GAMEDAY NOTES

- > Mercer enters Tuesday's game after securing a SoCon series win over Western Carolina over the weekend. The Bears took the rubber match in emphatic fashion, using a 10-run outburst in the third inning en route to a 13-3 rule-rule victory
- > The Bears look to win their fifth game in a row against a ranked opponent on Tuesday, having won their last four games against top-25 teams
- > Junior Ty Dalley hit his 50th career home run on Saturday, capping a four homer week. Dalley now leads the Bears and ranks third in the SoCon with 11 long balls this season and needs just six more home runs to tie Mercer's career record, held by Tim Smith (1980-83)
- > After a slow start to the season, junior Drew Johnson has turned it on at the plate over the last two weeks. In his last six games, Johnson is hitting .435 (10-for-23) with six runs scored and four RBI
- > Titan Kamaka has found his groove at the plate since returning from injury in early March, ranking third on the team with a .321 batting average. Kamaka is currently riding a nine game hitting streak and drove in three runs in Saturday's rubber match against Western Carolina

HISTORIC WIN

Mercer head coach Craig Gibson reached a major milestone in his illustrious career on February 25, recording his 700th win as Mercer took down Florida A&M. Already the winningest coach in program history, Gibson has served as Mercer's skipper since the 2004 season and has led the Bears to seven conference championships and four NCAA Regional berths.

With the win, Gibson joined exclusive company as one of 37 active coaches in Division I baseball to reach 700 career wins. Of the 37 coaches, Gibson is one of 11 to have only coached at one school.

DRAMATIC WIN

The Bears walked it off for the first time this season on Wednesday when Ty Dalley delivered a three-run home run to defeat Georgia State. After entering the ninth inning down 4-0, the Panthers rallied for six runs and looked as if they would steal the win. However, Dalley refused to let the Bears lose, drilling a two-out home run for his first career walk-off

HISTORIC INNING

The Bears put up a historic inning in the bottom of the third in a series-clinching win over Western Carolina on 3/29. After a walk and a groundout started the frame, the Mercer offense went on a tear with 11 straight batters reaching base. When the barrage was all said and done, the Bears scored 10 runs on six hits, sending 15 batters to the plate. Ely Brown, Titan Kamaka, Drew Johnson, Parker Lester, Michael Graziano and Cade Norton all picked up RBIs, while Brown and Kamaka each recorded two hits and Graziano scored two runs. The 10 runs were the most scored in an inning by the Bears since posting an 11-run inning against Western Carolina on May 7, 2021.

FRYE IS ON FIRE

Bears shortstop Bradley Frye has been one of the best

hitters in the country this season, ranking ninth in the country with 49 hits while ranking second in the SoCon with a .386 batting average. Frye leads the Bears in average, hits, slugging percentage (.669), OPS (1.104) and stolen bases (5). In D1Baseball's midseason player rankings, Frye came in at no. 23 among the country's shortstops.

MOUND DOMINANCE

The Mercer pitching staff has established itself as one of the top units in the Southern Conference this season. The Bears now lead the conference in ERA at 4.26, while their 266 strikeouts are tops in the league. Jess Ackerman has been among the top whiff artists in the league, ranking second in the league with 45 punch-outs while leading conference in K/9 at 12.9

SCARY TERRY

Georgia Tech transfer Terry Busse has been more than advertised to begin the 2025 campaign, picking up six saves (12th in the country) and limiting opponents to just five hits in 16 innings of work. Busse slammed the door on Mercer's upset win over No. 5 Florida State on 3/18, allowing only one baserunner in two scoreless innings, while also finishing off Mercer's wins over The Citadel on 3/23, working two more scoreless innings and stranding the bases loaded in the ninth, and over Western Carolina on 3/28, striking out two in the ninth. In D1Baseball's midseason player rankings, Busse was ranked as the country's 14th best relief pitcher.

