TOP STORYLINES

• Georgia Tech baseball returns for its 130th season.

• The Yellow Jackets return 15 players from last year's roster including 5 starters from the Regional Final.

• Headlining the returners is 2024 National Freshman of the Year and No. 1 sophomore in college baseball (according to Perfect Game), Drew Burress. Burress has been dubbed a preseason 1st team all-American by multiple outlets for 2025 & is currently the NCAAs active leader in slugging percentage across all divisions (.807).

• Burress kicked off his sophomore encore with a walk-off grand slam last Saturday, his first walk off HR at GT.

• The Jackets feature 10 transfers and 15 freshman - the No. 2 ranked recruiting class in the nation according to Perfect Game - Tech's highest ranked class since PG started ranking in 2011.

•The class features 3 players ranked in PG's National top-100: Drew Rogers (Catcher – No. 23), Connor Shouse (RHP/INF – No. 83), Alex Hernandez (RHP/INF – No. 96). It also contains one draft pick - Cole Royer – drafted in the 20th round (601st overall) by the Yankees).

• Head Coach Danny Hall enters his 32nd season at GT and his 38th year as a college head coach. He currently has 1,415 career wins – the 11th most all-time and 2nd most among active NCAA head coaches after South Carolina hired Paul Mainieri (1,509) out of retirement this season.

• GT swept Old Dominion on Opening Weekend, the 4th straight opening weekend sweep. Followed by a midweek win at Georgia Southern to improve to 4-0 for the third year in a row and 14th time under Coach Hall.

• The pitching staff has been the highlight of the season, allowing only nine runs over the opening series, a 10-run improvement after averaging 19 runs allowed over the previous three opening series sweeps.

• The Jacket pitchers have struck out a total of 52 batters – the most Ks through 4 games this century.

• Tech's 13.0 K/9 ranks 10th in the nation among teams with at least 30 innings pitched.

• GT's bullpen has been nearly flawless, pitching 25.0 innings with a 1.44 ERA and 44 Ks to just 9 BBs

TOTAL	158-112	.585

• The Cardiac Jackets wasted no time returning for 2025, winning opening day by one run, 3-2, after scoring the go-ahead run in the bottom of the eighth after an infield grounder from Nathan Waugh gave just enough time for Drew Burress to come sliding home from third, despite a five-man infield from ODU.

• In the 2nd game, Tech fell behind, 3-0 before recording an out, only for the bullpen to come in and pitch 9.0 innings of scoreless ball, striking out a season high 16 and only allowing three base hits. The outstanding effort from the bullpen kept the game, 3-0, until the bottom of the ninth, when Tech exploded for seven runs, the most scored in a ninth inning in a decade of GT baseball.

• That 7 run 9th inning began with a 5-pitch walk drawn by

Nathan Waugh before Vahn Lackey delivered his 2nd hit of the game to put runners at 1st and 2nd. Alex Hernandez drew a walk on 4 pitches to load the bases for Tyler Neises who connected on an 0-1 pitch, driving it into left field for a single and cutting the deficit to one run, 3-2. Will Baker reached on an error when his sacrifice bunt was mishandled by the ODU pitcher, loading the bases for Kyle Lodise who accepted his second walk of the day to bring home Hernandez from third and tie the game. The very next batter was Drew Burress and he made no mistake, smashing a 1-0 pitch over the wall in right field for the walk-off opposite field grand slam.

IT STARTS AT HOME...

• Since 1985, Tech has won a whopping .755 percent of its games at home (1,029-335-1).

• In 31 home games in 2024, Tech has hit .339 with 75 doubles, five triples and 61 home runs for 279 RBI.

• In 30 home games last season, Tech was 23-7 and hit a blistering .357 with 86 doubles, 10 triples and 63 home runs.

• Since 2002, Tech has only hit below .300 at home in two full season – 2017 and 2021.

CHASE FOR THE TOP 10

• ABCA Hall of Famer Danny Hall became the 11th NCAA Division I coach all-time to reach the 1,400 career win mark on April 14 when Tech defeated then-No. 16 Virginia Tech, 11-7.

• In addition to his career-win milestone, Coach Hall also reached the 1,200 wins at Georgia Tech after defeating No. 9 Duke on May 12.

• He currently has 1,411 career wins – the 2nd most among active NCAA head coaches after South Carolina hired Paul Mainieri (1,505 career wins) this season.

• Hall is 16 wins shy of Cliff Gustafson (1,427 at Texas 1967-1996) and 33 away from tying Chuck Hartman (1,444 at High Point/Virginia Tech 1959-2006).

