Game 34 • NIT 1st Round • March 18, 2025

Tech Opens NIT vs. Jacksonville State

Returning to the post-season for the first time in four years, Georgia Tech received a bid to the National Invitation Tournament and will host Jacksonville State from Conference USA for its first-round game at 7 p.m. EDT Tuesday at McCamish Pavilion. Tech is the No. 4 seed in the Irvine Region of the 32-team tournament.

Tech (17-16, 10-10 ACC) has won six of its last eight regular season games to finish eighth in the Atlantic Coast Conference, earning a first-round bye for the first time since 2021. The Yellow Jackets are 8-4 since the start of February, including wins over two of the top three teams in the ACC standings, Louisville (77-70) and Clemson (89-86 in 3 overtimes). The Yellow Jackets split their two games in the ACC Tournament, defeating Virginia (66-60) in the second round before falling to No. 1 Duke (78-70) in the quarterfinals.

Jacksonville State (22-12, 12-6 C-USA ACC) tied for second place in the C-USA regular season, a game behind Liberty, and advanced to the finals of the conference tournament, where they fell to the Flames, 79-67.

The winner of the Tech-JSU game will advance to face the winner of a Wednesday game between the No. 1 seed, UC Irvine (28-6) and Northern Colorado (25-9) either Saturday or Sunday in the second round.

Tech's NIT History

Georgia Tech has played in the NIT nine times previously, reaching the championship game in 1971 and 2017, where the Yellow Jackets lost to North Carolina and TCU, respectively.

The first two NIT appearances came in 1970 and 1971, when the entire event took place at Madison Square Garden in New York. Later on, only the semifinals and finals were played at MSG, as was the case in 2017, when the Jackets defeated CSU-Bakersfield in the semifinals before falling to TCU.

The Jackets have advanced as far as the quarterfinals three other times (1998, 2003 and 2016), but lost on the road in each case.

Tech has played seven NIT games at home, where the Yellow Jackets are 6-1. In its most recent NIT in 2017, the Yellow Jackets defeated Indiana and Belmont at McCamish Pavilion before winning their quarterfinal game at Ole Miss. The Jackets are 3-5 in NIT road games.

2024-25 Storylines

• Georgia Tech finished the regular season in 8th place in the ACC standings, four slots ahead of the media's pre-season projections, and has finished ahead of the pre-season projection eight of the last nine years.

• Tech earned a first-round bye in the ACC Tournament for the first time since 2021, when the Yellow Jackets won their fourth ACC championship. It is the Yellow Jackets' second top-9 seed since the ACC expanded to 15 teams ahead of the 2013-14 season.

• Tech earned its most conference wins since 2020-21 (11-6) and has a .500 or better record in league play for the first time since then.

• Baye Ndongo was named third-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference, while Naithan George earned honorable mention. Duncan Powell was runner-up for the ACC's Sixth Man Award, and made the ACC all-tournament second team. George was fourth in the voting for the ACC's Most Improved Player Award.

• Head coach Damon Stoudamire is a finalist the Ben Jobe Award, which is bestowed annually to the top minority head coach in Division I college basketball.

• Tech finished the regular season 14-5 on its home court after beginning the season 2-3, and 8-2 in ACC games, having clinched its first winning home conference record since the 2020-21 season, when the Jackets were 8-1.

• This Tech team is the seventh in program history to win 14 or more games at home in a regular season, and the first since the 2016-17 season, when the Jackets were 17-4 (including two home games in the NIT).

• Tech won its first ACC Tournament game since its run to the 2021 championship and is now 30-41 all-time. Tech also is 9-9 in tournament games played in Charlotte, 2-3 in the Spectrum Center and 1-5 as a No. 8 seed.

ACC Tournament Recap

Georgia Tech won its first ACC Tournament game and advanced to the quarterfinals for the first time in four years before being eliminated by top-seeded Duke in a close game.

