GEORGIA TECH YELLOW JACKETS 5-3 (0-0 ACC)

Series vs. Mississippi State

• Georgia Tech and Mississippi State are set to meet for the 31st time in program history on Wednesday, and second in the Damon Stoudamire era

• The Yellow Jackets and Bulldogs met in the first ACC/SEC Challenge in 2023, also in McCamish Pavilion, with Tech taking the decision, 67-59

• The win marked the first over a top-25 opponent under Stoudamire as Mississippi State entered the game ranked No. 21/22

• The last meeting renewed a rivalry between the programs for the first time in nearly 50 years as the teams last met in 1975 previously

• Georgia Tech has won two-straight against Mississippi State, albeit decades apart

• Former conference opponents, Georgia Tech and Mississippi State first were members of the Southern Conference (1922-32) and then again in the Southeastern Conference (1932-64)

Tech's Last Time Out

• Georgia Tech closed out the Emerald Coast Classic over the Thanksgiving holiday facing Drake for the first time in program history

• Akai Fleming, who led the Yellow Jackets offensively in both ECC games, was named to the All-Tournament Team

• Fleming averaged 14.0 points and 5.0 rebounds per game in the tournament, while converting 43.5 percent from the field and leading Tech at the free throw line (6-10)

• Despite four Yellow Jackets finishing in double-figures against Drake, Tech dropped an 84-74 decision

• Four different Jackets finished in double-figures for the fifth time this season - Fleming (15), Baye Ndongo (14), Kam Craft (11) and Lamar Washington (11)

• Georgia Tech committed a season-low six turnovers, while dishing out 20 assists for the second time this season

• For the third straight game, Washington led Georgia Tech in assists with six. Washington currently leads the Jackets in assists on the season with 29

The Tip-Off

• Georgia Tech looks to snap a two-game skid on Wednesday and extend its win streak over MSU to three

• The Yellow Jackets and Bulldogs closeout the 2025 ACC/SEC Challenge with the final two tipoffs of the Challenge - joining SMU at Vanderbilt, also at 9:15 pm

• Georgia Tech is 1-1 in the ACC/SEC Challenge, having won in the inaugural year in 2023 against Mississippi State. The Jackets dropped year two of the Challenge at Oklahoma in 2024

• The third annual ACC/SEC Challenge features 16 games with each conference hosting eight contest

• A win in the Challenge would give Georgia Tech a 2-1 record in the annual competition

• Mississippi State is one of four non-conference opponents Tech meets this year that reached the NCAA Tournament last season. The Bulldogs fell in first round action

• Mississippi State is also one of five non-conference

A Family Tradition

Basketball runs in the family - at least for the Yellow Jackets.

- Kam Craft - father, Mark Craft, was a letterwinner in both basketball (1988-90) and baseball (1987-90) at VMI. He ranks 8th in single-season field goal percentage records, converting 55.9 percent from the field in the 1988-89 season. Mark was a two-time Robert L. Watson '64 Award winner for leading rebounder in both 1989 and 1990. On the baseball side, Mark was drafted in the 10th round of the 1990 MLB Draft by the Oakland Athletics. He played one season in the minor leagues for Southern Oregon A's.
- Akai Fleming - father, Atibah, played basketball for the U.S. Virgin Islands national team before moving to Atlanta to attend Morris Brown College.
- Chas Kelley III - father was a walk-on at the University of Houston for two seasons before he was injured.

Baye One, Get One

Coming off the heels of a standout freshman year, Baye Ndongo developed into one of the ACC's best players once conference play began last season, especially when Tech's rotation became thinned by injury. The 6-9 forward finished the ACC regular season averaging a double-double in conference games (14.4 ppg, 10.2 rpg), one of two ACC players to accomplish that. He also ranked third in field goal percentage (.536), and among the top 5 in offensive rebounds per game and defensive rebounds per game.

Ndongo was the first Tech player to average a double-double in ACC play since 2000-01 (Alvin Jones) and only the third to do so (see list on page 10).

Despite battling foul trouble and more intense focus from opposing defenses, Ndongo improved his numbers during his sophomore season, averaging 13.4 points and 8.9 rebounds in all games.