HE GETS ON BASE

Sophomore center fielder Ely Brown has been an on base machine for the Bears this season, leading the team and ranking seventh in the SoCon with a .496 OBP. Brown has gotten on base in every game but one this season and turned in his first four-hit performance of the year on 3/23, going 4-for-4 with three runs scored in the win over The Citadel

YOUTH MOVEMENT

The Bears have seen several freshmen step into key roles early in their first collegiate campaigns. Braydon Kersey has made four starts at DH and has started six games on the mound. Craig Kalkbrenner and Collin Ewaldsen have also impressed on the mound in their first taste of college baseball, establishing themselves as key bullpen pieces early in their freshman campaigns, while Cade Norton has seen extended action behind the plate.

contributers to form one of the most formidable cores in the Southern Conference.

The conversation begins with Ty Dalley, who was picked as the league's preseason player of the year by Perfect Game, D1Baseball and the league's coaches. Dalley was a first team all-conference performer last year and is among the league's returning leaders in batting average (.316), home runs (21) and RBI (71).

Joining Dalley on the preseason all-conference first team were left-handed pitchers Colton Cosper and Jess Ackerman and shortstop Bradley Frye, all of whom have been key contributers for the Bears over the past two seasons. First baseman Parker Lester also returns as one of the SoCon's most prominent power threats, giving the Bears reason for optimism entering the 2025 campaign.

NEW YEAR, NEW FACES

In addition to a slew of returning talent, the 2025 roster features 24 newcomers, with many expected to be key contributers right away.

Reliever Terry Busse figures to be an impact transfer as an important piece in the back end of the Bears bullpen. Busse earned the nickname "Scary Terry" at Georgia Tech in 2022 when he emerged as one of the top closers in the ACC, posting nine saves in 22 appearances.

Second baseman Titan Kamaka is another impact transfer from the ACC, coming to Mercer from Florida State. Kamaka appeared in 41 games and made 32 starts for the Seminoles as a true freshman in 2022.

The Bears also welcome an influx of talent from the junior college ranks, including catcher Zack Thompson, outfielder Drew Johnson and third baseman Brant Baughcum, all of whom are expected to play key roles in the Bears' lineup this season.

TALENTED FRESHMAN CLASS

The Bears 12-member freshman class is loaded with talent. Perfect Game ranked the group as their 57th best recruiting class in the country, with left-handed pitcher Ford Thompson, infielder/right-handed pitcher Braydon Kersey and catcher Eli Stephens landing on the publication's "Top 500 Fresh Arrivals on Campus" list.

In Perfect Game's SoCon preview, Kersey was tabbed as the SoCon preseason freshman of the year, while Kersey (No. 1), right-handed pitcher/infielder Kai Decker (No. 3) and right-handed pitcher/outfielder Collin Ewaldsen (No. 9) represented the Bears on the listing of top prospects for the 2027 MLB Draft. In D1Baseball's SoCon preview, Kersey (No. 2) and Ewaldsen (No. 8) were named to the ten-member impact freshmen list.

AMONG THE NATION'S BEST

The Bears were well represented on D1Baseball's preseason position rankings. Senior Parker Lester checked in at No. 16 on the publication's listing of the Top 50 first basemen in the country, the highest ranking of all of his position peers in the Southern Conference. Ty Dalley made his way onto top 100 outfielders list, slotting at 79th.

SCOUTING GEORGIA TECH

Tuesday marks the 87th all-time meeting between the Bears and Yellow Jackets. Georgia Tech brings a 22-6 record into the week, including an 8-4 mark in ACC play, and are coming off of a series loss against third-ranked Clemson over the weekend.

Georgia Tech has been one of the top offensive teams in the country this season, holding a .335 team batting average to go with a 1.017 OPS. Kent Schmidt leads the team in hitting at .415, while Kyle Lodise leads the way with 12 home runs. The Yellow Jackets have also been excellent on the mound with a 4.08 ERA as a team. Mason Patel has been dominant out of the bullpen, picking up seven wins with a 1.60 ERA in 33 - 2/3 innings of work.

Sun Belt. Georgia State was picked to finish 11th in the Sun Belt preseason poll.

