TECH GOLF NOTEBOOK / 2022-23 REVIEW

Jackets Are NCAA Championship Runner-up

Georgia Tech saved its best for last but come up just shy of winning the first NCAA Championship in program history.

The Yellow Jackets put together the best post-season run in their history, winning the Atlantic Coast Conference championship for the 19th time, winning the NCAA Salem Regional with a school-record score, and then advanced to match play at the NCAA Championship for the fifth time, tying for fifth place in the stroke-play portion of the championship.

From there, Tech captured dramatic 3-2 victories over No. 3 seed Pepperdine and top-seeded North Carolina before falling to No. 2 seed Florida, 3-1, in the championship match.

Head coach Bruce Heppler's 28th Tech team competed in the NCAA Championship finals for the 33rd time in program history, and ended up as the runner-up for the fifth time.

The Yellow Jackets returned four starters from a team that tied for 12th in the 2022 NCAA Championship, and three from the unit that finished 15th in 2021.

Senior Ross Steelman led the individual race after 18, 36 and 54 holes, but also ended up shy, finishing one stroke behind the Gators' Fred Biondi. Another senior, Connor Howe, put together the best championship performance of his five-year career on The Flats, tying for 29th place, while senior Bartley Forrester, junior Christo Lamprecht and freshman Hiroshi Tai all finished among the top 60 individually.

The Yellow Jackets came in at No. 6 in Golfstat's final ranking, and No. 4 in the Golfweek/Sagarin Index, the 19th time in the last 23 years that Tech finished the spring with a top-10 ranking.

All five Tech starters listed among the top 100 in at least one of the national rankings. Lamprecht (No. 7) and Steelman (No. 5) finished as Tech's top two players in the Golfstat rankings, while Lamprecht rated No. 6 and Steelman No. 8 in the Golfweek/Sagarin Index. Howe was listed among the top 40 in both rankings (No. 33 in Golfstat, No. 38 Golfweek/Sagarin). Forrester was No. 80 in Golfstat, while Tai was No. 92 in the Sagarin Index.

How Tech Got Here

Tech entered the NCAA Championship seeded No. 11, winning the ACC Championship after winning the stroke-play portion by 16 shots, then defeating Duke and Wake Forest at match play. Tech then won the NCAA Salem Regional with a program-record score of 53-under-par, overtaking Arkansas on the final day to win by eight strokes.

Head coach Bruce Heppler fielded the same starting lineup that has competed in each of the Jackets' events this spring, including All-ACC honorees Connor Howe, Christo Lamprecht and Ross Steelman.

Lamprecht, a 6-8 junior from South Africa who was a finalist for the Fred Haskins Award and was the top-ranked player in the International team for the 2023 Palmer Cup, won the Inverness Invitational in the fall and has finished in the top 10 in each of Tech's six spring events, including a third-place finish at the NCAA Salem Regional and a ninth-place finish at the ACC Championship.

Howe, a fifth-year senior from Ogden, Utah, recorded top-10 finishes in Tech's last four events (Linger Longer Invitational, The Goodwin, ACC Championship, NCAA Salem Regional). Steelman, a senior from Columbia, Mo., finished in the top 10 in six of the eight tournaments in which he has competed this year, including five this spring. Steelman delivered the deciding point in each of Tech's ACC Championship matches against Duke and Wake Forest, and tied for 11th in stroke play at both the ACC and NCAA regional.

Freshman Hiroshi Tai (Singapore), a two-time winner in the fall (Maui Jim, Golf Club of Georgia), posted two top-10 finishes in the spring, including a runner-up finish in medal play at the ACC Championship, where he lost a three-hole playoff to Michael Brennan of Wake Forest. Senior Bartley Forrester (Gainesville, Ga.), who tied for 14th at Watersound and 11th at The Goodwin, completed the starting five.

Sophomore Benjamin Reuter (Naarden, The Netherlands), who competed in five events and had a pair of top-10 finishes, was the Yellow Jackets' alternate player throughout.

Three Jackets Named to All-America Teams

Christo Lamprecht, Ross Steelman and Connor Howe were named to All-America teams announced by both the Golf Coaches Association of America and Golfweek magazine.

Lamprecht made the first team by both organizations, while Steelman was a first-team selection by Golfweek and a second-team honoree by the GCAA. Howe was listed honorable mention by both.

It is the first time since 2011 that three Yellow Jackets have been named and two were listed on the first team.

Ranked No. 7 nationally by Golfstat and No. 6 in the Golfweek/Sagarin Index, Lamprecht had a victory and three runner-up finishes in 2022-23. The junior from George, South Africa won the Inverness Intercollegiate in the fall, and in the spring finished second at the Watersound Invitational, the Linger Longer Invitational and The Goodwin. He was the team's highest finisher in six of 11 stroke play events, and his 69.44 stroke average was one-hundredth of a stroke behind the Tech record of 69.43 set by Bryce Molder in 2000-01.

Steelman was the NCAA Championship individual runner-up at Grayhawk Golf Club in Scottsdale, Ariz., and finished the spring No. 5 in the Golfstat individual ranking and No. 8 in the Golfweek/Sagarin Index. The Columbia, Mo., native finished 12th or higher in his final eight events in 2022-23 and delivered the clinching points for Georgia Tech in both of its ACC championship matches and its NCAA semifinal victory over North Carolina. His 69.50 stroke average was the third-best in program history.

Howe, a staple in the Tech lineup for five years, enjoyed his best year in 2022-23, posting five top-10 finishes to come in No. 33 in the final Golfstat individual ranking and No. 38 in the Golfweek/Sagarin Index. The Ogden, Utah native tied for third place at the ACC Championship and the NCAA Salem Regional, as well as 29th at the NCAA Championship, all career-best finishes for those events.

Jackets Reap All-ACC Honors

Georgia Tech also placed the same three players - Christo Lamprecht, Ross Steelman and Connor Howe - on the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team for 2023, the 27th time since 1985 that Tech has had multiple players make the All-ACC team, and the 14th time that three or more Yellow Jackets have made the team.

The selections brought to 41 the number of different Tech golfers who have made the All-ACC team at least once during their careers. Tech's 80 all-time All-ACC selections trail only Clemson (88) and Wake Forest (87), who are charter members of the conference.

Howe also shared the conference's Scholar-Athlete of the Year honor, the fifth time a Tech player has been named the recipient. He was joined on the ACC All-Academic Team by Bartley Forrester and Hiroshi Tai.

Tee Shots

- Tech competed in the NCAA Championship for the 32nd time since 1985, a number eclipsed by only four other programs in Division I.

- Tech has reached match play at the NCAA Championship five times (2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2023) and finished in the top eight of stroke play 17 times in program history.

- Three Tech players competed in the 2022 U.S. Amateur and all advanced to match play. Christo Lamprecht finished sixth in the 36-hole stroke play qualifier and advanced to the round of 32 in match play. Bartley Forrester, who also won the Monroe Invitational last summer, and Ross Steelman each tied for 39th in stroke play, with Forrester advancing to the round of 32 while

TECH GOLF NOTEBOOK

Steelman lost his round of 64 match.

- Three Tech players competed for their home countries in the 2022 World Amateur Team Championship - Christo Lamprecht for South Africa, Benjamin Reuter for the Netherlands and Hiroshi Tai for Singapore.
- Tech's ACC Championship was its 19th conference championship, tying Wake Forest for most in conference history.
- Tech's win in the NCAA Salem Regional was the seventh regional title in program history.
- Tech set program records for low 54-hole team score in relation to par in an NCAA regional (811, -53) and third-lowest in any tournament. The Jackets also set a program mark for an 18-hole round with a 266 (-22) score in the second round, and followed that by posting 267 (-21) in the final round.
- Tech's ACC Championship and NCAA regional wins were its first tournament victories in 2022-23 after finishing as a runner-up five times.
- Tech's team stroke average of 279.53 (-5.06 in relation to par) was the best in team history, and it ranks 12th in the nation. The previous program record was 281.03, set in 2018-19, and the 2021-22 team holds the second-best mark at 281.59.
- All five Tech starters at the NCAA Championship had stroke averages of 71.50 or better, ranging from Christo Lamprecht's 69.44. Lamprecht's average was a scant .01 higher than Bryce Molder's current Tech record of 69.43 set in 2001.
- Tech compiled a 47-29-4 mark head-to-head against the nation's top 25 teams, according to Golfstat (46-27-4 according to the Golfweek/Sagarin Index), and was 86-28-4 against teams in the top 50, according to the Golfweek/Sagarin Index.
- Tech's five NCAA Championship starters combined for 21 top-10 individual finishes.
- Statistically, Tech ranked fifth nationally in average individual score (70.81), No. 2 in final-round scoring average (70.15), No. 8 in par-3 scoring, and No. 7 on par-4 holes and No. 8 on par-5s.
- Tech has fielded one of the tallest teams in collegiate golf the last two years, with Christo Lamprecht at 6-foot-8, Bartley Forrester and Ross Steelman at 6-5 each, Benjamin Reuter at 6-3 and Connor Howe at 6-2. Freshman Hiroshi Tai brings the average down at 5-10.

Tech's NCAA Championship History

Georgia Tech has reached the NCAA Championship finals 32 times since 1985 (33 times in program history), which is the fifth most in that time period behind Oklahoma State (36), Arizona State (35), Florida (34) and Texas (34).

Tech has posted 17 top-8 finishes in the NCAA Championship, 12 of those since Bruce Heppler became the head coach.

The Yellow Jackets have qualified for match play five times since the advent of the stroke-play/match-play format in 2009, finishing third in stroke play in 2010, second in 2011, second in 2013, fifth in 2014 and tied for fifth in 2023.

Tech lost to the eventual champion four times in its five appearances in match play, most recently in the championship match against Florida (3-1) in 2023. Tech fell to Augusta State by the score of 3-2 in the quarterfinals in 2010 and 2011 and to Alabama (3-0-2) in the 2013 semifinals.

Tech has been the runner-up in the NCAA Championship four times (1993, 2000, 2002 and 2005 before the introduction of match play, and again in 2023). Only Oklahoma State, which has 18, Texas (6) and Purdue (5) have more.

In 1993 and 2002, the Yellow Jackets led after 54 holes, but finished second by one shot to Florida in 1993, and by four shots to Minnesota in 2002.

In 2000, the Yellow Jackets rallied to tie Oklahoma State after 72 holes, but lost to the Cowboys on the first hole of a playoff. Tech and OSU matched the lowest 72-hole team score in NCAA Championship history (36-under-par 1,116) at the Grand National Lake Course in Opelika, Ala. In 2005, Tech finished 11 shots behind Georgia, and seven shots ahead of third-place Washington.

