MEN'S TENNIS NOTES

Georgia Tech Men's Tennis finished the 2024-25 campaign with a 12-12 overall record, racking up nine home wins and five victories in ACC play.

The Jackets notched seven non-conference wins to open the season, including a 4-1 opening round victory over Arkansas during the ITA Kickoff Weekend. Tech's ranked wins included No. 35 Notre Dame (4-1) and No. 53 North Carolina (4-0) at home with a road victory over No. 61 SMU (4-3).

The Jackets' season concluded after a 4-2 loss to Louisville in the ACC Championships.

In the final ITA Division I National Rankings, the team was ranked No. 51, and junior transfer Christophe Clement locked down the No. 99 spot in the final singles rankings. Nate Bonetto and Gianluca Carlini finished as the No. 17 doubles tandem, while Clement and Krish Arora ranked 78th in the final doubles ranking of the season.

2025 Recap

Georgia Tech (12-12, 5-8 ACC) opened the 2025 season with a 5-2 victory over Charlotte before dropping to No. 19 Alabama 5-2 on the road. The Jackets bounced back with a doubleheader 7-0 sweep over Wofford before taking down Arkansas 4-1 in the first round of the ITA Kickoff Weekend. Hosts #1 Texas swept Tech 4-0 before Jackets delivered a 7-0 win over intricacy squad Georgia State.

The Jackets dropped a tight 4-2 battle at Georgia before uncorking a six-match winning streak. Tech closed out non-conference play with home wins over UNC Wilmington (4-2) and The Citadel (7-0). Tech began ACC play with No. 35 Notre Dame and dismantled their backcourt with singles wins coming on Courts 4-6 to win 4-1.

Tech defeated Louisville 4-1 at home before facing new conference member #61 SMU on the road. Tech turned a 3-1 deficit around with wins on Courts 2 and 4 before freshman Gianluca Carlini sealed the comeback road victory 4-3. The Jackets followed up by blanking Boston College 4-0 to improve their ACC record to 4-0. Tech dropped to #11 Duke 4-1 before sweeping #53 North Carolina 4-0. Tight road losses to #34 Miami and #37 Florida State followed before hosting two top-ten squads in #6 NC State and #1 Wake Forest, dropping both matches 4-1.

#6 Virginia swept GT 4-0 before the Jackets also dropped to Virginia Tech 5-2 and #24 Clemson 4-0. Tech was tasked with #59 Louisville in the opening round of the ACC Championship. Despite singles wins from Gabriele Brancatelli and Christophe Clement, the season ended following a 4-2 loss.

Singles Update

Georgia Tech finished the 2024-25 season with a 106-93 (.533) overall record in singles action, going 63-50 (.558) in dual matches.

Nate Bonetto led the White and Gold with 16 appearances on Court 1, notching 13 victories on the season. Bonetto claimed eight dual-match victories, six coming on Court 1 and two on Court 2. He secured two ranked wins, including a crucial Court 1 win over Georgia's No. 53 Ryan Colby in Athens in 6-3, 6-4 fashion. He achieved a season-high ranking at No. 90 in the ITA Singles Rankings.

Gabriele Brancatelli held down the No. 2 spot in singles play throughout most of the season, racking up 12 total wins with appearances on Courts 1-3. He won eight dual matches with four ACC victories, ending his Tech career with a ranked win over Louisville's #89 Will Mayew 6-2, 7-6 (3) in the ACC Championships First Round.

Christophe Clement made an impact in his first season on The Flats with a team-leading 23 wins across the full season and 16 spring wins. He was nearly spotless in ACC play at 9-1 and took wins across Courts 1-4. Most of his conference wins came on Courts 3 and 4, winning his Court 1 debut in straight sets vs. Wofford and winning his first ACC match on Court 2 at Virginia Tech. His win over #6 NC State's #23 Martin Borisouk, 6-2, 6-2, was one of the strongest performances of the whole season. He also ended the season unbeaten in 14 of his final 15 matches and finished as the 99th-ranked player in the ITA Singles Rankings.

Krish Arora secured 12 wins in his last season with the Jackets, taking singles wins on Courts 2-5 and featuring predominantly on Courts 3-4. He defeated #115 Jerry Barton of #61 SMU 6-3, 6-3 when Tech made its 4-3 comeback on the road.

Freshman Gianluca Carlini sprang onto the scene and found success with 20 victories in year one. He was undefeated on Court 6 at 4-0 and notched five wins on Court 5 and two on Court 4. He earned six ACC wins and eleven total dual match victories.

