weeks and that frustrated us. Luckily, we have a good enough passing arsenal where we can throw it around some."

Defensive lineman Nazir Stackhouse's fourth-quarter interception helped seal the 30-21 win for the Bulldogs.

GEORGIA 52, OLE MISS 17

ATHENS, Ga. — The Georgia football team wrapped up its home schedule in emphatic fashion in front of a sellout crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium and an ESPN national television audience. The No. 2 Bulldogs piled up more than 600 yards of offense in a dominating 52-17 win over No. 9 Ole Miss in a matchup of top-10 teams. It was the Bulldogs' 27th consecutive victory and their 25th win in a row on Dooley Field.

Georgia quarterback Carson Beck threw for 306 yards and two touchdowns, while Kendall Milton ran for a career-high 127 yards and two touchdowns on just nine carries. The Bulldog offense didn't face a third down until late in the second quarter, rushed for 311 yards, and out-gained Ole Miss 610-352.

Ole Miss took a 7-0 lead on the opening drive when Quinshon Judkins ran the ball in from the Georgia 15-yard line. The Bulldogs answered quickly, going 75 yards in six plays and tying the game on Daijun Edwards' 1-yard run with 7:28 left in the first quarter.

Georgia's defense forced a turnover on downs on Ole Miss' next drive, stopping the Rebels on fourth-and-3 at the Bulldog 40. On first down of the Bulldogs' drive, Edwards gained nine yards. On the next play, he broke free for 22 yards, to the Ole Miss 29. On the next play, Beck hit wideout Ladd McConkey for a 29-yard touchdown and a 14-7 lead with 3:09 left in the quarter.

Early in the second, Ole Miss capped a 75-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown run by Judkins, tying the game at 14. Georgia, again, answered quickly, capping its 75-yard drive with a one-yard Edwards run that put the Bulldogs up 21-14 with 9:58 to play in the half. The drive was highlighted by a seven-yard reception by tight end Brock Bowers, his first catch after missing the previous two games with an ankle injury, and a 41-yard reception by McConkey down to the 2.

Georgia's defense forced an Ole Miss three-and-out, getting a 10-yard sack and stuffing two runs for no gain, and the offense took over at its 38 after a Rebel punt. On first down, Beck found Bowers for a 19-yard gain. Later, Beck connected with Edwards for 14, and Kendall Milton capped the drive with a seven-yard touchdown run, pushing the lead to 28-14 with 2:27 to play in the half.

Georgia took a 35-14 lead with 9:15 left in the third on a 33-yard touchdown run by Milton. Kicker Peyton Woodring added to the Bulldog lead with 3:50 to go in the third, booting a 27-yard field goal to make it 38-14. Less than a minute into the fourth quarter, Beck found Bowers for an eight-yard touchdown and a 45-14 lead. Running back Andrew Paul scored a four-yard touchdown with 4:12 remaining to give the Bulldogs a 52-17 lead.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We have good players on offense and good coaches. That combination is hard. We have pass protectors and run blockers, and the backs I thought ran really hard tonight. Carson (Beck) put us in the right place. Number 19 (Bowers) and No. 84 (McConkey) are really tough to deal with. Dom (Lovett) and Rara (Thomas) did some good things. It's a cumulative effect. I'd hate to be on that defensive side trying to stop those guys."

Running back Kendall Milton rushed for a career-high 127 yards and two touchdowns against the Rebels.

No. 1 GEORGIA 38, No. 18 TENNESSEE 10

Nov. 18, 2023 • Neyland Stadium • Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Carson Beck threw three touchdown passes, wide receiver Dillon Bell caught one and threw one, and the No. 1-ranked Georgia football team rolled to a 38-10 win over No. 18 Tennessee on Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 101,915 at Neyland Stadium.

Georgia was behind 7-0 in the blink of an eye after the Volunteers scored on the first play from scrimmage. But the Bulldogs answered with 24 straight points to take control of the game. Georgia outgained the Vols 472-277, with Beck completing 24 of 30 passes for 298 yards. Defensive back Tykee Smith led a strong defensive effort with 10 tackles.

