NOTING THE WOLFPACK

STARTING FAST ...

A huge point of emphasis for NC State football coming out of the bye week was to come out of the gates fast.

Through the first eight games of 2024, the Wolfpack had been outscored 23-76 in the first quarter and 80-150 in the first half. Through the first four ACC games, the Pack had not scored on its opening drive and had done so only once all season (vs. Northern Illinois).

Point (of emphasis) taken!

The Pack came out blazing in the win over Stanford, not only driving 55 yards to score a touchdown on its first possession of the game, but scoring on its first nine possessions! In fact, every time NC State had the ball in the first three quarters, it resulted in a score (8 TDs, 1 FG).

For the season, the Pack has been outscored 95-37 in the opening quarter.

... AND FINISHING STRONG

On the flip side, the Pack has finished games strong in 2024, outscoring the opponent 97-55 in the final frame.

FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

Senior defensive end Davin Vann leads the entire FBS with five forced fumbles this season. That's the second highest tally in school history and the most for a Wolfpack player since 2001. He has seven forced fumbles for his career, tied for seventh in school history.

Vann was the catalyst behind the Wolfpack's touchdowns on interception returns versus Tennessee and LaTech. On both picks, Vann fought through traffic, hitting the arm of Tennessee's Nico Iamaleava and the ball as LaTech's Jack Turner released it.

Vann caused a fumble that was recovered at the NIU one, which led to the KC Concepcion touchdown that would end up being the difference in the game.

The Cary native had a monster day against the Huskies, tallying a career high 10 tackles, including three tackles for loss (32 yards lost) and a 20-yard sack. He forced two fumbles in the contest.

Vann had another strip sack vs. Stanford, giving the Pack the ball on the Cardinal 32 and leading to his team's second score of the game

THIRD DOWN AND OUT

The Wolfpack defense has been especially stingy on third down in the last three games, with Cal, Stanford and Duke combining to convert just .156 on third down (5-32). In the loss to Duke, the Blue Devils did not convert a third down in nine tries.

Duke's rushing total of 31 yards was the lowest of the season.

CLOSE CALLS

NC State opened ACC play in 2024 on the road at Clemson, with a true freshman quarterback. The result was a 24-point loss.

In the three league games, losses to Wake Forest and Syracuse and a win over Cal, the average scoring margin was just four points- with all coming down to one score. Wake Forest won 34-30 and Syracuse etched out a 24-17 win - both at Carter-Finley Stadium, while the Pack's win at Cal was a one-point victory: 24-23.

The Pack bucked that trend in a big way on Nov. 2 vs. Stanford, winning by 31 points, 59-28. That was the most points scored in an ACC game ever for the Wolfpack.

The loss to Duke was by 10 points.

RETURNS ON INVESTMENT

NC State is tied for seventh in the nation in kickoff returns allowed, allowing just five this season (with the first coming in Game 8).

Collin Smith has kicked off 60 times this season, booting all but six into the endzone for a touchback. His first non-touchback was in game 7 vs. Syracuse and was a fair catch. Unfortunately, the first kick of the year that was actually returned was brought back 40 yards by Nohl Williams of Cal.

Prior to the fair catch vs. Syracuse, Smith had booted 42 straight into the endzone dating back to last year's regular season finale.

On the flip side, the Wolfpack ranks second in the FBS in kickoff returns with a 31.3 average. DK Kaufman would lead the nation by far with his 39.5 ypr average if he had enough attempts to qualify (he didn't return a kick until game 5).

ON TARGET

Freshman quarterback CJ Bailey has put up some of the best numbers in school history for a freshman and with at least two games left to play even ranks on the overall single-season lists at NC State.

He enters game 11 with what would be the seventh-highest career completion percentage in school history with a .646 mark (Philip Rivers holds the school record with a .721 in 2003 - his senior year!). However, Bailey's mark is the best in school history for a freshman.

His 1,794 yards is the third-best mark in school history for a freshman and just 236 yards shy of ranking on the all-time single-season leaders list for NC State (regardless of class).

Bailey hit 18-20 of his throws in the win over Stanford - an incredible 90%! That's the fifth-best single-game mark in the FBS this season.

Bailey's career got off to a faster start than he expected when he enrolled at NC State in January of 2024. When he started the Clemson game for an injured Grayson McCall on Sept. 21, he was just the third true freshman to start a game for the Pack since the turn of the century, joining Rivers in 2000 and MJ Morris in 2022. He's only the fifth true freshman in school history to earn the starting nod.

