MAC NEASE BASEBALL PARK AT RUSS CHANDLER STADIUM

Mac Nease Baseball Park at Russ Chandler Stadium is the only college baseball facility in the country to be been named "Field of the Year" by the Sports Turf Managers Association three times. Russ Chandler remains the only baseball stadium in the Atlantic Coast Conference to have earned the honor, taking the crown in 2008, 2014, 2019.

Scenically nestled in downtown Atlanta, Mac Nease Baseball Park provides a brilliant backdrop for college baseball and offers one of the best atmospheres for the game in the country.

The home of Georgia Tech baseball for nearly 90 years, Mac Nease Baseball Park has a long and storied history, from its original construction in 1930 with funds from Tech's 1929 appearance in the Rose Bowl game to its use as a training facility for the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games.

With incredible views of the Atlanta skyline, the facility underwent a $4.5 million renovation and expansion underneath the stadium in 2014-15.

An anonymous $2.5 million challenge grant was the lead for Phase I of the Mac Nease Baseball Park renovations. Phase II of the renovations, which includes further expansion of the team's clubhouse facilities down the left-field line, is entering the final development stages.

The latest renovation prior to the start of last season included a new state-of-the-art video board in left field as well as a new sound system throughout the stadium to better enhance the gameday atmosphere.

Prior to the latest additions, 2014-15 saw the first renovation to Russ Chandler Stadium since its complete reconstruction for the 2002 season. The reconstruction took less than eight months at a cost of $9.7 million, making the "Rusty C" one of the top collegiate ballparks in America.

At a current capacity of 3,194, Georgia Tech's baseball facility more than doubled in size when the renovations were complete in 2002. Mac Nease Baseball Park features approximately 1,100 chair back seats behind the home plate area in addition to nearly 3,000 bleacher seats.

A wide concourse and plaza area is located at the main entrance to the stadium behind third base. Ticket booths, concession stands and restrooms are located on both the first base and third base sides of the stadium.

Above the grandstand is the press level, which includes ample space for the writers and broadcasters who cover Tech's nationally-ranked program. The main press box has seating for more than 30, while three auxiliary booths can accommodate television and radio crews.

The orginal stadium contained two enclosed luxury suites are located to one side of the press box, while six open-air, covered suites are on the other side of the press area, but was renovated in Phase II.

MARK TEIXEIRA LOCKER ROOM/PLAYERS LOUNGE

With the $4.5 million renovation and expansion underneath the stadium in 2014-15, the Yellow Jackets' locker, training and weight rooms were transformed to make Russ Chandler into a state-of-the-art, all-around facility.

Tech's locker room (pictured above) doubled to 2,000-square feet and was renamed the Mark Teixeira Locker Room.

Georgia Tech's clubhouse, which is located on the third base side of the stadium, includes a player's lounge (pictured below), a study hall classroom, a video room where players and coaches can break down game film, and a separate locker area for the coaching staff. A state-of-the-art athletic training room is adjacent to the Tech locker room in addition to a sizable weight room and workout facility (pictured to the right).

The facility features locker rooms for both Georgia Tech and the visiting team, as well as for the umpires.

The stadium also includes three covered batting cages and pitching mounds. One is located underneath the grandstand, while an enclosed area above the left field grandstand houses two additional cages and mounds.

PHASE II RENOVATIONS

After meeting its $9 million fundraising goal in March 2019 as part of Georgia Tech's Athletics Initiative 2020, Phase II of the Russ Chandler Stadium renovation project began construction in the summer of 2020 and was completed during the 2021 regular season in February.

Phase II renovations were driven by Georgia Tech athletics' vision for its nationally renowned baseball program – to improve fan experience, enhance player development and celebrate the Yellow Jackets' rich baseball history. The upgrades cemented Russ Chandler Stadium's standing as one of the premier facilities in all of college baseball.

The new 25,379-square-foot, two-story structure's features include:

- a concourse-level atrium that will serve as an iconic point of entry to the stadium on gamedays and highlight the history of Georgia Tech baseball. On non-gamedays, the atrium will convert into a teaching auditorium for Tech baseball and a venue for third-party rentals;
- premium suite areas, including a terrace view club overlooking the field and the Atlanta skyline, as well as renovated premium seating closer to the action on the field;
- upgraded fan amenities along the third-base concourse, including new restroom facilities, concession stands and an outdoor plaza;

 a new, expanded indoor training facility that will include three batting cages, two pitching tunnels and a state-of-the-art player development center, which will blend technology and analysis using a pitching lab, hitting area and video room. The facility will be adjacent to the Yellow Jackets' dugout and heated/airconditioned for year-round use.

Head Coach Histogram at Tech

Danny Hall is a Hall of Fame winner.

Hall's tenure at Georgia Tech has been his most successful, as he is the all-time winningest baseball coach in program history with 1,170 victories on The Flats, making him the all-time winningest Division I coach in the state of Georgia. He was inducted into the ABCA Hall of Fame in 2023.

Hall has led Tech to the NCAA Tournament on 23 occasions and guided the Yellow Jackets to the NCAA College World Series in 1994, 2002 and 2006 — the program's only three berths.

Hall became Georgia Tech's winningest coach in 2005 with his 505th win (surpassing Jim Morris), and his Tech teams have posted an overall record of 1,170-632-1 in his 30 years at the helm of the Yellow Jackets' program. His 36-year head coaching record, which includes six seasons at Kent State, stands at 1,378-749-1, making him the all-time winningest active coach in the NCAA. He needs just 22 wins to reach the 1,400-win milestone for his illustrious career.

