STORYLINES

The Starting Lineup...

• Georgia Tech treks north to face Pitt Thursday night in the midst of its final road trip of the regular season. The battle with the Panthers is game two of three in this stretch and comes after a heart-breaking 67-65 double-overtime loss at Clemson last week.

• Erica Moon took over against the Tigers with a career-high 22 points (including 17 in the second half and two overtime periods). Brianna Turnage added a career-best 20 rebounds, marking her seventh-straight game collecting double-digit boards and the most by a Jacket since Dec. 1, 2021. Talayah Walker also remained consistent with 16 points and seven rebounds.

• Tech trailed by nine at the half and rallied back, outscoring Clemson 32-23 in the second half to force overtime. The Jackets rallied again in the first OT period, evening the game from a two-possession deficit to pull the game into a second OT.

Near the top of the ACC...

• Turnage - aka 'Snoop' - leads the ACC with 11 games of 10+ rebounds in conference play this season and is one of just three to have fave 15+ rebound games this season. She leads the ACC with 12.0 rebounds per game in conference action and leads the conference in defensive rebounds per game (10.1) by more than a full rebound. She also averages 2.0 blocks per game in ACC play, the third-best mark in the conference.

• Turnage is one of three in the ACC to have a 20-rebound game this season, one of three with 16 games of 10+ rebounds, and one of three to have five games of 15 rebounds. The Atlanta native is one of two to have a 20-rebound ACC game and her 11 games of 10+ rebounds in conference play is an ACC-best.

• Walker is fourth in the ACC with 18.4 PPG in conference play. Walker is one of just four ACC players to have multiple 30-point conference games this season and has the second-most 20-point ACC games with six. She is one of five ACC players to have multiple 30-point games overall this season and one of five to have at least eight games this season with 20 points. Her overall PPG total of 16.2 is sixth-best in the ACC.

• Walker currently has nine games of 17+ points and at least seven rebounds this season, the most by a Yellow Jacket since Aaliyah Whiteside (17) in 2015-16. That number is tied for fifth-most in the ACC this season.

Winding Down this Season...

• Turnage currently has the third-most 15-rebound games in a Tech single season since 2002-03 (5), and is just two away from tying Lorela Cubaj's (2021-22) mark of seven. One more and she ties Cubaj's 2020-21 season for second with six.

• Snoop also has the fourth-most 10+ rebound games (16) by a Jacket since 2002-03, one shy of tying Roddreka Rogers (2014-15) and Lorela Cubaj (2020-21) for second with 17. Cubaj holds the best mark in that span with 22 in the 2021-22 campaign.

• The Yellow Jackets rank second in the ACC and ninth in the country with 30.1 defensive RPG. The team also averaged 28.9 DRPG in conference action, a mark that is third in the ACC.

HEARTBREAK IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

The 99th meeting between Georgia Tech women's basketball and Clemson saw the series' first double-overtime game as the Tigers outlasted the Yellow Jackets, 67-65.

Down by nine going into the halftime locker room, the Jackets outscored the Tigers 32-23 in the second half to get the game into an extra period. Tech rallied back down four in the first OT to force a second overtime, where the Tigers used free throws to take the 67-65 win.

Erica Moon led the Jackets in scoring with a career-high 22 points including 17 in the second half and overtime. Brianna Turnage added her seventh-straight game with double-digit rebounds, tallying a career-high 20. Talayah Walker also had 16 points with seven rebounds. Catherine Alben had a team-high four assists while Savannah Samuel tallied nine points. Ariadna Termis tied her season-high with eight points.

FOSTER AND OFFENSE DEFEAT STANFORD

Efficient offense and a career-high 25 points from La'Nya Foster helped Georgia Tech to a 74-52 win over the Stanford Cardinal.

The Yellow Jackets put together a wire-to-wire win over the Cardina, not giving up the lead at any point in the contest. A ferocious first quarter offensively saw Tech get ahead 21-15 and then the defense turned up the gas, holding Stanford to a season-low seven second-quarter points. Despite a 19-18 third in the favor of the road team, the Jackets powered through with 19 points in the fourth to get its ninth home win of the season and first-ever victory over the Cardinal.

Foster shot 9-for-15 from the floor and set a personal-best with five made three's after tying her previous mark of three in the first quarter. She led the Jackets in scoring, followed by 17 points from Talayah Walker. Walker also had eight rebounds, nearing a double-double. Brianna Turnage had her sixth-straight game with double-digit rebounds, tallying 12 with a team-high seven assists. Erica Moon tied her career-high in scoring with 12 points of her own. Her ledger also included six rebounds and five assists.

