- conference team has attempted.

PLAYER NOTES

>>Lucas Moore has been the ultimate weapon at the top of the lineup for the Cards. Moore leads the Cardinals and the ACC with 71 runs scored, second-most in all of Division I. The speedy outfielder is also pacing the league going 40-for-41 in stolen bases. He also ranks second in the ACC in hits, fourth in triples and batting average, and seventh in on-base percentage.

»Eddie King Jr. went on the shelf with an injury just four games into the season and missed nearly three weeks. King returned to the starting lineup for the first time in the finale of the North Carolina series, but he has been red hot since returning. The senior is 34-for-89 (.382) in his last 25 games, with 11 doubles, eight home runs, 26 runs scored and 33 RBIs. King led the Cardinals in home runs and RBIs in 2024.

">Jake Schweitzer has become a key cog in the Louisville bullpen in his first season with the Cardinals. Since allowing three runs in his collegiate debut, the Louisville native has surrendered just two earned runs in 26.0 innings (0.69 ERA) across 15 relief appearances. Schweitzer has earned his first three career wins in the last month against No. 20 Western Kentucky, No. 2 Clemson and No. 4 Florida State, and a save versus No. 10 Vanderbilt..

>> Zion Rose has an exception freshman campaign that saw him hit .380 with 19 extrabase hits and 32 RBIs while finishing with more walks than strikeouts. The 2025 season has seen more of the same but with more damage. Rose is hitting .333 and already has 26 extra-base hits and a team-leading 50 RBIs. The increase in production hasn't affected his plate discipline though, as he has 25 walks and six HBPs to just 27 strikeouts.

CARDINALS TURN IN RECORD DAY ON BASEPATHS AGAINST FLORIDA STATE

Louisville has been one of the best teams in the country when it comes to stolen bases during Dan McDonnell's tenure. However, the Cards have never had a better day than they did in game two against Florida State.

Louisville set a program record with 14 stolen bases in the Saturday victory over Florida State, surpassing the previous record of 10 against Eastern Kentucky in 2013. The 14 stolen bases were the fourth-highest total by a team in Division I this season, while no other Power Four program has reached double figures in a game.

The Cardinals tied the ACC record for stolen bases in a game – Notre Dame against Chicago State in 2019 – and set the ACC record for most in a conference game.

MOORE FLEXES POWER AND SPEED

Lucas Moore has been one of the top players in the ACC this season and put himself in rare company during the Florida State series.

In game two against Florida State, Moore swiped four bases as part of Louisville's record-setting effort. The sophomore then hit a pair of homers, including a grand slam, in the run-rule victory in the finale. Moore followed it up with another four stolen base showing versus Eastern Kentucky.

Moore is one of three Power Four players this season to have a game with four or more stolen bases and another with multiple home runs. However, Moore is the only one to accomplish both things against a Power Four team.

CARDS HIT THE CENTURY MARK ON THE BASES

With its milestone day on the basepaths against Florida State, Louisville surpassed the century mark in stolen bases. The Cardinals have now stolen 100 or more stolen bases in 10 of the last 12 full seasons.

The Cardinals enter the weekend leading the ACC with 123 stolen bases. Louisville is ninth nationally and first among Power Four programs. The Cards lead the ACC with 68 stolen bases in conference play, more than any other team has attempted.

Lucas Moore leads the ACC with 40 on the season, the fourth Louisville player to steal 40 in a single season. Alex Alicea and Zion Rose rank third and fifth, respectively. The Cardinals have three players with 20 stolen bases for the first time since 2018 – Josh Stowers (36), Jake Snider (24) and Tyler Fitzgerald (23).

FRESHMEN ARMS LOGGING BIG INNINGS FOR CARDS

Louisville pitching coach Roger Williams returned just seven arms that pitched for the Cardinals during the 2024 season, leaving a lot of innings up for grabs.

A large portion of the void left on the mound has been filled by freshmen this spring. Louisville's freshmen class, plus TJ Schlageter who did not pitch at all last season, has accounted for 39.8 percent (162.1 IP) of the team's innings this season.

