Game 3 - VMI at Georgia Tech Sept. 14, 2024 - 3:30 pm - Atlanta, Ga.

QUICK HITS

VMI (0-2, 0-0 SoCon) TAKES ON GEORGIA TECH (2-1, 0-0 ACC) ON THE ROAD SATURDAY – Heading south to face its lone FBS opponent of the season, the VMI football team will take on Georgia Tech of the Atlantic Coast Conference Saturday afternoon in Atlanta. Kickoff from Bobby Dodd Stadium is scheduled for 3:30 p.m. and will be streamed on ACCNX/ESPN+.

A LOOK AT LAST WEEK - The Keydets fell in a close 35-28 contest to visiting Bucknell of the Patriot League last Saturday afternoon to mark the 2024 home opener at Foster Stadium. The Bison employed an effective air attack as quarterback Ralph Rucker threw for 340 yards against VMI by converting 28 of 37 pass attempts. VMI was led by running back Hunter Rice, who took the rock 18 times for 166 yards and two touchdowns. Trailing 35-14 in the fourth quarter, the Keydets fought back to end the game strong with two unanswered scores.

Week 1 Leaders

Passing

Collin Shannon – 21-for-32, 129 Yards

Rushing

Hunter Rice – 18 rushes, 166 yards, 2 touchdowns

Receiving

Ivan Thorpe – 6 catches for 47 yards

Nathan Lhotsky - 4 catches for 35 yards

Defense

Kouri Crump – 15.0 tackles, 1 PBU; Shamus Jones – 9.0 tackles;

Asa Locks – 48-yd. INT TD return, 1 forced fumble, 6.0 tackles

THE SERIES - The Yellow Jackets have won 14 of 15 all-time contests between the schools with the last match-up occurring in 1988, a 34-7 Georgia Tech victory in Atlanta. All 15 contests have taken place in Atlanta, with VMI's sole victory over the Jackets being a 14-13 win on November 11, 1950. The series began over 100 years ago in 1914, including six consecutive years being played from 1923 to 1928. Georgia Tech won the first nine games, with VMI claiming the 10th in 1950. The schools have only faced each five times since 1950 with the Yellow Jackets coming away victorious in each.

SCOUTING THE YELLOW JACKETS - Georgia Tech shocked the world in Week Zero by knocking off #10 fellow conference foe Florida State in Dublin, Ireland, to open the season. The Yellow Jackets continued the momentum with a dominant 35-12 win over crosstown rival Georgia State a week later. The Ramblin' Wreck will be angry to face the Keydets this Saturday coming off a close 31-28 loss on the road last weekend at Syracuse, their second league foe in three weeks of the young season.

Head coach Brent Key is in his second year at the helm and eighth season overall at GT after serving as the program's defensive coordinator for six years.

The Yellow Jackets are averaging 29.0 points per game, 175.0 rushing yards per contest and 228.7 yards per game through the air. RB Jamal Haynes is averaging 64.0 yards per game on the ground while Malik Rutherford leads the receiving corps with 78.3 receiving yards per outing. QB Haynes King has proven to be an effective signal caller through three games with a 154.3 efficiency rating and completing over 75 percent of his passes (64-84), throwing just one pick thus far.

A VMI Win over Georgia Tech would ...

- Give VMI its second all-time victory over the Yellow Jackets
- Lift the Keydets to their first victory of the 2024 season

Head Coach Danny Rocco - Second Season

On December 3, 2022, Danny Rocco was named VMI's 33rd head football coach.

"Coach Rocco has had a great deal of success at every level leading his teams both on and off the field," stated Major General Cedric T. Wins. "He is clearly someone who believes in developing his players into leaders of character in perfect alignment with VMI's mission. I look forward to the future success that our cadet-athletes will enjoy from his leadership."

"It is a privilege to welcome Danny to Lexington," Director of Intercollegiate Athletics Jim Miller said. "I have seen his success firsthand, and believe he will bring that winning tradition with him here to VMI."

"It's an honor to be here, it's a great opportunity for me and my family," Rocco said. "I'm very appreciative of General Wins and his support and Jim Miller, who I worked for at Richmond. I'm at an Institution that has a great history and a proud history. They play in a really good conference, I'm familiar with the SoCon having been an FCS Head Coach for 16 seasons. First and foremost, I want to get to meet the cadet-athletes, I want to be able to get to know them and make a positive impact in their lives as we work together to win football games and adhere to our core values."

