CARDINALS OPEN ACC PLAY AT HOME VERSUS GEORGIA TECH

- After coming off the first of two bye weeks, the University of Louisville opens up Atlantic Coast Conference action when the Cards host Georgia Tech at L&N Stadium for the first time since 2018. Kickoff is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. on ESPN2.
- The Cardinals and Yellow Jackets are meeting for the fourth time in school history, with Georgia Tech holding a 2-1 advantage. Louisville won last season's contest 39-34 in the 2023 season opener for both schools in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Classic.
- The Cardinals moved to 2-0 with an impressive 49-14 win over Jacksonville State on Sept. 7 at L&N Stadium. Quarterback Tyler Shough completed 21-of-33 passes for 349 yards and a pair of touchdowns — a 48-yard strike to Chris Bell and a 12-yarder to Mark Redman.
- Louisville rushed for 233 yards and five touchdowns in the win, with five different players scoring on the ground. Maurice Turner led the way with 60 yards and a touchdown and Keyjuan Brown and Duke Watson each ran for 51 yards and a touchdown.
- The Cards enter Saturday's contest with the nine-best rushing offense in the nation, averaging 263.0 yards per game.
- Wide receiver Ja'Corey Brooks has emerged as the top receiver after catching six passes for 89 yards in the win over Jacksonville State, upping his season totals to 13 receptions for 172 yards and one score.
- Louisville amassed 610 yards of total offense, its second highest total under Jeff Brohm. The Cards reached 500 yards of total offense in back-to-back games for the first time since doing so Oct. 2-9, 2021, vs. Wake Forest and Virginia.
- Quincy Riley recorded his first interception of the season, giving him 14 in his career and seven at Louisville.
- By scoring 49 points in the win, Louisville has scored at least 30 points for the eighth time in nine home games under Brohm.
- Linebacker Stanquan Clark led Louisville defenders with nine tackles, including six solo stops as the Cardinals held the Gamecocks to 290 yards of total offense. The sophomore linebacker is the team leader in tackle with 11 after two contests.

THE SERIES

- This will be the fourth meeting between Louisville and Georgia Tech, with the Yellow Jackets holding a 2-1 series advantage.
- In their first trip to Louisville in 2018, the Yellow Jackets handed the Cardinals 66-31 defeat at L&N Stadium.
- Louisville opened the 2023 season with a 39-34 win over Georgia Tech at Mercedes Benz Stadium. The Yellow Jackets opened a 28-13 halftime lead before the Cardinals stormed back by scoring 26 second-half points to open the Jeff Brohm era.

HEAD COACHES

► Louisville: Head coach Jeff Brohm is in his second season at Louisville and his 11th overall as a head coach. He owns a 78-48 overall coaching record and has won eight or more games six times during his career. Brohm has guided the Cards to an 12-4 record in his return to his alma mater.

► Georgia Tech: Brent Key is 14-11 in a little more than two seasons at Georgia Tech. He took over as the interim coach in 2022 and guided the Yellow Jackets to a 4-4 record before being named the full-time leader.

KEY STORYLINES

- The Cards are looking to go 3-0 to open the season for the second-straight season and are hoping to top last season's 6-0 start before they dropped a game at Pittsburgh last season.
- The Cards are averaging 55.0 points per game, which ranks third nationally.
- Head coach Jeff Brohm becomes the first Louisville coach to start 2-0 in his first two seasons since Bobby Petrino did so from 2003 to 2006 and 2014.
- Louisville extended its streak of holding opponents scoreless on their first possession to 20 games. Louisville has held its opponent scoreless in the first quarter for the 14th time in its last 17 games
- Tyler Shough has been impressive in two starts, throwing for 581 yards and six touchdowns in a pair of wins. His six touchdowns are tied for the sixth most nationally and is tied for second in the ACC. Shough is completing a solid 68.4 percent of his throws and is averaging 14.9 yards a completion.
- Louisville ranks second nationally with an average of 8.2 yards per carry. The Cards stand fourth nationally with seven runs of 20 or more yards and are fourth with four rushes of over 30 yards.
- Freshman running back Isaac Brown is the team's leading rusher with 166 yards, an average of 83.0 yards per game, while another rookie Duke Watson is second with 137 yards and two scores. Watson ranks second nationally with an average of 13.7 yards per carry, while Brown is fourth in the country at 12.8 yards a tote.
- Louisville has scored seven or more touchdowns in back-to-back games for the first time since doing so in each of the first four games of the 2016 season.
- Louisville has completed passes to 12 or more different receivers in each of the first two games, including 15 different pass catchers in the season opener against Austin Peay.
- The offensive line has yet to yield a sack in the first two games of the season. Shough hasn't been sacked in 57 pass attempts since taking over as the starter.
- Louisville has totaled 19.0 tackles for loss in the first two games, ranking eighth in the country. Jared Dawson, Tamarion McDonald and Tramel Logan each have 3.0 tackles for loss through two contests
- Louisville has outscored the opposition 128-28 in the last 16 games, including a 24-0 margin thus far in 2024.
- Head coach Jeff Brohm is 8-1 in two seasons at Louisville.

