CLEMSON OPENS CONFERENCE PLAY SATURDAY AT GEORGIA TECH

After opening the 2025 season with back-to-back non-conference home games, No. 12/11 Clemson will open both its conference slate and its road slate on Saturday, Sept. 13 when the Tigers face the Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets. Kickoff at Bobby Dodd Stadium at Hyundai Field in Atlanta is set for noon ET on ESPN.

The game will be the 90th meeting between the two programs dating to their first meeting in 1898, Clemson's third year of football. Amid changes to the ACC scheduling model, Clemson and Georgia Tech did not face one another last year, ending a streak of 41 consecutive years in which the two programs had squared off.

Clemson enters the game on a nine-game winning streak in its series with Georgia Tech. With a win on Saturday, Clemson would produce its ninth all-time winning streak of 10 or more games against a single opponent.

Last week, Clemson powered through a disjointed day that included a 92-minute weather delay early in the first quarter. The Tigers rallied from a 16-point second-quarter deficit by scoring the game's final 27 points in a 27-16 victory against Troy. Clemson's game-ending 27 unanswered points came on five consecutive scoring drives over the final three quarters. The streak of scoring drives ended on the game's final drive in which Clemson ran the ball seven consecutive times for two first downs to run out the final 4:24 of game clock.

"I was super proud of how they responded," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "Incredible fight from our team and something we can build on for sure."

This Saturday, the Tigers will hope that a few early trends in the turnover margin will continue for both teams. Clemson has finished even or better in the turnover margin in each of its last 15 games, its longest streak since a 17-game stretch across the 1989-90 seasons. Dating to the 2023 season, Clemson has lost the turnover margin only once in its last 21 games. Georgia Tech is 2-0 this season despite losing the turnover margin in each of its first two contests; the Yellow Jackets are tied for 127th nationally with a -4 cumulative turnover margin this season.

WHAT TO WATCH FOR THIS WEEK

- Clemson and Georgia Tech facing one another for the 42nd of the last 43 years. By virtue of the ACC adopting a divisionless format with altered protected rivalries in 2024, last season marked the first year since 1982 that Clemson and Georgia Tech did not face one another.

- Clemson attempting to earn its 37th all-time victory against Georgia Tech. Georgia Tech is one of eight schools against whom Clemson has earned at least 35 all-time victories (South Carolina, Wake Forest, NC State, Furman, Virginia, North Carolina, Duke and Georgia Tech).

- Clemson attempting to win its 10th consecutive game against Georgia Tech, dating to a 43-24 home win in 2015. It would extend Clemson's longest winning streak in the all-time series.

- Clemson attempting to produce its ninth all-time winning streak of 10 or more games against a single opponent.

ALL-TIME WINNING STREAKS OF 10+ GAMES VS. OPPONENTS (CLEMSON)

6.	Presbyterian	15	1944-Present
7.	Boston College	12	2011-Present
8.	Wake Forest	10	1940-50

Note: Clemson can add Georgia Tech (2015-Present) to the list with a win this week

- Clemson attempting to make Georgia Tech the sixth opponent against which the Tigers carry an active winning streak of 10 or more games.

5.	Boston College	12	2011
6.	Georgia Tech	9	2015
7.	Virginia Tech	7	2011
8.	Six teams tied	6

- Clemson making its first trip to Bobby Dodd Stadium since a 73-7 win in 2020, the largest margin of victory in conference play in ACC history. Clemson's most recent road game against Georgia Tech was played at Mercedes Benz Stadium in 2022.

- Clemson attempting to win a fifth straight road game against Georgia Tech for the first time in series history. Prior to the current four-game winning streak against the Yellow Jackets in Atlanta, Clemson won consecutive games at Georgia Tech four other times in school history (1902-03, 1906-07, 1986-88, 2001-03).

- Clemson attempting to record its 17th all-time road win against Georgia Tech.

- Clemson playing its 2025 road opener. The Tigers were 4-0 in regular season road games in 2024 before falling on the road in the College Football Playoff.

- Clemson attempting to extend its winning streak in regular season road games to six.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 41-9 in true road games since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 80-10 against ACC opponents, including postseason play, since 2015.

- Clemson opening conference play on the road for the 11th time in the last 14 years. Clemson has won nine of its last 10 conference openers since 2015.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 46-26-1 in conference openers since joining the ACC.

- Clemson opening ACC play against Georgia Tech for the 15th time all-time. Georgia Tech will tie Virginia (15) as Clemson's most common opponent in ACC openers all-time.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 13-2 in ACC openers against Georgia Tech. Clemson has won its last five conference openers against the Yellow Jackets in qualifying meetings in 2016, 2018, 2019, 2021 and 2022.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 142-19 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and improve to 119-9 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson attempting to improve to 105-16 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney (181-48) entering the game as one of seven coaches in FBS history to win 180 games within the first 20 seasons of a head coaching career. In only his 18th season (and 17th full season), Swinney trails only Tom Osborne (195), Nick Saban (191), Bob Stoops (191), Joe Paterno (187), Urban Meyer (187) and LaVell Edwards (183) in that category. (Note: Stoops and Meyer are not credited on the NCAA's official list of most wins through 20 seasons since they did not coach 20 years.)

- Swinney attempting to improve to 13-5 all-time against Georgia Tech, including postseason play. Georgia Tech is one of four schools against which Swinney has recorded at least a dozen career victories (Wake Forest, 16; Boston College, 14; NC State, 12).

- Clemson attempting to finish even or better in the turnover margin in a 16th straight game for the first time since a 17-game streak across the 1989-90 seasons. Dating to the 2023 season, Clemson has lost the turnover margin only once in its last 21 games.

- Clemson (99) attempting to gain 400 yards to become the fourth team in the nation to reach 400 yards in 100 total games since 2015, joining Oklahoma (104), Ohio State (101) and Alabama (100).

- Clemson attempting to produce both a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in consecutive games for the first time since 2015 against Florida State and Syracuse.

- Clemson entering the game having scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 89 of its 98 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson has also rushed for multiple touchdowns in a national-best 72 games in that span.

- Clemson attempting to hold each of its first three opponents of a season to 17 or fewer points for the first time since 2021.

- Clemson attempting to reach four sacks in consecutive games for the first time since 2023 against Georgia Tech and North Carolina.

- Clemson attempting to produce multiple takeaways in each of the first three games of a season for the first time since 2016.

- Clemson attempting to intercept multiple passes in consecutive games for the first time since 2023 against Notre Dame and Georgia Tech.

- Clemson attempting to intercept three or more passes in consecutive games for the first time since 2008 against Virginia and South Carolina.

- Cornerback Ashton Hampton and safeties Ricardo Jones and Ronan Hanafin all trying to record an interception in back-to-back games for the first time in their careers.

- Jones attempting to become the first Clemson player with a takeaway in three consecutive games

CLEMSON IN ACC OPENERS

The 2025 campaign marks Clemson's 73rd season of membership in the ACC, dating back to the conference's first year of play in 1953. In its previous 72 seasons of ACC membership, Clemson has posted a 45-26-1 record in conference openers.

Clemson has won nine of its last 10 ACC openers. Clemson's eight-year winning streak in conference openers from 2015-22 was Clemson's longest such streak in school history. Head Coach Dabo Swinney is 11-5 in ACC openers at Clemson, with four of the five losses coming on the road.

Clemson's ACC openers have disproportionately been played on the road in recent years. Including this year, 11 of Clemson's 14 conference openers will have been played away from Memorial Stadium.

SERIES HISTORY VS. GEORGIA TECH

Georgia Tech holds a 51-36-2 lead in the series against Clemson, but Clemson has a 25-17 lead since Georgia Tech joined the ACC prior to the 1983 football season.

Clemson has won a program-record nine in a row against Georgia Tech. Prior to the current nine-game winning streak, Clemson had won four in a row over the Yellow Jackets just three times, including the first four games of the series from 1898-1903 as well as a four-game stretch from 1993-96.

The series dates to a 23-0 Clemson win in Augusta, Ga. in 1898, just the 11th game in Clemson football history. Clemson won the first four games of the series, including games in 1902 and 1903 when John Heisman was at the helm. Clemson defeated Georgia Tech, 73-0, in Atlanta in 1903 with Heisman as head coach. Heisman then left Clemson to become Georgia Tech's head coach after being offered $2,250 a year plus 30 percent of Georgia Tech's gate receipts.

SERIES HIGHLIGHTS

- Every game between the two teams between 1907-74 was held in Atlanta. Clemson's only wins in those 36 meetings came in 1907, 1936, 1945 and 1969, the last of which was Frank Howard's final season as head coach. Howard won just twice (1945 and 1969) in his career in Atlanta, but Clemson made the trip every year to help balance the athletic department budget. Howard was also athletic director his entire time as head coach.

- The two teams have played on a neutral site just three times. Clemson won a 23-0 victory in 1898 in Augusta, Ga. and earned a 41-5 win in Greenville, S.C. in 1899. Georgia Tech won a later-vacated ACC title game in Tampa in 2009, 39-34. (Note: Clemson's 41-10 win at Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium in 2022 was officially a Georgia Tech home game.)

- The first time Georgia Tech played at Memorial Stadium in Clemson was 1974, a 21-17 Clemson victory. Clemson won that game on a three-yard touchdown pass from Mike O'Cain (later a head coach at NC State) to All-America tight end Bennie Cunningham with 8:26 left.

- Woodrow Dantzler had one of the best all-around games of his career with 164 yards rushing and 254 yards passing in Clemson's victory in Atlanta in 2001. He threw for two scores and ran for two, including a 38-yard "Hail Mary Run" on the last play of the first half to cut Tech's lead to 19-14 at intermission. His 63-yard scoring pass to J.J. McKelvey with 1:58 left put Clemson ahead by three, but Tech tied the count with a 20-yard field goal with just six seconds left. Dantzler's walk-off 11-yard touchdown in overtime gave Clemson the win.

- One of the more unusual statistical occurrences in Clemson history took place during Clemson's 33-12 victory over Georgia Tech in 1987 at Clemson. Clemson entered the game with a streak of 999 consecutive combined punt returns and kickoff returns without a touchdown dating to 1970. Then, on the 1,000th return, Donnell Woolford raced 78 yards with a punt return for a touchdown. Then, later in the game Joe Henderson returned a kickoff return 95 yards for a touchdown.

- Current Clemson running backs coach C.J. Spiller had arguably the best game of his career against Georgia Tech in the 2009 ACC Championship Game. The unanimous All-American had a career-high 233 yards rushing in 20 attempts and scored four touchdowns. He had 301 all-purpose yards and was named the MVP of the game even though Clemson lost 39-34. It remains the only time a player on the losing team has been named the MVP of any conference championship game.

LAST MEETING

Clemson 42, Georgia Tech 21

(Nov. 11, 2023, Clemson, S.C.)

CLEMSON, S.C. — Clemson scored 42 consecutive points and the defense tallied four interceptions to race past Georgia Tech. Sophomore quarterback Cade Klubnik threw for 205 yards and tied a then-career-best with four touchdown passes while Clemson piled up 260 rushing yards.

Defensively, Clemson recorded a season-high 11 tackles for loss from 10 different players plus four sacks and four interceptions, including one by Shelton Lewis that was returned 46 yards for a touchdown. Clemson outgained a Yellow Jacket program that entered the game 14th nationally in total offense in the game by a 465-254 margin.