Richard Biagiotti enjoyed a solid campaign with 13 wins across the backcourts including five Court 6 victories. The sophomore won nine dual matches.

Doubles Update

Doubles enjoyed four different pairings in the ITA rankings poll throughout the season and combined to go 54-46 (.540) and 32-24 in the spring (.571). The squad went 14-10 in the doubles round of dual matches, 7-7 in ACC play.

Nate Bonetto and freshman Gianluca Carlini established themselves as the team's No. 1 pairing after going 7-1 to start the year on Court 2. They racked up a team-leading 18 total wins. The tandem had five total Court 1 wins and three ranked victories, two over top-15 ranked duos. They were named to the All-ACC Doubles Third Team and finished as the No. 17 doubles team in the nation and ranked as high as #11 during the season.

Junior transfer Christophe Clement and Krish Arora teamed up and began as one of the hottest doubles teams in the nation, coming into the spring ranked as the No. 19 pairing and claiming 12 total wins with a team-leading seven Court 1 wins. They finished as the No. 78 doubles pairing in the nation.

Newcomers on The Flats

Byers Men's Tennis Head Coach Kenny Thorne and the team added two new Jackets to the roster for the 2025-26 season. Newcomers include junior transfer Jonathan Irwanto and freshman Hidde Schoenmakers.

Irwanto enters the Tech program after two seasons at California, compiling 23 singles wins and 15 doubles wins in seasons in the Pac-12 and ACC conferences. The Miami Shores, Florida, native claimed 17 singles wins in his freshman season, appearing in Courts 3-6 and making Pac-12 singles lineups on Courts 5-6.

Irwanto achieved a career-best ITF junior ranking of 88 and was a five-star recruit. He was the 13th-ranked recruit in the Class of 2023 and No. 4 from the state of Florida. Irwanto also won an ITF junior title, J5 Cancun (hard), and doubles title, J3 Delray Beach (clay). He comes into the spring of 2026 with a 10.02 ITF WTN, the third-highest on the team.

Schoenmakers begins his collegiate career as the No. 54 ranked junior in the ITF rankings, peaking at No. 45 following his run in the 2025 U.S. Open Juniors Championship. He was 101-45 in ITF play and won six junior singles titles and 10 doubles titles from 2023 to 2025. The Dutch native also reached the Junior Davis Cup Finals with his home nation. He comes into the spring of 2026 with a 11.31 ITF WTN, the fourth-highest on the team.

Irwanto joins a team of five upperclassmen and fellow juniors Richard Biagiotti and Owen DeMuth. Schoenmakers is one of two underclassmen and will be the only freshman on the squad.

Tech's NCAA History

Georgia Tech reached the NCAA Championship three straight years from 2015 to 2017, falling in the opening round of the 2015 regional in Oxford, Miss., and falling in the second round in both 2016 and 2017. Tech revived their qualifying streak after missing the 2018 NCAA Championships, making appearances in 2019, 2021, and 2022. The 2020 championship was cancelled due to COVID-19. Tech returned to the NCAA Championships in 2024, after missing the 2023 tournament.

Those were Tech's first bids since 2011, when the Yellow Jackets hosted a regional and advanced to the round of 16 by defeating Middle Tennessee State and Mississippi State. Tech then lost to No. 2 seed USC in Stanford, Calif. That marks the only time Tech has made it out of a regional in the current format of the championship. Tech has made the NCAA Championship field 15 times under head coach Kenny Thorne and 19 times in program history. The Jackets' deepest run in the NCAA's came in 1994, when Tech won three matches before being eliminated.

Tech's ACC Championship History

Tech has reached the finals four times, two of those under head coach Kenny Thorne in 1999 and 2002. The Jackets also reached the championship match in Thorne's senior year of 1988 and again in 1994. The Jackets made it to the ACC Tournament quarterfinals for a fourth straight season in 2018 and reached the semifinals and earned the fourth seed in 2017. In 2021, the Jackets returned to the quarterfinals. After finishing the regular season with just three conference wins, Tech had a great run in the 2022 ACC tournament but ultimately fell in the semifinals.

Jackets in the Pros

Former Yellow Jacket and two-time ACC Player of the Year Christopher Eubanks earned some of the international spotlight in recent years with his performances at the U.S. and French Opens and announced his retirement on November 17, 2025.