ORTHOGEORGIA PARK // MERCER BASEBALL

OrthoGeorgia Park

OrthoGeorgia Park at Claude Smith Field is located adjacent to the University Center with the spires of the UC providing a picturesque view of the facility over its third base-side profile. Newly renovated in 2017 with an expanded capacity of 1,500, it has never been uncommon for many fans to make camp on the raised embankment running from the right field line to center field in a picnic-like and tailgate-like atmosphere.

The renovated facility opened in 2017 and features premium chairback seating behind home plate. OrthoGeorgia Park also includes new dugouts, concession and restroom facilities, press box and camera positions for ESPN3 and other television broadcasts, two open-air suites, a ticket booth and the M. Diane Owens Entry Plaza.

Large parking lots located beyond the outfield fence are available for spectators and there is a 101-room Hilton Garden Inn on the university-owned land adjacent to the stadium.

The stadium originally opened as Bear Field in 1962 marking Mercer's first on-campus ballpark. Prior to the 1962 season the Bears played at Willingham Mill Field located behind the former Lanier High School. The stadium first opened on April 3 as the Bears registered a 5-4 win over Erskine. Other opponents to visit Bear Field that inaugural season included Davidson, Valdosta State, Berry, Georgia Southern, The Citadel, Piedmont, Oglethorpe, North Georgia and Georgia Tech.

Bear Field played home to Rob Belloir, the first baseball player to be drafted as he was selected in the eighth round by the Cleveland Indians. Belloir helped set the stage, along with legendary head coach Claude Smith, as Mercer began a stretch of five consecutive 30-win seasons in the 1970s.

The name "Claude Smith Field" would be adorned upon the ballpark on May 7, 1977 as Claude Smith retired as head coach of the Bears with a school record 405 wins as Mercer's skipper.

The facility underwent a renovation in 2003 with upgrades including indoor batting cages, a new drainage system and a laser-leveled field.

Located close to Interstate 75 and adjacent to most of Mercer's athletic facilities, the lights at OrthoGeorgia Park act as a beacon to draw the baseball faithful to the Bears' home park.

HEAD COACH CRAIG GIBSON // MERCER BASEBALL

CRAIG GIBSON

Head Coach \Diamond 22nd Season \Diamond Mercer, 1986

With a philosophy based on the concepts of striving for excellence in the classroom, reaching out in the community and team achievement on the field, Mercer head coach Craig Gibson has led his alma mater to unparalleled success over 21 seasons at the baseball program's helm.

Since taking over for the legendary Barry Myers in 2004, Gibson has guided the Bears from the depths of the Atlantic Sun Conference to the top of the Southern Conference, all while establishing Mercer as one of the most respected programs in the southeast.

Consistency has become the standard under Gibson, as Mercer is one of just three NCAA Division I programs with 35 wins for 12 seasons (2010-23), joining LSU and Vanderbilt.

A large part of that success is due to the program's dominance at OrthoGeorgia Park at Claude Smith Field. The program is 232-102 overall at home since the start of the 2012 campaign, including a 24-4 mark in 2014 to rank seventh in the nation with a .857 winning percentage.

The Bears have captured a number of program-defining victories over some of the nation's elite with Gibson at the helm. Mercer has secured 22 wins over ranked foes under Gibson's tenure including wins over No. 1 Florida (2006, 2018), No. 1 Clemson (2006), a two-game series sweep at No. 2 Miami (2007), a neutral-site win over No. 6 Ole Miss in the Coca Cola Classic (2009), a pair of wins vs. No. 5/9 Georgia Tech (2011), No. 23 Mississippi State (2012), No. 12 Georgia Tech (2013), a three-game series sweep of No. 24 FGCU (2013), No. 8 Florida (2014), No. 23 Georgia Tech (2014) & a three-game road sweep of No. 8 East Carolina (2017), back-to-back midweek wins over No. 10 Florida State and No. 13 Georgia Tech (2022), and midweek victory over No. 8 Florida State (2024). The first victory for Gibson came during the 2005 season with a victory over No. 19 College of Charleston.