- Ndongo also led the Jackets in blocked shots (24) and steals (22) in conference games. The sophomore led Tech in blocked shots (39) and was third in steals (35) in all games.

- Since Tech began competing in the ACC in 1979-80, there have been 14 games where a Yellow Jacket scored 15 points and pulled 15 rebounds, 10 of those came against ACC opponents. Ndongo had 3 of those in 2024-25 (15/16 vs. Stanford, 17/15 at Boston College). In that period, Moses Wright, the 2021 ACC Player of the Year, had 2.

Pre-Season Storylines for 2025-26

- 110 seasons - Georgia Tech has played 110 seasons of basketball, having compiled an all-time on-court record of 1,468-1,340 (22 wins and one loss from the 2016-17 and 2017-18 seasons were vacated by the NCAA Committee on Infractions) entering the 2025-26 season.

- Tech in the ACC - Tech has played 46 seasons as a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, having won the conference championship in 1985, 1990, 1993 and 2021. Prior to that, Tech competed in the Metro Conference for three seasons from 1975-78, was an independent from 1964-75, and was a member of the Southeastern Conference for 32 years from 1932-64, winning one title in 1938.

- Tech was projected to finish 13th in the ACC standings this season by a vote of the conference's official media panel. Tech has finished ahead of its media projection eight of the last nine seasons after finishing eighth in 2024-25.

- Tech's last two recruiting classes have been ranked 20th (2024 class) and 13th (2025 class).

- Damon Stoudamire is one of 21 head coaches at the NCAA Division I level that played in the NBA. (courtesy of Stephen Gorchov at Hofstra)

Jackets' Class of 2025 Ranked High

Four-star 6-4 guard Akai Fleming from Marietta, Ga. and three-star 6-5 guard/forward Brandon Stores Jr., from the Bronx, N.Y., highlight a four-player class of basketball prospects who signed grant-in-aid papers to join Georgia Tech's men's basketball program. Cole Kirouac, a 6-11 center from Cumming, Ga., and 5-11 point guard Eric Chatfield, Jr., from Atlanta also signed scholarship documents to attend Tech.

Fleming and Stores were nominated for the McDonald's All-America team.

Tech's class is ranked No. 13 in the nation, and No. 3 among Atlantic Coast Conference teams in the team rankings compiled by Rivals. It comes on the heels of the Yellow Jackets' 2024 freshman class, which was rated 20th-best in the nation.

Fleming, ranked No. 56 nationally by 247Sports, played the 2024-25 season at Overtime Elite after starring at Osborne High School in Marietta, Ga. As a junior at Osborne, Fleming scored 22 points per game to go with seven rebounds, four assists, two steals and one block per contest.

Game notes and bio updates are generally posted at least 24 hours prior to each game, while updated statistics and box scores are posted following each game.

ACC Coaches' Weekly Teleconference

The 18 ACC head basketball coaches will be featured via Zoom conference during the 2025-26 season, beginning in January and continuing through the final week of the regular season. Each coach will have 10 minutes to make an opening statement and answer questions.

Contact Andy Fledderjohann at the ACC media relations office (afledder@theacc.org) for the call-in number and for questions on the schedule.

Considered a three-star big guard/small forward prospect by the 247Sports Composite and the sixth-best player in the state of New York at the time of his commitment last February, Stores Jr., averaged 19.8 points per game as a sophomore and scored 18.2 points per game in 25 games last season at St. Raymond High School for Boys.

Kirouac, a three-star prospect last year and now, originally signed a letter-of-intent to attend Tech last fall while attending Brewster Academy in New Hampshire, but re-classified and decided to attend Overtime Elite in 2024-25.

As a senior at Pace Academy, Chatfield led his team to the AAA state finals, scoring 20 points in the championship game. He averaged 18.6 points, 4.2 assists, 2.5 steals and 2.5 rebounds as a senior.

Winning Starts at Home

Georgia Tech has compiled a 150-81 record at home in 13 seasons in McCamish Pavilion. Tech is 56-55 on its home court in ACC games, 43-32 over the past eight seasons.

