CLEMSON TIGERS

Record: 8-9, 0-6 ACC

Coach: Jackie Simpson Kirr (4th season) - Record at Clemson: 52-59

QUICK HITTERS

- Tech was ranked No. 17 in the latest AVCA Coaches Poll.
- The poll marks the 78th consecutive week that GT has been in the Top 25, dating back to the 2020 fall preseason and the 55th straight poll in the Top 20 dating back to 2021.
- The Jackets are coming off a perfect 2-0 weekend featuring a pair of ACC sweeps over Virginia Tech and Virginia - it's the first perfect weekend of ACC play this season and the first since Oct.21-13 of 2022 (vs. B.C. and Syracuse).
- The Jackets have upped their floor defense in recent matches, setting a season-best with 80 digs in the win over Notre Dame before making 62 digs in the win over UVA, the most in a three-set match this season. Over the last three victories, Tech is making 17.73 digs/set, a massive improvement over the 13.24 digs/set in all other matches.
- Georgia Tech boasts seven athletes from outside the United States, (38.9 % of the roster) tied with Wisconsin for the most international players on a Power 4 roster.
- This is head coach Michelle Collier's 11th season on The Flats, tying AVCA Hall of Famer Shelton Collier for the longest tenured coach in program history. At GT, she has 208 wins (2nd most behind Shelton Collier), 114 ACC victories (program record) seven NCAA Tournament match victories (program record) & is the first coach to have led the Jackets to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances.
- The Yellow Jackets are the only Power 4 program to have three players averaging over 3.00 kills/set: Tamara Otene (3.32), Larissa Mendes (3.32) and Bianca Bertolino (3.17). UTRGV is the only other program across Division I to have such a balanced offense.
- Setter Luanna Emiliano is one of the most experienced setters in college, with 4,035 career assists - 12th most among active DI players - and 1,244 career digs, the 6th most among active Division I setters.
- The Brazilian setter has recorded double-doubles in three of her last four matches and leads all of Division I with 71 career double-doubles.
- Senior Bianca Bertolino is 21st in the nation and 10th among P4 players with .53 aces/set this year. She has cracked the GT Top 10 for career aces (7th -144) and is on pace to set a modern scoring era record for aces/set for a career.
- Sophomore right side Larissa Mendes has taken a big step in her development this season, shouldering more of the offense in recent weeks, with great success. Mendes is tied with Otene for the team lead in kills/set (3.32) while hitting at a much more efficient clip (.299 compared to .185). Her 23 kills against New Mexico State were the most by a Georgia Tech underclassman since Olympic medalist Julia Bergmann and her 5.00 kill/set performance on Sunday against Virginia was a new career-best for an ACC match.
- Otene continues to be a driving force in GT's success, making her presence felt in every aspect of the game. she is coming off back-to-back double-digit dig matches for the sixth time this season while remaining the team-leader in kills (176) and attacks (459).
- Georgia Tech has won 14-straight matches over Clemson dating back to 2015 – Tech's longest active winning streak over an ACC opponent.

Bertolino became just the 10th Jacket in the modern scoring era to achieve 1,000 career digs on The Flats when she broke into the quadrupole digits during the Sweet 16 match at Nebraska last year. She holds 1,149 career digs now, the 5th most in the modern scoring era. She is 113 digs away from tying Teegan Van Gunst (2013-16) for the most digs by a non-libero in the GT modern scoring era.

PROFICIENT IN EFFICIENCY

Tech hit .430 in its last non-conference home match (vs. Alabama State), the highest hitting percentage since Nov. 18, 2022 (vs. Clemson – .475). It was the highest hitting percentage against a non-conference opponent since 2019 (Dec. 6, 2019 vs. Alabama A&M – .545).

Tech hit .302 in non-conference action, the highest non-conference hitting percentage in the Collier era (since 2014) while holding opponents to just .154 - the second lowest in the Collier era.

The Yellow Jackets have hit over .300 in six matches this year: New Mexico State (Sept. 1), Lipscomb (in Provo, Utah - Sept. 6), Florida (in McCamish Pavilion - Sept. 11), Alabama State (Sept. 13), at Georgia (Sept. 20) and vs. SMU (Sept. 27).

The upswing in efficiency can be attributed to the maturation of Larissa Mendes on the right side. The sophomore Brazilian is hitting .299 this season.

The lethality of Mendes has allowed for more optimal attacking chances for All-Americans Bianca Bertolino and Tamara Otene on the outside. Bertolino is hitting at a career-best .262 clip this year.