Phil Mafah led the ground attack with 96 rushing yards, while Will Shipley added 77 rushing yards with a 32-yard touchdown. Freshman Tyler Brown had a team-high seven receptions for 41 yards and a spectacular one-handed touchdown catch.

After being held scoreless in the first quarter, Clemson's offense exploded with three touchdowns in the second quarter, one more in the third and two in the fourth. Lewis ran back a Haynes King pass for a touchdown to extend the Clemson lead to 42-7 before Georgia Tech added two late touchdowns.

The teams combined for three punts on the first three drives of the game. Georgia Tech started its third drive in the red zone after stopping a fourth-down conversion attempt by punter Aidan Swanson, and the Yellow Jackets converted the ensuing possession on a four-yard rushing touchdown by King.

On Clemson's next drive, two successful fourth down attempts set up Klubnik to throw a five-yard touchdown pass to Beaux Collins to tie the game 7-7 in the second quarter. The drive lasted 9:51 of game time, the second-longest drive by duration in school history.

Brown gave Clemson a 14-7 lead with 7:17 left in the first half when he reached back to make an impressive one-handed catch in the end zone. After another defensive stop, Shipley made his presence known on Clemson's next drive, totaling 63 yards. He converted on fourth-and-1 and then immediately after hit an open gap, running 32 yards and extending himself over the goal line for the touchdown.

With 41 seconds left in the first half, Khalil Barnes' interception kept the score at 21-7. It was one of four Clemson interceptions of the day, all of which came from Clemson freshmen.

Klubnik further increased Clemson's lead with 3:33 left in the third quarter to 28-7 as he threw a five-yard dart through traffic to Jake Briningstool. Clemson's defense then forced Georgia Tech's fourth three-and-out of the day. Georgia Tech would get the ball back shortly as Jaylon King intercepted a Klubnik pass. However, Clemson's defense would respond with interceptions on three consecutive drives from freshmen Avieon Terrell, Kylon Griffin and Shelton Lewis.

The Tigers took advantage of the good field position after the second interception and put up another seven points when Josh Sapp went up to complete Klubnik's 13-yard touchdown pass. Then on the third, Lewis read the quarterback, stepped up to make the interception and returned it all 46 yards for the touchdown, giving Clemson a comfortable 42-7 lead with 12:46 left in the game.

Dontae Smith got Georgia Tech in the end zone in the second half on a 32-yard completion, making the score 42-14 with 10:11 left to play. After Clemson turned the ball over on downs, Georgia Tech capped a 67-yard drive with a four-yard touchdown pass to Dylan Leonard to make the score 42-21 with 1:49 left in the game. Clemson ran out the clock to secure the 42-21 victory.

LAST MEETING IN ATLANTA

Clemson 41, Georgia Tech 10

(Sept. 5, 2022, Atlanta, Ga.)

ATLANTA – Clemson's defense registered seven tackles for loss and allowed just 237 yards as the Tigers won their season-opener, 41-10, over Georgia Tech at Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Labor Day. Quarterback DJ Uiagalelei was 19-for-32 for 209 total yards and a touchdown each through the air and on the ground, while Clemson rushed a total of 127 yards, capped by a pair of touchdowns from sophomore Will Shipley.

Clemson's defense made an impact on the game's first play from scrimmage, as pressure from defensive end K.J. Henry resulted in safety Andrew Mukuba's first career interception. Henry harassed Georgia Tech quarterback Jeff Sims for most of the game and finished the contest with seven tackles, 2.5 tackles for loss, a sack and a forced fumble.

After a scoreless first quarter, Clemson's special teams made a momentum-changing play early in the second quarter, with safety Carson Donnelly blocking a punt that was returned by Brannon Spector to the Georgia Tech 5-yard line. Clemson opened the scoring on the ensuing possession on a one-yard touchdown run by Shipley.

Clemson's defense followed the touchdown with a three-and-out, and on Clemson's next possession, Clemson drove 67 yards in eight plays and extended the lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from quarterback DJ Uiagalelei to wide receiver Beaux Collins. Clemson would carry a 14-3 lead into halftime.

Georgia Tech struck back on their first possession in the third quarter, drawing to within four on a 13-yard touchdown pass by Sims to EJ Jenkins. The Tiger offense provided a quick answer to take a 17-10 lead, as B.T. Potter hit a 29-yard field goal with 5:41 to play in the third quarter, capping a 12-play, 63-yard drive.

After the defense forced another punt, Uiagalelei kept a drive alive on third-and-2, avoiding a sack and finding Shipley in the backfield, who took it 10 yards for a first down. Uiagalelei then hit his next three passes for 16 yards to Davis Allen, seven yards to Antonio Williams, and found Williams again for 16 yards to bring Clemson into the red zone, and scored three plays later on a quarterback draw, capping a nine-play, 76-yard drive with a nine-yard touchdown run with 1:18 to play in the third quarter.

Clemson's defense forced Georgia Tech to turn the ball over on downs, and Uiagalelei led the Tigers 26 yards down the field. Potter extended Clemson's lead to 27-10 with a 31-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter.

Following another defensive stand by Clemson, freshman Wade Woodaz came up with Clemson's second blocked punt of the night with LaVonta Bentley recovering the ball and taking it 10 yards to Georgia Tech's 15-yard line, giving Clemson two blocked punts in a game for the first time since 2007 against South Carolina. The Tigers capitalized as Shipley earned another rushing touchdown with a three-yard run, making the score 34-10.

True freshman quarterback Cade Klubnik made his collegiate debut with roughly five minutes left in the game. He led Clemson 66 yards down the field and found Will Taylor in the end zone for a three-yard touchdown pass, pushing the final margin to 41-10.

LAST MEETING AT BOBBY DODD STADIUM

Clemson 73, Georgia Tech 7

(Oct. 17, 2020, Atlanta, Ga.)

ATLANTA — Clemson piled up 52 points in the first half behind five touchdown passes from quarterback Trevor Lawrence in the top-ranked Tigers' 73-7 win over Georgia Tech at Bobby Dodd Stadium. Clemson upped its school-best road winning streak to 14 games and its ACC-record regular season winning streak to 34 games.

The 66-point win was the largest margin of victory in a conference game by any team in ACC history. Clemson's 52 first-half points were its most in a first half against an ACC opponent, breaking its previous record of 49 against Wake Forest in 1981.

Quarterback Trevor Lawrence went 22-for-27 passing for 391 yards and five touchdowns in the first half alone. Lawrence finished with a career-best 404 yards through the air.

Wide receiver Amari Rodgers found the end zone twice and recorded the third 100-yard game of his career in a career-high 161-yard performance. Running back Travis Etienne recorded a touchdown on 11 rushing attempts for 44 yards and broke the Clemson record for career points in the process. The Tiger defense forced three turnovers and totaled five sacks.

Clemson opened the scoring when Lawrence found Cornell Powell for a five-yard touchdown. The Yellow Jackets responded with a 59-yard touchdown pass to even the score at 7-7.

The Tigers came back on the first play of their ensuing possession with an 83-yard bomb of their own from Lawrence to Rodgers to start their run of 66 unanswered points.

After a fourth down stop by the Tiger defense, Lawrence delivered a 34-yard touchdown pass to Davis Allen for his second career touchdown reception and second in as many weeks to give Clemson a 24-7 advantage.

Defensive tackle Nyles Pinckney got in on the scoring with a one-yard touchdown run in the second quarter. The Tigers would add three more second quarter touchdowns, scored by Frank Ladson, Jr., Travis Etienne and Rodgers before entering halftime with a commanding 52-7 lead. Etienne's three-yard rushing touchdown gave him 408 career points which broke Chandler Catanzaro's school record of 404.

Cheez Mellusi, Kobe Pace and Ajou Ajou added second-half touchdowns. Pace's was the first of his career and came on Hunter Helms's first career touchdown pass. Ajou's touchdown marked the first of his career. The Tigers defense closed out the game as Clemson cruised to its sixth consecutive victory over the Yellow Jackets.

TIGERS FROM GEORGIA

Clemson has 27 players from the state of Georgia on its current roster, the most of any state other than South Carolina.

at Gainesville High School. His marks for passing yards and touchdowns would later be broken by Cartersville High School's Trevor Lawrence. Though their Clemson tenures did not overlap, the prodigious Peach State quarterback duo combined for 66 wins as starters, six 10-win seasons, five College Football Playoff berths, four National Championship Game appearances and two national titles in their respective eras at Clemson spanning 2014-20 (excluding 2017).

Including Homer Jordan, an Athens, Ga. native who started at quarterback for Clemson's 1981 national title team, all three starting quarterbacks for Clemson's three national championship squads have hailed from the Peach State. Georgia-raised signal callers have also played a significant role in Clemson's in-state rivalry, as starting quarterbacks from Georgia are 17-0 for Clemson against rival South Carolina since 1979. Clemson's last starting quarterback from Georgia to lose to the Gamecocks was Billy Lott (Jesup, Ga.) in 1979.

Including Jordan, Watson and Lawrence, Georgia has been a key pipeline for many of Clemson's best squads. Clemson's 1981 national championship team featured 22 players from the state of Georgia. Clemson's 2016 national championship team had 19 Georgians on the roster. Clemson's 2018 national championship squad included 21 Georgia natives, including six players who started that year's 44-16 national title game win against Alabama.

NOTES FROM LAST GAME

- Clemson earned its 19th victory under Dabo Swinney in games in which the Tigers trailed at halftime. It was Clemson's first come-from-behind victory after trailing at halftime since overcoming a seven-point halftime deficit in a 10-point win at Virginia Tech last November.

- Clemson overcame a 16-point deficit in the victory. It was Clemson's seventh victory in a game in which it trailed by 16 or more points in school history.

- The 16-point comeback tied Clemson's 2019 Fiesta Bowl win against Ohio State for the sixth-largest comeback in program annals. It was Clemson's third-largest comeback win in Death Valley.

- Clemson scored 27 unanswered points to end the game, including 24 second-half points.

- Clemson scored on five straight possessions across the second, third and fourth quarters, a streak that ended when Clemson ran out the clock for the final 4:24 on its final possession.

- The game included a one-hour-and-32-minute lightning delay in the first quarter.

- The contest was Clemson's fifth game at Death Valley on record to include a weather delay, joining:

>> Oct. 12, 1963 vs. Georgia: 20-minute halftime delay

>> Sept. 4, 1993 vs. UNLV: 17-minute fourth-quarter delay

>> Sept. 19, 2009 vs. Boston College: 55-minute third-quarter delay and a 48-minute fourth-quarter delay

>> Sept. 18, 2021 vs. Georgia Tech: One-hour-and-52-minute second-quarter delay (including an observed halftime)

- Quarterback Cade Klubnik completed 18-of-24 passes for 196 yards with two touchdowns and an interception.

- Klubnik improved to 20-10 as a starter. He became the 11th Clemson player to win 20 games as a starting quarterback since World War II, joining Trevor Lawrence (34-2), Deshaun Watson (32-3), Tajh Boyd (32-8), Rodney Williams (32-10-2), Charlie Whitehurst (25-15), Nealon Greene (24-16), Homer Jordan (22-6-1), DJ Uiagalelei (22-6), Mike Eppley (21-5-1) and Steve Fuller (21-11-3).