Tech set a program record for wins at home (17) in 2016-17, including a 7-2 ACC record and two NIT victories.

McCamish Pavilion was essentially brand new when it opened for the 2012-13 season. The only physical elements of McCamish Pavilion that remain from the venerable Alexander Memorial Coliseum are the roof and the 32 steel ribs that support it.

The capacity of McCamish Pavilion is 8,600, including 1,665 seats in the new balcony level and 6,935 seats in the lower seating bowl. There are no suites, but there is a club area that seats 500. Alexander Memorial Coliseum seated 9,191 spectators in its final configuration.

The most impressive features of McCamish Pavilion are its grand entrance, which fronts 10th and Fowler Streets, the ability for patrons to view the court from the main concourse all the way around, and the theatrical lighting system, which concentrates light on the court while leaving the seating areas dark, modeled after the Staples Center in Los Angeles and Madison Square Garden in New York.

Prior to the opening of McCamish Pavilion, Tech played 55 seasons in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, compiling a record of 556-194 (.741). Miami was the last team to play Tech in Alexander Memorial Coliseum, a game Tech won, and was the first ACC team to play in McCamish Pavilion on Jan. 5, which Miami won. For the 2011-12 season, Tech played its home games at State Farm Arena and Gas South Arena.

2024-25 Review

- Georgia Tech finished the regular season in 8th place in the ACC standings, four slots ahead of the media's pre-season projections, and has finished ahead of the pre-season projection eight of the last nine years.

- Tech earned a first-round bye in the ACC Tournament for the first time since 2021, when the Yellow Jackets won their fourth ACC championship. It is the Yellow Jackets' second top-9 seed since the ACC expanded to 15 teams ahead of the 2013-14 season.

- Tech earned its most conference wins since 2020-21 (11-6) and had a .500 or better record in league play for the first time since then.

- Baye Ndongo was named third-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference, while Naithan George earned honorable mention. Duncan Powell was runner-up for the ACC's Sixth Man Award, and made the ACC all-tournament second team. George was fourth in the voting for the ACC's Most Improved Player Award.

- Tech finished the regular season 14-5 on its home court after beginning the season 2-3, and 8-2 in ACC games, having clinched its first winning home conference record since the 2020-21 season, when the Jackets were 8-1.

- This Tech team was the seventh in program history to win 14 or more games at home in a regular season, and the first since the 2016-17 season, when the Jackets were 17-4

- Tech, which stood 2-6 in the ACC at one point, won 8 of its last 13 dating back to its Feb. 1 win over Louisville.

- Tech won its first ACC Tournament game since its run to the 2021 championship.

- Tech's 17 wins matched the most for the program in a season since 2015-16, when the Yellow Jackets went 21-15 (Tech also won 21 games in 2016-17 though all those wins were vacated by the NCAA). Tech won 17 games in 2019-20 and 2020-21.

- Tech was the only ACC team to defeat both Clemson and Louisville, the teams tied for 2nd place in the standings, during the regular season. The Jackets stopped a 10-game winning streak by Louisville, who then won its next 11 games before falling to Duke in the ACC Championship game. Tech ended a 6-game win streak by Clemson, who responded by defeating Duke and North Carolina and won its next 9 in a row before falling to Louisville in the ACC Tournament semifinals.

- In his first two seasons at Tech, Damon Stoudamire's Yellow Jackets have beaten every ACC opponent - outside of three 2024-25 newcomers Cal, SMU and Stanford - at least once, and have beaten every current ACC opponent except SMU at least once. Only Clemson and Duke have beaten every other ACC team in the last two years, while Louisville, North Carolina and Wake Forest have defeated all but one.

Tech Returns to Post-Season

Georgia Tech returned to the post-season for the first time in four years to cap the 2024-25 campaign, receiving a bid to the National Invitation Tournament after winning 17 games during the regular season. The postseason appearance marked the 27th in Georgia Tech men's basketball history and 10th in the NIT.