Georgia Tech erupted for seven three's in the first half – the most in a half for Tech this season.

LATE RALLY FALLS SHORT VS. CAL

A strong defensive effort and late rally were not enough to lift Georgia Tech women's basketball past California, 63-56, inside McCamish Pavilion.

Tech rebounded from a slow first half by outscoring the Golden Bears in the third quarter, 15-12, and went on a fourth-quarter rally led by Jada Crawshaw. The Darwin, Australia native tied for the team-lead with 14 points, her third-straight game in double figures. Talayah Walker was tied with Crawshaw at 14 points, adding four assists and seven rebounds. Brianna Turnage added her fifth-straight game with double-digit rebounds, collecting a team-high 13. She also led Tech in assists (5) and steals (3).

Savannah Samuel also had key distance shots in the second half to keep the Yellow Jackets within just a couple possessions of the Bears.

The Jackets shot 66.7% in the fourth quarter, their best frame from a shooting standpoint. Walker also continued her impressive season at the charity stripe, going a perfect 4-for-4. Defensively, Tech held the Bears to 26.3% from beyond the arc, adding to a home three-point defensive average that led the conference going into the night.

FAST START LEADS TO WIN OVER BC

A quick start and dominant paint defense saw Georgia Tech women's basketball collect a 70-60 win over Boston College.

Tech got out to a 17-5 first quarter lead after an 8-0 run to open Sunday's showdown. The Yellow Jackets were led by 15 rebounds from Brianna Turnage – her fourth game grabbing at least 10 – and 18 points from Talayah Walker. Catherine Alben (who scored seven of Tech's first seven points) and Jada Crawshaw entered off the bench and scored 13 and 10, respectively, contributing to 37 bench points on the day for Tech.

Walker shot 9-for-13 from the floor while Crawshaw was a perfect 5-for-5. Tech's defense proved to be efficient once again in the matchup, holding the Eagles to 19.2% from beyond the arc (5-for-26) after BC made 16 three-pointers vs. NC State Thursday. Offensively, the Jackets produced 50 points inside the paint to Boston College's 24, the largest margin in that category since Dec. 28 vs. Wofford (+30).

A DOUBLE-DOUBLE IN THE DOME

Four reached double figures scoring but it was not enough to lift Georgia Tech women's basketball past Syracuse at the JMA Wireless Dome, 94-70.

Leading the Yellow Jackets on the court was the play of Brianna Turnage. The Atlanta native recorded her second double-double of the season with 13 points and 11 rebounds. It marked her ACC-leading seventh game reaching double-digit rebounds in conference play. Three more Jackets reached double figures scoring against the Orange, including Jada Crawshaw, Savannah Samuel and Talayah Walker.

Crawshaw entered off the bench Thursday and scored a season-high and team-best 16 points. Walker added her 16th game scoring in double digits this season with 10 – the same number Samuel reached as well. Erica Moon continued her impressive season at the point guard position, leading Tech with seven assists.

SHINING IN THE SUNSHINE STATE

Another high-scoring outing from Talayah Walker and strong defensive effort from Brianna Turnage helped Georgia Tech women's basketball to an 80-69 victory on the road at Florida State.

Trailing by two after the first quarter, Tech put together strong second and fourth quarters, snapping a six-game losing skid to the SeminoleS. Walker led the Jackets with 24 points, her eighth game scoring at least 20 this season. She finished with eight rebounds and just shy of her fourth double-double.

Turnage, who returned to FSU after playing there from 2022-25, erupted again for 18 rebounds, tying her career high. She had seven points as well and played every minute.

Savannah Samuel finished right behind Walker with 15 points, tying her season-high. Catherine Alben and Erica Moon each had 11 points of their own. Florida State entered the game leading the ACC with 8.6 three-pointers made per game and were held to just six on 28.6% shooting.

SNOOP'S BLOCK PARTY

Despite a career night on the defensive side and a near double-double from Brianna Turnage, Georgia Tech women's basketball was dealt a 54-46 defeat by No. 21 North Carolina.

Turnage posted a career-high nine blocks, collecting five in the first 15 minutes – a mark that by itself was the most by a Yellow

Jacket this season. That mark tied the Tech program record and was the most since Allison Echols vs. ETSU on Nov. 24, 1990. It was also the most by an ACC player since March 20, 2015. She finished with 11 rebounds and seven points, nearing her second double-double of the season and second without tallying 10 points. Turnage is the only ACC player this season to have a double-double without scoring in double figures.

