VERDI ANNOUNCES COACHING ADDITIONS

- » Coach Verdi announced two additions to his staff this offseason in assistant coaches John Marcum and Devan Newman.
- » Newman brings 15+ years of NCAA Division I coaching experience, highlighted by a four year stint at Louisville where she served in a variety of capacities.
- » Newman arrives from Binghamton where she served as the associate head coach since 2021 and previously as an assistant coach from 2018-21.
- » During the 2019-20 campaign, Newman helped the Bearcats record the best start (9-0) and the most wins in school history. Additionally, during each of her six seasons, she helped produce multiple all-conference honorees.
- » Prior to her stint at Binghamton, Newman served as an assistant coach at Weber State from 2011-18. Notably, during the 2015-16 season, the Wildcats won a school record 23 games and reached the Women's Basketball Invitational (WBI) championship game.
- » Newman began her career as a graduate assistant at Louisville, before being promoted to assistant director of operations/special assistant to the head coach. She earned her bachelor's degree in sport administration from Oregon in 2007, before earning her master's degree in sport administration from Louisville in 2009.
- » Marcum joins the staff with 18+ years collegiate coaching experience with stops at Chipola College, Syracuse, Butler, Grand Canyon, East Carolina, Indiana State, Cal Baptist and Oklahoma Baptist.
- » Marcum spent last season as the head coach at Chipola College leading the team to 24-8 record and an FCSAA Region VIII Tournament second round appearance.
- » Prior to his stint at Chipola College, he served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Syracuse. Marcum signed two top ten recruiting classes composed of multiple McDonald's All-Americans, including Kamilla Cardoso, the top-ranked center and No. 5 overall player in the Class of 2020. In the 2020-21 season, Cardoso won multiple Atlantic Coast Conference awards including Freshman of the Year and Co-Defensive Player of the Year. She was also named a member of the All-Freshman Team, All-Defensive Team, and All-ACC First Team. Emily Engstler earned ACC Sixth Player of the Year honors as one of the top players off the bench in the country averaging 10.5 points and 9.1 rebounds per game and the Orange led the ACC in blocks per game (7.0).
- » In his second season with the Orange, Marcum worked with Alaysia Styles, Syracuse's lone post player, a guard who played the entire season out of position due to limited personnel. Under Marcum's guidance, Styles posted the best numbers of her career averaging 10.3 points and 6.1 rebounds per game. Styles scored in double figures in 18 of Syracuse's 29 games and recorded a career-high 21 points shooting 5-for-9 from the field and a perfect 10-for-10 at the free throw line in a road win against Pitt on Feb. 13.
- » From 2017-2020, Marcum was the top assistant for the Butler women's basketball team. After finishing 6-25 in the season prior to Marcum's arrival, the Bulldogs improved by nine wins in his first season and posted their first 20-win season since 2010-11 in year two. Overall, the Bulldogs were 57-38 in his three seasons in Indianapolis.
- » Marcum served as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Indiana State for one year (2012-13) before taking on the role of associate head coach at East Carolina (2013-2016). The Pirates went 57-39 during that span with the team winning 22 games in each of his first two seasons. He helped bring in the second-best class in the American Conference for the 2014-15 season and signed a top-50 recruiting class in 2015.
- » Marcum's first head coaching job was at NCAA Division II school, California Baptist, where he led the Lancers to a 47-12 record in two seasons (2010-12). Cal Baptist won their first conference championship in program history and made their first national tournament appearance since 1982 during Marcum's tenure.
- » Marcum also served one season as an assistant coach under Kareem Abdul-Jabbar for the Oklahoma Storm of the former United States Basketball League, leading the Storm to the 2002 USBL Championship.
- » Marcum played collegiate baseball and graduated from Oklahoma Baptist in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in secondary education. He was a member of OBU's NAIA World Series team in 1996 and served as the President of OBU's Fellowship of Christian Athletes chapter. He earned his master's in secondary education with a concentration in physical education in 2003 from East Central University.

Tory Verdi (pronounced Ver - dee) was announced as the University of Pittsburgh's 10th women's basketball coach on April 7, 2023. In 14 seasons as an NCAA Division I head coach, Verdi has compiled a 219-184 ledger, including stops at Columbia (2004-05), Eastern Michigan (2012-2016), Massachusetts (2016-23) and Pitt (2023-current).

In his first year guiding the Panthers, Verdi developed the ACC's Most Improved Player, Liatu King into one of the premier players across the league. Under Verdi, King saw improvements in nearly every statistical category en route to also garnering All-ACC First Team honors.

Prior to arriving at Pitt, Verdi spent the previous seven seasons at Massachusetts where he helped lead the Minutewomen to 128 wins. Verdi guided the program to new heights as it secured its first regular season Atlantic 10 title in 2022-23 after earning the program's first Atlantic 10 Tournament Championship and NCAA Tournament berth in 2021-22.

With a wealth of experience at both the collegiate and professional levels, Verdi-coached teams have advanced to postseason play in 17 of the past 23 seasons. Over his seven years in Amherst, Mass., Verdi turned Massachusetts women's basketball into a consistent contender in the A-10 and beyond, returning the program to heights not seen since the 1990s.

