Game 1: GEORGIA STATE (0-0) at GEORGIA TECH (1-0) Saturday, Aug. 31 | 8 p.m. | Bobby Dodd Stadium, Atlanta, Ga. | ACC

THE KICKOFF: Georgia State opens its 15th season of football (11th at the FBS level) and the Dell McGee era with the Panthers' first meeting at Georgia Tech, set for Saturday, Aug. 31 at 8 p.m. at Bobby Dodd Stadium.

> Dell McGee, a Columbus, Ga., native with 22 years of coaching experience, including back-to-back national titles as the run game coordinator and running backs coach for the Georgia Bulldogs, was named the fourth head football coach in Georgia State history on Feb. 23, 2024.

> Although this is Dell McGee's first full-time head coaching position, he is already 1-0 as a head coach. He led Georgia Southern to a 58-27 win over Bowling Green in the 2015 GoDaddy Bowl while serving as interim head coach.

> Playing just its 15th season of football and 11th at the FBS level, Georgia State has already played in six bowl games (4-2 record) and five in the last seven years, including last year's 45-22 win over Utah State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The Panthers have won three straight bowls over the last four years.

THE PANTHERS SQUAD: With the leadership change for the Panthers during the off season, Georgia State retained 65 returners and added 54 newcomers to the 2024 roster.

> Georgia State saw its largest influx of transfers in the offseason, with 48 transfer additions to the roster.

SERIES NOTES: Georgia State is facing Georgia Tech for the first time. This is the opening of a home-and-home. The Yellow Jackets are scheduled to visit GSU's Center Parc Stadium on Sept. 19, 2026.

> Georgia State is 10-4 against teams from the state of Georgia. The Panthers are 1-0 against Shorter, Savannah State, Clark-Atlanta and Kennesaw State, and 6-4 against Georgia Southern.

STATE-TECH CONNECTIONS: As Georgia State and Georgia Tech meet for the first time, there are numerous connections between the rosters and staffs.

> Georgia State defensive coordinator Kevin Sherrer spent the 2023 season at Tech, where he served as linebackers coach/co-defensive coordinator before being elevated to defensive coordinator on Oct. 1, 2023. GSU associate head coach for special teams/director of quality control Carter Blount also spent the 2023 at Georgia Tech.

> Conversely, a pair of Georgia Tech assistant coaches came from Georgia State. Trent McKnight was GSU's receivers coach from 2017-21 and then offensive coordinator in 2022-23. Cory Peoples coached the GSU secondary for four years (2019-23).

> Georgia State has two current players who transferred from Georgia Tech in QB Zach Gibson and CB Kenyatta Watson, while former GSU defensive lineman Thomas Gore is now at Tech.

PANTHERS VS. POWER 5: This is Georgia State's 17th game against an opponent from the Power Four or Five conference and fourth vs. the ACC. The Panthers have also faced foes from the SEC, Big Ten, Big 12 and Pac 12.

> Most notably, the Panthers' 38-30 victory at Tennessee in the 2019 season opener is the program's only win over a Power Five team. In that game, Georgia State trailed 17-14 at the half but outscored the Vols 24-13 in the second half, sealing the win on a 22-yard touchdown run by QB Dan Ellington with five minutes left.

> GSU has also held second-half leads vs. North Carolina in 2022 (scored 25 straight points to take a 28-21 lead late in third quarter), at Auburn in 2021 (led 24-19 until the Tigers scored the go-ahead touchdown on a fourth-down play with 45 seconds left) and at No. 9 Wisconsin in 2016 (led 17-13 with under eight minutes left).

> Georgia State will host Vanderbilt on Sept. 14, giving the Panthers two games against Power 5 opponents for the third time in the last four years and the fifth time overall:

- 2013: West Virginia, Alabama
- 2014: Washington, Clemson
- 2021: North Carolina, Auburn
- 2022: South Carolina, North Carolina (home)
- 2024: Georgia Tech, Vanderbilt (home)

> In addition to the return games with Georgia State (2026 at GSU) and Vandy (2025 at VU), the Panthers have upcoming P4 games scheduled vs. Ole Miss (away in 2025) and Wake Forest (Away 2029/Home 2030).

SEASON OPENERS: Georgia State is 6-8 in season openers, including a 42-35 win vs. Rhode Island in last year's opener.

> The Panthers are opening on the road for just the third time in 15 seasons of existence. GSU also opened on the road in 2019 (38-30 win at Tennessee) and in 2022 (35-14 loss at South Carolina).

> Georgia State is opening on a Saturday for the fifth time in the last six years. The team opened on a weeknight for its first nine years of existence and then again last season, including five Thursday games, four Fridays and one Wednesday.

NEW STARTING QB: After a GSU-record 36 consecutive games with Darren Grainger as the starting quarterback, the Panthers will have a different starter under center for the first time since he took over in Game 3 of the 2021 season.

> The Panthers are on the hunt for a new starting quarterback, with eyes on transfers Christian Veilleux and Zach Gibson to lead the squad.

> Veilleux, a junior transfer from Pitt joins the GSU program for the 2024 season after spending one season at Pittsburgh and two at Penn States. Last season, Veilleux appeared in seven games (five starts) for Pitt, and completed 94-of-184 passes for 1,179 yards and seven touchdowns.

> Senior Gibson joined the Panthers in January 2024 as a transfer from Georgia Tech with 3,060 career passing yards. Gibson completed three seasons with Akron before transferring to Tech.

CENTER PARC CREDIT UNION STADIUM

is the home of Georgia State football. The Panthers took over this iconic property, formerly Centennial Olympic Stadium and then Turner Field, for the 2017 season.

The facility was renamed Center Parc Credit Union Stadium as part of a 15-year, $21 million agreement between Center Parc Credit Union, a division of Atlanta Postal Credit Union (APCU), and Georgia State Athletics, announced on Aug. 11, 2020.