- During the contest, Klubnik (7,606) became the fifth quarterback in Clemson history to reach 7,500 career passing yards, joining Tajh Boyd, Deshaun Watson, Trevor Lawrence and Charlie Whitehurst.

- Running back Adam Randall rushed for a touchdown and recorded career highs with 21 rushing attempts for 112 yards.

- The 100-yard rushing game was the first of Randall's career.

- Including 23 receiving yards and a 30-yard kickoff return, Randall finished the game with a career-high 165 all-purpose yards.

- The performance by Randall represented Clemson's first individual 100-yard rushing performance since Jay Haynes' 118 yards against The Citadel last November.

- Randall recorded his second rushing touchdown of the season on a one-yard run in the third quarter. He has now rushed for a touchdown in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Clemson has now scored at least one rushing touchdown in a national-best 89 of its 98 games since the start of the 2018 season.

- Clemson has now rushed for a touchdown in 62 consecutive home games, the nation's longest active streak. Ironically, Troy was the last team to hold Clemson without a rushing touchdown in Death Valley back in 2016.

- Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. recorded team highs with seven receptions for 118 receiving yards and two touchdowns.

- The game was the second multi-touchdown game of Wesco's career, joining his two-touchdown game against SMU in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

- Wesco recorded his first touchdown catch of the season on a 26-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik in the third quarter.

- Wesco added his second touchdown of the game on a 34-yard touchdown pass from Klubnik in the fourth quarter.

- With the performances by Randall and Wesco, Clemson produced both a 100-yard rusher and 100-yard receiver in a single game for the first time since Oct. 12, 2024 against Wake Forest (Phil Mafah, 108 rushing; and Jake Briningstool, 104 receiving).

- Clemson won the turnover margin, 3-2.

- Clemson has now finished even or better in the turnover margin in 15 straight games for the first time since a 17-game streak across the 1989-90 seasons. Dating to the 2023 season, Clemson has lost the turnover margin only once in its last 21 games.

- All three of Clemson's takeaways came on interceptions. It was Clemson's first game with three or more interceptions since a three-interception performance against Stanford last October.

NOTES

- Clemson has now opened a season with multiple takeaways in each of its first two games for the first time since 2019.

- Cornerback Ashton Hampton recorded his first interception of the season in the first quarter, picking off a pass deflected by defensive tackle Peter Woods.

- The interception was the third of Hampton's career and his first since last November at Virginia Tech.

- Cornerback Ricardo Jones recorded his first interception of the season in the third quarter. It was his second interception of his career, joining his pick against App State in the second game of the 2024 season.

- The interception by Jones led to Clemson's 26-yard touchdown pass to Wesco on the first play of the Tigers' ensuing possession.

- Including his fumble recovery a week earlier, Jones has now recorded a takeaway in back-to-back games for the first time in his career.

- Safety Ronan Hanafin recorded his first career interception in the third quarter.

- Clemson recorded four sacks in the contest.

- Defensive tackle DeMonte Capehart recorded his first sack of the season — the third of his career — in the first quarter.

- Cornerback Avieon Terrell notched his second career sack when he snuffed out a fake field goal attempt in the fourth quarter.

- Defensive end Will Heldt recorded a fourth-quarter sack. He has now recorded a sack in back-to-back games for the first time as a Tiger. At Purdue, he recorded at least a half a sack in back-to-back games twice, doing so in 2024 against Indiana State (2.0) and Notre Dame (0.5) as well as against Illinois (1.5) and Oregon (1.0).

- Defensive end T.J. Parker recorded his first sack of the season in the fourth quarter. He pushed his career sack total to 17.5.

- Punter Jack Smith recorded a career-long 51-yard punt in the first quarter.

- Kicker Nolan Hauser scored Clemson's first points of the game on a 25-yard field goal in the second quarter.

- Hauser added a 30-yard field goal in the third quarter, giving him his fifth multi-field-goal game of his career.

- On his 47th offensive snap of the game, offensive lineman Blake Miller (3,013) became the seventh Clemson player on record to record 3,000 career snaps from scrimmage. He joined Mitch Hyatt (3,754), Will Putnam (3,564), Dalton Freeman (3,361), Landon Walker (3,131), Kyle Young (3,097) and Glenn Rountree (3,048).

- Clemson faced Troy Head Coach Gerad Parker for the first time. Parker is one of four head coaches slated to face Clemson for the first time this season (Syracuse's Fran Brown, North Carolina's Bill Belichick and Boston College's Bill O'Brien).

- Captains for the contest were defensive end Cade Denhoff, long snapper Philip Florenzo, center Ryan Linthicum and running back Adam Randall.

WITH THE WIN

- Clemson improved to 3-0 all-time against Troy.

- Though Clemson is now 3-0 in its all-time series with Troy, Clemson has had to overcome halftime deficits in two of the three victories. Clemson's eventual ACC title team overcame a 16-13 halftime deficit for a 43-19 win in the teams' first meeting in 2011, and Clemson's eventual national championship team held off Troy by one score in a 30-24 win in 2016.

- Clemson improved to 13-0 all-time against Sun Belt Conference teams.

- Clemson improved to 31-1 against opponents from outside power conferences in Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure.

- Clemson improved to 170-75-3 all-time (and 53-9 since 2011) when facing a coach for the first time.

- Clemson improved to 141-19 against AP-unranked teams under Dabo Swinney and is now 118-9 in those games since the start of the 2012 season.

- Clemson improved to 45-10 in regular season non-conference games regardless of location since 2011.

- Clemson is now 42-6 in non-conference home games under Dabo Swinney.

- Clemson improved to 38-10 in games following a loss under Dabo Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

- Clemson improved to 71-6 at Death Valley in the College Football Playoff era. Clemson's home record is tied for the second-best in the country in that span.

- Clemson ended a two-game home losing skid dating to last season. Clemson has not lost three consecutive home games since 2001.

- Clemson improved to 104-16 in regular season play since the start of the 2015 season.

- Swinney improved to 9-3 all-time against teams from his home state of Alabama. He is now 4-1 against Auburn, 2-2 against Alabama and 3-0 against Troy.

- Clemson improved to 43-1 when intercepting multiple passes in a game since the start of the 2015 season.

- Clemson improved to 146-5 when leading after three quarters since the start of the 2011 season.

- Clemson now has an 88-6 record when winning the turnover margin since 2011.

- Clemson is now 70-5 when having a 100-yard rusher since 2011.

- Clemson improved to 138-10 when totaling more first downs than its opponent since 2011.

- Clemson improved to 121-3 in its last 124 games when holding teams to fewer than 23 points, a span that dates to the middle of the 2010 season.

ON THIS DATE

- Sept. 13, 1997: Matt Padgett kicked a 20-yard field goal with 19 seconds left to give Clemson a 19-17 win at NC State. Nealon Greene became the first quarterback in school history to have consecutive 250-yard passing games. The senior also had 76 yards rushing for 336 yards of total offense.

- Overall: Clemson is 4-2 in games contested on Sept. 13, including wins in their last three Sept. 13 games in 1997, 2003 and 2008.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF STAPLES

From 2014-23, Clemson cemented itself as one of the College Football Playoff's powerhouses of the tournament's inaugural decade. In the 10-year history of the four-team format prior to 2024, only 15 programs earned at least one College Football Playoff berth, and Clemson ranked second in CFP berths, CFP title game appearances, total CFP wins and CFP titles.

Clemson returned to the College Football Playoff in 2024 in the format's first year of expansion to 12 teams and is one berth shy of Alabama (eight) for the most in history.

With a No. 16 ranking in the final College Football Playoff rankings in 2024, Clemson remained one of three programs (alongside Alabama and Ohio State) to finish in the CFP Top 25 in every year since the tournament's inception.

Among the 21 programs ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff from 2014-24, Clemson is one of only seven to hold a positive point differential in CFP play. Clemson has also accounted for three of the nine largest victories by point differential in CFP history.

ONE OF THE ERA'S WINNINGEST PROGRAMS

Clemson has a 162-33 record since 2011 and in 2023 became the second program to reach 150 wins in that span.

5.	Oklahoma	102	31	.767

Clemson's lofty perch in that ranking reflects not only its dominance against middle- and lower-tier opponents, but also its success in matchups with other premier programs. Among current power conference teams, 36 different programs recorded at least 100 wins from 2011-24. Clemson has played 16 of those 36 programs since 2011 and is 66-25 (.725) in those contests and is .500 or better against 13 of the 16 teams.

In 2020, Clemson became the first program ever to win 20 ACC Championships. That year, Clemson became the first program in the conference championship game era to win six straight conference championship games.

Two years later, Clemson's 2022 ACC title was the program's seventh in eight years, as the Tigers became the first team in an active power conference to win seven outright conference titles in an eight-year span since Alabama won eight SEC titles in nine seasons from 1971-79.

Including titles from its days as a member of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association and Southern Conference, Clemson has 28 conference championships overall, also the most of any current ACC school. Duke ranks second among the ACC's current membership with 18 overall conference titles, including 11 Southern Conference titles and seven ACC titles.

The Tigers won the 1900, 1902 and 1903 SIAA Conference championships under John Heisman, then the 1906 SIAA title under Bob Williams. Clemson also won the 1940 and 1948 Southern Conference titles under Frank Howard. Howard won eight total conference titles, including two in the Southern Conference and six in the ACC. Swinney surpassed the legend with a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

For the last quarter-century, Clemson's ACC success has not been a roller-coaster ride of lofty heights and deep lows. The last time Clemson finished a season below .500 in regular season conference play was in 1998, when Tommy West's 3-8 squad went 1-7 in ACC play. Clemson's 26-year streak of being .500 or better in conference play is tied for the longest active streak in the country and tied for the fourth-longest of any streak since 1966.

POWER OVER POWER CONFERENCE FOES

Early in his head coaching tenure, Dabo Swinney laid out his belief to then-Clemson athletic director Terry Don Phillips that the Tigers needed to add tough non-conference challenges on top of their tests in ACC play to serve as a foundation for the program's growth.

"I had a conversation with Terry Don and said, 'Terry Don, I know we are not very good right now, but we need to play people because that is going to help me teach and help me develop the culture and the mindset that you have to have to win at the highest level,'" recounted Swinney. "I didn't think we had that, and that's what we committed to. That's what we've done."

That scheduling philosophy and culture change has resonated in the Clemson program, and since 2011, no team can claim more wins against power conference opponents than the Tigers.

Clemson's national-best 134 power conference wins since 2011 include at least one victory against 27 different programs, including Wake Forest (14), Boston College (12), Georgia Tech (11), Syracuse (10), NC State (10), Florida State (9), South Carolina (8), Louisville (8), Virginia Tech (7), North Carolina (6), Virginia (4), Notre Dame (4), Auburn (4), Miami (Fla.) On a year-by-year basis, Clemson has finished the season atop the country in wins against power conference opponents a national-best four times since the institution of the College Football Playoff in 2014. That includes 13 wins against power conference opponents in 2018, the first team ever to reach that figure.

SIGN AND DEVELOP

While proud of his incoming classes, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has long stated that a true ranking of a recruiting class cannot and should not be published until four years later when the group can be evaluated on performance rather than potential.

Much to Swinney's delight, The Athletic annually assumed that role for the classes of 2014-20, re-ranking each recruiting class four years later to account for on-field performance.