NO SUBSTITUTE FOR EXPERIENCE

The Yellow Jackets return 12 players from the Sweet 16 squad from last fall including the team leaders in kills (Tamara Otene – 406), hitting percentage (Liv Mogridge – .433), aces (Bianca Bertolino – 62) and blocks (DeAndra Pierce – 64).

All four Tech representatives from the 2023 ACC postseason awards are back for more in 2024: Bertolino and Otene (1st Team All-ACC) and Heloise Soares and Larissa Mendes (All-Freshman Team).

The Jackets have three players with over 300 sets under their belts: Otene (400), Luanna Emiliano (399) and Bertolino (384).

All but 53 of Emiliano's sets came while she was with UTRGV (2021-23) where she racked up 3,569 assists and 1,118 digs.

Transfer DS/L Sofia Velez made her Division I debut this season after spending the last two years with Trinity Valley Junior College in the NJCAA. Over her two years at TVJC, Velez racked up 1,523 digs - the most in the junior college ranks over that time (2022 & '23). Velez has made 10+ digs in all but 4 of her 94 matches played in college, including 12 of 15 as a Yellow Jacket.

TIME TO TALK ABOUT TAM

Otene has earned her first-career preseason all-ACC nod this year after spearheading Tech's offense in 2023. The New Zealander led the Jackets in attacks (1,067), kills (406) and double-doubles (14) last season while posting her first-career 400 kill (406) / 300 dig (332) campaign.

She is the most experienced player on a roster with 400 sets played over the last five seasons (137 sets at Illinois State 2020-21). She made 494 kills in 2021 at ISU, earning honorable mention AVCA All-American. Last year, she delivered 406 kills and a career-best 332 digs as she developed into one of the best defenders at her position (3rd most digs by any Power 5 pin hitter (OH/RS) in 2023).

Through 15 matches in 2024, Otene has continued to show why she is one of the best two-way attackers in college volleyball,, leading GT with 176 kills, posting 150 digs (2nd-most behind Velez) and adding in 15 aces (.28/set) and 20 blocks (.38/set).

She only needed seven matches to reach 100 kills this season, doing so in the third set of Tech's sweep over South Alabama (Sept. 12). It's the quickest Otene has reached triple digits in her five-year college career.

Last year, she became the first Yellow Jacket to ever achieve back-to-back 20/20 double-doubles after delivering 20+ kills and 20+ digs against both Virginia (Oct. 8, 2023) and Florida State (Oct. 14, 2023). Last match, at Georgia, the Kiwi was one dig shy of her third 20/20 double-double, finishing with 20 kills and 19 digs.

Otene is the only Jacket in program history with multiple 20/20 double-doubles in the modern scoring era.

Her 406 kill effort last season extended Georgia Tech's streak to eight consecutive complete seasons (excluding COVID shortened 2020/21) with at least one 400-kill hitter. Only Georgia Tech, Stanford, Purdue and USC can claim that honor.

TEAM EFFORT ON DEFENSE

In the opening weekend of the season, Bertolino made 47 digs (3.92/set) - the most total digs among P4 hitters through the opening weekend. She has made 1,108 career digs, the 2nd most among active outside hitters across P4, behind only Taylor Head (2020-23 at Arkansas and 2024 at Florida State).

Velez has been a consistent presence in the stout Tech floor defense, making 15+ digs in four of GT's first five matches this year, including 16 digs in all but two of Tech's 4+ set matches. After recording the most digs in JUCO over the last two seasons, she earned her place in the GT libero jersey from the first match. The Colombian libero has recorded 10+ digs in all but four of her 94 career matches played (79 matches at Trinity Valley Junior College).

After delivering the 3rd most digs of any Power 5 pin hitter last season (332) Tamara Otene has brought the same intensity to the defensive side of the ball in 2024. She made 10+ digs in nine of 15 matches, including three 12 dig (4/set) matches in Tech's sweeps over Coastal Carolina, Lipscomb and Alabama State and an incredible 19 dig (4.75 digs/set) performance in GT's four-set win at Georgia.

Luanna Emiliano has provided 126 digs (2.38/set). That brings her career total to 1,244 - the sixth most among active DI setters (with 1,118 coming at UTRGV). She made a season-best 15 digs in Tech's last match, vs. Virginia, earning her 71st-career double-double in the process. Emiliano leads all Division I players with 71 career double-doubles, including three in her last four matches at Tech.