Three Tech players have won national collegiate championships. Troy Matteson did it most recently in 2002 at Ohio State. Watts Gunn (1927) and Charlie Yates (1934) won national titles under a match play format before the NCAA took sponsorship of the championship in 1939.

Tech and NCAA Match Play

The 2009 NCAA Championship featured a new twist with the team champion determined via match play. The top eight teams after 54 holes of stroke play advance to a match play tournament format.

The NCAA added a fourth round of stroke play in 2016 for the top 15 teams and nine individuals not on those teams, after which the national individual champion and the top eight teams for match play are determined.

Match play is a format that Bruce Heppler has supported vigorously. Under Heppler, Georgia Tech finished in the top eight of the NCAA Finals seven times in 10 tries under the 72-hole, stroke-play format.

Tech is one of seven teams (Oklahoma State 9, Illinois 8, Texas 7, Oklahoma 6, Vanderbilt 6, Arizona State 5 are the others) to have advanced to match play as many as five times in the 15-year history of the stroke play/match play format.

Georgia Tech Match Play History

While match play in college golf may be infrequent, Georgia Tech is no stranger to it, having participated in 13 regular season match play events since 2000, as well as five times since the NCAA added match play to determine its champion, and twice in the three years the Atlantic Coast Conference has implemented it as part of its format. Here is a history of Tech's participation.

Tech has a 30-17-1 record in match play since 2000, including a 2-5 mark in NCAA Championship matches and a 3-1 record in the ACC Championship.

Tech in NCAA Regional Competition

Georgia Tech has advanced through an NCAA regional 27 times in 32 tries, and all but four times since the NCAA went to a six-regional qualifying format in 2009. Head coach Bruce Heppler's teams have won seven regional tournaments overall, two of them shared titles, most recently in 2023, when the Yellow Jackets won in Salem, S.C.

The NCAA began using regional qualifying tournaments in 1989, first with the 81 teams split among three sites (27 teams each), then among six sites with either 13 or 14 teams each beginning in 2009. Since the NCAA went to six regional sites in 2009, Tech has advanced to the championship finals 10 times. No NCAA championship events were held in 2020 due to COVID-19.

Tech's first four victories all occurred in 27-team regionals in 1991 (New Haven, Conn.), 1998 (Daufuskie Island, S.C.), 1999 (Providence, R.I.) and 2002 (Roswell, Ga., tied with Clemson). The 2014 win in Raleigh, the 2022 victory in Columbus and the 2023 win in Salem occurred in a 13- or 14-team field.

Tech's ACC Championship History

Georgia Tech has won 19 ACC men's golf championships, tying the Yellow Jackets with Wake Forest for the most titles in conference history. Tech's titles have all come from 1985 to the present. Before the Demon Deacons outlasted the Jackets in the championship match in 2022, Wake Forest's most recent title came in 1989.

Tech has won the ACC Championship 11 times in the last 17 years, most recently in 2023. The 2020 ACC Tournament was not held after the 2020 spring season was cut short due to COVID-19.

Tech has won 14 of its conference titles under current head coach Bruce Heppler, 12 of those outright (1999, 2001, 2002, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015, 2018, 2019, 2023) and two shared (2006, 2007). The Yellow Jackets won five championships (1985, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994) under previous head coach Puggy Blackmon.

Twelve of Tech's ACC titles have been won at the Old North State Club in New London, N.C., site of the event 22 of the last 27 years. The first occurred in 1999 by 10 strokes over North Carolina and Duke. Tech won its 2018 crown without an individual finishing higher than 12th place.

Georgia Tech has produced 10 ACC individual champions, including Bob McDonnell (1985), David Duval (1991, 1993), Mikko Rantanen (1994), Bryce Molder (2000), Cameron Tringale (2006), Chesson Hadley (2010), Paul Haley (2011), Albertson (2013, 2015) and Ollie Schniederjans (2014). Albertson and Duval are among five ACC players.

Tech Golf APR Perfect Again

Bruce Heppler's golf program again earned a perfect four-year APR score of 1000 for the four-year period ending in the 2021-22 academic year in the NCAA's survey announced in May. The Yellow Jackets have earned a perfect four-year score every year since its inception in 2006, and has also received an APR Public Recognition Award every year. Among Power 5 conferences, Tech is one of two men's golf teams and 12 programs overall that have achieved the feat. Tech has scored a perfect 1,000 in the single-year APR for 19 straight years since the metric was introduced.

APR is an annual scorecard of academic achievement calculated for all Division I sports teams. It measures eligibility, graduation and retention each semester or academic term and provides a clear picture of the academic performance for each team in every sport.

28 Years at Tech

ACC Coach of the Year 10 times

14 ACC Championships

19 NCAA Finals Appearances

If a consistently high level of success over a long period of time is the measure of a great program, then Georgia Tech's golf program under Bruce Heppler would certainly meet the standard. His peers recognized this long ago in 2013 when they inducted him into the Golf Coaches Association of America Hall of Fame, and most recently was selected for induction into the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame in 2022.

Georgia Tech's run of Atlantic Coast Conference championships and NCAA Championships performances – 14 ACC titles, 19 trips to the NCAA Championship finals and four national runner-up finishes – are unprecedented for any sports program in school history, while the Yellow Jackets have won 72 tournaments in his 28 years.

Heppler has guided the Yellow Jackets to an NCAA regional every year since 1998 (no NCAA championships were held in spring of 2020), while 19 of those teams advanced to the NCAA Finals. Twelve of those teams have finished in the top eight, with five of those teams reaching match play since that format was introduced in 2009. In 2023, the Yellow Jackets reached the finals of match play at the NCAA Championship for the first time, where they fell to Florida, 3-1, for the program's fifth all-time runner-up finish.

Prior to that, three Tech teams finished as national runner-up under the former 72-hole stroke-play format. During his tenure, Tech has won or shared 14 Atlantic Coast Conference titles. Only two ACC coaches have led their teams to more ACC titles than has Heppler. With victories in the last four years by Andy Ogletree (2019) and Tyler Strafaci (2020), as well as Matt Kuchar in 1997, three of his players have won the coveted United States Amateur Championship, which is tied for the most by any college coach.

He has been named ACC Coach of the Year 10 times, most recently in 2019, more than any ACC coach in conference history. He also is a member of the Golf Coaches Association Hall of Fame and was inducted into the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame in October of 2022.

Since 2000, Tech has finished outside the top 10 in both polls only four times.

In a July, 2015 poll of his coaching peers conducted by Golfweek magazine, Heppler ranked No. 3. His program was ranked No. 2 among College Factual's ranking of the best colleges to play golf, taking into account both the quality of the golf team, as well as the academic success of the players and the quality of the school.

Heppler has recruited and developed his share of star players as well. The Yellow Jackets have had at least a pair of All-Atlantic Coast Conference honorees 22 times in 28 years, and landed four members of the team on the squad four times (2005, 2011, 2018, 2019). Tech has had at least two players earn All-America honors 15 times, with 22 first-team selections in that period of time. Three of his players, Matt Kuchar, Bryce Molder and Troy Matteson, have been named national player of the year.

Twelve of Heppler's players are currently active members of either the PGA Tour or the Korn Ferry Tour, with several other recent graduates climbing their way through the other professional tours.

Three of Heppler's players at Georgia Tech – Kuchar in 1997, Ogletree in 2019 and Tyler Strafaci in 2020 – have won the coveted United States Amateur Championship. Only one other college coach, Buster Bishop at Florida in the 1960s and 1970s, can claim that distinction. With Andy Ogletree's and Tyler Strafaci's victories in 2019 and 2020, Georgia Tech became the first institution to have teammates win the title in back-to-back years.

Kuchar, Molder, Nicholas Thompson, Cameron Tringale, Ogletree and Strafaci have represented the United States in the Walker Cup matches. Twice, in 1998 and 2013, five or more of the Heppler's active Tech players have qualified to play in the U.S. Amateur. Six of Tech's seven returning players in 2013 competed in that year's U.S. Amateur in Brookline, Mass., an unprecedented feat.

Heppler has been named to coach the United States team in the Palmer Cup twice, in 2003 and 2015, and 11 of his players have also represented the USA in that annual event.

On the conference level since 1985, when the Yellow Jackets won their first ACC Championship, Tech has earned more NCAA Championship berths than any team except Clemson. The Jackets have earned more top-10, more top-5 and more top-2 finishes in NCAA Championship competition than any other ACC team. Tech also has had more All-America selections (65) than any other ACC team during the same period except the Tigers.

His players have been just as successful in the classroom. Tech's golf program has been recognized with a perfect Academic Progress Report score of 1000 for 19 straight years, and every senior has graduated.

Twenty-six different players under Heppler have been named All-America Scholars (a total of 49 times) by the Golf Coaches Association of America, which requires a minimum 3.2 GPA and participation in at least 75 percent of a team's events. Two, All-Americans Bryce Molder and Roberto Castro, received the NCAA's Top VIII Award, an honor given to eight student-athletes from all sports each year and recognizes those who excel in their sport and in the classroom, and exhibit high character, leadership and service to others.

It didn't take long for Heppler to restore the glory to Tech's golf program following a couple of lean years in the mid-1990s. After recruiting future All-Americans Kuchar and Molder, Heppler had the Yellow Jackets back in the NCAA Tournament in his third season, where they finished third, just four shots off the lead. Tech also was ranked No. 1 in the nation during the course of the year and won the NCAA East Regional.

Even better things were to come as Tech captured the first of its ACC titles under Heppler in 1999. In 2000 the Yellow Jackets came the closest to an NCAA Championship in their history, tying for first after 72 holes with Oklahoma State before losing a one-hole playoff. On the year, Tech captured four team titles and finished in the top four in each event it entered.

During the 2001 campaign, the Jackets won their second ACC crown in three years, the second under Heppler, captured a school-record-tying five tournament wins during the year and finished fourth in the NCAA Championship. For his efforts, Heppler was named ACC Coach of the Year and guided three All-Americans in Molder, who was also the consensus National Player of the Year, Matteson and Kris Mikkelsen.

In 2002, Heppler led the Yellow Jackets to arguably the best season in school history, as Tech captured seven team titles, a new program record, and finished second at the NCAA Championship. In the process, Heppler earned National and ACC Coach of the Year honors. During the year, the Jackets won the school's eighth ACC title, while placing all five starters on GCAA All-America teams. Under Heppler's tutelage, Matteson became the third Tech player to win the individual national collegiate title.

The Yellow Jackets have been to the NCAA Championship every year since 1998 (no championship was held in 2020), and only five times in that period failed to advance out of a regional. In the 15 years the NCAA has conducted the current medal/match play format for the championship, Tech has advanced to match play five times. The Jackets advanced to the match play finals for the first time in 2023, where they fell to Florida, 3-1.