Gibson became Mercer baseball's all-time winningest coach, passing Barry Myers, with a 2-1 win over Western Carolina on March 31, 2023. Gibson and Myers are the only coaches in program history to surpass 600 wins.

Gibson has put together an impressive trophy case over his tenure as the Bears head man. Gibson has won four conference regular season championships, including one ASUN title (2013) and three consecutive SoCon crowns (2015-17). In 2013, the Bears won a program-record 43 games and secured an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament. Gibson has captained the Bears to three more NCAA Tournaments via conference tournament titles, once in the ASUN (2010) to earn the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament bid, and twice in the SoCon (2015, 19).

In addition to conference championships, Gibson has accrued a slew of individual awards in his two-plus decades of excellence. After piloting the Bears to 38 wins and an appearance in the Tallahassee Regional in 2010, Gibson was decorated with Georgia Dugout Club Division I Coach of the Year and SoutheasternBaseball.com ASUN Coach of the Year laurels. Following the record setting 2013 campaign, Gibson made history by becoming the first person in league history to be named both Coach of the Year and Player of the Year honors. Making the move to the Southern Conference in 2015, Gibson quickly established himself as one of the league's premier coaches, taking home SoCon Coach of the Year awards in 2015 and 2017.

Under Gibson's tuteledge, Mercer has become a hotbed of professional baseball talent. Since 2006, Gibson has seen 31 student-athletes selected in the MLB Draft, including eight picked in the top-ten rounds. In 2016, Kyle Lewis became the highest draft pick in Mercer history when he was selected 11th overall by the Seattle Mariners. Lewis's 2016 season goes down as one of the greatest single seasons in Southern Conference history, culminating in his second straight SoCon Player of the Year honor, a Rawlings Gold Glove, and five National Player of the Year recognitions from the likes of USA Baseball, Baseball America and the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA), among others. In 2020, Lewis was named the American League Rookie of the Year with Seattle.

Gibson started his career at Mercer as a student-athlete, starring for the Bears on the baseball diamond while earning his bachelor's degree in history and health, physical education and recreation in 1986. A hard-hitting first baseman for the Bears, Gibson was named the Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Year as a junior in 1985 while leading Mercer to the conference title. Gibson is one of only three Bears to earn ASUN Player of the Year honors. Following his playing career, Gibson served as a graduate assistant coach under Barry Myers for two years while earning his master's of education in social science in 1988.

In August of 1993, Gibson accepted an offer from Myers to return to Macon as a full-time assistant coach, a position he held until 2004. With his strong ties to Mercer and a wealth of coaching experience, it made former Mercer Athletics Director Bobby Pope's choice an easy one when he elevated Gibson to the helm following Myers' resignation.

A native of Macon, Ga., Gibson and his wife, Diane, have two children, Lindsey and Tyler.

WILLIE STEWART

Hitting Coach \lozenge 10th Season at Mercer \lozenge UNC Asheville, 2000

Willie Stewart completed his ninth season as an assistant coach for Mercer in 2024, where he serves as the hitting coach for the Bears. Introduced as an assistant in July of 2015 by Mercer head coach Craig Gibson, Stewart has overseen an aggressive offense that has powered the program to two Southern Conference regular season championships (2016, 2017), one Southern Conference Tournament Championship (2019) and 179 wins since his arrival.

In 2024, the Mercer offense slugged 94 home runs, the top mark in the Southern Conference. Stewart helped guide outfielder Ty Dalley to a prolific season in which he finished among conference leaders in slugging percentage (.693), RBI (71), doubles (18) and home runs (21), resulting in a First Team All-SoCon selection.

A high-scoring offense powered the 2023 team as the Bears smacked 111 home runs. Stewart coached five position players to All-Conference selections highlighted by Treyson Hughes earning All-SoCon First Team Coaches and Media honors.

Mercer reached 40 wins in 2022, setting the highest mark during Stewart's tenure. Stewart guided three MLB Draft selections in 2022: Colby Thomas (third round, Athletics), Collin Price (sixth round, Astros), and Bill Knight (10th round, Mariners). Treyson Hughes was the only SoCon player to be named an NCBWA and Perfect Game Freshman All-American, while Knight and Price were selected for the ABCA NCAA Division I Southeast All-Region Team.