HOME IS WHERE THE "W" IS

- Louisville is 121-46 (72.1) at L&N Cardinal Stadium since the start of the 1998 season.
- The Cardinals are 27-14 at home in ACC games since joining the league in 2014.

- Head coach Jeff Brohm is 8-1 all-time at L&N Stadium as head coach of the Cardinals.
- Brohm's teams are averaging 41.6 points per game since taking over the program, scoring over 50 points on three different occasions.
- Louisville has scored at least 30 points for the eighth time in nine home games under Brohm.

CARDS 10TH SEASON IN THE ACC

- Louisville begins its 10th season in the ACC when the Cards host Georgia Tech on Sept. 21. Louisville is 5-5 in ACC openers and has won two of its last three league beginners.
- Since joining the Atlantic Coast Conference in 2014, the Cardinals have posted a 44-38 overall record, with a pair of 7-1 seasons.
- The Cards defeated Georgia Tech 39-34 in last season's season opener in Atlanta.
- The Cardinals are 27-14 all-time at home in the ACC and has won seven consecutive league games at L&N Stadium since falling to Florida State 35-31 to open the home league schedule last season.
- The seven-game home conference winning streak is tied for the second-longest home winning streak in conference play.
- It's the longest since winning 12 straight in Conference USA and Big East from 2003-2006.

DURING THE SEPTEMBER MONTH

- The Cardinals have enjoyed success during the month of September, winning at a 58.4 clip in their history.
- Louisville is a solid 91-43-2 at home, where it plays its next two games in the month of September.
- Since taking over as the UofL head coach, Brohm has guided his teams to a perfect 6-0 record during the month of September.
- Head coach Jeff Brohm's team are 20-14 all-time during the month of September.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

- Louisville made another major imprint on the NFL Draft during 2024 with four total selections — the most for the program since matching the feat in 2018.
- It marked the 10th time since 2003 that the Cardinals had four or more players selected.
- After running back Issac Guerendo was taken in the fourth round (69th pick) by the San Francisco 49'ers, cornerback Jarvis Brownlee was a fifth-round selection by the Tennessee Titans, and followed with the fifth round selection of Jamari Thrash by the Cleveland Browns. Running back Jawhar Jordan was a sixth-round pick by Houston.

10-WIN SEASONS

- Head coach Jeff Brohm became the first coach to win 10 games in his first season when he guided his team to a 10-4 overall mark, and also was only the fifth coach to accomplish the feat in school history.
- Brohm's team was just the seventh team to reach the 10-win plateau and the first since the 2013 campaign when the Cardinals went 12-1 in their first season in the American Athletic Conference.
- Howard Schnellenberger's 1990 team was the first team to reach 10 wins when the squad went 10-1-1 and defeated nationally ranked Alabama in the Fiesta Bowl.

TAKING DOWN THE RANKS

- Last season, the Cardinals defeated two AP ranked opponents in the same season for only the second time in school history when they knocked off No. 10 Notre Dame 33-20 and No. 20 Duke 23-0.
- The shutout over Duke marked the first over a ranked a opponent in school history.