Schlageter is 3-2 with a 3.95 ERA, while Ethan Eberle is 4-2 and pitching in the weekend rotation. Jake Schweitzer is 3-0 with a 1.67 ERA in 27.0 innings out of the bullpen as well, and Casen Murphy made the first start of his career in game one at Clemson.

HOME RUN TOTAL CONTINUING TO RISE FOR DAVIS

Tague Davis had a reputation for big power as a standout at Malvern Preperatory School, and that power has been on full display during his freshman season.

Davis leads the Cardinals and ranks fourth in the ACC with 15 home runs after his goahead two-run blast in the 12th inning of the series finale win at Clemson. The freshman has three multi-homer games this season, all coming in ACC play.

Davis leads all freshmen across three levels of NCAA baseball in home runs and joins Alex Binelas (14 as a true FR in 2019) and Chris Dominguez (15 as a RS-FR in 2007) as the only freshmen with double digit home runs under Dan McDonnell.

MOORE STREAKING THROUGH 2025 SEASON

Centerfielder Lucas Moore had a good freshman year in 2024, but he is currently in the midst of a breakout sophomore season.

Moore leads the ACC in runs and stolen bases and ranks second and fifth nationally in those categories, respectively. The sophomore enters the weekend with 71 runs scored, one shy of cracking Louisville's top 10 single-season chart with eight games still remaining in the regular season.

Moore saw his 35-game reached base streak come to an end at Clemson, tied for the fifth-longest at Louisville since 2000. He also put together a 22-game hit streak as well, just the sixth Louisville player to hit in at least 20 straight since 2000.

CARDINALS AMBUSHING OPPOSING PITCHERS EARLY

The Louisville offense has been excellent this season and its done its best damage early in contests.

The Cardinals have scored 157 runs in the first three innings this season, including 81 in the first three innings of their 24 ACC games.

In conference play, opposing starting pitchers have worked 108.0 innings while surrendering 90 runs.

LOUISVILLE FEATURES ONE OF NATION'S TOP OFFENSES

With the regular season coming down the home stretch, the Louisville offense has been one of the best in the entire country in 2025.

The Cardinals rank top 30 nationally in stolen bases (ninth), triples (17th), batting average (20th), hits (20th), doubles (29th) and runs (29th).

Louisville ranks top four in the ACC in all the aforementioned categories.

CARDIAC CARDS WINNING IN DRAMATIC FASHION

With Louisville's 4-3 win over Kentucky on April 8, the Cardinals recorded their fifth walk-off victory of the 2025 campaign.

Louisville opened the season with a 4-3 walk-off victory over Texas and also notched an 8-6 walk-off win in the series opener against St. John's, a 9-8 walk-off win over Morehead State and an 11-10 walk-off victory over Cal. The five walk-off wins have surpassed the Cardinals' total of three from the 2023 and 2024 seasons combined.

Two of Louisville's five walk-off wins have come with the Cardinals trailing entering the ninth inning. Louisville has two wins this season when trailing after eight innings after going 3-76 in the same scenario from 2020-24.

CARDINALS PUT TOGETHER RECORD OFFENSIVE SHOWING AT NC STATE

The Louisville offense has been really good throughout this season, but no day was better than the 25-8 victory in game two at NC State.

The 25 runs were the most in an ACC game for the Cardinals since joining the league in 2015, and the most in any game since scoring 32 in a win over Alabama A&M on April 26, 2019. The 17-run margin of victory was the largest ever for the Cardinals in an ACC game as well.

Louisville's eight doubles and 21 hits were its most since having the same against Bellarmine on April 12, 2023, and its six home runs were the most since hitting six against Akron on March 5, 2022. The 14 extra-base hits were the most since the 2019 Alabama A&M game as well.

FORBES NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

Right-hander Patrick Forbes was one of 45 players across the country on the midseason watch list for the Golden Spikes Award.

Working as the Friday night starter for the Cards, Forbes is 2-1 with a 4.57 ERA through 10 starts. The junior has 72 strikeouts in 45.1 innings and has limited opponents to a .220 batting average.

Forbes has struck out nine or more in five starts this season, including a career-best 13 on March 28 against Cal.

DAVIS, FORBES EARN MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICA RECOGNITION FROM PERFECT GAME

Tague Davis and Patrick Forbes were each recognized for their strong work in the first half of the season as Perfect Game released its midseason All-America teams.