On Oct. 12 vs. Syracuse, he became the first true freshman since Rivers to throw for 300+ yards in a game when he threw for 329 yards. As a true frosh in 2000, Rivers had five 300+ yard games.

Bailey repeated the feat in the Oct. 19 win at Cal - throwing for 306 yards. Rivers was also the last true frosh to pass for 300+ yards in back-to-back games.

Here's a look at the frosh's numbers in 2024:

Category	Mark	Single Season	Single Season
		Freshman	Overall
Passing Yards	1794	3rd	-
Pass Completions	146	3rd	-
Passing Attempts	226	t3rd	-
Pass TDs	12	3rd	T25th
Completion %	.646	1st	7th
Efficiency	144.44	1st	7th

RUNNING WATERS

Through eight games of the season, the Wolfpack's longest run of the year was a 50-yarder by Jordan Waters in game 1 vs. Western Carolina.

Waters almost doubled that on Nov. 2 vs. Stanford, when he burst through the line for a 94-yard rushing touchdown. That is the longest rush in the FBS this season and the second-longest in school history. Only Ted Brown had a longer run for the Wolfpack - a 95 yards in 1977 - 47 years ago!

The Duke transfer ended the game with 115 rushing yards for his second 100+ game of the season. He was well rested, as he missed the game at Cal with a flu bug.

The Pack's leading rusher for the season, Waters now boasts 2,024 yards for his career (Duke + NC State).

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

Safety DK Kaufman has been the epitome of the return man for the Wolfpack this season as returning the ball in the opposite direction has been his specialty.

Kaufman is the first Wolfpack defender since 2003 to score on an interception return and a fumble return in the same season. He also has what would be the best kickoff return average in school history if the season ended today (39.5 ypr).

Kaufman netted 164 yards in kickoff returns vs. Stanford - the fifth-highest tally in the FBS this season and the ninth-best mark in school history. He had one 91 yard return in that contest

The transfer from Auburn had a pick six in the win over LaTech - racing 33 yards for a score.

On Sept. 28 vs. NIU, he sacked the Huskie quarterback for a 14-yard loss, causing him to fumble, then picked it up and ran it into the end zone.

You don't have to look far to find the last player who accomplished the feat of scoring on a fumble return and interception return in the same season - he's actually standing on the Wolfpack sideline. Nickels coach and former Wolfpack linebacker Freddie Aughtry-Lindsay didn't just score both ways in a single season, he did it in the same game! Aughtry-Lindsay scored 12 of the Pack's 31 points in the win over UConn that season.

HOORAY FOR HOLLYWOOD

Running back Hollywood Smothers missed two games with an injury at midseason, but has increasingly become a bigger factor on offense since his return.

In the past four games, the redshirt freshman - who transferred from Oklahoma - has tallied 100+ all-purpose yards in three contests (105 vs. Syracuse, 112 vs. Cal and 100 vs. Stanford), and averaged 4.9 yards per carry and 17.8 yards per reception.

The Charlotte native scored what ended up being the winning touchdown (his first TD reception of the season) in the win at Cal. Versus Stanford, he averaged 6.2 yards per carry for his first 100 yard game.

Smothers set the tone early, scoring the Pack's first TD on a two-yard rush, then scoring on a 52-yarder in the third quarter.

BOWL WATCH

With a 5-5 record, the Wolfpack will be playing for bowl eligibility this week as it travels to Georgia Tech.

NC State has qualified for bowls in nine of the past 10 seasons. That is tied as the second-best mark in the ACC in that time frame

(Clemson has qualified for bowls in 10 straight years and Miami is tied with the Pack for bowl bids in nine of the past 10 years).

DIALING LONG DISTANCE

When CJ Bailey hit Noah Rogers for a 75-yard touchdown vs. Syracuse, it was the longest pass play for the Wolfpack since Devin Leary also had a 75-yarder in 2022 (and a 79-yard completion in 2021).

But not only did Bailey have that 70+ yard throw, he also connected with Hollywood Smothers for a 72-yard completion.

No other NC State quarterback has had two 70+ yard completions in one game in at least the past 30 years (we've gone back to 1994 and still looking!). No Wolfpack QB has had two in the same SEASON since 2017 (Ryan Finley)!

THE "AND" MATTERS

The Wolfpack offense has struggled on third down this season, ranking 90th in the FBS with a 46-122 conversion mark.