'Snoop's' nine blocks also marked the most ever recorded against North Carolina in a single game, breaking a mark set by Genia Beasley (NC State) on Jan. 24, 1979.

Tech fought a back-and-forth opening half against the 21st-ranked Tar Heels but a strong third quarter from the opposition allowed them to pull away for the win. Talayah Walker led Tech offensively with 14 points while Erica Moon and Ariadna Termis tied for the team lead with three assists. Moon's three steals were also a team-best.

TURNAGE AND TECH TAME TIGERS

A strong start coming out of the halftime locker room helped Georgia Tech women's basketball roll to a 58-55 victory over the Clemson Tigers on Jan. 11. Trailing 30-25 at the intermission, the Jackets cruised to a 12-2 run to open the second half and held the Tigers to a season-low six third quarter points on their way to a seventh home win this season.

Brianna Turnage once again made her presence known on the glass, capturing a career-high 18 rebounds. Not to be outdone, Talayah Walker added 22 points for her sixth-straight game scoring at least 20 – and an ACC-leading fifth in conference action.

Ariadna Termis had 10 rebounds of her own, her second game with double-digit boards in her career and first this season.

The victory extends Tech's home win streak over rival Clemson to 12 games, now having captured 23 of the last 28 in the series.

Clemson is the opponent that Tech has faced the most in program history with Jan. 11's meeting being the 98th rendition. The Yellow Jackets now boast a 51-47 series lead.

Tech disrupts a Clemson streak that had the Tigers victorious in seven of their last eight entering the game. A crowd of 6,125 was on-site at McCamish for the Jackets' third ACC win and fourth victory in the last five games – the second-most on-hand for a women's basketball game at the Pavilion.

JACKETS SHOW RESILIENCY AGAINST CAVS

Despite rallying back from multiple runs, Georgia Tech women's basketball dropped a tight game to Virginia, 61-59 on Jan. 8. The Yellow Jackets led 15-13 after the opening quarter but a strong second frame from the Cavaliers willed them to victory, despite Tech allowing just eight fourth quarter points.

Tech was once again led offensively by reigning ACC Player of the Week and AP Honorable Mention Player of the Week Talayah Walker, who scored 21 points with eight rebounds. It marked her fifth-straight game with at least 20 and a conference-leading fourth in league action this season. She and Brianna Turnage played every minute of the Jackets' fifth ACC game, with Turnage collecting nine points with seven rebounds and a career-high five steals.

TAY SCORES 30 IN SECOND-STRAIGHT WIN

Another masterclass on the court from Talayah Walker saw Georgia Tech women's basketball cruise to a 67-59 victory at SMU. Walker did not miss a first half shot and scored 11 in the final frame, en route to a third-straight victory and second-straight in ACC action for the Yellow Jackets. The Mustangs led 4-2 in the early seconds but would not lead again, as Tech scored 21 second-quarter points and outscored SMU 18-11 in the fourth. The Odenton, Md. native finished with her fourth-straight game scoring at least 20, and second straight scoring 30 (30). On top of that, she added 11 rebounds and a career-high seven steals.

Behind her was Catherine Alben's 12 points, including three triples in the second frame. Brianna Turnage joined Walker with 10 rebounds of her own. Jada Crawshaw entered off the bench and provided valuable minutes with nine points, five rebounds and half of Tech's blocks (4). La'Nya Foster had eight in both the points and rebounds category, continuing an impressive stretch of games for the Austin Peay transfer.

Tech shot 54.5% from the floor in the final 10 minutes and 83.3% from the charity stripe, the team's second-straight fourth quarter shooting above 50%. The victory marked the first road win under first-year head coach Karen Blair.

JACKETS STUN NO. 18 IRISH IN OVERTIME

Behind double-doubles from Talayah Walker and Brianna Turnage, Georgia Tech women's basketball completed an upset bid of No. 18 Notre Dame, 95-90, in overtime on the first day of 2026.

Head coach Karen Blair's Yellow Jackets led 16-14 after the first before Notre Dame took advantage of strong second and third periods but only led Tech 59-53 going into the fourth. In that final frame of regulation is where the Jackets made their mark, out-scoring the 18th-ranked team in the nation, 27-21, to send the game to overtime. The back-and-forth overtime period went in favor of Tech behind opportunistic defensive possessions, handing the Jackets their first ranked victory of the season and first ACC win of the Blair Era.