A native of St. George, Utah, Heppler has demonstrated his strength as a recruiter by attracting both National Players of the Year during 1997-98 and the ACC Players of the Year for 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001. His first recruit at Tech was Kuchar, who won the 1997 U.S. Amateur Championship and was named the ACC Player of the Year and the Fred Haskins National Player of the Year in 1998. Molder was the Jack Nicklaus Player of the Year in 1998 and in 2001, along with being named the ACC Player of the Year in 1999, 2000 and 2001. The trio of seniors who graduated in 2020 – Ogletree, Strafaci and Luke Schniederjans – won 14 tournaments, including two ACC Championships, and four individual titles.

All those accomplishments led the Georgia Tech Alumni Association to name him an Honorary Alumnus in 2018.

Heppler, a dean's list student at Brigham Young, earned his bachelor's degree in accounting from BYU in 1985, and later received his master's degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 1988. He played golf for one year at Dixie Junior College in St. George before transferring to Brigham Young.

He became a certified public accountant in 1985 and spent one year in the firm of Huber and Associates in Salt Lake City, then began his collegiate coaching career in 1987 as the men's and women's golf coach at Amherst. He then spent two years as an administrative assistant at UNLV, becoming the assistant men's golf coach at UNLV in 1989. He spent two years in that role before moving to Oklahoma State in 1991.

Heppler is married to the former Traci Schull of Southbury, Conn., and they have a son, Zakary, and a daughter, Moriah. Heppler is actively involved with Atlanta Alliance for Children and is a past president of the Golf Coaches Association of America.

DEVIN STANTON

Assistant Coach

Three years at Tech
Georgia Tech, 2015

A former standout pitcher for Georgia Tech's baseball team who has spent time as a strength and conditioning coach and a professional caddie the last several years, Devin Stanton joined the Georgia Tech golf staff in July of 2019.

Stanton, 29, began his new role after spending the previous year as a strength and conditioning intern with Georgia Tech athletics, helping coach the baseball team, golf team and track and field athletes in the weight room, and also training the men's and women's cheerleading teams. In the golf program, he is responsible for recruiting, fitness development during competitions, assisting with practice design and set up, supervising technology at Tech's Noonan Practice Facility, and assisting with all other daily compliance and reporting responsibilities. In his two seasons, the Yellow Jackets have earned final national rankings of No. 7 and 26, the latter ending in a top-15 finish at the NCAA Championship following an inactive fall due to COVID-19, which cut short the spring of 2020.

Since August of 2016, Stanton has operated his own business as a physical preparation coach, managing the development process of high school athletes and professional golfers, as well as implementing off-season training programs for professional baseball players. As part of his business, Stanton managed the holistic training program consisting of stretching, strength and power improvement, recovery, and nutrition for former Tech golfers Anders Albertson and Vincent Whaley, both of whom have competed on the PGA Tour. He also spent two years caddying for Albertson on the Korn Ferry Tour while acting as his personal trainer. He also was on Andy Ogletree's bag when he won the U.S. Amateur in 2019.

Prior to that, Stanton spent three years as a strength and conditioning coach for Exercise Bioenergetics, Inc., in Sandy Springs, Ga., constructing detailed annual plans and training programs for the long-term athletic development of over 40 high school athletes of various sports.

As a pitcher at Tech, Stanton appeared in 58 games, including 17 starts, over five seasons between 2011 and 2015. His best season came in 2014 when he returned from an arm injury to pitch in 18 games and make 12 starts. He went 5-3 with a 2.24 ERA in 76 1/3 innings, ranking sixth in the ACC in ERA. He served as team captain in 2014 and 2015 and made the ACC Academic Honor Roll three times.

Originally from Lilburn, Ga., Stanton graduated from Tech in May, 2015, with a bachelor's degree in management. He made the Dean's List every semester from 2010-14, and was nominated as a senior for the Lowe's Senior Class Award, given to senior student-athletes who excel in the community, classroom, character and competition.

Stanton married former Yellow Jacket softball player Alysha Rudnik in 2015, and the couple live in Tucker, Ga., with their daughter, Hadley.

STEPHANIE SWANT TOBIN

Director of Operations

Eight years at Tech
Elon University

Stephanie Swant Tobin handles the dual roles of director of operations for the Georgia Tech golf program and management of special events and projects for the Georgia Tech Athletic Association.

Tobin originally joined the GTAA staff in December 2014 as the assistant to the senior associate athletic director for the Alexander-Tharpe Fund. In May 2015, she was named the executive assistant for Georgia Tech's director of athletics. In February, 2019, she joined Georgia Tech's golf staff as director of operations, supporting the team in the areas of fundraising, travel coordination and administrative support while continuing to manage events and projects for Tech athletics.

Before joining the Georgia Tech staff, Tobin spent time with multiple organizations, including 3i Private Equity (2007-10) in New York, San Elijo Dance and Music Academy (2010-12) in California, and Capital Group Companies (2012-13) in Los Angeles. She also worked in the Alexander-Tharpe Fund as a temp assistant for six months at the beginning of 2014 before moving to the Institute side of development.

A member of the Actors' Equity Association, she was a Regional Musical Theatre performer from 2003-11 and has been a dance choreographer since 2006 with the Southeastern Theatre Conference.

Tobin originally attended the University of Arizona, where she was a presidential scholar and made the Dean's List. She transferred to Elon (N.C.) University, where she graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in music theatre. She is married to former Tech football player Sean Tobin, and the couple has a daughter, Maddie.

JEFF PATON

Volunteer Coach

Three years at Tech
Georgia State, 1985

A veteran golf professional and instructor for nearly 40 years, Jeff Paton has served as a volunteer coach for the Georgia Tech team since August of 2021, along with his work coaching top-level amateur players and touring pros at all levels.

Paton has worked as a self-employed PGA Tour coach since 2015, following a 32-year career as a golf professional at various clubs in the area, including two stints as director of golf at the Golf Club of Georgia in Alpharetta, Ga., the Yellow Jackets' home golf course.

He began his career as a golf professional while still an undergraduate student at Georgia State, working from 1983-87 as an assistant pro at Brookfield West Country Club in Roswell, Ga. He moved on to serve as an assistant pro at the Atlanta Athletic Club in Duluth in 1987 before becoming the director of golf at the Golf Club of Georgia in 1993. After a short stint as director of golf and general manager at Chestatee Golf Club in Dawsonville in the late 1990s, he returned to the Golf Club of Georgia as director of golf and GM in 2001.

Along the way, Paton has been honored as the Georgia Section PGA Teacher of the Year and Georgia Section PGA Merchandiser of the Year (twice). He has served as past president of the Georgia PGA Assistants division, the Georgia PGA North Chapter and the Georgia Golf Course Owners Association, and has served on the board of directors of the Georgia Section PGA. He is a certified PGA Tour instructor.

Having lived in the Atlanta area since age 10, Paton is a longtime Georgia Tech sports fan, attended Wheeler High School in Marietta, West Georgia College in Carrollton and Georgia State University in Atlanta.

J BATT

Director of Athletics

JBatt was named the 10th full-time director of athletics in Georgia Tech history on Oct. 14, 2022 and officially took the reins of Tech athletics 10 days later, on Oct. 24, 2022.

In less than a year under Batt's leadership, Georgia Tech athletics' impressive achievements include:

The ultra-successful Competitive Drive Initiative, which was launched just three days after Batt's official arrival on The Flats in late October with a goal of raising $2.5 million in new gifts to Georgia Tech's Athletic Scholarship Fund over the final two months of 2022. The initiative went on to nearly double its goal, with more than 1,700 donors contributing more than $4.8 million. With a dollar-for-dollar match from the Georgia Tech Foundation, the Competitive Drive Initiative produced an impact of more than $9.5 million for Tech student-athletes.

The highly regarded hires of Georgia Tech alumnus Brent Key as the 21st head coach in Tech football history and former All-American and NBA All-Star Damon Stoudamire as the 15th men's basketball head coach in school history.

A historic multi-decade partnership with Hyundai, which will provide transformative revenue for Tech athletics, both in the present and for years to come.

Batt came to The Flats after serving as executive deputy director of athletics, chief operating officer and chief revenue officer at Alabama for five years (2017-22). He joined Alabama athletics' administration as senior associate athletics director, was promoted to COO and senior deputy athletic director in 2021 and to executive deputy director, COO and chief revenue officer in 2022.

At Alabama, he was responsible for guiding revenue generating, including charitable giving, ticketing, Tide Pride, and other revenue sources. Batt oversaw the successful development, implementation, and launch of the Crimson Standard, Alabama Athletics' 10-year, $600 million capital initiative. He also provided day-to-day leadership of the department as a member of the Athletics executive team and served as the sport administrator for men's basketball.

Widely regarded as one of college athletics' top fundraisers, Batt served as senior associate athletic director and executive director of the Pirate Club at East Carolina from 2013 to 2017. As a member of the ECU athletics executive leadership team, Batt oversaw a development operation that increased total fundraising in 2016 by more than 60% over ECU's previous best year.

He also served as associate A.D. and executive director of Maryland's Terrapin Club from 2011 to 2013. He joined the Terrapin Club staff in 2009 before being promoted to executive director beginning in 2011.

Before his four-year tenure at Maryland, Batt held positions in athletics fundraising at James Madison, William & Mary and his alma mater, North Carolina.

A member of the Tar Heels' 2001 NCAA champion men's soccer team, Batt earned both a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications and a master's degree in sports administration from UNC.