• When Hall passes Gustafson, 17 wins from now, Georgia Tech will replace Texas as the only program in Division I with two coaches in the all-time top-10 for career victories - Jim Morris coached at GT from 1982-93.

• Burress led Georgia Tech in a myriad of categories last year, including average (.381), home runs (25) and RBI (67), becoming the 12th Yellow Jacket to win Tech's triple crown.

• He set the Georgia Tech record for most assists by an outfielder, gunning down 10 base-runners from center field while also setting the program record with four home runs in a single game, against Georgia State (Feb. 27, 2024).

• His .821 slugging percentage from last season gives him the highest career slugging percentage in program history, with a minimum of 200 at bats in White & Gold. It was the 4th highest slugging percentage in a single season by a Yellow Jacket, the best since 1926 and the first .800+ slugging season in 45 years (Tommy Thompson (.811) – 1979).

• This was Burress' first walk-off home run as a Yellow Jacket and his second grand slam after doing so against Youngstown State last season (March 9, 2024).

• Earlier in the inning, sophomore outfielder Tyler Neises drove home two with a single into left field, scoring Nathan Waugh and Vahn Lackey. It was just his eighth collegiate at bat and resulted in his first multi-RBI performance in college baseball.

• Vahn Lackey delivered his first multi-hit game of the season, securing a double and a single. He leads the team with three hits through two games.

• Kyle Lodise posted his first Division I RBI when he drew a bases loaded walk to tie the score in the ninth. It was his team-leading third free pass of the young season.

• He would also come around to score twice – his 25th career game with multiple runs scored.

• Burress added another RBI to his career total with a SAC fly in the fifth inning to get GT on the board. It was his team-leading 5th RBI of the season and 72nd of his still young career.

MIDWEEK Highlights - The Bats - GT 5 - GASO 3

• It was the first Division I home run for Lodise, who transferred into GT from Augusta University over the offseason.

• He would come around to score twice for his first multi-run game in White & Gold.

• For Burress he launched his second of the year and 27th as a Yellow Jacket. He leads all active players in the NCAA (all divisions with 200+ ABs) with an .807 career slugging percentage. He is the only active player in Division I to slug over .750 for his career.

• The Yellow Jackets are tied for second in the ACC with 40 strikeouts and sit fourth in the conference with 13.33 strikeouts per game.

• Even more impressive was the fact that these great numbers were produced by 15 different pitchers, 10 of which were doing so for the first time in White & Gold.

• The 15 pitchers used were the most in an opening weekend since at least the turn of the century.

• All four pitchers who played a role in the decisions over the weekend are playing in their first season on The Flats. The three winning pitchers, in order of appearance: Jaylen Paden (transfer from GSU), Cole Royer (freshman) and Kayden Campbell (transfer from Louisville) earned wins while Alex Hernandez (freshman) picked up the save on Sunday.

Friday Highlights - The Arms - GT 3 - ODU 2

• Sophomore RHP Tate McKee made his ninth career start in White & Gold, pitching 5.0 innings, striking out three and allowing only one unearned run on two hits.

• With a tied game (2-2) and runners on second and third and nobody out in the top of the 8th, Tech turned to Paden, playing in his first game since 2023 after missing all of the 2024 season recovering from an injury. Paden proceeded to strike out the first batter he faced before Carson Kerce made a great defensive play to backhand a hard-hit grounder and fire home for the second out. Paden would finish off the inning in highlight fashion, powering a fastball past the ODU hitter, on a full-count, to get Tech out of the jam and maintain the tie headed into the bottom of the inning.

• This was Paden's ninth career victory after leaving Georgia Southern with a career record of 8-4.

Saturday Highlights - The Arms - GT 7 - ODU 3

• After ODU scored three runs in the top of the first, Tech turned to the bullpen where the combination of sophomore Caden Gaudette (2.0 IP, 1 H, 5 Ks), junior Caden Spivey (3.0 IP, 1 H, 1 BB, 5 Ks), senior Sam Swygert (1.2 IP, 1 BB, 2 Ks), junior Brett Barfield (0.1 IP, 1 BB), freshman Cooper McMullen (1.0 IP, 1 H, 1 BB, 2 Ks) and freshman Cole Royer (1.0 IP, 2 Ks) held the Monarch bats at bey, allowing for Tech to come storming back in the bottom of the ninth for the second win of the 2025 season.

• Sophomore RHP Caden Guadette was the first out of the bullpen, entering the game with two on and nobody out. He struck out all three batters he faced on his way to 2.0 innings pitched, five strikeouts and only one base runner allowed.