Tech rung in the new year with just its second victory over the Fighting Irish in program history and first since Dec. 13, 2020. Walker collected a career-high 33 points on 10-for-17 shooting and 12-for-14 from the free throw line — on top of 10 rebounds. The Odenton, Md. Native also had a new personal mark of six assists. Turnage's double-double came down the road less-traveled, with 13 rebounds and a career-best 10 assists.

Adding to that was La'Nya Foster, who added a season-high 22 points of her own, just two shy of her career-best. Erica Moon played all 45 minutes Thursday and added a personal-best of her own with 12 points. Catherine Alben entered off the bench with another double-figure game, scoring 18.

Thursday also marked the first victory over Notre Dame at home for the Ramblin' Wreck.

CAREER-BEST DAYS AGAINST THE TERRIERS

Georgia Tech wrapped up 2025 with a statement win over Wofford, 79-63, to close out the non-conference slate. Behind 44 paint points (and only allowing 14), Tech surged to a 28-16 lead after one (on 81.3% shooting) and 48-27 at the half en route to the win.

Brianna Turnage led Tech with a career-high 17 rebounds, the most by a Jacket since Jan. 19, 2023. She also added a career-high seven assists. Erica Moon made her mark on home court Sunday, nearing a triple-double with career-highs in points (11), rebounds (8) and assists (9). Talayah Walker led Tech in scoring once again, posting a career-best 22 points — her third 20-point game in the last five. The Odenton, Md. Native also had seven rebounds.

Joining Moon and Walker in double figures scoring were La'Nya Foster (15), who started her third game this season. Jada Crawshaw entered off the bench and had 14 points with six rebounds in just 16 minutes of action. Georgia Tech had a season-high 29 assists on 32 made shots and shot 50.8% from the floor. It was the most by an ACC by this point in the season and the most by Tech since the record of 33 set against Virginia on Jan. 10, 2002.

WALKER DROPS 20 AGAINST WOLFPACK

Talah Walker recorded her second 20-point game of the season (and of her career) against NC State, in addition to 18 points from Catherine Alben - who made her first start as a Yellow Jacket. La'Nya Foster also stood in for the starting lineup with eight rebounds (team-high).

Walker did not miss a shot in the first half and set a new career-high with four made treys.

HEARTBREAK IN WINSTON-SALEM

A foul called with less than five seconds left sent Wake Forest to the free throw line, allowing for their 57-56 victory it Georgia Tech's 2025-26 ACC opener on the road. Tech led 16-11 after the first and after the game evened at 25 for halftime, the Jackets outscored Wake Forest 18-17 in the third. A hard-fought game saw Tech out-rebounded the Deacs 47-32.

Talah Walker led Tech in scoring (13) followed by 12 from Sa-

D'ASIA AND SAV SHINE IN WEST VIRGINIA

D'Asia Thomas-Harris led Tech with 14 points, followed by 13 from Savannah Samuel in the Jackets' 80-52 loss to RV/RV West Virginia. A gritty, defensive-centric opening half followed by a game-deciding 30-point third from the Mountaineers ended Tech's non-conference road slate for the 2025-26 campaign. Catherine Alben led the Jackets in rebounds (7).

CAREER DAY FOR TAY

Back inside McCamish Pavilion for the first time in 19 days, Georgia Tech posted a season-high 48 first-half points en route to a 72-57 defeat of Norfolk State on Dec. 8. The 48-28 halftime lead allowed the Jackets to fend off a fourth-quarter push from the Spartans, along with a career-best day for sophomore guard Talayah Walker.

Walker erupted for career-highs in points (20), rebounds (13) and assists (5), while accruing her first collegiate double-double (and the third-straight game for a Yellow Jacket). She played every minute of Tech's victory over the Spartans.

Joining Walker in double figures were Catherine Alben (season-high 20 points), Savannah Samuel (11) and D'Asia Thomas-Harris (10). La'Nya Foster made her first start as a Yellow Jacket and had eight rebounds. Erica Moon tied Walker for the team-high five assists.

WELCOME HOME, D'ASIA

Returning to her home state of Texas, D'Asia Thomas-Harris recorded just the second double-double of her career and the second by a Jacket this season with 12 points and a team-high 10 rebounds at Texas A&M. Talayah Walker led the Jackets in scoring with 17.

Georgia Tech led at the half against the Aggies in this ACC-SEC Challenge game, but a third-quarter push from the home team proved to be the difference in the 72-63 decision.

PARADISE MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Flipping the script from fast starts and slower third quarters, the Jackets trailed early to St. John's in game one of the Cayman Islands Classic before rising to take a 58-55 lead going into the fourth. The Red Storm took a slim lead in the closing stages of the game and held on to take the win.