However, the difference is in the "and" - as in third-AND-short vs. third-AND-long. NC State's issues on third down have come from an inability to gain yardage on first and second down.

When the down and distance is 3rd and 5 or less, the Pack has converted at a 57% clip (31-54). On third and 6+, the Pack is 16-68 (23%).

JOLY ON A ROLL

Versatile tight end Justin Joly has become more and more of a weapon for the Wolfpack offense in the past five games, with 21 catches for 325 yards and three touchdowns.

The Pack's second-leading receiver with 34 catches, he leads the squad in receiving yards with 565. The transfer from UConn now ranks ninth in the ACC with an average of 16.6 yards per catch.

His current season reception total is tied as the 10th-best in school history for a tight end.

Last week vs. Duke, Joly had a season-best seven catches.

Joly led all tight ends in the FBS last season by forcing 20 missed tackles and making 12 contested catches, according to PFF. He was named to the preseason watch list for the 2024 Mackey Award.

TD(efense)

The Wolfpack defense has had its ups and downs this season, but one way it has excelled has been taking the ball back to the opponents' end zone.

NC State scored three defensive touchdowns in its first 10 games. That's the most defensive scores for the Wolfpack since the 2011 season and is tied for third in a season since the rules changed in 1989 allowed the defense to return fumbles (36 seasons). The Pack eighth in the FBS in defensive TDs this season.

The Pack has had two pick sixes this season - one by DK Kaufman vs. LaTech and one by Aydan White vs. Tennessee. Kaufman also had a fumble return for a score vs. Northern Illinois.

Here's a look at the Pack's top defensive TD seasons since 1989:

Year	Gms	INT	FUM	Tot
2003	13	2	4	6
2011	13	3	2	5

MARGIN CALLS

Winning the turnover battle is a must for NC State and we've got the stats to prove it!

In the past five seasons (2020-24), the Wolfpack posts a 23-1 record when winning the turnover margin and is 3-14 when committing more miscues than the opponent.

The Pack has won each of its last 12 games when winning the TO margin. The Wolfpack's win over Cal marked the first time since 2022 that NC State won a game when it lost the turnover margin.

SELLING OUT

Last week's game vs. Duke marked the 20th consecutive sellout for NC State Football - the longest sellout streak in school history. The streak dates back to Sept. 17, 2022 vs. Texas Tech.

It marks the first time in school history that the Pack has sold out

TO THE HOUSE

The Wolfpack defense had a pick six in games two and three and is tied for seventh in the FBS in interception returns for TDs in 2024.

In the Duke's Mayo Classic vs. Tennessee, CB Aydan White returned a pick for 87 yards and a score, the sixth-longest INT return in school history. The following week in the win over Louisiana Tech, safety DK Kaufman housed an interception for 33 yards and a score.

It marked the first time since the 2017 season that the Pack has had two interception returns for scores in a season (and this year it was done twice in the first five games!). NC State hasn't had more than two pick sixes in a season since the 2011 season, when David Amerson (who set the then-ACC record with 13 INTs that season) had a pair and CJ Wilson had one.

DOEREN'S DOZEN

NC State head coach Dave Doeren is now in his 12th season at the helm of Wolfpack football - the second-longest tenure in school history. It's the second-longest current tenure in the ACC (behind the Tigers' Dabo Swinney) and a mark that is tied for sixth among current FBS coaches.

Here's a look at the longest tenured coaches in the FBS:

Rk.	Name, School	Year
1.	Kirk Ferentz, Iowa	25th
2.	Kyle Whittingham, Utah	20th
	Mike Gundy, Oklahoma St.	20th
4.	Troy Calhoun, Air Force	18th
5.	Dabo Swinney, Clemson	17th
6.	Dave Doeren, NC State	12th

PAT DOWN

When the game vs. Georgia Tech game kicks off on Saturday, it will have been 2,554 days since NC State's last PAT miss.

NC State currently boasts the nation's longest streak of consecutive PATs made with 282. The Wolfpack hasn't missed an extra point since the second to last game of the 2017 season (Nov. 25, 2017). That's a streak of 85 games.

Here's a look at the national leaders in PAT streaks:

Rk.	School	Consec. PAT
1.	NC State	282
2.	*UTSA	217

Streak ended on Nov. 26, 2024

DOUBLING UP

Through the first four games of 2024, the Wolfpack defense turned in a total of four sacks. In the past six games however, the Pack has tallied 15 sacks.