The Bulldog passing attack was effective throughout, with Bell, wideout Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and tight end Brock Bowers combining for 19 receptions. Rosemy-Jacksaint had career-highs with seven catches and two touchdowns; Bell tied a career-high with five receptions, for a career-best 90 yards and a score; and Bowers caught seven passes for 60 yards and a touchdown.

Tennessee jumped out to a 7-0 lead with a 75-yard touchdown run by Jaylen Wright on the first play of the game. The Bulldogs responded with an 11-play drive that ended in a 42-yard Peyton Woodring field goal, making it 7-3 with 10:01 to play in the first quarter.

After a quick defensive stop, Georgia took the lead, 10-7, on the ensuing drive when Beck pitched right to Bell, who lined up in the backfield, and Bell threw an 18-yard pass to Rosemy-Jacksaint all alone in the end zone.

Georgia pushed its lead to 17-7 with 8:04 left in the half on Beck's nine-yard touchdown pass to Bell on the right side. The drive began with a 17-yard completion to Bell on the left side. A 21-yard Bowers reception later moved the ball down to the Tennessee 11.

Late in the half, Beck found Bowers on the right side for a 3-yard touchdown and a 24-7 lead with 1:31 left in the half. Tennessee drew a little closer on the final play of the half with Charles Campbell's 37-yard field goal as time expired, cutting the Bulldog lead to 24-10 at the break.

On its second drive of the third quarter, Georgia found the end zone for the fourth time in the game. On the first play, wideout Arian Smith took an end-around run 33 yards to the Tennessee 37. Later, Beck hit a crossing Bell for a 24-yard gain to the 10. And two plays after that, Beck connected with Rosemy-Jacksaint for an eight-yard touchdown and a 31-10 lead with 9:24 left in the third.

A 15-yard Kendall Milton touchdown run with 1:03 left in the third pushed the Bulldog lead to 38-10. Milton had 66 yards on 14 carries, and Georgia finished with 156 yards on the ground.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I really believe our culture is our difference. Everybody will say it's players. I just don't think that it's just players. We have good players, really good players, but I think there's a lot to our culture that kids buy into, and they stay levelheaded. They're not talking about the (win) streak. They're not worried about the streak. Like I said, it's going to end and we're going to start a new one. For right now, they just keep getting better."

Dillon Bell not only tied a career-high with five receptions, for a career-best 90 yards and a touchdown, he also threw a TD pass.

Worth Noting

- With the win, Georgia completes a third straight undefeated run through SEC play. It's the first time that's happened in the league since the Bulldogs did it from 1980-82. The win also extended Georgia's school-record win streak to 28 games, tying it for the longest in SEC history.
- Despite once again giving up a touchdown on the opponent's opening drive, Georgia's defense had a stellar game. Aside from the 75-yard rushing touchdown it allowed on the Vols' first play, Georgia held Tennessee to just a field goal and 202 yards of offense the rest of the way. Tykee Smith led the defense with 10 tackles and the Bulldogs had seven players with at least three stops each.
- Wide receiver Dillon Bell had the best game of his Georgia career in the win over Tennessee. He tied a career high with five catches, he had a career-best 90 receiving yards and a touchdown, and he threw an 18-yard touchdown pass on a trick play. It was Georgia's first touchdown pass by a non-quarterback since RB Kenny McIntosh threw one in 2021.
- Quarterback Carson Beck is on pace to smash the school record for completion percentage in a season. Stetson Bennett set the mark last season when he completed 68.3% of his passes. Through 11 games, Beck, at 255 of 350, is connecting on 72.9% of his throws.
- The captains against Tennessee were wide receiver Ladd McConkey, offensive lineman Tate Ratledge, defensive lineman Zion Logue and linebacker Smael Mondon Jr. The Bulldogs won the coin toss and elected to defer to the second half.