Duncan Powell scored 21 points, Baye Ndongo registered his ninth double-double in the last 11 games and Naithan George nearly recorded a triple-double, leading 8th-seeded Georgia Tech to a 66-60 win over No. 9 seed Virginia in the second round. The win was the Yellow Jackets' first over UVA since Jan. 9, 2016, snapping a nine-year, 13-game losing skid against the Cavaliers.

In the quarterfinals, Tech raced out to a 14-point lead in the first half, but top-seeded and No. 1-ranked Duke rallied to defeat the eighth-seeded Yellow Jackets, 78-70.

The Yellow Jackets dominated the action early in the game, making 10 of their first 21 shots while holding Duke to just six makes on 23 attempts, and Baye Ndongo's tip-in with 5:02 to go in the first half gave the Jackets a commanding 26-12 lead.

Tech led by five at the half (31-26), but Duke opened the second period with a 12-0 run to take a 38-31 advantage. Duke stretched its lead to as many as 11 points, but the Yellow Jackets hung tough and cut the deficit to six on three occasions in the final 90 seconds before succumbing to the top-ranked Blue Devils.

Just Georgia Tech, please...

The Georgia Institute of Technology is the official title, but Georgia Tech will work fine, or just Tech (unless you're in Virginia or Texas). We would appreciate it if you would use our name in those ways. Georgia Tech University is incorrect. Thank you.

Baye, George Earn ACC Honors

Georgia Tech's sophomore duo of Baye Ndongo and Naithan George earned Atlantic Coast Conference post-season honors Monday afternoon. Ndongo was named third-team All-ACC, while George earned honorable mention.

Ndongo, from Mboro, Senegal, finished the regular season averaging a double-double (14.4 points per game, 10.2 rebounds per game) against ACC competition, the first Yellow Jackets to do that since 2000-01 and only the third Tech player ever to accomplish that. He ranks second in the ACC in rebound average and third in field goal percentage (54.4%) in conference games. Overall, the 6-9 forward is averaging 13.6 points and 9.1 rebounds per game, ranking fourth in the ACC in rebound average and third in field goal percentage (54.0%).

George, from Toronto, Ontario, is bidding to become the first Tech player to lead the conference in assist average in nearly 30 years, dishing out 6.5 per game both in all games and ACC games, leading the league in both rankings. The 6-3 point guard is one of only three players in the nation to average 12.4 points, 6.5 assists and 4.1 rebounds for the full season. He has raised his level of play against conference opposition, averaging 13.5 points, 6.5 rebounds and 4.7 rebounds.

No Sophomore Jinx

Baye Ndongo and Naithan George both earned ACC post-season honors on Monday, underscoring their performances over the past month of their sophomore years in lifting Georgia Tech to its eighth-place finish in the ACC after a 2-6 start.

In Tech's last 12 games, George and Ndongo have accounted for nearly half (46%) of the Yellow Jackets' points (333 of 723), and they have scored 124 of Tech's 266 field goals and 60 of its 118 free throws.

Ndongo, the 6-9 native of Senegal, has become a rebounding and double-double machine since the start of February, reaching double figures in points and rebounds nine times in 12 games, notching career-highs in points against California (26) and then NC State (29), and grabbing 15 or more rebounds against Stanford, Boston College, Pittsburgh and NC State. He scored the game-winning basket in overtime against the Bears on a putback at the final horn.

George, a 6-3 playmaker from Toronto, Ontario, who leads the ACC in assist average, responded to his head coach's challenge of becoming more assertive as a scorer as the Yellow Jackets lost three rotation players to injury. He has scored in double digits 16 times in Tech's last 20 games, scoring 20 or more four games in a row at one point, while maintaining his excellence as the Jackets' primary playmaker.

"George is a phenomenal passer. His vision is high-level and his passing is high-level. Ndongo is long, he's athletic, he's tough, he's quick. That's a pretty great tandem."

-Cal head coach Mark Madsen

"I've been impressed with how they can attack. George is the guy that kind of stirs everything for them. He does a great job of getting guys involved. Their guards are very aggressive. They're all physical, strong, can get downhill, they shoot the basketball well."