Center Parc Stadium features 25,000 seats for football, a FieldTurf playing surface on "Pete" Petit Field and dramatic views of the Atlanta skyline. The conversion process incorporated the existing seating areas on the north, west and south sides of the stadium with a new grandstand constructed on the east side, formerly the outfield.

The Panthers are in their fifth season in this impressive venue, which also houses the Football Operations Suite, completed in 2019. All of the program's day-to-day operations are at Center Parc Stadium, including practice, weight room, meetings rooms, coaches' offices, athletic training room and equipment room.

Center Parc Stadium was originally constructed as the 85,000-seat Centennial Olympic Stadium and used for the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games. Following the Olympic Games, much of the north end of the stadium was removed in order to convert it to the 49,000-seat baseball park that served as the home of the Atlanta Braves from 1997 through 2016.

The Braves played their final game at Turner Field on Oct. 2, 2016. In November 2016, the Board of Regents approved Georgia State University's purchase of 38 acres of the 68-acre site for $22.8 million, and the conversion process began in early 2017.

The redevelopment of this iconic property also includes the Georgia State University Convocation Center, which opened in 2022 at the north end of the property, and new Georgia State baseball and softball facilities to be constructed on the footprint of the former Atlanta-Fulton County stadium. Residential, retail and corporate facilities are being developed by Carter and Associates.

HEAD COACH DELL MCGEE

In his 11 seasons as a Division I coach, Dell McGee has been part of winning seasons every year, including four conference titles, seven bowl appearances and five bowl games and two national championship titles.

Dell McGee, a Georgia native with 22 years of coaching experience, including back-to-back national titles as the run game coordinator and running backs coach for the Georgia Bulldogs, was named the fourth head football coach in Georgia State history by GSU President Dr. M. Brian Blake and Director of Athletics Charlie Cobb on Feb. 23, 2024.

“We are proud to announce Coach Dell McGee as our head football coach,” Cobb said upon McGee’s hiring. “Coach McGee is an outstanding and authentic man with a strong passion for developing young men. His track record of competitive success at the high school and college levels makes me confident that he will lead our football program to its greatest achievements. We welcome Linda and Dell to Georgia State University!”

McGee takes over a Georgia State program that began play 2010 and has appeared in six bowl games in the last nine years, winning four, including three in the last four seasons.

The Columbus, Ga., native has spent almost his entire coaching career in his home state. He served the last eight seasons at Georgia, where his abilities as a coach and recruiter have contributed to the Bulldogs’ remarkable run of success under Kirby Smart. McGee has been a key part of a Georgia program that has amassed 94 victories in eight seasons, highlighted by back-to-back College Football Playoff national championships in 2021 and 2022 as well as a berth in the 2017 CFP title game, eight bowl victories, two Southeastern Conference titles and six SEC Eastern Division crowns.

Rivals.com named McGee the 2018 National Recruiter of the Year after the Bulldogs signed the consensus No. 1-rated recruiting class, and he helped recruit and develop Georgia’s 56 NFL draft picks from 2017-23, including 15 first-rounders and an NFL-record 25 players drafted over the last two years.

McGee joined Smart’s original Georgia staff in 2016 as running backs coach, the position he worked with throughout his tenure in Athens. He also served as assistant head coach in 2018, and then in 2019, he was named run game coordinator.

In his eight seasons at UGA, McGee coached four 1,000-yard rushers: Nick Chubb in 2016-17; Sony Michel in 2017; D’Andre Swift in 2018-19; and Elijah Holyfield in 2018. Chubb and Michel amassed over 8,400 combined yards and 87 touchdowns. Chubb, Michel, and Swift, as well as James Cook and Zamir White, were all taken in the first four rounds of the NFL Draft.

Before going to Georgia, McGee worked two seasons as the running backs coach at Georgia Southern (2014-15). In December 2015, he served as the interim head coach and led the Eagles to a victory in the GoDaddy Bowl.

He spent the 2013 season as an analyst at Auburn, his alma mater, and was part of the staff that led the Tigers to a berth in the

2023 SEASON REVIEW- GAME SUMMARIES (GAME-BY-GAME)

GEORGIA STATE 42, RHODE ISLAND 35

Game 1: Thursday, Aug. 31, 2023 • 7 p.m. (ESPN+) Center Parc Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Marcus Carroll rushed for a career-high 184 yards and three touchdowns and cornerback Gavin Pringle returned an interception 21 yards for a touchdown as Georgia State opened the season with a 42-35 win against Rhode Island in a Thursday night game at Center Parc Stadium.

GSU quarterback Darren Grainger passed for 193 yards, tossing two touchdowns without throwing an interception, and the super senior also added 51 yards on the ground. Pringle, the graduate transfer from Bucknell making his GSU debut, put Georgia State (1-0) ahead for good at 35-28 late in the third quarter.

"Rhode Island is a very good football team, and tonight was a great test of everything we went through the last sixth months. We overcame a lot of adversity. We're up 21-7 and thing kind of go off the rails a bit. They take a seven-point lead, but we didn't flinch. That's what our offseason was about.

"I'm very proud of these guys, the way we kept playing. We gave up some big plays in the secondary, some things we've got to fix, but I really love the way our guys looked right in the face of adversity and said, 'You know what, not tonight!'"

Grainger's most prolific target in the ballgame was Robert Lewis, who caught seven passes for 97 yards, including a 39-yard touchdown, while Tailique Williams caught a 42-yard scoring pass.

Carroll's rushing effort is the fourth-highest single-game rushing total in GSU history. He now has three of the top five single-game performances in program history over his last five games, including his 163-yard effort last season at Southern Miss.

GSU won the turnover battle in Thursday's game, forcing two turnovers while avoiding any giveaways.

Georgia State put together a stellar showing on the ground, racking up 231 rushing yards while averaging 6.1 yards per carry and out-rushing Rhode Island by 119 yards. The GSU offense did a good job extending drives, converting on 50 percent of third-down attempts. GSU also went 1-for-1 on fourth down.

How It Happened

Georgia State jumped in front 14-0 on Robert Lewis' 39-yard touchdown catch and Marcus Carroll's 9-yard TD run.