ROAD WARRIORS

Georgia Tech went 11-4 in true road matches last season, the most wins in the Michelle Collier era and the third most in program history - including wins at No. 12 Ohio State (twice) and at No. 4-seeded Florida in the NCAA Tournament.

BEST ROAD RECORDS

Year	Record	Win %
2004	12-3	.800
2000	11-3	.786
1995	10-3	.769
2024	3-1	.750
2023	11-4	.733
2002	10-4	.714
1988	14-6	.700

The 2023 team posted a .733 winning percentage on the road, the 5th highest of all-time. The program record for road winning percentage was set in 2021, when the team went 10-2 (.833) on the road, eventually reaching the Elite 8.

The Jackets continued that success in 2024, defeating No. 14 BYU (3-2) in the first road opportunity of the season (Sept. 7). That gave Tech victories over Top 15 opponents in four consecutive seasons for the first time ever.

Tech continued the road success, taking down arch-rival Georgia in four sets, up the road in Athens to improve the road record to 2-0 before erasing a 9-12 fifth set deficit to defeat Notre Dame, in South Bend for a 3-0 road record. Tech suffered its first road setback of the year last Sunday at Louisville.

The Jackets will have their work cut out for them on the road this year with matches remaining at Pitt, Stanford, Florida State and Miami, among others.

Coach Collier is on a mission for her sixth straight winning season on the road in 2024 (2-0), tying AVCA Hall of Famer Shelton Collier for the program record.

A MAGICAL NIGHT IN McCAMISH

The Yellow Jackets swept then-No. 13 Florida in three convincing sets inside the Georgia Tech basketball facility, McCamish Pavilion on September 11, 2024.

4,081 fans crowded into the arena to watch Georgia Tech secure its second Top-15 victory in as many matches, powering past the Gators: 25-19, 25-19, 25-21.

All three members of GT's "three-headed monster" on offense hit at least .400 in the win: Bertolino (.469), Otene (.409) and Mendes (.400).

Luanna Emiliano was excellent at setter, making 24 assists and 10 digs for her 67th career double-double and second in White & Gold.

The Jackets were excellent from the service line, finishing with eight aces, led by three from Emiliano and two from Liv Mogridge.

TECH IN THE TOURNAMENT

Georgia Tech's selection to the 2023 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship marked the 13th appearance in program history.

The White and Gold made a fourth straight tournament appearance for the first time since advancing to the Big Dance five consecutive years from 2000-04.

The win over No 4 seed Florida in the second round was Georgia Tech's first true road win and the first five-set win in NCAA Tournament history.

It was Head Coach Michelle Collier's 7th NCAA Tournament win, the most of any Georgia Tech head coach.

Over the last three seasons the Yellow Jackets have advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament twice (2020, 2022), the Sweet 16 (2023) and to the Elite Eight (2021).

Tech is one of just 14 programs in Division I to have advanced past the 1st round of the NCAA Tournament in each of the last four seasons, doing so for the 1st time in program history.

The Yellow Jackets are 16-14 all time in the NCAA Tournament.

The Jackets were the highest AVCA ranked team not to host the first weekend of the NCAA Tournament since 2019 - No. 10 Colorado State.

78 CONSECUTIVE POLLS IN THE TOP 25

Georgia Tech volleyball was ranked No. 17 in the latest edition of the AVCA/TARAFLEX Division I Women's Volleyball Poll. The Yellow Jackets have been in the Top 20 all season, one of only 15 programs in the nation to claim that.

Tech has been ranked in the Top 20 every poll since Week 3 of 2021 - 55 consecutive polls.

Tech was ranked No. 14 in the preseason rankings, the fifth-straight season with a preseason Top 25 ranking, the longest such streak in program history.

Tech is one of six ACC programs in the Top 25 along with No. 1 Pitt, No. 4 Louisville, No. 5 Stanford, No. 12 SMU and No. 19 Florida State. The Jackets were selected to finish 4th in the ACC preseason poll, voted on by the league's coaches in August.

RANKED RUMBLES

Last year, Tech matched a program record from 2003 with five ranked wins (#12 Ohio State (2x), #8 Penn State, #3 Louisville and #20 Florida (NCAA Tournament 2nd Round).

They took advantage of their first opportunity this year, taking down #14 BYU on the road, in five sets, last Saturday. Before snatching another Top 25 victory in the very next match, a sweep over #13 Florida inside McCamish Pavilion.