- The Cardinals are 20-63 all-time against teams ranked in the Associated Press Poll.
- Head coach Jeff Brohm is 10-15 all-time against opponents ranked in the AP Poll, which includes a 2-1 record since taking over at Louisville.
- As a Power 5 head coach, Brohm's teams have gone 10-12. He went 8-11 in his six seasons at Purdue.

FOURTH-RANKED TOTAL OFFENSE

- Jeff Brohm has continued to put a high-potent offensive attack on the field as evidence by the first two games of the season. Louisville enters Saturday's game with Georgia Tech ranked fourth nationally in total offense at 590.5 yards per game. The Cards totaled 610 yards of offense in the win over Jacksonville State on Sept. 7 — its second highest total under Brohm.
- In two seasons, Louisville has registered over 500 yards on four different occasions in a span of 16 games.
- In the season opener, Louisville rolled to a 62-0 win after totaling 571 yards of total offense.
- The Cards are averaging 8.9 yards per play — the third best total in the nation behind Mississippi and Washington State.
- The Cards rank second nationally with 19 plays of 20 or more yards and tied for seventh in the country with three plays of 50 or more yards.

THIRD-DOWN IMPROVEMENT

- Louisville has been efficient on third down through the first two contests. Louisville ranks 13th in the country in third down percentage at 55.5 percent. Louisville is 13-of-23 on third down after going a season best 9-of-13 in the win over Jacksonville State.
- The Cards were able to convert at a higher percentage against the Gamecocks because the average third-down distance was just 4.1 yards, compared to the 8.8 against Austin Peay, which saw the Cards go 4-of-10.
- Louisville enters the Georgia Tech contest ranked 13th nationally and third in the ACC in third-down percentage at 56.5 percent.
- Louisville averaged 8.2 yards on first down in the win over Jacksonville State and gained a total of 302 yards on first down.

A NEW STARTER

- For the second-straight year, head coach Jeff Brohm introduced a new starting quarterback in transfer Tyler Shough, who is off to a 2-0 start. The seventh-year player has thrown for 581 yards and six touchdowns through the two wins. In the win over Jacksonville State, Shough completed 21-of-33 passes for 349 yards and a pair of touchdowns. It was the sixth 300-yard game of his career and the 10th multi-touchdown game.
- In his debut, Shough went 18-of-24 for 232 yards and four touchdown passes. Shough tied Browning Nagle's school record for most TD passes in a UofL starting debut with four.
- Shough's 232 yards passing was the highest first-half total for a QB in his UofL starting debut since Jay Gruden threw for 234 yards in the first half vs. WKU in 1986.
- In seven seasons between three schools, Shough has thrown for 5,206 yards and 42 touchdowns, while completing 63.2 percent of his passes.
- In three seasons at Texas Tech, Shough passed for 2,922 yards and 20 touchdowns. His best year came in 2022 when he threw for 1,304 yards and seven scores. In his last two games of that season, Shough combined to complete 55-of-89 passes for 687 yards and three scores. He threw for a career high 436 yards and two scores against Oklahoma, while completing 31-of-50 passes.
- At Oregon, Shough passed for 1,703 yards and 16 touchdown passes. He threw for 1,559 yards and 13 touchdowns, while completing 63.5 percent of his passes for the Ducks.
- With the Ducks in 2020, Shough was consistent in his first five games, passing for over 200 in a all five contests. In a win over UCLA, Shough passed for 334 yards and three touchdowns and was 21-of-30 for 312 yards with career high four touchdowns.

BROOKS OFF TO FAST START

- With Caullin Lacy out with an injury, the Cardinals were looking for a go-to-receiver, and they might have found it in wide receiver Ja'Corey Brooks, a transfer from Alabama. The senior leads the team with 13 receptions for 172 yards and a touchdown. The Bradenton, Fla., native is fifth in the Atlantic Coast Conference in receptions per game at 6.5 and is ninth with an average of 86.0 yards per game.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

- In his first game with the Cards, Brooks caught seven passes for 86 yards and a nine-yard touchdown in the victory over Austin Peay.
- In the win over Jacksonville State, WR Ja'Corey Brooks led all receivers with six receptions for 89 yards.