Batt and his wife, Leah, have two sons: Fitz and Graham.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT J BATT

"We're excited to welcome J to Georgia Tech. His leadership experience at one of the most competitive programs in the nation and his extraordinary track record in fundraising and revenue generation will bring great value to Georgia Tech. As a former ACC student-athlete, J has a keen appreciation for what it takes for students to compete at the highest level while pursuing a degree at a top academic institution. He values and shares our culture of excellence and integrity and our commitment to student well-being and success. I look forward to working with him to secure and invest the resources necessary for a successful athletics program." – Georgia Tech President Angel Cabrera

"Georgia Tech has made an outstanding hire in J Batt. He is a rising leader within intercollegiate athletics and has made a great impact during his time at the University of Alabama. He is a proven administrator and fundraiser and will be a great ambassador for the Institute and the community." – University of Alabama President Stuart R. Bell

"J has been such a strong leader as part of our executive team at Alabama. He has incredible vision and has done an outstanding job overseeing many areas of the department, beginning with development when he arrived in 2017. He has done a masterful job with the operations of the department. J has been involved in all of our major decisions and has provided constructive insight and feedback to make us better. His experience working directly with our student-athletes, our coaches and Athletics staff, university leadership, and fan base has prepared him well for this moment. We are thrilled for J, his wife, Leah, and boys, Fitz and Graham. Georgia Tech made a home-run hire with J." – Alabama director of athletics Greg Byrne

"Since arriving at Alabama, J has positively affected our program through the success of the Crimson Standard Initiative while being a trusted advisor to our athletic director, Greg Byrne, and an essential part of our administrative team. We set a vision for the future of Alabama Athletics and Alabama football through the Crimson Standard and J as well as his team delivered with impressive results." – Alabama football head coach Nick Saban

"I am extremely happy for J, Leah, and their boys for this opportunity. His work ethic, character, wisdom, and vision for the University of Alabama have been great assets to our men's basketball program, and we are thankful for everything he has done to help our team and staff. I think he is a perfect fit at Georgia Tech, and I'm excited to see what the future holds under his leadership." – Alabama men's basketball head coach Nate Oats

ADMINISTRATION/EXECUTIVE STAFF

DR. ÁNGEL CABRERA

President

Ángel Cabrera is the 12th president of the Georgia Institute of Technology, a leading public research university that serves more than 44,000 students through top-ranked graduate and undergraduate programs in engineering, computing, science, business, design, and liberal arts.

As president during the Covid-19 pandemic, Cabrera led the Institute through one of the most critical times in its history to break records in student applications, enrollment, graduation rates, and research awards. A member of the Association of American Universities, Georgia Tech is one of the fastest-growing and most research-intensive universities in the United States, is the nation's No. 1 university for research and development funding among those without a medical school, and ranks among the top 20 overall.

Under Cabrera's leadership, the Institute launched Transforming Tomorrow: The Campaign for Georgia Tech in June 2022. A five-year, comprehensive campaign designed to bring Georgia Tech's new strategic plan to fruition, Transforming Tomorrow will seek to raise more than $2 billion in an effort to bring unprecedented advancements to the Institute that will together have the power to shape the future. The strategic plan, which launched in November 2020 after an inclusive process involving thousands of community members, is grounded in a new mission statement to "develop leaders who advance technology and improve the human condition."

Cabrera came to Georgia Tech on Sept. 1, 2019, after serving for seven years as president of George Mason University (GMU) in Virginia. During his presidency, GMU doubled its research expenditures, joined the top tier of research universities in the Carnegie Classification, opened a campus in South Korea, and led the Commonwealth of Virginia in enrollment growth. Before leading GMU, Cabrera was president of the Thunderbird School of Global Management, now part of Arizona State University, and dean of IE Business School in Madrid.

Cabrera serves on the boards of the National Geographic Society, Harvard College Visiting Committee, Atlanta Committee for Progress, Metro Atlanta Chamber, and Bankinter Innovation Foundation in Spain. He has served on the board of the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, the advisory boards of Georgia Tech and Instituto Tecnológico de Monterrey, and the boards of three publicly traded companies. He has received honorary degrees from Miami Dade College and Universidad Politécnica de Madrid.

Cabrera holds an M.S. and Ph.D. in cognitive psychology from Georgia Tech, which he attended as a Fulbright Scholar, and a B.S. and M.S. in computer and electrical engineering from Universidad Politécnica de Madrid. He is the first native of Spain to lead an American university and the second Georgia Tech alumnus to lead the Institute.

Cabrera met his wife, Beth, while both were graduate students at Georgia Tech. A former management professor at Carlos III University in Madrid and Arizona State University, Beth Fraser Cabrera currently delivers leadership development programs for business executives. Their son, Alex, is also a Georgia Tech graduate and is now a Ph.D. student at Carnegie Mellon University. Their daughter, Emilia, is a graduate of Harvard University.

DR. JENNA JORDAN

Faculty Athletics Representative

President Ángel Cabrera named Jenna Jordan, associate professor and associate chair in the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs, as faculty athletics representative (FAR) to the Georgia Tech Athletic Association (GTAA) in May 2022.

The FAR serves as the liaison between the Institute and the Athletic Association on issues regarding rules compliance activities, new developments at the NCAA, and activities related to Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) membership. This is a part-time administrative position appointed for a term of three years. Jordan will replace Mechanical Engineering Professor Baratunde Cola, who is taking a leave of absence from faculty and university responsibilities to lead Carbice, the Georgia Tech spin-off company he founded, through its next phase of growth.

"Professor Jordan is not just an accomplished scholar but an exemplary educator who cares deeply about the growth and well-being of our students," said Cabrera. "She has made a difference these past years as a faculty guide with the Stamps President's Scholars, and I have no doubt she will have a similar impact in supporting the academic experience of our student-athletes and serving as an effective liaison between our faculty and our athletic program."

Jordan has been a Georgia Tech faculty member since 2012. Her research focuses on terrorism and political violence, international security, cybersecurity, wargaming, organizational theory, and statecraft. Her work has been published by Stanford University Press and in International Security, Security Studies, Conflict Management and Peace Science, the Journal of Cybersecurity, and International Trends as well as The New York Times, The Atlantic, the Chicago Tribune, Foreign Policy, and The Washington Quarterly. She holds a Ph.D. in political science from the University of Chicago, an M.A. in political science from Stanford University, and a B.A. in international relations from Mills College.

"Serving as faculty athletics representative is a unique opportunity to address the challenges facing student-athletes, and I am excited to be able to help guide their experience at Georgia Tech," she said. "I recognize the importance of building bridges across the Institute, and I hope to create new opportunities to facilitate meaningful student-athlete interaction, continuing the efforts of my FAR predecessors who fiercely advocated for and mentored our student-athletes. And I will continue to foster a culture of mentorship and support among the faculty and our student-athletes."

Jordan's three-year term as FAR began July 1, 2022.

NOONAN PRACTICE FACILITY

A new era in the Georgia Tech golf program began on February 17, 2017 with the grand opening of the Noonan Golf Facility, a 13-acre complex on the edge of the Tech campus in midtown Atlanta where the Yellow Jackets can practice and work on every part of their games on a daily basis.

Every step of the way, two people have stood at the forefront of fundraising: Kim P. Noonan, IM 1983, and Thomas E. Noonan, ME 1983. Their leadership has been integral to the success of the project to date. They, along with countless other generous donors and volunteers, have continued to reach out to individuals, foundations, and corporations in helping to ensure that the overall philanthropic goal for the project is met, and that Georgia Tech's golf team will enjoy and make the most of the significant benefits that come with having a first-rate practice facility near the Tech campus.

"There is no doubting the importance of having a quality practice site near campus," said head coach Bruce Heppler. "We cannot thank our alumni and friends enough for supporting Georgia Tech golf, or put into words how much their association with the program means to us."

The story of this facility's birth is long, but the story here is about these Jackets and how they may benefit not only from the ability to hit balls from garages in the dead of winter, but having a facility where they can practice every shot imaginable practically in their back yard.

There are seven greens, shaped bunkers and approaches, all built with golf architect Tom Fazio's firm at the helm and former players like Matt Kuchar, Roberto Castro, Kris Mikkelsen and Carlton Forrester and others advising. The East end of the property, named for alumnus David Dorman, is designed for work on every short-game situation imaginable. Routing has been designed into the entire property for a par-3 competition course, named for alumni Linda and Ray Helton.

Add the fact that one of the world's top teaching pros is splitting time between working with professional golfers in south Florida, North Carolina and the new facility, and Tech has a gold mine.

Beyond the clubhouse, named for Stewart and Lisa Cink, which includes lockers, showers, a kitchen area, a washer and a dryer, a refrigerator, microwave, and large television screens everywhere, there is the business of technology.

Inside the Kuchar Teaching Center, which includes three hitting bays, one of which is can be set up specifically for putting work, clubs and coaches have the ability to study their shots on video and with devices that monitor club head speed, weight on front foot vs. back foot, on toes vs. heels, club angle, ball velocity, and more.

"I think you can hit more individual shots here that you would see on a course," said 2018 graduate Chris Petefish. "Before, it was just more of a wide-open piece of land of grass and range. Now, we have a lot more greens that you can hit more kinds of shots into and see how the ball reacts, and have competition with each other."

Beyond the par-3 options, players can work on everything.

Volunteer coach Jeff Pierce, a professional instructor, volunteers time to the Tech program in exchange for being allowed to use the facility and all the new video and technology equipment that he helped Heppler order to work with multiple PGA professionals, as well as the Jackets.

It's all about how they can practice any and every shot to goals designed by professionals -- and Tech graduates -- Kuchar, Cink, Castro and the Tom Fazio design group.

Former players Mikkelsen and Forrester also had a lot to do with the design, right down to the nuances of the false front on one of the practice greens.

The contributions of former Tech golfers are huge in this. Tech people give back.

"It came out even better than we ever expected," said Castro. "Matt Kuchar and Kris Mikkelsen and I have hit balls out here, and just the different shots that you can hit ... it might be the best practice facility in the Southeast."

Forrester believes that Tech's new practice facility will help recruiting.

"Oh, I think so," he said. "I think you'll see ... it was a piece of land with a couple holes on it, but now you've got this clubhouse and just a spectacular facility that's going to attract alumni, players and ... I think for a college golfer, this is just a spectacular asset."

Castro, a PGA Tour professional who lives close to campus, said he'll make the new facility his second home, especially since his coach -- Pierce -- is on hand.

"I left my house at 8:30, and at 8:35 I'm here and I got a full morning of work in with him. It's a game changer," Castro said. "It's top-to-bottom. I'll continue to use it, hopefully, and it's a huge asset to anyone playing professionally."

"I still live in town, and if you spend a day here you're not going to leave this facility and say, 'Well, if I had been at East Lake, or Golf Club of Georgia, I could've gotten X, Y or Z. It's amazing.'"

This remarkable, one-of-a-kind set-up would not have been possible without Heppler or the dozens of donors whom he marshalled for the $16 million project between 14th and 16th Streets in Midtown Atlanta. This is a multi-decade project, spanning four athletic directors.

The go-ahead came from Tech president G.P. "Bud" Peterson in the fall of 2014 after many months of collaborating with philanthropic partners to secure the financial resources needed to initiate the first phase of the project to renovate the existing site. The property, which has served as the Yellow Jackets practice site for several years, was purchased in 2015 by the Georgia Tech Athletic Association, which then embarked on an ambitious plan to re-develop the site into one of the top practice facilities in college golf.

"Georgia Tech's golf team has a tradition of excellence, both athletically and academically," said Peterson. "Through ongoing support, we're taking bold and decisive steps to provide a state-of-the-art practice facility immediately adjacent to campus. This exciting and transformative project has the potential to make a dramatic impact on student-athletes' experience while at Tech, and on our ability to continue the successful recruitment of the best golfers in the nation."

