This is just the second overall meeting between the two programs with Cal having won the previous matchup in a 79-65 victory at Cal last year.

Cal is 1 of 21 schools in the country to have played at least eight Quad 1 games this season. The Bears have been competitive in each of those contests with the average margin of defeat at 8.5 points with three losses at four points or less.

Going back to the 2024-25 season, Cal is 27-3 overall at home. Going back to the 2023-24 season, Cal has won 19 straight nonconference regular season games.

The Bears are coming off their best season under Smith in which they:

- Earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2018-19.
- Won 25 games for the first time since 2012-13.
- Maintained an Associated Press Top 25 ranking for eight straight weeks (going as high as No. 18).
- Set a program record for home wins in a season (16), going 16-1 at Haas Pavilion.
- Set a program record for 3-pointers in a season (297).
- Defeated multiple ranked teams.
- Advanced to the quarterfinals of the ACC Tournament.

Cal is 3-2 against teams from the 2025 NCAA Tournament with wins over Notre Dame, Grand Canyon and Harvard and losses to Vanderbilt and USC.

Lulu Twidale was named to the Ann Meyers Drysdale Award Preseason Watchlist and Sakima Walker was named to the Lisa Leslie Award Preseason Watchlist.

On Nov. 17, Morris was named the ACC's Rookie of the Week after helping power Cal to a 3-0 week. For the week, she averaged 9.7 points and 4.3 rebounds per game while leading the team with 13 assists and seven 3-pointers.

HEAD COACH CHARMIN SMITH

Charmin Smith is an award-winning coach, former professional player, and active board member who has dedicated her career to progressing equity and opportunity. The true definition of a trailblazer, Smith is the first-ever Black Head Coach for the Cal women's basketball program and is on a mission to leverage her platform to lead societal change through sports.

Fresh off her best season as head coach at Cal, Smith signed a new five-year contract in the spring of 2025 that will retain her through the 2029-30 season.

In her sixth year as head coach in 2024-25 Smith guided the Golden Bears to their first NCAA Tournament appearance (earning an at-large bid as an eight seed) since 2018-19, their first 25-win season which mark the most since the 2012-13 season and Cal's first AP Top 25 ranking since the 2018-19 season coming in as high as No. 18. That season also saw the Bears break the program record for home wins (16) and 3-pointers in a season (297), earn multiple victories over nationally-ranked opponents (No.19 Alabama and No. 21 NC State) resulting in the team being named the NCAA's Team of the Week and complete their first sweep of Stanford since the 1985-86 season. For the second straight year, Smith also signed a Top 25 (ESPN) recruiting class that features Cal's first McDonald's All-American since Kristine Anigwe (2015) in No. 20 ranked Puff Morris and No.70 ranked Taylor Barnes.

In her fifth year as head coach in 2023-24, the Bears won their most overall (19) and conference (seven) games since the 2018-19 season. Smith also guided Cal into the postseason as the Bears earned an at-large bid and a No. 2 seed in the inaugural NCAA Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament. Under Smith's guidance that season, the team also had its first weekend home and road sweeps of Pac-12 schools (both against Washington and Washington State) since 2018-19, swept Oregon for the first time since 2012-13 and set a program record for 3-pointers (282) in a season. The season sweeps of Oregon, Washington and Washington State marked the first time Cal has swept three different Pac-12 schools since 2017-18. The Bears also advanced to the quarterfinals of that season's Pac-12 Tournament for the first time since 2019-20. Smith was named ESPN's Coach of the Week on Jan. 8 of that season.

Smith's unwavering dedication to empowering players to surpass their potential, her commitment to enhancing the representation of Black individuals in the sport, and her resolute drive to inspire action toward racial justice solidify her position as an influential leader in basketball and beyond.

Regarded as a 2025, 2024 and 2020 Top 100 Most Influential Figures in Women's College Basketball (Silver Waves Media), Smith's legacy at Cal Berkeley—beginning with her transition from Associate Head Coach to Head Coach, highlights her strategic acumen and commitment to player development. Her storied tenure includes a 2013 Final Four appearance and an impressive 10 postseason appearances.

Currently serving on the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) board, Smith is renowned for her role as a Board Member and co-chair of the Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Committee. Her dedication extends far beyond the basketball court, as evidenced by her impactful contributions to the Cal Athletics Equity Inclusion and Diversity Task Force and her pivotal role in the Chancellor's Counsel for Students of Color and Multicultural Engagement.