18 points apiece from Alben and Walker led the way for Tech, including 11 from Thomas-Harris who recorded the first trey of her career, on a 3-for-5 clip from beyond the arc. Moon's seven assists led Tech and were the most by a Yellow Jacket in a game at this point.

The next night, Tech led after the first quarter against the Florida Gators before the SEC squad posted solid second and third quarters to take the lead. A late, 24-point fourth-quarter rally got Tech close but the Jackets were unable to topple the Gators, 65-56. Savannah Samuel posted the first double-double by a Yellow Jacket this season (14 points, career-high 10 rebounds) and was joined by Talayah Walker (11 points) and Cayman Islands Classic All-Tournament Team selection Catherine Alben (10 points) in double figures.

It marked Georgia Tech's first-and-second ever games in the Cayman Islands and 31st and 32nd international games overall.

RIVALRY RENEWED

Clean, Old-Fashioned Hate returned to Athens, Ga. on Nov. 23, where the Yellow Jackets led 16-11 after the first quarter but were dealt a tough defeat to rival Georgia, 59-87, for the program's first road game of the season.

Three Jackets finished in double figures, led by Samuel and Alben who had 12 each. Crawshaw added 10 of her own with a career-high four steals.

SAV MAKES A STATEMENT

Savannah Samuel's first start as a Yellow Jacket on Nov. 19 vs. West Georgia saw her lead the team with 15 points in Tech's 68-60 victory. She was one of four Jackets to reach double figures, joined by 11 points apiece from Jada Crawshaw, La'Nya Foster and D'Asia Thomas-Harris. Brianna Turnage once again led the team in boards (11) and assists (5) in the win.

Tech rolled out to a 25-12 lead after one and 44-22 at halftime before a second-half surge from West Georgia closed the gap. The Wolves got as close as five points in the late stages before the Jacket defense slammed the door and secured the victory.

The win marked Tech's eighth-straight win over a DI program from the state of Georgia, the 12th of its last 13th game against an in-state foe and 13th of its last 15.

TOUGH THIRD QUARTER VERSUS DOLPHINS

An aggressive approach on both sides of the ball from Jacksonville resulted in Tech's second defeat of the early season on Nov. 16. A 25-point third quarter from JU was the difference, leading to a 69-64 decision.

Walker once again led Tech in points (15), joined by Turnage (10), who finished a rebound shy of her first double-double in a Yellow Jacket uniform. The Jackets collected 52 rebounds to JU's 39 and delivered 42 points in the paint against the Dolphins.

SHIP SINKERS

After dropping a hard-fought game to Princeton, 67-61, on Nov. 9, the Jackets returned to McCamish Pavilion on Nov. 13 and took out frustrations on Charleston Southern, 87-40. Jumping out of the gate immediately 25-8 in the first quarter, Tech limited the Bucs to just 23.4% from the floor on top of a 56-point performance from the bench. Talayah Walker led the way offensively with a career-high 19 points. She was one of five Jackets to score at least 10. Brianna Turnage had her third 10+-rebound performance in as many games with a career-best 13. She also led the team in assists with a career-tying six.

The Yellow Jackets also shot a season-high 10 three's on another season-high of 45.5% shooting.

BATTLE-TESTED VS. PRINCETON

A back-and-forth showdown against 2025 NCAA Tournament team took center stage in McCamish Pavilion on Nov. 9. Tech forced the Tigers to start 0-for-9 from three and out-rebounded the Tigers, but a fourth-quarter rally from the 2026 Ivy League preseason favorite proved to be the difference.

Alben and Noguero led Tech with 15 and 13 points, respectively. Turnage led Tech with 10 rebounds, her second-straight game in double figures to open the season.

WON-AND-ZERO

The Karen Blair Era opened in style on Nov. 6, when the Yellow Jackets took down Radford, 82-36, for 'Education Day' inside McCamish Pavilion. After a tight first quarter and only up by three, the Tech defense rose to the challenge and did not allow a single basket in the second quarter - the first scoreless defensive quarter in program history - holding the Highlanders to 0-for-12 from the floor. GT outscored Radford 69-26 in the final 30 minutes of game time and out-rebounded the Highlanders 51-23 in the game.

The victory marked the 13th-straight home-opening win for Tech and the fewest points allowed in a head coach's debut game in program history.

Talah Walker led the charge with 16 points while Brianna Turnage led the team in rebounds (11) and Erica Moon in assists (6).