The Jackets have now won 36 Top 25 matches in the program's history, 12 in the Michelle Collier era and seven since the start of last season.

Georgia Tech owns seven Top-10 victories in its program's history: #3 Louisville (11/3/23), #8 Penn State (8/26/23), #10 BYU (2022), #2 Pitt (2021), #5 Nebraska (2003), #8 California (2003 NCAA Tournament) and #8 Notre Dame (1995).

Tech's next ranked win would be the 37th ranked triumph in program history, 31 in the regular season and five in the postseason.

FLYING HIGH

The Jackets owned the 23rd best overall record in the nation last year, at 24-7. GT secured 13 conference victories, marking the fifth straight season Tech has won at least 13 ACC matches, the longest streak in program history.

The Jackets tied the best 20-match start in the Michelle Collier era (also 2021), after starting 17-3. It is tied for the third-best record through 20 matches in program history (20-0 in 2003 and 18-2 in 1996).

The White and Gold played in four consecutive five-set matches (Oct. 1-13, 2023) tied for the longest streak in program history, with the Jackets winning three of four.

The Yellow Jackets were amongst the best teams in Power 5 in digs/set (14.81), kills/set (13.63) and aces/set (1.63) so last year. They finished the regular season 5th among P5 in digs/set, 14th in kills/set and 13th in aces/set.

Going beyond 2019's NIVC title, Tech has won 107 of its last 135 matches (.793 winning percentage).

The Jackets have claimed 59 of their last 70 matches in O'Keefe Gymnasium (.843 winning percentage).

BERTOLINO BULLETS

Bertolino earned her third straight preseason all-conference selection this year following one of the best all-around seasons in Division I last year.

The Argentinian delivered 351 kills, 321 digs and 62 aces, the only Power 5 player to deliver 300+ kills, 300+ digs and 60+ aces.

She maintained her offensive performance while asserting herself as the best passer at her position, finishing with a .975 receiving percentage, the highest in Division I by a non-defensive specialist/libero.

She is one of the most dangerous servers in the country, finishing with the 6th most aces in Division I last year and owning the 21st highest aces/set average in 2024, 10th-best among P4 players (.53).

Over the summer, Bertolino competed with the Argentinian National Team in a series of friendlies as well as the 2024 Challenger Cup, earning match MVP in her very first start, leading the team with 20 kills against South Korea, in May.

LEAVE IT TO LARI

Larissa Mendes has established herself as one of the most exciting young pin hitters in the ACC. After making 306 kills as a freshman last season and earning a spot on the 2023 ACC All-Freshman Team, the Brazilian right side has only gotten better in 2024.

Against New Mexico State, in the opening weekend, Mendes made a career-best 23 kills, the most kills by a Georgia Tech underclassman since three-time All-American and Olympic medalist, Julia Bergmann, made 31 against Lipscomb back in 2021 (April 14). She made those 23 kills while hitting .500, her fourth career .500+ hitting performance.

Against No. 14 BYU, she made 21 kills, her second 20+ kill match of the young season after only reaching the 20-kill mark once last year (21 vs. Florida St.).

So far, Mendes has increased her output from last season by .55 kills/set (3.23 in '24 / 2.68 in '23) and her hitting percentage by .66 (.299 in '24 / .233 in '23)

SPICING IT UP

Georgia Tech is the most international team among Power 4 programs. 10 Yellow Jackets, 7 student-athletes and 3 coaches, are originally from countries outside of the United States.

Coaches Michelle Collier, Claudio Pinheiro and Vini Baigan along with Emiliano, Mendes and Soares all hail from Brazil. Notably, Pinheiro helped coach the Brazil women's team to Olympic gold medals in the 2008 and 2012 Olympics. He also brings years of professional coaching experience internationally to The Flats.

Bertolino and freshman Lara Martinez Casas represent Argentina, while senior outside hitter Tamara Otene is from New Zealand and junior libero Sofia Velez hails from Colombia.

With 7 of 18 rostered athletes coming from outside the US, Georgia Tech is tied with Wisconsin for the highest percentage of international athletes - 38.9%

SWARMING THE NEST

Georgia Tech is one of only 8 programs in Division I to average more than 100 percent capacity at home matches this season - selling out all home matches inside O'Keefe Gymnasium for the third season in a row.