Rocco brings a decorated coaching history with him to Lexington, with experience at the FBS and FCS level, as well as the NFL. A six-time national coach of the year finalist, Rocco has won seven conference championships (4 Big South, 3 CAA) in his 16 years at the helm. Some of Rocco's other accolades include: five FCS playoff appearances, four Big South Conference Championships, three Colonial Athletic Association Championships, 10 top-25 finishes and 12 seasons with seven or more wins while coaching 42 All-Americans.

Much of Rocco's success has come in the state of Virginia, where he served as the head coach for Liberty from 2006-2011, before taking over at the University of Richmond in 2012. After a successful stint at Richmond in which he led the Spiders to three straight NCAA FCS Playoff appearances (Second Round, Semifinal, Quarterfinal), Rocco would take over at the University of Delaware, coaching the Blue Hens to the 2020 FCS Semifinal game. Most recently, Rocco served as a Defensive Senior Analyst for Penn State, helping the Nittany Lions to a 10-2 regular season record last year (2022).

Some of Rocco's stops as an assistant included the New York Jets, University of Virginia, University of Maryland and the University of Texas. Rocco got his coaching start at the place he finished his playing career – Wake Forest. Playing his first two years at Penn State, Rocco transferred to Wake Forest, graduating in 1984 with a bachelor's degree in speech communication and rhetoric and adding a master's degree in 1987 (education & counseling).

A native of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Rocco and his wife Julie reside on post and are the proud parents of children David and Amy. David currently serves as an offensive analyst at Penn State.

VMI also lost a couple of key members in its secondary as Josh Knapp (S) and Alex Oliver (CB) graduated in May. Under center, Collin Shannon (579 yards, 2 TDs, 3INTs) looks primed to take over as the number one from the departing Collin Ironside. While Ironside capped off his career with a win over No. 14 Western Carolina, Shannon gained great game experience in 2023, playing in four games, earning his first career win at ETSU.

HOW THEY RANKED

As a team, VMI ended the 2023 season ranked in the top 50 in a variety of national categories including:

- 6th in fewest penalties per game (4.45)*
 - 9th in fewest penalties (49)*
 - 22nd in fewest penalty yards (480) and penalty yards per game (43.64)
 - 28th in passing yards allowed (187.0)*
 - 32nd in kickoff return defense (17.87 ypc)
 - 40th in Red Zone defense (0.778)
 - 44th in fumbles recovered (7)

Defense

Evan Eller – Tackles (107.0), Eric Rankin – TFL (10.0-39), Rankin/Starnes – Sacks (3.5)

KEYDET CAREERS (How they Rank)

- Rice enters the 2024 campaign fifth all-time at VMI in rushing touchdowns, with 23 to his name thus far

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

Despite the success of VMI in 2023 (T-5th, SoCon) and returning 13 starters, the Keydets didn't get a ton of respect in the Southern Conference Preseason Poll, voted to finish seventh by the league's coaches. There was no media poll this season, and coaches could not vote for their own team.

- NOTING THE KEYDETS -
ROCCO'S RETURNERS – Thirteen starters and four of the eight All-SoCon honorees from 2023 are back in the red and white this year, led by Hunter Rice on the offense and Eric Rankin on the defense. Rice had a breakout year in his junior season, ranking fourth in the country in rushing touchdowns, with 14 scores on the ground and was named to the All-SoCon Second Team. Rankin, meanwhile, quickly became the leading tackler for VMI, totaling 93.0 stops last year which ranked fifth among Southern Conference performers. Serving as a captain alongside Rice and Rankin, Dorien Starnes (Second Team) anchored the defensive line, leading all SoCon lineman with 41.0 tackles. Ivan Thorpe (All-Freshman) looks to be a top threat in the passing game, totaling 251 yards and a touchdown in nine games.

KEY DEPARTURES – The Keydets will miss a number of players in 2024, losing 13 starters to graduation. Among the losses are All-SoCon honorees Evan Eller (S/LB), Jack Culbreath (P), Justin Peterson (LS) and Aidan Twombly (TE).

All-Conference wise, Hunter Rice (RB), Tyriq Poindexter (OL) and Dorian Starnes (DL) were named to the First Team, while Eric Rankin (LB) was named to the Second Team Defense and Ivan Thorpe (WR/KR) named Second Team Specialist.