FRESHMAN RUNNING BACKS TAKE THE STAGE

- The Cardinals lost a pair of NFL running backs last season in Isaac Guerendo and Jawhar Jordan so head coach Jeff Brohm went out and grabbed a pair of freshmen running backs who made an immediate impact in their collegiate debuts.
- True freshmen Isaac Brown and Duke Watson combined to rush for 303 yards and three touchdowns on just 23 carries (13.2 ypc.). Brown leads the way with 166 yards on 13 carries. He's averaging a healthy 12.8 yards per carry, which ranks fourth nationally for yards per carry.
- Brown led Louisville rushers with 123 yards and a touchdown on five carries in the season opener against Austin Peay and added one reception for nine yards. Brown had the highest rushing total in program history by a freshman in his first game.
- Brown became the first Louisville true freshman to rush for a TD since Keyjuan Brown did so vs. Murray State early last season. He posted the top mark by a freshman nationally and the 22nd-best by any back with 123 yards and his 24.6 yards per carry ranks third among all rushers nationally.
- Watson rushed for 86 yards and a TD on six carries versus Austin Peay and is second on the team with 137 yards and a pair of touchdowns. Watson and Brown are the third and fourth UofL true freshmen to rush for a TD in a season opener since 1970, following Larry Stricklin in 1985 and Anthony Allen in 2006.
- Watson is one of only three freshmen in the past 94 years to rush for a TD in Louisville's first two games of a season, joining Lamar Jackson (2015) and Tom Lucia (1947).
- Keyjuan Brown, who redshirted last season, is third on the team with 116 yards and is tied for the team lead with two scores. He tallied 51 yards and a touchdown against Jacksonville State and added 65 yards against Austin Peay. Brown is one of only three Louisville players in the past 70 years to rush for a TD in his first three games, joining Tiyon Evans (2022) and Calvin Prince (1976). He scored a touchdown in his lone game during the 2023 season.

OFFENSE HAS BEEN OFFENSIVE

- Louisville totaled 610 yards of total offense, its second highest total under Jeff Brohm, in the 49-14 win over Jacksonville State.
- The Cards reached 500 yards of total offense in back-to-back games for the first time since doing so Oct. 2-9, 2021, in wins over Wake Forest and Virginia.
- Louisville nets a 320-yard margin in total offense, reaching a 300-yard net margin in back-to-back games for the first time since Sept. 23-30, 2017, vs. Kent State and Murray State.
- The Cardinals have rushed for over 200 yards in consecutive games for the fourth time in the Jeff Brohm era. Louisville ranks 13th nationally in rushing and stands second in the country with an 8.2 yards per carry average after two games.
- Five different players rushed for a touchdown against JSU, the first time Louisville has accomplished that vs. FBS competition since five players ran for TDs vs. Temple in 2006. Six different players have scored on the ground in the first two games.
- The Cardinals are averaging 8.9 yards a rush on first down and have recorded 21 first downs on rushing attempts.
- Louisville has registered 13 runs of 10 or more yards and seven or 20 or more yards.

30 IS A GOOD NUMBER

- In the first two seasons in Jeff Brohm's offense, the Cardinals are averaging 32.8 points per game after the 62-point outburst versus Austin Peay and the 49 points versus Jacksonville State. Thirty points has been the magic number for the Cardinals as they are now 9-1 in games when they scored 30 or more points, losing only once in a 38-31 loss at home to Kentucky.
- The 62 points in the win over Austin Peay were the most points scored by a Brohm coached team, besting the 56 points scored in wins over Murray State and Boston College last season.
- The Cards have tallied 20 or more points in 14 of 16 games.
- Louisville was 1-1 in contests where they scored 15 or less points, defeating NC State 13-10 and losing to Florida State 16-6 in the ACC title game.

PASSING GAME ON TARGET

- The Cardinals have been efficient throwing the football through the first two games of the season. The Cards enter Saturday's contest ranked 12th nationally and third in the ACC in passing efficient with a 189.90 rating.
- As a team, the Cardinals are ranked 12th by completing 72.5 percent of their passes and are 18th

OFFENSIVE/DEFENSIVE NOTES

- in the country averaging 9.5 yards a pass attempt.
- Louisville is one of 23 teams who have yet to toss an interception this season. The Cardinals have yet to throw a pick in their first 69 pass attempts.
- Quarterback Tyler Shough is eighth in the country and third in the ACC in passing efficiency and ranks 14th in the nation by averaging 14.9 yards per completion.