After a Rhode Island touchdown, Georgia State answered immediately on Darren Grainger's 42-yard TD pass to Tailique Williams to lead 21-7 four minutes into the second quarter. The Rams cut the deficit to 21-14 with a touchdown late in the first half.

Rhode Island then scored on consecutive drives in the third quarter to move ahead 28-21, but Georgia State tied the game on Carroll's 23-yard scoring run, the second of his three touchdowns.

Then Gavin Pringle gave the Panthers the lead for good with his 21-yard pick six with 1:30 to play in the third quarter.

Carroll extended the GSU lead to 42-28 in the fourth quarter as Carroll broke through the line for a 63-yard run down to the 12-yard line and then scored one play later.

Game Notes

» Safety Cody Jones prevented a score with a spectacular interception in the end zone.

» Jeremiah Johnson led the GSU defense with eight tackles.

» In his first start, Kade Loggins punted five times for GSU with an average of 47.2 yards per punt while pinning URI inside their own 20 one time.

» The GSU didn't allow a sack in the contest.

» Georgia State got off to a fantastic start in the contest, putting 14 unanswered points on the board before Rhode Island could respond.

» Grainger completed 80 percent of his passes, including his first 14 throws, going 16-for-20 while averaging 9.6 yards per attempt.

» Seventh-year quarterback Kasim Hill led URI , completing 24 of his 40 attempts for 408 yards and four touchdowns with two interceptions.

GEORGIA STATE 35, UCONN 14

Game 2: Sept. 9, 2023 • 7 p.m. (ESPN+) Center Parc Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Darren Grainger and Marcus Carroll each broke the century mark on the ground to help Georgia State cruise to a 35-14 victory over UConn Saturday night at Center Parc Stadium.

The Panthers improved to 2-0 behind big days from Grainger, the senior quarterback who racked up 142 yards and one touchdown, and Carroll, who tacked on 107 yards and three touchdowns to lead the rushing attack. Grainger also passed for 144 yards on 15 completions with one touchdown pass.

"A really convincing a good UConn football team," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "We came out and executed in all three phases. Our defense was all over the field, attacking. The speed was really evident."

The Georgia State defense forced three turnovers and held the Huskies scoreless for three quarters before UConn managed two late scores. Although UConn finished with 326 yards of offense, 194 of those came in the fourth quarter after GSU had taken a 28-0 lead.

Jeremiah Johnson paced the Georgia State defensive effort with two fumble recoveries. Josiah Robinson added one interception, and Jontrey Hunter had eight tackles with one tackle for loss and forced fumble.

Georgia State recorded a stellar showing on the ground, racking up 250 rushing yards while averaging 5.6 yards per carry and out-rushing UConn by 200 yards.

How It Happened

Georgia State scored first on Darren Grainger's career-long 65-yard touchdown run with 8:40 left in the first quarter to take a 7-0 lead. The Panthers then increased the lead to 14-0 on Grainger's 9-yard TD pass to Robert Lewis.

Georgia State kept UConn off the scoreboard and extended its lead to 21-0 with 23 seconds left in the second quarter as Carroll scored from two yards out.

After stopping UConn on its first possession of the second half, Georgia State went on a 15-play, 92 yard drive that ate up 7:20 on the clock, resulting in Carroll's 3-yard scoring run and a 28-0 lead with four minutes left in the third quarter.

"We walked out of the locker room saying the most important drive of the whole season may be this first drive of the second half," Elliott said. "And we did a fantastic job coming out there and shutting them down, and I knew we were right where we needed to be."

After UConn finally got on the scoreboard with nine minutes left, the Panthers answered immediately on Carroll's 39-yard scoring run. His third touchdown of the day made it 35-7 with 6:26 remaining.

Game Notes

» Grainger and Carroll each rushed for over 100 yards for the Panthers.

» Carroll had his second straight 100-yard game and topped the 1,000-yard mark for career rushing, the 12th player in school history to do so.

» Carroll has rushed for six touchdowns in the first two games.

» Grainger recorded his fourth 100-yard rushing game but missed his career high by one yard.

» Georgia State outgained UConn 394-326, including a 250-50 advantage on the ground.

» Georgia State won the turnover battle 3-1 after intercepting one pass and recovering two fumbles.

» The Panthers scored first with 8:40 left in the first quarter and never trailed the rest of the game on their way to victory.

» Georgia State got off to a hot start in the contest, putting 28 unanswered points on the board before

GEORGIA STATE 41, CHARLOTTE 25

Game 3: Sept. 16, 2023 • 6 p.m. (ESPN+) Jerry Richardson Stadium • Charlotte, N.C.

Behind 466 yards passing by Darren Grainger and a school-record 220 receiving yards by Robert Lewis, Georgia State improved to 3-0 for the first time in program history with a 41-25 victory at Charlotte Saturday night at Jerry Richardson Stadium.

Grainger completed 27 of 33 passes and three touchdowns while accumulating 466 yards, just five yards shy of the GSU single-game record. He added 23 yards and one touchdown on the ground.

"I'm really proud of our football team for the first 3-0 start in school history," head coach Shawn Elliott said.

"I thought our throwing game was really on point tonight," he continued. "We took advantage of some things we saw. We've got some really special receivers who made some plays, and Darren made some great throws. We couldn't really get our ground game going, but our passing game really took over."

Lewis needed six catches to rack up 220 yards and two touchdowns, including the longest play in Georgia State history. With the Panthers backed up on their own 3-yard line, Grainger hit Lewis at the GSU 40, and Lewis outraced the defense for a 97-yard touchdown reception. Lewis also had a 59-yard catch down to the 1-yard line and a spectacular 38-yard touchdown catch that put GSU ahead 41-25 early in the fourth quarter.

Tailique Williams joined Lewis in the 100-yard column with a career 129 yards receiving on five catches, including a 66-yard touchdown.

Marcus Carroll rushed for 67 yards and his seventh touchdown of the season.

