O'Keefe Gymnasium, home of the Yellow Jacket volleyball team since 1995, is one of the premier volleyball facilities in the Southeast. The site of 14 Georgia Tech matches in 2022, O'Keefe Gym is known for its rowdy atmosphere, excellent sight lines and loud acoustics.

Over the years, O'Keefe Gym has served multiple purposes. Originally utilized as the gymnasium for O'Keefe High School in the 1950's, the gym was given to Georgia Tech in the 1960's and served as the location for many club sports for the Institute.

Since 1995, the gym has undergone various renovation projects, including the addition of a new floor, which was installed following the 2003 season, and a new locker room, which was added prior to the 2006 season.

O'Keefe Gymnasium underwent a nearly $1 million dollar renovation in 2006, which included adding new home and visitors locker rooms, a coaches' lounge, training room, players' lounge and student-athlete study area to the facility. The Yellow Jackets' new lounge and locker room area is complete with leather couches, big-screen televisions, work stations, a pool table and serves as a location for team meetings before and after matches and practices.

Prior to the 2017 season, the court at O'Keefe was replaced with a brand new Taraflex floor. The new court is the same kind of court that has been used in 11 consecutive Olympic Games. It is valued for its shock absorption and injury prevention.

During the 2018 season, Tech played under a videoboard in O'Keefe Gymnasium for the first time.

POINT TECH!

It symbolizes the unmatched atmosphere and unparalleled excitement that engulfs O'Keefe Gymnasium during Georgia Tech volleyball matches.

The rowdy crowds, which have consistently ranked in the top 50 nationally, follow each volley intently, rise to their feet and yell "POINT TECH" each time the Yellow Jackets score.

From the introductions to the pep band to post-match autographs, Georgia Tech is known for having the most loyal volleyball fans throughout the South.

MICHELLE COLLIER

HEAD COACH

USF, 2002

12TH SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH

@COLLMICH

Michelle Collier will enter her 12th year as head coach of the Georgia Tech volleyball team in 2025. She was named the eighth head volleyball coach at Georgia Tech in March 2014.

In year nine for Collier, she helped propel the Yellow Jackets to their third consecutive NCAA tournament appearance, advancing to the second round and earning a final AVCA ranking of No. 16. The Yellow Jackets reached that mark for the third consecutive season, joining the White and Gold of 2002-04 as the only squads to do so in succession in program history. In the process, Collier has become the second winningest coach overall in program history as well as the second winningest coach in ACC play in school history as she surpassed 200 career wins in 2022. Collier has put together seven consecutive winning seasons, maintaining above a .700 winning percentage in five of those including 2022. Tech's skipper also owns five winning seasons in ACC play including 2022, holding a .750 or higher winning percentage in each. Under Collier's guidance, the program finished the 2022 season with its 53rd straight ranking in the AVCA top 25 poll and its 22nd appearance in the top 15. Grooming seven Yellow Jackets for all-American honors and 13 program records, Collier helped Julia Bergmann finish top five in the nation in kills per set and points per set in 2022.

In her eighth season leading the Yellow Jackets, Collier took Georgia Tech to the Elite Eight of the 2021 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship, tying 2003's squad for the best finish in program history. The White and Gold swept The Citadel, No. 17 WKU and No. 9 Ohio State on the way to the program's second ever Elite Eight. The tournament appearance marked Collier's second at Tech and the 11th for the program. Tech's eight seed in the tournament also marked the second-highest all time as the Yellow Jackets went on to finish ranked No. 7 in RPI and No. 8 by the AVCA, tied for the highest ranking at season's end in program history. Tech's back-to-back tournament appearances marked the first since five straight from 2000-04. On the stat sheet, Tech finished with some of the top numbers in the country, pacing the nation in kills per set (15.18) and assists per set (13.90). Based on the 2021 NCAA record book, Tech's kills per set mark is set to become an NCAA record as one of the top marks in the history of the sport. The Jackets were also sixth in the NCAA and second in the ACC in hitting percentage (0.291). Other notable numbers include ranking second in the ACC and 10th in the NCAA in kills (1,700), second in the conference and 14th in the country assists (1,557) and third in the league in digs per set (15.15). Collier also guided three Jackets on the way to all-American honors as outside hitters Julia Bergmann and Mariana Brambilla were each voted AVCA First Team All-Americans while setter Matti McKissock was named an AVCA All-America Honorable Mention for the second most all-American honors in a season for the White and Gold all time. Brambilla and Bergmann are the first Yellow Jackets to be named First Team All-Americans since Kele Eveland in 2003, previously the only player in ACC history to garner the recognition. Collier was also named AVCA Southeast Region Coach of the Year for her efforts as the same three Jackets were named all-region, on top of Bergmann's AVCA East Coast Region Player of the Year honors. Under Collier's tutelage, five Yellow Jackets were named All-ACC as Bergmann received the ACC Player of the Year award.