TWO FOR TWO

- Head coach Jeff Brohm loves to use the tight end so he went out and added tight end Mark Redman, a transfer from San Diego State, to the roster. The senior has caught two passes for 33 yards this season, but both have ended up in the end zone. He made a leaping 21-yard catch in the end zone highlight his debut versus Austin Peay and added a 12-yard reception in the victory over Jacksonville State.
- Appearing in 23 games at San Diego State, Redman caught 58 passes for 633 yards and five scores. Last season, Redman was selected second team All-Mountain West after led the team with 37 catches, 394 receiving yards and three receiving touchdowns. He recorded multiple receptions in 11 of the 12 games this season.
- Jamari Johnson, who redshirted last season, has already caught three passes for 49 yards in the first two games and Nate Kurisky has recorded two receptions for 17 yards.

RUN TO WIN

- Known for his ability to get the football down the field, Brohm's 2023 offense displayed its prominence to run the football. Brohm's team rushed for 293 yards in the win over Austin Peay — the second-best total in Brohm's brief tenure at Louisville and added 233 yards in the win over Jacksonville State.
- It marks the second-straight season under head coach Jeff Brohm that Louisville has rushed for over 200 yards in the first two games of the season.
- Louisville ranks ninth nationally and leads the ACC with an average of 263.0 yards per game and are tied for 15th in the country with eight rushing touchdowns.
- Louisville is averaging a remarkable 8.2 yards per carry, which ranks second in the country — a full yard ahead of third place Bowling Green.
- Louisville has totaled seven runs of over 20 yards, which was the 16th-best total nationally and are ninth with four rushes of 30 or more yards.

PUSHING THE THE BALL DOWN THE FIELD

- The Cardinals have done a good job getting the ball down the field in the passing game in the first two games of the season. Louisville totaled 23 passes of 10 or more yards and 12 of 20 or more yards through the air. The Cardinals are fourth in the ACC in passing yards per completion, averaging 13.10 per completion.
- The Cardinals have seven players averaging 13.0 yards per reception. Chris Bell is averaging 21.3 yards per catch, while Jadon Thompson is second at 17.2 yards a catch.
- Ja'Corey Brooks, the team's top receiver, is averaging 13.2 yards per reception, while tight end Jamari Johnson is averaging 16.3 yards a catch.

THOMPSON MATCHES TOUCHDOWN TOTALS

- It looks like it took Jadon Thompson some time to get settled in at Louisville. Last season, Thompson caught 12 passes for 135 yards and one score. He entered the season with two career touchdown receptions in 42 games between Cincinnati and Louisville.
- Thompson matched his career touchdown total in one game when he recorded two touchdown receptions in the win over Austin Peay. He added two receptions for 42 yards against Jacksonville State.
- The Chicago, Ill., native grabbed three receptions for 44 yards and those two touchdowns in the win over the Governors. He caught a 33-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter and added a five-yard scoring reception later in that quarter for a 38-0 halftime lead.

GILLOTTE MOVING HIS WAY UP

- ▶ Defensive lineman Ashton Gillotte has been a sack machine and added one to his total in the win over Austin Peay. Gillotte added one sack to up his total to 23. Gillotte got his 23rd career sack to move into a tie with Marcus Jones for 9th place on Louisville's career sacks list.
- Gillotte has recorded 32.5 career TFL to move into ninth place on UofL's career TFL list.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

- The fourth-year senior recorded a career high 11 sacks last season, which ranked eighth in the country.
- The second-team All-American recorded sacks in seven games last season, including a career best 3.0 sacks in a win over Boston College.
- Gillotte would have to have a huge season to break the school record. Gillotte is 14.5 sacks away from breaking a school record.
- The native of West Palm Beach, Fla., was named the league's preseason Player of the Year voting.

