GAME 14

SERIES HISTORY

OVERALL: 15-73

LAST GAME: 9-4 W, Feb. 24, 2026

INSIDE THE SERIES

LAST TIME ON THE DIAMOND

Georgia State closed out its weekend series with a 4-2 victory over Belmont on Sunday afternoon at E.S. Rose Park. Maginnis led the Panthers offensively with two hits, including the home run. Williams added a hit and an RBI, while Nick Garagozzo recorded a double. Georgia State totaled eight hits in the contest.

A LOOK AT THE SERIES

The two teams match up for their second game of the season. The Panthers pulled the upset over #2 Georgia Tech earlier this season. The Panthers were led by pitchers Cole Roberts, Cooper Lewis, and Will Bartoski who held the potent Yellow Jacket offense to 4 runs.

TOP STORYLINES

- After a splitting a road series at Belmont, the Panthers return to action hosting #3 Georgia Tech at Gwinnett Field.
- Georgia State knocked off #2 Georgia Tech 9-4 on Feb. 24. The Panthers were led by Wills Maginnis who finished with two hits and two RBIs, and freshman Cooper Lewis who electrified out of the pen with two innings of scoreless relief including throwing 99MPH multiple times.
- Both teams have produced runs early this season, but in different ways. Georgia Tech has been one of the most explosive offenses in the country, hitting .422 as a team while averaging nearly nine runs per game. The Yellow Jackets have already hit 24 home runs in just 12 games and feature multiple everyday players hitting over .400. Georgia State has leaned on balance and depth, batting .277 as a club with 17 home runs and 89 total runs scored through 13 games. Five regular starters are hitting .300 or better, and the Panthers have shown the ability to string together quality at-bats throughout the lineup.
- The Panthers went 15-11 in games outside of the conference last season.
- The 2025 season was a historic offensive campaign for the Panthers finishing 34th in the country with 89 home runs, 2nd in the Sun Belt with 114 doubles, and 14th in the country in walks with 344.

HEAD COACH BRAD STROMDAHL

Since joining the Georgia State staff in 2019 as the head coach for baseball, Brad Stromdahl has worked to transform the Panther program, creating a winning culture and building the foundation for success.

After starting the Georgia Gwinnett program from scratch in 2013, Stromdahl compiled a 328-104 record in seven seasons as head coach at the Lawrenceville, Ga., school, averaging 47 wins per season. He earned his first head coaching position after five seasons (2007-11) as an assistant coach at Georgia State, serving as recruiting coordinator and hitting instructor during the Panthers' most successful run.

Stromdahl's Grizzlies posted four 50-win seasons, reached the Avista-NAIA Baseball World Series three times, claimed the No. 1 ranking in the NAIA coaches' poll, captured four Association of Independent Institutions (A.I.I.) titles and boasted an NAIA Player of the Year. Nine Grizzlies were drafted by Major League Baseball organizations in his final six years at GGC.

Stromdahl earned A.I.I. Coach of the Year honors in five of his seven seasons at GGC: 2019, 2018, 2016, 2015 and 2014.

During his five-year tenure as an assistant at Georgia State (2007-11), Stromdahl helped the Panthers average more than 35 victories over his final four seasons, highlighted by the 2009 Colonial Athletic Association title and NCAA

Atlanta Regional berth--both firsts for the program--and a GSU-record 39 wins.

He served as the hitting instructor for the most prolific offensive teams in GSU annals as the Panthers hit .300 or better in each of his five seasons, led by the 2010 squad that shattered nearly every offensive school record with a .356 batting average, a Division I-leading 10.5 runs per game and 82 home runs.

Before coming to Georgia State, Stromdahl spent three seasons at Central Michigan (2004-06), where his primary responsibilities were hitting instruction, working with infielders and assisting with recruiting. CMU made three straight appearances in the Mid-American Conference Tournament, including the MAC regular-season title in 2004 and a 42-18 record in 2005.

He spent one season at Marshall (2003) and four seasons at Division II Southwest Minnesota State (1999-02), his alma mater, while also coaching summer baseball in the Coastal Plains League (2004) and the Northwoods League (2006).

Stromdahl played collegiately for two seasons at Bethany Lutheran College in Mankato, Minn., and two seasons at Southwest Minnesota State before pursuing professional baseball. He received his bachelor's degree in business administration from SMSU in 2002 and then earned a master's in sports administration from Central Michigan.