Gavin Pringle paced the Georgia State defensive effort, collecting three tackles, one sack, and his second interception of the season. Bryquice Brown added three tackles, two pass breakups, and one recovered fumble and Jeremiah Johnson had six tackles, 1.0 TFL, one sack, and one forced fumble in the win.

GEORGIA STATE 30, COASTAL CAROLINA 17

Game 4: Sept. 21, 2023 • 7:30 p.m. (ESPN)
Brooks Stadium • Conway, S.C.

Darren Grainger passed for 191 yards, Marcus Carroll rushed for 150 yards and the Georgia State defense was outstanding as the Panthers moved to 4-0 for the first time in program history with a 30-17 win at Coastal Carolina in a nationally-televised, Thursday night game at Brooks Stadium.

It was another happy homecoming for Grainger, the Conway native who is 2-0 in his hometown. The senior quarterback completed 15 of 26 passes with one touchdown pass while rushing for 47 yards rushed for another. Carroll had another big game, his third 100-yard effort in four games this season and his fifth in the last eight games, including his FBS-leading eighth touchdown on a 7-yard run in the third quarter.

"Our football team played their hearts out tonight," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "They practiced their hearts out, and they've done everything we've asked them to do, and it was really evident on this field tonight. To have our first conference win and our first 4-0 start in school history really feels incredible."

Robert Lewis had three catches for 39 yards, including his fifth touchdown catch of the season. He has caught 12 touchdowns in his last 13 games.

The Georgia State defense allowed only 10 points while constantly pressuring Coastal quarterback Grayson McCall, the three-time Sun Belt Player of the Year. The Panthers were particularly effective in the red zone, holding the Chanticleers to just three point on four trips to the red zone.

"I can't say enough about our defense," Elliott said. "Coach [Chad] Staggs coming back here, a couple of defensive players who transferred from Coastal, coming to Georgia State (Josiah Robinson and Corey Warren), they balled out tonight and got the W."

In addition to starting 4-0, Georgia State opened Sun Belt Conference play 1-0, while the Chanticleers fell to 2-2 and 0-1.

Georgia State enters the weekend as one of only two 4-0 FBS teams in the nation, along with Notre Dame.

How It Happened

Georgia State scored on the game's opening drive to take a 7-0 lead on Darren Grainger's 8-yard touchdown run, capping a 14-play, 75-yard drive. After Coastal Carolina scored to cut the Panthers lead to 7-3, Georgia State fired back with Grainger's 13-yard TD pass to Robert Lewis touchdown to make it 14-3 early in the second quarter.

After the GSU defense forced a missed field goal late in the first half, freshman placekicker Liam Rickman booted a field goal on the final play of the half for the second straight game to give the Panthers a 17-3 halftime lead.

Coastal Carolina managed a touchdown on the opening drive of the second half, but Rickman's second field goal made it 20-10 with five minutes left in the third quarter.

Georgia State continued to increase its advantage, as Carroll's 7-yard TD run with 13:13 remaining in the fourth quarter made it 27-10.

After a dropped snap on a punt led to a Coastal touchdown that brought the Chanticleers within 27-17 with seven minutes left, Georgia State's Jordan Venezia recovered the ensuing on-sides kick, leading to Rickman's third field goal of the game for a 30-17 lead with 2:36 left.

TROY 28, GEORGIA STATE 7

Game 5: Sept. 30, 2023 • 7 p.m. (ESPN+)
Center Parc Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell to Troy 28-7 Saturday night at Center Parc Stadium, snapping the Panthers (4-1, 1-1 Sun Belt) season-opening, four-game winning streak.

Despite the loss, Georgia State's 4-1 record is still the best start in school history.

The Panthers prolific offense struggled, committing three costly turnovers, including two in the red zone.

"Congratulations to Troy. They're a good football team and a tough football team, and when you play a team like that, you can't beat yourself," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "We had three turnovers, two in the red zone, and that's hard to overcome. It's a tough ballgame when you fight yourself, and you can't do it. Certainly Troy had a lot to do with it.

"I thought our defense played extremely well. I thought they gave us a chance to win the game, but we kept shooting ourselves in the foot offensively and that was the difference in the ballgame."

Marcus Carroll rushed for 75 yards and one touchdown and caught three passes for 37 yards. Quarterback Darren Grainger passed for 193 yards on 19 completions but threw his first two interceptions of the season and also fumbled.

Robert Lewis caught six passes for 114 yards.

On defense, safety TyGee Leach, the graduate transfer from Lehigh, grabbed his first interception at GSU, while Henry Bryant had nine tackles.

"I told those guys in the locker room, So what, now what? You keep your heads up," Elliott said. "We've got a helluva football team, but we've got to play three phases. I don't want anybody to drag their heads. Yes, winning and losing is the name of the game, and to lose this game is a disappointing feeling. But I'm very confident in our players, I'm very confident in our leaders, I'm very confident in our coaches, and I think we're going to be a force to be reckoned with."

How It Happened

After the Georgia State defense forced Troy to settle for a pair of field goals, the Panthers got on the scoreboard with a 15-play, 75-yard drive, capped by Marcus Carroll's FBS-leading eighth touchdown of the season to take a 7-6 lead with 7:05 left in the second quarter. That remained the scored at the intermission.

Troy scored on the opening possession of the second half to to take a 13-7 lead. The Trojans extended the lead to 21-7 with 2:42 left in the quarter.

Midway through the fourth quarter, Georgia State appeared to score a touchdown on a long pass from Grainger to Lewis, but Lewis was ruled out of bounds on the 1-yard line. Two plays later, the Panthers committed fumbled for their third turnover of the game to give Troy possession with eight minutes remaining and a 14-point lead.

Game Notes

» Marcus Carroll scored his FBS-leading ninth touchdown of the season.

» Darren Grainger threw his first interception of the season on the Panthers' opening drive after 107 straight passes without a pick.

» GSU had four players with more than eight tackles in the ballgame led by Jontrey Hunter, who had 10.