NC State recorded four sacks vs. NIU and although that in itself was significant, what made it even more so was that the Huskies had not allowed a sack in six games prior to the Wolfpack win - that's dating back to the 2023 season.

NIU entered the contest averaging 222.3 rushing yards per game (and the Wolfpack was allowing 167 rushing yards per game). Against a revitalized NC State defense, the Huskies rushed for just 120 yards.

The Wolfpack's variety of blitzes has resulted in 10 different Wolfpack defenders notching at least a half sack this season.

FAMILY TRADITION

When quarterback Lex Thomas entered the game in the fourth quarter at Clemson, it didn't just mark the first action of his collegiate career, it was the continuation of a family legacy.

Lex is the third member of the Thomas family to play for the Wolfpack, following in the footsteps of his older brothers Thayer and Drake.

Thayer played wide receiver from 2018-22, tallying 215 career receptions - the second-highest total in school history. He is now on the practice squad for the Minnesota Vikings.

Drake, a first-team All-ACC performer at linebacker, played from 2019-22 and was the Pack's leading tackler twice in his career. He now plays for the Seattle Seahawks.

Lex redshirted last season and his 14 snaps versus Clemson were the first of his career. He is the second Thomas brother to throw for a touchdown, as Thayer threw for four in his career. Lex's first collegiate TD throw was a 40-yarder to Terrell Anderson. Thayer also had 24 receiving TDs.

Drake scored a touchdown of his own during his Wolfpack career, reaching the end zone on a 38-yard pick six vs. Syracuse in 2021.

PICKY PACK

In the past three+ seasons, NC State ranks second among all P4 schools in passes intercepted. NC State has tallied 58 interceptions in the 2021, '22, '23 and '24 seasons combined, trailing only Iowa for most in the nation.

The Pack led the ACC in picks each of the past three years, with 17 in 2023 (fourth in FBS), 19 in 2022 (3rd in FBS) and 15 in 2021 (14th in FBS).

Here's a look at the P4 Leaders in INTs over the past three+ seasons:

ELITE COMPANY

NC State is just one of just five programs in the Power 4 that has won eight or more games in each of the previous four seasons. The Wolfpack joins Alabama, Clemson, Georgia and Notre Dame in that elite stat.

The Wolfpack won 35 games between 2020-23 - more victories than any other ACC school except Clemson.

For the first time in school history, NC State has boasted four straight 8+ win seasons and under head coach Dave Doeren, the Wolfpack has posted seven seasons with eight or more wins.

MULTIPLE CHOICE

KC Concepcion has scored down multiple touchdowns in seven of his 23 career contests - with a pair of TD catches in five different games last season, three in the season opener of 2024 and vs. Stanford.

His 10 touchdown reception in 2023 set an NC State single season freshman record. He tied the single-game record for TD catches by a sophomore, tying Jerricho Cotchery, Koren Robinson and Tramain Hall with his three vs. WCU.

Only one other player in school history has had more multi-receiving TD games than Concepcion's six (Torry Holt had 7 from 1995-98).

Last season, he became just the fourth P5 player in the playoff era to tally 800 receiving yards and 300 rushing yards in a season and is the first to post those numbers and throw a touchdown pass (which he did in the win over Virginia Tech) since Kentucky's Randall Cobb in 2010.

GOING THE DISTANCE

When quarterback Grayson McCall went down with an injury earlier this season, 2024 became the fifth time in the past six seasons that the Wolfpack has had to start multiple quarterbacks in a season.

The only time NC State has been able to go an entire season with the same starting quarterback in the past six years was Devin Leary in 2021.

- 2019: Matthew McKay (5), Bailey Hockman (2), Devin Leary (5)
- 2020: Bailey Hockman (9), Devin Leary (3)
- 2021: Devin Leary (12)
- 2022: Devin Leary (6), Jack Chambers (3), MJ Morris (2), Ben Finley (2)
- 2023: Brennan Armstrong (9), MJ Morris (4)
- 2024: Grayson McCall (4), CJ Bailey (6)

WHITE PARTY

Corner Aydan White's 87-yard pick six vs. Tennessee was the second interception return for a score in his career. It also marked the sixth-longest INT return in school history.

White now has two of the top eight longest interception returns in school history, as he also had an 84-yarder against Texas Tech in 2022.