Over his 30 years in the dugout at Tech, Hall's Yellow Jackets have won more than 65 percent of their games overall and nearly 60 percent of their Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season games.

- Led or finished second in the ACC in batting or run production 18 times

The 2024 season will be his 31st on The Flats and his 37th overall as a collegiate head coach. In 2021, he became the 20th head coach all-time in NCAA Division I to reach the 1.300-win milestone and in 2022, he became the winningest active coach in college baseball. In 2024, he will look to become the 11th head coach all-time to reach the 1,400-win milestone, needing just 22 wins entering the season.

During a collegiate coaching career that spans 40 years (as a graduate assistant, an assistant and a head coach), Hall has been part of 1,815 victories and seven trips to the College World Series.

Each of Hall's Tech teams have been powered by a potent offense, leading or finishing second in the ACC in batting or run production in 18 of his 30 years as the Yellow Jackets' head coach; most recently finishing second in the ACC in run production and hitting in 2023.

Hall's players have earned 141 all-ACC honors in his 30 years, while 45 different players have garnered a total of 119 all-America honors. He has coached two National Players of the Year, two National Freshmen of the Year, two ACC Players of the Year, one ACC Pitcher of the Year, one ACC Defensive Player of the Year and three ACC Rookies of the Year.

In addition to the three College World Series appearances and 23 NCAA berths under Hall, the Yellow Jackets have claimed five ACC tournament titles (2000, 2003, 2005, 2012, 2014) and won the ACC regular season or division six times (1997, 2000, 2014, 205, 2014) and worther Acc regular season of unition six unless (1997, 2000, 2004, 2005, 2011, 2019, 2021). "(The ACC stopped declaring regular season champions in 2006 and moved to divisional champions)

Since Hall's arrival in 1994, a staggering 143 Yellow Jackets have been selected in the Major League Baseball Draft a total of 159 times — that includes a schoolrecord 10 draft picks in 2004, 2007 and 2010, and a record five top-10 round picks in 2013. Fifteen of his student-athletes have been selected in either the first or supplemental round, while 70 have been taken in the first 10 rounds. A total of 64 players have been drafted out of high school but have chosen instead to play for Hall at Georgia Tech.

Hall's no-nonsense, professional approach has given his players the fundamentals they need to be successful after leaving Georgia Tech. That is indicated in the number of his former players that have excelled on the MLB level, headlined by Charlie Blackmon of the Colorado Rockies, Derek Dietrich of the Houston Texans, Buck Farmer of the Detroit Tigers, Blake Wood of the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim, Sam Clay of the Washington Nationals and former MLB stars Mark Teixeira, Nomar Garciaparra, Jason Varitek, Jay Payton and Matt

The success of Hall's players in professional baseball is molded by their accomplishments at Tech, as his Yellow Jacket teams have advanced to 23 NCAA Regionals in 29 seasons. Georgia Tech has posted 58 NCAA tournament victories since his arrival, winning six NCAA Regional titles and a pair of NCAA Super Regional crowns in both 2002 and 2006

Just as Hall stresses the importance of on-field performance, his student-athletes have been equally successful in the classroom. More than 200 of his student-athletes have been named to the ACC honor roll (with a 3.0 or higher grade point average) and 11 have earned academic all-America honors on 17 occasions. His emphasis on the importance of scholastic success has rubbed off on his players, influencing many of those who left early to play professional baseball to return to Georgia Tech and complete their degree, including Mark Teixeira and Matt Wieters.

Hall has worked tirelessly to keep his former Yellow Jackets connected to the program. Through annual events like golf outings or offseason training sessions, Tech baseball alums can always be seen on The Flats.

Hall and Teixeira helped spearhead a major renovation to Russ Chandler Stadium in 2014-15, with Phase II renovations completed in the spring of 2021.

The Mark Teixeira Locker Room was part of a multi-million dollar overhaul to the Yellow Jackets' team facility, which also included a state-of-the-art weight room, academic center and new athletic training facilities.

In his first year at Georgia Tech, Hall guided an extremely talented and veteran unit with four all-Americans and three first-round draft choices to the brink of a national championship, Georgia Tech's first-ever appearance in the College World Series, and a 50-17 record. Hall was recognized by his American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) peers as Coach of the Year in the Atlantic Region, and may have won the national honor if not for the unranked-to-national title season put together by Oklahoma's Larry Cochell. Three Yellow Jackets earned consensus first-team all-America recognition and those three players finished in the top three in the conference batting stats, a first in ACC history.

Hall guided Tech back to the NCAA Regionals in 1995 and 1996 with teams dominated by freshmen and sophomores. His 1997 squad captured its first ACC regular season title in just his fourth year on The Flats and played in the NCAA Mideast Regional. In addition to earning his first ACC Coach of the Year accolade in 1997, the Yellow Jackets' skipper was named the National Coach of the Year by Sporting News, the first such honor for any Tech baseball

After the Yellow Jackets failed to earn an NCAA Regional bid in 1999 for the first time since his arrival at Tech, Hall guided the Jackets to one of their most successful seasons in 2000 — capturing both the ACC regular season and tournament championships in addition to the NCAA Atlanta Regional title. The team concluded the year with a 50-16 record, and Hall was tabbed the ACC's Coach of the Year for the second time.