Through her seventh season at the helm and Tech's first season post Covid-19 pandemic, Collier led the Jackets to a 14-5 overall record with a 13-4 record in ACC play, advancing to the Second Round of the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship for the first time since 2004. The berth in the Big Dance alone marked the 10th time in program history and the first for the Yellow Jackets since 2009 as Georgia Tech went on to win its first NCAA Tournament win in nearly 17 years. Tech was nationally ranked by the AVCA Coaches poll all season, reaching as high as No. 8 and coming in at No. 22 at the end of the season after spending multiple weeks atop the ACC. With individuals, Collier also groomed a pair of all-Americans in Mariana Brambilla (AVCA Division I Third Team All-American, All-ACC First Team) and Julia Bergmann (AVCA Division I Honorable Mention All-America, All-ACC First Team).

In 2019, Collier was named ACC Coach of the Year and AVCA Region Coach of the Year in 2019 for leading the Jackets to its first NIVC Championship and second-place finish in the ACC after a 11th-place projected finish in preseason. It marked the Jackets' highest finish in conference play since 2004 when they went undefeated to claim the regular season title. The Yellow Jackets finished the regular season with a 21-8 record, its first 20-win season since 2016. Collier is only the third Georgia Tech head coach to earn the honor.

She brought the Jackets back to the postseason for the first time since 2009 with an NIVC berth in the 2018 season. She also led Tech to its first postseason victory since 2004 with its win over USF in the opening round of the 2018 NIVC. In 2017, she recorded her first win over a top-25 opponents with a 3-1 win over Michigan State. She recorded her 100th career win on Sept. 8, 2017 with a 3-2 win over Kansas State in O'Keefe Gymnasium.

In her second season at the helm of the Yellow Jacket program, Collier coached the Jackets to their best record since 2012 (18-14 overall, and 9-11 in ACC play). The program eclipsed 700 wins overall and had 641 at the Division I level at the end of the season with key road victories at Virginia Tech and Clemson, and a sweep of Duke at home. Her third season, 2016 was the most successful since 2004. The Jackets posted a 24-8 record overall with a 15-5 mark in ACC play. The Jackets boasted an impressive 11-2 record at home and notched key road wins over Duke and NC State.

The Jackets finished 2015 with 1,637 kills, which are the most since 2010. Tech started the season 9-2 for its best start since 2012, and went on an eight-match winning streak for the longest winning streak since 2006. Collier coached Teegan Van Gunst to AVCA honorable mention All-America honors, AVCA All-region honors and an All-ACC First Team selection.

Named the eighth head volleyball coach at Georgia Tech in March 2014, Collier led the Yellow Jackets to improvements of more than 100 kills than the 2013 team and with a better hitting percentage (.216 to .182). In addition, the team finished better in almost every statistical category from a year ago.

Collier was named the 2013 Atlantic Sun Conference Coach of the Year after leading Jacksonville to an NCAA Tournament appearance.

In just two years at Jacksonville, Collier helped develop the Dolphins into the A-Sun's dominant program. In 2013, Jacksonville posted a 30-4 overall record and earned the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2004.