Forbes was on the Third Team, while Davis was named to the Freshman First Team.

Forbes was the ACC leader in strikeouts through his first seven starts, and Davis led all Division I freshmen with 10 home runs.

CARDINALS CLIMBING THE POLLS

The Louisville baseball team returned to the national rankings in mid March, and have been ranked as high as 11th nationally this season.

The Cardinals were not ranked in any national poll during the 2024 season and were last in the national rankings prior to this season on May 1, 2023.

Louisville was ranked in at least one poll every week from the start of 2012 until the middle of May 2021, a stretch of 155 consecutive rankings. The Cardinals were also ranked for the majority of the 2022 and 2023 seasons.

FEELING AT HOME INSIDE JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since opening the gates at Jim Patterson Stadium in 2005, the Cardinals have won over 77 percent of their games in the ballpark posting a 541-156 record (.776 winning percentage).

The Cardinals are 264-66 on their home field since the start of 2016, winning the 2017, 2019 and 2022 NCAA Regionals and the 2017 and 2019 Super Regional round at home to secure their fourth and fifth NCAA College World Series berths, respectively. Louisville

NOTABLE NUMBERS

Louisville enters Tuesday with 123 stolen bases on the season, its most since swiping 125 in 2018.

The Cardinals have nine wins over ranked opponents this season, seven of which came against teams in the top 10.

ROSE NAMED TO GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Outfielder Zion Rose was named to the 2025 Golden Spikes Award Preseason Watch List released by USA Baseball.

Rose was one of 55 players across high school and college baseball on the watch list. The sophomore was the 14th different Louisville player to be on the preseason watch list since 2009 and the first since Jack Payton in 2023.

Rose led the Cardinals with a .380 batting average last season, the top mark of any Power Five freshman during the regular season. He finished the season with 19 extrabase hits, 32 RBIs and 42 runs scored, while swiping 10 bases.

BIVEN ON NCBWA STOPPER OF THE YEAR PRESEASON WATCH LIST

Tucker Biven was one of 76 pitchers named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Preseason Watch List.

The right-hander is the first Louisville player to appear on the preseason watch list since Michael Kirian in 2021. Former Louisville closers Nick Burdi and Lincoln Henzman won the Stopper of the Year award in 2014 and 2017, respectively.

Biven posted a 4-2 mark with five saves working as the closer in 2024. In 24 relief appearances, he turned in a 3.82 ERA, striking out 40 in 35.1 innings.

LOUISVILLE COUNTING ON NEW SOURCES OF PRODUCTION

With 25 newcomers on the roster in 2025, the Louisville offense and pitching staff has a lot of production to replace from last year's squad.

The Cardinals returned just 36.4 percent (700 of 1922) of at-bats, 27.3 percent (24 of 88) of home runs and 35 percent (169 or 483) of innings pitched.

Zion Rose leads the way offensively after leading the Cardinals with a .380 average as a freshman, while Eddie King Jr. is back for a fourth season after pacing the way with 14 long balls and 43 RBIs in 2024. Alex Alicea, Matt Klein and Lucas Moore all saw significant time last spring as well.

On the mound, Louisville returned just seven pitchers that threw last year. Tucker Biven's 35.1 innings in 2024 lead the returning group, while Patrick Forbes and Colton Hartman combined to make 12 starts and threw 29 innings apiece.

CARDS ROSTER FEATURES 10 TRANSFERS, 25 NEWCOMERS IN 2025
The 2025 version of the Louisville Cardinals has a new look from one year ago. Dan McDonnell and his coaching staff welcomed 25 newcomers into the fold for the 2025 campaign, 10 of which came from the transfer ranks – six four-year, four junior college.

Louisville added six veteran transfers from four-year schools, led by 2024 ABCA Third Team All-American outfielder Garret Pike (Toledo) and 2024 Missouri Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year Brennyn Cutts (Indiana State)

The Cardinals also dipped into the junior college ranks 2024 All-American infielder Jake Munroe (John A. Logan), who competed alongside right-handed pitcher Eli Hoyt (Madison College) with the NJCAA Baseball USA All-Star Team last summer.