Following another 40-win season in 2001, the sixth since Hall took over the reins in 1994, the Jackets' skipper guided Tech to just its second College World Series appearance in 2002 by turning in one of the best coaching jobs of his career, leading a Tech team that included by unling in one of the best coaching jobs of his career, leading a rectificant that included 17 freshmen and only three seniors back to Omaha. The Yellow Jackets swept through the NCAA Atlanta Regional and the NCAA Atlanta Super Regional with a perfect 5-0 record before finishing fifth at the College World Series. They concluded the 2002 campaign with 52 victories, establishing a school record for wins in a season.

Hall led Georgia Tech to its sixth ACC championship, and second in four years under his direction, with an improbable run to the title in 2003. An early-round loss, combined with weather issues, forced Tech to play a triple-header on the final day of competition, with Hall guiding the Yellow Jackets to a 10-6 win over North Carolina, a 10-7 win over Florida State and a 6-5, 10-inning victory over NC State to claim the title in the first triple-header sweep in league history

In 2004, the Yellow Jackets captured their third ACC regular season title under Hall while the team made its fifth-straight NCAA appearance and 10th since Hall's arrival on The Flats. Tech hosted an NCAA Regional for the fourth time in five years and advanced to an NCAA Super Regional for the third time since 2000. From 2004-05, Hall directed Tech to an ACCrecord 25-straight conference wins, and the Yellow Jacket skipper was awarded with his third ACC Coach of the Year award honor after guiding Tech to both the 2005 ACC regular season and tournament titles.

Georgia Tech, which earned a top-eight national seed in the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-consecutive year, made its third-straight NCAA Super Regional appearance the following season in 2006 and advanced to its third College World Series since Hall's arrival. Hosting an NCAA Regional for the fifth-straight year, Tech swept through the regional and then the super regional with a perfect 5-0 record before ending the 2006 season in Omaha with a 50-10 overall record.

With a squad that was among the youngest in the nation in 2011, Tech tied a school record with 22 ACC wins and claimed the ACC regular season title. The following year, 2012, may go down as one of Hall's best coaching jobs on The Flats. A team that was battered with injuries, especially in the bullpen, snuck into the ACC Tournament on the final day of the regular season and got hot at just the right time. Tech rolled through Greensboro an undefeated 4-0, becoming the first No. 8 seed in conference history to win the title and the first to defeat a No. 1 seed (Florida State) in tournament play. The Jackets hit .329 overall as a team and outscored the opposition 35-15.

Tech's 8-5 win over Miami in the 2012 ACC title game was Hall's fourth win in five ACC championship game appearances.

The Jackets bashed their way out of the gate in 2013, opening the season 14-2 with staggering offensive numbers. Tech set a school record by scoring double-digit runs in nine-straight games and 14 of the first 21. Paced with home run power from eventual all-Americans Daniel Palka and Zane Evans, Tech finished the season leading the ACC with 58 home runs and was second in both batting average (.304) and slugging percentage.

The Jackets won series over No. 2 North Carolina and No. 5 Virginia during the regular season, beat No. 7 Florida State in the ACC Tournament and knocked off No. 2 Vanderbilt, 5-0, during the NCAA Nashville Regional – the 18th NCAA trip in Hall's 20 seasons at Tech.

Tech was one of the nation's youngest teams again in 2014, starting as many as six true freshmen position players. Yet Hall was able to mold the group into champions as the Yellow Jackets, the ACC's ninth seed, made a remarkable run through Greensboro and captured the program's ninth ACC Tournament title.

The team did its damage with pitching and defense, shaving nearly a full run off its ERA from 2013 and setting the school record for fielding percentage (.974) while leading the nation in double plays (77).

Tech reached the NCAA Regional for the 19th time under Hall in 2014, following a regular season that included series wins over then No. 1 Florida State, No. 22

Miami, No. 13 North Carolina, Georgia, Duke and Virginia Tech.

In 2015, freshman Kel Johnson became the 20th player under Coach Hall to earn freshman all-America honors as the Yellow Jackets finished the season at 32-23 overall, including a stellar record of 21-8 at home on the year. Four Jackets in Matt Gonzalez, A.J. Murray, Brandon Gold and Johnson all earned all-ACC honors, as Tech saw its season cut short in the ACC Championship Tournament for the first time since 2007, ending a streak of seven-straight NCAA Tournament appearances.

The Yellow Jackets got back on track in a huge way in 2016, as Coach Hall's squad swarmed out of the gates with 12-straight wins to start the season off at 12-0. Despite hitting a rough patch midseason, which was caused by a slew of injuries to the pitching rotation, the Yellow Jackets made their 31st overall NCAA Regional appearance, 20th under Coach Hall, and finished the injury plagued season at 38-25 overall

The only school from the state of Georgia to advance to the NCAA postseason in 2016, Tech went 2-2 in the regional to finish as the runner-up.

Coach Hall's squad registered a non-conference midseason sweep of the eventual 2016 NCAA National Champions in Coastal Carolina from April 29 thru May 1, taking three-straight from the Chanticleers by scores of 9-1, 9-8 and 4-2 in a shortenedcontest. On top of the sweep over the eventual national champions, the Jackets also took two-of-three games on the road at both No. 3 North Carolina and No. 23 Clemson in ACC play and used a three-run 10th inning to upend Georgia 6-3 in the Yellow Jackets' final game at Turner Field.