Eubanks teamed up with fellow American Mackenzie McDonald in the U.S. Open Doubles Tournament at the beginning of September, with the duo making it all the way to the quarterfinals. Eubanks and McDonald topped Japanese player Ben McLachlan and U.K. player Luke Bambridge to start the tournament in a 6-3, 6-2 match. Eubanks/McDonald won 12 games to five in the matchup, with three aces and a 78% win on first serve performance.

Eubanks then made a deep Wimbledon run in 2023, advancing to his first-ever Grand Slam quarterfinal.

Eubanks' extraordinary run ended in a five-set battle with Daniil Medvedev, as the No. 3 seed rallied for a 6-4, 1-6, 4-6, 7-6 (4), 6-1 win. To reach the quarterfinals, Eubanks defeated two top-15 seeds and was one set away from his highest-ranked win in his career against Medvedev (defeating No. 5 Stefanos Tsitsipas on July 10 marks his career high). He also broke a 31-year record (set by Andre Agassi in 1992) for most winners hit during a single year at Wimbledon with 321.

Eubanks became the fifth American and 14th player overall in the Open Era (since 1968) to reach the Wimbledon quarterfinals in his main draw debut. The former Yellow Jacket joined the likes of Jimmy Connors (1972), John McEnroe (1977), Tim Mayotte (1981), and Paul Annacone (1984) in the elite club of Americans. The 27-year-old's run was one for the record books for a multitude of reasons, also including that he was the first Black American man to reach the Wimbledon quarters in 27 years.

Eubanks stepped into the spotlight earlier that year when he reached the quarterfinals at the Miami Open. Just two weeks ago, the Atlanta native won his first career ATP Tour title, capturing the Mallorca Championships.

KEN BYERS TENNIS COMPLEX

A lot of history was made in the Bill Moore Tennis Center. Some of the greatest players in Georgia Tech history took to those courts and improved their games to the point they could reach the pro tour.

Current Georgia Tech men's tennis head coach Kenny Thorne is one of those. He played and coached there in his four decorated years on the Flats (1985-89).

In January of 2013, Thorne witnessed the opening of the Ken Byers Tennis Complex, as the women's tennis team opened the facility with a match against Syracuse and men's team opened a day later against Old Dominion. In a way, it was déjà vu for Thorne, who was a freshman the year the Moore Center opened.

"It's just a very unique thing. It's an honor to be coaching here at this time, and it's an honor for all of our student-athletes to have opened a new facility," said the 1989 graduate and 1995 Georgia Tech Sports Hall of Fame inductee. "That doesn't happen too often in any sport. It's very exciting."

Women's head coach Rodney Harmon, whose team played the first matches on the brand new six-court facility, who was beginning his first season on the Flats, has been around the sport long enough to know something special when he sees it. He's seen it with the Byers Complex.

Ground was broken for the facility on June 15, 2012 and was made possible by a generous gift from alumnus Ken Byers (class of '66) and his wife, Trish.

"It's going to help both our men's and women's programs stay a factor with the other schools, in our very, very tough conference," said Harmon, who has been in tennis player development for more than 25 years and, as a pro, reached the quarterfinals at the 1982 U.S. Open. "It has a great feeling, which I think will help us set up a home-court advantage because a lot of our fans tend to be very vocal and really support our team."

As advantageous to the team is the amount of space. Off the court, Byers has bigger locker rooms, a lounge, a training facility and more office space for the coaching staffs. The number of available courts for play inside doubled from three to six.

"It allows us to compete year-round, and when the weather gets inclement, both teams have a place to play," Harmon said. "We've always had to play outside, and it can get pretty cold sometimes. Now we're going to be able to play indoors and really get prepared for the indoor season, which starts in February."

The doubling of the court space was a key factor in building the new complex.

"You need space and you need quality space and if that means new or renovations then so be it," said former associate athletic director Paul Griffin. "Now, we have an efficient way of running our indoor matches, and because of the weather you wind up playing almost half of your matches indoors be it for wet or for cold."

Thorne and Harmon agree that the opening of the Byers Complex signaled the start of big things ahead. Thorne compared the anticipation of the facility's opening to the buzz surrounding the opening of McCamish Pavilion and expects Tech tennis fans to be as energized as basketball fans.

"It's such a big change and ours is a total change," said Thorne. "It's a whole brand-new complex. There are some really exciting things happening. So hopefully it's going to draw a lot more people out. They come see the facility as well as some great tennis."

Harmon expects the facility to also draw some big-name recruits.