Tech won five of its last seven regular season games to finish eighth in the Atlantic Coast Conference, earning a first-round bye for the first time since 2021. The Yellow Jackets went 8-5 after the calendar turned to February, including wins over two of the top three teams in the ACC standings, Louisville (77-70) and Clemson (89-86 in 3 overtimes). The Yellow Jackets split their two games in the ACC Tournament, defeating Virginia (66-60) in the second round before falling to No. 1 Duke (78-70) in the quarterfinals.

2025 ACC Tournament Recap

Georgia Tech won its first ACC Tournament game and advanced to the quarterfinals for the first time in four years before being eliminated by top-seeded Duke in a close game.

Duncan Powell scored 21 points, Baye Ndongo registered his ninth double-double in the last 11 games and Naithan George nearly recorded a triple-double, leading 8th-seeded Georgia Tech to a 66-60 win over No. 9 seed Virginia in the second round. The win was the Yellow Jackets' first over UVA since Jan. 9, 2016, snapping a nine-year, 13-game losing skid against the Cavaliers.

In the quarterfinals, Tech raced out to a 14-point lead in the first half, but top-seeded and No. 1-ranked Duke rallied to defeat the eighth-seeded Yellow Jackets, 78-70.

The Yellow Jackets dominated the action early in the game, making 10 of their first 21 shots while holding Duke to just six makes on 23 attempts, and Baye Ndongo's tip-in with 5:02 to go in the first half gave the Jackets a commanding 26-12 lead.

Tech led by five at the half (31-26), but Duke opened the second period with a 12-0 run to take a 38-31 advantage.

Duke stretched its lead to as many as 11 points, but the Yellow Jackets hung tough and cut the deficit to six on three occasions in the final 90 seconds before succumbing to the top-ranked Blue Devils.

Tech's NCAA Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in the NCAA Tournament 17 times in its history. Sixteen of those appearances have occurred from 1985 to the present, 10 under Bobby Cremins and five under Paul Hewitt.

The most recent was 2021, when the Yellow Jackets won the ACC Championship and earned an automatic bid, then fell 71-60 to Loyola Chicago in the opening round of the Midwest Regional.

That ended an 11-year hiatus from the NCAA Tournament that dated back to 2010, when the Yellow Jackets defeated Oklahoma State in the first round before losing to Ohio State in the round of 32 of the Midwest Regional.

Tech has a record of 23-17 in NCAA Tournament play, highlighted by its 2004 trip to the NCAA title game as well as a Final Four berth in 1990. The Yellow Jackets have reached the NCAA Sweet 16 seven times (1960, 1985, 1986, 1990, 1992, 1996, 2004).

The 2004 and 2005 appearances were Tech's first back-to-back appearances since Bobby Cremins led the Institute to the Big Dance nine straight years from 1985-93.

Georgia Tech has won at least one game in 11 of its 17 NCAA Tournament appearances.

Tech's ACC Tournament History

Georgia Tech has played in 45 ACC Tournaments and has a 30-41 all-time record in the event. The Yellow Jackets have won four championships, in 1985 (Atlanta), 1990 (Charlotte), 1993 (Charlotte) and 2021 (Greensboro).

Tech has been a runner-up four times (1986, 1996, 2005, 2010). The 1986, 1996 and 2010 runs to the finals occurred in Greensboro. Tech also made the finals in 2005 at the Verizon Center in Washington, D.C.

Tech was 0-2 in the ACC Tournament under coach Dwane Morrison, 15-16 under Bobby Cremins (including three titles), 9-11 under Paul Hewitt (runner-up in 2005 and 2010), 2-5 under Brian Gregory, 3-5 under Josh Pastner (won 2021 title) and 1-2 under Damon Stoudamire.

Tech did not play in the 2020 tournament while serving an NCAA postseason ban.

The Georgia Institute of Technology is the official title, but Georgia Tech will work fine, or just Tech (unless you're in Virginia or Texas). We would appreciate it if you would use our name in those ways. Georgia Tech University is incorrect. Thank you.

COACHING STAFF

Head Coach Damon Stoudamire • 3rd season at Tech

Well-known throughout the basketball world for his success as a player and coach at the collegiate and professional levels, Damon Stoudamire became the 15th head coach in Georgia Tech men's basketball history on March 14, 2023.