Freshmen Joev Bart and Tristin English were both named to the 2016 Louisville Slugger freshman all-American team and the ACC all-freshman team, while English was also named to the D1Baseball freshman all-American second team. Pitcher Matthew Gorst earned a spot on the NCBWA all-American second team, while a number of Yellow Jackets earned all-ACC honors in English (first team), Kel Johnson (first team), Matt Gonzalez (first team), Brandon Gold (second team), Gorst (second team), and Connor Justus (third team). Gorst, Gonzalez and Gold were all also named to the 2016 ABCA/Rawlings Atlantic all-region team, the first Jackets to receive all-region honors since 2013. A total of five Yellow Jackets - Justus, Gonzalez, Gold, Gorst and Arden Pabst where selected in the 2016 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft in June, the most picks by the Yellow Jackets in a single season since seven were chosen in 2013. One of only 32 NCAA Division I baseball programs to earn the 2015-16 American Baseball Coaches Association Team Academic Excellence Award, Tech had four players in Ben Parr, Johnson, Trevor Craport and Brandt Stallings named to the 2016 all-ACC academic team.

In 2017, the Jackets were hindered by injuries all season long, as Tech had a total of 11 student-athletes miss significant time (six games or more) due to an injury throughout the year. In what proved to be a grueling schedule, the Yellow Jackets played a total of 16 games (30 percent) of its schedule against top-20 teams in No. 12 Oklahoma, No. 9 North Carolina, No. 7/16 Auburn, No. 5 Clemson, No. 2 Louisville, No. 8 Virginia and No. 12 Wake Forest (rankings at time of competition), scoring one win apiece versus Oklahoma, North Carolina, Auburn, Clemson and Virginia.

Despite the uncharacteristic Georgia Tech baseball season, the Jackets had one player named to all four all-ACC teams in 2017. Junior second baseman Wade Bailey was named to the all-ACC first team, while sophomore catcher Joey Bart earned a spot on the second team. Junior third baseman Trevor Craport was named to the third team, while freshman shortstop Austin Wilhite was named to the all-ACC freshman team. Both Bailey and Bart earned ABCA/ Rawlings all-region accolades, while Bailey was also named to the all-America second team by Collegiate Baseball. Wilhite was named to both the Collegiate Baseball freshmen all-America first team and an NCBWA freshman all-American.

2019 marked the return of a sleeping giant as the Yellow Jackets blasted their way back onto the national scene, winning 43 games, a program-record 10-straight series and nine-straight Atlantic Coast Conference series, and capped it by being named the No. 3 National Seed and the host of the 2019 NCAA Atlanta Regional. Georgia Tech were led by a veteran group that included consensus all-Americans Tristin English, Kyle McCann and Connor Thomas, as well as shortstop of the year finalist Luke Waddell and all-ACC selections Baron Radcliff, Michael Guldberg and Xzavion Curry. Once again leading the ACC in hitting (.297) and finishing second in run production (.464), the Jackets showed intense GriT — as it soon became their season moniker — and lost only one ACC series, despite losing two of their weekend starting pitchers to season-ending injuries. The blue-collar season and effort earned head coach Hall his fourth ACC Coach of the Year honor — tied for third-most selections in conference history.

In 2021, the Jackets navigated the landscape of a 36-game ACC schedule with 50 games overall due to changes in conference scheduling due to the Covid-19 pandemic that cut the 2020 season short after just 16 games. Despite the challenges, Georgia Tech worked to a whopping 21 conference wins, including series wins over then-No. 1 Louisville, then-No. 8 and eventual College World Series qualifier NC State, then-No. 12 Virginia Tech and then-No. 20 Georgia. Tech won the Coastal Division for the second-straight season and made its 33rd NCAA Tournament appearance at Vanderbilt.

Hall guided the Jackets to one of its most prolific offensive seasons in 2022, producing a whopping eight MLB Draft selections, including first-rounder Kevin Parada. Georgia Tech fought to 36 wins on the season, including wins over then-No. 5 Georgia, then-No. 13 Florida State, then-No. 3 Miami and then-No. 7 Louisville before making its 34th NCAA Tournament appearance at Tennessee.

In 2023, Georgia Tech once again ranked among the tops in the ACC in batting (second – .323) and run production (third – 8.28), fighting for 30 wins on the season. Tech had five Yellow Jackets selected all-ACC and three selected in the MLB Draft — Kristian Campbell, Jake DeLeo and Jackson Finley. Drew Compton would also sign an undrafted free agent contract to become the fourth ProJacket from the 2023 squad.

The Jackets have made 31 NCAA Regional appearances in the last 40 years, the fourth-most by any school during that same span (Florida State – 36, Miami – 35, 1511 – 35)

From a pair of conference titles and NCAA Regional appearances as a player, through six Big Ten championships and four College World Series teams as an assistant coach, to two conference titles and a pair of NCAA Regionals as a head coach at Kent State, Hall was well-prepared for the task that faced him when he took over the reins at Georgia Tech in December 1993.

In his six years as the head coach at Kent State (1988-93), he guided the Golden Flashes to Mid-American Conference championships and bids to the NCAA Regionals in each of his last two seasons, compiling an 86-28 record during that time.

He forged a 208-117 (.640) record in his six years at Kent State, twice winning Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year honors. He also won more games than any other MAC school from 1989-93. He had 18 Kent State players drafted by major league organizations.