GEORGIA STATE 41, MARSHALL 24

Game 6: Oct. 14, 2023 • 7 p.m. (ESPN2)
 Center Parc Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Continuing the best start in program history, Georgia State used a 240-yard performance on the ground, including 159 yards from Marcus Carroll, to knock off Marshall 41-24 on Homecoming night at Center Parc Stadium, improving to 5-1 overall, 2-1 in Sun Belt Conference play.

Darren Grainger passed for 234 yards and one touchdown without throwing an interception and rushed for 62 yards and two touchdowns. With those three scores, Grainger tied the school record for touchdown responsibility; he now has 59 touchdowns passing and rushing, equalling Nick Arbuckle's mark.

"I'm very, very proud of our football team," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "I talk about this all time, but our players are incredible. I wake up every single day thanking the Lord that I get to go be with them.

"It's just awesome to be around these guys. They fight, they push through adversity and they come out with their heads held high. It doesn't seem like anything affects us, like it did a year ago.

"[Marshall] is a really good football team, a talented football team. We just came out and did an awesome job," Elliott continued.

Carroll paced the Panthers rushing attack by accumulating 159 yards and scoring his 10th touchdown of the season. He notched his sixth 100-yard game while achieving the seventh-best single-game total in program history and third best of his career. Carroll gained 97 yards in the second half, including 68 in the fourth quarter.

Tailique Williams pulled in six catches for 129 yards, tying his career high for receiving yards, highlighted by a 74-yard touchdown catch.

Kevin Swint led the Georgia State defensive effort with six tackles, 3.0 TFL, two sacks, and one forced fumble. Javon Denis added a sack, and Henry Bryant had a fumble recovery.

Georgia State also got a big play from its special teams as true freshman Cam Marshall blocked deep in Marshall territory, and redshirt freshman Izaiah Guy picked up the ball and scored from four yards out. That is Georgia State's first blocked punt since 2013 (DeMarius Matthews vs. Troy) and first special teams touchdown since 2018.

"The blocked punt was a great call by our special teams coordinator Arketa Banks," Elliott said.

How It Happened

Georgia State jumped in front with a touchdown on the opening drive as Grainger led the Panthers down the field and then capped the drive with a 24-yard scoring run.

After Marshall answered with a touchdown on its first drive, Georgia State took the lead for good on Izaiah Guy's touchdown return of Cam Marshall's blocked punt. Liam Rickman added a 34-yard field to give the Panthers a 17-7 lead early in the second quarter.

Rickman's second field goal put the Panthers up 20-10 with 5:15 left in the half, and then Grainger connected with Williams for a 74-yard touchdown pass. Williams took a short pass over the middle and turned up field, racing down the right sideline for the score and a 27-10 lead with 1:19 to play in the first half.

Marshall managed a touchdown in the final seconds of the half to make it 27-10, and that remained the score until the Thundering Herd scored on the final play of the third quarter as Rashaan Ali made a spectacular catch on a tipped ball between two defenders and ran for the 65-yard score, bringing Marshall within 27-24.

But Georgia State responded on its next possession, which was kept alive by a roughing the punter penalty. After that, the Panthers moved down the field, and Grainger rushed for his second touchdown of the day from two yards out, extending the lead to 34-24 with 11 minutes left.

Carroll's 2-yard touchdown run capped the scoring with 1:42 to play.

Game Notes

» Georgia State outgained Marshall 474-457, including a 240-156 advantage on the ground.

GEORGIA STATE 20, LOUISIANA 17

Game 7: Oct. 21, 2023 • 8 p.m. ET (ESPNU)
Cajun Field • Lafayette, La.

Georgia State needed a stop inside its own 10-yard line in the final minute on Saturday night and got it with Gavin Pringle's game-saving interception in the end zone with 30 seconds left to seal the Panthers' 20-17 victory over Louisiana at Cajun Field. The win extends Georgia State's best start to 6-1 and makes the Panthers bowl eligible.

"What an incredible finish, with our backs against the wall," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "We were doing nothing offensively [in the second half] and we leave it right there for our defense to make the biggest play of year to seal that victory. It was an incredible finish.

"We overcame a lot tonight," Elliott continued. "We didn't play very well offensively in the second half. I made a very, very dumb call at the end of the first half where ended up giving up a sack-fumble and giving them seven points. They got momentum, came back and set up for an unbelievable finish.

"But here we are, sitting here in Lafayette, first time victorious over this bunch, first time 6-1 in school history, bowl eligible with a lot to play for coming up this Thursday night at Georgia Southern." Marcus Carroll rushed for 110 yards and added 55 receiving yards and tight end Ahmon Green caught two touchdowns, but Georgia State's defense was the story as the Panthers earned their first ever win over Louisiana after six losses.

The Panthers (6-1, 3-1 Sun Belt) held Louisiana (4-3, 1-2) to 289 yards of offense.

Darren Grainger passed for 211 yards and two touchdowns and added 18 yards rushing. Tailique Williams pulled in six catches for 81 yards.

Josiah Robinson added seven tackles, 2.0 TFL, and one sack. Jontrey Hunter had eight tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss.

How It Happened

Georgia State took the opening kickoff and drove down the field but fumbled at the goal line. After a scoreless first quarter, the Panthers scored the game's first points as QB Darren Grainger connected with tight end Ahmon Green on a 24-yard touchdown pass. Tailique Williams had a 47-yard reception to put the Panthers in the red zone. After a missed extra point, GSU led 6-0 with 13 minutes left in the first half.

Grainger and Green connected again, this time on a 3-yard scoring play that put the Panthers up 13-0 with 9:49 left in the half. The score was set up by Marcus Carroll's 49-yard reception down to the 3-yard line. Those are the first two touchdowns of Green's career.

Georgia State was driving again when Grainger left the game due to injury. Backup QB Mikele Colasurdo, seeing his first significant action, stepped in and moved the Panthers down the field, capping the 68-yard drive with a 3-yard scoring run for a 20-0 lead with 4:23 left in the half.

