ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Western Michigan continues its stretch of 14 consecutive games away from home to start the 2025 campaign this weekend with a three-game set at Georgia Tech.

LAST TIME OUT

The Broncos are coming off of a three-game sweep at the hands of Louisville last weekend. After dropping Saturday's series opener, 14-3, WMU trailed by one heading into the bottom of the seventh inning on Sunday before the Cardinals used a four-run seventh to pull away, 7-2. The two teams went back and forth in the early stages of Monday's series finale, but Louisville created a gap in the middle innings to close out the set with a 10-4 win.

POWER SCHEDULING

After playing 12 games against Power Conference foes in 2024, the Broncos loaded up their non-conference slate with 13 more contests against Power Conference teams this year, including seven against members of the ACC. In addition to this weekend's series at Georgia Tech, Western Michigan is slated to play a total of four games against Michigan State, had a three-game set at Louisville, and will play single games against Michigan, Northwestern and Notre Dame during its non-conference schedule.

SERIES HISTORY

Western Michigan and Georgia Tech have played four times prior to this weekend's three-game set, with the Yellow Jackets having taken all four of those meetings. The two teams have not matched up since meeting in Atlanta in back-to-back seasons in 2016 and 2017. WMU's last win over an ACC opponent was a 12-2 victory at Notre Dame back on April 10, 2019.

TANNER AT THE TOP

Through the first two weeks of the season, Tanner Mally has flourished in the leadoff spot for the Broncos. The sophomore has put together four multi-hit games and sits atop the MAC in hits (14), batting average (.583) and on-base percentage (.667). Mally's .583 batting average ranks third in NCAA Division I, while his on-base percentage is the ninth-best nationally. He is also one off of the league lead with four hit by pitches and is pacing Western Michigan in both runs scored (6) and stolen bases (3).

THE WIZ KID

After throwing 5.0 shutout frames against Michigan State during Opening Weekend, junior left-hander Joey Wizecb turned in another solid outing for the Broncos last weekend at Louisville. The lefty went a career-high 6.1 innings, the longest outing by a WMU starter so far this season, and held the Cardinals to four runs on six hits. Through his first

DYLAN'S DAMAGE

After setting a single-season school record by driving in a conference-leading 71 runs in 2024, Dylan Nevar got the new season started with three RBIs during Opening Weekend against Michigan State and Dayton. With 163 career RBIs, he is 11 away from tying former Bronco and Major Leaguer Matt Mieske's record of 174, amassed between 1987-90. Nevar is also closing in on 200 career hits, as he enters the weekend with 193 career knocks.

LOOK AT MEE

Grady Mee had a solid series last weekend at Louisville for the Broncos, going 4-for-11 (.364) with a couple of runs scored and a pair of RBIs. The junior also swiped a base and played strong defense, making a few sparkling plays and fielding all 16 of his defensive chances at second and third base without making an error.

WELCOME BACK LEHMANN

After being limited to just one appearance as a true freshman due to injury, right-hander Adam Lehmann has started off his 2025 with a couple of strong relief appearances. The Granger, Ind., native opened the campaign with a pair of scoreless innings and a career-high three strikeouts against MSU, and followed that up with another scoreless outing last weekend at Louisville.

DORAN NAMED TO STOPPER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Coming into the year, senior right-hander Turner Doran was named to the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association (NCBWA) Preseason Stopper of the Year Award Watch List. Doran has made three appearances so far this season and picked up four strikeouts in 2.2 innings of work out of the WMU bullpen.

PROSPECTING FOR BRONCOS

As a part of its Mid-American Conference preview, D1Baseball ranked the league's top-10 prospects for the 2025 MLB Draft. Western Michigan redshirt senior outfielder Dylan Nevar made the cut as the sixth-best prospect for this year's draft. The Broncos have had players taken in three of the last four MLB Drafts, with right-hander Luke Thelen getting picked by the Colorado Rockies in the 15th round last year, righty Easton Sikorski selected by the Cincinnati Reds in the 17th round in 2022 and outfielder Blake Dunn taken by Cincinnati in the 15th round in 2021.

PRESEASON POLL

Coming off of a second-place regular season finish and the second MAC Tournament title in program history, the Broncos were picked to finish fifth in the MAC Preseason Coaches Poll. Ball State was selected as the favorite to win both the regular season and tournament titles. Western Michigan was one of five teams to receive at least one vote to win this year's tournament, with Ball State (5), Bowling Green (2), Kent State (2) and Miami (1) all garnering votes. The MAC Tournament returns to Mercy Health Stadium in Avon, Ohio, from May 21-24.

MR. 300

Billy Gernon earned his 300th win at the helm of the Broncos on Senior Day 2024 in a shutout against NIU. In the 300-win club, Gernon joined a pair of WMU Athletics Hall of Famers, Fred Decker, who had 791 from 1976-2004, and Charlie Maher, who racked up 437 victories in two stints at Western Michigan, from 1937-43 and 1946-67.

2024 YEAR IN REVIEW

The Broncos are coming off of a 32-win campaign in 2024, the most wins for the program since 1993. Western Michigan went 19-11 in conference play to finish second in the regular season standings, its highest MAC finish since 1990. The Brown and Gold were the No. 2 seed for the MAC Tournament and went on a dominant three-day run where they outscored their opponents 29-3 on the way to the second MAC Tournament title in program history. The tournament win punched WMU's ticket to its 13th NCAA Tournament, where it faced No. 2 overall seed Kentucky and Indiana State in the Lexington Regional.

PIPELINE TO THE SHOW

Since the start of the MLB Draft in 1965, Western Michigan leads all MAC schools with 115 Draft picks. Of the 115, WMU has had 35 players reach the Major Leagues. Five former Broncos are playing in Major League organizations:

- Keegan Akin - Baltimore Orioles
- Blake Dunn - Cincinnati Reds
- Easton Sikorski - Cincinnati Reds
- Connor Charping - Seattle Mariners
- Luke Thelen - Colorado Rockies