After the COVID-19 pandemic halted the 2020 season, the Bears continued the streak of winning at least 35 games in 2021 and qualified for the shortened SoCon Tournament. Garett Delano led the 2021 team in postseason awards, being named a D1 Baseball All-American, College Baseball Foundation All-American, ABCA NCAA Division I First Team Southeast Region, John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year finalist, All-SoCon First Team Coaches and Media second baseman, and All-SoCon Second Team Coaches and Media starting pitcher.

For the second straight season, the Bears had the 2019 Southern Conference home run leader. During the 2019 season, senior Kel Johnson led the league with 23 home runs and drove in 65 RBI. The offense powered the Bears to a 35-29 record on the season and to its fourth NCAA Regional appearance in school history.

After losing five position starters from the 2017 roster, Stewart and the Bears saw new faces take major roles in the lineup in 2018. Mercer batted .302 collectively & was one of two teams nationally with 15 or more players to hit at least one home run during the season. Seven Bears tallied at least 40 RBI, including freshman Le Bassett, who led the SoCon in home runs (17) & ranked second in RBI (60). Fellow freshman RJ Yeager was named the SoCon Freshman of the Year and five total Bears earned All-SoCon postseason honors. Stewart saw senior outfielder Trey Truitt get selected by the Baltimore Orioles in the 34th round of the 2018 MLB Draft, giving the Bears four position players drafted since Stewart joined the staff.

Stewart helped lead Mercer to a 39-17 record and the third of three straight Southern Conference regular season championships during his second season on staff in 2017. The Orange and Black ranked among the top 25 nationally in nine offensive categories, including 13th in home runs (79) and slugging percentage (.484) and 14th in on base percentage (.401). Mercer saw two position players – Danny Edgeworth and Charlie Madden – selected in the 2017 MLB Draft while four position players earned All-SoCon honors, including Co-Player of the Year Ryan Hagan.

In his first season at Mercer, Stewart was instrumental in guiding 2016 Golden Spikes Award winner Kyle Lewis through a junior season that saw the eventual No. 11 overall pick in the MLB Draft total 20 home runs, 72 RBIs, a .395 batting average and a .731 slugging percentage. In the 2016 season, Mercer went 38-23 and claimed its second straight Southern Conference regular season title. Mercer led all NCAA Division I programs with an average of 1.52 home runs per game, 93 sacrifice bunts and 366 bases on balls while ranking in the top 10 nationally for home runs (93; second), on-base percentage (.414; fourth), slugging percentage (.491; seventh) and runs scored (473; seventh).

Stewart spent four seasons (2012-15) as the hitting coach at Georgia State. Prior to his time in Atlanta, Stewart spent eight seasons (2001, 2003-09) on staff at his alma mater, UNC Asheville, including the final five seasons as the Bulldogs' head coach. He led UNC Asheville to its first NCAA Tournament berth by capturing the Big South Tournament title and setting a program record of 28 wins in 2006. He mentored seven MLB Draft selections, four all-conference picks and the 2008 Big South Pitcher of the Year during his tenure at UNC Asheville. Stewart spent one season as an assistant coach at Elon, where he helped guide the Phoenix to the 2002 NCAA Tournament – the first in program history – as an at-large selection and No. 3 seed.

A four-year letterwinner (1996-2000) at UNC Asheville, Stewart rounded out his playing career by earning All-Big South First Team honors as a second baseman in 2000. He batted .300 with 32 RBIs and set a school record with an 18-game hitting streak during his senior season (2000). Stewart earned a bachelor's degree in business and marketing from UNC Asheville in 2000. A native of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, Stewart and his wife Christine have two children, son Kendall and daughter Kailyn.