For its re-rankings, The Athletic uses the following grading scale: 5 points: All-American, award winner, top-50 NFL Draft pick; 4: Multi-year starter, all-conference honors; 3: One-year starter or key reserve; 2: Career backup; 0: Minor or no contribution, left the program. The outlet also adds a bonus to each program's class average, derived from its total number of wins from 2017 through 2020 (e.g., For re-ranking the Class of 2017, Clemson won 51 games, so its class average received a bonus of 0.51).

Swinney has pointed out that Clemson often falls in rankings as its retention and its commitment to not oversigning leads to smaller recruiting classes. He also notes that much of Clemson's on-field success is a function of the program's development, citing All-Americans like former three-star Isaiah Simmons or former two-star Nolan Turner. The re-rankings illustrate Clemson's impressive track record of talent identification, culture fit, resource allocation and player development.

CLEMSON RECRUITING RANKINGS AND RE-RANKINGS (VIA THE ATHLETIC)

Class	Rank	Re-Rank	Diff.	Record
2014	16	6	+10	50-7
2015	9	2	+7	55-4
2016	11	1	+10	55-4
2017	16	5	+11	51-5
2018	7	2	+5	49-6
2019	10	5	+5	45-9
2020	3	7	-4	40-12
Average	10.2	4.0	+6.2

Note: Initial rank according to 247 Composite

On average, Clemson ranked 10.2 in the 247 Composite team rankings across the 2014-20 recruiting cycles. Upon re-ranking those groups, despite having little room for improvement while recruiting at a Top 15 clip in that span, Clemson ranked 4.0 on average in the re-rankings, a ratings bump of roughly six spots. Each of those Clemson classes averaged at least 10 wins a season during their careers.

SENIOR SUCCESS

Every January, Head Coach Dabo Swinney conducts his first official meeting with his new team. The first order of business in the meeting is to "reset the room," reorganizing the seating arrangement with seniors in front and all succeeding classes in order behind them in the team auditorium.

Several of Swinney's senior classes placed themselves among select company in college football history. The 2017, 2018, 2019 and 2020 Clemson seniors account for four of only 15 four-year classes in FBS history to reach 50 career wins. That includes the 2018 and 2019 groups that are tied with the 2018 Alabama seniors for the most wins in FBS history (55 wins in four years).

CLEMSON'S WINNINGEST COACH

College Football Hall of Famer Frank Howard, known as "The Bashful Baron of Barlow Bend," compiled a 165-118-12 record in 30 seasons at Clemson from 1940-69.

With a 31-23 upset of No. 12 Notre Dame in 2023, Dabo Swinney earned his 166th career victory as Clemson's head coach, surpassing Howard to become Clemson's all-time winningest coach. Swinney accomplished the feat in his 209th career game.

HEAD COACH CONTINUITY

Over the last decade-and-a-half, Clemson became a beacon of stability in the increasingly unstable environment of college football. Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney is in his 23rd overall season at Clemson in 2025, including his 17th full season as head coach (and his 18th including an interim stint in 2008).

From the start of Swinney's first season as full-time head coach in 2009 through 2024, there were 498 head coaching tenures in the FBS (excluding those by interims) but only one such tenure at Clemson. Clemson is one of five schools with only one head coach in that span.

Clemson is the only school in the ACC with only one head coach since the start of the 2009 season, and among the 21 schools ever to qualify for the College Football Playoff, only Clemson has had only one head coach since 2009.

SIX "FINAL FOURS" FOR SWINNEY

While the term "Final Four" may still be the linguistic property of college basketball, since the advent of the four-team College Football Playoff in 2014, Head Coach Dabo Swinney had Clemson among the sport's final four teams six times from 2015-20, becoming the first coach to lead a team to six consecutive College Football Playoffs since the format's institution in 2014.

The NCAA men's college basketball tournament dates to 1939. In the history of that tournament, only John Wooden of UCLA (nine from 1967-75) and Mike Krzyzewski of Duke (five from 1988-92) coached teams to at least five consecutive Final Fours. With his sixth "Final Four" appearance in 2020, Swinney joined basketball's Wooden as the only college football or men's basketball coaches to take teams to six consecutive Final Fours in their respective sports.

Swinney is among only nine coaches in football and men's basketball to record six career Final Four berths. He is one of only six with a winning record in Final Four games.

Swinney's ability to place his team among the nation's elite quartet has also been illustrated by the polls. Clemson finished first in the AP Poll in 2016 and 2018, second in 2015 and 2019, third in 2020 and fourth in 2017. Swinney became just the fourth coach to record at least six consecutive top four finishes since the AP Poll began in 1936, an exclusive list that also includes Florida State's Bobby Bowden (13), USC's Pete Carroll (seven) and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson (six).

Clemson's streak represented the fifth time a program has had a run of at least six top four finishes in the AP Poll. Miami (Fla.) had a seven-year run from 1986-92 with two different head coaches leading the program.

THROUGH 200 GAMES

The 2022 Orange Bowl was the 200th game in Dabo Swinney's head coaching career. Among coaches who qualify for the NCAA FBS record book by virtue of five years or 50 wins as a major college head coach, 17 coaches had earned at least 150 victories in their first 200 career games as head coach as of the conclusion of the 2022 season.

At 161-39 through 200 games, Swinney tied Bob Stoops and Robert Neyland (161 each) for the fifth-most wins through 200 career games in major college football history.

ONE OF THE FASTEST TO 150 WINS

Dabo Swinney earned his 150th career head coaching win in only his 186th career game in the 2021 Cheez-It Bowl. He became the sixth-fastest FBS coach to 150 career wins — two games behind Fielding Yost and Joe Paterno — and the fourth-fastest in the modern era.

Four previous Clemson head coaches earned 150+ FBS wins in their careers: John Heisman (186), Jess Neely (207), Frank Howard (165) and Ken Hatfield (168). Howard, a College Football Hall of Famer, recorded his 150th victory in his 273rd career game, in a 14-10 victory against Maryland in 1966 that clinched a piece of what later became an outright ACC title. Heisman earned win No. 150 in game No. 203, Neely earned it in game No. 268, and Hatfield did it in game 259, though none of those three won more than 43 games in their Clemson tenures.

Included below are the number of games needed for a sample of other notable coaches to reach 150 victories: John Vaught (201), Mark Richt (205), Red Blaik (207), Dan Devine (208), Woody Hayes (209), Bear Bryant (212), Ara Parseghian (212), Pat Dye (212), Bobby Bowden (213), Pop Warner (214), LaVell Edwards (214), Jim Tressel (214), Vince Dooley (214), Amos Alonzo Stagg (225), John Cooper (225), Frank Beamer (230), Lou Holtz (230), Bill Snyder (231), Johnny Majors (255), George Welsh (261), Hayden Fry (277).

FIRST 15 SEASONS // FIRST 20 SEASONS?

Dabo Swinney completed his 15th season (and his 14th full season) in 2022 with a 161-39 record. Swinney amassed the second-most wins through a coach's first 15 seasons in FBS history despite not having the benefit of a full season in his first year, as he went 4-3 on an interim basis in his first season in 2008 after taking over for Tommy Bowden in October.

CHAMPIONSHIP LINEAGE

After being named Clemson's full-time coach in December of 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney set about securing his first signing class in 2009.

His first class, which he tabbed the "Dandy Dozen," brought home Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 during their junior campaign in 2011. With a win in the 2024 ACC Championship Game, every Clemson signing class under Swinney has at least one ACC title to their credit in their tenures at Clemson, and every signing class since 2012 has earned at least one College Football Playoff berth.

Records reflect results as the AP No. 1, not total games coached Sixteen coaches on the list are College Football Hall of Famers. The other four include two who are still active (Swinney and Smart), one who remains on ballots (Coker) and one who did not coach long enough to meet the 10-year coaching threshold to qualify (Carroll). Swinney holds a total of nine career victories over five coaches on the list, including two each over Bob Stoops, Nick Saban, Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier and one over Bobby Bowden.

Despite not reaching No. 1 until 1981, Clemson has been No. 1 in 25 polls all-time, 16th-most of any program.

Clemson was ranked No. 1 in nine consecutive polls to open 2020, its longest streak at No. 1 in school history. Clemson appeared at No. 1 in at least one AP Poll in six consecutive years from 2015-20. Dabo Swinney joined Nick Saban (14) as the only coach in AP Poll history (since 1936) to lead a team to at least one No. 1 ranking in six consecutive years. Clemson, Alabama (15 from 2008-22) and Miami (seven from 1986-92) remain the only programs to appear at No. 1 in at least six consecutive years.

DEATH VALLEY ROARS

Frank Howard Field at Memorial Stadium garnered its famous nickname in the 1940s when Presbyterian College Head Coach Lonnie McMillian, after many years of bringing his teams in for drubbings, dubbed the venue as "Death Valley."

The name stuck, and its patrons have done their part to make it live up to its name and its reputation. In the first 11 years of the College Football Playoff era from 2014-24, Clemson's home atmosphere helped draw 157 false starts by opponents, the second-most of any home venue in the country and the most by a power conference program.

-- NO. 0 WR ANTONIO WILLIAMS --NO. 0 BECOMES NO. 1 TARGET IN 2024

Antonio Williams earned first-team Freshman All-America honors in 2022 after he caught 56 passes for 604 yards with four touchdowns over 14 games (10 starts). Injury befell Williams in his sophomore season in 2023, as he was limited by an ankle injury to only four regular season games in his second season before returning to play a pivotal role in Clemson's come-from-behind Gator Bowl win against Kentucky.

In the offseason to follow, Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Williams' maturity and laser focus and said the now-redshirt sophomore was in for a big year in 2024. The head coach's prognostication proved correct. Williams started every game for Clemson and developed into a bona fide top target for Clemson with career highs in every receiving category in 2024.

Williams' versatility was on display in 2024. In addition to posting double-digit touchdown catches, Williams rushed for a touchdown and threw another. Williams' 2024 season marked only the ninth time since 1969 that a Clemson player has passed for a touchdown, rushed for a touchdown and caught a touchdown in a single season, joining Sammy Watkins (2012), C.J. Spiller (2008 and 2009), Jacoby Ford (2009), Ray Williams (1985), Charlie Waters (1969) and Ray Yauger (1969).

Klubnik has helped engineer three fourth-quarter comeback wins, including two as a starter:

- vs. Syracuse (2022): Entered in relief of DJ Uiagalelei and became the first backup quarterback to engineer a fourth-quarter comeback win for Clemson since 2018 (Chase Brice vs. Syracuse).

- vs. Kentucky (2023): Went 8-for-8 as he led Clemson on a 12-play, 68-yard game-winning drive in 2:17 of elapsed game time as Clemson earned its largest fourth-quarter comeback win in a bowl game in school history in the 2023 Gator Bowl.

- at Pitt (2024): After Clemson was held to only 27 yards in the first 28 minutes of the second half, Klubnik got the ball with 1:36 remaining and engineered a three-play, 75-yard drive that he finished by rushing for a game-winning 50-yard touchdown with 1:16 remaining.

- Notes: Klubnik recorded a game-winning drive in the 2024 ACC Championship Game against SMU, but the game was tied at the time and Clemson never trailed in the contest. Klubnik also helped Clemson overcome a 16-point first-half deficit to Troy in 2025, though Clemson's third-quarter surge gave the Tigers the lead prior to the fourth quarter.