SAME PLACE, NEW FACES – The Special Teams Room will have a number of new faces, as Jonathan Hunter-Horten will be the new holder, Nathan Payne the new long snapper and Ben Shrewsbury is slated to be the punter. From the coaching perspective, there is only one new face as Coach Elliot Wratten was brought on board to run the offensive line. Wratten comes to Lexington with 15 years of experience coaching including stops at Indiana and Alcorn State, where his job titles included offensive line coach and offensive coordinator. As the offensive line coach and later as the offensive coordinator, Wratten helped lead Alcorn State to back-to-back SWAC Championships in 2018-19 behind an offense that consistently ranked in the top 25 in multiple categories. The Braves compiled a 48-33 record during his time as a coach at the school, including a 37-17 record in the SWAC. He served as the tight ends coach at Alcorn State from 2016-18 while also serving as the program's recruiting coordinator.

Defensively, Dae'lun Darien - who served as a volunteer assistant in 2023 - was promoted to Assistant Secondary Coach, focusing on the Safeties.

TWO DEEP NOTES – On the offensive line, Bryce Burnett and Willie Dixon will make up the right side. In the air, Egypt Nelson, VJ Johnson and Ivan Thorpe are slated as the top wideouts, with Morgan McPhaul listed as the top Tight End. Luke Schalow and Ebenezer McCarthy should share the backup carries behind Hunter Rice, while Chandler Wilson is the number two quarterback behind Shannon.

Defensively, Jabari Haslem starts at the SAM, with Stephen Dean III being the weakside linebacker. Kouri Crump and Joe Commello will see a lot of action in the secondary alongside Tahj Summey and Noel Innocent.

- 2023 Notes -

FINISHING STRONG – Senior Captain Evan Eller capped off his VMI career in a big way, registering 16.0 tackles and grabbing his first career interception in the week 12 win over No. 14 Western Carolina, earning SoCon Defensive Player of the Week honors. In the month of November, Eller had 29.0 tackles, an interception, a quarterback hurry and a forced fumble in three contests and was named the SoCon Defensive Player of the Month.

Hunter Rice would end his 2023 season loudly, rushing for 138 yards and a career-high four touchdowns in the victory over Western Carolina, earning SoCon Offensive Player of the Week honors.

ROCCO'S RESUME – The biggest storyline of the VMI Football offseason was the hiring of Danny Rocco as its 33rd head football coach (December 3). Rocco has a very decorated coaching resume, with stops at the NFL, FBS and FCS levels. Much of Rocco's success has come at the FCS level and in the state of Virginia, where he served as the head coach for Liberty from 2006-2011 before taking over at the University of Richmond in 2012. After a successful stint at Richmond in which he led the Spiders to three straight NCAA FCS Playoff appearances (Second Round, Semifinal, Quarterfinal), Rocco would take over at the University of Delaware, coaching the Blue Hens to the 2020 FCS Semifinal game. Most recently, Rocco served as a Defensive Senior Analyst for Penn State, helping the Nittany Lions to a 10-2 regular season record last year.

ROCCO'S RAPID SUCCESS – Much of Rocco's accolades can be attributed to his fast starts when taking over programs. At Liberty, Rocco inherited a 1-10 Flames team that would go 6-5 in his first year to earn Big South Coach of the Year honors, following that up with four straight seasons in which Liberty finished first or tied for first in the conference. At Richmond, Rocco duplicated his quick success, taking a 3-8 (0-8 CAA) Spiders team to an 8-3, 6-2 CAA finish in his first year, earning a share of the conference title. In his first year at Delaware, Rocco flipped a 4-7 Blue Hens squad to 7-4, earning two FCS Playoff appearances in the next three seasons, including the 2020 Semifinal run.

Season before Rocco

2005, Liberty: 1-10, 0-4
2011 Richmond: 3-8, 0-8
2016 Delaware: 4-7, 2-6
2022, VMI: 1-10, 0-8

Rocco's first season

2006, Liberty: 6-5, 2-2
2012 Richmond: 8-3, 6-2
2017 Delaware: 7-4, 5-3
2023, VMI: 5-6, 4-4

MIXING IT UP – With a new coach, comes some new strategies. VMI will shift to more of a 3-4 base on defense and on offense will retain air raid principles, but entertain more of a pass-run balance. Expect the Keydets to show multiple looks on defense and change the tempo up on offense.

RINGING IN ROCCO – Head Coach Danny Rocco got off to a great start in his VMI debut as the Keydets held on for a 12-7 win over Davidson. The victory gave Rocco wins at four FCS Programs (Liberty, Richmond, Delaware, VMI) and is one of just two active coaches to have that distinction (Tom Masella). Rocco inherited teams that went a combined 9-35, and 2-26 in conference play before he took over. one of just two active coaches to have that distinction (Tom Masella). Rocco inherited teams that went a combined 9-35, and 2-26 in conference play before he took over.