Louisiana converted a fumble recovery into a touchdown with 30 seconds left in the half, sending GSU to locker room with a 20-7 lead.

The Ragin' Cajuns kicked a field goal on the opening possession of the second half and then closed then pulled within 20-17 on a touchdown with two minutes left in the third quarter.

Louisiana started its final possession at its own 20-yard line with seven minutes left and moved down the field. The Ragin' Cajuns had 3rd-and-4 at the GSU 7 with less than a minute to play when Gavin Pringle picked off Zeon Chriss's pass in the end zone.

Game Notes

» Georgia State outgained Louisiana 343-289, including a 214-124 advantage through the air.

» The Panthers scored first with 13:07 left in the second quarter and never trailed the rest of the game on their way to victory.

» Georgia State tallied 20 points in the second quarter, accounting for all of their points.

» Grainger completed 77.3% of his passes on the day, going 17-for-22 while averaging 9.6 yards per attempt.

» With 211 yards passing and 18 yard rushing, Grainger now has 7,552 yards of total offense in his three seasons at Georgia State. He is just 15 yards away from breaking Nick Arbuckle's school record of 7,566 yards of total offense.

» Zeon Chriss led the Ragin' Cajuns passing attack, completing 14 of his 28 attempts for 106 yards and one touchdown with one interception.

» Chriss led the Louisiana rushing attack with 119 yards.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN 44, GEORGIA STATE 27

Game 8: Thur., Oct. 26, 2023 • 7:30 p.m. (ESPN2)
Paulson Stadium • Statesboro, Ga.

Georgia State got 208 yards rushing and two touchdowns from Marcus Carroll, but the Panthers fell 44-27 at Georgia Southern in a Thursday night game at Paulson Stadium, snapping GSU's three-game winning streak in the series.

The Panthers, who still lead the series 6-4, are now 6-2 overall and 3-2 in the Sun Belt.

"Obviously a disappointing loss and a hard one to swallow," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "Credit to Georgia Southern. They're a good football team with a good plan. It's unfortunate that we didn't play quite like the team we've been in that first half. In the second half we made a little bit of a comeback. We started forcing turnovers and moving the ball offensively. Credit to our team for fighting till the end and staying in that ballgame, but it's a disappointing loss."

Carroll's 208-yard effort is the second-highest single-game rushing total in school history, trailing only Tra Barnett's GSU-record 242 yards vs. Troy in 2019. Carroll topped the 1,000-yard mark for the season, joining Barnett for Georgia State's only 1,000-yard seasons. He also tied the GSU season record with his 12th rushing touchdown.

Darren Grainger passed for 157 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 80 yards to become Georgia State's all-time leader in total offense. The senior from Conway, S.C., now has 7,789 yards passing and rushing to pass Nick Arbuckle (7,566).

Robert Lewis also set a school record with 12 receptions for 97 yards, including a 15-yard touchdown catch, his sixth of the season.

Safety Jeremiah Johnson had an interception, Corey Warren recovered a fumble, and Jontrey Hunter had 10 tackles and a sack.

How It Happened

Georgia State tied the game at 7-7 with five minutes left in the first quarter, driving 83 yards in 12 plays, capped by Carroll's 13-yard scoring run. But Georgia Southern scored 20 straight to take a 27-10 lead at the half.

Trailing 34-7, Georgia State cut into the lead on Darren Grainger's 3-yard touchdown pass to Cadarius Thompson a fourth-down play. Then the Panthers forced back-to-back turnovers on Jeremiah Johnson's interception and Corey Warren's fumble recovery, which Georgia State converted into Carroll's second touchdown on a 19-yard run on the final play of the third quarter, pulling within 34-21.

Georgia Southern (6-2, 3-1) returned an interception for a touchdown before the Panthers closed out the scoring on Grainger's 15-yard TD pass to Robert Lewis.

JAMES MADISON 42, GEORGIA STATE 14

Game 9: Nov. 4, 2023 • 3:30 p.m. (ESPN2)
 Center Parc Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell 42-14 to No. 23/24 James Madison at Center Parc Stadium.

The Dukes won their 12th straight game and improved to 9-0 on the year and 6-0 in Sun Belt Conference play, while the Panthers fell to 6-3 overall, 3-3 in the Sun Belt.

"James Madison deserves all the credit; that is a really good football team. They came in here undefeated, best defense in the league and all that; you would have thought we would have doggone showed up to the party to fight this team. We fought for a little bit, but we didn't fight for four quarters," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "I can't put my finger on it, but it was poor execution by me as a head coach, poor execution by our entire staff, poor execution by our entire football program. I felt like we had the team who could defeat these guys, but we didn't have the team to do it today."

Georgia State quarterback Darren Grainger rushed for 103 yards with two long touchdown runs, but the GSU offense managed just 228 yards.

After JMU scored a touchdown on its opening possession, the Panthers answered on Grainger's 30-yard touchdown to knot the game at 7-all midway through the first quarter.

Then Bryquice Brown intercepted JMU quarterback Jordan McCloud and returned it 43-yards to the JMU 22. But the Panthers had to settle for a 33-yard field goal attempt, and Liam Rickman's attempt hit the upright.

James Madison missed a field goal, also hitting the upright, on its next possession and the game remained tied at 7-all until late in the second quarter. The Dukes took over at their own 14-yard line with nine minutes in the half and put together a 15-play, 86-yard drive that ate up 7:49, capped by McCloud's 5-yard scoring run with 1:09 left for a 14-7 halftime lead.

The Dukes scored on their first two possessions of the second half to build a 24-7 lead before the Panthers answered on another long run by Grainger, this time a 58-yard scoring play that made it 28-14 with 2:43 left in the third quarter.

But JMU drove for another touchdown, extending its lead to 35-14 early in the fourth.

JMU quarterback Jordan McCloud accounted for six touchdowns. He passed for 307 yards and four scores while rushing for 104 yards and two touchdowns.