"It's going to give us an opportunity to recruit top-level athletes because now a lot of the top schools have new facilities around the country, whether it's Alabama or Florida State or South Carolina, Texas is getting a new facility built," he said. "So now we have a new facility. It's something that to our recruits that makes us a lot stronger."

Both programs are seeing the benefits when it comes to recruiting top talent to Georgia Tech. The women's recruiting class was ranked sixth-best in the nation in 2018, as was the men's 2019 recruiting class, according to tennisrecruiting.net.

The Byers Complex, built on the same footprint where the Moore Center stood, is light years ahead of its predecessor and was overdue as far as keeping Tech's programs current. The ingenuity in building a facility that could fit so much more into the same space as its predecessor made this project design uniquely Tech.

The former three-court indoor tennis facility was replaced with a state-of-the-art six-court indoor facility. The new steel indoor facility is located next to Tenth Street, just behind the magnolias. It features an entrance lobby, men's and women's coaches offices, men's and women's locker rooms and a team lounge. The indoor facility retains the Bill Moore name and provides seating a little more than 200 spectators.

Since the space opened, Georgia Tech has played host to a number of invitationals, as well as the 2018 ITA Southeast Regionals.

The outdoor part of the complex consists of six competition courts on the south end of the site and four practice courts located between the indoor facility and the competition courts. A landscaped courtyard area was added between the practice courts and Fowler Street. Outdoor seating, situated between the Griffin Track and the competition courts, provides a view of both competition on the track and action on the tennis courts and includes plenty of space for wheelchair seating. Additionally, an East-West Connector provides a lighted walkway for pedestrians along the track-side of the site to facilitate movement between the North Campus Parking Deck and the McCamish Pavilion.

"Thirty years is a long time," said Griffin. "It's not a matter of different inclusions. It's a matter of improved space. It's a tight footprint. The real estate didn't change, so we had to make some compromises on that and one of the other things was to relocate the indoor facility to the 10th street side of the real estate because it will serve as a buffer from the noise and street from 10th street for the outdoor courts that wasn't there before. So there are a lot of those kinds of features that are now a benefit for the program."

"It has a bunch of other features that are assets to the Institute and to athletics in other ways than just tennis," he added. "There's a seating area for track, a pathway from the parking lot to McCamish Pavilion (Tech's basketball arena across Fowler Street), a parking lot on Atlantic to McCamish, improved sidewalks and streetscapes. So it's a very comprehensive project."

For the school, it's the latest improvement to the campus' Fowler Street entrance, which also includes Mewborn Softball

Field and the Brock Indoor Football Facility.

That exciting plan will continue to evolve in years to come. The tennis teams are thrilled to be part of it and are eager to do their part to stir up excitement around campus as they begin spring play.

"It is a tremendous commitment," said Harmon. "That whole side of campus, with the new basketball arena, with the tennis facility, with the track and the indoor football complex and baseball and softball, it's now a great corner of campus."

BYERS MEN'S TENNIS HEAD COACH

KENNY THORNE

GEORGIA TECH, 1988
28TH SEASON (2025-26)
15 NCAA TOURNAMENTS
345-296 RECORD

Kenny Thorne recorded one of the most successful tennis careers by a player from the state of Georgia, winning seven pro titles and defeating four of the world's top-10 players in the 1990's. Some of Thorne's notable victories include wins over Richard Krajicek, Wayne Ferreira, Mark Philippoussis and Todd Martin. As a pro, he achieved his highest singles ranking of No. 121 and a doubles ranking of No. 67. Thorne brings his love of tennis and impressive professional playing experience to his alma mater, Georgia Tech.

Charged with building the Georgia Tech tennis program back to the level it was when he was a player, Thorne was named to the newly-created position of Director of Tennis on June 30, 1998, becoming the ninth head coach in Tech men's tennis history. Thorne took over the reins of the Tech program after spending one season as the team's assistant coach and wasted little time in taking steps toward his ultimate goal of turning the Yellow Jackets into contenders.

The Yellow Jackets have reached the NCAA Tournament 15 times in his 27 seasons at the helm, seven of those have advanced past the opening round. Tech made it back for the third straight year in 2017 with its best record since 2011 (18-8, 8-4 ACC). After a two-year absence, the 2010 and 2011 teams reached the second and third rounds of the tournament, respectively, finished fourth in the Atlantic Coast Conference each time (15-7 record), while posting a combined 39-14 dual match record.