INTERCEPTION KING

- Teams are starting to learn to not throw the football in the direction of cornerback Quincy Riley. In 46 career games at Middle Tennessee and Louisville, Riley has registered 14 career interceptions after recording one in the win over Jacksonville State — the seventh since transferring to Louisville for the 2022 season.
- The ACC Honorable Mention performer from 2023 recorded three interceptions after registering three during the 2022 season. He had two interceptions in a win over Wake Forest, including a 90-yard touchdown return in a 48-21 victory over the No. 10 Demon Deacons.
- Prior to joining the Cardinals, Riley played three seasons at Middle Tennessee where he recorded six career interceptions, including a career best five picks in 2021 when he was voted a first team All-Conference USA performer.

STOPPING THE RUN

- The Cardinals continue to be solid against the run during the tenure of defensive coordinator Ron English. Louisville enters Saturday's contest against Georgia Tech ranked 25th nationally and fourth in the ACC yielding an average of 82.0 yards per game.
- Louisville held Austin Peay to 34 yards on the ground in the season opener, which was the seventh fewest yards allowed nationally through week one.
- The Gobs averaged 1.0 yards per carry for the game, which also was the seventh-best total. The longest run was just 11 yards in the win.
- The 34 yards allowed were the 10th time in 16 games that the Cards allowed fewer than 100 yards to an opponent.
- The 34 yards allowed on the ground were the lowest yards allowed during the Jeff Brohm era, besting the 55 yards allowed in last season's season opener.
- In 16 games as the defensive coordinator, English's defensive is giving up an average of 97.6 yards per game on the ground. English's defense has allowed a team to rush for over 100 yards in six of 16 games over the last two seasons.

DAWSON OFF TO A FAST START

- Defensive tackle Jared Dawson has been solid in his first three seasons, but he's taken his game to a higher level in 2024. Entering 2024 with 30 tackles and 5.0 sacks, Dawson is ready to eclipse those number this year.
- Through two games, Dawson is second on the team with eight tackles and is tied for the team lead with 3.0 tackles for loss and is second on the squad with a pair of sacks. In the win over Jacksonville State, Dawson recorded a career high seven tackles, two tackles for loss and a sack against the Gamecocks.

GOOD PICK UP

- The Cardinals had a late addition to the roster when defensive lineman Tramel Logan joined the squad when camp started. A transfer from USF, Logan played in 46 games with the Bulls and was a solid veteran addition.
- In the first two games, Logan has recorded four tackles and leads the team with 3.0 sacks.

NOTABLE

- When the Cards visited Michigan State in 1996, the home crowd got what they hoped for in the first half as Nick Saban's Spartans took a 10-0 lead into the locker room.
- Louisville, on the other hand, lost starting quarterback Jason Payne to a shoulder injury in the first half and rushed for only 8 yards in 17 first-half attempts.
- It was up to freshman quarterback Chris Redman to guide Louisville's offense the rest of the way, and he got help from an unexpected source as cornerback Sam Madison lined up at wide receiver. Madison caught two passes, a 51-yard strike for a touchdown and a 71-yard gain to the 2-yard line which set up a TD pass from Redman to tight end Ibn Green.
- Running back Donnell Gordon contributed two TDs on a 45-yard pass from Redman and a 7-yard run. UofL held Michigan State to 10 points after halftime to ensure its 30-point second-half explosion was enough to win.
- Redman completed 18 of 27 passes for 325 yards and three touchdowns in the first extended action of his college career.

He recorded 2.0 sacks in the opener against Austin Peay and added one in the victory over Jacksonville State. The Miami native is tied for ninth nationally with 3.0 sacks through the first two games of the year.

- Last season with the Bulls, Logan finished season with 33 tackles (13 solo), 7.0 TFL, 1.5 sacks, one interception (returned 22-yards for a touchdown), and two fumble recoveries for a USF record 131 yards. He logged his first career touchdown at Navy (9/30) when he recovered a fumbled snap and returned it 70 yards

THIRD DOWN SUCCESS

- The Cardinals were one of the best last season long on third and fourth down defense last season, and are off to a great start in 2024.
- Louisville limited Austin Peay to 4-of-15 on third down in the 62-0 win and limited Jacksonville State to 2-of-12.
- The Cards rank 13th nationally in third-down defense, limiting opponents to a 22.2 conversion rate.
- Last season, Louisville finished ranked 10th nationally in third down defense, allowing opponents to convert on a 29.3 percent rate.
- Louisville has forced 19 punts in a two-game span for the first time since Sept. 9-17, 2016, in 62-28 and 63-20 wins vs. Syracuse (11 punts) and Florida State (8).
- In the loss to Florida State in the ACC title game, the Cardinals limited the Seminoles to just 2-of-16 on third down, which translated to a 12.5 conversion rate. The Cards held three opponents to a less than 20.0 percent conversion rate on third down and seven under 25 percent.