The golf program at Georgia Tech has set a high standard -- winning 18 Atlantic Coast

Conference championships, producing talented professional golfers, and maintaining a Dean's List cumulative GPA among players and achieving a perfect score every year in the NCAA Academic Progress Index.

As Cink (MGT 1995) put it, "In an effort to recruit the best possible student-athletes, a program must provide outstanding facilities. The proximity of the practice facility to campus is a tremendous asset."

DELLINGER GOLF CENTER

The Dellinger Golf Center, housed on the ground level of the North stands of Bobby Dodd Stadium, was originally dedicated on Oct. 13, 1990, and reopened after renovation and expansion of the North end zone in the fall of 2003. It was named for Tech golf enthusiast James Dellinger, and is the perfect spot for studying, relaxing, watching television, playing pool and table tennis or browsing the internet. It is also a glorious reminder of Georgia Tech's great golf tradition.

The Dellinger Center houses a lounge with a large-screen television and audio/visual system, video game console and comfortable couches for the enjoyment of Tech's golfers. Additionally, there are offices for the Tech coaching staff and a golf club-style locker room. The center also includes a study hall with computer stations with internet access, along with a recreation room that includes table tennis, shuffleboard and billiards as well as exercise equipment.

The carpeted lounge area is named for Charles R. Brown, the catalyst responsible for the modern success of Tech golf.

On the walls, you'll find portraits of each of Tech's All-America golfers, from Watts Gunn in 1927 to the most recent All-Americans Anders Albertson and Ollie Schniederjans, plus photos of Tech championship teams and memorabilia of alumni accomplishments in professional golf.

On display in trophy cases is memorabilia from the days of Watts Gunn, Bobby Jones and Charlie Yates. Encased in the center are Tech's National Player of the Year trophies honoring David Duval, Stewart Cink, Matt Kuchar and Bryce Molder. Also on display are Tech's NCAA Regional individual championship trophies, and all 18 ACC championship trophies. Prominent displays of Tech's GCAA All-America honorees are in both the locker room and television lounge.

Tech's three team trophies, the Robert Tyre Jones Award for the team's outstanding player, the Watts Gunn Trophy for the team's most improved and dedicated player, and the Charles Yates Cup for academic achievement, are also displayed here.

As part of Tech's renovation of Bobby Dodd Stadium, the renovated golf center was completed in the fall of 2003 along with the expanded north end zone of the stadium.

GOLF CLUB OF GEORGIA COLLEGIATE INVITATIONAL

When the Golf Club of Georgia and Georgia Tech joined forces with the idea of hosting one of the nation's premier collegiate golf events in 2005, the idea was to bring together the nation's top golf programs to play one of the top golf facilities in the state of Georgia and enjoy a first-class golf experience.

The United States Collegiate Championship was the result, and the event has been a rousing success, drawing rave reviews from coaches and players alike. The first four events were played during the spring, but due to scheduling conflicts, the tournament was not played during the 2009-10 academic year. It then became a major event on the collegiate fall schedule in 2010. In 2016, the name was changed to The Golf Club of Georgia Collegiate Invitational to reflect the host venue.

The 2008 event, in which Clemson captured its second title in four years, attracted the nation's top 11 teams according to the Golfweek/Sagarin Performance Index, making it the strongest field of any regular-season collegiate event, and that pattern continues to the present.

"This event is in a class by itself in college golf," said East Tennessee State coach Fred Warren. "Everything associated with the tournament is first-class in every sense of the word."

"It really does kind of give you a feel of Augusta," said Wake Forest alumnus Webb Simpson, the 2005 Southern Amateur champion who had a first- and second-place finish in the event.

"To have a tournament of this magnitude at a facility we feel is the best in the country is very exciting," said Georgia Tech coach Bruce Heppler, whose program has enjoyed a long-standing relationship with The Golf Club of Georgia. "Knowing and appreciating the commitment and enthusiasm the staff and the members hold toward the event, it makes us feel very comfortable that it has become a very special tournament."

The competition and golf experience of The Golf Club of Georgia Collegiate Invitational are as first-class as the quality of its teams.

The course is not roped, allowing galleries an intimate opportunity to walk with the competitors, as is the case with the club's annual Georgia Cup match between the United States and British Amateur champions. Rules officials and scoring volunteers also accompany each group, giving the competitors the feel of a championship event.

"As far as college tournaments go, the U.S. Collegiate Championship did, in fact, raise the bar," wrote the late Ron Balicki in Golfweek magazine. "Providing a great golf course is one thing. Providing all the extras and the unsurpassed hospitality is another, and is what pushed the bar to new heights of what a college tournament could be."

The Golf Club of Georgia, a 36-hole Arthur Hills facility north of Atlanta named "Best New Private Course in America" in 1991 by Golf Digest, also served as the host site for the 2007 NCAA East Regional Championship, with Georgia Tech as the host institution. The Lakeside Course, on which both tournaments have been played, measures 7,017 yards and plays to a par of 72.

GEORGIA TECH'S 2010 USCC CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

GEORGIA TECH ALL-AMERICANS

The Golf Coaches Association of America selects a 60-man All-America team each year following the NCAA Division I Championship. The first, second and third teams each honor 10 golfers, with the remainder named honorable mention. Golfers not initially named to the 60-man team but who finish in the top 15 of the NCAA Championship are automatically added to the honorable mention unit. The GCAA has been selecting All-America teams since 1958.

Bryce Molder (1998-2001) and David Duval (1990-93), pictured above, are two of only four Division I players ever to be named first-team All-American four times. The others are Gary Hallberg of Wake Forest (1975-78) and Phil Mickelson of Arizona State (1989-92). Nicholas Thompson and Roberto Castro earned All-America recognition each of their four years at Tech, though not first-team honors each time.

NCAA TODAY'S TOP VIII AWARD

The NCAA honors eight student-athletes each year out of nominees from every sport, recognizing those who excel in their sport, in the classroom, and exhibit high character, leadership and service to others.

Roberto Castro (bottom), who graduated in 2007 with high honor in Industrial Engineering and won the Byron Nelson Award as a senior, and Bryce Molder (below), who won four national player of the year honors in 2001, are the only two men's golfers ever to win the prestigious NCAA Today's Top VIII Award.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

TROY MATTESON

NCAA Champion in 2002

Troy Matteson capped an outstanding junior season by winning the biggest tournament of the year, the NCAA Championship in Columbus, Ohio. The victory was his fourth of the year and marked the first time since 1934 that a Yellow Jacket was crowned National Collegiate Champion.

Matteson's run to the title began inauspiciously as he opened with a 2-over-par score of 73 to stand tied for 88th place, seven shots off the tournament lead. That would change quickly, as he found his scoring groove over the next 54 holes of play.

Day two saw the first significant move, as Matteson carded a 5-under-par round of 66 to move into a tie for 12th place at 73-66—139. The steady play continued over the final two rounds, as Matteson finished with sub-par rounds of 70 and 67 respectively to take over the individual lead as the final round came to an end.

His NCAA title tied him for most tournament wins in one year with David Duval, along with being the third time in school history that a Yellow Jacket had been the individual national champion.

For his efforts, Matteson was named the recipient of the Arnold Palmer National Player of the Year award and earned first-team All-America honors for the first time in his career.

CHARLIE YATES

National Collegiate Champion in 1934

Yates, who won the British Amateur in 1938 and the Western Amateur in 1935, won the Georgia state championship in 1931 and 1935, advanced to the second round of match play in the U.S. Amateur and was the low amateur in the first Masters tournament in 1934.

He culminated a fine college career by winning the 1934 National Collegiate Championship in Cleveland, Ohio, joining Watts Gunn as the only two Tech golfers ever to do so. Yates is one of eight Yellow Jackets to have competed in the Walker Cup, as he was a team member in both 1936 and 1938, compiling a 3-0-1 record in those matches. In 1953, he was named the captain of the Walker Cup team and was an honorary captain in 1985.

Yates played in the first 11 Masters tournaments, five times finishing as low amateur and three times finishing in the top 24.

He was inducted into the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame in 1959 and an award named in his honor has been given annually to the member of the Yellow Jacket golf team displaying the most outstanding academic achievement.

WATTS GUNN

National Collegiate Champion in 1927

The Rambling Wreck and the name of Watts Gunn rose to supreme heights in 1927.

Becoming the first Georgia Tech golfer to win the National Collegiate Championship, Gunn shot a total of 302 over the 72-hole event at the Garden City Country Club to win the medal competition. He went on to dispatch Walker Cup teammate Roland McKenzie, 10-9, to win the individual title, and his 69 in the final round broke the course record. He also helped Tech win the Southern Intercollegiate title the same year.

Along with winning the collegiate championship, Gunn was a two-time U.S. Walker Cup team member, joining the squad in both 1926 and 1928. In those two events, he compiled a combined 4-0 record, posting a pair of victories in each.

Gunn was inducted into the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame in 1961. The annual Yellow Jacket men's golf team award for the season's most improved player is named in Gunn's honor.

TECH COACHING HISTORY

H.E. DENNISON • 1931-55

A professor of economics and social science, as well as the director of industrial management, H.E. Dennison served as Georgia Tech's first golf coach from 1931-55. He shepherded a program which had already earned success on the national stage when Watts Gunn won the national collegiate championship in 1927. Collegiate golf was strictly a dual match sport in Dennison's time, and Tech went three straight years from 1933-35 without losing a match.

Dennison had the distinction of coaching such standouts as Charlie Yates, the 1934 national collegiate champion, 1938 British Amateur champion and three-time Walker Cup team member, as well as the 1938 Southern Intercollegiate champion Tommy Barnes and 1948 Southeastern Conference champion Albert Swann. He also led the Yellow Jackets to their first NCAA Championship appearance as a team in 1947.

TOMMY PLAXICO • 1956-82

Likeable Tommy Plaxico, a former Georgia Tech star of the cinders in the 1940s, served as the Yellow Jackets' golf coach from January of 1956 until he retired in 1982, an era which saw the landscape of college golf evolve from schools playing dual matches exclusively to playing stroke-play tournaments. Among his players were future PGA Tour star Larry Mize, 1967 NCAA runner-up Bunky Henry and 1999 U.S. Senior Amateur champion Bill Ploeger.

Plaxico, a contemporary of such Tech coaching luminaries as Bobby Dodd, Whack Hyder and Jim Luck, was a regular on the Tech track team for three years and was captain of the 1941 squad. After serving four years as a Navy fighter pilot in World War II, Plaxico returned to campus to receive his degree in industrial management in 1946. He immediately joined the Tech faculty as a member of the Physical Training staff, a capacity in which he served until he retired. Plaxico, also an avid tennis player, served as an assistant track coach for five years and was in charge of Georgia Tech's intramural program.