No other Wolfpack player has had more career scores on INT returns since David Amerson had three between 2011-12. (Amerson set an ACC record for picks during his career). CJ Wilson (09-12) and Marcus Hudson (01-05) also had three.

Now with nine career INTs, the three-year starter is a veteran of 52 career games (36 career starts).

THE COMEBACK KID

Backup nose tackle DJ Jackson, a native of Sumter, S.C., was in for 32 snaps in the season opener. There was no fanfare when the redshirt sophomore took the field for the first time, but boy should there have been!

It marked the first time Jackson had played in a football game since his junior season in high school - 2020. The summer following his junior year, he tore his ACL and missed his entire senior season (2021).

Jackson enrolled early at NC State (January of 2022) and in the first run of spring workouts, tore his Achilles. He rehabbed that injury for almost a year and was cleared to participate in 2023 spring workouts.

Halfway through spring practice, he tore his other ACL and spent another year rehabbing from that injury.

Jackson played the first four games of 2024, tallying 65 snaps. He left the Clemson game early with an injury and missed the next two contests, but was back for the Syracuse contest and tallied a season-best five stops.

LEADER OF THE PACK

With the win over Miami on Nov. 4, 2023, Dave Doeren became the winningest coach in Wolfpack Football history. Now in his 12th season at NC State, Doeren boasts 86 victories as the Leader of the Pack.

In Doeren’s previous 11 campaigns at NC State, his teams have had seven 8+ win seasons, four nine-win seasons and qualified for nine bowl games. Since the beginning of the 2020 season, his Wolfpack has posted more victories than any other ACC school except Clemson, as the Pack now has 36.

Five of his players have won seven national awards and three have been first-round draft picks and NC State posted what tied as the longest home winning streak in school history (16 wins between 2020-22).

Doeren was named to the watch list for the 2024 Dodd Trophy Watch list.

RETENTION RATES

Consistency and continuity have been a hallmark for Wolfpack Football under head coach Dave Doeren. The 2024 season has been no different, as NC State boasts a 100% retention rate on its coaching staff. All 10 assistant coaches, as well as veteran director of strength and conditioning Dantonio Burnette, signed contract extensions in the off-season.

NC State is one of just seven schools in the FBS to return every coach from last season, joining Florida State, Liberty, Louisville, Stanford, Utah and Wake Forest.

SIX MILES

To say that Wolfpack quarterback Grayson McCall put up some big numbers in his career would be putting it mildly. McCall, who transferred to NC State from Coastal Carolina in January, passed for 10,481 yards in 45 career games - a distance of almost six miles!

That career mark for passing yards was the fourth-highest for any QB in the nation heading into the 2024 season.

McCall was been named to the preseason watch lists for the Maxwell, Davey O’Brien, Unitas and Walter Camp Awards before his season ended prematurely with an injury.

AGAINST US, NOW FOR US

Four players on the Wolfpack offense who played their first game for the Wolfpack against Western Carolina had all played against NC State previously in their careers.

Running back Jordan Waters, center Zeke Correll, tight end Justin Joly and wide receiver Wesley Grimes are in the first year at NC State, but all played against the Wolfpack at their previous schools.

Waters started for Duke against the Wolfpack in Durham last season, rushing for 123 yards on 13 carries and a touchdown in that Blue Devil win. He also saw limited action when NC State defeated Duke in Raleigh in 2020.

Correll started for Notre Dame in a lightning-delayed game at Carter-Finley last season, helping the Fighting Irish rush for 170 yards in their 45-24 victory.

Joly was UConn’s leading receiver in the Pack’s win on the road last season, hauling in four catches for 38 yards. He also had a catch in Carter-Finley in the 2022 matchup between the two teams.

A former Wake Forest Demon Deacon, Grimes had one catch against the Pack in Winston-Salem last season, gaining nine yards in that NC State victory.

GOOD COORDINATION

NC State’s two coordinators - Robert Anae on offense and Tony Gibson on defense - boast 30 collective seasons as coordinators, including 28 at Power conference schools.

Anae spent nine seasons as OC at BYU, six at Virginia, one at Syracuse and is in his second at NC State.

Gibson was the DC at West Virginia Tech for two years, West Virginia for five years and is now in year five with the Wolfpack.

OLD-FENSIVE LINE

Glance down the Wolfpack depth chart at the offensive line and you’ll see two letters pretty often: GR.