• The five strikeouts are a new career best while his 2.0 innings pitched matches his career high, set on opening day last season against Radford.

• Jr. RHP Caden Spivey was next, making his Georgia Tech debut after transferring from Notre Dame and delivering 3.0 scoreless innings, allowing only two base runners (one hit, one walk) and striking out a career-best five batters.

• Freshman RHP Cooper McMullen made his college debut in the eighth, striking out two to work around a pair of base runners.

He has not struck out more than four in any of his six appearances at Georgia Southern last season.

• Junior LHP Kayden Campbell worked the Jackets out of a jam during his first appearance as a Yellow Jacket in the seventh, coming in with the bases loaded and two outs, he allowed a single that scored two inherited runners before striking out the ODU batter to leave the game tied, 4-4. Campbell transferred into the program from Louisville this year.

• Freshman RHP Alex Hernandez showcased his versatility, coming in to pitch the final 1.2 innings to earn his first career save after starting the game at second base.

• Hernandez entered the game in the top of the eighth with the tying run at the plate and one out, inducing a pop up and a ground out to get Tech into the 9th, where sent ODU down in order with his first two strikeouts as a college pitcher.

• Hernandez started all three games of the opening series for Tech, seeing time at second base, left field and pitcher.

• The GT bullpen has now gone 9.1 innings without allowing a run.

MISCELLANEOUS

Jim Poole Number - John Giesler

Georgia Tech baseball continues the legacy of former Yellow Jacket standout and Major League Baseball relief pitcher Jim Poole, who passed away from ALS in October of 2023, by designating a student-athlete each year to wear his No. 21 jersey. The student-athlete selected must exemplify Poole's characteristics both on and off the field.

This year, senior infielder John Giesler becomes the third Yellow Jacket to earn the honor, continuing the tradition begun by Jack Rubenstein in 2023 and Ben King last season.

"I am excited that John Giesler will wear number 21 this year," Head Coach Danny Hall said. "Jim Poole was part of an era in Georgia Tech Baseball that established us as a national power. Jim's prowess on the mound and in the classroom set the bar high for future Yellow Jacket players and teams. John exemplifies those same character traits of excellence on the field and in the classroom. As a two-time Captain he is the ultimate "Tech Man" to honor Jim's legacy."

Giesler, a sixth-year senior from Marietta, Ga. (Walton HS) will wear No. 21, having shown a longstanding commitment to Poole's ideals – self-determination, a strong academic work ethic, and high moral fiber on and off the field. Giesler is a five-time member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll, a two-time academic all-district honoree and earned Academic All-America (3rd Team) in 2023. He is currently pursuing a master's degree in real estate development.

On the diamond, Giesler is entering his second season as team captain. He is a career .308 hitter for the Yellow Jackets and set career highs in doubles (17), home runs (10) and RBI (43) last season while delivering a .990 fielding percentage in 41 games in the corner infield. He will be a key piece of the Jackets' offense again in 2025 as Tech strives for its 36th NCAA Regional berth and fifth in Giesler's career in White and Gold.

"Simply put, this is the greatest honor I have ever been given," Giesler said. "From knowing Jim and knowing who he was as a person, I don't feel deserving but I am incredibly honored. I will do everything I can this year to wear this number with respect and honor him and his family the best I can."

ABOUT JIM POOLE

Poole arrived on The Flats in 1985 and had an immediate impact, as Georgia Tech baseball would win the first of four-straight ACC Tournament Championships. During his four years, he pitched in 120 games and struck out 263 batters in 188 innings. He still ranks first in the Tech record book with 22 career saves, including 10 as a junior and nine as a senior. He was named all-ACC his last two seasons. Poole would be enshrined into the Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame just nine years later in 1997.

A stellar worker in the classroom, Poole elected not to turn professional after being selected in the 34th round of the 1987 MLB Draft by the LA Dodgers, and returned to Georgia Tech for his senior year, recording a 2.03 ERA and 113 strikeouts in only 71 innings. Once again, the LA Dodgers would call his name in the 1988 MLB Draft, this time taking him in the ninth round. He would return to graduate from the Institute with a degree in electrical engineering in 1990.

Poole played 11 years in the major leagues, predominantly with the Baltimore Orioles, Cleveland Indians, and San Francisco Giants. In 431 games played, he finished with 22 victories and a 4.31 ERA, as well as 256 strikeouts and four saves. He helped pitch Cleveland to two American League Championship Series (1995, 1998), making it to the 1995 World Series where he would face the Atlanta Braves.