The 2022-23 season turned into one of the most successful campaigns in program history as the Minutewomen posted a 27-7 overall record and a 14-2 A-10 mark, while qualifying for the WNIT and advancing to the second round for just the third time in program history. The potent offensive attack posted the highest scoring average (76.2 ppg) since the 1979-80 season and marked the third straight season it led the A-10 in scoring offense. The offense was led by Becky Hammon Mid-Major

Player of the Year, Sam Breen, who earned Atlantic 10 Player of the Year honors after averaging 17.3 points, 10.1 rebounds and 3.6 assists while shooting 47.5% from the floor and connecting on 46 three-pointers.

The 2021-22 season shattered glass ceilings and broke records, as the program garnered its first Atlantic 10 Championship title to earn an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament for the first appearance since 1998. On March 5, 2022, UMass stopped Saint Joseph's for Verdi's 100th win at the helm of Massachusetts to advance to the A-10 Finals. The No. 3-seeded Minutewomen defeated No. 1 seed Dayton in the title game to hoist the A-10 trophy.

Throughout the season, UMass made history receiving votes in a national poll for the first time since the 1994-95 season and earned votes five times during the year. Individually, Massachusetts saw Samantha Breen and Destiney Philoxy become the 21st and 22nd Minutewomen to eclipse the 1,000th career point each. Both Philoxy and Breen played in their 100th career games that year, as well.

Capped by a berth in the WNIT, the 2020-21 season was one to remember with the program's first national postseason appearance since 1998, in addition to the first trip to the Atlantic 10 Championship Game since '98. On March 22, 2021, UMass defeated Ohio in the WNIT Consolation Final, securing Verdi's 150th career victory as a collegiate head coach. On that special day, UMass also made history garnering multiple postseason wins for the first time.

The 2019-20 season featured a slew of team and individual superlatives. UMass tied a program record with 20 wins, set a new top mark with an 11-game winning streak and finished tied for fourth place in the A-10, the highest under the league's current format. Massachusetts hosted, and won, an A-10 Tournament game at the Mullins Center for the first time since 1998, en route to the league Quarterfinals.

Verdi's Minutewomen made tremendous strides during his first two seasons (2016-17, 2017-18), garnering a pair of A-10 All Rookie selections and Hailey Leidel's Rookie of the Year nod in 2017. Maggie Mulligan was one of the league's most improved players during that time with 33 double-doubles.

Prior to Verdi's arrival in Amherst, he accumulated a head coaching record of 72-61 across four seasons at Eastern Michigan. His teams advanced to the 2015 and 2016 WNIT, including a Sweet Sixteen appearance, and the Mid-American Conference Championship Game in 2015.

Arriving at EMU for the 2012-13 campaign, he took an 8-22 squad to a record of 24-13 in 2014-15 and 22-12 in 2015-16. He also secured the MAC's No. 1 recruiting class twice during his tenure.

Under Verdi, the 2015-16 MAC West Division preseason favorite Eagles made their mark in the EMU record books. Defensively, the team totaled the fourth-most rebounds in a single season (1,364), while also ranking seventh all-time in blocks (92) and third in steals (386).

EMU's high-tempo offense poured in 2,445 points, the third-most in a single season in school history, along with dishing out 435 assists, good for seventh-most. Additionally, the Eagles converted 218 three-pointers, ranking fourth all-time and marking the third consecutive season in which EMU made 200 or more triples.

A large part of Verdi's 2014-15 record-setting performance came from the Eagles late run during the regular season and into postseason play. EMU finished the regular season with wins in its final four games, while also winning seven of its last eight. The Eagles appeared in eight postseason games, winning six of them. The Eagles advanced to the Mid-American Conference Tournament

Championship, winning four-of-five MAC Tournament games, before advancing to the Sweet 16 of the 2015 WNIT. The Eagles rewrote the EMU record book with 124 different all-time top performances, including the most points in a season (2,549), field goals made (936), rebounds (1,539) and three-pointers made (223).

Verdi spent two seasons as the top assistant and recruiting coordinator at Kansas (2010-11, 2011-12). The Jayhawks advanced to the 2012 NCAA Sweet Sixteen and the 2011 WNIT Second Round.

Prior to his arrival in Lawrence, Verdi was an assistant coach at Nebraska for five seasons (2005-10). The Huskers advanced to the postseason every year Verdi served on staff in Lincoln and collected the Big 12 Regular-Season Championship in 2009-10 with a 16-0 conference record. History was made that season as the Huskers secured a No. 1 seed in the NCAA tournament and reached the Sweet Sixteen.

Verdi spent three seasons on staff with the WNBA's Connecticut Sun (2003-05), reaching the postseason during each year and winning the Eastern Conference in 2005.

In 2004-05, Columbia tabbed Verdi the top assistant and eventual interim head coach.

Verdi was inducted into the New Britain Sports Hall of Fame on April 24, 2016.

He graduated from Keene State in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in elementary education. Following that, he completed his master's degree in computer technology from Hartford in 2003.