Seven players listed on the two-deep for game one at the five o-line spots are graduates, including four who started the first four games: Anthony Belton (LT), Anthony Carter, Jr., (LG), Zeke Correll (C), and Tim McKay (RT).

Backups Matt McCabe and Patrick Matan also have already earned degrees.

The starters on the Wolfpack’s offensive line have combined to play 191 career games, starting 142 (that includes Correll’s 41 games and 31 starts at Notre Dame).

EXPERIENCED LEADERS

The Wolfpack coaching staff is one of the most experienced in the nation, boasting 340 collective years of coaching between head coach Dave Doeren and his 10 full time assistants.

Here’s a look at the experience of the 2024 Wolfpack coaching staff:

CHANGE OF SCENERY

Sean Brown has earned a reputation as one of the hardest hitters on the Wolfpack's nationally ranked defense during his career as a safety, starting 11 games at free safety in 2023. He ranked third on the team in tackles last season, leading all players returning in 2024.

For 2024, Brown has brought his skills to the WLB spot, making the move to the linebacker corps in the offseason. He's got some pretty big shoes to fill at that spot, as it was vacated by 2023 Butkus and Bednarik winner Payton Wilson (now with the Pittsburgh Steelers) - who will be inducted into the NC State Ring of Honor on Saturday.

Brown, who was named to the Butkus Award preseason watch list, is the team's leading tackler with 73 stops.

MAKING THE GRADE

The Wolfpack football program has not only enjoyed success on the playing field, but in the classroom as well.

The Wolfpack posted the highest cumulative team GPA in program history last year, as well as the highest multi-year academic progress rate (APR) ever.

In the past 10 years, 292 Wolfpack players have earned their degrees from NC State.

ACC-OMPLISHMENT

Since the beginning of the 2020 season, NC State ranks second in the ACC in conference wins. The Wolfpack has posted a 22-14 mark in league play over the past four seasons, second only to Clemson's 28-7 mark.

Here's a look at the league records since 2020:

DEFENSIVE DO-OVER

The Wolfpack's defensive success over the past several years has been well documented, but one factor behind that success that may be overlooked has been the stability of NC State's defensive coaching staff.

Tony Gibson, now in his sixth year at the helm of the defense, arrived prior to the 2019 season as co-defensive coordinator. The following year, he and Dave Doeren brought in an entire new defensive staff, including alum Freddie Aughtry-Lindsay (NIC), Joe DeForest (SAF) from USC and Brian Mitchell (CB) and Charley Wiles (DL) from Virginia Tech.

In other words, 2024 is the fifth season that the entire defensive coaching staff has worked together.

AWARD WINNERS

Head coach Dave Doeren has now coached five different Wolfpack players to seven different national awards.

2017	Bradley Chubb, DE	Nagurski Trophy Hendricks Award
2018	Garrett Bradbury, C	Rimington Trophy
2022	Christopher Dunn, PK	Groza Award
2023	Payton Wilson, LB	Bednarik Award Butkus Award

RALEIGH = TITLETOWN

NC State Athletics is coming off one of the most successful years in school history!

The Wolfpack was the only school in the nation to finish 2023-24 with all four major sports finishing in the top 25 nationally and was one of only three programs ever to have its men's and women's basketball teams advance to the Final Four and its baseball team make it to the College World Series.

NC State won five ACC team titles in 2023-24, and since the 2019-20 year, has won 20 league championships - 4.5 more than any other league school during that time frame.

ALL ABOARD!

Wolfpack offensive line coach Garret Tujague brought a new stat to his unit when he joined the staff in 2023.

In addition to charting knockdowns and pancakes for the o-line, Tujague also keeps track of "Raleigh Railroads."

A RR is an extended, sustained block - basically when the lineman pushes the defender back like a freight train.

GIVE A DAWG A BONE

Defensive coordinator Tony Gibson says he wants 'dawgs' on his defense, aka tenacious, relentless, aggressive players. To commemorate those who play with those characteristics, the defensive staff introduced the TAKEAWAY BONE in 2020.

When a Wolfpack defender recovers a fumble or intercepts a pass, the BONE comes out on the sideline. The player who got the take-away signs it and at the end of the season, whoever has signed it the most times gets to keep the bone.

Now entering its fifth season, the TAKEAWAY BONE has come out 90 times - for 68 interceptions and 22 fumble recoveries.

NUMBER ONE

Since 2014, NC State head coach Dave Doeren has honored a member of the Wolfpack squad by giving them the No. 1 jersey. Prior to the 2023 season, he awarded that number to defensive end Davin Vann.