During the 2016 season, Thorne surpassed the legendary Tech coach Earle Bortell (228-108-2) for most career coaching victories in the Yellow Jackets' program history. Thorne now has 345 victories over 27 seasons against 284 losses. In 2017 he was named the ACC Coach of the Year after coaching Tech to the fourth seed in the ACC Championships and bringing the team to a season-high ranking of No. 12.

Thorne has developed two of the best singles players in Tech history, Guillermo Gomez (2008-11) and Christopher Eubanks (2014-17), both of whom earned ACC Player of the Year honors. Eubanks became the fifth player in program history to be named a two-time All-American as well as becoming the first Yellow Jacket and fifth ACC player to ever earn ACC Player of the Year twice. In addition to ranking in the top five all-time in career singles wins, season wins, dual match wins and dual double match wins, he also became the first active Yellow Jacket to gain entry into the 2017 U.S. Open main draw.

He has also developed two of the best doubles players in Tech history, Juan Spir, who advanced to the NCAA Doubles Championship semifinals in 2012 and quarterfinals in 2013 with different partners. Spir and Kevin King, Spir's doubles partner for 75 of his Tech-record 103 victories, played in the NCAA Singles Championship as well.

Under Thorne's guidance, Tech had at least one ITA All-American every year from 2009-13, and has had at least one All-Atlantic Coast Conference honoree each year since 2008.

Tech's 2011 team finished the year ranked 13th in the nation and reached the round of 16 at the NCAA Championship, both high-water marks for Tech tennis under Thorne. Tech's 21 wins in 2011 were the most for the Jackets under Thorne and the second most in the history of the program.

As a result, the Tech alum was named the ITA National Coach of the Year, becoming only the fourth Georgia Tech head coach ever to receive such an honor.

Thorne built those Tech squads around four-time All-ACC honoree Gomez, who was named the ACC Player of the Year in 2011 and earned ITA All-American honors three times, and broke Thorne's record for career singles victories. He also recruited another pair of ITA All-Americans in King and Spir, who formed one of the top 10 doubles teams nationally and developed into top-of-the-lineup players in singles, both earning NCAA bids in 2012.

Tech's last three teams in 2015, 2016 and 2017 have been built around Eubanks, a five-star junior player from Atlanta who has helped the Jackets earn NCAA Championship appearances each year and a 49-29 overall record, while Eubanks himself rose to No. 4 in the ITA singles rankings.

Thirteen of Thorne's Tech teams have finished the spring ranked among the top 50 in the ITA team rankings, and eight of them have finished in the top half of the perennially powerful Atlantic Coast Conference.

He has coached 10 different players to All-ACC honors 21 times, and three of his players have been named ACC Player of the Year. Nine different players have earned

ITA All-America honors.

Also under Thorne's watch, 13 players have earned bids to the NCAA Singles Championship and eight have made the NCAA Doubles Championship field. Other highlights include:

- During the 2003 campaign, Georgia Tech earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament and climbed into the 14th spot in the national rankings midway through the year. The Jackets also boasted their first All-America honorees since 1988, as the doubles team of Roger Anderson and Scott Schnugg earned the honor after finishing the year as the country's 10th-ranked tandem. The duo also earned All-ACC honors after winning the league's Flight One Doubles title. Tech finished with a 12-10 record and notched seven wins over ranked opponents, including a 4-2 victory over ninth-ranked Texas on February 16.
- In 2002, Tech defeated eight ranked teams and reached the finals of the ACC Championship, en route to a 15-11 dual-match record, while also reaching the NCAA Tournament for the third time in four years under Thorne. In the ACC Tournament, the Jackets upset top-seeded and 14th-ranked Duke in the semifinals by a 4-0 score and ended the Blue Devils four-year reign as ACC Champions. On an individual level, Roger Anderson earned All-ACC honors for the second time and earned his first berth in the NCAA Individual Championship, becoming the first Tech player to do so since 1999. During the 2000-01 season, Thorne made great strides toward achieving his goal. When the Yellow Jackets climbed to No. 20 in the national rankings on April 11, they claimed their highest ranking since 1988, when Thorne was an All-American and team captain.
- Thorne led the 2001 Yellow Jackets to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Roger Anderson earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors and three Tech players earned ACC Flight championships in singles or doubles.
- Under Thorne's guidance in 2000, Anderson became the first Tech player to earn ACC Rookie of the Year honors after leading the Yellow Jackets with a 24-8 singles record, including a 15-5 mark in dual matches.
- In his first year as head coach in 1999, Thorne earned ACC Coach of the Year honors after guiding the Yellow Jackets to a second-place tie in the regular-season conference standings, a runner-up finish at the ACC Tournament, an NCAA Regional berth and a final national ranking of 32 by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA). Senior Benjamin Cassaigne was named the ACC Player of the Year, earned all-conference honors and captured the ACC Flight Championship at No. 1 singles.
- With Tech's 1999 NCAA Regional berth, Thorne became the first person in ACC history and just the second nationally, joining LSU's Jeff Brown, to lead the same school to post-season competition as a player, assistant coach and head coach since the current NCAA team dual-match format was instituted in 1977. (Prior to 1977, team finishes were determined by an accumulation of points based on individual play.) Thorne helped Tech to NCAA play as a senior in 1988, as an assistant coach in 1998 and as head coach in 1999.