APP STATE 42, GEORGIA STATE 14

Game 10: Nov. 11, 2023 • 2 p.m. (ESPN+)
 Center Parc Stadium • Atlanta, Ga.

Georgia State fell 42-14 to Appalachian State at Center Parc Stadium.

Marcus Carroll rushed for 113 yards on a school record-tying 34 carries. The senior from Union City, Ga., broke the Georgia State record with his ninth career 100-yard game.

Georgia State quarterback Darren Grainger threw two touchdown passes, tying the GSU career record with his 51st TD pass in Panther Blue. The sixth-year senior from Conway, S.C., who was honored before the game on Senior Day, equaled the mark set by Nick Arbuckle from 2014-15.

The Georgia State defense forced two turnovers, an interception by Jeremiah Johnson, who also had six tackles, and a fumble recovery by Izaiah Guy.

Georgia State started strong, putting together a 20-play drive that last 8:40 on its second possession, but the Panthers fumbled at the App State 4-yard line. Four plays later, the Mountaineers scored on a 61-yard run by Nate Noel to take a 7-0 lead that they would not relinquish.

"App State came out strong and really were hitting on all cylinders. We controlled the line of scrimmage early and had an opportunity to take the ball down the score but we turned it over," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "We didn't have what it took today. This game humbles us, and that football right there defeated us. They were the better team today."

"Right now we're searching for some answers," Elliott continued. "We've lost three straight football games to good football teams, but we haven't executed like we did earlier in the season. We've got to find our rhythm, our execution has to be much better and our coaching has to be much better."

Despite the tough stretch, Georgia State is bowl eligible and still has much to play for.

"There's still a lot to be said for our season," Elliott said. "I want us to understand that we can finish this season out the right way and continue the momentum for this program. We have to push to find success in the next two weeks, find our bowl destination and finish this season the right way."

Game Notes

- » Jordan Veneziale led the Panthers with eight tackles.
- » Kade Loggins punted nine times for the Panthers with an average of 47.4 yards per punt while pinning the Mountaineers inside their own 20 three times.
- » Georgia State went 1-for-2 on fourth down
- » App State quarterback Joey Aguilar completed 14 of his 21 attempts for 255 yards and three touchdowns with one interception.

LSU 56, GEORGIA STATE 14

Game 11: Nov. 18, 2023 • 8 p.m. ET (ESPN2)
 Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, La.

Georgia State fell 56-14 at No. 15 LSU Saturday night at Tiger Stadium.

Georgia State started strong, taking the opening possession and driving 75 yards on eight plays, capped by Darren Grainger's 6-yard touchdown pass to Tailique Williams. Not only did that give the Panthers a 7-0 lead three minutes into the game, it also made Grainger the GSU career leader with 52 touchdown passes. The senior from Conway, S.C., broke the mark set by Nick Arbuckle in 2014-15.

After LSU took a 14-7 lead, Georgia State answered with another long touchdown drive, this time moving 79 yards as Marcus Carroll's 44-yard touchdown run tied the game with 12:45 left in the second quarter. The score was Carroll's school-record 13th touchdown of the season.

But LSU scored two late touchdowns to take a 35-14 lead at the half.

Trailing 21-14 in the second quarter, the Panthers (6-5) drove into LSU territory and faced 4th-and-7 at the LSU 30-yard line with three minutes left in the half. GSU opted to go for it, but Darren Grainger's pass was just out of the reach of Robert Lewis in the end zone. LSU took over and scored on the next play on a 70-yard touchdown pass by Heisman Trophy front-runner Jayden Daniels. The Tigers (8-3) managed another quick score just before the half to take a 35-14 lead into the locker room.

"Obviously you've got to take some chances in these games," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "We probably executed as well as we could have going into that sequence right there. You're not going to win that game kicking field goals. You've got to take advantage on fourth down. Then the explosive play and the touchdown right after that, and it was kind of on right there at that point."

"That quarterback is a really special football player and they have receivers who can catch the ball over the top and we just couldn't contain that. Those explosive plays were the difference in this football game."

GAME NOTES

> Marcus Carroll rushed for 87 yards on 15 carries, including a 44-yard touchdown to give him 13 on the season, the GSU record.

> Carroll topped the 2,000-yard mark for career rushing. He now has 2,079 career yards.

> Quarterback Darren Grainger completed 23 of 29 passes for 179 yards and one touchdown, the 52nd of his career to break the Georgia State record. He added 32 yards rushing.

> Robert Lewis had nine catches for 53 yards.

> Jontrey Hunter caused a fumble in the first quarter; his seventh career forced fumble is a new GSU record (previous record of 6 by Mackendy Cheridor).

> LSU quarterback Jayden Daniels accounted for eight touchdowns, passing for 413 yards and six touchdowns while rushing for 96 yards and two scores.

OLD DOMINION 25, GEORGIA STATE 24

Game 12: Nov. 25, 2023 • 2 p.m. (ESPN+)
 SB Ballard Stadium • Norfolk, Va.

Georgia State dropped its regular-season finale at Old Dominion 25-24 as the Monarchs scored the winning touchdown on the game's final play.

Old Dominion (6-6, 5-3) scored 11 points in the final two minutes on a field goal, a safety and quarterback Grant Wilson's 3-yard touchdown run on the final play.

Georgia State jumped to a 21-0 halftime lead as quarterback Darren Grainger rushed for a 16-yard touchdown and then threw two touchdown passes to tight end Ahmon Green. But the offense stalled in the second half as the Panthers were without several key starters, most notably running back Marcus Carroll, but also receivers Tailique Williams and Ja'Cyais Credle and center Avery Reese.

"What a disappointing way to end a ballgame the way we did," head coach Shawn Elliott said. "Our defense was on point and gave us an opportunity to win the ballgame, but our offense just couldn't generate any momentum in the second half."