TANNER GORDON

Pitching Coach \Diamond 2nd Season at Mercer \Diamond Southern New Hampshire, 2014

A seasoned pitching coach with previous stops at five other collegiate institutions, as well as a brief stint as a volunteer assistant coach in Macon, Tanner Gordon begins his second season as a full-time assistant coach for the Bears in 2025. Gordon joined the MU coaching staff in August 2023.

Gordon made the move to Middle Georgia from VCU where he spent the 2023 campaign as the pitching coach for the Rams. He also has previous stints in similar roles at Murray State, Trevecca Nazarene, Middle Georgia State and Andrew College. He was a part of Mercer's coaching staff as a volunteer assistant coach during a 35-win campaign in 2015.

In his first season as the Bears' pitching coach in 2024, Gordon oversaw a pitching staff that included a first team all-conference selection and an MLB draft pick. Under Gordon's tutelage, Colton Cosper blossomed into one of the top arms in the Southern Conference, as the left-hander finished among the conference's leaders in innings pitched (93.0) and ERA (4.35) en route to All-SoCon First Team and SoCon All-Tournament Team nods. Another one of Gordon's protégés, relief pitcher Bryant Olson, turned in a fine season that resulted in his selection in the 2024 MLB Draft. Olson posted eight saves in 2024, the most in the Southern Conference, and struck out 39 batters in 26-2/3 innings. The hard-throwing lefty was picked up by the Washington Nationals in the 13th round of the draft, becoming the 49th draft pick in program history.

Gordon helped pace VCU to 25 wins in 2023 as a part of the always-tough Atlantic 10 Conference, and mentored three pitchers to a quartet of league weekly awards, including right-hander Mason Delane who tossed just the seventh complete game shutout in the 51-season history of the program. Two bullpen arms – Campbell Ellis and Brendan Erka – also ranked among NCAA leaders in saves as well.

The Macon native pushed the Murray State pitching staff to new standards across four seasons (2019-22) in southwest Kentucky, including a pandemic-shortened 2020 campaign. The Racers compiled nearly 100 wins with Gordon's tutelage, and boasted the Ohio Valley Conference's third-best pitching staff – a conglomerate that limited opponents to a paltry .279 batting clip across 55 outings – in just his first season at MSU. Murray State registered an OVC-best 454 strikeouts across a 33-win season in 2021, and rallied behind a pair of all-conference pitchers in 2022 to post another 30-win campaign – the first back-to-back 30 win seasons for the program in nearly 50 years.

Trevecca Nazarene excelled with Gordon on board as well. The Trojans amassed 81 victories from 2016-18, while also capturing a pair of Great Midwest Athletic Conference regular season crowns. Gordon's stay in Nashville saw TNU's pitching staff collect eight all-conference accolades and a quartet of GMAC All-Freshman nods, as well as a myriad of conference weekly awards. The Trojans led the league in opponent batting average (.271) amid Gordon's last season with the squad, while also boasting an GMAC-best 12 saves.

Gordon got his start in coaching at Andrew College in nearby Cuthbert as an assistant coach for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, and then stepped on to the staff at Middle Georgia State for the 2014 campaign. He mentored a trio of all-conference picks during his lone season in Cochran, while 14 of MGA's 17 sophomores on that squad eventually inked with NCAA Division I squads. Gordon made the short commute to Macon for the 2015 campaign for a role as outfield coach and was a part of a squad that made a run to a 35-23 clip, as well as a spot in the NCAA Tallahassee Regional.

One of Gordon's outfielder proteges that season, Kyle Lewis, was eventually drafted 11th overall by the Seattle Mariners and took home the 2020 American League Rookie of the Year crown. Lewis was also named the co-winner of the 2015 Gregg Olson Award which is bestowed annually on college baseball's breakout player of the year.

Gordon's collegiate career spanned a trio of institutions, including a freshman campaign at Gordon College in Barnesville and Andrew College in Cuthbert. He finished off his playing career with three seasons (2009-11) at Auburn Montgomery, while also playing one professional season in the Arizona Developmental Independent Baseball League.

Gordon earned his bachelor's degree in general studies from Southern New Hampshire in 2014.