PUGGY BLACKMON • 1982-95

The arrival of Puggy Blackmon signaled a new era in golf at Georgia Tech, keeping the Yellow Jackets in line with the way college golf was growing. The South Carolina native came from a teaching and professional golf background, and laid the foundation for the stature of the program today. Heavily involved in junior golf, Blackmon immediately began recruiting top junior players, set about raising money for the program and started the booster club which continues to support Tech golf today.

Within three years, he guided the Yellow Jackets to their first Atlantic Coast Conference championship, and Tech became a perennial top-25 program. That led to the program being invited to compete in bigger and better events, and the Jackets would go on to win five ACC titles, compete in 11 NCAA Championships and win 33 tournaments overall during his tenure. He recruited and coached PGA Tour players Stewart Cink, Michael Clark II, David Duval, Tripp Isenhour and Charlie Rymer.

ALL-TIME GREATS

ROBERT TYRE "BOBBY" JONES • ATLANTA, GA.

On Sept. 27, 1930, Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., of Atlanta walked off the 11th green at the Merion Cricket Club and into history. No one before him had won golf's four major championships in a single year. No one has done it since.

No one might ever do it again.

"It may be 60 years, if then, before we see another Grand Slam," said Joe Dey, former commissioner of the PGA Tour and former executive director of the United States Golf Association.

"You never say never," said Ben Hogan, who was 18 when Jones won the Slam and remains the only golfer to win three professional majors in one year. "But considering the times — there are so many more good players — it's improbable that any player will win all four."

Of all the single-season sustained records of excellence in major sports, Jones' mark has stood the longest. Longer than Babe Ruth's 60 home runs, a record that last 34 years after he set it in 1927; longer than Joe DiMaggio's 1941 hitting streak of 56 games, which is still alive after 49 years; longer than Wilt Chamberlain's 50.4 points-per-game average, set in 1961-62; longer than Bryon Nelson's PGA Tour streak of 11 straight victories and 18 overall in 1945.

The four tournaments Jones won — the national Open and amateur championships of the United States and Britain — originally were known as the "Impregnable Quadrilateral." That term eventually evolved into the Grand Slam, a term that stuck even when the PGA Championship and the Masters replaced the two amateur tournaments in the mythical foursome.

To understand the magnitude of Jones' deed, consider that in the ensuing 60 years only four players — Hogan, Gene Sarazen, Gary Player and Jack Nicklaus — in their careers have won each of the four events that make up the modern Slam.

In golf's record books, Hogan comes across as the most serious challenger to Jones record when in 1953 the Texan won the Masters, U.S. Open and British Open. But because there was some overlap in dates of the British Open and the PGA Championship, the possibility of Hogan completing the Slam never existed.

Perhaps the most incredible thing about Jones' Slam is that he planned it. He didn't have a name for it, nor was he glory-seeking. His reasons were purely personal. Being an amateur golfer, his finances and family obligations would not allow him to play in all four tournaments after 1930. As it turned out, he didn't have to. He announced his retirement from competitive golf a few weeks after winning the U.S. Amateur. He was 28.

Dey, then a 23-year-old sportswriter for The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, was there at Merion in Ardmore, Pa., when Jones completed the Grand Slam. Now 83, Dey said Jones' performance was "simply unbelievable."

"I saw every shot, and I haven't seen anyone since as dominant as Jones was in that Amateur," Dey said. "None of his matches went past the 14th hole. He cruised along. Considering the pressure and the crowds — you have to remember in those days the fairways weren't roped — it was a remarkable performance by a remarkable player."

Dey has seen all the great players and says only Hogan and Nicklaus equaled Jones in figuring out a way to win.

"If Nicklaus couldn't do it, I don't think it could be done. Maybe Hogan could have, but there wasn't that much emphasis on the Grand Slam during his day. I don't see anyone out there today who knows how to win like they did and like Jones did."

"Also, it's just too hard now because there are too many good players to expect one to win all four, and too, I believe the intense media attention given to the majors creates tremendous pressure that begins to build when someone wins the first two."

Hogan agreed about the media pressure. "It's incredible," he said, "much more so than when I played. Because it was impossible for me to play in all four in 1953, there was none of that."

Dey credits Jones with the Grand Slam transformation from two amateurs and two Opens to today's four pro majors. "When Jones retired, there was not another amateur of his ability, and after he started Augusta National, and the Masters took hold, the attention turned away from the amateurs to the professionals," he said.

"What Jones did was win the Grand Slam, then without realizing it, created another one."

How good was Jones? From 1923 through 1930, Jones won 13 major national titles in the U.S. and Great Britain, 62 percent of the championships he entered.

In the last 11 British and U.S. Opens in which he played, he finished no worse than second in 10, winning seven times. And from the time he was 14 to the time he was 28, no player ever beat him twice in championship match play.

It also must be noted that Jones was hardly a full-time golfer. Often he would go months without picking up a club. Instead, he studied mechanical engineering at Georgia Tech, got a degree in English literature at Harvard, dabbled in real estate and then attended law school at Emory. In his 13 years in major championship competition, he was a student, high school or college, in nine of them. He played only 52 tournaments in that span, an average of four a year, and won 23.

Though Jones was born and raised in Atlanta, there is no public display of his memorabilia. His old locker remains at East Lake Country Club men's locker room and several pictures hang on the walls of the grill room. Most of his trophies and his famous putter, Calamity Jane, are on display in a showcase in the Jones Room at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

Jones died in the early evening of Dec. 18, 1971. He played his last round of golf in 1948, the year he was stricken with syringomyelia, a disease that attacks the central nervous system. His burial is in Atlanta's Oakland Cemetery. His tombstone reads:

Robert Tyre Jones, Jr.
Born 1902 Died 1971
No other words were thought necessary.

PERRY ADAIR • ATLANTA, GA.

Perry Adair (1899-1953) was an integral part of the "Golden Age of Golf." He grew up in Georgia and loved the game, playing at the Atlanta Athletic Club's East Lake Golf Course, mentored by selfless East Lake club pro Stewart Maiden, who brought with him from Carnoustie, Scotland the knowledge of what it was like to play for national championships. Perry's father George Adair was instrumental in Perry's early career development and took the boy off to compete in tournaments where he had to face new conditions and adult competition. He thrived on it.

Perry, two years older than fellow East Lake prodigy Bobby Jones, became a highly regarded amateur player. At 16, Perry lost to his good friend, 14-year-old Bobby, in the East Lake Invitational and in the Georgia Amateur 36-hole final. At 17, Adair was the 1914 East Lake Country Club Champion, then the 1921 and 1923 Southern Amateur Champion and 1922 Georgia Amateur Champion.

He was already a celebrity in the golf world when he enrolled at Georgia Tech in 1917 and played No. 1 for the Yellow Jackets before enlisting in Army Artillery School. After his military stint, he joined his family's real estate development firm and also involved himself in efforts to build municipal golf courses in the Atlanta area.

Among the fund-raising tours by professional and amateur golfers for the war effort in 1918, Adair toured the East Coast and the Midwest as part of the "The Dixie Whiz Kids," playing in exhibition matches featuring fellow Atlanta teenagers Watts Gunn, Bobby Jones and Alexa Stirling, and Chicagoan Elaine Rosenthal, raising $150,000 for the Red Cross. While playing the Midwest, these famous teens were often joined by pros Chick Evans and Walter Hagen.

Chick Evans wrote of Adair in the Atlanta Constitution in 1920:

"Perry Adair, of Atlanta, is a promising youngster who will be heard from. He is not so stocky or so strong of build at his young neighbor Bobby Jones, but he plays a sound game and within the limitation of his strength he is an excellent golfer. It is more than an unique coincidence that the two foremost young players in the United States should be from the same Southern city ... The golf instructor, James Maiden, at the East Lake course, where young Adair was practically brought up, was one of the best in the country and the Atlanta boys have had the soundest possible golf schooling ... Perry, like the great British players, has golfed almost from babyhood. He is a very graceful player, and one of the best of his age in this country today. He does not drive so far now as he will when he is able to collect a bit more flesh, but even now his drives are of good length and considerable accuracy."

Adair was inducted into the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame in 1973, and into the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame in 1989.

TOMMY BARNES • MACON, GA.

In addition to his ability to compete at a high level, Tommy Barnes was equally known for his welcoming smile, his story-telling ability and his amazing memory. Able to battle the nation's best players, Barnes was equally adept at making a hacker feel comfortable during a casual round.

"Tommy Barnes was amateur golf through and through," said Mike Waldron, the executive director of the Georgia State Golf Association. "He was part of a golf tradition in Georgia that includes Perry Adair and Bobby Jones and Charlie Yates, what I call the 'Golden Age' of amateur golf."

Barnes played a lot of his golf at East Lake Golf Club. When Bobby Jones played his final round of golf, Mr. Barnes was there with him. And in 1988, at age 73, Mr. Barnes shot a 62 to set the East Lake course record, one better than Jones. Mr. Barnes learned years later that Jones, having recognized Mr. Barnes' potential, had arranged for East Lake to offer a membership.

Randall Couch, the head golf professional at Druid Hills Country Club, said, "It's incredible. He had the same routine from the first day I saw him play to the last time I saw him play. The way he'd line up his shot, walk up and hit was the same way he'd done since he was a kid."

That sweet swing enabled Barnes to accomplish many things on the golf course. He qualified for the U.S. Amateur for 16 straight years; he was the nation's low section qualifier in 1939. He captained the Georgia Tech golf team in 1937 and 1938. He won the Georgia Amateur in 1941 and was an alternate for the 1950 Walker Cup team. He played in the Masters in 1950, made the cut and tied for 35th.

Among his many career highlights were two Atlanta City Amateur championships (1935, 1937), five Dogwood Invitational titles (1941, 1948, 1949, 1951 and 1955), two Southeastern Amateurs (1938, 1946), two Southern Amateurs (1947, 1949), and the Southeastern PGA Open (1946). He won the Bobby Jones Four-Ball tournament five times and won the Pan American championship in 1941 while serving in the U.S. Navy.

"I never played the game for trophies or awards," Barnes told Journal-Constitution reporter Tom McCollister in a 1988 interview. "I played strictly for the competitiveness of it. I won my share and lost a lot more, but I have nothing but fond memories of those days."

And with his keen memory, Barnes was able to recall facts from virtually any tournament in which he had competed.