-Pitt head coach Jeff Capel

Lance-Scores-A-Lot

Lance Terry is proving that his decision to sit out the 2023-24 season and play a full season for Damon Stoudamire was justified. The only Tech player remaining from Josh Pastner's last Yellow Jacket team, Terry came back fully healed from a leg injury and has demonstrated the athleticism, basketball savvy and scoring ability Tech missed last season.

The fifth-year senior has led the Jackets in scoring in all games (14.5 ppg) and in ACC games (14.6) this season despite a hand injury limiting his court time in late February. He has ranked among the ACC's top 10 in 3-pointer made and attempted. His season numbers are career highs almost across the board - points per game, assists per game (1.6) and steals per game (1.2), and his shooting numbers (43.6% FG, 36.7% 3pt FG) are not far off.

The College Park, Ga., native, who played three seasons at Gardner-Webb before transferring to Tech, surpassed 1,000 career points on Dec. 3 at Oklahoma and went over 1,300 points March 4 vs. Miami.

• Terry has scored 730 points in less than two full seasons at Tech, compared to 593 in two-plus seasons at Gardner-Webb. He enters the ACC Tournament with 1,328 career points.

• Terry has played in 114 games in his college career, half of them at Tech, and has made 83 career starts (46 at Tech). He has connected on 36.7% of his 3-point field goals and 78.7% of his free throws in 5 college seasons.

Curious About George

Naithan George, who signed with Tech barely a week before the start of fall semester in 2023 and did not play in the Yellow Jackets' first three games, became a dependable and sometimes clutch performer at point guard, and has taken his game to a mugh higher level as a sophomore.

The Toronto native has started every game and led the ACC in assists while ranking in the top 10 nationally. He also has become a more consistent scorer while remaining a pass-first point guard, 12.2 points a game overall and 13.5 in ACC games.

George scored in double digits in 16 of Tech's last 20 games, and 20-plus in 4-straight at one point.

The 6-3 guard made his collegiate debut off the bench Nov. 22 of his freshman year in a 34-point loss at Cincinnati before head coach Damon Stoudamire inserted him into the starting lineup, and he helped lift the Jackets to a 67-59 win over No. 21 Mississippi State and a 72-68 win over No. 7 Duke the next week.

George remained in the starting lineup, ranking among the ACC top three in assists and assist/turnover ratio in conference games while averaging 9.8 points a game.

• Only 1 other Division I player have matched or exceeded George's season averages of at least 12.2 points, 4.3 rebounds and 6.5 assists per game (Braden Smith of Purdue).

• George's assist average is the highest rate for a Tech player since Drew Berry averaged 6.6 in 1995-96 (and 6.7 in 1994-95). It is also the 6th- highest average in Tech history behind those two Barry seasons.

• George is the 7th Tech player to record 200 dimes in one season. His 216 total is the 5th-highest in Tech history for a season and the most for a Yellow Jacket since Jarrett Jack in 2003-04.

• George's 351 career assists are the 4th most all-time in Tech annals through a Yellow Jackets' first two seasons, and most since Jarrett Jack's 398 from 2002-04. It is also No. 14 already on Tech's career list.

Baye One, Get One

On the heels of a standout freshman year, sophomore Baye Ndongo developed into one of the ACC's best players once conference play began in earnest, especially when Tech's rotation became thinned by injury. The 6-9 forward finished the ACC regular season averaging a double-double in conference games (14.4 ppg, 10.2 rpg), one of two ACC players to accomplish that. He also ranked third in field goal percentage (.544), and among the top 5 in offensive rebounds per game and defensive rebounds per game.

Ndongo is the first Tech player to average a double-double in ACC play since 2000-21 (Alvin Jones) and only the third to do so (see list on page 8).

Despite battling foul trouble and more intense focus from opposing defenses, Ndongo improved his numbers during his sophomore season, averaging 13.7 points and 9.1 rebounds in all games.