In addition to the transfers, Louisville added yet another top-25 recruiting class for the 16th time in McDonnell's 18 years. The Cardinals did not have a high school signee selected in the MLB Draft for the second consecutive year, despite having five players ranked in the top 200.

LOUISVILLE PICKED NINTH IN ACC PRESEASON POLL

The Cardinals were picked to finish ninth overall in the ACC preseason poll by the league's head coaches.

The 2025 season marks the first with 16 teams in the league after the additions of Cal and Stanford. With the expansion, the ACC has eliminated divisions and teams will be ranked 1-16 in the standings.

Louisville won five regular season division titles in its first nine full seasons as a member of the league since joining in 2015.

CARDINALS OPEN SEASON UNRANKED

For the second consecutive season, the Louisville program opened the year without a national ranking.

The Cardinals were not ranked in any of the five national preseason polls. However, Louisville was receiving votes in the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association poll.

Louisville went from unranked in the preseason in 2007 to a College World Series appearance in Dan McDonnell's first year. The Cardinals also reached the Super Regional round in 2022 after opening the campaign outside the polls.

FIVE CARDINALS NAMED CAPTAINS FOR 2025 SEASON

Tucker Biven, Eddie King Jr., Matt Klein and Zion Rose along with newcomer Kamau Neighbors were selected as captains for the 2025 season.

A native of New Albany, Ind., Biven is in his third season with the Cardinals. The right-hander served as the closer for the Cardinals in 2024, going 4-2 with a 3.82 ERA and recording five saves. Biven was one of three Cardinals to play with the USA Collegiate National Team last King Jr. is the longest-tenured player on the roster in 2025, heading into his fourth season in a Louisville uniform. The senior outfielder hit .322 last spring, leading the Cardinals with 14 home runs and 43 driven in.

A local Trinity High School product, Klein will put on the uniform for his hometown school for the third season in 2025. He posted a .297 average with 15 extra-base hits and 24 RBIs while splitting time behind the plate last year.

A Freshman All-American in 2024, Rose returns for his second season in The Ville. The Chicago native led the Cardinals with a .380 average, notching 19 extra-base hits, driving in 32 and finishing with more walks (19) than strikeouts (18) in his freshman campaign. Like Biven, Rose played with the USA Collegiate National Team in the summer.

Neighbors is set to play his first season with the Cardinals after transferring to Louisville from Cal State Northridge. For the Matadors in 2024, the switch-hitter finished with a .305 average, 12 doubles, 29 RBIs and 48 runs scored.

LISTEN TO THE CARDS ALL SPRING LONG

For the 10th consecutive season, all regular season contests along with all postseason games will be broadcast on local radio. 93.9 The Ville will serve as the flagship station for the 10th straight season alongside 970 WGTK.

Sean Moth will serve as the Voice of Louisville Baseball for his 24th season and will be on the call for all Louisville baseball games this spring.

TRIO OF CARDINALS COMPETE WITH USA COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM

Tucker Biven, Patrick Forbes and Zion Rose each donned the Stars & Stripes last summer competing with the USA Collegiate National Team.

Biven and Forbes were each part of the roster that competed in the International Friendship Series against Chinese Taipei. Forbes started the opening game of the series and allowed just one run while striking out five in four innings. Biven worked 2.2 scoreless frames in the series finale, punching out five of his own.

Rose competed as part of the Summer League Tour roster, playing against various collegiate summer league all-star teams across the Carolinas, Virginia and Tennessee. Rose picked up three hits and stole a pair of bases in four games.

LOUISVILLE CONTINUES TO EXCEL IN CLASSROOM

Continuing to pair on-field success with academic achievement, the University of Louisville baseball program has yet another successful run in the classroom during the fall semester.

The Louisville baseball team wrapped up the fall semester with a 3.486 cumulative team grade point average. The Cardinals have now finished with a 3.0 or higher in 27 consecutive semesters. Forty-four student-athletes turned in a 3.0 GPA or better during the fall.

The span of 27 straight semesters with a team GPA of 3.0 or better coincides with unparalleled success on the field for Louisville, which has four College World Series appearances, seven NCAA Super Regional berths, nine NCAA Regional bids and eight conference championships during that time.