Thorne earned an Industrial Engineering degree from Tech in 1989 and during his four seasons as a player from 1985-88, the Jackets posted a 70-38 dual-match record and a 20-7 ACC mark, including wins over nationally-ranked foes such as Georgia and Clemson in 1988, his final season. Tech climbed as high as 10th in the ITA national rankings during Thorne's senior season before the Jackets ended the year ranked 12th nationally.

He qualified for the NCAA singles tournament in 1986 and 1988 and advanced to the second round on both occasions. Thorne also competed in the 1988 NCAA doubles tourney with partner Bryan Shelton. After turning professional in 1989, Thorne spent eight years on the tour, achieving his highest singles ranking of 121 and doubles ranking of 67 in the world. He was also a six-time participant at Wimbledon, the U.S. Open, French Open and Australian Open.

Thorne's best career wins were over 1996 Wimbledon champion Richard Krajicek, ATP No. 11 Wayne Ferreira, Australia's Mark Philippoussis and Todd Martin of the United States. He posted two career ATP doubles titles, one career Challenger singles title and four career Challenger doubles titles.

An All-American in 1988, Thorne finished his Georgia Tech playing career as a four-time All-ACC honoree and the career leader in singles victories with 112. He was also a two-time captain and an Academic All-ACC honoree. Thorne was inducted into the Georgia Tech Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995.

Thorne married former Yellow Jacket cross country standout and Tech Hall of Fame inductee, Bridget Koster, in 1990. The couple has two daughters, Rachel and Kenedy, and two sons, Zachary and Daniel. Rachel was a distance runner on the Tech track team.

ADMINISTRATION / EXECUTIVE & SENIOR STAFF

RYAN ALPERT

VICE PRESIDENT/
DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
X: @RGALPERT

Georgia Tech named Ryan Alpert, a seasoned collegiate athletics executive and one of the nation's most respected leaders in revenue generation and athletic operations, as vice president and director of athletics in July 2025. Alpert came to The Flats after serving as senior deputy athletics director and chief revenue officer at the University of Tennessee.

Alpert brings to Georgia Tech nearly two decades of leadership experience across the Southeastern Conference and beyond, with a track record of success in fundraising, capital project management, external affairs, and strategic planning.

At Tennessee, Alpert played a central role in the Volunteers' rise to national prominence across multiple sports. He helped lead the department to its highest-ever finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup and to three consecutive SEC All-Sports Championships. As a senior executive, he oversaw business and finance, development, marketing, ticketing, capital projects, sponsorships, and more — collectively helping Tennessee Athletics increase its annual revenue by over $100 million since 2022. In fiscal year 2024 alone, the department generated a record $228 million in operating revenue and raised nearly $140 million through the Tennessee Fund.

Alpert also served as the lead on the Neyland Entertainment District, a transformative public-private partnership that is revitalizing Knoxville's riverfront and enhancing the game day experience around Neyland Stadium.

Alpert's previous leadership roles include deputy athletic director at the University of Missouri and Florida Atlantic University, where he helped engineer record-setting fundraising results and led strategic initiatives across external operations. He also served in development and leadership positions at the University of Memphis, where he played a key role in securing some of the largest gifts in the school's athletics history.

Originally from Columbia, South Carolina, Alpert holds a bachelor's degree from the University of South Carolina and a master's degree from the University of Memphis. He and his wife, Rebecca, have two daughters, Mary Margaret and Annie.