QUINN RETURNS AS THE TEAM'S LEADING TACKLERS

- Linebacker T.J. Quinn returns as the team's top tackler after recording 92 stops in his first year as a starter. He opened the 2024 season with three tackles against Austin Peay and added five in the win over Jacksonville State.
- The junior recorded four double-digit tackle games in 2023, including a string of three in a row. In a 13-10 road win over NC State, Quinn reached a then career high 11 tackles, followed by 10 against Notre Dame. He completed the string with a new career high of 12 against Pitt.
- Quinn notched his final game of 10 or more stops with 11 against Florida State in the ACC title game.
- The Georgia native closed his first season as a starter ranked ninth in the ACC with 6.6 tackles per game.

- The preseason accolades keep rolling in for senior defensive lineman Ashton Gillotte, who was tabbed a first team Preseason All-American by CBS Sports and a second-team honoree by The Sporting News. He also was a first team All-ACC preseason selection for the first time in his career and earned votes as the Player of the Year in the conference.
- A second team All-American last season, Gillotte is coming off his best season, recording 11.0 sacks and 14.5 tackles for loss. He recorded a career best 3.0 sacks and 3.5 tackles for loss in a win over Boston College last season. His 11.0 sacks were ranked eighth nationally as the native of Boca Raton, Fla., was a runner-up for the ACC's Defensive Player of the Year Award and was a first team all-conference honoree.

UPGRADING THE SECONDARY

- The Cardinals were relatively thin in the secondary last season so the staff upgraded the position in the offseason by adding a safety and three corners to the mix.
- Tamarion McDonald is one of the team's top safeties added to the roster, and has worked his way into the rotation. He's started the first two games and has totaled six tackles and 3.0 tackles for loss. He opened the season with three tackles and recorded a pair of sacks in the win over Austin Peay. The Tennessee transfer has appeared in 43 career games with the Volunteers and Cardinals, recording 119 tackles and four interceptions. He played in 10 games in 2023 and recorded 40 tackles and 3.5 tackles for loss.
- UCF transfer Corey Thornton got the nod as the other starting cornerback in the first two contests and has recorded three tackles. He has played in 48 career games, making 39 starts. In four seasons, Thornton has recorded 142 tackles and four interceptions. He totaled 27 tackles with the Knights in 2023 and registered 12 pass break-ups.
- Tahveon Nicholson, a transfer from Illinois, joined the Cardinals in the spring and has four tackles in the first two games. The 185-pound junior played in 12 games for the Illini in 2023, recording 36 tackles and six pass break-ups. He played three seasons at Illinois and does have two seasons remaining.

TOP 10 DEFENSE

- The Louisville defense continues to be one of the top defenses nationally. Through the first two games, the Cardinals enter Saturday's game ranked 10th in the country in total defense yielding only 198.0 yards per game. Louisville held Austin Peay to just 106 yards and limited Jacksonville State to 290 yards.
- The Cards are third nationally in yards per play allowed, yielding just 3.4 yards per play. The Cards held Austin Peay to 1.8 yards per play and limited Jacksonville State to 4.8 yards a play.
- Louisville has given up just two plays of 20 or more yards and is one of only four teams that have not allowed a play of 30 or more yards.

FROM WALK-ON TO STARTER

- Defensive lineman Ramon Puryear earned a full scholarship to play football at Louisville after walking on his first two seasons from Eastern High School in Louisville. He became the first player from that school to score a touchdown for Louisville since Richard Watson tallied a TD against Memphis in 1969.
- It was the team's first defensive touchdown in the Jeff Brohm era.
- After playing 14 games over the 2019 and 2020 seasons, former head coach Scott Satterfield awarded Puryear a full ride in the spring of 2021 after a 2020 campaign that saw him appear in 10 contests.
- Since the start of the 2021 season, Puryear has recorded 45 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks over that span to help the Cardinals play in three consecutive bowl games.
- The 2023 season was Puryear's best, recording 21 tackles, 6.0 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks in helping the Cards capture its first 10-win season since 2013.