2024 Game Recaps - VMI at #15-16 William & Mary - Aug. 29

Keydets fall at No. 15 William & Mary

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. – The 2024 VMI Football season got underway on Thursday night in Williamsburg, as the host No. 15/16 William & Mary would take the opener 41-7.

The Tribe, who were ranked 15th in the Stats Perform FCS Preseason Poll and 16th in the AFCA Preseason Poll, lived up to the billing, totaling 446 yards and three scores on the ground.

Key Stats

- William & Mary outgains VMI 446-241 in total yards
- Tribe total three rushing touchdowns (Yoder, Imoh, Mathis), block a punt for a touchdown
- Hunter Rice leads the way with 126 total yards and a touchdown
- Luke Schalow totals eight rushes for 30 yards
- Collin Shannon goes 8-for-19, 62 yards and an interception, 10 Keydets record a catch
- Tahj Summey has 9.0 tackles and two break ups
- Shamus Jones (forced fumble), Stephen Dean III record 8.0 tackles; Noel Innocent, Kouri Crump record 7.0

What's Next

The Keydets (0-1) return home and hope to capitalize on a couple of extra days rest, hosting Bucknell next Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

HOW IT HAPPENED

First Half

William & Mary wasted no time getting on the board, taking the opening drive 69 yards for a score just five minutes in. The Keydets would move into Tribe territory on their first possession, but fail to convert a fourth-down try, leading to a six play, 66-yard scoring drive for William & Mary. Special Teams would come into play, as the Tribe would block a punt and run it in for the score.

VMI responded, as Shannon hit Rice on a screen pass that moved VMI into Tribe territory, as Rice punched in the first score of the season just a few plays later with a 12-yard touchdown run.

William & Mary would respond just before the half, as Darius Wilson found an open Damian Harris for a 45-yard gain, setting up another score just before the break (28-7).

Second Half

Rice would open the second with four consecutive runs as the Keydets went for it on fourth, but came up short. Much like the first half, William & Mary capitalized on the opportunity, registering another opening-drive touchdown (35-7). The Tribe would tack on one more score in the fourth before ultimately taking the contest 41-7.

2024 Game Recaps - VMI vs. Bucknell - Sept. 7

Keydets drop home opener to Bucknell

LEXINGTON, Va. – The VMI Football Team had its home opener on Saturday, taking an early lead against Bucknell before falling to the Bison 35-28.

“Defensively we didn’t play a very good game,” said Head Coach Danny Rocco. “We gave them a lot of different looks and to their credit, Bucknell sorted things out. Their quarterback is a good player. He distributed the ball well, found the open man and we didn’t really tackle well. And that was one of the biggest things defensively that was most frustrating, our inability to tackle.”

Key Stats

- Hunter Rice rumbles for 166 yards and two touchdowns; 7th career multi-score game
- Bucknell outgains VMI 451-378, including 340 yards passing from Ralph Rucker IV
- TJ Cadden returns punt, records touchdown reception in win; Josh Gary has two receiving touchdowns
- Collin Shannon goes 21-for-32, 129 yards and an interception
- Nine Keydets record a reception, led by Ivan Thorpe’s six catches for 47 yards
- Kouri Crump has a career-best 15.0 tackles; Asa Locks takes his first career interception to the house (5.0 tackles)
- Shamus Jones, Eric Rankin each total 9.0 stops

HOW IT HAPPENED

First Half

Neither team could get into a rhythm early, but it was the VMI defense who made the first move, as rookie Asa Locks took an interception to the house to give VMI the lead.

Bucknell would tie the game up at the end of the first with a punt return for a touchdown. After the Bison jumped in front 14-7, Rice took a Wildcat handoff 58 yards for the score as the teams went into the break knotted up at 14 apiece.

Second Half

Bucknell stole the momentum right back to open the half with an 8-play, 81-yard drive. Later in the quarter, Rucker hit Josh Gary on 4th and 2 for his second touchdown of the afternoon to make the score 28-14. In the fourth, TJ Cadden, who returned a punt earlier for a touchdown, hauled in a 35-yarder as the Bison extended its advantage. The Keydets would fight back, however, as Shannon hit Thorpe for an 18-yard gain that would have a pass interference tacked on, setting up Rice’s second score of the day. VMI would get the ball one last time with 2:54 to play, as Chandler Wilson came in for the injured Shannon, finding Ryan Von Brandt for his first career touchdown to make it a one-score game. The Keydets could not convert the ensuing onside attempt, and the Bison ran the clock out for the win.