"Our friend Doc Ayers was having a football stadium named after him in Cedartown, so I picked up Tommy to ride out there," said Wendell Couch, a member of the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame. "He talked golf from the time I picked him up to the time we got back --- and that's not a short trip --- and we talked another 30 minutes after that. He loved the game."

Barnes was inducted into the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame in 1960, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1981, the Southern Golf Association Hall of Fame in 1988, the Atlanta Athletic Club Hall of Fame in 1995, and the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame in 2006.

In addition to being an outstanding player, Barnes was given credit for helping preserve East Lake. He helped organize a group to purchase the course from the Atlanta Athletic Club in 1976 when the club moved to Duluth.

He served as president of the Atlanta Golf Association, director of the Georgia State Golf Association, on the board of the Southern Golf Association, and as a volunteer on the U.S. Golf Association's Section Affairs committee from 1964-77.

Barnes died in 2007 at the age of 91.

WILLIAM “DYNAMITE” GOODLOE • VALDOSTA, GA.

He might be best known to Georgia Tech fans as the chief recruiter for legendary football coach Bobby Dodd during the last years of his coaching career. But in between a stellar multi-sport high school career growing up in Valdosta and his eight-year stint on the football staff at Tech, William “Dynamite” Goodloe was acclaimed as one of the best and most colorful amateur golfers in the United States from the late 1940s through the middle 1950s.

Widely acclaimed and followed in England, Scotland and the United States as a result of his fine golf game, Goodloe also charmed legions of fans with his charismatic personality, his ample, low-slung physique and quaint South Georgia sorghum drawl (he once addressed the Prince of Wales as “Mr. Prince.”). This mixture made him a favorite of people from all walks of life.

Goodloe played in the 1951, 1952 and 1956 Masters, and was low amateur after three rounds in 1951 at Augusta National. He twice competed in the British Amateurs at St. Andrews (1950) and Troon, Scotland (1956), and advanced to the quarterfinals at St. Andrews. He qualified as an alternate on the 1951 Walker Cup team, played in four U.S. Amateurs and entered once as low regional qualifier in 1949. He twice won the Georgia Amateur Championship in 1954 and 1955.

He played with the likes of Ben Hogan, Sam Snead, Byron Nelson, Louise Suggs, Kathy Whitworth, Julius Boros and Al Geiberger in many charity events. He recorded 18 hole-in-ones during his career. The longtime member of Valdosta Country Club won the local Jack Oliver Invitational tournament nine times, set the course record of 62 in 1959 and shot 71 there on the day he died on April 19, 1982 at age 62.

News accounts listed Goodloe at 5-foot-5 and 220 pounds. He was an uncle to another Tech great, Bunky Henry, and taught the 1967 NCAA runner-up how to play golf.

Born in Ocilla, Ga., on Nov. 10, 1919, Goodloe was a Valdosta sports legend, having played football and golf for Valdosta High from 1934-37. He went on to play both sports at Georgia Tech, and also was a member of the diving team.

He had success as a golfer at Tech in the early 1940s, and his outsized personality shone even then. Al Sharp, golf writer for the Atlanta Journal-Constitution, wrote prior to the 1941 Southern Intercollegiate Championship at Athens Country Club, “You can’t beat these collegiate golfers for statements . . . Dynamite Goodloe, of Tech, was at breakfast on qualifying day at 7:30 o’clock . . . Quoth Dynamite: ‘I got up two hours ago and I’ve played that course three times already while pacing my hotel room. Now all I got to do is play it two more times for keeps.’”

After the U.S. Amateur in 1948, John Bradberry of the Journal-Constitution wrote, “Reports from the National Amateur Golf Tournament in Memphis indicate that Mr. Bill (Dynamite) Goodloe, Jr., of Valdosta, Ga., was the most popular and colorful figure in the meet. They further suggest that the small crowds for the final two rounds might well be attributed to the fact that Mr. Goodloe was eliminated earlier, much to the disappointment of the fans who adopted the rotund Georgian as their favorite.”

“All of this comes as no surprise to people who know Goodloe from his college days at Georgia Tech and from watching him in various golfing competitions around the state.”

Coach Dodd adopted him as his boy, too. Dodd made frequent recruiting trips to Valdosta in the 1950s, and he also liked to fish. Goodloe, who worked in insurance and helped run his uncle’s laundry business, was well-known by football coaches in the area. He got acquainted with Dodd and took him to a lake in Quitman which was known as a great location for fishing. Dodd believed Goodloe’s personality would make him a good recruiter and hired him in 1959. He stayed until Dodd retired, and served one more year under Bud Carson before leaving Tech.

Goodloe went back to Valdosta and worked for a local insurance agency, working primarily with clients in the agricultural industry, and continued to play golf, both for pleasure and for business. Goodloe was inducted into the Valdosta-Lowndes County Sports Hall of Fame in 1978, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1984 and the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame in 1985.

WATTS GUNN • MACON, GA.

Watts Gunn was born in Macon, Ga., on January 11, 1905. He made golf history in 1925 in the U.S. Amateur at Oakmont Country Club, setting the world record for international championship golf by winning 15 straight holes in the first round of the 36-hole match. In that tournament, he went to the finals against friend and rival Bobby Jones, marking the only time two players from the same city ever met for the U.S. Amateur crown.

Gunn’s first major tournament win was in the 1923 Georgia Amateur. In 1927, he won the Southern and National Intercollegiate tournaments, and the following year he won the Southern Amateur and Southern Open Championships. In 1926 and 1928, he played on the Walker Cup teams with Jones, defeating the British team both years. He played many benefit tournaments, including several exhibitions with Jones in 1927 and 1928. He took the Georgia State Amateur title in 1927 and 1928. At Lanier High School, he captained golf teams that never lost a match.

Watts Gunn was inducted into the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame on January 14, 1989.

From a Time Magazine account dated July 11, 1927

Last week, Watts Gunn of Georgia Tech, playmate of Robert Tyre Jones Jr., went four times around the Garden City (L. I.) Golf Club course in a total of 302 strokes. Had he been alive to do this in 1902, he would have won the U. S. Open Championship by five strokes.* But, at 22, his reward was the qualifying medal of the national intercollegiate golf tournament.

Consistently but not brilliantly, Golfer Gunn battered his way to the finals where he found the other favorite, Roland Mackenzie of Brown University, his good friend, with nerves set for a 36-hole struggle.

Beginning at the fifth hole of their first round, Golfer Gunn went stark, staring golf-mad, made six birdies, used only nine putts on seven consecutive holes—putts varying between 35 and 12 feet—sunk with a borrowed putter. His score for the first 18 holes was 69, breaking the course record by two strokes. After that it was only a matter of time before Mr. Gunn won match and championship, 10 up, 9 to go.

Another figure in the tournament was John D. Ames, blond son of Knowlton L. (“Snake”) Ames (sinuous Princeton quarterback of the strenuous ‘90s), who lost to Watts Gunn in the second round but was elected president of the Intercollegiate Golf Association.

CHARLIE HARRISON • ATLANTA, GA.

Charlie Harrison was born in Atlanta, Ga., on June 25, 1931. He won the 1947 Atlanta City Junior Championship and then went on to letter in golf for four years at Georgia Tech.

A lifelong amateur, Harrison won the Atlanta Amateur a record 10 times, captured the Atlanta Athletic Club Championship nine times, and the Atlanta Country Club Championship six times during his illustrious career. He also claimed victories in the 1955 Southern Amateur and the 1959 Georgia Amateur. In 1966, Harrison was ranked 13th-best amateur in the country and captured the prestigious Dogwood Invitational at Druid Hills Golf Club. The next year in 1967, he was an alternate for the U.S. Walker Cup team. He qualified for the U.S. Amateur 16 times, placing as a quarterfinalist in 1959 and finishing fifth in 1972. He was also a quarterfinalist in the 1980 British Amateur and twice played in the Masters Tournament.

Harrison served as a director of the Southern Golf Association and was president of the Atlanta Golf Association from 1971-85. He was elected to the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame in 1978, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1991 and the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame in 1992. The East Lake Golf Club has named a caddie scholarship after him, now called the Harrison Scholarship.

BILL PLOEGER • BRUNSWICK, GA.

A native of Brunswick, Ga., Bill Ploeger has been a dominant force in the sport of golf throughout his astonishing career, and particularly as a senior player.

While a student at Glynn Academy in Savannah, Ploeger won the 1958 Future Masters golf tournament in Dothan, Ala. At Georgia Tech, Ploeger was a three-year letterwinner for the late coach Tommy Plaxico. He was named captain and was selected as an NCAA honorable mention All-American as a senior in 1962.

After graduating in 1963 with his degree in industrial management, Ploeger entered the world of amateur golf and won numerous golf tournaments throughout the southeast including the Gold Leaf Invitational two times, the Peach Blossom Invitational three times, and the Golden Isles Invitational eleven times.

After becoming a member of the senior tour, Ploeger continued to collect championship victories in such tournaments as the Georgia Senior Amateur (1995, 1997, 1999, 2008), the 1999 United States Golf Association (USGA) Senior Amateur in Portland, Ore., and the 2002 Senior Masters in Palm Springs, Calif. In 2000, he competed in both the U.S. Senior Open and the British Senior Open. An insurance executive in Columbus, Ga., Ploeger won the U.S. Senior Amateur at age 59 and despite being treated for a ruptured disc in his back. He built a 3-up lead and defeated 55-year-old Gary Menzel from Milwaukee, Wis., 3 and 2, at Portland (Ore.) Golf Club.

"I'm thrilled to death, I can't say anything more than that," said Ploeger. "To win a national championship is something that you dream about. To have it happen is just unreal."

Along the way, Ploeger defeated Vinny Giles, the 1972 U.S. Amateur champion and a four-time Walker Cup member, 3 and 2 in the quarterfinals. Giles had played his college golf at Georgia.

"I still can't believe I beat Vinny," said Ploeger. "He's been so much to me for so many years. I played in the British Amateur when he won it. I can't tell you how much it meant to me, as a golfer, to beat him."

In 1999, Golf Digest ranked Ploeger the top senior player in the United States. That same year, he also received the GSGA's Tommy Barnes Award as the overall Player of the Year, an honor he repeated in 2002. In 2001, he was the runner-up in the USGA Senior Amateur and in 2002, was again ranked the No. 1 senior amateur in the U.S. by Golfweek.

Ploeger is a member of the Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame (inducted in 1999), the Senior Amateur Hall of Fame and the Chattahoochee Valley Sports Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Georgia Golf Hall of Fame in 2001, and entered the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2011.

ALL-TIME GREATS

ALBERT "DUCK" SWANN • MACON, GA.