Collier coached both the sand volleyball and indoor volleyball programs at Jacksonville in 2012 and 2013. During her two years with the Dolphins, they improved their RPI by more than 50 combined points and enjoyed their highest ranking in nearly a decade. Her 2013 team swept the Atlantic Sun Conference regular season and tournament championships and her players dominated the league's individual postseason awards.

Prior to her tenure at Jacksonville, Collier served two seasons (July, 2010-February, 2012) as an assistant coach at South Carolina, including a three-month stint as the Gamecocks' temporary head coach. In 2011, Collier helped the Gamecocks to a seven-win improvement which ranked as second-best jump in school history. The Gamecocks improved in nearly every category, including posting a hitting percentage 45 points better than in 2010.

Before working at South Carolina, Collier spent two seasons as an assistant at South Florida, where she was responsible for the outside hitters and headed up international recruiting. She helped the Bulls to finishes in the top half of Big East Conference each year, while raising their RPI by 100 points.

As a student-athlete at USF, Collier ranks among the greatest collegiate volleyball players of all-time. She ranks fifth in NCAA Division I history with 2,729 career kills and ranks in the Bulls' top-10 in numerous career and single-season categories. She holds the top spot in USF history in two career categories (kills and digs, 1,747) and set three single-season marks during the 2000 season. After coming back from an injury that sidelined her in 1999, Collier compiled 760 kills, 1,873 attacks and 6.28 kills per set.

A two-time Conference USA Player of the Year and a 2002 All-American, she claimed the league's Player of the Decade in 2004. She also earned the C-USA Freshman of the Year award in 1998 and led USF to three of the program's seven NCAA Tournament appearances. USF went 120-48 during her three years, claiming two C-USA titles and one C-USA tournament crown during her four-year career. Collier is the only volleyball player in USF history to have her jersey retired. She joined the USF Hall of Fame in 2011, the first Bulls volleyball player to earn that honor.

PARK UNIVERSITY, 2012
THIRD SEASON AT GEORGIA TECH

Vinicius Baigan joined the Georgia Tech volleyball coaching staff as an assistant coach in April 2023 and enters his third season with the program.

A native of Osasco, Brazil, Baigan joined the Yellow Jackets following a stint of more than seven years at the University of Texas Rio Grande Valley, serving most recently as associate head coach. Baigan became an assistant coach for the Vaqueros in 2015 and was later promoted to associate head coach in 2022.

Baigan was vital in building a unit that claimed both its first WAC Championship (2018) and WAC Tournament Championship (2016). The White and Gold's new addition was responsible for recruiting, assisting with practice and in-match coaching during his time at UTRGV.

Prior to joining the Vaqueros, Baigan, served as an assistant coach with the men's and women's volleyball programs at Park University for the previous three years. At the end of his tenure with Pirates, Baigan landed on the 2015 edition of the American Volleyball Coaches Association's (AVCA) Thirty Under 30 list.

Earlier that year, Baigan earned AVCA Midwest Region Assistant Coach of the Year honors after helping the Park women's team to a 40-0 record and the NAIA Championship, capped by a victory over UT Brownsville in the title game. On the men's side, he also guided Park to the 2014 NAIA Championship.

An essential cog in Park's coaching staff, Baigan served as the program's chief recruiting assistant. He also assisted in the day-to-day operations of the program and helped to coordinate video exchange with opposing coaches.

Baigan first represented Park in 2009, opening his playing career during the 2010 season after transferring from Missouri Valley College. In his final season on the court, Baigan led Park to the 2012 NAIA Championship as a team captain.

For three seasons, Baigan was a leader in Park's back row. He racked up 229 digs in 80 matches (227 sets) as well as 87 assists in 27 matches, earning all-conference honors as a senior.

Baigan went on to join the professional ranks with Zenith Volleyball in the Caribbean Volleyball League, hosted by Trinidad & Tobago. During his time, Baigan earned best libero honors while leading his team to the championship match.

Off the court, Baigan earned a bachelor's degree in business marketing and an MBA in international business at Park.