300-YARD GAMES

Klubnik is one of eight quarterabcks in Clemson history to record multiple 300-yard passing games. His seven career 300-yard games rank fifth in school history.

He is one of 12 Clemson quarterbacks to rush for double-digit touchdowns in a career since Clemson transitioned away from the single wing in 1953, and he entered his senior season in reach of becoming the seventh Clemson quarterback in that span to reach 1,000 career rushing yards.

Note: Klubnik is outside the Top 10 with 781 career rushing yards.

Several of Klubnik's rushing touchdowns in 2024 didn't come on run-of-the-mill short-yardage plunges. Among his rushing touchdowns that season were touchdown runs of 55 yards against NC State, 34 yards against Stanford and a game-winning 50-yarder at Pitt.

Klubnik's 50-yard rushing touchdown at Pitt was Clemson's longest game-winning offensive touchdown inside the final two minutes of a game on record. Klubnik became the first Clemson player to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a single season since Travis Etienne in 2019 (two), and he also became the first Clemson quarterback to record multiple 50-yard rushing touchdowns in a career since Woodrow Dantzler (three from 1999-2001).

2024 IN REVIEW

Klubnik took a major leap in his second full season as a starter in 2024. As a junior, he completed 308-of-486 passes for 3,639 yards with 36 passing touchdowns and added career highs with 463 yards and seven touchdowns on 119 rushing attempts.

Klubnik combined for 4,100 yards of total offense and 43 total touchdowns while committing only seven turnovers. Research by ESPN.com's David Hale illustrated that Klubnik became only the eighth quarterback to reach those thresholds in the College Football Playoff era. The other seven all finished in the Top 4 in Heisman voting, including five Heisman winners.

FROM THE SIDELINE TO THE STAGE

Klubnik's national breakout came in the 2022 ACC Championship Game against North Carolina. He entered the game on Clemson's third possession and completed 20-of-24 passes for 279 yards and a passing touchdown and added seven carries for 30 yards and a rushing touchdown. His 83.3 completion percentage set an ACC Championship Game record and led to his selection as the game's Most Valuable Player in Clemson's 39-10 victory. He became the third freshman (and second true freshman) in the game's history to earn the honor.

Two years later, Klubnik repeated as ACC Championship Game MVP in a 34-31 win against SMU. He joined Virginia Tech's Tyrod Taylor and Clemson's Dashaun Watson as the only two-time MVPs in ACC Championship Game history.

DYNAMIC DUO RETURNS

There was no shortage of contributing factors to Clemson's leap in passing efficiency and explosiveness from 2023 and 2024, but notable among them was the arrival of T.J. Moore and Bryant Wesco Jr. in 2024. While Moore's late-season surge was a bit too belated to garner national recognition, Wesco collected Freshman All-America honors from 247Sports, PFF, ESPN, The Athletic and the FWAA.

The duo ranked in the top six nationally in receiving yards by freshmen.

Moore and Wesco became the first freshman duo in a power conference to each record at least 650 receiving yards and at least five touchdown catches in a single season since at least 2000. Expanded to include the full FBS, the only other schools in that span to accomplish the feat were the 2005 Hawaii Warriors and the 2007 Tulsa Golden Hurricane. They made Clemson the only school with multiple 650-yard freshman receivers in the nation in 2024.

Moore's breakout performance came in a nine-catch, 116-yard effort against Texas's then-top-ranked national pass defense in the College Football Playoff. Thanks in part to Clemson's success through the air, Texas' defense finished the season ranked seventh in passing yards allowed per game (173.8), and Moore's 116 yards were the most by any player against the Longhorns in 2024 and were 113 more than Ohio State Freshman All-American Jeremiah Smith (one catch for three yards) produced in the national semifinals.

WESCO WOWS IN SECOND CAREER GAME

Wesco recorded one catch in 12 snaps in Clemson's

2024 season opener, as missed opportunities and inefficiency by Clemson — combined with a condensed contest that featured the fewest combined snaps (112) in a Clemson game since 2006 — limited his involvement in his collegiate debut as a true freshman. Afterward, Clemson's coaches vowed to involve him more the following week.

Consider that vow fulfilled.

In his second career game, Wesco caught three passes for 130 yards and a touchdown against Appalachian State, tying the Clemson record for the fewest games needed to record a 100-yard receiving game.

Wesco's 130-yard performance against Appalachian State included a touchdown reception of 76 yards as well as a 51-yard reception that set up a two-yard Cade Klubnik touchdown run on the ensuing play. Wesco became the first Clemson player with two plays from scrimmage of 50-plus yards in a single game since 2021.

RUNNING BACKS

Clemson entered 2025 with a relative rarity in the Dabo Swinney era: public unknowns at running back.

Under Swinney, the Tigers have enjoyed a run of feature backs that has included C.J. Spiller, Andre Ellington, Wayne Gallman, Travis Etienne, Will Shipley and Phil Mafah among a bevy of other substantial contributors.

With both members of the Shipley/Mafah duo from Clemson's 2021 recruiting class now having matriculated to the NFL, outside observers are curious to see who will seize Clemson's rushing attack in 2025.

Notable candidates entering the year included:

- Adam Randall: Clemson's season-opening starter and physically imposing former wide receiver whom Dabo Swinney said in July could be "one of the great stories in college football this year." He contributed at running back in a pinch in the College Football Playoff and ripped off a 41-yard run at Texas.

- Jay Haynes: Clemson's No. 2 running back in 2024 averaged 6.86 yards per carry a year ago but spent the 2025 offseason returning from a knee injury suffered in the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

- David Eziumume: A redshirt freshman who came to Clemson as one of the nation's top 20 running backs in the class of 2024 according to most recruiting services.

- Keith Adams Jr.: A bruising bowling ball whose hard-nosed running style and penchant for seeking contact earned him the nickname "Hammerhead" from the coaching staff.

- Gideon Davidson: A true freshman who was a consensus national top 100 player and unanimous four-star prospect out of Virginia. Swinney has often referred to him as "the best back in the country" in the 2025 recruiting class.

That group will seek to continue Clemson's recent run of high-scoring backs over the last decade. Entering 2025, Clemson had a running back reach double digits in rushing touchdowns in nine of the previous 10 seasons. Clemson's nine seasons with a running back scoring 10 or more rushing touchdowns in that span are the most in the country.

TIGHT ENDS

Clemson lost its school record holder for career receptions by a tight end over the 2025 offseason when Jake Briningstool graduated and signed with the Kansas City Chiefs. Briningstool caught 127 career passes for 1,380 yards and 17 touchdowns over 48 career games.

Clemson's current group of tight ends will seek to continue the unit's production that has seen the tight end group post 60-plus catches in each of the last three seasons, a first in the Dabo Swinney era.

A VETERAN UNIT IN 2025

Clemson received instant impact from the addition of veteran offensive line coach Matt Luke in his first full season at Clemson in 2024. In his second full season with the Tigers in 2025, he is expected to benefit from the return of an exceedingly veteran unit that returns four of its five primary starters and boasts seven players who have started at least one game for Clemson.

The unit includes two of Clemson's recent iron men. Blake Miller entered his senior season already ranked in the Top 10 in school history in career snaps from scrimmage. Prior to 2025, the two-time All-ACC selection started every game for Clemson at right tackle from 2021-23, and he became the first offensive lineman to start every game played by Clemson during his freshman, sophomore and junior campaigns without the benefit of a redshirt year since starting center Ralph Jenkins from 1943-45.

Miller plays alongside a remarkable comeback story in Walker Parks, who started all 14 games for Clemson in 2024 after missing the majority of the 2022 and 2023 seasons with career-threatening ankle injuries. A veteran of 53 games and 42 starts from 2020-24, Parks is a self-professed Clemson lifer who said of Clemson, "If there were no eligibility [rules], I would stay here forever," a maxim validated by his decision to utilize an extra year of eligibility for a sixth season in 2025.

Clemson's other two returning primary starters include one of the team's foremost leaders and one of its active parables of patience. Left tackle Tristan Leigh started 23 games over the two previous seasons, and his progression from five-star recruit to off-radar redshirt to trusted contributor has given him stature and respect as one of the team's most trusted leaders. Center Ryan Linthicum, meanwhile, was one of Clemson's revelations of 2024. Last spring, the then-career backup was entering his fourth year with limited experience, and he was given spring practice to audition for the role before Clemson sought veteran help at the position. Instead, Linthicum seized the role, starting all 14 games for Clemson and playing 982 snaps from scrimmage, the most of any Clemson player in 2024.

Though depth and injuries combined to limit them to four combined starts in 2024, redshirt junior Collin Sadler and junior Harris Sewell entered 2025 with a combined 40 games and 14 starts of experience along the Tiger offensive line. Sadler provides versatility across the four tackle and guard positions, while Sewell offers tremendous value as a versatile interior piece across the center and guard spots.

Clemson had a breakout young star's trajectory take a brief detour in late 2024. As a true freshman, Elijah Thurmon impressed when called upon to play 74 outstanding snaps in reserve on the road at Virginia Tech last year, and he earned a start the following week before being lost for the remainder of the season on the game's opening play from scrimmage. Whether as a starter or rotational piece, Thurmon stands primed to be a significant fixture on Clemson's line for the next several seasons.

O-LINE EXPERIENCE BREAKDOWN

Clemson's full offensive line group entered the 2025 season with a combined 249 game appearances, 135 starts and 10,403 career offensive snaps.

ALL-CONFERENCE O-LINEMEN

Since 2015, Clemson has produced a total of 32 All-ACC selections along the offensive line, including 12 first-team honors. Clemson's 32 all-conference selections by offensive linemen are an ACC high and the second-most of any power conference program. Clemson also ranks tied for third nationally in first-team selections in that span.

SportSource Analytics produces an Offensive Line Efficiency metric that takes into account tackle for loss percentages, sack percentages, percentages of rushes gaining 4+ yards and success on third-or-fourth-and-short. Clemson is among the national leaders in that total metric since 2015.

TRENCH WARFARE

Clemson's success in its 80-18 run since 2018 has been powered in part at the line of scrimmage, where Clemson holds a 305-160 edge over opponents in sacks in that time frame. Clemson's +145 margin in sacks since 2018 is the highest differential in the country.

PARKER'S PROLIFIC 2024 SEASON

As a sophomore in 2024, defensive end T.J. Parker posted 64 tackles (19.5 for loss), 11.0 sacks, a school-record six forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries and a pass breakup while starting all 14 games for the Tigers. He finished the year as the only player in the nation to rank in the Top 10 nationally in forced fumbles (six, T-2nd), tackles for loss (19.5, 5th) and sacks (11.0, 9th).

Parker's junior season in 2025 is being played under the tutelage of new Clemson Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen. A year ago, Allen led Penn State defensive end Abdul Carter to unanimous All-America honors and the No. 3 overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft. Carter's 2024 campaign bore a number of statistical similarities to Parker's.

Though he did not garner first-team all-conference honors from the ACC, Parker earned All-America honorable mention recognition from Phil Steele after he broke the Clemson single-season school record for forced fumbles in a season (six), surpassing Brandon Maye's five from 2009. His six forced fumbles finished tied for second in the nation and tied for the national lead among power conference players.

PARKER'S RECORD DAY AT PITT IN 2024

Parker put together one of the most dominant defensive performances in school history in Clemson's 2024 game at Pitt, collecting seven tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, a school-record-tying 4.0 sacks, his fourth forced fumble of the season and a pass breakup.