Albert J. "Duck" Swann's golf career spanned from his college days at Georgia Tech to an international senior championship in his later years, and he was a dedicated servant of the game of golf and of charitable causes in his community. The Georgia Golf Hall of Fame inducted him posthumously in the Class of 2013 with his family and many of his friends and colleagues to honor his induction.

Duck Swann was a major influence on the lives of many in the Macon community and at Idle Hour Club. Peter Persons, Georgia Golf Hall of Fame Class of 2011, recalls how Swann would be one of his first calls when he returned home from a PGA TOUR event and repaired clubs for him at his home workshop.

"He'd console me and inspire me," said Persons. "He was one of my best friends, though he was of my father's generation."

Swann became acquainted with Roger Kaiser, the legendary Georgia Tech basketball All-American player and national championship coach at West Georgia and Life College, not through golf or a "Tech connection," but at a chance meeting at a sports camp. "Duck brought a busload of youngsters up from Macon to my sports camp in north Georgia," said Kaiser. "I didn't know who he was then, but over time our families became very close friends."

A Maconite throughout his life, Swann played on the Lanier High golf team and won the 1941 Macon City and 1942 Georgia Interscholastic titles. Following World War II years as an Air Force pilot, he was the Southeastern Conference champion in 1948 at Georgia Tech and was captain of the Yellow Jackets' 1949 SEC title team.

He spent two more combat flying years in Korea before settling into several businesses in the Macon area. In 1958 he was elected to Georgia Tech's "all time" golf team and into the Georgia Tech Athletic Hall of Fame in 1964.

Swann's golf career blossomed again upon the time he turned senior amateur age of 55 in 1980. The year 1983 was his biggest. His most significant victory came at Walton Heath in England, as he became the first American to capture the British Senior Open Amateur. Also during the year, he won the Georgia Seniors title and qualified for the match play portion of the USGA Senior Amateur Championship.

The following year, he won the Legendary Senior Amateur in Birmingham, and was runner-up at the American and Georgia seniors. In 1987, he won the Western Seniors.

Swann was a member of several golf organizations throughout his life, including the Peach Blossom Classic, American Senior Golf Association, state Walter Hagen cancer tournament committee, Middle Georgia Golf Championship Board and was a past president of Idle Hour Club. He also spent many hours volunteering his time for civic and charitable causes in the Macon and central Georgia area. He was a chairman or president of the Bibb County Department of Family and Children Services, Macon Rotary Club, Lanier Booster Club, Middle Georgia Area Georgia Tech Club, Tech-Georgia Development Fund, Vine-Ingle Little League and Macon YMCA.

CHARLIE YATES • ATLANTA, GA.

Charlie Yates, a link to Atlanta's vast golf history who later shepherded the city's arts community into the future, was once heralded by Life magazine as owning "the best grin in golf."

He didn't mind using it either, whether to woo the English crowds while he was winning the 1938 British Amateur championship or while heading the effort to raise the $20 million that built the High Museum. A participant in the city's history for much of the 20th century, it is not inappropriate he be remembered first for that smile and a benevolent demeanor that underscored his life.

Yates, 92, died October 17, 2005 at his home in Buckhead.

Mentored by Bobby Jones - he in fact played with Jones in his final round in 1948 at East Lake Golf Club - Yates was national college champion while at Georgia Tech (1934), a two-time Walker Cup competitor (1936 and 1938) and was captain of the U.S. Walker team in 1953.

He seized the international limelight at the 1938 British Amateur at Royal Troon. Beating two U.S. and British Amateur champions along his eight-match campaign, he struck a tone with the British galleries who were not then so easily charmed by foreigners taking away their titles. Afterward, the legendary British golf author Bernard Darwin wrote, "There has been no invading Champion more popular than Charlie Yates, whose cheerfulness and humor, of his own particular brand, made everybody like him."

Yates played 11 times in the Masters, including the inaugural tournament in 1934.

"There wasn't any strict rule about who was eligible to play in the Masters then," he once told The Augusta Chronicle. "Bob invited some of his friends, such as myself."

He tied for 21st that year and twice was low amateur, but his most memorable Masters came in 1935. Yates was playing in the group ahead when Gene Sarazen made double eagle on the par-5 15th to force a playoff he won the next day. That shot put the Masters on the map.

Yates' amateur career, except for playing the Masters, ended with World War II when he was drafted into the Army. He transferred to the Navy and spent 30 months as a lieutenant on the destroyer USS Mayo, which was struck by enemy fire during the invasion of Italy.

For nearly 50 years, he served on the Masters' Press Committee, a constant presence in the media quarters and, to many who returned to Augusta National year after year, a Masters tradition in himself.

"I am deeply saddened by the passing of Charlie Yates," Augusta National chairman Hootie Johnson said. "Charlie was an outstanding amateur golfer and a member who was linked to Bobby Jones and the club's history, attending every Masters through 2003. He will be greatly missed."

But it was in 1973 that Yates began some of his most lasting work. He accepted Mayor Ivan Allen's suggestion to retire at age 60 and head up the Atlanta Arts Alliance (which later became the Woodruff Arts Center).

Yates had already served as president of the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra (1962-65) and helped recruit Robert Shaw to be its conductor.

"When you look at who had a heavy influence on the thinking of people like the late Ivan Allen, or Robert W. Woodruff, Charlie was an effective leader in getting those people to see how Atlanta's strategy should include the development of world class arts and organizations," said Beauchamp Carr, executive vice president of the Woodruff Arts Center.

Originally drawn to the arts when his wife Dorothy recruited him for nights at the symphony, Yates ushered the city into a new age. Besides overseeing the effort to build the High, he helped raise the $5.4 million for the center's endowment. In his 10 years as president (1973-83) of what became the Woodruff Arts Center, the overall budget rocketed from $3.8 million to $16.3 million.

"I don't think of it as reaching into their pockets," he once said of his fund-raising ethic. "I think of it as their doing something for their own benefit."

The smile didn't hurt much either.

George Walter Henry, Jr., began his athletic career as a football player, first in his hometown of Valdosta, Georgia, and then at Georgia Tech, in Atlanta, where he earned three Yellow Jackets letters, starting in 1964. On the football field, everybody knew Henry as "Bunky," a childhood nickname bestowed on him by his grandmother.

He was also "Bunky" on the golf course, and it turned out that's where he would make a name for himself first as a college golfer and noted amateur and then as a professional, capturing one PGA TOUR title along the way.

The two-sport athlete died August 17, 2018 from complications during heart surgery. He was 74.

Born February 8, 1944 in Valdosta, Henry made 73 of 75 extra-point attempts during his Georgia Tech career, including 50 consecutively, which, at the time, was an NCAA record. He led the Yellow Jackets in scoring in 1965, with 27 PATs and five field goals.

Once comparing his play on the field vs. what he faced on the fairway, Henry said, "On a golf course, the pressure lasts four hours. It's only 10 seconds for someone kicking a football."

Henry apparently enjoyed pressure, having qualified for the 1965 Western Open as an amateur and receiving an invite to the 1966 Masters Tournament. Henry won the 1965 Canadian Amateur, the 1966 and 1967 Peach Blossoms in Macon, Georgia, as well as the Southern Amateur (1962) and Georgia Amateur (1964). (He qualified for two NCAA championships and was the runner-up to Hale Irwin in 1967.)

After graduating from Georgia Tech in 1967, with first-team All-American golf honors and a degree in industrial management in hand, Henry put all his emphasis on golf, adding appearances in the 1966 and 1967 U.S. Opens to his amateur resume. He made his TOUR debut as a professional in Lafayette, Louisiana, at the 1967 Cajun Classic, tying for 47th. That was one of the 118 made cuts he enjoyed during his career. Eighteen months after that entrance to the professional ranks, Henry was a TOUR winner, capturing his lone title in Miami, the 1969 National Airlines Open.

Henry's final full-time TOUR season came in 1981, when he played in 15 events. He made 21 additional TOUR appearances between 1986 and 1998.

In February 1994, Henry turned 50 and began playing PGA TOUR Champions golf. After Monday qualifying into three events, in 1994 and 1995, he earned his 1996 playing privileges by tying for fourth at the Qualifying Tournament the previous December.

In 63 career PGA TOUR Champions tournaments, Henry had three top-10s, his best performance a third-place showing at the Boone Valley Classic outside St. Louis. However, that was a bittersweet and disappointing end as Henry entered the final round holding a two-shot lead before a Sunday, 2-over 73 ended his chances. His final PGA TOUR Champions appearance came in 2001, at the Mexico Senior Classic.

Henry was a member of the Georgia Tech Hall of Fame for both his football and golf exploits, inducted in 1985. He was also a member of the Lowndes (Georgia) County Sports Hall of Fame. Since 2002, Henry had served as a golf instructor at Reynolds Plantation Golf Academy in Macon.

NCAA Championship Timeline

The national collegiate championships were conducted by the United States Golf Association through 1938, and consisted of a medal competition and a match play bracket similar to today's U.S. Amateur.

The NCAA began conducting the championship in 1939, using a match play format through 1965, when it became a 72-hole, stroke-play event.

The NCAA instituted a 54-hole cut from 1979-88. A 36-hole cut was used in 1989, and again from 1992-2001. No cuts were made in 1990, 1991 or 2002.

Regional qualifying tournaments were instituted in 1989, expanding the championship field to 81 teams, 27 in each of three regionals, with 30 teams advancing to the 72-hole finals. In 2009, the format was changed to include six regional tournaments. Thirty teams (five from each regional) advanced to the finals.

The finals structure changed again in 2009, with 30 teams playing 54 holes of stroke play. The individual national champion was crowned after 54 holes, and the top eight teams advanced to a match play bracket to decide the team champion. In 2015, the NCAA added a fourth 18-hole round to the stroke-play portion, cutting the field to the top 15 teams and nine individuals not on those teams for the final round, which determined the medalist and the eight teams for match play.

Georgia Tech fielded its first intercollegiate golf team in 1918, "and it was met with marked success in the matches with the Eastern colleges," reads the 1918 edition of the Blueprint, the Georgia Tech yearbook.

"To get to the personnel and work of the team. Very little time was had by the men to practice, but they went to it with a will and when the time for the first match with Columbia came around, a formidable quartet was on hand. Perry Adair, one of the foremost golfers in the South, was number one man. Adair has been playing golf around Atlanta since twelve years old and holds many of the course records in the South. Fred Howden of Savannah, was elected manager. Howden had a score of notable records to his credit there. Ewing Watkins, one of the best golfers in Tennessee and said to be the longest driver in the South, and Tom Prescott of Atlanta golf fame, comprised the other two members of the team."

Scoring for matches that year, and in years beyond, "was kept on the Nassau system, the winners on the first nine being awarded one point, the same being true for the second nine holes, and an additional point being awarded for the best ball of the match."