ASSOCIATE VICE PRESIDENT/EXECUTIVE DEPUTY ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Brent Jones, who led Troy University athletics to unprecedented success in six years as the Trojans' director of athletics, was appointed as associate vice president and executive deputy athletics director at Georgia Tech in August 2025.

Jones spent eight-plus years at Troy (March 2017-July 2025), including the last six as senior vice chancellor and director of athletics. In his six years as A.D. (June 2019-July 2025), Troy won 10 Sun Belt Conference championships (regular season and tournament). The titles included two regular-season West Division championships and two Sun Belt Football Championship Game victories in the past three seasons. Additionally, in 2024-25, the Trojans won both regular-season and conference tournament championships in men's basketball, earning a berth in the 2025 NCAA Tournament.

The Trojans also excelled in several other sports under Jones' watch. The baseball program spent parts of the 2024 and 2025 seasons ranked in the top 25, including every week of the 2025 campaign, when it reached as high as a program-record No. 14 in the national rankings. Troy's women's basketball program won the 2020 Sun Belt Conference championship, the 2021 East Division and tournament championships and the 2022 regular-season title, and experienced its greatest postseason success with a WNIT semifinal appearance in 2024 and berth in the WNIT title game in 2025. The men's golf program also experienced its best season of its Division I era in 2025, advancing to the NCAA Championship.

The success of Jones' tenure at Troy was buoyed by strong coaching hires. Four of the seven head coaches that he hired either won conference championships and/or made postseason appearances within the first two years of their appointments, with three (football, baseball and men's golf) programs earning national rankings.

Record-breaking fundraising and revenue generation were a staple of Jones' time at Troy, as the Trojans set records for total fundraising, major gifts, corporate-sponsorship revenue, licensing revenue and tickets during his six years at the helm. Troy's brand continued to rise with new officially licensed merchandise from premium brands and expansion of overall market placement. The Trojans also launched their first officially licensed consumables with their first craft beer, as well as the first officially licensed bourbons and wines in the state of Alabama.

In collaboration with university leadership, Troy invested significantly into athletic capital projects, including the newly renovated Riddle-Pace Field (baseball), a soon-to-be completed indoor practice facility, investments in soccer and volleyball playing surfaces, installation of the largest baseball and softball videoboards in the Sun Belt, investments in the tennis complex to include better branding, resurfacing of courts and new scoreboard, as well as a brand new videoboard at the soccer/track complex that comes online in fall of 2025.

Jones was promoted to A.D. at Troy after nearly two-and-a-half years as deputy A.D. for external operations. Prior to his eight-plus years at Troy, he also spent time in the athletics administrations at Southern Miss (associate A.D./marketing and communications — 2011-2015; senior associate A.D./external affairs — 2015-17), Georgia Southern (director/Eagle Sports Marketing — 2006-10; assistant A.D./Eagle Sports Marketing — 2010-11) and Ole Miss (athletics intern — 2004; graduate assistant/sports marketing — 2005; director of gameday operations for marketing — 2005-06).

His long list of professional honors includes being selected to serve as chair of the Sun Belt Athletics Directors Committee and being appointed to the FBS Athletics Directors' Association board of directors and NCAA Women's Basketball Oversight Committee. He also served on the board for the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

An Atlanta-area native, Jones grew up in Stone Mountain, Ga. He played college baseball at UNC Asheville, Augusta State and Oglethorpe University in Atlanta, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in history (secondary education minor). He earned a master's degree in education from Ole Miss.

Jones and his wife, Tracey, have a son, Jaxson, and a daughter, Payton Grace.

ADMINISTRATION / EXECUTIVE & SENIOR STAFF

DR. ÁNGEL CABRERA

INSTITUTE PRESIDENT

B.S./M.S., UNIVERSIDAD
POLITÉCNICA DE MADRID
M.S./PH.D., GEORGIA TECH

Ángel Cabrera is the 12th president of the Georgia Institute of Technology, one of America's leading research universities, serving more than 55,000 students and conducting more than $1.4 billion in annual sponsored research.

Since Cabrera's arrival in the fall of 2019, enrollment has grown to an all-time high, admission applications have broken Institute and state levels, and the undergraduate program has become the third most-selective among public universities. Offering best-in-class graduation rates and career outcomes, coupled with lower tuition and fees than most other leading research universities, Georgia Tech is consistently recognized for offering one of the best returns on investment for students.

Georgia Tech's research enterprise has also experienced considerable growth since 2019. With more than $1.4 billion in annual research expenditures, the Institute ranks among the top 20 most research-intensive universities in the nation and is No. 1 among institutions without a medical school.