Parker earned ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week, Bednarik Award National Player of the Week and Walter Camp Defensive Player of the Week for his performance.

MOST SACKS IN A GAME (CLEMSON HISTORY)

Rk Player (Year)	Opponent	Sacks
1. T.J. Parker (2024)	Pitt	4.0
Austin Bryant (2017)	Auburn	4.0
Andre Branch (2011)	Virginia Tech	4.0
Keith Adams (1999)	Duke	4.0

His 4.0 sacks tied for the most of any FBS player in a single game that season. His 5.0 tackles for loss in that game ranked tied for second.

Parker's record day powered Clemson's season highs with eight sacks and 16 tackles for loss in the contest. Clemson's 16 tackles for loss tied for fourth-most in program history and its eight sacks tied for eighth.

WE SEE YOU, T.J. 🧐

Parker emphatically announced his arrival as a freshman in 2023 when he set a Clemson true freshman record with 12.5 tackles for loss. That total tied for the national lead in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Parker initially committed to Penn State but coveted a Clemson offer. He decommitted from the Nittany Lions in hopes of soliciting Clemson, and Clemson's 2023 recruiting class immediately went to work.

"CV [Christopher Vizzina], Peter [Woods] and a few other guys on the team, they hit me up with the eyes emoji on Instagram," Parker said. "It was like, 'You know what time it is.' I texted Coach Ski [Then-Clemson Defensive Ends Coach Lemanski Hall] the eyes emoji, the same thing they sent me, and from there we got in contact and a few days later they offered and I committed."

-- NO. 17 LB WADE WOODAZ --

OPENING A CAN OF WOODAZ

In each of linebacker Wade Woodaz's first three seasons at Clemson, the Tampa product has watched as one of his linebacker counterparts earned All-America recognition, including honors for Barrett Carter in 2022 and 2024 and for Jeremiah Trotter Jr. in 2022 and 2023. Head Coach Dabo Swinney was quick though to warn observers not to overlook Woodaz.

"He's a baller," Swinney said. "The kid is tough, physical, he can really run. He really understands the game at a high level. He played most of his [prep] career as a quarterback and as a safety, so he has a great understanding of the game. He plays really, really hard; he's a great effort guy, he's a great preparer and he loves it. He's a fun guy to coach and a fun guy to watch play because he plays the way you want everybody to play."

Though Clemson's linebacker corps in 2024 included All-American Barrett Carter and ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year Sammy Brown, it was Woodaz who led the team in tackles, a feat he accomplished despite missing two games with a leg contusion. Coaches credited Woodaz with 89 stops, 10 tackles for loss, 3.0 sacks, six pass breakups, three forced fumbles and an interception.

Woodaz was one of six power conference players to record double-digit tackles for loss, three or more forced fumbles and an interception in 2024 (Texas' Anthony Hill Jr. and Colin Simmons, Indiana's Jailin Walker, UCLA's Kain Medrano and Texas Tech's Jacob Rodriguez). He also became the first Clemson player credited with at least 75 tackles and at least three forced fumbles since Isaiah Simmons in 2018.

-- NO. 47 LB SAMMY BROWN --

SAMMY'S SENSATIONAL START

Linebacker Sammy Brown arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as a consensus Top 30 player in his recruiting class and as the nation's reigning High School Butkus Award winner.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney praised Brown as an "alpha," but spoke frequently about Brown's learning curve at the linebacker position after playing both running back and linebacker at Jefferson High School in Commerce, Ga. The linebacker tabbed as 247Sports' No. 1 "freak athlete" in the 2024 recruiting class proved to be a quick study, appearing in all 14 games for Clemson with six starts.

After Clemson opened its first eight games of 2024 in two-linebacker sets, Brown earned his first start at Virginia Tech in November that year as Clemson opened the game with three linebackers. The former five-star prospect delivered, recording a team-high eight tackles (per the gameday stat crew) with 2.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

"Sammy's been getting better and better and better and it was awesome to see him have that type of game," Swinney said after Brown's performance at Virginia Tech. "He's just a confident young man, and, boy, he's got a bright future ahead of him. He's going to be a great one."

Despite playing only 444 defensive snaps over 14 games in 2024, Brown ranked second in the nation in tackles for loss among freshmen.

Along with Barrett Carter (10.5) and Wade Woodaz (10.0), Brown gave Clemson three linebackers with double-digit tackles for loss for the first time since 2016 (Kendall Joseph, Ben Boulware and Dorian O'Daniel).

Brown ranked third in Clemson history in tackles for loss by a true freshman and fourth among that group in sacks.

DOUBLE-DIGIT TACKLES

Brown has already recorded four career games in which he has been credited by gameday stat crews with 10 or more tackles. Entering Saturday's game against Georgia Tech and dating to last season, stat crews have credited him with double-digit tackles in four of Clemson's last six contests.

MEET THE NEW GUYS

- WR Tristan Smith (signed Dec. 18): Smith joined Clemson after playing the 2024 season at Southeast Missouri State, helping the Redhawks to a first-place finish in the Big South-OVC Football Association and a berth in the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs. The 2024 all-conference honoree played in SEMO's final 11 games of the season, catching 76 passes for 934 yards and six touchdown receptions in addition to rushing for one touchdown.

- DE Will Heldt (signed Dec. 19): Heldt signed with Clemson after playing his first two collegiate seasons at Purdue, appearing in all 24 games for the Boilermakers from 2023-24. As a sophomore in 2024, gameday stat crews credited Heldt with 56 tackles (10.0 for loss), 5.0 sacks and a fumble recovery he returned 16 yards for a touchdown. He recorded 2.5 sacks and the 16-yard scoop-and-score in back-to-back games against ranked opponents Illinois and Oregon in October.

- LB Jeremiah Alexander (signed Jan. 8): Alexander played his first three collegiate seasons at Alabama from 2022-24. Following a redshirt year in 2022 in which he appeared in three games, Alexander played in 24 of the Crimson Tide's 27 games across the 2023-24 seasons and was credited with eight tackles in those contests. In high school, he led Alabama's Thompson High School to the 2021 state championship (alongside current Clemson defensive lineman Peter Woods) as a consensus five-star recruit across most major outlets and ranked among the nation's top 50 players in his class.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney expounded on Clemson's strategy for the three winter transfer additions:

"As I've always said, we do what's best for Clemson. We'll use the portal whenever we need it and we'll be strategic with it. We needed it four years ago; we needed a backup quarterback and we got one. The next year, we needed a backup quarterback and we got one and he was here for two years.

"This year, we didn't anticipate signing a defensive line portal guy. We had two great ones committed and we were taking two. But as y'all know, things can change in recruiting. We had a young man back out and decide to go somewhere else, so there wasn't anybody left to recruit that could fill the need. Now we [had] a gap so we had to go use the portal and we needed a high-level guy and we got the guy I wanted to hit [Heldt].

"From a receiver standpoint, we had two guys go in the portal, and so we had a gap. We needed to go get a guy, and we needed somebody that could come in and help us with our depth and come in and compete and we found a great kid in Tristan out in Southeast Missouri. We were looking for a little length, and high school recruiting was over; there was nobody to get. We needed to go get a guy.

"And then the linebacker situation, honestly, we weren't really going to take a 'backer. We knew we needed another guy. Logan Anderson, our signee, tore his ACL. Kobe [McCloud], his situation [rehabbing from a knee injury]. We knew we probably needed another guy, but we were going to wait until May. And then Jeremiah popped up. We knew all about him, obviously recruited him hard, knew his family. That was a really good situation that worked out for us.

"That's really it. Nothing different. I know everybody likes to write about it, but our process is still the same. We're going to recruit high school kids as long as we can get the best of the best. As long as we can get the Gideon Davidsons of the world and the Sammy Browns of the world and the T.J. Parkers and Peter Woods and Cade Klubniks, that's what we're going to do, and we're going to develop... And then we have to respond if we have a situation and we have a gap in our roster or we have kids that leave. For us, that's how we use the portal, but the process isn't any different. They've still got to be the right fit, they've got to check all the boxes, they can't just be a good player. No different than our high school recruiting."

CFP-ERA DEFENSIVE TRACK RECORD

Clemson has a track record of producing one of the nation's top defenses in most seasons since the advent of the College Football Playoff in 2014.

Clemson ranked in the Top 30 in the country in total defense in each of the first 10 seasons of the CFP era and also ranked among the Top 30 in scoring defense in those 10 campaigns (including five Top 5 finishes in the category).

Clemson's defensive anomaly in 2024 led to a change in leadership, as the Tigers plucked Penn State Defensive Coordinator Tom Allen for Clemson's defensive coordinator position immediately following the Nittany Lions' exit from the College Football Playoff. Allen now leads a Clemson defense that tied for the national lead in Top 10 finishes in average yards allowed per game in the College Football Playoff era.

ALLEN IS ALL IN

Clemson officially announced Tom Allen as its new defensive coordinator on Jan. 14.

"Tom checked every box that I was looking for," Head Coach Dabo Swinney said. "We've got a great football coach — and a great leader of men — coming to Clemson... He brings a ton of experience and was highly recommended by some of the best people in this business. He is obviously coming off of a great year as the defensive coordinator at Penn State, and we're excited to welcome him as our defensive coordinator here at Clemson."

Allen joined the Tigers with more than three decades of coaching experience. In 2024, he helped Penn State to a school-record 13 wins and a College Football Playoff berth. His defense recorded two pick-sixes in Penn State's 38-10 win against SMU in the College Football Playoff First Round, and in the following game, his unit bottled up Heisman runner-up Ashton Jeanty, holding the star running back to a season-low 3.47 yards per carry and no touchdowns in a 31-14 Penn State victory in the CFP Quarterfinal at Fiesta Bowl.

Penn State finished seventh in the nation in total defense (294.8 yards per game) and eighth in the nation in scoring defense (16.5 points per game) under Allen's guidance in 2024.

300 OR FEWER YARDS

DEFENSIVE TOUCHDOWNS

In 2024, Clemson extended its streak of scoring multiple defensive touchdowns to 15 straight seasons. The last time Clemson had fewer than two defensive touchdowns in a season was 2009, Dabo Swinney's first full season as head coach, when the Tigers supplemented a single defensive touchdown with six special teams touchdowns.

WHO'S YOUR HAUSER?

Placekicker Nolan Hauser arrived at Clemson in January 2024 as the national high school record-holder for career field goals made (66) during his career at Hough High School in Cornelius, N.C.

Hauser (pronounced HOO-zer, not HOW-zer) opened his career with a streak of 25 consecutive made kicks (five field goals & 20 PATs) in 2024 before a blocked PAT against Stanford accounted for his first miss.

A week later at Florida State, Hauser made five field goals and accounted for 17 total points in Clemson's 16-point road win. The five-field-goal performance by Hauser was Clemson's first since Chandler Catanzaro went 5-for-5 on field goal attempts against Boston College in 2011.

	Nolan Hauser	2024	Florida State	5

Hauser's six points against Virginia Tech in November 2024 gave him the school record for points in a true freshman season, breaking the previous mark of 78 set by Sammy Watkins in 2011. In the ACC Championship Game, he reached the century mark to post the first 100-point season by a true freshman in Clemson history.

Hauser's 113-point 2024 season ranked tied for sixth in Clemson history in kicking points scored in a single season and tied for ninth in school history in points scored by any means in a single season.