Before his first head-coaching position, Hall served as an assistant coach at the University of Michigan, where the Wolverines won the Big Ten six times, participated in seven NCAA Regionals and four College World Series. During his tenure, Hall coached future major leaguers Jim Abbott, Scott Kamieniecki, Barry Larkin, Hal Morris, Chris Sabo and Gary Wayne.

Larkin was inducted into the Major League Baseball Hall of Fame in 2012, becoming the first of what could be many of Danny Hall's former players to be enshrined.

A former president of the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA), Hall now sits on its Board of Directors and is directly responsible for future elected officers within the ABCA as a member of its Nominations Committee. Hall was also a contributing writer on base running techniques in Baseball Strategies, a book produced by the ABCA in 2002.

Hall was selected to the ABCA Hall of Fame in 2023, cementing his legacy in the sport of college baseball. He was also selected to the Miami (Ohio) Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998, the Kent State Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005 and was inducted into the heralded Miami Cradle of Coaches in 2007.

He is married to the former Kara Zufall and has three sons, Danny III, Carter and Colin.

DANNY HALL's first Georgia Tech lineup card was filled out on Feb. 11, 1994 versus Minnesota. Brad Rigby pitched Tech to a 3-1 victory, and Jason Varitek hit a home run. That season culminated in the Yellow Jackets' runner-up finish in the College World Series.

JAMES RAMSEY

Associate Head Coach Recruiting Coordinator Sixthseason at Tech

Former ACC Player of the Year, All-American and MLB first-rounder James Ramsey was announced as the assistant baseball coach/hitting at Georgia Tech on Feb. 7, 2019. He was elevated to associate head coach during the 2021-22 school year.

In just Ramsey's first year at the helm of the Yellow Jackets' hitters, Georgia Tech led the ACC in hitting (.297) and finished second in run production (464), hits (702), slugging (.462), and finished third in home runs (418) and walks (356). Tech blasted back on the national scene in 2019, winning 43 games, a program-record 10-straight series and nine-straight Atlantic Coast Conference series, and capped it by being named the No. 3 National Seed and the host of the 2019 NCAA Atlanta Regional. Under Ramsey's tutelage, consensus all-American Tristin English dominated the plate in ACC play, slashing .381/.462/.825 for 32 runs, 37 RBI and 11 homers. Just in the postseason, English hit .500 for 16 hits, five doubles, three home runs and 14 RBI.

Ramsey's approach to hitting resonated immediately with the Yellow Jacket hitters as he preached patience, strategy and process to the offense. The buy-in paid dividends as seven players hit better than .299, including designated hitter Michael Guldberg, who led the team at .355 and catcher Kyle McCann, who launched 23 home runs for 70 RBI. The two biggest benefactors to Ramsey's approach were Baron Radcliff and Nick Wilhite, who became monumental pieces to the lineup by raising their averages 77 and 156 points, respectively, from 2018. McCann was drafted in the fourth round of the 2019 MLB Draft, while both Guldberg (third round) and Radcliff (fifth round) were selected in the 2020 MLB Draft.

After the 2020 season was shortened due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the Yellow Jackets once again mashed at the plate in 2021, leading the ACC with a .300 average in 36 league games. In the expanded conference slate, Georgia Tech paced the ACC in runs (251), hits (384), doubles (91), triples (10), RBI (230) and on-base percentage (.383). Under Ramsey's offensive instruction, Tech boasted four .300 hitters - Kevin Parada (.318), Luke Waddell (.309), Justyn-Henry Malloy (.308) and Andrew Jenkins (.302) - while Drew Compton hit .294 with 13 home runs. Waddell and Malloy were both drafted in the 2021 MLB Draft by the Atlanta Braves in the fifth and sixth rounds, respectively.

In 2022, Georgia Tech bolstered one of its most potent offenses in program history as the Jackets led the ACC, slashing .327/.419/.551 for 564 runs and 115 home runs. Six hitters hit .300 with Chandler Simpson being the NCAA Statistics Leader by hitting .433. Under his tutelage, first-round draft pick Kevin Parada broke the program's home run record by launching 26 this year for a incredible 88 RBI. Other offensive draft selections include Andrew Jenkins (.381), Tres Gonzalez (.339) and Tim Borden II (.335).

Joining the Seminoles in August 2018, Ramsey coached the outfielders and assisted with individual and team hitting approaches. In addition to coaching first base, he also began the process of integrating technology into player evaluation and development. Off the field, Ramsey coordinated community service and character development efforts for the team, as the Noles accumulated 200 hours volunteering this fall.

Prior to beginning his coaching career, Ramsey was a standout outfielder at Florida State and was a first-round MLB draft pick in 2012 by the St. Louis Cardinals. In seven seasons playing with the minor league affiliates of the Cardinals, Cleveland Indians, Los Angeles Dodgers, Seattle Mariners and Minnesota Twins, Ramsey totaled 502 hits, 105 extra-base hits, 59 home runs and 219 RBI for his career.

In addition to making the All-Star MLB Futures Game in 2014, Ramsey then went on to help lead the Columbus Clippers to the 2015 AAA International League Championship.

Ramsey finished his collegiate career (2009-12) as one of the best to don the Garnet and Gold. He was the 2012 ABCA Player of the Year and the ninth consensus All-American in Florida State history, earning first-team recognition from the ABCA, Baseball America, NCBWA, Louisville Slugger and Perfect Game. A team captain in 2012, Ramsey was named the 2012 ACC Player of the Year en route to capping his college career with a fourth-consecutive ACC Atlantic Division title, a pair of victories at the College World Series and No. 4 national ranking.