• Ndongo finished the regular season averaging a double-double in ACC games (14.4 ppg, 10.2 rpg), joining Eddie Lampkin of Syracuse as the only players to do so. Ndongo is the first Tech player to average a double-double in ACC games since Alvin Jones in 2000-21 and only the third Yellow Jacket to do so (Malcolm Mackey did it in 1990-91 and 1992-93).

• Only Maxime Reynaud of Stanford (13) and Eddie Lampkin, Jr. (11) had more double-doubles against ACC teams this season than did Ndongo (10).

• Ndongo also led the Jackets in blocked shots (24) and steals (22) in conference games. He could become only the second Tech player, since blocked shots and steals began to be tracked as official statistics in 1976-77, to lead the Yellow Jackets in both categories for a full season. The sophomore leads Tech in blocked shots (34) and is second in steals (33) behind Lance Terry and Naithan George (34 each).

• Since Tech began competing in the ACC in 1979-80, there have been 14 games where a Yellow Jacket scored 15 points and pulled 15 rebounds, 10 of those came against ACC opponents. Ndongo has 3 of those this season (15/16 vs. Stanford, 17/15 at Boston College). In that period, Moses Wright, the 2021 ACC Player of the Year, had 2.

The Shag Man

First drawing attention with his unusual haircut (called a shag) and the abundance of ink in his body, Duncan Powell has earned more attention in the latter half of the season for the quality of his basketball.

The junior forward was a top-100 high school prospect in the Dallas area before spending a season playing at North Carolina A&T (near his birthplace in North Carolina), then earning all-conference mention last season while leading Sacramento State in scoring and rebounding. Coaching changes led to his departure from both schools, before he decided to join the Yellow Jackets last summer. He has exceeded all expectations and has become a key member of Tech's rotation since ACC play began.

He was Tech's No. 3 scorer and No. 2 rebounder in ACC games, proving to be a mismatch problem for opponents with his ability to score inside and out, and finished second in voting for the ACC's Sixth-Man of the Year award.

• He was named Lute Olson National Player of the Week

Powell posted a career-high 26 points in Tuesday's win at Pittsburgh. He also set a new personal best with six made threes. He shot 56.6% from the field, including 50% from beyond the arc.

Stoudamire Finalist for Jobe Award

Head coach Damon Stoudamire is a finalist for the Ben Jobe Award, which is bestowed annually to the top minority head coach in Division I college basketball.

In his second season at the helm of the Tech program, Stoudamire has led the Yellow Jackets to a 16-15 overall record and a 10-10 mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference, clinching a first-round bye for the ACC Tournament for only the second time since conference expansion to 15 teams in 2013-14. The won-loss marks represent a significant improvement over the Jackets' 14-18 record (7-13 ACC) in his first season in 2023-24. Tech has won eight of its last 12 games since the start of February and has earned three wins against Quad 1 teams in the process, and returned to the post-season for the first time since 2021.

Stoudamire has managed the Yellow Jackets through a bevy of injuries to rotation players. Tech has played with just eight schol-arship players for most games since the middle of December, as four main starters and reserves have missed a total of 66 games, and has forged its late-season run using just six or seven players.

The Ben Jobe Award has been given by CollegeInsider.com every year since 2012. Stoudamire won the award in 2020 while he was the head coach at Pacific University.

Pre-Season Storylines for 2024-25

• 110th season - Georgia Tech is playing its 110th season of basketball in 2024-25, having compiled an all-time on-court record of 1,468-1,339 (22 wins and one loss from the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons were vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions).

• Tech in the ACC - Tech is playing its 46th season as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, having won the conference championship in 1985, 1990, 1993 and 2021. Prior to that, Tech competed in the Metro Conference for three seasons from 1975-78, was an independent from 1964-75, and was a member of the Southeastern Conference for 32 years from 1932-64, winning one title in 1938.

• Tech was projected to finish 12th in the ACC standings this season by a vote of the conference's official media panel. Tech has finished ahead of its media projection eight of the last nine seasons after finishing eighth in 2024-25.