The Jackets sold out a program record 15 home matches in 2024 after 13 sellouts in 2022 and 11 a season ago. Tech has sold out 35 consecutive matches inside O'Keefe Gymnasium going back to the 2021 season, the longest sellout streak in program history.

Tech drew a record 5,303 fans for last season's edition of Clean, Old-Fashioned Hate in McCamish Pavilion, more than quadruple O'Keefe's capacity (1,200).

HIP HIP...COLLIER!

Coach Michelle Collier is into her 11th season leading the Jackets as the second winningest coach in program history with 204 victories.

She reached 200 wins on The Flats last weekend, when Tech swept Lipscomb: 25-16, 25-16, 25-16 in Provo, Utah.

Collier achieved her 100th career win in ACC play with a victory over NC State and her program-record breaking 101st the next match at Virginia Tech. She is now up to 114 league wins heading into her 11th ACC season.

She has won 248 matches over 12 seasons of coaching, including 40 wins while at Jacksonville (2012-13).

In her third season, she led the Jackets to a 24-8 (15-5 ACC) record, the program's first 20 win season in six years (2009).

Over the last six seasons (since 2019) Collier has brought GT to the upper echelon of the sport. Her Tech teams have a combined 122-38 record (.763) with 4 AVCA All-Americans (Mariana Brambilla, Julia Bergmann, Matti McKissock and Bianca Bertolino).

She has coached four Jackets to eight AVCA all-American honors over her career, 24 All-ACC honors and 18 all-region honors. She's also helped nine Jackets land 16 career marks in the top 10 in program history.

She is one of five female head coaches to have reached two of the last three NCAA Regional rounds - (Louisville, Florida, Ohio State and Penn State).

She was named ACC Coach of the Year in 2019 and AVCA East Coast Region Coach of the Year in 2019 and in 2021.

She is the first coach in program history to have delivered a win percentage of at least .700 both overall and in ACC play through five consecutive seasons - 2019: 26-8, 14-4 ACC | 2020: 14-5, 13-4 ACC | 2021: 26-6, 14-4 ACC | 2022: 21-8, 13-5 ACC | 2023: 22-6, 13-5 ACC

As a student-athlete at USF, Collier ranks among the greatest collegiate volleyball players of all-time. She ranks fifth in NCAA Division I history with 2,729 career kills and holds the most career kills and digs in program history. She set three single-season marks during the 2000 season, after coming back from an injury that sidelined her in 1999, making 760 kills and 6.28 kills per set.

She has led the Jackets to postseason play for five seasons in a row and four straight NCAA Tournaments including a Regional Final (2021), a Regional Semifinal (2023), two 2nd Round appearances (2020-21 and 2022) and an NIVC Championship (2019).

She holds Georgia Tech coaching records in: ACC victories (114) NCAA Tournament matches won (seven) and consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (four)

BRONZE FOR BERGMANN

This summer, GT alumna Julia Bergmann became the first Olympian in program history after earning a spot on the Brazilian National Team for the 2024 Paris Olympic Games.

Bergmann saw action in multiple matches over Brazil's run to the Bronze medal, including getting the match-clinching kill in her Olympic debut, helping clinch the opening round victory over Kenya.

WE'RE A FAN OF FANNING

Georgia Tech volleyball head coach Michelle Collier added former All-American and current member of the Atlanta Vibe (Professional Volleyball Federation), Shelly Fanning, to the coaching staff as a player development assistant.

Fanning, who carries 10 years of playing experience with her to The Flats, will work closely with the team, assisting in practice and match planning while also serving as a mentor for the student-athletes, specifically the middle blockers.

Fanning comes to The Flats in the midst of a 10-year playing career, most recently taking part in the first season of the Professional Volleyball Federation as a member of the Atlanta Vibe. She spent her college years at Baylor, where she was a three-time AVCA All-American (2017-19), a vital member of the Bears 2019 Final Four team and the first Baylor player to achieve all-conference status four times. She graduated, twice, from Baylor with a bachelor's degree in communications and a master's degree in sports management.

After leaving college volleyball in 2019, Fanning went abroad, playing parts of four seasons in Puerto Rico and one season in Poland. Like many American players, Fanning took advantage of the growing professional opportunities at home, taking part in the Athletes Unlimited Pro League in 2023 before signing with the Atlanta Vibe for the inaugural 2024 PVF season (January-May). With the Vibe, Fanning played in all 25 matches as a starting middle blocker and finished with 53 blocks and 171 kills to help lead her team to a semifinal berth.