Hauser is a second-generation Clemson student-athlete. His mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), was an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, played baseball at Clemson in from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. His sister, Ella, was also a member of Clemson's women's soccer team from 2021-24.

HAUSER'S HIGHLIGHT

Though the pronunciation of his last name often trips up observers, Hauser made his name much more nationally recognizable with the seminal highlight of the 2024 ACC Championship Game.

In what Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney called "the biggest kick in Clemson history," the true freshman booted a 56-yard game winning field goal as time expired to give Clemson its 22nd ACC title, its 10th win of the season and its seventh College Football Playoff berth. Of note:

- Hauser's field goal gave Clemson the first walk-off win in ACC Championship Game history.

- Hauser became the first Clemson player to kick a game-winning walk-off field goal since Chandler Catanzaro hit a 37-yard field goal to beat LSU to end the 2012 Chick-Fil-A Bowl.

- Hauser's 56-yard field goal was the longest game-winning field goal as time expired in Clemson history.

- Hauser's career-long 56-yard field goal was the fourth-longest field goal in Clemson history but its longest away from Death Valley. It was also the longest field goal in postseason play in Clemson history.

- Hauser became the first FBS player ever to win a conference championship game by kicking a field goal of 50 or more yards as time expired.

- The game-winning field goal came in Hauser's home metro area, as his hometown of Cornelius, N.C. is roughly 20 miles north of Bank of America Stadium in Charlotte.

THE OTHER SWINNEY DYNASTY

Like the Colquitt family punting at Tennessee, the Swinney family holding for placekicks at Clemson has become a dynasty of its own.

Head Coach Dabo Swinney's oldest son, Will, arrived at Clemson in 2017 and immediately earned Clemson's starting holder position on placekicks. He played five seasons and a record-tying 69 games at Clemson through 2021. In those five seasons, Clemson scored 565 points on placekicks, including field goals and PATs, and he held for 555 of those 565 points. The only 10 Clemson kicking points not held by Will in his career were instead held by his brother, Drew, who was Clemson's starter at the position in 2022.

Will and Drew were succeeded by the youngest of the three Swinney boys, Clay, a redshirt junior in his third season as Clemson's starting holder in 2025. Clay's presence creates a plausible scenario in which every Clemson placekick in a full 10-year span from 2017-26 could be held by a Swinney.

Clemson's last hold by any player outside the Swinney family was on the final point of Clemson's 2016 national championship, as Seth Ryan, coincidentally also the son of a famous long-time coach (Rex Ryan), held the PAT following Hunter Renfrow's game-winning touchdown with one second remaining.

Note: Listed points only reflect kicking points on held field goals or PATs. Will Swinney scored 12 additional points, six via receiving touchdown on offense and six via rushing touchdown on a fake field goal; Drew Swinney scored two additional points on a fake PAT.

Clemson's 2024 win against Stanford marked Clemson's 100th consecutive game with a Swinney as holder, a game that ironically resulted in Dabo Swinney's 100th career home win at Memorial Stadium. The family crossed 800 kicking points held for in the contest as well.

TURNOVER TURNAROUND

Amid Clemson's frustrating 4-4 start to the 2023 season, Head Coach Dabo Swinney was running out of descriptors to explain Clemson's maddening penchant for turning the ball over — and doing so catastrophically.

A year later, Clemson was one of the nation's best teams at protecting the football. The Tigers ranked fourth in the nation in turnover margin (+16) in 2024.

EXPLOSIVENESS RETURNS IN 2024

From 2018-20, Clemson strung together its three best seasons in school history in yards per play while accumulating a 39-3 record and three College Football Playoff berths. In the three years to follow, Clemson's explosiveness dropped from an average of seventh nationally to an average of 91st.

The Tigers took a significant jump nationally in yards per play and scrimmage plays of various distances in 2024.

DEFEATS IN REVIEW

Clemson has lost 22 games since 2015, tied for the third-fewest in the nation in that span. Eleven of Clemson's 22 losses since 2015 — a full 50 percent — have come against AP Top 10 teams.

The opponents to whom Clemson has lost since 2015 have a combined final record of 213-66, a winning percentage of .763. Clemson has not lost to a team that finished with a losing record since 2017 and has not lost to a team with a losing record at the time of the game since losing to 2-5 Boston College in 2010, Dabo Swinney's second full season as head coach.

A HISTORY OF RESPONDING

In Head Coach Dabo Swinney's tenure, the Tigers have typically responded well in the face of recent adversity.

Clemson is 38-10 in games following a loss under Swinney, including season openers following a loss in the previous season finale.

Under Swinney, Clemson is also 38-7 in games in which it enters ranked lower in the AP Poll than it did in its previous contest. This includes the 2014, 2016, 2017, 2018 and 2021 season openers in which Clemson opened the season lower than its ranking from the final game of the previous campaign.

WINNING ONE-POSSESSION GAMES

Since 2011, the Tigers have played 53 games with a final margin of eight or fewer points, and Clemson's .755 winning percentage in those one-possession contests is the best in the country in that time frame.

OFFENSIVE BALANCE

Clemson fielded one of the nation's most balanced offenses from 2018-24, averaging 264 passing yards per game and 191 rushing yards per game in that span. Clemson was one of only six teams nationally to average at least 260 passing yards and at least 190 rushing yards on a per-game basis in that time frame.

Clemson was undefeated when exceeding both 200 rushing yards and 200 passing yards — 58-0 under Swinney and 108-0-1 all-time — until opening the 2023 season with a loss at Duke in which the Tigers reached the double-century mark in both categories. The defeat was also a statistical anomaly nationally, as from 2014 through that 2023 season opener, FBS teams who passed for 200-plus yards, rushed for 200-plus yards and gave up 28 or fewer points in a single game were a combined 1748-41 (97.7 percent).

The anomaly struck again in 2024 when Clemson reached 200 yards in both categories in a loss to Louisville. After Clemson's loss in that game, FBS teams who, like Clemson, reached 200 passing yards and 200 rushing yards while also producing 30+ first downs and no turnovers were a combined 326-21 (93.9 percent) since 2000.

GROUND GAME

Clemson has scored at least one rushing touchdown in 89 of its 98 games since the start of the 2018 season. Clemson's 89 games with a rushing touchdown in that span are the most in the nation. Clemson has scored multiple rushing touchdowns in 72 of those games, also the nation's best.

MIND THE "MIDDLE EIGHT"

Since 2015, Clemson's most successful teams have frequently won one of the hidden "games within the game" on each side of halftime. SportSource Analytics tracks the "Middle Eight," the section of the game defined as the final four minutes of the first half and the first four minutes of the second half. Clemson has outscored opponents in that time window 78 times since 2015, posting a 76-2 record in those contests.

The approach to creating functional depth and rewarding players ready to play has been a key philosophy for Head Coach Dabo Swinney, whose own collegiate playing career was hatched as a walk-on fighting for playing time in Alabama's receiving corps.

"We're fully committed to playing guys who deserve to play," Swinney said. "You commit to a guy early in the season, and even if a guy has only played 10 percent of the snaps, when you get to game eight or nine, they've got some good experience."

In a statistic unlikely to be challenged in the wake of upcoming NCAA roster limits, Clemson has played 100+ players in a game six times under Dabo Swinney.

FINISH

In 2018, Clemson debuted a new version of its "This is Why We Work" fourth quarter video at Death Valley, a hype video imploring the team to finish and featuring Director of Strength and Conditioning Joey Batson bellowing:

"Let me tell you something right now: they don't put championship rings on smooth hands! You gotta go earn it! You gotta go earn it six seconds at a time! You win championships when the stadium is empty, when the band ain't playing, when the cheerleaders ain't cheering, when it's just you and your brothers right beside you. That's when you win championships! In the fourth quarter, that is when we shine!"

The video and the speech became a part of Clemson lore, buoyed by its playing during Clemson's comeback win against Syracuse that year en route to a 15-0 national championship season. Over the years, the video has changed but the speech remains the same, with many Clemson fans yelling it in unison as it plays.

Clemson holds a 162-8 record under Dabo Swinney when leading after three quarters, including a 146-5 mark since 2011.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, of the 410 eligible players who completed their athletic eligibility at Clemson and/or graduated early in Dabo Swinney's 16+ full years as head coach, 404 (98.5 percent) have earned a degree during their time at Clemson.

- Clemson earned the AFCA Academic Achievement Award for 2024. The award was Clemson's fourth in the last seven years, but it was Clemson's fourth in the last five years that the honor was actually awarded, as the organization did not name recipients during a two-year period amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

- Clemson broke program multi-year NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) records in three straight years from 2017-19 (987 in 2016-17, 992 in 2017-18 and 993 in 2018-19) before the NCAA suspended APR reporting during the COVID-19 pandemic. Upon reinstatement of APR reporting in June 2022, Clemson shattered its multi-year APR record with a 999 covering the 2017-18 through 2020-21 academic years. Clemson has posted a 995 multi-year APR in each of the last three cycles.

- Most recently, Clemson posted a 995 multi-year APR covering 2020-21 through 2023-24, tied for fifth-best in the FBS. Clemson's lofty academic success in that period coincided with 40 wins in a four-year span and two ACC titles.

5.	2018-19	993

- Clemson and Northwestern are the only FBS programs to produce a 990+ multi-year APR in each of the last six reported cycles.

- Clemson is the only program in the country to have finished among the Top 25 in APR among FBS schools and the AP Top 25 in every reported APR cycle since 2011.

2024-25	Pending ('26)	Pending ('26)	14th

Notes: The NCAA suspended APR reporting for the 2019-20 academic year amid COVID-19, but Clemson's unreported APR would have again placed Clemson in the top 25 of FBS programs; APR data for 2024-25 will be published in spring 2026.

- Prior to the suspension of APR Public Recognition Awards following the COVID-19 pandemic, the NCAA recognized Clemson with its annual honor, which is bestowed upon programs ranking in the Top 10 percent of their respective sports, for nine of the award's last 10 reported academic cycles. Only 37 FBS programs earned at least one APR recognition across the 2009-10 through 2018-19 academic years. Only 30 programs earned it multiple times. Clemson, Duke and Northwestern were the only ones to earn the award 9+ times in that 10-year span.

- With its award for the 2018-19 academic year, Clemson became the only FBS program since the NCAA created the APR metric in 2003 to win a national championship and an APR Public Recognition Award in the same year multiple times. Alabama is the only other school to accomplish the title/APR double in a single year once (2011-12 academic year).

- A program-record 98 individuals earned a 3.0 GPA or better in Fall 2024. That included program-record 20 perfect 4.0s.

- Clemson set a record in Fall 2024 with the highest single-semester GPA in program history with a 3.19 team GPA. Clemson followed that up with a 3.18 spring semester.

- Entering the 2025 fall semester, Clemson has had 75+ individuals earn a 3.0 or better GPA in eight consecutive semesters.

HISTORIC GRADUATION SUCCESS RATE

Aided in part by historically elite academic performance by Clemson Football, Clemson Athletics tied for best in the NCAA among public Power Five institutions in Graduation Success Rate (GSR) with a 96 percent mark for the 2014-17 cohort in data released by the NCAA in November 2024.

Football reached a 99 percent mark for the second year in a row, again tying the highest GSR score for any Power Five football program, and tying the highest ever recorded among public Power Five football programs in the 20 years the NCAA has tracked the metric. Football trailed only Air Force and LIU (100 percent) in this release, and tied Columbia, Harvard and Northwestern.