Georgia Tech's unprecedented growth stems from a 10-year strategic plan that was developed under Cabrera's leadership with the participation of more than 5,700 members of the Institute community and adopted in November 2020. In the plan, titled "Progress and Service for All," Georgia Tech pledges to amplify its impact and lead by example in a mission to develop leaders who advance technology and improve the human condition.

During Cabrera's presidency, Georgia Tech has continued to build on two decades of progress in transforming the neighborhoods surrounding its campus into thriving hubs of innovation and entrepreneurship. In 2023, the third and final phase of Tech Square broke ground with the construction of the George and Scheller Towers, and Science Square Labs was completed in 2024 — the first phase of a new district on Atlanta's westside dedicated to medical technology research and innovation.

Cabrera came to Georgia Tech after serving for seven years as president of George Mason University (GMU) in Virginia. During his presidency, GMU joined the top tier of research universities in the Carnegie Classification, became the largest and fastest-growing institution in the state, launched numerous academic and research programs, and established a campus in South Korea. Before GMU, Cabrera was president of the Thunderbird School of Global Management, now part of Arizona State University, and dean of IE Business School in Madrid.

As a business educator, Cabrera played a key role in advancing professional ethics, internationalization, and corporate social responsibility. In 2007, while serving as a senior advisor to the United Nations Global Compact, he was the lead author of the "Principles for Responsible Management Education" (PRME). A United Nations-supported initiative that advances sustainable development through management education, PRME has been adopted by more than 800 schools around the world. He is also a co-founder of the University Global Coalition, a global network of universities working in partnership with the United Nations in support of its Sustainable Development Goals.

Cabrera has been named a "Young Global Leader" by the World Economic Forum, a "Star of Europe" by Bloomberg Businessweek, a "Henry Crown Fellow" by the Aspen Institute, and a "Great Immigrant" by the Carnegie Corporation of New York. He has received honorary degrees from Miami Dade College and Universidad Politécnica de Madrid.

Cabrera earned his M.S. and Ph.D. in psychology and cognitive science from Georgia Tech, which he attended as a Fulbright Scholar. He also holds a B.S. and an M.S. in computer and electrical engineering from Universidad Politécnica de Madrid. His academic publications have been cited thousands of times.

He is married to management scholar and Georgia Tech classmate, Elizabeth. Their son, Alex, is a graduate of Georgia Tech and Carnegie Mellon University, and their daughter, Emilia, is a graduate of Harvard University. Cabrera is the first native of Spain to serve as president of an American university.

DR. JENNA JORDAN

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

President Ángel Cabrera named Jenna Jordan, associate professor and associate chair in the Sam Nunn School of International Affairs, as faculty athletics representative (FAR) to the Georgia Tech Athletic Association (GTAA) in May 2022.

The FAR serves as the liaison between the Institute and the Athletic Association on issues regarding rules compliance activities, new developments at the NCAA, and activities related to Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) membership. This is a part-time administrative position appointed for a term of three years. Jordan was appointed to a second three-year term as Georgia Tech's FAR in June 2025.

"Professor Jordan is not just an accomplished scholar but an exemplary educator who cares deeply about the growth and well-being of our students," said Cabrera. "She has made a difference these past years as a faculty guide with the Stamps President's Scholars, and I have no doubt she will have a similar impact in supporting the academic experience of our student-athletes and serving as an effective liaison between our faculty and our athletic program."

Jordan has been a Georgia Tech faculty member since 2012. Her research focuses on terrorism and political violence, international security, cybersecurity, wargaming, organizational theory, and statecraft. Her work has been published by Stanford University Press and in International Security, Security Studies, Conflict Management and Peace Science, the Journal of Cybersecurity, and International Trends as well as The New York Times, The Atlantic, the Chicago Tribune, Foreign Policy, and The Washington Quarterly. She holds a Ph.D. in political science from the University of Chicago, an M.A. in political science from Stanford University, and a B.A. in international relations from Mills College.

"Serving as faculty athletics representative is a unique opportunity to address the challenges facing student-athletes, and I am excited to be able to help guide their experience at Georgia Tech," she said. "I recognize the importance of building bridges across the Institute, and I hope to create new opportunities to facilitate meaningful student-athlete interaction, continuing the efforts of my FAR predecessors who fiercely advocated for and mentored our student-athletes. And I will continue to foster a culture of mentorship and support among the faculty and our student-athletes."