JIM PATTERSON STADIUM

Since its opening in 2005, Jim Patterson Stadium has provided the University of Louisville baseball program with one of the great home field advantages in all of college baseball. With an initial seating capacity of 2,500 upon opening, the ballpark underwent an expansion project prior to the 2013 season increasing capacity to more than 4,000 and maintaining Jim Patterson Stadium as one of the elite facilities in the nation.

Spearheaded by the leadership gift of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Patterson, the privately funded expansion of Jim Patterson Stadium was a $4 million facility development plan which featured the addition of 1,500 chair back seats, a 6,400 sq. ft. terrace directly accessible above the chair back seats and a two-tiered ground level terrace extending from the first and third base dugouts. The project also included an expanded press box, which doubled the previous space used to facilitate media and hospitality, and a visiting team locker room behind the third base dugout.

The expansion doubled the number of chair back seats taking the total to 3,000 while the overall capacity of more than 4,000 places Jim Patterson Stadium among the Top 30 of university controlled collegiate ballparks in the nation. The increased seating enables Louisville to host NCAA Regional and Super Regional games without the additional expense of temporary bleacher rentals. Since opening, Jim Patterson Stadium has hosted nine NCAA Regionals (2009, 2010, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019, 2022) and six NCAA Super Regionals (2007, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2019).

After starting construction in August of 2004, the University of Louisville unveiled Jim Patterson Stadium, located at the corner of Central Avenue and Third Street, on Friday, April 15, 2005, when the Cardinals battled East Carolina in front of a then-school record crowd of 3,213.

Along with the 3,000 chairback seats, Jim Patterson Stadium has a tiered, turf berm in left field. The press box features an expanded television suite, two radio booths, game operations booth, an expanded seating area for non-broadcast media, an AD suite and a development suite. The ballpark measures 330 feet down the lines, 375 to the power alleys and 402 to straightaway center. Prior to the 2015 season, the University of Louisville partnered with ANC Sports for the installation of a new LED video board in right-centerfield at Jim Patterson Stadium. The all-digital surface more than quadrupled the size of the previous video space and measures 36-feet wide and 23-feet tall.

The playing surface is FieldTurf, same as the Tampa Bay Rays' Tropicana Field, as well as Louisville's Papa John's Cardinal Stadium. The playing field was completely resurfaced in the summer of 2013 providing the Cardinals with one of the nation's best surfaces. The exterior of the ballpark has elements that mirror UofL's nearby football facility.

The first eight feet of the roof supports are constructed with green brick from the left field wall at historic Parkway Field, and infield dirt was taken from Parkway and placed in the batters box as a tribute to a facility that has seen the likes of Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Honus Wagner, Grover Cleveland Alexander, Satchel Paige, Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson among others.

In January of 2007, crews converted the home plate area from dirt into a field turf surface complete with permanent batters boxes. The only dirt on the field is on the pitcher's mound. The 2008 off-season included a complete reconstruction of the left field berm, with terracing giving the fans a place for a lawn chair or blanket. Children of all ages can enjoy the playground beyond the fence in centerfield.

Prior to the 2023 season, enhancements were done to the entrance and concourse of the stadium. A new entry gate featuring six new columns with arched entry ways was built in addition to the third base concourse being widened to provide additional space for concessions while improving the flow of patrons.

The adjacent building along the first base side of the ballpark houses the baseball offices along with The Henry Davis Locker Room, which officially opened in Spring of 2024. Behind a lead gift from the former No. 1 overall pick, the locker room features state-of-the-art lockers for each player, upgraded bathroom and shower facilities and even includes a barber shop. The building is also home to a weight room and training room – newly updated in 2024, a players' lounge, theatre style team-meeting room, equipment room and laundry facilities.

The Cardinals have won nearly 78 percent of their games at Jim Patterson Stadium since opening the gates during the 2005 season. Of the 15 NCAA postseason rounds contested at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Louisville baseball program has advanced through 12 of those, including sweeping the 2019 NCAA Regional and NCAA Super Regional to clinch the program's fifth College World Series appearance. In NCAA Championship games at Jim Patterson Stadium, the Cardinals have produced a 37-10 record overall.