Ramsey was named to the D1Baseball's All-Decade Team for 2020 in the outfield for being a "a well rounded player who hit for average and power, posted three straight double-digit stolen base campaigns, played quality defense, and provided memorable leadership as the heart and soul of FSU's 2012 Omaha team."

MATT TAYLOR

Assistant Coach (Fitching) Fitst sesson at Tech

Former Atlanta Braves assistant pitching coordinator and Georgia State pitching coach Matt Taylor was named the Georgia Tech baseball pitching coach on June 8, 2023.

"Matt is a terrific baseball talent and his vision for what he wants to do on the mound and defensively here at Georgia Tech is exactly what we were looking for," head coach Danny Hall said. "In addition to his coaching ability and energy, he also has extensive knowledge and experience scouting and recruiting the state of Georgia, as well as the greater Southeast, as a native Georgian. Matt will be a huge asset for Georgia Tech and we are thrilled to have him join our staff."

Taylor joins the Yellow Jackets after earning an opportunity to be the minor league pitching coordinator for the Atlanta Braves following three years as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at nearby Georgia State.

"It's a tremendous opportunity to work under one of the winningest head coaches in the history of our sport," Taylor said. "Being born in Atlanta and growing up in the state of Georgia, I understand the significance of Georgia Tech Baseball and I'm excited to work with Coach Hall, Ramsey and the rest of the staff!"

In three seasons at Georgia State, Taylor's time in downtown Atlanta culminated in 2022 when he helped coach the Panthers to their first 30-win season in seven years as his staff had a 5.21 ERA (4.67 ERA in Sun Belt Conference play), a program-record 505 strikeouts and 17 saves – good for second-most in program history.

In 2021, Taylor's staff pitched against one of the nation's most challenging non-conference schedules (25th nationally), resulting in the highest-ranked win in program history, a 4-2 victory at then-No. 2 Vanderbilt. This just a year after inheriting a pitching staff in 2020 with only two upperclassmen, which, despite a shortened season due to the Covid-19 pandemic, allowed just a .227 batting average against and a 5.73 FBA

From the moment he arrived at Georgia State, Taylor made an unmistakable impact directing recruiting for the Panthers. A Georgia native, he helped the program assemble two of the best ever recruiting classes in its history, including its highest-ranked class in 2022 (No. 37).

Prior to GSU, Taylor spent two seasons working in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization as a scouting assistant and then area supervisor. In the 2019 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, the Pirates drafted six players from his Georgia/South Carolina territory, more than any other scout.

Before joining the Pirates organization, Taylor spent one season (2017) in player development with the Baltimore Orioles, the team that selected him in the fifth round of the 2011 draft.

A left-handed pitcher, Taylor played seven seasons in the Orioles system. Among his pro ball highlights, he was the 2013 Delmarva Shorebirds Mountaire Player of the Year and a 2014 Carolina League All-Star. He also played one winter (2015) with the Perth Heat of the Australian Baseball League.

During his playing career, Taylor worked with Unlimited Potential Inc., a Christian baseball organization, conducting camps in Guatemala and assisting with the Guatemala Junior National Baseball Team.

A native of Columbus, Ga., Taylor was a prep All-American and Georgia Player of the Year at Columbus High School in 2009 and was drafted by the Pirates but did not sign. He played one season at Alabama (2010), helping the Crimson Tide reach the NCAA Super Regional round, and one season at Middle Georgia College (2011), where he earned all-conference honors.

Taylor earned his degree in sociology from Columbus State University, graduating Magna Cum Laude in 2017.

Assistant Coach/Catching Fifth season at Tech

Zeke Pinkham has served on the Georgia Tech baseball coaching staff since Fall 2020 and was elevated to assistant coach in 2023. He works primarily with catchers, as well as helping coach offense and base-running.

Pinkham has been instrumental in the tutelage of freshman all-American Kevin Parada. Parada led the ACC with 20 doubles prior to the NCAA Tournament, and recorded four four-hit games on the season, becoming the first freshman to lead Georgia Tech in hitting since Matt Murton in 2001. Georgia Tech has a long history of producing elite catchers (Jason Varitek, Matt Wieters, Mike Nickeas, Joey Bart and more) and has earned the moniker "Catcher U."

That mentorship proved successful in 2022 as Parada was named a unanimous All-American and become Georgia Tech's 16th first-round MLB Draft pick when he was selected 11th overall by the New York Mets. In Parada's final season, he slashed .360/.452/.709 en route to launching a school-record 26 home runs for a whopping 88 RBI.

Pinkham comes to The Flats after spending a year as the graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Louisville. Primarily working with catchers, he mentored first-round MLB Draft pick Henry Davis and second-round pick Dalton Rushing. Pinkham also assisted in hitting development and saw the Cardinals hit .323 for the season, ranking third in the country.

Prior to coaching, Pinkham was a three-year starting catcher under Dan McDonnell, appearing in two College World Series (2017, 2019). He hit a career-best .324 his senior year, helping captain the Cardinals to Omaha where en route he earned 2019 NCAA All-Louisville Regional Team honors. He recorded 46 hits, 10 doubles and two home runs for 29 RBI.

An Elizabethtown, Ky. native, Pinkham earned a bachelor's degree in sports administration from Louisville (2019) and is currently pursuing a master's degree in higher education administration. He resides in Atlanta with his wife, Erin.