• Tech has a total of seven scholarship newcomers on its roster, including three freshmen who were judged the nation's 20th-best recruiting class (247Sports composite), and four transfers in a class ranked 53rd.

• Of the three new members of the ACC, Tech had faced SMU the most prior to this season (8-6 all-time, last meeting in 1986). The Jackets were 0-3 vs. California (last meeting 2012) and 1-2 vs. Stanford (last meeting 2000).

Tech At A Glance

Second-year head coach Damon Stoudamire began a re-build the Tech roster last season and guided the team to 14 victories (seven ACC wins), including big wins over top-25 teams Mississippi State, Duke, Clemson and North Carolina, all of whom played in the NCAA Tournament.

Tech returned a strong core of four players, including 6-3 senior guard Lance Terry (College Park, Ga.), who redshirted last season with an injury after averaging in double figures for the Yellow Jackets in 2022-23. Also back are three of Tech's top four scorers from last season, 6-7 senior wing Kowacie Reeves, Jr., 6-3 sophomore point guard Naithan George and 6-9 sophomore forward Baye Ndongo.

The three returnees from the 2023-24 team accounted for 42 percent of that team's points, 40 percent of its shots taken and 56 percent of games started. If Terry's numbers are added, those percentages become 55 percent of the points, 53 percent of the shots taken and 69 percent of the starts.

Stoudamire and his staff built around those four by signing the 20th-ranked recruiting class in the nation (247Sports composite) - 6-5 guard Jaeden Mustaf, 6-11 center Doryan Onwuchekwa and 6-8 forward Darrion Sutton.

They also brought in four transfers who were expected to be key contributors in 6-2 guard Javian McCollum (Oklahoma), the 31st-ranked player in the portal, 6-8 forward Luke O'Brien (Colorado), 6-8 forward Duncan Powell (Sacramento State) and 7-2 center Ryan Mutombo (Georgetown).

Jackets' Class of 2025 Ranked High

Four-star 6-4 guard Akai Fleming from Marietta, Ga. and three-star 6-5 guard/forward Brandon Stores, Jr., from the Bronx, N.Y., highlight a four-player class of basketball prospects who signed grant-in-aid papers on Nov. 15 to join Georgia Tech's men's basketball program. Cole Kirouac, a 6-11 center from Cumming, Ga., and 5-11 point guard Eric Chatfield, Jr., from Atlanta also signed scholarship documents to attend Tech.

Fleming and Stores have been nominated for the McDonald's All-America team.

Tech's class is ranked No. 23 in the nation in the 247Sports Composite listing, and No. 4 among Atlantic Coast Conference teams, and No. 15 in the team rankings compiled by Rivals. It comes on the heels of the Yellow Jackets' current freshman class, which was rated 20th-best in the nation.

Fleming, ranked No. 56 nationally by 247Sports, is playing the 2024-25 season at Overtime Elite after starring at Osborne High School in Marietta, Ga. As a junior at Osborne, Fleming scored 22 points per game to go with seven rebounds, four assists, two steals and one block per contest.

Considered a three-star big guard/small forward prospect by the 247Sports Composite and the sixth-best player in the state of New York at the time of his commitment last February, Stores, Jr., averaged 19.8 points per game as a sophomore and scored 18.2 points per game in 25 games last season at St. Raymond High School for Boys.

Kirouac, a three-star prospect last year and now, originally signed a letter-of-intent to attend Tech last fall while attending Brewster Academy in New Hampshire, but re-classified and decided to attend Overtime Elite in 2024-25.

As a senior at Pace Academy, Chatfield led his team to the AAA state finals, scoring 20 points in the championship game. He averaged 18.6 points, 4.2 assists, 2.5 steals and 2.5 rebounds as a senior.

Two Jackets on 2024-25 NBA Rosters

Since 1982, Georgia Tech has produced 19 first-round NBA draft picks and 46 draft picks overall. A total of 42 Georgia Tech alumni have played in the NBA.