In his first year on The Flats, the former collegiate All-American and NBA standout remade the Tech roster and guided the Yellow Jackets to victories over three top-25 teams and wins over three ACC teams that advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament - Duke, North Carolina and Clemson.

In year two, he led a late-season surge in which the Yellow Jackets finished eighth in the ACC at 10-10, earning their highest regular-season finish, first ACC Tournament win and first post-season berth in four years.

Stoudamire came to Georgia Tech after most recently serving as an assistant coach of the Boston Celtics, who sat atop the NBA's Atlantic Division standings at the time of his hiring at Tech. He was with the Celtics for nearly two seasons (2021-22 and 2022-23), after a successful five-season stint as the head coach at Pacific (2016-21). At Pacific, he was named West Coast Conference Coach of the Year in 2020 after leading the Tigers to a 23-10 record in 2019-20, good for the program's best winning percentage (.697) in 15 years, and a third-place finish in the powerful WCC (behind only national powers Gonzaga and St. Mary's). He also was honored with the Ben Jobe Award, given annually to the nation's top minority head coach.

Stoudamire established himself as one of his generation's premier players when he was a three-time all-conference performer, the 1995 Pac 10 co-Player of the Year and a consensus first-team All-American at Arizona, where he played four seasons from 1991-95. After helping lead the Wildcats to the Final Four as a junior in 1994, he capped his collegiate career by averaging 22.8 points per game, en route to the co-conference Player of the Year and consensus first-team All-America recognition in 1995.

At the conclusion of his Arizona career, Stoudamire was the Wildcats' all-time leader in 3-pointers made (272) and ranked second in points (1,849) and fourth in assists (663). He was the only player in Arizona history with two 40-point games.

His amateur career also included helping lead the United States to the gold medal in the 1993 World University Games (where he led the team in assists and steals despite being the youngest player on the roster) and the bronze at the 1994 Goodwill Games.

Stoudamire was selected by the Toronto Raptors with the seventh overall pick in the 1995 NBA Draft and averaged 13.4 points and 6.1 assists per game over the course of a 13-year professional playing career that included stints with the Raptors (1995-98), Portland Trail Blazers (1998-05), Memphis Grizzlies (2005-08) and San Antonio Spurs (2008). He was named the 1996 NBA Rookie of the Year after averaging 19 points and 9.3 assists per game in his first NBA campaign.

Following the conclusion of his NBA playing career in 2008, Stoudamire immediately embarked on his coaching career, beginning as director of player development at Rice in 2008-09. He then went on to serve as an assistant coach with the Memphis Grizzlies for two seasons (2009-11), before getting back into the college game with stints as an assistant at Memphis (2011-13), his alma mater Arizona (2013-15) and again at Memphis (2015-16).

After helping lead Memphis and Arizona to four conference championships (two Conference USA titles at Memphis, two Pac-12 crowns at Arizona) and four NCAA Tournament berths (including back-to-back Elite Eight appearances at Arizona) in six seasons, Stoudamire was hired as the head coach at Pacific in 2016. He inherited a program coming off an 8-20 campaign and built it into a WCC contender, highlighted by the 23-10 campaign in 2019-20. The Tigers' 11-5 conference record that season remains their most-ever wins in WCC play.

After posting a 9-9 overall record during the Covid-shortened 2020-21 season, Stoudamire returned to the NBA as an assistant coach for the Celtics. In his first season in Boston, he helped lead the Celtics to the 2022 NBA Finals. The Celtics stood in first place in the Atlantic Division and in second both in the Eastern Conference and in the NBA's overall league standings at the time he took the Tech position. With Boston, he coached a pair of metro-Atlanta natives in Malcolm Brogdon (Norcross, Ga.) and Jaylen Brown (Alpharetta, Ga.).

A Portland, Ore. native, Stoudamire, 51, graduated from Woodrow Wilson High School in 1991 and earned his bachelor's degree from Arizona in 2008. He has a daughter, Kemeco, and two sons, Damon and Brandon.