Smith experienced a number of successes in her first year as head coach, leading the Golden Bears to three upsets over higher-ranked opponents. The first came in the form of a 4-point victory over No. 20 Arkansas on November 24 and then a win over No. 13 Arizona on the road in the regular season finale. The Bears completed their second upset in the same week as just four days later, they defeated 5-seeded and No. 22-ranked Arizona State in the opening round of the 2020 Pac-12 Women's Basketball Tournament in Las Vegas. The win over the Sun Devils made the Golden Bears just the second 12-seed to win a game in the Pac-12 Tournament.

Smith has helped coach the Bears to the top three individual seasons in program history. In her first two years in Berkeley, Cal set then-school records for wins in a season, finishing both years with 27-7 marks before Cal pushed itself into elite status with the record-breaking 32-4 Final Four campaign in 2012-13. The Bears also recorded their best Pac-12 record (17-1) and won their first conference regular-season crown that season. Smith has helped lead the Bears to the postseason in 11 of her 13 seasons and was also part of the staff that led the Bears to the 2010 WNIT championship.

Smith's previous roles at Stanford and Boston College allowed her to build upon impact, leading her teams to multiple NCAA appearances and historic victories. Her experience as a point guard for the WNBA's Minnesota Lynx and Seattle Storm later influenced her time as an Assistant Coach for the New York Liberty.

As a standout player on the Stanford women's basketball team, Smith was a crucial component of the team's three NCAA Final Four Appearances and three Pac-10 Conference Championships between 1995 to 1997. Following her collegiate playing career, Smith joined the professional ranks in the ABL from 1997-98 as a member of the Portland Power and played three years in the WNBA, along with one year in the Swedish Basketball League.

Coupled with her impressive career in basketball, Smith also pursued the challenging discipline of Muay Thai martial arts. As a testament to her relentless spirit, Smith applies the lessons from her passion off the court to her coaching approach on the court.

Her leadership extends to a realm where the core values are honor and discipline, where she embodies the ethos that actions must follow words. And her steadfast commitment and achievements have set her apart to lead the future of sports.

By The Numbers:
8 – Top 25 recruiting classes
7 – WNBA draft picks coached
13 – All-Americans developed

Series
This is just the second overall meeting between the two programs with Cal having won the previous matchup in a 79-65 victory at Cal last year.

About Georgia Tech
Georgia Tech is currently 10-13 overall and 5-6 in ACC play and are led by first-year head coach Karen Blair who came from Maryland after leading the Terps to five straight NCAA appearances. The Yellow Jackets feature Talayah Walker who leads the team in scoring (16.3 points per game) and Brianna Turnage who is ranked second in the ACC in rebounding (9.8).

Last time out vs the Yellow Jackets
The California women's basketball team went up by 14 points after the first quarter and didn't look back as it earned a wire-to-wire 79-65 victory against Georgia Tech at Haas Pavilion on Thursday night. Ioanna Krimili knocked down five 3-pointers and moved into 10th place on the NCAA's all-time career list passing Belmont's Darby Maggard. Michelle Onyiah was dominant in the paint, finishing just one point shy of her career high with 24 points (11-of-16) along with 10 rebounds for her ninth double-double of the season and fourth in the last seven contests.

Lulu Twidale added 17 points and tied her career high with six assists while Marta Suarez had an effective game with eight points and eight rebounds to go along with four assists.

The win gave the Golden Bears (23-7, 11-6 ACC) their 15th home win of the season – tying a program record – and locked them into the seven seed for next week's ACC Tournament as the Yellow Jackets (21-8, 9-8) were one game back of Cal in the eighth spot heading into the game. Cal shot 53.6% from the floor and had a 42-28 advantage in the paint.

Four different Bears scored a bucket in the opening four minutes of the game and Cal used a 12-0 run powered by a Suarez triple and Jayda Noble 3-point play to end the first quarter with a 23-9 lead.

The closest Georgia Tech got in the game was eight points after opening the second quarter on a 7-1 run before Krimili hit her second triple of the game to stem the tide. The Bears regained control of the game by hitting on 7-of-9 from the field to end the half with a 40-26 lead. Twidale's 12 and Onyiah's 10 points led the Bears at the break.

Cal never let its lead slip under 10 points in the third quarter and got its biggest lead of the game at 21 points when Krimili hit her fourth 3-pointer with 5:00 left in the game.

Georgia Tech was led by Kara Dunn's 18 points and six rebounds.