TOP 20 IN SACKS

- The Cards' pass rush has been on display in the first two games of the season, recording 9.0 sacks, which is tied for 15th.
- Louisville logged seven sacks in the 62-0 win over Austin Peay, the most since getting seven vs. Cincinnati in the 2022 Fenway Bowl, and 14 tackles for loss, the most since an equal number vs. Kent State in 2017.
- Newcomer Tamel Logan, a transfer from USF, leads the team with 3.0 sacks, while Jared Dawson and Tamarion McDonald are tied for second. Thor Griffith, Jared Dawson and Ashton Gillotte added sacks against Austin Peay.
- Over the last two seasons, the Cardinals have recorded 43 sacks in 16 games.

#9 TYLER SHOUGH

CAREER NOTABLES

- Played three seasons at Texas Tech
- Passed for 2,922 yards and 20 touchdowns in three seasons for Red Raiders.

HEAD COACH

JEFF BROHM
SECOND SEASON • LOUISVILLE '93

Jeff Brohm was named Louisville's 24th full-time head football coach on Dec. 8, 2022, and immediately put the Cardinals in position to compete for the school's first Atlantic Coast Conference title and has the program on the verge of becoming a consistent player on the national stage.

Brohm guided his first team to a 10-4 overall record, the program's first 10-win campaign since 2013. For his efforts, Brohm was named one of three semifinalists for the Steve Spurrier First Year Coach of the Year Award.

In his first season as a head coach of his alma mater, Brohm led the Cards to its first 10-win season since 2013 and the school's first appearance in the ACC title game against Florida State and a trip to the Holiday Bowl. He became the first coach in NCAA history to guide two different teams to conference championship game appearances in consecutive seasons.

The 2023 season saw the Cardinals race out to a 6-0 start for the first time since 2013, highlighted by wins over No. 10 Notre Dame in front of a record crowd at L&N Stadium and a victory over No. 20 Duke. The Cardinals cracked the Associated Press Top 10 at No. 9 for the first time since the 2016 campaign.

Hired on Dec. 5, 2016, he guided the Boilermakers to four bowl appearances and the school's first Big Ten West Divisional title in 2022. The Boilermakers fell to No. 2 Michigan in the Big Ten title game, but Purdue was awarded a trip to the Citrus Bowl.

Prior to taking over in West Lafayette, Brohm spent three seasons at Western Kentucky, where he compiled a remarkable 30-10 overall record (.750 winning percentage), including a 19-5 Conference USA mark (.792), from 2014 to 2016. The Hilltoppers were league champions in 2015 and 2016, the school's first back-to-back titles as an FBS member. They won the 2014 Bahamas Bowl (49-48 over Central Michigan) and the 2015 Miami Beach Bowl (45-35 over Miami), as well as the 2016 Boca Raton Bowl (51-31 over Memphis under interim head coach Nick Holt). Western Kentucky was ranked No. 24 in the final 2015 Associated Press poll.

One of the top quarterbacks in school history, Brohm returns to UofL where he enjoyed an outstanding collegiate career from 1989-93. A three-year starter, he still ranks among the Cardinals' career leaders in touchdown passes (tied for eighth, 38), total offense (ninth, 5,410), completion percentage (ninth, .562), passing yards (10th, 5,451), and passing efficiency (ninth, 129.97), passing attempts (10th, 715) and completions (10th, 402) through the 2022 season. Brohm was voted the team's Most Valuable Player during both his junior and senior seasons, and his No. 11 became part of the Louisville Ring of Honor in 2006.

Professionally, Brohm played eight seasons in the NFL, competing with the San Diego Chargers (1994), Washington Redskins (1995-96), San Francisco 49ers (1997-98), Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1998), Denver Broncos (1999) and Cleveland Browns (2000).

A native of Louisville, Brohm, 51, earned his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1994. He and his wife, Jennifer, have a son, Brady, and a daughter, Brooke. Jeff is one of four family members to be a football letterwinner at Louisville.