The jersey number is awarded to a player who exhibits an elite work ethic and practice and training habits, while also leading his teammates. "This player doesn't just uphold the standards," said head coach Dave Doeren. "He pushes them higher." heck to

NON-CON DOMINANCE

Just a note on the Wolfpack's non-conference slate: NC State has posted a 31-2 record in home non-conference games under head coach Dave Doeren.

The Wolfpack has won 28 of last 29 non-ACC home games, with last year's loss to 10th-ranked Notre Dame marking the first non-conference loss in 10 years (since ECU in 2013 - Doeren's first year in Raleigh).

WOLFPACK TRADITIONS

Lighting It Red: After ACC wins in football, the Memorial Belltower on campus is lit RED to celebrate. It's a unique celebration that is often imitated, but never duplicated.

The Wolf Sign: Touch your ring finger and middle finger to your thumb and raise your pinkie and pointer fingers. You've made the sign of the Wolf!

Law of the Jungle: After wins, when Coach Doeren calls the team up in the postgame locker room, the entire team chants a verse from Rudyard Kipling's poem Law of the Jungle.

*Now this is the Law of the Jungle – as old and as true as the sky;
And the Wolf that shall keep it may prosper, but the Wolf that shall break it must die.
As the creeper that girdles the tree-trunk the Law runneth forward and back –
For the strength of the Pack is the Wolf, and the strength of the Wolf is the Pack.*

Alpha Wolf Starter: Before every home game, a fan favorite serves as the 'starter of the game.' This could be a former player, famous alum or just somebody special to Wolfpack nation. The starter gets the crowd going in a chant of "WOLF!" "PACK!" prior to the team's entrance.

Walk of Champions: A couple of hours before kickoff, NC State's team buses arrive at the stadium on Trinity Rd, in front of the Murphy Football Center. The team walks down the steps through the cheerleaders, band and Wolfpack Nation before entering the building on the far side and heading to the locker room.

El Lobo: Leading the band onto the field (and the team down Trinity Rd. before the Walk of Champions) is the helmet cart, also known as "El Lobo."

Equipped with it's own sound system and smoking 'tailpipes', the cart was originally given by a donor in the late 70s, then restored a couple of decades ago.

The cart brings the Pack's beloved mascots (see next note) onto the field.

Mr. and Ms. WUF: NC State's Mr. WUF mascot has been around since the 60s, and he was joined by a female version in 1975. On Feb. 28, 1981, the two were married in a mock ceremony by the Wake Forest Demon Deacon mascot during halftime of a men's Basketball game at Reynolds Coliseum. The two were joined in "canis matrimonium," and Chancellor Joab Thomas gave the bride away.

Tuffy III: A dog named Tuffy became the new live mascot for football games in 2010. Tuffy was a Tamaskan - a breed of dog that resembles a wolf. Tuffy II took over in 2016, followed by Tuffy III in 2021.

Wagon Wheel: The song "Wagon Wheel" has long been a Wolfpack favorite due to its lyrics about our state and city.

However, in the past several years, it's become a tradition to play the song between the 3rd and 4th quarter and for Wolfpack Nation to sing it together:

*Headin' down south to the land of the pines
I'm thumbin' my way into North Carolina
Starin' up the road and pray to God I see headlights
I made it down the coast in seventeen hours
Pickin' me a bouquet of dogwood flowers
And I'm a-hopin' for Raleigh, I can see my baby tonight*

ONEPACK EMPOWERED

A generous gift from Dave and Sara Doeren established a new initiative at NC State in 2023-24 to support students with executive functioning challenges and those who are neurodivergent. Their $1.25 million commitment is among the largest made by a college football coach to his NCAA-member institution.

Launched through the Doeren Family Fund, OnePack Empowered benefits NC State students who face challenges with executive function skills critical to academic success, such as organization, planning, setting priorities, task completion and decision making.

The program had 15 participants in the spring semester, will have 30 this fall and 50 in the spring of 2025.

With a focus on one-on-one mentoring, individual support plans, career readiness and additional specialized assistance, the program was designed to bolster academic and personal success and ensure students can complete their degrees.

The Doerens' commitment will pilot the program for five years, and the hope to inspire other donors to join them in contributing to OnePack Empowered as a sustainable source of support and guidance for an expanding number of participants over the next several years.