"We had an opportunity with the ball on the 2-yard and couldn't put it in, we had an opportunity to kick a field goal and it gets blocked and we had an opportunity to recover the onside kick. We had a bad snap and it led to a safety. Our defense made a valiant effort there at the end but they converted the fourth down."

Georgia State took the opening possession and drove 75 yards on 12 plays, capped by Grainger's 16-yard scoring run for a 7-0 lead six minutes into the game.

In the second quarter, the Panthers scored on back-to-back possessions, both on touchdown passes to tight end Ahmon Green. First Grainger found Green over the middle for a 29-yard scoring play, and then he hit tight end, who was again wide open over the middle from 11 yards for a 21-0 lead with 2:27 left in the first half.

Old Dominion scored on the first play of the fourth quarter to pull within 21-14, Gavin Pringle's interception, his fourth of the season, gave Georgia State possession at the ODU 39-yard line. But after Grainger hit Robert Lewis for a first down at the 2, the Panthers had to settle for Liam Rickman's 22-yard field to take a 24-14 lead with 10 minutes to play.

GSU had a chance to add more insurance after the defense sacked Wilson on third and fourth down to give the Panthers the ball at the ODU 31. But Rickman's field goal attempt from 39 yards was blocked.

ODU took over with 4:37 left and drove down the field. After a potential touchdown pass was nullified by a facemask penalty, the Monarchs kicked a 37-yard field goal to pull within 24-17 with 1:37 left. Georgia State recovered the onside kick but was called for offsides. On the second attempt, ODU squibbed the ball down to the 10-yard line, where GSU took over. On the second play, a bad snap by the backup center resulted in a safety, giving ODU two points and the ball for their final drive.

"It's a huge, huge gut punch. We had an opportunity to win that ballgame and finish with seven wins," Elliott said. "It's hard. This team fights and we have a lot of great players who have done a lot of great things for us. But we still have an opportunity to go finish this thing the right way."

Game Notes

> The Georgia State defense set a school record with eight sacks, including two by Henry Bryant and 1.5

by Justin Abraham.

> The Panthers held ODU to just 44 yards and three first downs in the first half.

> QB Darren Grainger completed 26 of 36 passes for 203 yards and two touchdowns. He also netted 24 yards rushing, including a 16-yard TD. That put him over 2,000 rushing yards for his Georgia State career.

Famous Idaho Potato Bowl

Game 13: Dec. 23, 2023 • 3:30 p.m. ET (ESPN)
Albertson's Stadium • Boise, Idaho

Freddie Brock rushed for a school-record 276 yards in his first start for Georgia State and quarterback Darren Grainger earned Most Valuable Player honors after accounting for five touchdowns to lead the Panthers to a dominating 45-22 win over Utah State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Georgia State (7-6) earned its third straight bowl win and improved to 4-2 in bowl games in its 10 years at the FBS level. Grainger picked up his second straight MVP award after completing 19 of 22 passes for 257 yards and three touchdowns and rushing for 111 yards and two scores. He tied his own GSU record with five touchdowns responsible for.

With Brock and Grainger as the only ball carriers, the Panthers piled up a 386 yards on the ground and averaged 7.9 yards per carry while scoring a season-high 45 points, despite playing without three starters on the offensive line as well as the team's leading rusher and top receiver. Georgia State put up 643 yards of offense while holding the Aggies (6-7) to 346 yards.

Grainger, the sixth-year senior from Conway, S.C., scored Georgia State's first two touchdowns on GSU's first two drives and then added three scores through the air to lead the Panthers to 31-straight points, turning a 14-14 game late in the first quarter into a 45-14 lead early in the fourth quarter.

"It was a great feeling for me to go out with a bang, with all the guys and the coaches and everyone involved," said Grainger. "The whole team went out there and played an excellent and we showed what we did early in the year. What a way to go out."

"I told them last night, Loosen up and go play the best 60 minutes of football in your life," Elliott said. "I told them that after the first touchdown, I wanted the goal post dunked, and he (pointing to Grainger) took care of that."

Cadarius Thompson was Grainger's top target, catching five passes for a career-high 117 yards, including touchdown receptions of 23 and 37 yards. Tailique Williams added a 27-yard TD catch.

"I really didn't know what to expect going into this game, to be honest. There were a lot of unknowns, a lot of new guys who had to step up and be the guys," Elliott said.

"I thought these new guys stepping in would give everything they had today, and it was incredible to watch them play. To see how we prepared and got this bowl win is incredible. We had three new starters on the offensive line, three new starters on defense, a new running back starting for us. There wasn't a single person who blinked an eye; they just went out and executed and got the job done.

"What a great way to end it with this team of truly great men," Elliott continued. "I can't thank them enough. I can't say enough about every man who went out there and executed today."

Brock, the transfer from Maine in his first season at GSU, only carried the ball six times for 31 yards during the regular season, but he rushed 24 times for 276 yards, including runs of 31, 43, 58 and 60 yards.

"I hadn't played that much this season, but I trusted the scheme, trusted what Coach Elliott said and just took advantage of the moment. I just came to play," Brock said.

Elliott improved to 4-1 in bowl games in his seven seasons at the helm.

"When you win the last one, that's very important," Elliott said. "This was just a fantastic day for us and a fantastic week. This is what the bowls are all out. And now we get to end it with a bowl championship."

HOW IT HAPPENED

Georgia State drove for touchdowns on its first two possessions, both capped by 1-yard touchdowns by quarterback Darren Grainger. The Panthers' first scoring drive came after th GSU defense stopped Utah State (6-7) on downs on a fourth-down stop by Kevin Swint at the GSU 33-yard line. Grainger drove the Panthers 68 yards on 10 plays, and then 75 yards on five plays, highlighted by Freddie Brock's 60-yard run to the USU 15-yard line.

With the game tied at 14-all late in the first quarter, Grainger directed another long scoring drive, this one resulting in his 27-yard touchdown pass to Tailique Williams on a 3rd-and-10 play. That touchdown gave GSU the lead for good as the Panthers scored 31 straight points to take a 45-14 lead early in the fourth quarter.