Two former Georgia Tech players are on NBA rosters for 2024-25 - Jose Alvarado in his fourth season with the New Orleans Pelicans, and Josh Okogie in his seventh season in the NBA, having recently been traded from Phoenix to Charlotte after two-and-a-half seasons with the Suns. He played his first four years in Minnesota.

Winning Starts at Home

Georgia Tech has compiled a 145-80 record at home in 13 seasons in McCamish Pavilion. Tech is 56-55 on its home court in ACC games, 43-32 over the past eight seasons.

Tech set a program record for wins at home (17) in 2016-17, including a 7-2 ACC record and two NIT victories.

McCamish Pavilion was essentially brand new when it opened for the 2012-13 season. The only physical elements of McCamish Pavilion that remain from the venerable Alexander Memorial Coliseum are the roof and the 32 steel ribs that support it.

The capacity of McCamish Pavilion is 8,600, including 1,665 seats in the new balcony level and 6,935 seats in the lower seating bowl. There are no suites, but there is a club area that seats 500. Alexander Memorial Coliseum seated 9,191 spectators in its final configuration.

The most impressive features of McCamish Pavilion are its grand entrance, which fronts 10th and Fowler Streets, the ability for patrons to view the court from the main concourse all the way around, and the theatrical lighting system, which concentrates light on the court while leaving the seating areas dark, modeled after the Staples Center in Los Angeles and Madison Square Garden in New York.

Prior to the opening of McCamish Pavilion, Tech played 55 seasons in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, compiling a record of 556-194 (.741). Miami was the last team to play Tech in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, a game Tech won, and was the first ACC team to play in McCamish Pavilion on Jan. 5, which Miami won. For the 2011-12 season, Tech played its home games at State Farm Arena and Gas South Arena.

Tech's NCAA Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in the NCAA Tournament 17 times in its history. Sixteen of those appearances have occurred from 1985 to the present, 10 under Bobby Cremins and five under Paul Hewitt.

The most recent was 2021, when the Yellow Jackets won the ACC Championship and earned an automatic bid, then fell 71-60 to Loyola Chicago in the opening round of the Midwest Regional.

That ended an 11-year hiatus from the NCAA Tournament that dated back to 2010, when the Yellow Jackets defeated Oklahoma State in the first round before losing to Ohio State in the round of 32 of the Midwest Regional.

Tech has a record of 23-17 in NCAA Tournament play, highlighted by its 2004 trip to the NCAA title game as well as a Final Four berth in 1990. The Yellow Jackets have reached the NCAA Sweet 16 seven times (1960, 1985, 1986, 1990, 1992, 1996, 2004).

The 2004 and 2005 appearances were Tech's first back-to-back appearances since Bobby Cremins led the Institute to the Big Dance nine straight years from 1985-93.

Georgia Tech has won at least one game in 11 of its 17 NCAA Tournament appearances.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach Damon Stoudamire • 2nd season at Tech

Well-known throughout the basketball world for his success as a player and coach at the collegiate and professional levels, Damon Stoudamire became the 15th head coach in Georgia Tech men's basketball history on March 14, 2023.

In his first year on The Flats, the former collegiate All-American and NBA standout remade the Tech roster and guided the Yellow Jackets to victories over three top-25 teams and and wins over three ACC teams that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament - Duke, North Carolina and Clemson.

In year two, he led a late-season surge in which the Yellow Jackets finished eighth in the ACC at 10-10, earning their highest regular-season finish, first ACC Tournament win and first post-season berth in four years.

Stoudamire came to Georgia Tech after most recently serving as an assistant coach of the Boston Celtics, who sat atop the NBA's Atlantic Division standings at the time of his hiring at Tech. He was with the Celtics for nearly two seasons (2021-22 and 2022-23), after a successful five-season stint as the head coach at Pacific (2016-21). At Pacific, he was named West Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 2020 after leading the Tigers to a 23-10 record in 2019-20, good for the program's best winning percentage (.697) in 15 years, and a third-place finish in the powerful WCC (behind only national powers Gonzaga and St. Mary's). He also was honored with the Ben Jobe Award, given annually to the nation's top minority head coach.