ASSISTANT COACHES // MERCER BASEBALL

MATT WILLIAMS

Assistant Coach \Diamond 2nd Season at Mercer \Diamond Valdosta State, 2012

A 13-year coaching veteran with previous stops at three other collegiate institutions, Matt Williams begins his first season at Mercer in 2023-24 as an assistant coach for the Bears. He joined the MU coaching staff in August 2023.

No stranger to coaching success, Williams has been a part of 458 victories as a collegiate coach, including eight 30-win showings by his squads. He has mentored four all-Americans, 17 all-region standouts and 41 different all-conference players over his already-illustrious coaching career as well. Nine former players have been drafted by professional teams, or signed free agent contracts.

A native of the Peach State, Williams trekked to Middle Georgia after spending the previous two seasons holding the reins of a surging program at ABAC. He has also logged extensive experience on the coaching staffs at both Valdosta State and Young Harris as well.

Williams helped Mercer to 29 wins in 2024, his first season in Macon. With Williams on staff, the Bears boasted two first team all-conference selections in Ty Dalley and Colton Cosper and had relief pitcher Bryant Olson selected in the 13th round of the MLB Draft, marking the third year in a row in which at least one Bear has been drafted.

Williams assumed the head coaching duties at ABAC in June 2021 and quickly went to work, leading the Stallions to consecutive 30+-win seasons for the first time in more than three decades, including an 8-game turnaround in just his first season at the helm. ABAC ranked among the NJCAA's top-25 teams in five statistical categories during the 2021 campaign, including top-20 listings in both stolen bases (13th) and triples (15th), while pacing the Georgia Collegiate Athletic Association in five others.

In just two seasons in Tifton, Ga., ABAC boasted 10 All-GCAA selections, 17 student-athletes graced the GCAA's All-Academic Team and the squad saw one of its standouts, first baseman Henry Daniels, grace the 2022 NJCAA DI Baseball ABCA/Rawlings Gold Glove squad. Williams also watched more than 15 of his student-athletes move on to compete at 4-year institutions following their time at ABAC.

Prior to his making his head coaching debut at ABAC, Williams spent four seasons (2018-21) as an assistant at Young Harris and used his model of success to help the Mountain Lions take extensive strides. In addition to boasting a quartet of top-10 recruiting classes (PerfectGameUSA), including NCAA Division II's second-ranked classes in both 2018 and 2020, Young Harris amassed 94 wins and a .567 winning percentage with Williams on staff, including a run to the 2019 Peach Belt Conference Tournament title and the program's first-ever berth into the NCAA postseason. The Mountain Lions also established program superlatives for conference victories during the 2018, 2019 and 2021 campaigns as well.

The Loganville native got his start in coaching at Valdosta State where he quickly made his way up through the ranks from a volunteer assistant during the 2010-11 season to a full time role beginning with the 2015-16 campaign. Wiliams was on the coaching staff at his alma mater for seven years, and was a key cog in VSU's run to the 2013 Gulf South Conference championship, as well as NCAA Regional appearances that culminated the 2013, 2015 and 2017 seasons. Fifteen Blazers were decorated with all-conference laurels across that span, while seven were either selected in the Major League Baseball Draft or inked free agent contracts with professional clubs.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Williams has, twice, been on staff with the Valley League's (Va.) Waynesboro Generals, first as an assistant coach for both the 2014 and 2015 campaigns, and then as a head coach for the collegiate summer team for the 2016 and 2017 seasons. He oversaw the completion of more than 1,500 community service hours by the club as an assistant coach, and earned Valley League Manager of the Year accolades in 2016 after leading the Generals to a 30-12 clip and their first of two-straight appearances in the South Division championship game.

Williams played one season (2009) at Valdosta State and helped pace the Blazers to a 43-21 record and an NCAA postseason appearance, before transferring to Texas College where he was a part of a 2010 Steers squad that made the program's first appearance in the conference tournament in nearly a decade.

Williams earned his bachelor's degree in business education from Valdosta State in 2012, and completed his graduate work in business education at VSU in 2015. He married the former Abbie Touchton in 2013.