DECK MCCURE Undergraducto Assistant Coach First season at Tech

Former Georgia Tech baseball standout and Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Famer Deck McGuire returned to The Flats in pursuit of finishing his degree and joined the Yellow Jackets' staff as an undergraduate assistant coach, it was announced on Oct. 11, 2023.

One of the top pitchers in the Atlantic Coast Conference in the late 2000s, McGuire was named the conference's top pitcher in 2009 while at Georgia Tech, becoming a first-team all-American as well. A two-time first-team all-ACC selection (2009-10), he also earned third-team honors in 2010. The Richmond, Va. native was named the ACC Pitcher of the Year in 2009 after going 11-2 in 16 starts for a 3.50 ERA, striking out 118 batters and walking just 41. Overall, McGuire finished his career on The Flats with a 28-7 record in 49 appearances and 5 starts, acquiring a career ERA of 3.28 over 291.0 innings.

The 2009 Golden Spikes Award semifinalist and National Pitcher of the Year finalist was selected 11th overall in the 2010 MLB Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays. He pitched in 48 games over two major league seasons (2017-18) with Cincinnati, Toronto and the Los Angeles Angels and also played in the Korean Baseball Organization in 2019. He was enshrined in the Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame in 2020.

DRJENNAJORDAN Faculty Athlettes

Faculty Athletics Representative

President Ángel Cabrera named Jenna Jordan, associate professor and associate chair in the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs, as faculty athletics representative (FAR) to the Georgia Tech Athletic Association (GTAA) in May 2022.

The FAR serves as the liaison between the Institute and the Athletic Association on issues regarding rules compliance activities, new developments at the NCAA, and activities related to Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) membership. This is a part-time administrative position appointed for a term of three years. Jordan will replace Mechanical Engineering Professor Baratunde Cola, who is taking a leave of absence from faculty and university responsibilities to lead Carbice, the Georgia Tech spin-off company he founded, through its next phase of growth.

"Professor Jordan is not just an accomplished scholar but an exemplary educator who cares deeply about the growth and well-being of our students," said Cabrera. "She has made a difference these past years as a faculty guide with the Stamps President's Scholars, and I have no doubt she will have a similar impact in supporting the academic experience of our student-athletes and serving as an effective liaison between our faculty and our athletic program."

Jordan has been a Georgia Tech faculty member since 2012. Her research focuses on terrorism and political violence, international security, cybersecurity, wargaming, organizational theory, and statecraft. Her work has been published by Stanford University Press and in International Security, Security Studies, Conflict Management and Peace Science, the Journal of Cybersecurity, and International Trends as well as The New York Times, The Atlantic, the Chicago Tribune, Foreign Policy, and The Washington Quarterly. She holds a Ph.D. in political science from the University of Chicago, an M.A. in political science from Stanford University, and a B.A. in international relations from Mills College.

"Serving as faculty athletics representative is a unique opportunity to address the challenges facing student-athletes, and I am excited to be able to help guide their experience at Georgia Tech," she said. "I recognize the importance of building bridges across the Institute, and I hope to create new opportunities to facilitate meaningful student-athlete interaction, continuing the efforts of my FAR predecessors who fiercely advocated for and mentored our student-athletes. And I will continue to foster a culture of mentorship and support among the faculty and our student-athletes."

Jordan's three-year term as FAR began July 1, 2022.

The initiative went on to nearly double its goal, with more than 1,700 donors contributing more than $4.8 million. With a dollar-for-dollar match from the Georgia Tech Foundation, the Competitive Drive Initiative produced an impact of more than $9.5 million for Tech student-athletes.

Omaha, at last. Georgia Tech's baseball squad finally reached college baseball's promised land in the summer of 1994 under first-year head coach Danny Hall. Over the previous decade, Georgia Tech had produced one of America's most consistent baseball programs, averaging 45 wins per season while earning 10-straight NCAA Tournament invitations. Included in that span were numerous national and No. 1-rankings, and yet no College World Series appearances. But all of that changed in 1994 when the Yellow Jackets outlasted a talented Washington club, 18-7, in the final game of the Midwest II Regional in Wichita, Kansas.

With four of the premier talents in all of college baseball, including consensus first-team All-Americas Jason Varitek, Nomar Garciaparra and Jay Payton, and second-team All-American Brad Rigby - all four of whom were taken among the first 36 players in the June, 1994, draft - Tech headed to Omaha, where they came within one win of the school's first NCAA title.

The Yellow Jackets faced a talented Cal State Fullerton team in the opening game of the 1994 College World Series, with both teams throwing their aces. The Jackets drew first blood in the bottom of the fifth inning when Garciaparra earned a bases-loaded walk. Rigby then took over, striking out the side in the sixth while adding whiffs in the seventh and eighth as well as two more in the ninth to finish with a three-hitter and 10 strikeouts.

A familiar foe was on deck, with Georgia Tech squaring off against Mike Martin's Florida State team in Yellow Jackets' second game of the College World Series. With the score knotted at 4-4 in the top of the ninth inning, Varitek singles home Garciaparra with the first run of an eight-run explosion that set a CWS record for scoring in an extra frame. Matt Saier, the No. 9 hitter in the Tech order, capped the outburst with a grand slam to help the Jackets move on to game three.