Stoudamire established himself as one of his generation's premier players when he was a three-time all-conference performer, the 1995 Pac 10 co-Player of the Year and a consensus first-team All-American at Arizona, where he played four seasons from 1991-95. After helping lead the Wildcats to the Final Four as a junior in 1994, he capped his collegiate career by averaging 22.8 points per game, en route to the co-conference Player of the Year and consensus first-team All-America recognition in 1995.

At the conclusion of his Arizona career, Stoudamire was the Wildcats' all-time leader in 3-pointers made (272) and ranked second in points (1,849) and fourth in assists (663). He was the only player in Arizona history with two 40-point games.

His amateur career also included helping lead the United States to the gold medal in the 1993 World University Games (where he led the team in assists and steals despite being the youngest player on the roster) and the bronze at the 1994 Goodwill Games.

Stoudamire was selected by the Toronto Raptors with the seventh overall pick in the 1995 NBA Draft and averaged 13.4 points and 6.1 assists per game over the course of a 13-year professional playing career that included stints with the Raptors (1995-98), Portland Trail Blazers (1998-05), Memphis Grizzlies (2005-08) and San Antonio Spurs (2008). He was named the 1996 NBA Rookie of the Year after averaging 19 points and 9.3 assists per game in his first NBA campaign.

Following the conclusion of his NBA playing career in 2008, Stoudamire immediately embarked on his coaching career, beginning as director of player development at Rice in 2008-09. He then went on to serve as an assistant coach with the Memphis Grizzlies for two seasons (2009-11), before getting back into the college game with stints as an assistant at Memphis (2011-13), his alma mater Arizona (2013-15) and again at Memphis (2015-16).

After helping lead Memphis and Arizona to four conference championships (two Conference USA titles at Memphis, two Pac-12 crowns at Arizona) and four NCAA Tournament berths (including back-to-back Elite Eight appearances at Arizona) in six seasons, Stoudamire was hired as the head coach at Pacific in 2016. He inherited a program coming off an 8-20 campaign and built it into a WCC contender, highlighted by the 23-10 campaign in 2019-20. The Tigers' 11-5 conference record that season remains their most-ever wins in WCC play.

After posting a 9-9 overall record during the Covid-shortened 2020-21 season, Stoudamire returned to the NBA as an assistant coach for the Celtics. In his first season in Boston, he helped lead the Celtics to the 2022 NBA Finals. The Celtics stood in first place in the Atlantic Division and in second both in the Eastern Conference and in the NBA's overall league standings at the time he took the Tech position. With Boston, he coached a pair of metro-Atlanta natives in Malcolm Brogdon (Norcross, Ga.) and Jaylen Brown (Alpharetta, Ga.).

A Portland, Ore. native, Stoudamire, 51, graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in 1991 and earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona in 2008. He has a daughter, Kemeco, and two sons, Damon and Brandon.

Whack Hyder - Kentucky Killer

Perhaps the most amazing statistic of Whack Hyder's tenure at Georgia Tech is his record against the powerful Kentucky teams coached by the Baron, Adolph Rupp.

From 1951, when he took over the Tech program, through 1964, when the Yellow Jackets left the Southeastern Conference, Hyder's teams posted a 9-16 record against the mighty Wildcats.

To put that in perspective, Hyder's nine victories against Kentucky were twice as many as any other SEC school during that period. The next best record was by Vanderbilt at 5-20. Three SEC schools—Georgia, Florida, and Mississippi—did not record a single victory against the Wildcats during that time, and four others had two or fewer wins.

Hyder's most famous win over the Wildcats was his first one, on Jan. 8, 1955, when a Tech team that would finish with a 12-13 record went into Memorial Coliseum and knocked off No. 1-ranked Kentucky, ending a 129-game home winning streak. That was the first of three victories over top-ranked Kentucky squads.

In 1963, Hyder again took his team to Lexington and downed the 'Cats in double overtime, becoming the first coach to defeat Rupp three times on his home court.