RELATIVELY SPEAKING

Clemson's 2025 roster has many connections to college and professional athletics. Below is a list of notable connections:

- Keith Adams Jr., RB: Son of Keith Adams, a Clemson Athletic Hall of Famer at linebacker for the Tigers from 1998-2000.

- Jamal Anderson, LB: Son of Jamal Anderson, an eight-year NFL running back who earned first-team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors in 1998 in helping the Falcons to a berth in Super Bowl XXXIII.

- Logan Brooking, TE: Son of 15-year NFL linebacker Keith Brooking, a five-time Pro Bowl selection who was 12th pick of the 1998 NFL Draft and remains the all-time leading tackler for both Georgia Tech and the Atlanta Falcons.

- Sammy Brown, LB: Son of former Furman football player Mike Brown.

- Vic Burley, DT: Cousin of Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Tackles Coach (and 10-year NFL veteran) Nick Eason.

- Brodey Conn, LS/P: Son of Defensive Pass Game Coordinator/Safeties Coach Mickey Conn.

- Ashton Hampton, CB: Son of University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff Head Coach Alonzo Hampton.

- Ronan Hanafin, S: Son of Dan Hanafin, who played quarterback at Boston University and was the program's starting quarterback in its final year in 1997; also the brother of Boston College quarterback Shane Hanafin.

- Nolan Hauser, PK: Son of two former Clemson athletes, including his mother, Sheri Hauser (née Bueter), an All-American soccer player at Clemson from 1994-97, and his father, Scott, who played baseball at Clemson from 1995-97 and was 6-2 as a pitcher on Clemson's College World Series team of 1996. He is the brother of recent Clemson women's soccer player Ella Hauser.

- Brayden Jacobs, OL: Son of nine-year NFL running back Brandon Jacobs, a two-time Super Bowl champion with the New York Giants who accrued more than 9,000 career rushing yards.

- Charlie Johnson, TE: Son of Ellis Johnson, a long-time college football coach who served as Clemson's defensive coordinator from 1994-96.

- Jaheim Lawson, DE: Brother of Shaq Lawson, a 2015 consensus All-American at Clemson and 2016 first-round pick.

- Tristan Leigh, OL: Son of Stan Leigh, who played running back at Virginia from 1990-94.

- Cade Klubnik, QB: Brother of Reed Klubnik, who played wide receiver at Yale from 2016-19.

- Armon Mason, DE: Son of Anthony Mason, who played 13 years in the NBA, earning an All-Star selection and an NBA Sixth Man of the Year Award; also a cousin of Atlanta Falcons All-Pro Grady Jarrett.

- Kobe McCloud, LB: Brother of former Clemson wide receiver Ray-Ray McCloud (2015-17); also brother of former USF/Arizona/James Madison/Texas State quarterback) Jordan McCloud.

- T.J. Moore, WR: Son of Terrance Moore Sr., a multi-time all-conference wide receiver at California University of Pennsylvania.

- Walker Parks, OL: Son of former Kentucky offensive lineman David Parks.

- Trent Pearman, QB: Son of former Clemson tight end and current Director of Football Scouting Danny Pearman.

- Ian Reed, OL, and Charlie Reed, PK/P: Sons of Eric Reed, a former member of the US Men's National Rugby Team.

- Collin Sadler, OL: Grandson of John Schroeder, a former All-America wide receiver at North Carolina who went on to play for the CFL's Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

- Clark Sanderson, WR: Son of former Alabama wide receiver Craig Sanderson (1988-90).

- Josh Sapp, TE: Son of former Clemson quarterback/defensive end Patrick Sapp (1992-95).

- Clay Swinney, WR: Son of Clemson Head Coach Dabo Swinney and brother of former Clemson wide receivers/holders Will Swinney and Drew Swinney.

- Caden Story, DL: Son of former Jacksonville State football and baseball player Clifford Story; nephew of 14-year NFL tight end Marcus Pollard; brother of Kentucky safety Kristian Story.

- Avieon Terrell, CB: Brother of A.J. Terrell, current NFL All-Pro cornerback who was an All-ACC performer at Clemson.

- Champ Thompson, DT: Son of Michael Thompson, a fourth-round pick by the Atlanta Falcons in the 2000 NFL Draft.

- Cole Turner, WR: Son of former Alabama player Kevin Turner, who played eight years in the NFL with the New England Patriots and Philadelphia Eagles, and brother of former Clemson All-America safety Nolan Turner.

- Tyler Venables, S: Son of Oklahoma head coach and former Clemson defensive coordinator Brent Venables; brother of former Clemson linebacker Jake Venables.

- Bryant Wesco Jr., WR: Son of Bryant Wesco Sr. and Tambia Wesco, both of whom were triple jumpers at Louisiana Tech. Bryant Sr. was inducted into the Louisiana Tech Hall of Fame and Tambia was a 1999 all-conference selection.

- Wade Woodaz and Drew Woodaz, LB: Brothers.

- Watson Young, OL: Is the first fourth-generation Clemson Football player. Son of former Clemson All-American and three-time Academic All-American Kyle Young. Nephew of Will Young, who was an offensive lineman at Clemson from 1992-95. Grandson of Ben Watson, a linebacker at Clemson from 1968-70. Great grandson of Ed McLendon, who lettered in 1939 and played the first bowl team in Clemson history that earned a 6-3 win in the 1940 Cotton Bowl.

CHURNING OUT NFL TALENT

Since assuming the head role midseason in 2008, Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced 86 NFL draft picks during his head coaching tenure. His 86 draft picks produced are the most by any active coach in the nation since the 2009 NFL Draft, and his 18 first-rounders are the fourth-most overall and second-most of any active coach in that span.

Additional nuggets on Clemson's recent success in the NFL Draft are included below:

- Clemson has had at least one player selected in 23 consecutive drafts since 2003, representing the second-longest streak in school history behind a 24-year streak across the 1951-74 NFL Drafts.

- Clemson is one of only six schools to have produced multiple draft picks in each of the last 23 NFL Drafts (LSU, Michigan, Oklahoma, Ohio State and USC).

- Clemson has had at least three selections in 16 of its 17 drafts since Dabo Swinney was elevated to head coach. Clemson is one of six schools to have produced three or more picks at least 16 times in that span alongside Alabama, LSU, Ohio State, Oklahoma and USC.

- Including two defensive picks in the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has produced multiple defensive draft picks in 14 of the 17 drafts of the Dabo Swinney era. Clemson, LSU, Alabama, Ohio State and Georgia are the only programs to produce multiple draft picks from their defenses in at least 14 drafts in that span.

- Clemson has had at least one player chosen by 30 of the 32 NFL franchises since 2003. The lone exceptions in that time frame are the Patriots, who last selected a Tiger in 1991, and the Panthers, who have never selected a Clemson player despite playing their first season in franchise history in Death Valley.

- Head Coach Dabo Swinney has produced a draft pick for 28 of the 32 NFL teams in his head coaching tenure; the only NFL teams not to select a Clemson player in Swinney's head coaching tenure are the Chicago Bears, Denver Broncos, New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers.

- Though Clemson did not have a player selected in the first round of the 2025 NFL Draft, Clemson has had at least one first-round draft choice in 10 of the last 13 years, standing alongside Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Ohio State as the only programs to produce a first-round pick in at least 10 of the last 13 years.

- Since 2013, Clemson has produced first-round picks from the QB, RB, WR, DE, DT, LB and DB position groups. The only other school with at least one first-rounder at all those positions in that span is Alabama.

- Linebacker Barrett Carter's selection in the 2025 NFL Draft represented the fourth consecutive draft in which Clemson had a linebacker selected. Clemson and Alabama are the only programs in the nation to produce at least one linebacker in each of the last four NFL Drafts.

- Safety R.J. Mickens' selection in the 2025 NFL Draft gave Clemson at least one drafted defensive back in 13 of Clemson's 17 drafts in the Dabo Swinney era.

2025 GAME RECAPS

GAME 1	LSU	17
	CLEMSON	10
	AUG. 30, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - Trailing by seven late in the game, Clemson drove to the LSU 15-yard line but was stopped on downs as No. 9 LSU defeated No. 4 Clemson, 17-10.

Quarterback Cade Klubnik finished 19-of-38 for 230 passing yards. Defensively, Clemson had eight tackles for loss, forced two takeaways and held LSU to 354 yards of total offense. In his first career start, safety Ronan Hanafin led Clemson with 12 tackles, followed by linebacker Sammy Brown with 11 tackles.

Ricardo Jones returned a fumble forced by Avieon Terrell 24 yards to the LSU 24 to set up Clemson's first score, a Nolan Hauser 42-yard field goal with 8:57 to play in the first quarter. LSU later knotted the score at 3-3 on a 52-yard field goal by Damian Ramos 4:07 into the second quarter.

Klubnik then led Clemson on a 13-play, 75-yard drive capped by one-yard touchdown by Adam Randall, giving Clemson a 10-3 lead with 4:36 to play in the half.

After Clemson missed a 48-yard field goal early in the third quarter, LSU evened the score at 10-10 on a two-yard touchdown run by Caden Dunham. LSU took its first lead of the game with 12:18 remaining in the fourth quarter when LSU quarterback Garrett Nussmeier completed an 11-play, 73-yard drive with an eight-yard touchdown pass to Trey'Dez Green to give LSU a 17-10 lead.

After trading several scoreless fourth-quarter possessions, Clemson forced an LSU punt after the two-minute timeout to give Clemson one final drive. After a 16-yard punt return by Bryant Wesco Jr. set up Clemson at its own 43, Clemson drove 42 yards but was ultimately stopped in the LSU red zone with 59 seconds to play.

GAME 2	TROY	16
	CLEMSON	27
	SEPT. 6, 2025 MEMORIAL STADIUM • CLEMSON, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. - No. 8 Clemson scored the final 27 points of the game en route to a 27-16 win against Troy at Memorial Stadium.

Running back Adam Randall led Clemson with 165 all-purpose yards including a career-high 112 rushing yards and one touchdown in addition to four catches for 23 yards. Wide receiver Bryant Wesco Jr. caught two touchdowns, leading all receivers with seven catches for 118 yards. Clemson intercepted three passes and sacked Troy four times.

Troy opened the game with a five-play, 75-yard drive that ended in a 44-yard touchdown from Goose Crowder to Tray Taylor. Shortly after, the game entered into a 92-minute lightning delay with Troy leading 7-0.

Coming out of the break, Troy extended its lead to 16-0 on a 37-yard first-quarter field goal and a four-yard second-quarter pick-six on a batted ball. But Clemson scored its first of its 27 unanswered points late in the first half on a 25-yard Nolan Hauser field goal to bring the halftime score to 16-3.

Clemson got in gear coming out of halftime, immediately marching 75 yards in eight plays, 59 yards of which came via Randall on the ground including a one-yard touchdown run. Clemson took the lead 58 seconds later, cashing in an interception with a 26-yard Wesco touchdown one play later. The Tigers' next two possessions resulted in a 30-yard Hauser field goal and a 34-yard scoring pass to Wesco to bring the score to 27-16.

In all, after the slow start, Clemson scored on five consecutive possessions across the final three quarters before running out the final 4:24 of clock on the game's final drive.