Faced with a rematch against Cal State Fullerton, Tech stood one win away for playing for the championship. Payton snapped a 1-for-8 CWS slump with a two-run homer in the top of the first inning, but the Titans tied the game with runs in the first and fourth innings against Rigby. Both teams relied on pitching and defense over the next seven innings before Garciaparra ended the scoring drought with a solo home run in the top of the 12th inning. Fullerton quickly responded by putting runners on the corners with no outs, but Chris Myers struck out DH Sal Mancuso, popped up first baseman D.C. Olsen and retired left fielder Brian King on a liner to Payton to give the Yellow Jackets a berth in the NCAA championship game.

The Yellow Jackets' enjoyment in the title match up is short-lived, as Oklahoma scored a pair of runs in the bottom of the first inning before home runs in the second and third innings by Varitek and Garciaparra tie the game at 2-2. Disaster struck for Georgia Tech over the next three innings though, as the Yellow Jackets yielded nine runs - five in the fourth and four more in the sixth - to the Sooners, who went on to capture the national title with a 13-5 win.

Georgia Tech ended the 1994 season with its highest final ranking ever. Collegiate Baseball, Baseball America and USA Today all ranked the Yellow Jackets No. 2 in the year-end polls, a mark that has been unmatched since Tech's magical 1994 run.

With Georgia Tech's emphatic 11-5 victory over Florida Atlantic to win the NCAA Atlanta Super Regional, Kyle Bakker was looking forward to the homecoming he'd always dreamed of. A native of Omaha, Bakker returned to his hometown as part of just the second Georgia Tech team to ever advance to the College World Series. The big man didn't disappoint in his one and only hometown appearance either - shutting out South Carolina through eight innings while recording nine strikeouts to lead Georgia Tech to an 11-0 win in the Yellow Jackets' opening game of the 2002 College World Series. Victor Menocal and Matt Murton recorded four hits apiece to pace Tech's offense, and Brian Burks shut the door on the Gamecocks by recording three outs on just six pitches to end the game.

The Yellow Jackets didn't fare as well two days later, as Clemson jumped on Georgia Tech early with an eight-run explosion in the second inning. Tech would get as close as two runs in the sixth inning, but Matt Henrie held the Yellow Jackets to just one hit over the final 2.1 innings to preserve the Tigers' 9-7 win. Menocal and Jason Perry collected three hits apiece and Murton and Eric Patterson each added two hits in the game as Georgia Tech out-hit the Tigers, 14-9, and played flawless defense, but struggled to drive in runs, leaving a staggering 13 men on base.

Playing out of the loser's bracket two days later, Georgia Tech again faced the Gamecocks but couldn't produce the same results. Timely hitting by the Gamecocks, combined with costly errors by the Yellow Jackets, helped South Carolina stake a 9-2 lead through 7.5 innings. Tech answered with a pair of runs in the bottom of the seventh on a two-run home run by Jeremy Slayden, and the Jackets tacked on another run in the bottom of the eighth inning, but the comeback fell short as South Carolina moved on with a 9-5 win.

The 2002 season was one of the finest in school history, as the Yellow Jackets set a new school record with 52 wins while eclipsing the 50-win mark for the fourth time in the program's history. Six Yellow Jackets were selected in the 2002 MLB Draft, including Victor Menocal, who was named to the All-College World Series team after batting a blistering .563 with six runs scored in Omaha.

The Yellow Jackets also finished as a consensus top-10 team for just the third time under head coach Danny Hall, including a No. 5 final ranking by Collegiate Baseball and USA Today while Baseball America ranked Georgia Tech at No. 8.

The Yellow Jackets and Tigers were just two of a league-record four ACC teams taking part in the 2006 College World Series, joining Miami and North Carolina in Omaha.

The Yellow Jackets jumped on the Tigers early, scoring three runs in the top of the first inning. Wally Crancer doubled to reach base with one out and scored on a run-scoring single from Matt Wieters. A two-run home run by pitcher-turned-outfielder Jeff Kindel quickly made the score 3-0 in Tech's favor. Meanwhile, junior left-hander Lee Hyde kept Clemson's batters off balance all afternoon, holding the Tigers scoreless through seven innings, but the league champions mounted a comeback in the eighth inning. Clemson scored eight runs in the frame and held on to take the 8-4 win in the opener.

Dropped into the CWS loser's bracket, the Yellow Jackets found themselves matched up against Cal State Fullerton in the tournament's first elimination game on Sunday, June 18. Tech again scored three runs in the first inning, with RBI singles from Kindel and Wes Hodges and a sacrifice fly from Whit Robbins. Blake Wood cruised through the first three innings before yielding runs in both the fourth and fifth. The Titans would take the lead with back-to-back run-scoring hits in the fifth inning to chase Wood, but the Jackets answered with a solo home run from Wieters in the sixth inning to tie the game. The score remained tied until the top of the ninth, when Cal State Fullerton scored two runs on an infield single.

Despite the 0-2 record in Omaha in 2006, the season was special for several reasons. The Yellow Jackets eclipsed the 50-win mark for just the fifth time in history, and fourth under Hall. Tech led the league in runs (8.7 pg), doubles, home runs, RBI, slugging percentage and walks, while seven Yellow Jackets were selected in 2006 MLB Draft, led by second round selection Wes Hodges.

Tech turned in a consensus top-10 season, according to the final national college baseball rankings. Baseball America and USA Today listed the Yellow Jackets' at No. 7, while Collegiate Baseball had Georgia Tech ranked No. 8.