Following his retirement at the end of the 2000 season, Poole returned to Georgia Tech to join the Alexander-Tharpe Fund as a fundraiser and supporter of the baseball program. He then began serving as the pitching coach at Johns Creek High School in 2010, teaching many young men about pitching mechanics, while also conveying his personal pitching philosophy.

He later joined the business world as a Personal Wealth Advisor for the Baseball Division of BIP Wealth.

After being diagnosed with ALS in 2021, Poole worked tirelessly to raise awareness for the disease. In addition to serving on MLB ALS boards, he also worked with Georgia Tech, who together hosted an ALS Awareness Day during the 2022 baseball season, with Tech wearing Jim Poole shirts and both teams wearing honorary wristbands. Professional players also wore the shirt. Tech later designated the number 21 each year to be worn by a student-athlete who exemplify Poole's ideals – self-determination, a strong academic work ethic, and high moral fiber on and off the field.

Every 90 minutes, someone is diagnosed with ALS, or Lou Gehrig's disease, with an estimated 30,000 people living with ALS in the United States at any given time. Primarily affecting people between the ages of 40 and 70, ALS is a progressive neurodegenerative disease that affects nerve cells in the brain and the spinal cord. There is no known cure.

2025 ACC TOURNAMENT

Beginning this spring with the 2025 ACC Baseball Championship in Durham, North Carolina, all 16 teams in the ACC will compete in a single-elimination championship. The championship will remain six days as it has in previous years, running from Tuesday, May 20, through Sunday, May 25, 2025, from Durham Bulls Athletic Park.

"There's once again tremendous excitement surrounding ACC Baseball and today's announcement will bring an improved championship experience for our student-athletes, coaches, and fans alike," stated ACC Commissioner Jim Phillips Ph.D. "Nationally, the ACC is once again well-represented in the preseason polls and award lists. After what we know will be a highly competitive regular season, we look forward to showcasing all 16 baseball teams in Durham this May."

Since 2006, the ACC Baseball Championship has been played in a pool play or round-robin style format. The tournament last expanded its field size in 2017, moving from 10 to 12 teams.

Under the new format, the top four seeds in the championship will be based off the performance in the regular season and will receive a double-bye into the quarterfinal round, which is scheduled to be held on Thursday and Friday. Seeds five through eight will earn a bye into Wednesday's second round. Seeds 9-16 will begin play with four first round games on Tuesday.

LET'S BRAG ABOUT BURRESS

"Burress is as big a star as you'll find in college baseball, the reigning D1Baseball Freshman of the Year and a 2024 first-team All-American after hitting .381/.512/.821 with 25 homers. He's a no-brainer first-team preseason All-American as a sophomore, and our preseason pick for ACC Player of the Year.
– D1Baseball

• In 2024, Drew Burress established himself as one of the best hitters in college baseball and one of the most exciting prospects to watch leading up to the 2026 draft. If he can continue his historic run through the ranks of NCAA Baseball, every MLB front office will be begging for Burress to become the next face of the franchise.

• Burress hit 25 home runs last season, one shy of the Georgia Tech program record (set by Kevin Parada in 2022) and two shy of the NCAA freshman home run record set by Tommy White (NC State) in 2022 as well.

"If he continues to crush the ball at anything mirroring his current rate, he could follow in [Dylan] Crews' footsteps and reach his high ceiling when he's eligible for the 2026 Draft."
– Jesus Cano, MLB.com

• Burress can claim to have an unofficial piece of the GT home run record since he hit a home run against Georgia that would ultimately not be recorded officially after the game was ended due to rain.

• Last year, Burress became the 1st Yellow Jacket to ever slug over .800 with at least 200 at bats. His .821 slugging percentage led all Division I freshman and 6th overall among those with 200+ ABs.

• His .821 career slugging percentage is the highest among active division I players and the highest of any Georgia Tech player in program history - current record belongs to Tom Angley (.763 from 1925-27)

"He has thunderous bat speed and does a nice job creating leverage in his swing, and shows off plus power, especially to the pull side."
– Peter Flaherty, Baseball America

• Not only did Burress turn heads with his bat but he also set the Georgia Tech record for the most assists by an outfielder in a single season, gunning down 10 runners from his spot in center field.

• This season, Burress has placed an emphasis on showing off his base running. After stealing eight bags on 10 attempts last year, Burress feels that his speed isn't getting enough attention & looks to amend that in 2025.

"From Day 1, you never thought he was a freshman. He's a very mature kid. He doesn't mix any words about it. He wants to be a first-round pick. He wants to be the best player in the country. That's what drives him. That's his passion. He is one of those guys that makes everybody around him better. Every day."
– Danny Hall, ABCA Hall of Famer
